SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXIV OF 1858.

An Act to regulate proceedings in Lunacy in the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter.

WHEREAS the several Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charters within the British territories in India, are authorized and empowered by their respective Charters to appoint guardians and keepers of the persons and estates of Lunatics, and to enquire into, hear, and determine questions of alleged Lunacy by inspection of the person or by such other ways and means by which the truth may best be discovered and known ; and whereas, according to the practice of the said Courts, questions of alleged Lunacy are determined by inquisition taken before a jury, and it is expedient to lessen the cost and to alter the mode of enquiry into such questions, and also to empower the said Courts to make provision for the due management of the estates of Lunatics ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for any of the said Courts of Judicature, on such application as is hereinafter mentioned, to make an order directing an enquiry whether any person (subject to the jurisdiction of the Court), who is alleged to be Lunatic, is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. The order may also contain directions for other enquiries concerning the nature of the property belonging to the alleged Lunatic, the persons who are his relatives or next of kin, the time during which he has been of unsound mind, or such other matters as to the Court shall seem proper.

Court may order enquiry as to persons alleged to be insane.

Order for enquiry what to contain.

II. Application for such enquiry may be made by any persons related by blood or marriage to the alleged Lunatic, or by the Advocate General.

Application by whom to be made.

III. The order made by the Court upon such application shall direct the enquiry to be by the Court itself. It shall nevertheless be lawful for the Court, if it see sufficient cause for so doing, to direct the enquiry to be executed in Chambers before a single Judge of the Court. Reasonable notice of the time and place appointed for the enquiry shall be given to the alleged Lunatic. If it shall appear that the alleged Lunatic is in such a state that personal service on him would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it shall think proper. The Court may also, if it think fit, direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any person related by blood or marriage to the alleged Lunatic. If the enquiry be directed to be executed before a single Judge, it shall be lawful for the alleged Lunatic, at any time before the day fixed for the enquiry, to demand an enquiry before the full Court. In such case the enquiry shall be by the Court, and a further day shall be appointed for making such enquiry ; and in such case the Court may direct such further notices (if any) to be given, as it may think requisite.

Enquiry to be by the Court.

Court may direct enquiry by a single Judge.

Notice of enquiry to be given to Lunatic.

Service of notice.

Lunatic may demand enquiry before full Court.

IV. The Court may, at any time after the application, require the alleged Lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place, within twenty miles of the place of residence of the said Lunatic, as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged Lunatic.

Court may, at any time after the application, require attendance of Lunatic for the purpose of being personally examined.

V. The Court may likewise, at any time after the application for such enquiry, make an order authorizing any person or persons, to be therein named, to have access to the alleged Lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination.

And may authorize persons to have access to the Lunatic for the purpose of examination.

VI. The attendance and examination of the alleged Lunatic under the provisions of the two last preceding Sections, shall, if the alleged Lunatic be a woman who, according to the custom and manners of the Country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the rules in force for the examination of such persons in other cases.

Rules respecting attendance and examination where the alleged Lunatic is a woman of rank.

VII. If the enquiry is made by a Judge of the Court, the Judge executing the enquiry shall, while so employed, have power (subject to the provisions of the last preceding Section) personally to examine the alleged Lunatic and take such evidence, on oath or otherwise, and call for such information as he may think fit or the said Court may direct in order to ascertain whether the alleged Lunatic is or is not of unsound mind, and shall have the like powers and authority as are or may be vested by law in a Judge or Master of the said Court for the investigation of matters referred to them by the Court. The Judge shall report to the Court the result of the enquiry.

Powers of Judge executing the enquiry.

VIII. If the alleged Lunatic be not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, and the enquiry cannot conveniently be made in either of the modes hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct the enquiry to be made before any principal Court of original jurisdiction in Civil cases within whose local jurisdiction the alleged Lunatic may be, and such last mentioned Court shall accordingly proceed to make such enquiry in the same manner as if the alleged Lunatic were subject to its jurisdiction, and shall certify its finding upon the matters of enquiry to the Court directing the enquiry. The evidence taken upon the enquiry shall be recorded by the Court in the English language in the form of a narrative; and a copy thereof, certified by the Court, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks the Court may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the enquiry was directed.

Court may in certain cases direct enquiry to be made before any principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction within whose local jurisdiction the alleged Lunatic may be.

IX. If the report of the Judge or the finding of a Court under the last preceding Section appear to the Court directing the enquiry to be defective or insufficient in point of form, it shall be lawful for such last mentioned Court either to amend the same or to refer it back to the Judge or the Court which made the enquiry to be amended.

If report of Judge or finding of Court appear defective or insufficient in form, it may be amended.

X. It shall be lawful for the Court, on the application of the person at whose instance the order directing an inquiry was made or on the application of the alleged Lunatic or of any of his relatives authorized by the Court to make the application, to direct a new trial of the matters of enquiry according to the usual course and practice of the Court in directing new trials in Civil cases. If such application be granted in a case tried by a single Judge, the order granting the same shall direct the enquiry to be made by the full Court. If the application be granted in a case tried under Section VIII, the Court directing the new trial may give such directions regarding the same as it shall see fit.

Court may direct new trial.

XI. The Court shall make such order as may appear just respecting the costs of any enquiry under this Act, and may include therein such remuneration to Physicians and Surgeons as the Court, having regard to the nature of the enquiry, shall deem reasonable.

Costs of enquiry.

XII. If no new trial be directed, the finding of the Court to which the application for enquiry was made, if the enquiry have been made by such Court, or the report of the Judge or the finding of the Court to which the enquiry may have been referred under the provisions of Section VIII, as the case may be, shall be of the same force and effect, and be proceeded on in the same manner in regard to the appointment of Committees of the person and estate of the Lunatic, as the inquisition now according to practice taken upon the oath of a jury.

Finding of Court or report by Judge to be proceeded on, in regard to appointment of Committees, as an inquisition.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Court, on the appointment of Committees of the person and estate of a Lunatic, to direct by the order of appointment, or by any subsequent order, that the person to whom the charge of the estate is committed, shall have such powers for the management thereof as to the Court shall seem necessary and proper, reference being had to the nature of the property, whether moveable or immoveable, of which the estate may consist. But such powers shall not extend to the sale or charge by way of mortgage of the estate or any part thereof, or to the letting of any immoveable property unless for a term not exceeding three years.

On appointment of Committee, the Court may give certain powers for management of Lunatic's estates.

XIV. The Master of the Court shall be at liberty, without an order of reference, to receive any proposal and conduct any enquiry respecting the management of the estate of a Lunatic, if such proposal relate to any matter which the Committee of the estate has not been empowered by an order under the last preceding Section to dispose of. The Master may likewise, without reference, receive and enquire into any proposal relating to the sale or charge by way of mortgage of the estate or of any part thereof, or to the letting of any immoveable property for a term exceeding three years.

Master to receive proposals concerning management, sale, &c., of estate.

XV. The Master shall report to the Court on the proposal; and the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, make such order upon the report and respecting the costs, as shall, under the circumstances, seem just.

Court to make order upon the report of the Master.

XVI. The Court or the Master shall once in the matter of each Lunacy, and may afterwards from time to time, determine whether any one or more and (if any) how many and which of the relatives or next of kin shall attend before the Master, at the cost of the estate, in any proceeding connected with the management thereof; and, if any such relative or next of kin is an infant, may from time to time appoint a fit person to be his guardian for the purposes of the Lunacy.

Master to determine what persons to attend at any enquiry, at the cost of the estate.

Appointment of guardian of infant relative.

Application to Court in the first instance.

XVII. The Court may, on application made to it by petition concerning any matter whatsoever connected with the Lunacy, make such order, subject to the provisions of this Act, respecting the application and the costs thereof, and of the consequent proceedings, as shall, under the circumstances, seem just.

Lunatic's property may be sold for debts, maintenance, &c.

XVIII. The Court may, if it appears to be just, or for the Lunatic's benefit, order that any property, moveable or immoveable, of the Lunatic, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, contingency, or expectancy, be sold or charged by way of mortgage or otherwise disposed of, as may seem most expedient for the purpose of raising money to be applied for any of the following purposes:—

1. The payment of the Lunatic's debts, including any debt incurred for his maintenance or otherwise for his benefit.

2. The discharge of any incumbrance on his estate.

3. The payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance and the maintenance of his family, including the expenses of his removal to Europe, when he shall be so removed, and all expenses incidental thereto.

4. The payment of the costs of any enquiry under this Act, and of any costs incurred by order or under the authority of the Court.

Committee to execute conveyances.

XIX. The Committee of the Lunatic's estate shall, in the name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute all such conveyances and instruments of transfer relative to any sale, mortgage, or other disposition of his estate as the Court shall order. In like manner such Committee shall, under the order of the Court, exercise all powers whatsoever vested in a Lunatic, whether the same are vested in him for his own benefit or in the character of trustee or guardian.

To execute powers.

Court may order performance of contract.

XX. Where a person, having contracted to sell or otherwise dispose of his estate or any part thereof, afterwards becomes Lunatic, the Court may, if the contract is such as the Court thinks ought to be performed, direct the Committee of the estate to execute such conveyances and to do such other acts in fulfilment of the contract as it shall think proper.

Member of partnership becoming Lunatic.

XXI. If a member of a partnership firm be found Lunatic, the Court may, on the application of the other partners, or of any person who appears to the Court to be entitled to require the same, dissolve the partnership; and thereupon or upon a dissolution by decree of Court or otherwise by due course of law, the Committee of the estate may, in the name and on behalf of the Lunatic, join with the other partners in disposing of the partnership property upon such terms, and shall do all such acts for carrying into effect the dissolution of the partnership, as the Court shall think proper.

Disposal of business premises.

XXII. Where a Lunatic has been engaged in business, the Court may, if it appear to be for the Lunatic's benefit that the business premises should be disposed of, order the Committee of the estate to sell and dispose of the same; and the monies arising from such sale shall be applied in such manner as the Court shall direct.

Committee may dispose of lease.

XXIII. Where a Lunatic is entitled to a lease or under-lease, and it appears to be for the benefit of his estate that it should be disposed of, the Committee of the estate may, by order of the Court, surrender, assign, or otherwise dispose of the same to such person for such valuable or nominal consideration, and upon such terms as the Court shall think fit.

When Court of Wards may assume charge of land belonging to a Lunatic.

XXIV. If a Lunatic is possessed of any landed property situate beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, which, by the law in force in the Presidency wherein such land is situated, subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the said Court of Wards may assume the charge of such landed property and manage the same according to the rules for the time being in force for such management.

Proviso.

Provided that in such case no further proceedings in respect of the Lunacy shall be taken under any such law, nor shall it be competent to the Court of Wards or to any Collector to appoint a guardian of the person of the said Lunatic or a manager of the estate, except of the landed property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid. Provided also

Surplus income of the land, after payment of Government Revenue, &c., to be disposed of as the Supreme Court shall direct.

that the surplus of the income of such landed property after providing for the discharge of the Government Revenue and expenses of management, shall be disposed of from time to time in such manner as the Supreme Court shall direct, and not otherwise. Provided further that nothing contained in this Section shall affect the powers given to the Supreme Court by Sections XVIII, XIX, and XX of this Act or (except so far as relates to the management of the said landed property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid) the powers given by any other Section of this Act.

Provisions of this Section not to affect certain powers given to the Supreme Court by the Act.

Stock transferable in India belonging to Lunatic may be ordered to be transferred.

XXV. Where any Stock or Government Securities or any Share in a Company (transferable within the said territories or the dividends of which are payable there) is standing in the name of, or is vested in a Lunatic beneficially entitled thereto, or in a Committee of the estate of a Lunatic, or in a trustee for him, and the Committee dies intestate, or himself becomes Lunatic, or is out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or it is uncertain whether the Committee be living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the Stock, Securities, or Shares, or to receive and pay the dividends to a new Committee, or as he directs, within fourteen days after being required by him to do so, then the Court may order some fit person to make such transfer, or to transfer the same, and to receive and pay over the dividends in such manner as the Court may direct; and such transfer or payment shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Stock of Lunatic residing out of India, and not within the United Kingdom, may be ordered to be transferred.

XXVI. Where any such Stock or Government Securities or Share in a Company is standing in the name of, or vested in any person residing out of the said Territories, and not in any part of the United Kingdom, the Court, upon being satisfied that such person has been declared of unsound mind, and that his personal estate has been vested in a curator or manager, according to the laws of the place where he is residing, may order some fit person to make such transfer of the Stock, Securities, or Shares, or of any part thereof, to such curator or manager or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the dividends and proceeds, as the Court may think fit; and any act done in pursuance of such order shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Court may in certain cases apply property for Lunatic's maintenance without appointing Committee.

XXVII. If it appears to the Court, having regard to the situation and condition in life of the Lunatic and his family and the other circumstances of the case, to be expedient that his property should be made available for his or their maintenance in a direct and inexpensive manner, it may, instead of appointing a Committee of the estate, order that the property (if money,) or (if of any other description) the produce thereof, when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit, to be applied for the purpose aforesaid; and all payments so made shall be a good discharge to the person making the same.

Like power in case of temporary Lunacy.

XXVIII. If it appears to the Court that the unsoundness of mind of a Lunatic is in its nature temporary, and that it is expedient to make temporary provision for his maintenance or for the maintenance of his family, the Court may, in like manner as under the last preceding Section, direct his property or a sufficient part of it to be applied for the purpose aforesaid.

Superseding proceedings in Lunacy.

XXIX. When any person has been found of unsound mind, and it shall be shown to the Court, either on the application of such person or of any other person acting on his behalf, or on the information of any other person, that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court may make an order for enquiry whether such person is or is not still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. The enquiry shall be conducted in the same manner and subject to the same rules as are hereinbefore prescribed for an enquiry into the unsoundness of mind of an alleged Lunatic; and if it be found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in the matter of the Lunacy to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as under the circumstances of the case shall appear proper.

Power of Court to make general orders.

XXX. The Court may, from time to time, make such orders, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as shall seem meet for carrying into effect the purposes of this Act, and for regulating the mode of proceeding before the Court or before a Judge of the Court, or the Master in matters of Lunacy.

Powers of Master to be exercised by a Judge or Recorder.

XXXI. Every power given by this Act to the Master of any of the said Courts may also be exercised by a Judge of any of the said Courts, and shall in the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca be exercised by the Recorder of the said Court or of any division thereof.

Interpretation. "Lunatic." Number. Gender.

XXXII. Unless the contrary appears from the context, the word "Lunatic," as used in this Act, shall mean any person found by due course of law to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs. Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number. Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXXV OF 1858.

An Act to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature: and to prescribe general rules by which the state of mind of persons not subject to such jurisdiction, who are alleged to be Lunatic, may be enquired into and ascertained; It is enacted as follows:—

Regulations repealed.

I. So much of Section V Regulation X. 1793, of Section IX Regulation LII. 1803, of Regulation I. 1800, and of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805 (extended to Benares by Section II Regulation VI. 1822), of the Bengal Code; and so much of Sections VI and VII Regulation V. 1804, and of Sections XX and XXII of the said Regulation (as modified by Section III Regulation X. 1831), of the Madras Code, as relate to Lunatics or idiots—are hereby repealed.

Civil Court on application may institute enquiry when a person possessed of property is alleged to be a Lunatic.

II. Whenever any person not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts, who is possessed of property, is alleged to be a Lunatic, the Civil Court, within whose jurisdiction such person is residing, may, upon such application as is hereinafter mentioned, institute an enquiry for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs.

III. Application for such enquiry may be made by any relative of the alleged Lunatic or by any Public Curator appointed under Act XIX of 1841, or by the Government Pleader, or, if the property of the alleged Lunatic consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, by the Collector of the District in which it is situate. If the property or any part thereof be of such a description as by the law in force in any Presidency where such property is situate would subject the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the application may be made by the Collector on behalf of the Court of Wards

Application by whom to be made.

IV. When the Civil Court is about to institute any such enquiry as aforesaid, it shall cause notice to be given to the alleged Lunatic of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the enquiry. If it shall appear that the alleged Lunatic is in such a state that personal service on him would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it shall think proper. The Court may also direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any relative of the alleged Lunatic.

Notice of enquiry to be given to Lunatic.

Service of notice.

V. The Civil Court may require the alleged Lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged Lunatic. The Court may likewise make an order authorizing any person or persons therein named to have access to the alleged Lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination.

Court may require attendance of, and may authorize persons to have access to Lunatic for the purpose of examination.

VI. The attendance and examination of the alleged Lunatic under the provisions of the last preceding Section shall, if the alleged Lunatic be a woman who according to the manners and customs of the Country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the rules in force for the examination of such persons in other cases

Rules respecting attendance and examination where the alleged Lunatic is a woman of rank.

VII. The Civil Court, if it think fit, may appoint two or more persons to act as Assessors to the Court in the said enquiry. Upon the completion of the enquiry, the Court shall determine whether the alleged Lunatic is or is not of unsound mind, and may make such order as to the payment of the costs of the enquiry by the person upon whose application it was made, or out of the estate of the alleged Lunatic if he be adjudged to be of unsound mind, or otherwise, as it may think proper.

Appointment of Assessors.

Order of Court.

VIII. If the alleged Lunatic reside at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the Civil Court to which the application shall have been made is held, the said Court may issue a Commission to any subordinate Court to make the enquiry, and thereupon the said subordinate Court shall conduct the enquiry in the manner hereinbefore provided. On the completion of the enquiry, the subordinate Court shall report its proceedings with the opinions of the Assessors if Assessors have been appointed and its own opinion on the case; and thereupon the Civil Court shall make such order in the case as it may think proper.

Issue of the Commission to a subordinate Court.

Report of subordinate Court.

Order of Civil Court.

IX. When a person has been adjudged to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, if the estate of such person or any part thereof consist of property which by the law in force in any Presidency subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the Court of Wards shall be authorized to take charge of the same. In all other cases, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, the Civil Court shall appoint a Manager of the estate. Any near relative of the Lunatic or the Public Curator, or, if there be no Public Curator, any other suitable person, may be appointed Manager.

Management of Lunatic's estate, if consisting of property subject to Court of Wards.

In all other cases.

X. Whenever a Manager of the estate of a Lunatic is appointed by the Civil Court, the Court shall appoint a fit person to be Guardian of the person of the Lunatic. The Manager, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. Provided always that the legal heir of the Lunatic shall not in any case be appointed Guardian of his person.

Appointment of Guardian by Civil Court.

XI. If the estate consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land not subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the Civil Court, instead of appointing a Manager, may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the property and a Guardian of the person of the Lunatic. All the proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Management of Lunatic's estate if consisting of land not subject to Court of Wards.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XII. If the person appointed to be Manager of the estate of a Lunatic, or the person appointed to be Guardian of a Lunatic's person, shall be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, may fix such allowance or allowances to be paid out of the estate of the Lunatic as, under the circumstances of the case, may be thought suitable.

Remuneration of Managers and Guardians.

XIII. The person appointed to be Guardian of a Lunatic's person shall have the care of his person and maintenance. When a distinct Guardian is appointed, the Manager shall pay to the Guardian such allowance as shall be fixed by the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for the maintenance of the Lunatic and of his family.

Duties of Guardian.

XIV. Every Manager of the estate of a Lunatic appointed as aforesaid may exercise the same powers in the management of the estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a Lunatic: and may collect and pay all just claims, debts, and liabilities due to or by the estate of the Lunatic. But no such Manager shall have power to sell or mortgage the estate or any part thereof, or to grant a lease of any immoveable property for any period exceeding five years, without an order of the Civil Court previously obtained.

Managers to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

XV. Every person appointed by the Civil Court or by the Collector to be Manager of the estate of a Lunatic shall, within six months from the date of his appointment, deliver in Court or to the Collector, as the case may be, an inventory of the landed property belonging to the Lunatic and of all such sums of money, goods, and effects, as he shall receive on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And every such Manager shall furnish to the Court or to the Collector annually, within three months of the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the sums received and disbursed on account of the estate and the balance remaining in his hands. If any relative of the Lunatic, or any public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement, or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Manager and enquire summarily into the matter and make such order thereon as it shall think proper; or the Court, at its discretion, may refer any such petition to any subordinate Court or to the Collector if the Manager was appointed by the Collector.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or accounts be impugned.

Manager to pay proceeds of estates into the Public Treasury.

XVI. All sums received by a Manager on account of any estate in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Lunatic or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Relative may sue for an account.

XVII. It shall be lawful for any relative of a Lunatic to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Removal of Manager or Guardian.

XVIII. The Civil Court, for any sufficient cause, may remove any Manager appointed by the Court, not being a Public Curator, and may appoint such Curator or any other fit person in his room, and may compel the person so removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received or disbursed by him. The Court may also, for any sufficient cause, remove any Guardian appointed by the Court. In like manner the Collector for any sufficient cause may remove any Manager or Guardian appointed by the Collector, and the Court on the application of the Collector shall compel any Manager so removed to deliver his accounts and the property in his hands.

A Manager refusing to furnish accounts, may be fined by the Court, &c.

XIX. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any Manager of the estate of a Lunatic who wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver his accounts or any property in his hands within the prescribed time or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall deliver such accounts or property.

Judge may in certain cases apply property for Lunatic's maintenance without appointing any Manager.

XX. If it appears to the Civil Court, having regard to the situation and condition in life of the Lunatic and his family, and the amount and description of his property, to be unnecessary to appoint a Manager of the estate as hereinbefore provided, the Court may, instead of appointing such Manager, order that the property (if money) or (if of any other description) the produce thereof, when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit, to be applied for the maintenance of the Lunatic and his family.

Procedure for delivery of estate to a person who has ceased to be of unsound mind.

XXI. When any person has been adjudged to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, if such person or any other person acting on his behalf, or having or claiming any interest in respect of his estate, shall represent by petition to the Civil Court, or if the Court shall be informed in any other manner, that the unsoundness of mind of such person has ceased, the Court may institute an enquiry for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is or is not still of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs. The enquiry shall be conducted in the manner provided in Section IV and the four following Sections of this Act; and if it be adjudged that such person has ceased to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, the Court shall make an order for his estate to be delivered over to him, and such order shall be final.

Orders to be open to appeal.

XXII. Except as otherwise herein provided, all orders made by a Civil Court or by any subordinate Court under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals in miscellaneous cases.

Interpretation.

"Lunatic."

"Civil Court."

Gender.

XXIII. The word "Lunatic," as used in this Act, unless the contrary appears from the context, shall mean every person found by due course of law to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs. The expression "Civil Court" shall mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the District. Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXVI OF 1858.

An Act relating to Lunatic Asylums.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the reception and detention of Lunatics in Asylums established for that purpose; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. The Executive Government of any Presidency or place, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may establish Asylums for the reception and detention of Lunatics at such places within the limits of the said Government as may be deemed proper. Any such Executive Government may also, if it think fit, grant licenses to any private persons for the establishment of such Asylums within the said limits, and may withdraw such licenses.

Lunatic Asylums may be established by Government or may be licensed.

II. The management of every Lunatic Asylum and the care and custody of its inmates shall be regulated according to such rules as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Executive Government. The Executive Government shall appoint for every Asylum not less than three visitors, one of whom at least shall be a Medical Officer. The Inspector of Jails (where such office exists) shall be a visitor ex-officio of all the Asylums within the circle of his inspection.

Rules for the management of Asylums to be sanctioned by Government.

Appointment of visitors.

III. Two or more of the visitors, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer, shall, once at the least in every month, together inspect every part of the Asylum or Asylums of which they are visitors, and see and examine, as far as circumstances will permit, every Lunatic therein, and the order and certificate for the admission of every Lunatic admitted since the last visitation of the visitors; and shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose any remarks which they may deem proper in regard to the management and condition of the Asylum and the Lunatics therein.

Monthly inspection by visitors.

IV. It shall be the duty of every Darogah or District Police Officer to apprehend and send to the Magistrate all persons found wandering at large within his District who are deemed to be Lunatics and all persons believed to be dangerous by reason of Lunacy. Whenever any such person as aforesaid is brought before a Magistrate, the Magistrate, with the assistance of a Medical Officer, shall examine such person, and if the Medical Officer shall sign a certificate in the Form A. in the Schedule to this Act, and the Magistrate shall be satisfied on personal examination or other proof that such person is a Lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment, he shall make an order for such Lunatic to be received into the Asylum established for the Division in which the Magistrate's jurisdiction is situate, or, if such Lunatic is not a native of the country and the circumstances of the case so require, into a Lunatic Asylum at the Presidency; and shall send the Lunatic in suitable custody to the Asylum mentioned in such order. Provided that, if any friend or relative of any Lunatic who is believed to be dangerous shall undertake in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such Lunatic shall be properly taken care of, and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others, the Magistrate, instead of sending him to an Asylum, may make him over to the care of such friend or relative. Provided also that, if any such friend or relative shall desire that the Lunatic may be sent to a licensed Asylum instead of the public Asylum of the Division and shall engage in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate to pay the expenses which may be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, medicine, clothing, and care of the Lunatic in such Asylum, the Magistrate may send the Lunatic to the licensed Asylum mentioned in the engagement.

Wandering and dangerous Lunatics to be sent to the Magistrate.

Certificate and order for reception in Asylum.

In certain cases, a Lunatic may be committed to the care of his friends or relatives.

Or sent to a licensed Asylum.

V. If it shall appear to the Magistrate, on the report of a Police Officer or the information of any other person, that any person within the limits of his jurisdiction deemed to be a Lunatic is not under proper care and control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, the Magistrate may send for the supposed Lunatic, and summon such relative or other person as has or ought to have the charge of him; and if such relative or other person be legally bound to maintain the supposed Lunatic, the Magistrate may make an order for such Lunatic being properly cared for and treated, and, if such relative or other person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order, may commit him to jail for a period not exceeding one month. If there be no person legally bound to maintain the supposed Lunatic, or if the Magistrate think fit so to do, he may proceed as prescribed in the last preceding Section, and upon being satisfied in manner aforesaid that the person deemed to be a Lunatic is a Lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment, may make an order for his reception into such Asylum as aforesaid. It shall be the duty of every Darogah or District Police Officer to report to the Magistrate every such case of neglect or cruel treatment as aforesaid which may come to his knowledge.

In case of neglect or cruel treatment of a Lunatic, Magistrate may order relative, &c., to maintain him.

If no person bound to maintain him, Magistrate may make an order for his reception in Asylum.

Darogah to report neglect.

VI. All acts which the Magistrate is authorized or required to do by the two last preceding Sections, may be done in the Presidency Towns and the Stations of the Straits Settlement by the Commissioner of Police; and all duties which a Darogah or District Police Officer is authorized or required to perform, may be performed in any of the said Towns and Stations by an Officer of the Police Force not below the rank of Inspector.

Commissioner of Police, &c. to act in the Presidency Towns and Straits Settlement.

Order and certificate in Presidency Towns & Straits Settlement.

VII. Except as otherwise hereinbefore provided, no person shall be received into a Lunatic Asylum in any Presidency Town or in any Station of the Straits Settlement without an order under the hand of some person in the Form B in the Schedule to this Act together with such statement of particulars as is contained in the said Form B, nor unless such person has been found Lunatic by inquisition or under an enquiry directed by an order of one of the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, without the medical certificate containing the particulars in Form A in the Schedule to this Act, of two persons each of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and one of whom shall be a Presidency Surgeon or a Surgeon in the employment of the Government. When such order is presented, the visitors or manager of the Asylum, before admitting the Lunatic into the Asylum, may require the friends of the said Lunatic to engage to pay the expenses which may be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of the Lunatic, unless it shall appear to the said visitors that they have not sufficient means of doing so.

In places other than Presidency Towns &c., no person to be received into Asylum without order of Civil Court.

VIII. Clause 1.—In places other than those specified in the last preceding Section, no person shall be received into a Lunatic Asylum, except as otherwise hereinbefore provided, without an order of the Civil Court.

Application for order by whom to be made where guardian has been appointed.

Clause 2.—When any person has been adjudged to be a Lunatic, and a guardian for such Lunatic has been appointed by the Court of Wards or the Collector or by the Civil Court, if such guardian shall desire that the Lunatic be admitted into a Lunatic Asylum, he shall make application to the Civil Court, and the Judge with the assistance of a Medical Officer shall examine such Lunatic, and if the Medical Officer shall sign a certificate in the Form A in the Schedule to this Act, and the Judge shall be satisfied that the Lunatic is a proper person to be detained under care and treatment in a Lunatic Asylum, he shall make an order for such person to be received into the Asylum established for the Division in which his jurisdiction is situate, or, if he think fit, into any licensed Asylum mentioned in the application.

Application where no guardian has been appointed.

Clause 3.—If any relative or friend of any person for whom a guardian has not been appointed by the Court of Wards or the Collector or by the Civil Court, desires that such person may be admitted into a Lunatic Asylum, he may make application to the Civil Court, and the Judge, if he see sufficient reason for so doing, shall enquire into the fact of Lunacy in the same manner as if an application had been made to the Civil Court under the provisions of Section III of Act XXXV of 1858 entitled "An Act to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature"; and if the Lunacy be established, the Judge may then proceed in the manner prescribed in the second Clause of this Section.

Order for payment of expenses.

Clause 4.—Whenever the Judge shall make an order for the reception of any person into a Lunatic Asylum, he shall, at the same time, make an order for the payment of the expenses to be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such person, and such expenses shall be recovered by the Judge on the application of the visitors or manager of such Asylum. Provided however that, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Judge that the Lunatic has not sufficient property and that no person legally bound to maintain the said Lunatic has sufficient means for the payment of such expenses, he shall certify the same in the order for the reception of the Lunatic into the Asylum, instead of making such order for the payment of expenses as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Order of discharge from Asylum.

IX. It shall be lawful for three of the visitors of any Asylum, of whom one shall be a Medical Officer, by writing under their hands, to order the discharge of any person detained in such Asylum. When such order is given, if the person is detained under the order of any public Officer, notice of the order of discharge shall be immediately communicated to such Officer.

Order of discharge on undertaking of relative for due treatment of the Lunatic.

X. When any relative or friend of a Lunatic detained in any Asylum under the provisions of Section IV Section V, or Section VI of this Act, is desirous that such Lunatic should be delivered over to his care and custody, he shall make application to the Magistrate or Commissioner of Police under whose order the Lunatic is detained, and the Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, if he think fit, after communication with the visitors or with one of them being a Medical Officer, and upon the undertaking in writing of such relative or friend to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate or Commissioner that such Lunatic shall be properly taken care of and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others, shall make an order for the discharge of such Lunatic, and such Lunatic shall thereupon be discharged.

Inspector of Jails may make order of removal from one public Asylum to another.

XI. The Inspector of Jails may direct the removal of any Lunatic from any public Asylum to any other public Asylum within the circle of his inspection, and such order shall be sufficient authority for the removal of such Lunatic, and also for his reception into the Asylum to which he is ordered to be removed.

Amendment of order or certificate.

XII. If, after the reception of any Lunatic into any Asylum, it appear that the order or the medical certificate or certificates upon which he was received is or are defective or incorrect, the same may at any time afterwards be amended by the person or persons signing the same with the sanction of two or more of the visitors of the said Asylum, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer.

Certificate and order to justify detention and recapture after escape.

XIII. Every person received into a Lunatic Asylum under any such order as is required by this Act accompanied by the requisite medical certificate, may be detained therein until he be removed or discharged as authorized by this Act, and in case of escape may, by virtue of such order, be re-taken by the manager of such Asylum, or any Officer or servant belonging thereto, or any other person authorized in that behalf by the said manager, or any Police Officer, and conveyed to and received and detained in such Asylum.

In what cases Government to pay for the maintenance of Lunatic.

XIV. When any Lunatic is sent to a licensed Asylum by order of a Magistrate or Commissioner of Police under Section IV, Section V, or Section VI of this Act, and when a Lunatic is admitted into such Asylum under Section VII or an order for the reception of a Lunatic is made under Section VIII and no engagement has been taken from the friends of the Lunatic or order made by the Judge for the payment of expenses under the said Section VII or Section VIII respectively, the expense of the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such Lunatic shall be paid by the Government to the manager of such Asylum.

Civil Court, on application of Magistrate, may make order for the payment of cost of maintenance out of the Lunatic's estate.

XV. The Magistrate or Commissioner of Police by whom any Lunatic has been sent to a Lunatic Asylum, if it appear to such Magistrate or Commissioner that such Lunatic has an estate applicable to his maintenance and more than sufficient to maintain his family, or that any person is legally bound to maintain and has the means of maintaining such Lunatic, may apply to the chief Civil Court of original jurisdiction within the local jurisdiction of which the estate of the Lunatic may be situate or the person legally bound to maintain him may reside, and such Court shall enquire into the matter in a summary way, and on being satisfied that such Lunatic has an estate applicable to his maintenance, or that any person is legally bound to maintain and has the means of maintaining such Lunatic, shall make an order for the recovery of the charges of the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such Lunatic out of such estate or from such person. Such order shall be enforced in the same manner and shall be of the same force and effect and subject to the same appeal as any judgment or order made by the said Court in a regular suit in respect of the property or person therein mentioned. Any personal property which may be in the possession of a Lunatic found wandering at large may be sold by the Magistrate and the proceeds thereof (or such part of the same as may be necessary) applied towards the payment of the charges of the lodging and maintenance of the Lunatic, and of any other expenses incurred on his behalf.

Saving of liability of relatives to maintain Lunatic.

XVI. The liability of any relative or person to maintain any Lunatic shall not be taken away or affected by any provision contained in this Act.

Saving of powers of Supreme Courts &c. and of Act IV of 1849.

XVII. Nothing contained in this Act shall be taken to interfere with the power of any of the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter over any person found to be Lunatic by inquisition or under the provisions of Act XXXIV of 1858 entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in Lunacy in the Courts of Judicature" established by Royal Charter, or with the rights of any Committee of the person or estate of such Lunatic; or to affect the provisions of Act IV of 1849 entitled "An Act for the safe custody of Criminal Lunatics."

Interpretation. "Lunatic." "Magistrate."

XVIII. The word "Lunatic," as used in this Act, shall mean and include every person of unsound mind, and every person being an idiot. The word "Magistrate" shall include a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 25th September 1858, and was referred to Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 29th of November next :—

A Bill to provide for the punishment of breaches of contract by Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers in certain cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS much loss and inconvenience are sustained by manufacturers, tradesmen, and others in the several Presidency Towns of Calcutta Madras, and Bombay, from fraudulent breach of contract on the part of Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers who have received money in advance, on account of work which they have contracted to perform; and whereas the remedy by suit in the Civil Courts for the recovery of damages is wholly insufficient, and it is just and proper that persons guilty of such fraudulent breach of contract should be subject to punishment; It is enacted as follows :—

If workman neglect to perform work on account of which he has received an advance of money, complaint may be made to Magistrate.

I. When any Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall have received from any Master or Employer resident or carrying on business in any Presidency Town, an advance of money on account of any work which he shall have contracted to perform, or to get performed by any other Artificers, Workmen, or Laborers, if such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall wilfully and without lawful or reasonable excuse neglect or refuse to perform or get performed such work according to the terms of his contract, such Master or Employer may complain to a Magistrate of Police, and the Magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons or a warrant, as he shall think proper, for bringing before him such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer, and shall hear and determine the case.

Magistrate may order repayment of advance or performance of contract.

II. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer has received money in advance from the complainant on account of any work, and has wilfully and without lawful or reasonable excuse neglected or refused to perform or get performed the same according to the terms of his contract, the Magistrate shall, at the option of the complainant, either order such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to repay the money advanced, or such part thereof as may seem to the Magistrate just and proper, or order him to perform or get performed such work according to the terms of his contract; and if such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall fail to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may sentence him to be imprisoned with hard labor for a term not exceeding three months, or, if the order be for the re-payment of a sum of money, for a term not exceeding three months, or, until such sum of money shall be sooner repaid; provided that no such order for the repayment of any money shall, while the same remains unsatisfied, deprive the complainant of any Civil remedy by action or otherwise which he might have had but for this Act.

Penalty if workman fail to comply with the order.

Magistrate may require workman to give security for due performance of order.

III. When the Magistrate shall order any Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to perform or get performed any work according to the terms of his contract, he may also at the request of the complainant, require such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to enter into a recognizance with sufficient security for the due performance of the order; and in default of his entering into such recognizance or furnishing such security to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, may sentence him to be imprisoned with hard labor for a period not exceeding three months.

To what contracts the Act extends.

IV. The word "contract," as used in this Act, shall extend to all contracts and agreements whether by deed, or written or verbal, and whether such contract be for a term certain, or for specified work, or otherwise.

W. MORGAN.
Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 25th September 1858, is hereby published for general information :—

A Bill for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William, in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800, Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section V Regulation XVII. 1805, and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors, are repealed.

Persons and property of Minors not under the protection of the Court of Wards shall be subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying Revenue to Government, who have been or shall be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors, not being European British subjects, and the charge of their property, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

What persons claiming to have charge of property in trust for a minor may apply for Certificate of administration.

III. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor under a Will or other Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, may apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate of administration; and no person shall be competent to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge, or to give any legal discharge to the debtors of such estate, until he shall have obtained such Certificate.

No person competent to institute or defend a suit without such Certificate.

Who may apply to Court to appoint a person to take charge of the property &c. of a Minor.

IV. Any relative or friend of a Minor in respect of whose property such certificate has not been granted, or, if the property consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, the Collector of the District may apply to the Civil Court to appoint a fit person to take charge of the property and person of such Minor.

To what Court application to be made, if property be situate in more than one District.

V. If the property be situate in more than one District, any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the Civil Court of the District in which the Minor has his residence.

Enquiry to be made by Court on application.

VI. When application shall have been made to the Civil Court either by a person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor, or by any relative or friend of a Minor, or by the Collector, the Court shall issue notice of the application and fix a day for hearing the same. On the day so fixed, or as soon after as may be convenient, the Court shall enquire summarily into the circumstances and pass orders in the case.

Certificate of administration to whom to be granted.

VII. If it shall appear that any person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor is entitled to such right by virtue of a Will or Deed, and is willing to undertake the trust, the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to such person. If there is no person so entitled, or if such person is unwilling to undertake the trust, and there is any near relative of the Minor who is willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of his property, the Court may grant a Certificate to such relative.

Court may appoint such person Guardian.

The Court may also if it think fit, (unless a Guardian have been appointed by the father), appoint such person as aforesaid or such relative or any other relative or friend of the Minor, to be Guardian of the person of the Minor.

Court may call upon Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of relative or friend.

VIII. The Court may call upon the Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of any relative or friend of the Minor who may be desirous or willing to be entrusted with the charge of his property or person.

Proceeding if no title to a Certificate be established, and if there be no relative fit to be entrusted with the property &c. of a Minor.

IX. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will or Deed, and if there be no near relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property of the Minor, and the Court shall think it to be necessary for the interest of the Minor that provision should be made by the Court for the charge of his property and person, the Court may proceed to make such provision in the manner hereinafter provided.

If estate consist only of moveable property, &c., Court may grant Certificate to Public Curator or other person.

X. If the estate of the Minor consist of moveable property or of houses, gardens, or the like, the Court may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act XIX of 1841, or if there be no Public Curator, to any fit person whom the Court may appoint for the purpose.

Appointment of Guardian.

XI. Whenever the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to the estate of a Minor to the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid, it shall at the same time appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the Minor. The person to whom a Certificate of administration has been granted, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. If the person appointed to be Guardian be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court may assign him such allowance, to be paid out of the estate of the Minor, as under the circumstances of the case it may think suitable.

When the estate consists of land, Court may direct Collector to take charge of estate.

XII. If the estate of the Minor consist, in whole or in part, of land or any interest in land, the Court may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the property of the Minor and a Guardian of his person, in the same manner and subject to the same rules in respect of such appointments and of the duties to be performed by the manager and the Guardian respectively, so far as the same may be applicable, as if the property and person of the Minor were subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards.

Payment of costs.

XIII. In all enquiries held by the Civil Court under this Act, the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by the person on whose application the enquiry was made, or out of the estate of the Minor or otherwise as it may think proper.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situate, may represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Court, unless it see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall in such case appoint a Guardian for the care of the persons, and a manager for the charge of the property of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. If the property be situate in more than one District, the representation shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the property under the Court of Wards, to the Civil Court of his own District, and the orders of the Court of that District shall have effect also in other Districts, in which portions of the property may be situate.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

XV. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XVI. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, deliver in Court an inventory of any immoveable property belonging to the Minor, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And the Public Curator and every such other Administrator shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If any relative or friend of a Minor or any Public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Curator or Administrator and enquire summarily into the matter, and make such order thereon as it shall think proper, or the Court at its discretion may refer such petition to any subordinate Court.

Public Curator &c. to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or account be impugned.

XVII. All sums received by the Public Curator or such other Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Minor or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Public Curator &c. to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for any relative or friend of a Minor, at any time during the continuance of the minority, to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, or from any such Manager or person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Relative or friend may sue for an account.

XIX. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to continue the prosecution of the suit on his own behalf.

Continuance of suit instituted under this Act after disqualification shall have ceased.

XX. The Civil Court for any sufficient cause may recall any Certificate granted under this Act, and may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, or may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator or any other person as the case may be; and may compel the person whose Certificate has been recalled to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him. The Court may also for any sufficient cause remove any Guardian appointed by the Court.

Revocation of Certificate.

Removal of Guardian.

XXI. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any person who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXII. The Civil Court may permit any person to whom a certificate shall have been granted under this Act not being the Public Curator, and any Guardian appointed by the Court, to resign his trust, and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands.

Civil Court may permit resignation of trust, &c.

XXIII. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X, shall be entitled to receive such commission not exceeding five per centum on the sums received and disbursed by him, or such other allowance, to be paid out of the Minor's estate, as the Civil Court shall think fit.

Remuneration of Public Curator, &c.

XXIV. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court, or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of any male Minor, shall be bound to provide for his education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of all such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act XXVI of 1854 (for making better provision for the education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards) shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education. Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

Persons under the age of 18 years to be held Minors for the purposes of this Act.

XXV. For the purposes of this Act, every person shall be held to be a Minor, who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

Act not to authorize the appointment of Guardians of certain married women and other persons.

XXVI. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of a Guardian of the person of a female whose husband is not a Minor, or the appointment of a Guardian of the person of any Minor whose father is living and is not a Minor; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of any person other than a female as the Guardian of the person of a female. If a Guardian of the person of a Minor be appointed during the minority of the father or husband of the Minor, the Guardianship shall cease as soon as the father or husband (as the case may be) shall attain the age of majority.

Guardianship during the minority of the father or husband of a Minor when to cease.

Appeals.

XXVII. All orders passed by the Civil Court or by any Subordinate Court under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of such Court and the Subordinate Courts.

Interpretation.

XXVIII. The expression "Civil Court" as used in this Act shall be held to mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the District, and shall not include the Supreme Court; and nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the powers of the Supreme Court over the person or property of any Minor subject to its jurisdiction. Unless the contrary appears from the context, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

No. 1369 of 1858.—The following Extracts, from the London Gazettes of the 6th and 24th August 1858, are published for general information :—

Whitehall, 3rd August 1858.

The Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto General Sir Colin Campbell, G. C. B., Commander-in-Chief in the East Indies, and the Heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style, and title of Baron Clyde of Clydesdale, in that part of the said United Kingdom called Scotland.

War Office, 23rd August 1858.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officers, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, viz. :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
66th (Goorkha) Bengal Native Infantry.	Lieutenant John Adam Tytler. Date of Act of Bravery, 10th February 1858.	On the attacking parties approaching the enemy's position under a heavy fire of round shot, grape, and musketry, on the occasion of the action at Choorpoorah, on the 10th February last, Lieutenant Tytler dashed on horseback ahead of all, and alone, up to the enemy's guns, where he remained engaged hand to hand, until they were carried by us; and where he was shot through the left arm, had a spear wound in his chest, and a ball through the right sleeve of his coat. (Letter from Captain C. C. G. Ross, Commanding 66th (Goorkha) Regiment, to Captain Brownlow, Major of Brigade, Kemaon Field Force.)
37th Bengal Native Infantry.	Serjt. Major M. Rosamond. Date of Act of Bravery, 4th June 1857.	This Non-Commissioned Officer volunteered to accompany Lieutenant-Colonel Spottiswoode, Commanding the 37th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, to the right of the Lines, in order to set them on fire, with the view of driving out the Sepoys, on the occasion of the outbreak at Benares, on the evening of the 4th June, 1857; and also volunteered with Serjeant-Major Gill, of the Loodianah Regiment, to bring off Captain Brown, Pension Paymaster, his wife and infant, and also some others from a detached Bungalow into the Barracks. His conduct was highly meritorious, and he has been since promoted.
Loodiana Regiment.	Serjt. Major Peter Gill. Date of Act of Bravery, 4th June 1857.	This Non-Commissioned Officer also conducted himself with gallantry at Benares, on the night of the 4th of June 1857. He volunteered, with Serjeant-Major Rosamond of the 37th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, to bring in Captain Brown, Pension Pay-master, and his family, from a detached Bungalow to the Barracks, as above recorded, and saved the life of the Quarter-Master-Serjeant of the 25th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, in the early part of the evening, by cutting off the head of the Sepoy who had just bayonetted him. Serjeant-Major Gill states that on the same night he faced a Guard of 27 men, with only a Serjeant's Sword, and it is also represented that he twice saved the life of Major Barrett, 37th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, when attacked by Sepoys of his own Regiment.

ALIPORE JAIL PRESS.

THE following Rules regarding the submission of Work by Public Officers to the Alipore Jail Press having received the sanction of the Government, are promulgated for general information:—

All Public Officers are hereby requested to send their Indents and requisitions for Forms and other Public Work requiring to be printed, to the Superintendent of Stationery, by whom they will be transmitted to the Jail Press for execution, and by whom they will, when printed, be packed and dispatched to the Indenting Officers.

2. No Indents or requisitions of any kind for printing, on the Public Service, are to be sent direct to the Jail.

3. As any departure from the plan of proceeding above notified will cause delay and inconvenience, Indenting Officers are particularly requested to see that it is strictly adhered to.

4. Indenting Officers are informed that all Paper required for the printing of Public Work will be supplied by the Stationery Office.

5. The Alipore Jail Press is at present prepared to execute all Form Work, and such Returns, Reports, Circular Orders, and other public documents as do not need fine work.

6. The earliest possible arrangements will be made for the execution of fine Book Work. The moment they are completed, and the Press can undertake them without incurring the risk of delay or disappointment, the same will be duly notified.

SUPPLEMENT TO

The Calcutta Gazette.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1858.

Zillah Cachar.

The 7th August 1858.

PROCEEDINGS OF LIEUT. R. STEWART, Offg. Supdt.

DURING a seven years' residence on this Frontier it has frequently struck me that although Cachar and the surrounding Districts and States are most fertile in themselves, and productive of many of the articles of trade such as are conducive to the necessities and conveniences of life, yet that no regular system exists whereby this produce can be made generally available to the western and more civilized portion of the Empire.

It is likewise apparent that although the inhabitants of this Frontier are by no means poor, yet they have not been introduced to the full advantages to be derived from extensive importations of foreign manufactures.

The causes of this stagnation of traffic appear to me to be the want of roads and consequently of wheeled conveyances and the continued inclemency of the seasons for the greater portion of the year which makes all communication both by land and water extremely difficult.

As great natural as well as financial difficulties exist, debarring for the present all thoughts of the construction of good roads, and as the river navigation will be always affected by the seasons until a trade has been created sufficiently remunerative for the occupation of steamers and vessels, proof against the storms and strong currents which prevail during the rains, it remains to provide a channel for traffic as little affected as possible by the difficulties with which it is at certain times surrounded.

From the month of November to that of February, the weather is cold and bracing, fair and calm. The plains are hard and traversable, the hills, valleys, marshes and jungles are free from miasmatic influences. The river is low enough to be deprived of strong currents and deep enough to admit of navigation by boats of moderate tonnage. This appears to be the season when the traders of the different Districts and States should assemble at some central position and reciprocate produce. It is necessary, I think, only to appoint a date and a place of rendezvouz in order to secure the establishment of a periodical trade which will connect Burma with Dacca, and Assam with the Hills of Tipperah.

For this purpose, in consultation with Mr. Allen, Member of the Board of Revenue, on deputation at Cherrapoonjee, it has been determined that an annual Fair or Mela be held at Silchar, the Sudder Station of Cachar, and that the inhabitants of the neighbouring Districts to the West as well as those of Assam to the North be invited to attend, bringing for sale and barter the produce of their respective countries, and that to meet these it be intimated to the inhabitants of Cachar, North, South and Proper, to those of Munipoor and Kubboo, to the inhabitants of the Kutcha Angamienagah, and Lhooshai countries through the proper authorities, that a Mart has been opened where they may not only dispose of their native produce, but receive in return that and the manufactures of Foreign countries.

The date of the Mela which will last for five days is fixed from the 30th December to the 3rd January 1858-59 inclusive, corresponding with 16th to 20th Pows 1265 B. S.

Ordered, that copies of this Proceeding, together with the accompanying advertisement relating to it and recounting the articles most likely to be proffered and demanded at the Mela, be sent in English and Vernaculars to the authorities of the Province of Assam, and the Zillah of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah and Sylhet, likewise to Major McCulloch, Political Agent in Munipoor, for communication to the Governments of Munipoor and Kubboo, and that these gentlemen be solicited to give the widest circulation and publicity in their power to the advertisement.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding be communicated through emissaries to the different tribes of Naguhs, Kookies, Cassyahs, Meekirs, Cacharies, Angamies, Kacha Naguhs and Looshais in and about Cachar.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to the Calcutta Gazette for publication.

Ordered, that copies of the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to all known and respectable Individuals, Merchants, Traders, Landholders and Planters on the Frontier, with the request that they will give publicity to, and aid the undertaking.

R. STEWART,
Offg. Supdt.

ADVERTISEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 30th and 31st of December 1858, and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of January 1859, a great Mela will be held at Silchar or Doodpatly, in the Zillah of Cachar, to which all the Merchants, Traders and Inhabitants of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah, Sylhet, Cherrapoonjee, Assam, and Cachar will be invited, and to which the people of the Independant States of Munipore and Kubboo in Burma will also be summoned together with those of the surrounding tribes of Cassyahs, Meekirs, Kookies, Nagas, Khacharies, Kacha Nagas, Angamies and Lhooshais, bringing with them the produce and manufactures of their own and foreign countries.

A list is hereto appended, showing the articles of commerce most likely to be proffered and demanded at this Mela, but there are many others besides which will form objects of trade.

The chief approaches to Silchar from the West are the rivers Surma or Burrack and the Koosiarah; these are navigable throughout the season to boats of 500 maunds; there is a road through the hills to Assam on the North, and one to Munipore on the East.

No taxes or Bazar dues will be levied on any articles sold at the Mela, and sheds will be erected for the convenience of the Shop-keepers.

The Mela will last for five days, and during its continuance, prizes will be offered by Public Subscription to the winners in Boat, Elephant, Horse and Foot Races as well as for other Athletic games and exercises among which may be mentioned the Muniporee, Kangjai or Hockey upon horse back.

Articles likely to be proffered by the West and demanded by the East at the Cachar Mela.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXIV OF 1858.

In Act to regulate proceedings in Lunacy in the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the several Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charters within the British territories in India, are authorized and empowered by their respective Charters to appoint guardians and keepers of the persons and estates of Lunatics, and to enquire into, hear, and determine questions of alleged Lunacy by inspection of the person or by such other ways and means by which the truth may best be discovered and known ; and whereas, according to the practice of the said Courts, questions of alleged Lunacy are determined by inquisition taken before a jury, and it is expedient to lessen the cost and to alter the mode of enquiry into such questions, and also to empower the said Courts to make provision for the due management of the estates of Lunatics ; It is enacted as follows :—

Court may order enquiry as to persons alleged to be insane.

I. It shall be lawful for any of the said Courts of Judicature, on such application as is hereinafter mentioned, to make an order directing an enquiry whether any person (subject to the jurisdiction of the Court), who is alleged to be Lunatic, is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. The order may also contain directions for other enquiries concerning the nature of the property belonging to the alleged Lunatic, the persons who are his relatives or next of kin, the time during which he has been of unsound mind, or such other matters as to the Court shall seem proper.

Order for enquiry what to contain.

Application by whom to be made.

II. Application for such enquiry may be made by any persons related by blood or marriage to the alleged Lunatic, or by the Advocate General.

Enquiry to be by the Court.

III. The order made by the Court upon such application shall direct the enquiry to be by the Court itself. It shall nevertheless be lawful for the Court, if it see sufficient cause for so doing, to direct the enquiry to be executed in Chambers before a single Judge of the Court. Reasonable notice of the time and place appointed for the enquiry shall be given to the alleged Lunatic. If it shall appear that the alleged Lunatic is in such a state that personal service on him would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it shall think proper. The Court may also, if it think fit, direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any person related by blood or marriage to the alleged Lunatic. If the enquiry be directed to be executed before a single Judge, it shall be lawful for the alleged Lunatic, at any time before the day fixed for the enquiry, to demand an enquiry before the full Court. In such case the enquiry shall be by the Court, and a further day shall be appointed for making such enquiry ; and in such case the Court may direct such further notices (if any) to be given, as it may think requisite.

Court may direct enquiry by a single Judge.

Notice of enquiry to be given to Lunatic.

Service of notice.

Lunatic may demand enquiry before full Court.

Court may, at any time after the application, require attendance of Lunatic for the purpose of being personally examined.

IV. The Court may, at any time after the application, require the alleged Lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place, within twenty miles of the place of residence of the said Lunatic, as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged Lunatic.

And may authorize persons to have access to the Lunatic for the purpose of examination.

V. The Court may likewise, at any time after the application for such enquiry, make an order authorizing any person or persons, to be therein named, to have access to the alleged Lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination.

Rules respecting attendance and examination where the alleged Lunatic is a woman of rank.

VI. The attendance and examination of the alleged Lunatic under the provisions of the two last preceding Sections, shall, if the alleged Lunatic be a woman who, according to the custom and manners of the Country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the rules in force for the examination of such persons in other cases.

Powers of Judge executing the enquiry.

VII. If the enquiry is made by a Judge of the Court, the Judge executing the enquiry shall, while so employed, have power (subject to the provisions of the last preceding Section) personally to examine the alleged Lunatic and take such evidence, on oath or otherwise, and call for such information as he may think fit or the said Court may direct in order to ascertain whether the alleged Lunatic is or is not of unsound mind, and shall have the like powers and authority as are or may be vested by law in a Judge or Master of the said Court for the investigation of matters referred to them by the Court. The Judge shall report to the Court the result of the enquiry.

Court may in certain cases direct enquiry to be made before any principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction within whose local jurisdiction the alleged Lunatic may be.

VIII. If the alleged Lunatic be not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, and the enquiry cannot conveniently be made in either of the modes hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct the enquiry to be made before any principal Court of original jurisdiction in Civil cases within whose local jurisdiction the alleged Lunatic may be, and such last mentioned Court shall accordingly proceed to make such enquiry in the same manner as if the alleged Lunatic were subject to its jurisdiction, and shall certify its finding upon the matters of enquiry to the Court directing the enquiry. The evidence taken upon the enquiry shall be recorded by the Court in the English language in the form of a narrative ; and a copy thereof, certified by the Court, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks the Court may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the enquiry was directed.

If report of Judge or finding of Court appear defective or insufficient in form, it may be amended.

IX. If the report of the Judge or the finding of a Court under the last preceding Section appear to the Court directing the enquiry to be defective or insufficient in point of form, it shall be lawful for such last mentioned Court either to amend the same or to refer it back to the Judge or the Court which made the enquiry to be amended.

Court may direct new trial.

X. It shall be lawful for the Court, on the application of the person at whose instance the order directing an inquiry was made or on the application of the alleged Lunatic or of any of his relatives authorized by the Court to make the application, to direct a new trial of the matters of enquiry according to the usual course and practice of the Court in directing new trials in Civil cases. If such application be granted in a case tried by a single Judge, the order granting the same shall direct the enquiry to be made by the full Court. If the application be granted in a case tried under Section VIII, the Court directing the new trial may give such directions regarding the same as it shall see fit.

Costs of enquiry.

XI. The Court shall make such order as may appear just respecting the costs of any enquiry under this Act, and may include therein such remuneration to Physicians and Surgeons as the Court, having regard to the nature of the enquiry, shall deem reasonable.

Finding of Court or report by Judge to be proceeded on, in regard to appointment of Committees, as an inquisition.

XII. If no new trial be directed, the finding of the Court to which the application for enquiry was made, if the enquiry have been made by such Court, or the report of the Judge or the finding of the Court to which the enquiry may have been referred under the provisions of Section VIII, as the case may be, shall be of the same force and effect, and be proceeded on in the same manner in regard to the appointment of Committees of the person and estate of the Lunatic, as the inquisition now according to practice taken upon the oath of a jury.

On appointment of Committee, the Court may give certain powers for management of Lunatic's estates.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Court, on the appointment of Committees of the person and estate of a Lunatic, to direct by the order of appointment, or by any subsequent order, that the person to whom the charge of the estate is committed, shall have such powers for the management thereof as to the Court shall seem necessary and proper, reference being had to the nature of the property, whether moveable or immoveable, of which the estate may consist. But such powers shall not extend to the sale or charge by way of mortgage of the estate or any part thereof, or to the letting of any immoveable property unless for a term not exceeding three years.

Master to receive proposals concerning management, sale, &c., of estate.

XIV. The Master of the Court shall be at liberty, without an order of reference, to receive any proposal and conduct any enquiry respecting the management of the estate of a Lunatic, if such proposal relate to any matter which the Committee of the estate has not been empowered by an order under the last preceding Section to dispose of. The Master may likewise, without reference, receive and enquire into any proposal relating to the sale or charge by way of mortgage of the estate or of any part thereof, or to the letting of any immoveable property for a term exceeding three years.

Court to make order upon the report of the Master.

XV. The Master shall report to the Court on the proposal; and the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, make such order upon the report and respecting the costs, as shall, under the circumstances, seem just.

Master to determine what persons to attend at any enquiry, at the cost of the estate.

XVI. The Court or the Master shall once in the matter of each Lunacy, and may afterwards from time to time, determine whether any one or more and (if any) how many and which of the relatives or next of kin shall attend before the Master, at the cost of the estate, in any proceeding connected with the management thereof; and, if any such relative or next of kin is an infant, may from time to time appoint a fit person to be his guardian for the purposes of the Lunacy.

Appointment of guardian of infant relative.

XVII. The Court may, on application made to it by petition concerning any matter whatsoever connected with the Lunacy, make such order, subject to the provisions of this Act, respecting the application and the costs thereof, and of the consequent proceedings, as shall, under the circumstances, seem just.

Application to Court in the first instance.

XVIII. The Court may, if it appears to be just, or for the Lunatic's benefit, order that any property, moveable or immoveable, of the Lunatic, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, contingency, or expectancy, be sold or charged by way of mortgage or otherwise disposed of, as may seem most expedient for the purpose of raising money to be applied for any of the following purposes:—

Lunatic's property may be sold for debts, maintenance, &c.

1. The payment of the Lunatic's debts, including any debt incurred for his maintenance or otherwise for his benefit.

2. The discharge of any incumbrance on his estate.

3. The payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance and the maintenance of his family, including the expenses of his removal to Europe, when he shall be so removed, and all expenses incidental thereto.

4. The payment of the costs of any enquiry under this Act, and of any costs incurred by order or under the authority of the Court.

XIX. The Committee of the Lunatic's estate shall, in the name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute all such conveyances and instruments of transfer relative to any sale, mortgage, or other disposition of his estate as the Court shall order. In like manner such Committee shall, under the order of the Court, exercise all powers whatsoever vested in a Lunatic, whether the same are vested in him for his own benefit or in the character of trustee or guardian.

Committee to execute conveyances.

To execute powers.

XX. Where a person, having contracted to sell or otherwise dispose of his estate or any part thereof, afterwards becomes Lunatic, the Court may, if the contract is such as the Court thinks ought to be performed, direct the Committee of the estate to execute such conveyances and to do such other acts in fulfilment of the contract as it shall think proper.

Court may order performance of contract.

XXI. If a member of a partnership firm be found Lunatic, the Court may, on the application of the other partners, or of any person who appears to the Court to be entitled to require the same, dissolve the partnership; and thereupon or upon a dissolution by decree of Court or otherwise by due course of law, the Committee of the estate may, in the name and on behalf of the Lunatic, join with the other partners in disposing of the partnership property upon such terms, and shall do all such acts for carrying into effect the dissolution of the partnership, as the Court shall think proper.

Member of partnership becoming Lunatic.

XXII. Where a Lunatic has been engaged in business, the Court may, if it appear to be for the Lunatic's benefit that the business premises should be disposed of, order the Committee of the estate to sell and dispose of the same; and the monies arising from such sale shall be applied in such manner as the Court shall direct.

Disposal of business premises.

XXIII. Where a Lunatic is entitled to a lease or under-lease, and it appears to be for the benefit of his estate that it should be disposed of, the Committee of the estate may, by order of the Court, surrender, assign, or otherwise dispose of the same to such person for such valuable or nominal consideration, and upon such terms as the Court shall think fit.

Committee may dispose of lease.

XXIV. If a Lunatic is possessed of any landed property situate beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, which, by the law in force in the Presidency wherein such land is situated, subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the said Court of Wards may assume the charge of such landed property and manage the same according to the rules for the time being in force for such management.

When Court of Wards may assume charge of land belonging to a Lunatic.

Provided that in such case no further proceedings in respect of the Lunacy shall be taken under any such law, nor shall it be competent to the Court of Wards or to any Collector to appoint a guardian of the person of the said Lunatic or a manager of the estate, except of the landed property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid. Provided also that the surplus of the income of such landed property after providing for the discharge of the Government Revenue and expenses of management, shall be disposed of from time to time in such manner as the Supreme Court shall direct, and not otherwise. Provided further that nothing contained in this Section shall affect the powers given to the Supreme Court by Sections XVIII, XIX, and XX of this Act or (except so far as relates to the management of the said landed property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid) the powers given by any other Section of this Act.

Proviso.

Surplus income of the land, after payment of Government Revenue, &c., to be disposed of as the Supreme Court shall direct.

Provisions of this Section not to affect certain powers given to the Supreme Court by the Act.

XXV. Where any Stock or Government Securities or any Share in a Company (transferable within the said territories or the dividends of which are payable there) is standing in the name of, or is vested in a Lunatic beneficially entitled thereto, or in a Committee of the estate of a Lunatic, or in a trustee for him, and the Committee dies intestate, or himself becomes Lunatic, or is out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or it is uncertain whether the Committee be living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the Stock, Securities, or Shares, or to receive and pay the dividends to a new Committee, or as he directs, within fourteen days after being required by him to do so, then the Court may order some fit person to make such transfer, or to transfer the same, and to receive and pay over the dividends in such manner as the Court may direct; and such transfer or payment shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Stock transferable in India belonging to Lunatic may be ordered to be transferred.

Stock of Lunatic residing out of India, and not within the United Kingdom, may be ordered to be transferred.

XXVI. Where any such Stock or Government Securities or Share in a Company is standing in the name of, or vested in any person residing out of the said Territories, and not in any part of the United Kingdom, the Court, upon being satisfied that such person has been declared of unsound mind, and that his personal estate has been vested in a curator or manager, according to the laws of the place where he is residing, may order some fit person to make such transfer of the Stock, Securities, or Shares, or of any part thereof, to such curator or manager or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the dividends and proceeds, as the Court may think fit; and any act done in pursuance of such order shall be valid and effectual for all purposes.

Court may in certain cases apply property for Lunatic's maintenance without appointing Committee.

XXVII. If it appears to the Court, having regard to the situation and condition in life of the Lunatic and his family and the other circumstances of the case, to be expedient that his property should be made available for his or their maintenance in a direct and inexpensive manner, it may, instead of appointing a Committee of the estate, order that the property (if money,) or (if of any other description) the produce thereof, when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit, to be applied for the purpose aforesaid; and all payments so made shall be a good discharge to the person making the same.

Like power in case of temporary Lunacy.

XXVIII. If it appears to the Court that the unsoundness of mind of a Lunatic is in its nature temporary, and that it is expedient to make temporary provision for his maintenance or for the maintenance of his family, the Court may, in like manner as under the last preceding Section, direct his property or a sufficient part of it to be applied for the purpose aforesaid.

Superseding proceedings in Lunacy.

XXIX. When any person has been found of unsound mind, and it shall be shown to the Court, either on the application of such person or of any other person acting on his behalf, or on the information of any other person, that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court may make an order for enquiry whether such person is or is not still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs. The enquiry shall be conducted in the same manner and subject to the same rules as are hereinbefore prescribed for an enquiry into the unsoundness of mind of an alleged Lunatic; and if it be found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in the matter of the Lunacy to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as under the circumstances of the case shall appear proper.

Power of Court to make general orders.

XXX. The Court may, from time to time, make such orders, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as shall seem meet for carrying into effect the purposes of this Act, and for regulating the mode of proceeding before the Court or before a Judge of the Court, or the Master in matters of Lunacy.

Powers of Master to be exercised by a Judge or Recorder.

XXXI. Every power given by this Act to the Master of any of the said Courts may also be exercised by a Judge of any of the said Courts, and shall in the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca be exercised by the Recorder of the said Court or of any division thereof.

Interpretation.

"Lunatic."

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXV OF 1858.

An Act to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature: and to prescribe general rules by which the state of mind of persons not subject to such jurisdiction, who are alleged to be Lunatic, may be enquired into and ascertained; It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. So much of Section V Regulation X. 1793, of Section IX Regulation LII. 1803, of Regulation I. 1800, and of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805 (extended to Benares by Section II Regulation VI. 1822), of the Bengal Code; and so much of Sections VI and VII Regulation V. 1804, and of Sections XX and XXII of the said Regulation (as modified by Section III Regulation X. 1831), of the Madras Code, as relate to Lunatics or idiots—are hereby repealed.

Civil Court on application may institute enquiry when a person possessed of property is alleged to be a Lunatic.

II. Whenever any person not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts, who is possessed of property, is alleged to be a Lunatic, the Civil Court, within whose jurisdiction such person is residing, may, upon such application as is hereinafter mentioned, institute an enquiry for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is or is not of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs.

III. Application for such enquiry may be made by any relative of the alleged Lunatic or by any Public Curator appointed under Act XIX of 1841, or by the Government Pleader, or, if the property of the alleged Lunatic consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, by the Collector of the District in which it is situate. If the property or any part thereof be of such a description as by the law in force in any Presidency where such property is situate would subject the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the application may be made by the Collector on behalf of the Court of Wards

Application by whom to be made.

IV. When the Civil Court is about to institute any such enquiry as aforesaid, it shall cause notice to be given to the alleged Lunatic of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the enquiry. If it shall appear that the alleged Lunatic is in such a state that personal service on him would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it shall think proper. The Court may also direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any relative of the alleged Lunatic.

Notice of enquiry to be given to Lunatic.

Service of notice.

V. The Civil Court may require the alleged Lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged Lunatic. The Court may likewise make an order authorizing any person or persons therein named to have access to the alleged Lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination.

Court may require attendance of, and may authorize persons to have access to Lunatic for the purpose of examination.

VI. The attendance and examination of the alleged Lunatic under the provisions of the last preceding Section shall, if the alleged Lunatic be a woman who according to the manners and customs of the Country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the rules in force for the examination of such persons in other cases.

Rules respecting attendance and examination where the alleged Lunatic is a woman of rank.

VII. The Civil Court, if it think fit, may appoint two or more persons to act as Assessors to the Court in the said enquiry. Upon the completion of the enquiry, the Court shall determine whether the alleged Lunatic is or is not of unsound mind, and may make such order as to the payment of the costs of the enquiry by the person upon whose application it was made, or out of the estate of the alleged Lunatic if he be adjudged to be of unsound mind, or otherwise, as it may think proper.

Appointment of Assessors.

Order of Court.

VIII. If the alleged Lunatic reside at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the Civil Court to which the application shall have been made is held, the said Court may issue a Commission to any subordinate Court to make the enquiry, and thereupon the said subordinate Court shall conduct the enquiry in the manner hereinbefore provided. On the completion of the enquiry, the subordinate Court shall report its proceedings with the opinions of the Assessors if Assessors have been appointed and its own opinion on the case; and thereupon the Civil Court shall make such order in the case as it may think proper.

Issue of the Commission to a subordinate Court.

Report of subordinate Court.

Order of Civil Court.

IX. When a person has been adjudged to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, if the estate of such person or any part thereof consist of property which by the law in force in any Presidency subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the Court of Wards shall be authorized to take charge of the same. In all other cases, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, the Civil Court shall appoint a Manager of the estate. Any near relative of the Lunatic or the Public Curator, or, if there be no Public Curator, any other suitable person, may be appointed Manager.

Management of Lunatic's estate, if consisting of property subject to Court of Wards.

In all other cases.

X. Whenever a Manager of the estate of a Lunatic is appointed by the Civil Court, the Court shall appoint a fit person to be Guardian of the person of the Lunatic. The Manager, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. Provided always that the legal heir of the Lunatic shall not in any case be appointed Guardian of his person.

Appointment of Guardian by Civil Court.

XI. If the estate consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land not subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the Civil Court, instead of appointing a Manager, may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the property and a Guardian of the person of the Lunatic. All the proceedings of the Collector or in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Management of Lunatic's estate if consisting of land not subject to Court of Wards.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XII. If the person appointed to be Manager of the estate of a Lunatic, or the person appointed to be Guardian of a Lunatic's person, shall be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, may fix such allowance or allowances to be paid out of the estate of the Lunatic as, under the circumstances of the case, may be thought suitable.

Remuneration of Managers and Guardians.

XIII. The person appointed to be Guardian of a Lunatic's person shall have the care of his person and maintenance. When a distinct Guardian is appointed, the Manager shall pay to the Guardian such allowance as shall be fixed by the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for the maintenance of the Lunatic and of his family.

Duties of Guardian.

XIV. Every Manager of the estate of a Lunatic appointed as aforesaid may exercise the same powers in the management of the estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a Lunatic: and may collect and pay all just claims, debts, and liabilities due to or by the estate of the Lunatic. But no such Manager shall have power to sell or mortgage the estate or any part thereof, or to grant a lease of any immoveable property for any period exceeding five years, without an order of the Civil Court previously obtained.

Managers to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

XV. Every person appointed by the Civil Court or by the Collector to be Manager of the estate of a Lunatic shall, within six months from the date of his appointment, deliver in Court or to the Collector, as the case may be, an inventory of the landed property belonging to the Lunatic and of all such sums of money, goods, and effects, as he shall receive on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And every such Manager shall furnish to the Court or to the Collector annually, within three months of the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the sums received and disbursed on account of the estate and the balance remaining in his hands. If any relative of the Lunatic, or any public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement, or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Manager and enquire summarily into the matter and make such order thereon as it shall think proper; or the Court, at its discretion, may refer any such petition to any subordinate Court or to the Collector if the Manager was appointed by the Collector.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or accounts be impugned.

Manager to pay proceeds of estates into the Public Treasury.

XVI. All sums received by a Manager on account of any estate in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Lunatic or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Relative may sue for an account.

XVII. It shall be lawful for any relative of a Lunatic to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Removal of Manager or Guardian.

XVIII. The Civil Court, for any sufficient cause, may remove any Manager appointed by the Court, not being a Public Curator, and may appoint such Curator or any other fit person in his room, and may compel the person so removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received or disbursed by him. The Court may also, for any sufficient cause, remove any Guardian appointed by the Court. In like manner the Collector for any sufficient cause may remove any Manager or Guardian appointed by the Collector, and the Court on the application of the Collector shall compel any Manager so removed to deliver his accounts and the property in his hands.

A Manager refusing to furnish accounts, may be fined by the Court, &c.

XIX. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any Manager of the estate of a Lunatic who wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver his accounts or any property in his hands within the prescribed time or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall deliver such accounts or property.

Judge may in certain cases apply property for Lunatic's maintenance without appointing any Manager.

XX. If it appears to the Civil Court, having regard to the situation and condition in life of the Lunatic and his family, and the amount and description of his property, to be unnecessary to appoint a Manager of the estate as hereinbefore provided, the Court may, instead of appointing such Manager, order that the property (if money) or (if of any other description) the produce thereof, when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit, to be applied for the maintenance of the Lunatic and his family.

Procedure for delivery of estate to a person who has ceased to be of unsound mind.

XXI. When any person has been adjudged to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, if such person or any other person acting on his behalf, or having or claiming any interest in respect of his estate, shall represent by petition to the Civil Court, or if the Court shall be informed in any other manner, that the unsoundness of mind of such person has ceased, the Court may institute an enquiry for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is or is not still of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs. The enquiry shall be conducted in the manner provided in Section IV and the four following Sections of this Act; and if it be adjudged that such person has ceased to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, the Court shall make an order for his estate to be delivered over to him, and such order shall be final.

Orders to be open to appeal.

XXII. Except as otherwise herein provided, all orders made by a Civil Court or by any subordinate Court under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals in miscellaneous cases.

Interpretation.

"Lunatic."

"Civil Court."

Gender.

XXIII. The word "Lunatic," as used in this Act, unless the contrary appears from the context, shall mean every person found by due course of law to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs. The expression "Civil Court" shall mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the District. Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th September 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXVI OF 1858.

An Act relating to Lunatic Asylums.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the reception and detention of Lunatics in Asylums established for that purpose; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

Lunatic Asylums may be established by Government or may be licensed.

I. The Executive Government of any Presidency or place, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may establish Asylums for the reception and detention of Lunatics at such places within the limits of the said Government as may be deemed proper. Any such Executive Government may also, if it think fit, grant licenses to any private persons for the establishment of such Asylums within the said limits, and may withdraw such licenses.

Rules for the management of Asylums to be sanctioned by Government.

Appointment of visitors.

II. The management of every Lunatic Asylum and the care and custody of its inmates shall be regulated according to such rules as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Executive Government. The Executive Government shall appoint for every Asylum not less than three visitors, one of whom at least shall be a Medical Officer. The Inspector of Jails (where such office exists) shall be a visitor ex-officio of all the Asylums within the circle of his inspection.

Monthly inspection by visitors.

III. Two or more of the visitors, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer, shall, once at the least in every month, together inspect every part of the Asylum or Asylums of which they are visitors, and see and examine, as far as circumstances will permit, every Lunatic therein, and the order and certificate for the admission of every Lunatic admitted since the last visitation of the visitors; and shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose any remarks which they may deem proper in regard to the management and condition of the Asylum and the Lunatics therein.

Wandering and dangerous Lunatics to be sent to the Magistrate.

Certificate and order for reception in Asylum.

IV. It shall be the duty of every Darogah or District Police Officer to apprehend and send to the Magistrate all persons found wandering at large within his District who are deemed to be Lunatics and all persons believed to be dangerous by reason of Lunacy. Whenever any such person as aforesaid is brought before a Magistrate, the Magistrate, with the assistance of a Medical Officer, shall examine such person, and if the Medical Officer shall sign a certificate in the Form A. in the Schedule to this Act, and the Magistrate shall be satisfied on personal examination or other proof that such person is a Lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment, he shall make an order for such Lunatic to be received into the Asylum established for the Division in which the Magistrate's jurisdiction is situate, or, if such Lunatic is not a native of the country and the circumstances of the case so require, into a Lunatic Asylum at the Presidency; and shall send the Lunatic in suitable custody to the Asylum mentioned in such order. Provided that, if any friend or relative of any Lunatic who is believed to be dangerous shall undertake in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such Lunatic shall be properly taken care of, and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others, the Magistrate, instead of sending him to an Asylum, may make him over to the care of such friend or relative.

In certain cases, a Lunatic may be committed to the care of his friends or relatives.

Or sent to a licensed Asylum.

Provided also that, if any such friend or relative shall desire that the Lunatic may be sent to a licensed Asylum instead of the public Asylum of the Division and shall engage in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate to pay the expenses which may be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, medicine, clothing, and care of the Lunatic in such Asylum, the Magistrate may send the Lunatic to the licensed Asylum mentioned in the engagement.

In case of neglect or cruel treatment of a Lunatic, Magistrate may order relative, &c., to maintain him.

V. If it shall appear to the Magistrate, on the report of a Police Officer or the information of any other person, that any person within the limits of his jurisdiction deemed to be a Lunatic is not under proper care and control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, the Magistrate may send for the supposed Lunatic, and summon such relative or other person as has or ought to have the charge of him; and if such relative or other person be legally bound to maintain the supposed Lunatic, the Magistrate may make an order for such Lunatic being properly cared for and treated, and, if such relative or other person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order, may commit him to jail for a period not exceeding one month. If there be no person legally bound to maintain the supposed Lunatic, or if the Magistrate think fit so to do, he may proceed as prescribed in the last preceding Section, and upon being satisfied in manner aforesaid that the person deemed to be a Lunatic is a Lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment, may make an order for his reception into such Asylum as aforesaid. It shall be the duty of every Darogah or District Police Officer to report to the Magistrate every such case of neglect or cruel treatment as aforesaid which may come to his knowledge.

If no person bound to maintain him, Magistrate may make an order for his reception in Asylum.

Darogah to report neglect.

Commissioner of Police, &c. to act in the Presidency Towns and Straits Settlement.

VI. All acts which the Magistrate is authorized or required to do by the two last preceding Sections, may be done in the Presidency Towns and the Stations of the Straits Settlement by the Commissioner of Police; and all duties which a Darogah or District Police Officer is authorized or required to perform, may be performed in any of the said Towns and Stations by an Officer of the Police Force not below the rank of Inspector.

Order and certificate in Presidency Towns & Straits Settlement.

VII. Except as otherwise hereinbefore provided, no person shall be received into a Lunatic Asylum in any Presidency Town or in any Station of the Straits Settlement without an order under the hand of some person in the Form B in the Schedule to this Act together with such statement of particulars as is contained in the said Form B, nor unless such person has been found Lunatic by inquisition or under an enquiry directed by an order of one of the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, without the medical certificate containing the particulars in Form A in the Schedule to this Act, of two persons each of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and one of whom shall be a Presidency Surgeon or a Surgeon in the employment of the Government. When such order is presented, the visitors or manager of the Asylum, before admitting the Lunatic into the Asylum, may require the friends of the said Lunatic to engage to pay the expenses which may be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of the Lunatic, unless it shall appear to the said visitors that they have not sufficient means of doing so.

In places other than Presidency Towns &c., no person to be received into Asylum without order of Civil Court.

VIII. Clause 1.—In places other than those specified in the last preceding Section, no person shall be received into a Lunatic Asylum, except as otherwise hereinbefore provided, without an order of the Civil Court.

Application for order by whom to be made where guardian has been appointed.

Clause 2.—When any person has been adjudged to be a Lunatic, and a guardian for such Lunatic has been appointed by the Court of Wards or the Collector or by the Civil Court, if such guardian shall desire that the Lunatic be admitted into a Lunatic Asylum, he shall make application to the Civil Court, and the Judge with the assistance of a Medical Officer shall examine such Lunatic, and if the Medical Officer shall sign a certificate in the Form A in the Schedule to this Act, and the Judge shall be satisfied that the Lunatic is a proper person to be detained under care and treatment in a Lunatic Asylum, he shall make an order for such person to be received into the Asylum established for the Division in which his jurisdiction is situate, or, if he think fit, into any licensed Asylum mentioned in the application.

Application where no guardian has been appointed.

Clause 3.—If any relative or friend of any person for whom a guardian has not been appointed by the Court of Wards or the Collector or by the Civil Court, desires that such person may be admitted into a Lunatic Asylum, he may make application to the Civil Court, and the Judge, if he see sufficient reason for so doing, shall enquire into the fact of Lunacy in the same manner as if an application had been made to the Civil Court under the provisions of Section III of Act XXXV of 1858 entitled "An Act to make better provision for the care of the estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature"; and if the Lunacy be established, the Judge may then proceed in the manner prescribed in the second Clause of this Section.

Order for payment of expenses.

Clause 4.—Whenever the Judge shall make an order for the reception of any person into a Lunatic Asylum, he shall, at the same time, make an order for the payment of the expenses to be incurred for the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such person, and such expenses shall be recovered by the Judge on the application of the visitors or manager of such Asylum. Provided however that, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Judge that the Lunatic has not sufficient property and that no person legally bound to maintain the said Lunatic has sufficient means for the payment of such expenses, he shall certify the same in the order for the reception of the Lunatic into the Asylum, instead of making such order for the payment of expenses as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Order of discharge from Asylum.

IX. It shall be lawful for three of the visitors of any Asylum, of whom one shall be a Medical Officer, by writing under their hands, to order the discharge of any person detained in such Asylum. When such order is given, if the person is detained under the order of any public Officer, notice of the order of discharge shall be immediately communicated to such Officer.

Order of discharge on undertaking of relative for due treatment of the Lunatic.

X. When any relative or friend of a Lunatic detained in any Asylum under the provisions of Section IV Section V, or Section VI of this Act, is desirous that such Lunatic should be delivered over to his care and custody, he shall make application to the Magistrate or Commissioner of Police under whose order the Lunatic is detained, and the Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, if he think fit, after communication with the visitors or with one of them being a Medical Officer, and upon the undertaking in writing of such relative or friend to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate or Commissioner that such Lunatic shall be properly taken care of and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or others, shall make an order for the discharge of such Lunatic, and such Lunatic shall thereupon be discharged.

Inspector of Jails may make order of removal from one public Asylum to another.

XI. The Inspector of Jails may direct the removal of any Lunatic from any public Asylum to any other public Asylum within the circle of his inspection, and such order shall be sufficient authority for the removal of such Lunatic, and also for his reception into the Asylum to which he is ordered to be removed.

Amendment of order or certificate.

XII. If, after the reception of any Lunatic into any Asylum, it appear that the order or the medical certificate or certificates upon which he was received is or are defective or incorrect, the same may at any time afterwards be amended by the person or persons signing the same with the sanction of two or more of the visitors of the said Asylum, one of whom shall be a Medical Officer.

Certificate and order to justify detention and recapture after escape.

XIII. Every person received into a Lunatic Asylum under any such order as is required by this Act accompanied by the requisite medical certificate, may be detained therein until he be removed or discharged as authorized by this Act, and in case of escape may, by virtue of such order, be re-taken by the manager of such Asylum, or any Officer or servant belonging thereto, or any other person authorized in that behalf by the said manager, or any Police Officer, and conveyed to and received and detained in such Asylum.

In what cases Government to pay for the maintenance of Lunatic.

XIV. When any Lunatic is sent to a licensed Asylum by order of a Magistrate or Commissioner of Police under Section IV, Section V, or Section VI of this Act, and when a Lunatic is admitted into such Asylum under Section VII or an order for the reception of a Lunatic is made under Section VIII and no engagement has been taken from the friends of the Lunatic or order made by the Judge for the payment of expenses under the said Section VII or Section VIII respectively, the expense of the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such Lunatic shall be paid by the Government to the manager of such Asylum.

Civil Court, on application of Magistrate, may make order for the payment of cost of maintenance out of the Lunatic's estate.

XV. The Magistrate or Commissioner of Police by whom any Lunatic has been sent to a Lunatic Asylum, if it appear to such Magistrate or Commissioner that such Lunatic has an estate applicable to his maintenance and more than sufficient to maintain his family, or that any person is legally bound to maintain and has the means of maintaining such Lunatic, may apply to the chief Civil Court of original jurisdiction within the local jurisdiction of which the estate of the Lunatic may be situate or the person legally bound to maintain him may reside, and such Court shall enquire into the matter in a summary way, and on being satisfied that such Lunatic has an estate applicable to his maintenance, or that any person is legally bound to maintain and has the means of maintaining such Lunatic, shall make an order for the recovery of the charges of the lodging, maintenance, clothing, medicine, and care of such Lunatic out of such estate or from such person. Such order shall be enforced in the same manner and shall be of the same force and effect and subject to the same appeal as any judgment or order made by the said Court in a regular suit in respect of the property or person therein mentioned. Any personal property which may be in the possession of a Lunatic found wandering at large may be sold by the Magistrate and the proceeds thereof (or such part of the same as may be necessary) applied towards the payment of the charges of the lodging and maintenance of the Lunatic, and of any other expenses incurred on his behalf.

Saving of liability of relatives to maintain Lunatic.

XVI. The liability of any relative or person to maintain any Lunatic shall not be taken away or affected by any provision contained in this Act.

Saving of powers of Supreme Courts &c. and of Act IV of 1849.

XVII. Nothing contained in this Act shall be taken to interfere with the power of any of the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter over any person found to be Lunatic by inquisition or under the provisions of Act XXXIV of 1858 entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in Lunacy in the Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter," or with the rights of any Committee of the person or estate of such Lunatic; or to affect the provisions of Act IV of 1849 entitled "An Act for the safe custody of Criminal Lunatics."

Interpretation. "Lunatic." "Magistrate."

XVIII. The word "Lunatic," as used in this Act, shall mean and include every person of unsound mind, and every person being an idiot. The word "Magistrate" shall include a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 25th September 1858, and was referred to Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 29th of November next :—

A Bill to provide for the punishment of breaches of contract by Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers in certain cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS much loss and inconvenience are sustained by manufacturers, tradesmen, and others in the several Presidency Towns of Calcutta Madras, and Bombay, from fraudulent breach of contract on the part of Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers who have received money in advance, on account of work which they have contracted to perform; and whereas the remedy by suit in the Civil Courts for the recovery of damages is wholly insufficient, and it is just and proper that persons guilty of such fraudulent breach of contract should be subject to punishment; It is enacted as follows :—

If workman neglect to perform work on account of which he has received an advance of money, complaint may be made to Magistrate.

I. When any Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall have received from any Master or Employer resident or carrying on business in any Presidency Town, an advance of money on account of any work which he shall have contracted to perform, or to get performed by any other Artificers, Workmen, or Laborers, if such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall wilfully and without lawful or reasonable excuse neglect or refuse to perform or get performed such work according to the terms of his contract, such Master or Employer may complain to a Magistrate of Police, and the Magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons or a warrant, as he shall think proper, for bringing before him such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer, and shall hear and determine the case.

Magistrate may order repayment of advance or performance of contract.

II. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer has received money in advance from the complainant on account of any work, and has wilfully and without lawful or reasonable excuse neglected or refused to perform or get performed the same according to the terms of his contract, the Magistrate shall, at the option of the complainant, either order such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to repay the money advanced, or such part thereof as may seem to the Magistrate just and proper, or order him to perform or get performed such work according to the terms of his contract; and if such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer shall fail to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may sentence him to be imprisoned with hard labor for a term not exceeding three months, or, if the order be for the re-payment of a sum of money, for a term not exceeding three months, or, until such sum of money shall be sooner repaid; provided that no such order for the repayment of any money shall, while the same remains unsatisfied, deprive the complainant of any Civil remedy by action or otherwise which he might have had but for this Act.

Penalty if workman fail to comply with the order.

Magistrate may require workman to give security for due performance of order.

III. When the Magistrate shall order any Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to perform or get performed any work according to the terms of his contract, he may also at the request of the complainant, require such Artificer, Workman, or Laborer to enter into a recognizance with sufficient security for the due performance of the order; and in default of his entering into such recognizance or furnishing such security to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, may sentence him to be imprisoned with hard labor for a period not exceeding three months.

To what contracts the Act extends.

IV. The word "contract," as used in this Act, shall extend to all contracts and agreements whether by deed, or written or verbal, and whether such contract be for a term certain, or for specified work, or otherwise.

W. MORGAN.
Clerk of the Council.

THE 25TH SEPTEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 25th September 1858, is hereby published for general information :—

A Bill for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows : —

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800, Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section V Regulation XVII. 1805, and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors, are repealed.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying Revenue to Government, who have been or shall be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors, not being European British subjects, and the charge of their property, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

Persons and property of Minors not under the protection of the Court of Wards shall be subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

III. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor under a Will or other Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, may apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate of administration; and no person shall be competent to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge, or to give any legal discharge to the debtors of such estate, until he shall have obtained such Certificate.

What persons claiming to have charge of property in trust for a minor may apply for Certificate of administration.

No person competent to institute or defend a suit without such Certificate.

IV. Any relative or friend of a Minor in respect of whose property such certificate has not been granted, or, if the property consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, the Collector of the District may apply to the Civil Court to appoint a fit person to take charge of the property and person of such Minor.

Who may apply to Court to appoint a person to take charge of the property &c. of a Minor.

V. If the property be situate in more than one District, any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the Civil Court of the District in which the Minor has his residence.

To what Court application to be made, if property be situate in more than one District.

VI. When application shall have been made to the Civil Court either by a person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor, or by any relative or friend of a Minor, or by the Collector, the Court shall issue notice of the application and fix a day for hearing the same. On the day so fixed, or as soon after as may be convenient, the Court shall enquire summarily into the circumstances and pass orders in the case.

Enquiry to be made by Court on application.

VII. If it shall appear that any person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor is entitled to such right by virtue of a Will or Deed, and is willing to undertake the trust, the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to such person. If there is no person so entitled, or if such person is unwilling to undertake the trust, and there is any near relative of the Minor who is willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of his property, the Court may grant a Certificate to such relative. The Court may also if it think fit, (unless a Guardian have been appointed by the father), appoint such person as aforesaid or such relative or any other relative or friend of the Minor, to be Guardian of the person of the Minor.

Certificate of administration to whom to be granted.

Court may appoint such person Guardian.

VIII. The Court may call upon the Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of any relative or friend of the Minor who may be desirous or willing to be entrusted with the charge of his property or person.

Court may call upon Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of relative or friend.

IX. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will or Deed, and if there be no near relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property of the Minor, and the Court shall think it to be necessary for the interest of the Minor that provision should be made by the Court for the charge of his property and person, the Court may proceed to make such provision in the manner hereinafter provided.

Proceeding if no title to a Certificate be established, and if there be no relative fit to be entrusted with the property &c. of a Minor.

X. If the estate of the Minor consist of moveable property or of houses, gardens, or the like, the Court may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act XIX of 1841, or if there be no Public Curator, to any fit person whom the Court may appoint for the purpose.

If estate consist only of moveable property, &c., Court may grant Certificate to Public Curator or other person.

XI. Whenever the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to the estate of a Minor to the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid, it shall at the same time appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the Minor. The person to whom a Certificate of administration has been granted, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. If the person appointed to be Guardian be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court may assign him such allowance, to be paid out of the estate of the Minor, as under the circumstances of the case it may think suitable.

Appointment of Guardian.

XII. If the estate of the Minor consist, in whole or in part, of land or any interest in land, the Court may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the property of the Minor and a Guardian of his person, in the same manner and subject to the same rules in respect of such appointments and of the duties to be performed by the manager and the Guardian respectively, so far as the same may be applicable, as if the property and person of the Minor were subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards.

When the estate consists of land, Court may direct Collector to take charge of estate.

XIII. In all enquiries held by the Civil Court under this Act, the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by the person on whose application the enquiry was made, or out of the estate of the Minor or otherwise as it may think proper.

Payment of costs.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situate, may represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Court, unless it see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall in such case appoint a Guardian for the care of the persons, and a manager for the charge of the property of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. If the property be situate in more than one District, the representation shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the property under the Court of Wards, to the Civil Court of his own District, and the orders of the Court of that District shall have effect also in other Districts, in which portions of the property may be situate.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

XV. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XVI. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, deliver in Court an inventory of any immoveable property belonging to the Minor, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And the Public Curator and every such other Administrator shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If any relative or friend of a Minor or any Public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Curator or Administrator and enquire summarily into the matter, and make such order thereon as it shall think proper, or the Court at its discretion may refer such petition to any subordinate Court.

Public Curator &c. to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or account be impugned.

XVII. All sums received by the Public Curator or such other Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Minor or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Public Curator &c. to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for any relative or friend of a Minor, at any time during the continuance of the minority, to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, or from any such Manager or person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Relative or friend may sue for an account.

XIX. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to continue the prosecution of the suit on his own behalf.

Continuance of suit instituted under this Act after disqualification shall have ceased.

XX. The Civil Court for any sufficient cause may recall any Certificate granted under this Act, and may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, or may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator or any other person as the case may be; and may compel the person whose Certificate has been recalled to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him. The Court may also for any sufficient cause remove any Guardian appointed by the Court.

Revocation of Certificate.

Removal of Guardian.

XXI. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any person who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXII. The Civil Court may permit any person to whom a certificate shall have been granted under this Act not being the Public Curator, and any Guardian appointed by the Court, to resign his trust, and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands.

Civil Court may permit resignation of trust, &c.

XXIII. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X, shall be entitled to receive such commission not exceeding five per centum on the sums received and disbursed by him, or such other allowance, to be paid out of the Minor's estate, as the Civil Court shall think fit.

Remuneration of Public Curator, &c.

XXIV. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court, or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of any male Minor, shall be bound to provide for his education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of all such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act XXVI of 1854 (for making better provision for the education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards) shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education. Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

Persons under the age of 18 years to be held Minors for the purposes of this Act.

XXV. For the purposes of this Act, every person shall be held to be a Minor, who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

Act not to authorize the appointment of Guardians of certain married women and other persons.

XXVI. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of a Guardian of the person of a female whose husband is not a Minor, or the appointment of a Guardian of the person of any Minor whose father is living and is not a Minor; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of any person other than a female as the Guardian of the person of a female. If a Guardian of the person of a Minor be appointed during the minority of the father or husband of the Minor, the Guardianship shall cease as soon as the father or husband (as the case may be) shall attain the age of majority.

Guardianship during the minority of the father or husband of a Minor when to cease.

Appeals.

XXVII. All orders passed by the Civil Court or by any Subordinate Court under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of such Court and the Subordinate Courts.

Interpretation.

XXVIII. The expression "Civil Court" as used in this Act shall be held to mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the District, and shall not include the Supreme Court; and nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the powers of the Supreme Court over the person or property of any Minor subject to its jurisdiction. Unless the contrary appears from the context, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

To MAJ.-GENL. SIR W. R. MANSFIELD, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff, Allahabad.

SIR,

I HAVE much gratification in forwarding the accompanying Report from Brigadier MacDuff, Commanding the 2nd Infantry Brigade, Saugor Field Division, of an action fought with the Rebels posted in the village of Sahao, and their complete defeat with great loss, and which I have the honor to beg may be submitted to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

* Lieutenant Colonel Primrose, H. M's. 43rd Regiment Light Infy.
Captain Dovehill, Brigade Major.
Captain Ommaney, Royal Artillery.
Surgeon Barclay, H. M's. 43rd Regt. L. I.
Major Davis, Commanding Cavalry.
Captain Ternan, Deputy Commissioner.
Lieutenant Dick, Seikh Horse.

Rissaldar.
Min Hoossain Ali, 8th Irregular Cavalry.

Brigadier MacDuff has brought to my notice the Officers noted in the * margin, with a request I would recommend them to the favorable notice of His Excellency. I do so with great satisfaction, trusting the Commander-in-Chief will be pleased to extend to them his most favorable consideration.

I have &c.,

(Signed) G. C. WHITLOCK, Major-Genl.,
Commanding Saugor Field Division.

CAMP SYRENUGGER:
9th September 1858.

TO THE ACTING ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Saugor Field Division, Camp Banda,
Camp near Rajpoorah, 5th Sept. 1858.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major General Whitlock, Commanding Saugor Field Division, as follows. Having received reliable information that the Rebels who have lately been plundering this District up to the neighbourhood of even Calpie, were under different rebel leaders, to the number of 500 mutineer Sepoys, and about three thousand matchlock-men, strongly posted in village "Sahao," four miles north of Jaloun, I this morning moved with the force as per margin to attack them. On nearing the village of Sahao, the Rebels, sounding the "Assembly," appeard in great strength on a rising ground crowned by the ruins of an old Fort.

	Officers.	Men.	Guns.
Staff	2	„	„
Royal Artillery	3	89	4
8th Irregular Cavalry	„	51	„
Metges' Seikh Horse	2	169	„
Jhansi Mounted Police	2	58	„
H. M's. 43rd L. I.	13	235	„
Jhansi Mily. Foot Police	2	354	„
Total,	24	956	4

Their right was protected by houses and walled gardens; their left by the village of Sahao itself.

From the centre of their position, they opened their guns at a distance of 500 yards, and appeared determined to dispute fiercely the ground they held.

My little force was immediately formed up, the guns in the centre under Captain Ommaney, Royal Artillery; Her Majesty's 43rd Light Infantry on the right of the guns, under Lieutenant-Colonel Primrose; a party of Metges' Seikh Horse under Lieutenant Dick took ground well to the right, to act as opportunity offered; the remainder of Metges' Seikh Horse under Major Davis took ground to the extreme left with orders to sweep round the right of the enemy and cut off their retreat; a party of 8th Irregular Cavalry under Rissaldar Min Hossain Ali, remained in support of the guns.

The enemy's fire from their centre was immediately answered by our four guns, the fire from which was excellent, and soon made the enemy abandon, with the loss of a gun, the strong ground he had so well chosen.

The rebel sepoys of the right wing retired with remarkable steadiness and in close order; but the left wing retired in great disorder, and in that state were charged in flank by Lieutenant Dick, who, under my own eyes, cut up a great number; here this excellent young Officer was severely wounded by a sabre cut, but notwithstanding he again charged the mutineers repeatedly, sustaining I regret to say two more severe wounds.

I beg leave to bring the dashing soldier-like conduct of this Officer to the favorable notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

My whole line then advanced, the Cavalry charging the Rebels repeatedly on both flanks, the guns being well to the front supported by Her Majesty's 43rd.

The Rebels now closely pressed took up a second position on a ridge, but upon our guns again opening with great precision, they again retreated, taking advantage of any cover the ground offered, and defending themselves stoutly in buildings, gardens, &c., on the outskirts of the different villages.

Major Davis continued the pursuit for about six miles; that Officer's report is attached.

Some mutineers having taken post in village "Rajpoorah," Lieut.-Colonel Primrose entered the village with his gallant Corps, and destroyed the whole of the Rebels concealed there.

The country, from three days' incessant heavy rain, had become nearly impassable for Artillery, and that arm deserve great credit for the rapidity with whch it advanced; also the Infantry which had to march through ploughed fields the day before entirely under water.

From the number of bodies seen on the field, I should estimate the loss of the enemy at between two and three hundred, and 21 Rebels captured. Our loss, I am happy to say, was comparatively small. The defeat of this rebel body was most complete, and will have, I am sure, excellent effect in this part of the country.

I beg in conclusion to express my obligations to the following Officers, and to request that you will be pleased to recommend them to the favorable notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

Lieutenant-Colonel Primrose, Commanding Her Majesty's 43rd Light Infantry, who gave me every aid and assistance in his power.

Captain Dovehill, my Brigade Major, with whose zeal and attention to the duty of his department I am fully satisfied, more especially in carrying my orders in the field.

Captain Ommaney, Royal Artillery, for the rapid manner in which he brought his battery to the front, and the steadiness with which the guns were served.

Doctor Barclay, Senior Surgeon, in charge of the Troops, whose attention to the wounded and sick deserves much praise.

Major Davis, Commanding the Cavalry of the Field Force, for the able manner in which he conducted the pursuit of the enemy.

Captain Ternan, Deputy Commissioner, who kindly placed his services at my disposal, and acted as my Aide-de-Camp on the occasion, and who has given me much valuable assistance in procuring information relative to the positions occupied by the Rebels.

Min Hossain Ali, an old and faithful soldier, maintained the high character he already enjoys.

I beg to enclose Returns of Casualties and captured Ordnance.

I have, &c.,

To Captain Dovehill, Major of Brigade,
2nd Brigade Saugor Divn.
Camp Rajapore, 5th September 1858.

Sir,

Under instructions received, I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier MacDuff, Commanding the Field Force, the operations of the Cavalry placed under my Command; strength as per margin.

8th Irregular Cavy. of all ranks, ...	51
Metges' Seikh Horse, .	167
Jhansi Mounted Military Police, ...	66
Total, ...	278

On arrival at the enemy's position this morning, at the village of "Sahao," on the action commencing, agreeably to orders, I took post on the left of the line, with half of the Seikh Horse, to cut off the enemy's retreat, Lieutenant Dick, with the remaining portion, taking post on the extreme right.

On the enemy retiring from their position, I sent Lieutenant McInroy, 19th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, doing duty with the Seikh Horse, to the left, with the Civil and Military Mounted Police, to turn the Rebels back to the centre of our line; this duty was well performed, some of the enemy being cut up; it enabled me to charge them with great effect.

I was well supported by Metges' Seikhs, who suffered severely in the hand-to-hand encounter which ensued.

Of Lieutenant Dick's operations on the right, it is unnecessary for me to speak, the Brigadier having personally witnessed his dauntless and glorious charge into a body of some 3[illegible] or 400 sepoys. I have only to regret his being severely wounded in four places by sword cuts, not however before he had cut down some five men with his own hand.

I beg to mention the support and assistance received from Lieutenant Sawers, Commandant of the Humeerpore District Police; on Lieutenant Dick being wounded, he assumed Command, and charged several bodies of the Rebels with great success. His horse was shot and bayonetted under him.

On the advance of the Cavalry, he and Lieutenant McInroy accompanied me in the pursuit, which was carried far beyond "Gohun," and throughout we cut up the Rebels in the most satisfactory manner. The old sepoys were easily distinguished by their keeping well, and doggedly together, and of course were marked out accordingly. Our pursuit was brought to a close by our horses being fairly fagged out, and the Rebels getting into entrenched gardens and topes, whence Cavalry could not have dislodged them.

I believe at least 200 Rebels have been killed on the field.

On our way back we visited "Gohun," a strong post held an hour before by the Rebels, but we found it deserted.

At the request of Lieutenant Dick, I have much pleasure in bringing to notice the gallant conduct of Native Doctor Hurree Kishun, attached to the Seikh Cavalry, who received four severe wounds in the discharge of his duty attending on Lieutenant Dick.

Also of Rissaldars Mena Sing and Rajah Pirthee Sing, of Kangra, and Naib Duffadar Dawa Sing, all of the Seikh Horse.

The annexed Return of Casualties will speak to the nature of the service rendered.

I have, &c.

No. 421 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch, from Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K. C. No. 153 of 1858.

FROM BRIGADIER GENERAL NAPIER, C. B.,

Commanding Gwalior Division,

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,

Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Camp Powrie, 30th August 1858.

SIR,

MY telegrams of the 21st and 22nd, and my demi-official letter of the 20th will have put you in possession of the principal occurrences here, which I will now report more fully.

Brigadier Smith, Commanding the Brigade at Sepree, received intimation that the Fort of Powrie, 20 miles north-west of Sepree, had been seized on the 4th instant, by Maun Sing, the Ex-Raja of Nurwar, who corrupted the garrison, most of whom joined him after letting him into the place. His force was reported to be 4,000 men, of whom 700 were rebel sepoys, well armed with flint and percussion muskets.

Very urgent applications for protection were made by the Local Authorities to Brigadier Smith, as Maun Sing was on the point of seizing other valuable towns, and alarming the well-disposed inhabitants of the district. The Brigadier, therefore, moved at once to Powrie on the 6th, but found it too strong to be attempted with field guns, and encamping at a distance of 3 miles, applied to me for "2 18-pounders, 2 8-inch mortars, and reinforcements." The requisition reached me at Gwalior on the 9th.

On the 11th, the Siege Train left Gwalior, and arrived at Powrie on the 20th, where I encamped with Brigadier Smith's force, total strength as per margin, just out of range of the enemy's guns.

A party of 100 Infantry, with 200 Infantry, and 2 guns in support, under command of Major Vialls, immediately seized a temple 400 yards from the main gate, the enemy's picket retiring into the place, from which a smart fire of round shot and musketry was opened, and replied to by our rifles. I then proceeded with Brigadier Smith; Captain Turnbull, Chief Engineer; Colonel Blake, Commanding Artillery; and my Staff to reconnoitre the north-east side, whilst Colonel Robertson, 25th Bombay Native Infantry, accompanied by Major Chetwode, with a strong escort of Cavalry and guns, reconnoitred the west side.

Having determined on the necessary arrangements, 4 8-inch mortars were sent down to the temple at sunset, and continued to play without intermission during the night.

A breaching battery for 2 18-pounders was commenced at 300 yards from a bastion on the east side, and nearly completed by morning.

A battery for the howitzer to give an oblique fire on the defences of the east side, and cross-fire on the breach, was also commenced at 400 yards, but being interrupted by a party of the enemy in the thick jungle, the bildars ran away, and could not be re-assembled. The mortars continued to play all day of the 21st, and had a sensible effect on the enemy's fire, which had been maintained with much briskness on the temple, and on all approaches. During the night of the 21st, both batteries were completed, armed, and on the point of opening, when I received a message from the fort, to say that Maun Sing with his followers had escaped in the night, and praying that the mortars might cease.

I regret that it was out of my power with my force to invest the place properly. It is a mile and a half in circuit. One side rests on an impracticable precipice flanked by large ravines and jungle, and backed by a deep torrent, and a forest extending for many miles. In front of the other side is open ground with tanks and marshes. The main gate-way is very strong, having three gates, and numerous lofty bastions to flank them.

The Dhang, or jungle gate-way, has two gates, and opens on ravines and jungle; a wicket leads down by the one side of the precipice, and there is also a path sufficient for escape of men in single file down the other.

The walls though ancient, and in some places dilapidated are generally 10 feet thick of massive stone, and from 25 to 50 feet high, and are well protected by the precipice above mentioned, by deep tanks, and a wet ditch, except at two or three points.

I found on the walls 17 guns, all of which have been burst, except 4 of the smallest, which have been disabled.

No one at Gwalior, with intelligence enough to describe Powrie, could give me a correct idea of its size and strength; but a native plan, procured through the Political Agent at Gwalior, gave me correct information in some details which were valuable.

I received every assistance from Brigadier Smith, Commanding Rajpootana Brigade, and his Brigade Major, Lieutenant Goldsworthy; from Colonel Blake, Commanding Artillery; from Captain Todd, 14th Dragoons, Assistant Adjutant General; and Captain Field, Royal Artillery, in charge of the Siege Train.

Major Vialls, of H. M's 95th, at his own request, retained command of the advanced party at the temple.

Captain Turnbull, Chief Engineer; Lieutenant Festing, Royal Engineers; and Lieutenant Maclachlan, Bombay Horse Artillery, Deputy Judge Advocate General, worked without intermission at the batteries, aided by Lieutenants Budger, Pearson and Anderson, 95th Regiment, Assistant Field Engineers.

Captain Turnbull and Lieutenant Maclachlan, supported by a party of 12 Volunteers from the 95th and 10th Regiments, under Lieutenant Crealock, 95th, examined the ground up to the foot of the proposed breach, both to see that there were no obstacles to the assault, and to find the best way.

This was a service of some danger, as the enemy were on the alert, and outside the walls. It is entirely owing to the exertions of these Officers, and the efficient practice of the mortars under Captain Field and Lieutenants Harris and Strutt, Commanding Detachments, and their Officers, that we recovered a place of such strength as Powrie in 48 hours. The escape of Maun Sing is to be regretted, but it could not have been prevented without a larger force, and it would have been equally inexpedient to draw away troops from any other quarter, or to let the enemy remain in possession of a place in front of our force a day longer than could be avoided.

The troops have borne exposure and fatigue with the utmost cheerfulness and very little sickness.

On the 23rd, Brigadier Smith came on the track of Maun Sing's party, near the Koonoo River, and recovered two guns, which they had carried away from Powrie; and Colonel Robertson, with a Light Column, is now following them closely.

A Return of Casualties is annexed, in which I have to regret Lieutenant Fisher, severely wounded. The enemy lost ten killed and thirty wounded.

I have, &c.,

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Army Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Dinapore, 14th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a Report from Lieutenant-Colonel Walter, 35th Regiment, Commanding at Arrah, of a successful encounter which the Troops under his command had on the 30th ultimo, with the Rebels near the village of "Korisauth," in which they sustained a loss of from 50 to 60 men, without any casualties on our side.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JOHN DOUGLAS, Brigadier,
Commanding in the disturbed
Districts of Ghazeepore and Behar.

TO CAPTAIN STEVENSON, Brigade Major,
Behar Field Force, Dinapore,
Arrah, 31st July 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Douglas, C. B., that with the detail named in the margin, I left this Station at 2 A. M. yesterday, for Judgerajgunge, 10 miles west of Arrah, on the Buxar road, the Bridge over the Bewar at Beebigunge had been destroyed by the Rebels. I had a temporary one thrown over during the night, which I crossed.

Bengal Artillery, 2 3-Pounder and 1 12-Pr. Howtzr.
H. M.'s 10th Regiment, 80 Rank and File.
H. M.'s 35th Regiment, 140 Rank and File.
60th Royal Rifles, 210 Rank and File.
3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry, 55 Sabres.
Bengal Police Battalion, 30 Rank and File.

2. On arriving at Judgerajgunge, I found the enemy who were reported to be in force had left some hours; the country was too heavy from the rains for me to follow them up with any hope of success, either with Cavalry or Artillery.

3. I then moved on the village of Korisauth, a Rebel stronghold, which I destroyed and bivouacked in a tope close to it.

4. The Rebels approached me in force at 11 A. M.; they were computed at 80 Cavalry and 800 Infantry. I attacked them with Cavalry, and clouds of skirmishers drove them through topes and belts of jungles. I then ordered the Artillery to the front; they opened on them; the Cavalry now turned the enemy's left flank, observing which, and that they were moving to the right, I changed line to the left, prolonging my skirmishers in that direction.

5. The heat was now intense, the Troops much exhausted, several men had fallen from sun-strokes. I therefore gave up the pursuit, and got the men under cover.

6. The loss of the enemy from killed and wounded was between 50 and 60; 27 dead were left on the field. The enemy were seen carrying off their wounded.

7. All ranks vied in doing their duty. I beg to name Captain Medhurst, 10th Regiment; Captain Elkington, 35th Regiment; Captain Warren, 60th Royal Rifles; Lieutenant Gibb, Artillery, and Lieutenant Mackeson, Bengal Police Battalion, Commanding Detachments of Corps.

8. Lieutenant Beadon, Commanding Detachment 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry, has upon this as upon all occasions when on Patrol duty, rendered me the greatest service; he is unwearying in his exertions, and is a most excellent Officer.

9. Captain Baring, Staff Officer, afforded every assistance.

10. To Assistant Surgeon L. O. Patterson, Her Majesty's 35th Regiment, I am much indebted; after making his Medical arrangements, he joined me at my request. I cannot speak too highly of his zeal and efficiency as an Officer.

11. Mr. Brodhurst, the Magistrate, accompanied me on this as on every other occasion I have been out always in the front. The fact of the force falling in with, and engaging the enemy on so many occasions, speaks for itself as to the value and correctness of the information I have received from him, which is difficult to obtain in the present state of the District.

12. I am happy to say, there were no Casualties, and the cases of sun-stroke have all recovered.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. M. Walter, Lt.-Col.
Commanding Force at Arrah.

MARINE COURT.

At a Marine Court assembled on Wednesday the 15th day of September, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Master Pilot C. Layton was tried on the following Charge:—

Charge.

Mr. Master Pilot Charles Layton placed under arrest by order of the Superintendent of Marine, on the following Charge:—

For breach of duty in the following instance:—

That he, being in pilotage charge of the inward-bound English Ship Pudsey Dawson did, during the afternoon of the fourteenth day of August last, through grossly negligent performance of his duty ground that Vessel upon the bank south of Kantabaria Point, where she remained for ten days and had to discharge Cargo to a considerable extent before she could be got afloat again.

Fort William; Marine Supdt's. Office, The 10th September 1858.

H. Howe, Secretary.

Finding.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the Prosecution, with the Defence, is of opinion that the Defendant, Mr. Master Pilot Charles Layton, is Guilty of the Charge preferred against him, with exception of the word "grossly."

(Signed) J Graham, President.

Sentence.

The Court having found the Defendant Guilty of the Charge preferred against him, with exception of the word "grossly," do adjudge that he, Mr. Charles Layton, Master Pilot, do lose two steps in rank, and his name do stand in the List of Master Pilots below that of Mr William Rivett and above that of Mr. Joseph Vincent.

(Signed) J. Graham, President.

The 16th September 1858.

The Proceedings of the Trial having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has been pleased to confirm the Finding and Sentence of the Court, and the Master Attendant has been requested to release Mr. Master Pilot C. Layton from arrest, and to place his name in the List of Officers of the Pilot Service below that of Mr. William Rivett, and above that of Mr. Joseph Vincent.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

(Signed) H. Howe, Secretary.

Fort William, The 5th October 1858.

SUPPLEMENT TO

The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1858.

Zillah Cachar.

The 7th August 1858.

PROCEEDINGS OF LIEUT. R. STEWART, Offg. Supdt.

DURING a seven years' residence on this Frontier it has frequently struck me that although Cachar and the surrounding Districts and States are most fertile in themselves, and productive of many of the articles of trade such as are conducive to the necessities and conveniences of life, yet that no regular system exists whereby this produce can be made generally available to the western and more civilized portion of the Empire.

It is likewise apparent that although the inhabitants of this Frontier are by no means poor, yet they have not been introduced to the full advantages to be derived from extensive importations of foreign manufactures.

The causes of this stagnation of traffic appear to me to be the want of roads and consequently of wheeled conveyances and the continued inclemency of the seasons for the greater portion of the year which makes all communication both by land and water extremely difficult.

As great natural as well as financial difficulties exist, debarring for the present all thoughts of the construction of good roads, and as the river navigation will be always affected by the seasons until a trade has been created sufficiently remunerative for the occupation of steamers and vessels, proof against the storms and strong currents which prevail during the rains, it remains to provide a channel for traffic as little affected as possible by the difficulties with which it is at certain times surrounded.

From the month of November to that of February, the weather is cold and bracing, fair and calm. The plains are hard and traversable, the hills, valleys, marshes and jungles are free from miasmatic influences. The river is low enough to be deprived of strong currents and deep enough to admit of navigation by boats of moderate tonnage. This appears to be the season when the traders of the different Districts and States should assemble at some central position and reciprocate produce. It is necessary, I think, only to appoint a date and a place of rendezvouz in order to secure the establishment of a periodical trade which will connect Burma with Dacca, and Assam with the Hills of Tipperah.

For this purpose, in consultation with Mr. Allen, Member of the Board of Revenue, on deputation at Cherrapoonjee, it has been determined that an annual Fair or Mela be held at Silchar, the Sudder Station of Cachar, and that the inhabitants of the neighbouring Districts to the West as well as those of Assam to the North be invited to attend, bringing for sale and barter the produce of their respective countries, and that to meet these it be intimated to the inhabitants of Cachar, North, South and Proper, to those of Munipoor and Kubboo, to the inhabitants of the Kutcha Angamienagah, and Lhooshai countries through the proper authorities, that a Mart has been opened where they may not only dispose of their native produce, but receive in return that and the manufactures of Foreign countries.

The date of the Mela which will last for five days is fixed from the 30th December to the 3rd January 1858-59 inclusive, corresponding with 16th to 20th Pows 1265 B. S.

Ordered, that copies of this Proceeding, together with the accompanying advertisement relating to it and recounting the articles most likely to be proffered and demanded at the Mela, be sent in English and Vernaculars to the authorities of the Province of Assam, and the Zillah of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah and Sylhet, likewise to Major McCulloch, Political Agent in Munipoor, for communication to the Governments of Munipoor and Kubboo, and that these gentlemen be, solicited to give the widest circulation and publicity in their power to the advertisement.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding be communicated through emissaries to the different tribes of Nagahs, Kookies, Cassyahs, Meekirs, Cacharies, Angamies, Kacha Nagahs and Looshais in and about Cachar.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to the Calcutta Gazette for publication.

Ordered, that copies of the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to all known and respectable Individuals, Merchants, Traders, Landholders and Planters on the Frontier, with the request that they will give publicity to, and aid the undertaking.

R. STEWART,
Offg. Supdt.

ADVERTISEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 30th and 31st of December 1858, and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of January 1859, a great Mela will be held at Silchar or Doodpatly, in the Zillah of Cachar, to which all the Merchants, Traders and Inhabitants of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah, Sylhet, Cheerapoonjee, Assam, and Cachar will be invited, and to which the people of the Independant States of Munipore and Kubboo in Burma will also be summoned together with those of the surrounding tribes of Cassyahs, Meekirs, Kookies, Nagas, Khacharies, Kacha Nagas, Angamies and Lhooshais, bringing with them the produce and manufactures of their own and foreign countries.

A list is hereto appended, showing the articles of commerce most likely to be proffered and demanded

at this Mela, but there are many others besides which will form objects of trade.

The chief approaches to Silchar from the West are the rivers Surma or Burrack and the Koosiarah; these are navigable throughout the season to boats of 500 maunds; there is a road through the hills to Assam on the North, and one to Munipore on the East.

No taxes or Bazar dues will be levied on any articles sold at the Mela, and sheds will be erected for the convenience of the Shop-keepers.

The Mela will last for five days, and during its continuance, prizes will be offered by Public Subscription to the winners in Boat, Elephant, Horse and Foot Races as well as for other Athletic games and exercises among which may be mentioned the Muniporee, Kangjai or Hockey upon horse back.

No. 1398 of 1858.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to extend to the following Officers, when performing mounted duties on Field Service, the existing Rule granting Compensation for loss of Chargers, viz :—

To all Foot Artillery Officers attached to Heavy or Light Guns, drawn by Bullocks or Elephants.

To Infantry Officers below the Rank of Field Officer, when performing the duties of that Grade, in room of absent Field Officers.

To Officers acting as Orderly Officers to Officers Commanding Divisions and Brigades.

It is to be understood that Horse Allowance is not authorized by these Rules, but Compensation only for the loss of Horses.

Officers Commanding Divisions and Brigades in the Field will each be allowed to employ two Orderly Officers in excess of the authorized Staff. These Orderly Officers may be either Regimental Officers or Staff Officers who are not ordinarily required to be mounted, not being in receipt of Horse Allowance. The nomination of Orderly Officers and of Regimental Officers to perform mounted duties in the absence of Field Officers is to be notified in Regimental, Brigade or Division Orders, as the case may be.

No. 1399 of 1858.—The under-mentioned gentlemen are admitted into the Service, in conformity with their appointment by the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, as Cadets of Artillery, Cavalry and Infantry on this Establishment, and promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant, Cornet and Ensign respectively, from the dates assigned to them in Government General Order, No. 1216 of 1858 :—

SUPPLEMENT TO

The Calcutta Gazette.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1858.

Zillah Cachar.

The 7th August 1858.

PROCEEDINGS OF LIEUT. R. STEWART, Offg. Supdt.

DURING a seven years' residence on this Frontier it has frequently struck me that although Cachar and the surrounding Districts and States are most fertile in themselves, and productive of many of the articles of trade such as are conducive to the necessities and conveniences of life, yet that no regular system exists whereby this produce can be made generally available to the western and more civilized portion of the Empire.

It is likewise apparent that although the inhabitants of this Frontier are by no means poor, yet they have not been introduced to the full advantages to be derived from extensive importations of foreign manufactures.

The causes of this stagnation of traffic appear to me to be the want of roads and consequently of wheeled conveyances and the continued inclemency of the seasons for the greater portion of the year which makes all communication both by land and water extremely difficult.

As great natural as well as financial difficulties exist, debarring for the present all thoughts of the construction of good roads, and as the river navigation will be always affected by the seasons until a trade has been created sufficiently remunerative for the occupation of steamers and vessels, proof against the storms and strong currents which prevail during the rains, it remains to provide a channel for traffic as little affected as possible by the difficulties with which it is at certain times surrounded.

From the month of November to that of February, the weather is cold and bracing, fair and calm. The plains are hard and traversable, the hills, valleys, marshes and jungles are free from miasmatic influences. The river is low enough to be deprived of strong currents and deep enough to admit of navigation by boats of moderate tonnage. This appears to be the season when the traders of the different Districts and States should assemble at some central position and reciprocate produce. It is necessary, I think, only to appoint a date and a place of rendezvouz in order to secure the establishment of a periodical trade which will connect Burma with Dacca, and Assam with the Hills of Tipperah.

For this purpose, in consultation with Mr. Allen, Member of the Board of Revenue, on deputation at Cherrapoonjee, it has been determined that an annual Fair or Mela be held at Silchar, the Sudder Station of Cachar, and that the inhabitants of the neighbouring Districts to the West as well as those of Assam to the North be invited to attend, bringing for sale and barter the produce of their respective countries, and that to meet these it be intimated to the inhabitants of Cachar, North, South and Proper, to those of Munipoor and Kubboo, to the inhabitants of the Kutcha Angamienagah, and Lhooshai countries through the proper authorities, that a Mart has been opened where they may not only dispose of their native produce, but receive in return that and the manufactures of Foreign countries.

The date of the Mela which will last for five days is fixed from the 30th December to the 3rd January 1858-59 inclusive, corresponding with 16th to 20th Pows 1265 B. S.

Ordered, that copies of this Proceeding, together with the accompanying advertisement relating to it and recounting the articles most likely to be proffered and demanded at the Mela, be sent in English and Vernaculars to the authorities of the Province of Assam, and the Zillah of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah and Sylhet, likewise to Major McCulloch, Political Agent in Munipoor, for communication to the Governments of Munipoor and Kubboo, and that these gentlemen be, solicited to give the widest circulation and publicity in their power to the advertisement.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding be communicated through emissaries to the different tribes of Nagahs, Kookies, Cassyahs, Meekirs, Cacharies, Angamies, Kacha Nagahs and Looshais in and about Cachar.

Ordered, that the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to the Calcutta Gazette for publication.

Ordered, that copies of the above Proceeding and advertisement be sent to all known and respectable Individuals, Merchants, Traders, Landholders and Planters on the Frontier, with the request that they will give publicity to, and aid the undertaking.

R. STEWART,
Offg. Supdt.

ADVERTISEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 30th and 31st of December 1858, and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of January 1859, a great Mela will be held at Silchar or Doodpatly, in the Zillah of Cachar, to which all the Merchants, Traders and Inhabitants of Dacca, Furreedpoor, Mymensing, Tipperah, Sylhet, Cherapoonjee, Assam, and Cachar will be invited, and to which the people of the Independant States of Munipore and Kubboo in Burma will also be summoned together with those of the surrounding tribes of Cassyahs, Meekirs, Kookies, Nagas, Khacharies, Kacha Nagas, Angamies and Lhooshais, bringing with them the produce and manufactures of their own and foreign countries.

A list is hereto appended, showing the articles of commerce most likely to be proffered and demanded

at this Mela, but there are many others besides which will form objects of trade.

The chief approaches to Silchar from the West are the rivers Surma or Burrack and the Koosiarah; these are navigable throughout the season to boats of 500 maunds; there is a road through the hills to Assam on the North, and one to Munipore on the East.

No taxes or Bazar dues will be levied on any articles sold at the Mela, and sheds will be erected for the convenience of the Shop-keepers.

The Mela will last for five days, and during its continuance, prizes will be offered by Public Subscription to the winners in Boat, Elephant, Horse and Foot Races as well as for other Athletic games and exercises among which may be mentioned the Muniporee, Kangjai or Hockey upon horse back.

No. 1408 of 1858.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to direct, that the following paragraphs of Military letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, to the Government of India, No. 208, dated 11th August 1858, authorizing the grant of the rank of Major on the Invalid Establishment to Captain Haslewood, be published in General Orders:—

Captain Haslewood's advancement will have effect from the 20th September 1858, the date of receipt of the Hon'ble Court's Despatch.

Grant of a donation of three months' pay to the men of the two Artillery Companies of the European Invalid Battalion, for their services during the outbreak at Allahabad, in June 1857.

24. The grant of this donation to the men of these two Invalid Artillery Companies, in consideration of their exemplary conduct and valuable services under circumstances of privation and danger during the time they formed the Garrison of the Fort of Allahabad at the outbreak at that place has our cordial approval.

25. The Governor General takes this opportunity of bringing to our favorable notice "the good service performed by Captain Haslewood, of the Invalid Establishment, who commanded the Artillery Invalids at Allahabad, and shared in their toils and dangers."

26. As a special mark of our approbation of his services on this trying occasion, we have resolved to grant to Captain Haslewood the rank of Major on the Invalid Establishment, from the date of your receipt of this Despatch.

No. 1409 of 1858.—The Hon'ble the President in Council directs that the following paragraph of a Military letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 222, dated 18th August 1858, be published in General Orders:—

No. 92.

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Army Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Dinapore, 30th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a Report from Major Carr, Madras Rifles, Commanding at Buxar, of a successful operation undertaken by him on the 13th instant, which resulted in the complete defeat and dispersion, with heavy loss, of a very greatly superior body of Rebels who had threatened, and were about to attack his advanced post at Doomraon.

2. I beg to call His Excellency's special attention to the very skilful manner in which the small force under Major Carr was handled; to the cheerful alacrity which all ranks are reported to have displayed in encountering the enemy; and to the spirit and determination which animated the Cavalry, (both of the Military Train and 3rd Seikh Irregular Regiment,) when after severe exertions over heavy ground, by which their horses were completely exhausted, and when far away from all support, under their gallant leader Captain Nason, they unhesitatingly threw themselves on two large bodies of the hostile Infantry, whom they dispersed with a severe loss in killed and wounded.

3. Captain Nason's Report of this brilliant charge is forwarded in original, as also a Nominal Return of the Casualties on our side, of which I am happy to say, the list is extremely light and insignificant when compared with the complete success obtained.

I have, &c.,
JOHN DOUGLAS, Brigdr.,
Comdg. in the disturbed Districts of Ghazeepore and Behar.

TO THE DEPUTY ASST. ADJUTANT GENERAL, WITH BRIGADIER DOUGLAS.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Douglas, that on the 11th, having been called on by Captain Broome, Commanding Doomraon, for assistance, as a large body of the Rebels were moving in his post, I immediately sent off a Troop and half of the Military Train, in all 50 Sabres and 120 Seikh Cavalry, under Lieutenant Ryall, the whole commanded by Captain Nason, Military Train; I proceeded myself during the night with two Companies 84th, on Elephants, and 50 Madras Rifles.

On the 12th, the enemy said to be from 1,500 to 2,000, eight hundred of whom were Sepoys, were reported to me to be posted in and round the village of Chowgain, about six miles off. I went out of Doomraon a short way in their direction, but finding the country so difficult for Cavalry, for it was all enclosed, and having in all only about 150 Infantry, of whom 100 only were Europeans, I returned, and sent into Buxar for the two Naval Brigade Guns, which with one other Company of the 84th, arrived at 12 at night; this they were enabled to do, by the fortuitous presence here of some bullocks and drivers of the Bengal Artillery, which have been detained here by the closing of the communications.

Thus reinforced, on the morning of the 13th, as soon as I could get certain information of the Rebels, I marched out in the direction of the enemy on the Chowgain Road, when about 4 miles out, the Rebels were reported in front, advancing in three large bodies; on reaching the end of the enclosures, I saw one large body posted in a tope behind a rising ground about 400 yards on my left front. I had a Company of the 84th extended on that flank, and then advanced the guns which Captain Batt skilfully brought up. On the skirmishers advancing, the enemy began to retire; they were five or six hundred. Captain Batt then fired three shells at them, the last of which, set for 1,200 yards, fell amongst a number of them, killing two and wounding two others; this sent them all flying.

Just as I began to advance on this body, word was brought to me, that a body of about 700 Sepoys, with 150 Sowars, were passing my right flank to get round in my rear; I sent Captain Nason with his men to stop them, which he did effectually, as he did every thing entrusted to him. As soon as I saw the Rebels in front clear off, I retired along the road with two Companies 84th, between me and the enemy when I had got parallel with them; at Captain Nason's request I sent a gun, one Company 84th, and half the Madras Rifles, to dislodge the Rebels from a village which they had seized. On the approach of the gun, &c., they all fled, throwing away their clothes and shoes; knowing that a third body was working round on my left flank, I could not venture yet to let the Cavalry pursue; indeed I was told that the body on the left were getting round to Doomraon; I had sent a Troop of Seikh Cavalry to stop them sometime before, and they were reported to me as having halted, and I afterwards learned, that on the report of the first gun, they went off towards Arrah, plundering Jewninggunge on the way.

Having beaten off the bodies in front and right, and not being satisfied about that to the left, I determined to retire; and here Captain Nason prompted by the spirit which carried him victorious through his subsequent operations, requested my permission to pursue the enemy with the Cavalry; at first I demurred on account of the fearful odds against him, and of my own position; but on his second appeal, seeing his determination, I yielded to him, and to his dashing gallantry, ably supported by his brave men, and the party of Seiks under Lieutenant Ryall, the success, which by God's blessing, was achieved, is entirely due. His Despatch will give the detail of his pursuit and punishment of the Rebels, but the admiration which his leading and dash elicited from all who took part in his attack, I have to record.

My force consisted of about 45 Sabres Military Train, 100 Seikh Cavalry, 2 Guns Naval Brigade, with 40 Sailors under Captain Batt, four Companies 84th, about 120 men under Major Rolleston, and one Company Madras Rifles under Captain Broome, in all about 350 men. I did not think of the smallness of my force opposed to three separate bodies, each doubling it, when I remembered that it was the 84th I had with me.

The skirmishers of the 84th, on the left, got a few shots at the enemy, which were in front at first, but to pursue them even if advisable, was utterly hopeless; they can go two miles to our one when running away.

I have great pleasure in mentioning not only the readiness of all to obey orders, but also the desire evinced by all to assist me in every way.

The Rajah of Doomraon was again in the field.

Mr. Garstin, the Magistrate, was also out.

Two men Military Train, and 1 Seikh Sowar were wounded slightly, and 1 Seikh Horse severely.

Captain Nason had his left shoulder strap cut by a bullet.

I have, &c.,

G. Carr, Major,

Commanding Buxar.

Buxar,

To Major Carr,

Commanding Buxar Force,

Doomraon, 14th August 1858.

Sir,

Agreeably to instructions received, I yesterday proceeded with the force as per margin, in pursuit of the retreating enemy, after a sharp gallop of 3 miles through kheets interspersed with nullas. I came up with him and observed he was moving on the village of Kuscea in compact order, in two Divisions of about 400 each, flanked by Cavalry, the distance between each Division being about 400 yards. On seeing my party approach, he immediately drew up his forces in battle array, with very marshy ground in his front, and the village in his rear; I moved steadily on between the two masses, my object being if possible to prevent his concentrating his force; this he at once noticed, and moved the Division nearest the village up in double time, but was too late; when within 300 yards, I directed the Military Train to charge, supported by the Seikh Cavalry, which they did in a most gallant manner under a heavy fire, and cut up in the space of half an hour between 40 and 50 of the enemy, all Sepoys, with the exception of one man, who was found to be a Seikh. These men were well supplied with ammunition, the greater portion of which was; "Minnie:" finding it rather hot work, the enemy retired in a very confused and hurried manner on the village. Our Horses, from the heavy ground we were working upon, were completely exhausted; after resting them for a short time, I marched back to Camp.

Military Train, 48 Sabres.
3rd Seikh Cavalry, 100.

I am happy to say, my Casualties were few, notwithstanding the enemy fought with desperation; the Military Train had 2 men wounded (slightly,) and the 3rd Seikh Cavalry, 1 Private (slightly,) and 1 Horse (slightly.) I beg before closing this Despatch to bring to your notice, the under-mentioned Officers:—

Lieutenant Ryall, Commanding 3rd Seikh Cavalry, who steadily brought up his men in support of the Train.

To Doctor Corbyn, of the same Corps, I am much indebted for his attendance on the wounded under a heavy fire; but more particularly to Lieutenant Bodkin and Adjutant Thompson, Military Train, for the gallant manner in which they led their Troops to the charge.

Nothing could surpass the gallantry and soldier-like conduct of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of both Regiments, who appeared to vie with each other in their anxiety to close with the enemy.

I have to offer my thanks to Mr. Garstin, Magistrate of Buxar, who, from his thorough knowledge of the country, rendered me much assistance.

Sir,

I have the honor to report for the information of Major General Sir J. H. Grant, K. C. B., Commanding, that in consequence of my receiving information from Major Carnegie, the Deputy Commissioner, Durriabad, on the 30th ultimo, that the Rebels intended attacking Rudowlie, I directed Lieutenant Chamier to march the following morning with the Kuppoortulla Contingent to that place, distance 16 miles from this, which, he accordingly did, with the intention of remaining there the day, and returning the next morning to this post.

After arrival at Rudowlie, Lieutenant Chamier being apprised that some Sepoys of the late 17th Native Infantry, with other followers, were plundering a village six miles from thence, he decided upon moving immediately to disperse them, which he did after sharp firing on both sides, killing from 150 to 200 of the Rebels, and with a loss on his side of 2 killed and 7 wounded.

I have the pleasure to forward the Report from Lieutenant Chamier, for submission to the Major-General, and trust the successful exertions of Lieutenant Chamier will meet his approval.

The list of killed and wounded is also forwarded.

Dated Durriabad, 1st September 1858.

Sir,

In obedience to orders received from Major Hume, 1st Bengal Fusiliers, Commanding at Durriabad, I proceeded yesterday with a portion of the Kuppoortulla Contingent, (strength as per margin,) to punish refractory Zemindars close to our Tehseel at Rudowlie; and I am happy to be able to report, for the information of Major General Sir Hope Grant, K. C. B., a decisive success obtained over the enemy at the village of Gohemiya, distant 6 miles South-East of Rudowlie.

2. We reached Rudowlie at 9 A. M. About 1 P. M. a Zemindar came and reported that some Sepoys of the late 17th N. I., with numerous followers, had plundered the village of Gohemiya, and were still there.

3. I directed Ensign Woodgate to gallop up to the village with some Cavalry, to prevent their escape by surrounding it. Ensign Roddy always willing to volunteer, I permitted him to proceed with 50 more Sabres; the two Officers succeeded in drawing a cordon round the village, till I arrived with 2 guns, Infantry following.

4. Our Artillery fire kept the enemy occupied. At the very commencement, Ensign Roddy received a slight wound in his hand while laying a gun, the bullet lodging in the arm of a Jemadar, who stood behind him. On the Infantry coming up, four Companies of the 1st Regiment dashed into the village, headed by Ensign Roddy (whose Artillery fire was now no longer required;) and Serjeant Sheridan, H. M.'s 53rd Foot. Finding there was more opposition than was anticipated, I sent in a Company of the 2nd Regiment under Serjeant Dynan, H. M.'s 53rd Foot. An hour afterwards, Ensign Roddy applied for a gun to breach a house, from which there was yet a heavy fire. Colonel Williamson, (of H. H. the Raja's Service) with a Company, was sent in support of this gun.

5. The result of these arrangements was that after a three hours' contest for every inch of ground, the village was in our possession, and not a man had escaped. At one time, the enemy rushed out, but Ensign Woodgate, eager to participate in the fight, charged a little too soon, and sent them back into the village, to be there shot down.

6. The Contingent came into action after a march of 22 miles, and for the first time in their lives became hotly engaged. They were nobly led by Ensign Roddy, and the two Serjeants of H. M.'s 53rd Regiment, and to the united fearless bearing, and bull-dog courage of their leaders, this success is mainly to be attributed. Colonel Williamson also gallantly led his Company into the thick of the fire. To Colonel Mahtab Khan, Commanding 1st Regiment, and especially to Nubbee Buksh, the spirited Commandant of the Artillery, I must record my thanks for their services, and for those of the men under their Command.

7. His Highness the Raja, his brother, and his General, accompanied the force, and by their presence in action, instilled confidence, and stimulated the Troops to cheerfully face the heavy fire.

8. The Cavalry under Ensign Woodgate, encouraged by the coolness of their Commandant, well preserved their formation, and would doubtless have struck deep, had an opportunity been afforded. Ensign Roddy is one of those, who are ever ready to show the way, at the time of the greatest danger.

9. Many rushed out of the village during the engagement, asserting they were ryots: as their appearance confirmed their statements, they were not harmed.

10. The loss of the enemy was between 150 and 200 killed. I rejoice to add ours was only 2 killed and 7 wounded, of which a Return is appended.

11. We returned to Durriabad this morning.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith, to be laid before His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the report in original of a very successful affair with the Rebels in the neighbourhood of Buxar, on the 8th instant.

2. Major Carr, Madras Rifles, Commanding at that place, having received intimation, that the enemy purposed attacking the out-post of Doomraon, 12 miles further East, moved out from Buxar, and combining with the garrison of the Doomraon post, met the Rebels near Bhojpore, anticipating and entirely repulsing them with considerable loss, while that of our Troops was merely nominal.

3. I cannot refrain from bringing prominently to His Excellency's notice, my obligations to Major Carr, who so ably planned and executed this surprise, and to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men, (especially those mentioned by him by name) by whom he was so worthily supported.

4. No Nominal List of the single Casualty has yet been received, but it will be forwarded as soon as it arrives.

To the Brigade Major,
Behar Field Force, Dinapore.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Douglas, that having received information from Captain Broome, Commanding Doomraon at 8 P. M. on the 7th, that a body of Rebels amounting to about 900, four hundred of whom were Sepoys, were said to be advancing on Bhojpore and Doomraon. I proceeded the next morning to look for them with the force as per margin.

1 Troop Military Train (under Captain Inglefield,)of 40 Sabres. 112 Sabres of the 3rd Seikh Cavalry, (under Lieutenant Ryall.) 2Companies H. M.'s 84th Foot, (under Captain Brown.) 50 Madras Rifles, (under Lieutenant Gray.)

The Seikh Cavalry were at Bhojpore shortly after daylight. I got to Bhojpore with the Troop Military Train, and the two Companies of the 84th (the latter mounted on elephants) about ½ past nine. Sent the Madras Rifles into Doomraon to assist in protecting that place, as I called on Captain Broome, to bring two-thirds of his force, Europeans especially, to my assistance which he did with part of his own Company of Madras.

We heard on the road, that the Rebels were about a coss beyond new Bhojpore.

We passed that village about one and a half miles, when the Patrols of the Seikhs brought in word, that the Rebels were in a grove, about half a mile a head, and were beginning to move towards the right.

Up to this time, I think the Rebels had not the slightest idea of our being near them. But here they saw my party, and commenced to retreat. Seeing they were retreating, I sent on all the Cavalry with orders to attack, if the Rebels were moving, but if they stood, to wait till I came up. The Cavalry found them on the move, and taking advantage of a good opportunity, they went at them, and the result was that about 80 Rebels were killed, and the others dispersed. Captain Inglefield tells me, that he saw himself fully 60 dead bodies.

A party of 40 of the Seikh Cavalry sent out from Doomraon to co-operate with us, state that before joining the other Seikhs, they fell in with a body of flying Rebels, and that they killed a number of them. But I have not been able to ascertain whether these men were included amongst those actually seen dead.

I followed the route of the Cavalry with the 84th, some distance, but finding there was no chance of coming up with the enemy, I gave it up. The greater proportion by far of those killed were Sepoys; and 30 percussion muskets were taken, besides a great number of swords.

They seemed badly off for caps. Amongst the killed were some mutineer Seikhs.

The Rajah of Doomraon himself came into the field.

Captain Inglefield and his fine Troop, and Lieutenant Ryall, with the Officers and Men of the 3rd Seikh Cavalry, took full advantage of the opportunity given them, and acquitted themselves in the most gallant manner. Mr. Garstin, the Magistrate, accompanied the party in the pursuit and punishment of the Rebels.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.

Military Department,

Allahabad, the 1st October 1858.

No. 441 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter, from the Adjutant General of the Army, No. 909, dated 11th September 1858, forwarding one from Brigadier General Walpole, C. B., Commanding Rohilcund Division, enclosing a Report from Captain R. Larkins, Commanding at Phillibheet, of a very successful affair with the Rebels at Seerpoorah, in that neighbourhood, in which they were defeated by Major S. J. Browne, of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry, with considerable slaughter, and the loss of their guns and camp.

The Governor General cordially concurs with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in the unqualified approbation His Lordship has expressed of the ability and the daring spirit evinced in this affair by Major Browne. His Lordship also highly approves of the conduct and gallantry of the other Officers, Lieutenant G. G. Cunliffe, Lieutenant F. Craigie, Local Ensign J. Chalmers, Mr. Low, C. S., Joint Magistrate of Phillibheet, and of the whole of the men engaged on this occasion.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
TO THE SECY. TO THE GOVT. OF INDIA,
Military Department,
with the Governor General.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to enclose for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, a letter from Brigadier General R. Walpole, C. B., Commanding Rohilcund Division, No. 220, dated the 4th instant, forwarding a report (with enclosures) from Captain R. Larkins, Commanding 17th Punjab Infantry and at Phillibheet, of a very successful affair with the Rebels at Seerpoorah, in that neighbourhood, in which the latter were defeated with considerable slaughter, and with the loss of their guns and camp.

2. His Excellency desires to record his high approval of the spirit and ability evinced in this affair by the Commander, Major S. J. Browne, of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry, whose very severe wound causes much regret to Sir Colin Campbell. His Excellency further recommends to His Lordship's favorable notice the other gallant Officers and men engaged upon this occasion.

I have, &c.,
W. MATHEW, Lieut.-Colonel,
Adjutant General of the Army.

No. 220.

MAJOR GENL. SIR WM. MANSFIELD, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff.
Nynee Tal, September 4th, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying report and enclosures from Captain Larkins, 17th Punjab Infantry, Commanding the post at Phillibheet, of a very successful affair against a portion of the rebel force at Seerpoorah, (on the edge of the jungle), in which the enemy were defeated with the loss of four guns, their camp, and three (3) elephants.

The troops engaged on this occasion were commanded by Captain Browne, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, and behaved remarkably well. Captain Browne, I regret to say, was very severely wounded, and has lost an arm. The attack upon the rebel position appears to have been conducted by this Officer with great judgment and gallantry.

I beg to bring to His Excellency's notice Ensign Chalmers, 24th Punjab Pioneers, who led the Infantry on this occasion, and whose conduct is highly spoken of. I am glad to have this opportunity of testifying to the indefatigable zeal and intelligence displayed by this Officer upon all occasions when his services are required; especially by the assistance he has afforded in constructing temporary Barracks for the English Troops at Bareilly, in consequence of which they have been quickly and remarkably well housed.

I have, &c.,
R. WALPOLE, Brigadier General,
Comdg. Rohilcund Division.

No. 55.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Army Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Camp Phillibheet, 1st September 1858.

SIR,

FOR the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to report a most successful attack made on the enemy's position at Seerpoorah, about 14 miles from Phillibheet, under the Command of Captain Browne, Commanding 2nd Punjab Cavalry, in which 4 guns were captured from the enemy, along with the whole of his ammunition, baggage, cattle, 3 elephants, &c, and in which the enemy lost about 300 killed, amongst them one of the rebel leaders Allee Khan, Maiwattee, and Nizam Allee Khan was wounded, but escaped.

2. At the request of Mr. Low, Joint Magistrate of Phillibheet, and thinking it very advisable not to allow the Rebels to get possession of Nooreah, a large village 10 miles from this, on Saturday night the 28th ultimo, I sent Ensign Chalmers with 100 of the 24th Punjab Infantry, of which he is Commandant, and 100 Sabres 2nd Punjab Cavalry, the whole under Command of Lieutenant Craigie, to Nooreah, to fortify the village, as Mr. Low was anxious to re-establish a Police Chowkee there, which he had been obliged to withdraw on the 22nd.

3. On the following morning, Ensign Chalmers commenced; but shortly afterwards, the Rebels came down with Cavalry, Infantry, and Artillery to attack him, and hearing heavy firing in that direction, I concluded that such had been the case. I therefore immediately ordered out a force as per margin, under Command of Captain Browne, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, to march to Nooreah to their assistance. They marched at ½ to 12 o'clock A. M., arriving at Nooreah about ½ past 3 o'clock P. M., and found that the enemy had been obliged to retreat to their position at Seerpoorah; Captain Browne, therefore, halted his Detachment at Nooreah, and after reconnoitring the enemy's position, and from information he got from some villagers, he bivouacked at Nooreah for the night, intending to attack the enemy's position in the morning, with what result will be seen from the official reports of Lieutenant Craigie, as to the operations of the 29th, and that of Lieutenant Cunliffe, (who assumed Command of the Detachment after Captain Browne was wounded) of the attack on the enemy's position, on the morning of the 30th.

2nd Punjab Cavalry,	150
17th Do. Infantry,	175
Kumaon Levies,	100
Total	425

4. I have further the honor to forward a sketch of the enemy's position, and the plan of attack, which was so ably and successfully carried out by Captain Browne; but in which, I regret to say, he was himself dangerously wounded, not however before he had the satisfaction of seeing the enemy's position carried, their guns, ammunition, camp equipage, &c., captured, and themselves totally routed.

5. Captain Browne speaks highly of the conduct of all engaged, and of the steady advance of all, under the fire of the enemy's guns; but most especially of the steady advance of the skirmishers of the 24th Punjab Infantry, led by Ensign Chalmers.

6. I would here beg to bring Ensign Chalmers, Officiating Commandant, 24th Punjab Infantry, prominently to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for his indefatigable zeal and energy at all times, and under all circumstances. Since he arrived at Phillibheet, he has placed the city in a thorough state of defence, and his thorough knowledge of Field Engineering in all its branches has been of the greatest service here. As soon as he arrived, he threw up a bridge-head for the protection of the bridge-of-boats, to enable us, in the event of wanting assistance from Bareilly, to keep our communication open with that Station, and although the river rose so high, and almost destroyed it, as soon as the water subsided, he set to work, and in less than three days had another bridge-head completed. Besides this, between Sunday and Monday morning last, he had completed the entrenching of Nooreah, (though part of the day under fire,) and there is now a Police force there of 300 men, and the Police Chowkee re-established. Much praise, I consider, is due to Ensign Chalmers for all that he has done since he has been here, which is my reason for bringing him thus prominently to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

7. I have further the honor to forward returns of ordnance, and ordnance stores captured, as also a general casualty return of the Detachment engaged.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) ROBERTSON LARKINS, Captain,
Comdg. at Phillibheet.

TO CAPTAIN S. BROWNE,
Comdg. Detachment,
Camp Nooreah, 29th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for your information, that agreeably to Detachment Orders of yesterday's date, I proceeded with the force as per margin to Nooreah, for the purpose of fortifying the Tehseel, to enable the Police to repel any attacks that might be made upon them by the Rebels, who were encamped at Seerpoorah, about three miles off, on the edge of the jungle.

100 Sabres 2nd Punjab Cavalry.
100 Rank and File 24th Punjab Infantry.

On arriving at Nooreah, I posted a picket of (1) one Duffadar, and (4) four Sowars, to watch the enemy's picket, which was posted about a mile from Nooreah. About half past nine, the Duffadar of the picket sent in to say, that the enemy were advancing in force, with Infantry and Cavalry, but that they could not see any guns. I allowed them to advance within three quarters of a mile of Nooreah, when I divided my Cavalry into two parties, sending one towards their left, under Ressaidar Hukdad Khan, where they had some Cavalry drawn up; and myself taking the remainder of the Cavalry, and the whole of the Infantry, under Ensign Chalmers, (with the exception of a small guard left in Nooreah,) also a few Footmen and Police Sowars, who accompanied Mr. Low, I advanced towards their right, the ground in their front being rice fields, knee deep in water. The enemy were drawn up on a road running parallel to my front. There must have been about (300) three hundred Infantry, (100) one hundred Cavalry, and (2) two elephants.

Immediately I got within range, they opened upon me with round shot, from (3) three guns, posted along the road above mentioned, which being rather lower than the fields, were not visible from where I was. I moved off to the left, keeping as well as I could out of range of their shot, and got between them and their camp, where I left the Infantry, a portion of the Cavalry, and the Detachment of Police, under Ensign Chalmers, in a mangoe tope full of thick jungle, with orders to watch the guns, keep out of range, if possible, and endeavour to keep the enemy in play until reinforcements should arrive from Phillibheet; and taking the remainder of the Cavalry with me, I went back by the way I had come, to see how Ressaidar Hukdad Khan was getting on.

Ressaidar Hukdad Khan reported that he had come across a body of the enemy's Cavalry, about (19) nineteen in number, (14) fourteen of whom had charged him in the most determined manner, that the (14) fourteen were all killed, and (5) five horses captured, with a loss on our side of (2) two Sowars killed, (1) one Duffadar, and (1) one Sowar wounded, and (1) one horse missing; the Ressaidar himself also was wounded. I cannot speak too highly of the coolness and judgment of Ressaidar Hukdad Khan, on this occasion. I remained on the enemy's left watching their movements, and seeing that they were moving their guns towards where I had left Ensign Chalmers, I proceeded down the road they had been posted on at a trot, but had not gone above quarter of a mile, when I heard a volley of musketry, and on getting off my horse, and looking with my telescope, I saw the enemy making off helter-skelter towards their own camp. On joining Ensign Chalmers, he reported that for about an hour and a half, the enemy had kept up a fire at intervals from their guns, at the end of which time, they edged towards their standing camp, and got between it and the tope he held; at the same time he received a note from me, directing him, in the event of the enemy passing him, to return direct to "Nooreah," which he proceeded to do; on his getting clear of the tope, he found that the enemy had received reinforcements of Cavalry, and was drawn up in such a position as to command the road for his return, and that he estimated their numbers at (250) two hundred and fifty Infantry, (150) one hundred and fifty Cavalry, and (3) three guns, and that as soon as he was clear of the tope, they fired (3) three round shot at him, but without effect, after which their Cavalry immediately charged. He faced his men about, and when they were within (120) one hundred and twenty yards, gave them a volley that emptied (5) five saddles; they halted, and hesitated; his Infantry and Cavalry shouted, and made an attempt to charge but he restrained them, the joint effect of the volley, and attempt to charge was however such, that the Sowars turned and retired, or rather ran away towards their guns, which were immediately limbered up, and taken back to their standing camp, without giving him any more annoyance. I returned to Nooreah at 1 o'clock.

Great praise is due to Ensign Chalmers, and the Detachments of the 24th Punjab Infantry and 2nd Punjab Cavalry under his Command, as also to Mr. Low, and the few Police who were with him, for their steadiness under fire.

Attached is a casualty return.

FRANCIS CRAIGIE, Lieutenant,
Commanding Detachment.

To Captain Larkins,

Commanding at Phillibheet,

Phillibheet, 31st August 1858.

Sir,

In consequence of the incapability of Captain Browne to report the occurrences of yesterday himself, I have the honor to report, that agreeably to your orders, the force as per margin, under his command started for Nooreah at 1. P. M, to assist Lieutenant Craigie, and arrived there about 4 P. M. Captain Browne, on his arrival, finding, that the enemy had retired, before Lieutenant Craigie, ("whose report of the proceedings in the earlier part of the day I enclose,") to their standing camp at Seerpoorah, determined to postpone any attack that might be made until the following morning.

Cavalry.
130 Sabres 2nd P. Cavy.
Infantry.
150 Rank and File 17th P. N. Infantry.
100 do. Kumaon Levies.

The position of the enemy, "the whole of whose force was reported to consist of 500 Infantry and 300 Cavalry, with two or three guns," was a strong one. They occupied a rising ground, the site of a ruined village called Seerpoorah, about 3 miles for Nooreah in rear of a wide and deep jheel, approachable from the front only by a straight and narrow road entirely destitute of cover of any kind, and knee deep in water and mud. Advance from this side being out of the question, and a reliable native having been found by Mr. Low, C. S., Joint Magistrate of Phillibheet, ("who accompanied the force,") who said, he could point out a circuitous road through the jungle, which led to the enemy's rear, it was determined, that the attack should take place at daybreak on the following morning. The whole force accordingly, strength as per margin, was conducted by the guide through the jungle to within sight of the enemy's camp.

Cavalry.
230 Sabres 3d P. Cavy.
Infantry.
150 R. and F. 17th P. N. I.
100 do. 24th P. N. I.
100 do. Kumaon Levies.

The march having been conducted with the strictest silence up to this time, the enemy were apparently unaware of our approach; the ground between us and their camp, a distance of about half a mile, being open, the line of attack was immediately formed in the following order:—The 17th P. N. I., and Kumaon Levies in line covered by the 24th Punjab N. I., "half in skirmishing order, and half as support," a Squadron of the 2nd P. Cavalry on either flank, and a troop in reserve in the rear. The order having been given to move on, the whole force proceeded at a steady pace to the attack, the enemy being now drawn up to receive us. On arriving at a distance of about 400 yards, two guns commenced playing with round shot and grape upon the advancing line. The skirmishers led by Ensign Chalmers advanced unshaken, at a steady pace, and without firing a shot up to within 30 yards of the guns, when they poured in a rapid fire and charged up the ascent. Being then in Command of the Infantry, and noticing that at this time a portion of the enemy had already commenced to retire, I rapidly brought up the whole line of reserve, and swept through the enemy's position, the greatest resistance being offered by the rebel Artillerymen, who fought most desperately, apparently trying to single out the European Officers.

During this time, Captain Browne, who was with the skirmishers, seeing that the Squadron on the right, under the Command of Lieutenant Craigie, was suffering from the fire of the guns, ordered it to charge in flank, but a swamp intervening, the Squadron was obliged to make a detour, which brought it to the enemy's left rear, where a gun hitherto concealed, opened on it; this however was speedily captured, its supporters either killed, or put to flight.

By this time, the flight became general, the fugitives making their way towards the jungle, which stretched away to the left; they were vigorously pursued by the Cavalry up to its edge, which point however few of them ever reached.

This force was under the personal Command of Nizam Alee Khan, who however made himself scarce at a very early stage of the proceedings. A noted chief however, named Allee Khan, was killed and three elephants were captured in the pursuit. On returning from the pursuit, it was with sincere regret that I learnt that Captain Browne was so severely wounded, that it was necessary for me to assume Command, being the next Senior Officer. Having formed up again, I returned with the force to Nooreah, bringing in the captured guns, &c., being compelled, however, to halt there that day, on account of the wounded, and I marched back to the Station this morning.

By all accounts, the enemy must have lost fully 300 men, besides all their guns, ammunition, camp equipage, &c. and so thoroughly dispersed, that many more have since been killed by the Zemindars of the surrounding villages.

At the special request of Captain Browne, I beg to bring to your notice the extremely steady way in which the whole of the Infantry advanced under fire of the guns, strictly obeying their orders not to fire a shot till they reached them; the advance of the skirmishers under Ensign Chalmers was the admiration of all concerned.

I have, &c.,

Sir,

I have the honor to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying report, dated Camp Mow, 1st September and 4th September, respectively, forwarded by Captain W. Ashburner, Commanding Field Detachment, to Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, Commanding the 2nd Brigade, Gwalior Division, detailing the operations of a force under the Command of Captain W. Ashburner, operating against the Rebel Thakoors, Burjoor Sing Bundelah, Jowahir Sing, Davie Sing, Kenewalas, and Thakoor Maidnee Mull, and considering the small force at the disposal of Captain Ashburner, the result of his operations I consider to be highly satisfactory and creditable to that Officer.

Camp Mow, 1st September 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, that on the morning of the 2nd instant, having received intimation of two hundred Rebels being collected in the town of "Sosra," with the intention of plundering it, should the inhabitants not pay a ransom, I immediately ordered out a party, strength as per margin.

100 Sabres 3rd Lt. Cavalry.
50 Bayonets 3rd Europeans.
100 Ditto 24th N. I.

The Cavalry under Lieutenant Dick I sent on in advance with orders to surround the town, my spies having informed me, that it was situated in the plain, I myself remaining to bring up the Infantry as speedily as possible.

On arriving near the village of Naroul, lying in our route, and about a mile and a half beyond which "Sosra" is situated, I sent on an Officer with a slight escort, to see if Lieutenant Dick had arrived and surrounded the town as directed; and further ordering him to inform me, if there were any Rebels in the town, as the Infantry were somewhat fatigued with the march, the roads being heavy, and in some places under water. I thought the news of the Rebels being near would inspirit them.

This party having been fired on by some Rebels in Naroul was obliged to retire, and await my arrival with the Infantry, when throwing out skirmishers, I advanced on the town, the Rebels retiring through the ravines in rear, and to the left of the town, which were of great size and depth; through these we followed them, and coming within good range at a nullah, which operated as a slight obstacle to their retreat, being much swollen, the Infantry succeeded in disposing of a few of the Rebels; crossing the stream, which was running rapidly at the time, we continued to drive the Rebels through the ravines until we arrived at "Sosra," at which point they re-crossed the stream, and made towards "Mow Mohoni."

The Rebels here had evacuated the town previous to my arrival, and probably formed some of the party whom we had driven across the river at this point.

On arriving at "Sosra," I entered it and found it deserted by the inhabitants, the greater portion of whom, as well as the leading men, are I understand in league with the Rebels. The Cavalry rejoined me after we entered "Sosra," having watched the further side of the town, the only one not intersected by the ravines in which horsemen could not possibly act.

As it rained heavily on our setting out on the expedition, and also at intervals during the day, the troops were all thoroughly wetted; and I therefore thought it advisable to return to camp that night, which I did, arriving about 7 o'clock P. M.

Thakoor Burjoor Sing Bundelah, Thakoors Jowahir Sing and Davie Sing Kenawalas, and Thakoor Maidnee Mull.

Continuous and heavy rain since the 31st ultimo prevented my attacking them on the 1st instant, in this position, which they had selected on account of its great natural strength, and being intersected by deep ravines.

On arriving at Mohoni, we found the enemy in possession of the nullahs, from which they opened fire at our advanced guard. We threw out skirmishers, with the usual supports, and having found a good position for the guns, opened upon the enemy with shrapnel, which soon drove them from their position, and allowed of our advance close up to the town of of Mohoni, into which, as my force of Infantry is but small and inadequate to the usual loss incurred in street fighting, I directed two or three shells to be thrown, which was done, and had the effect of clearing it thoroughly. We then advanced to the opposite side of the town, facing the Fort of Mow, where the enemy were observed to be assembled, and had brought a gun to bear upon our approach by the road, and which they opened upon our skirmishers and advance; this gun was soon silenced by ours, and seeing, that the enemy had withdrawn it, and fearing it might be carried away, I ordered an advance of the whole line, at the same time directing a party of the 3rd Light Cavalry as per margin to mount.

2 European Officers.
3 Native Officers.
50 Rank and File.

These men, up to this time had been dismounted as a support to our guns, to enable me to bring all my Infantry into play.

No European Cavalry Officer being at that moment available, I requested Mr. Veterinary Surgeon Lamb, to accompany and lead it in pursuit of the guns which he most willingly undertook to do, but Lieutenant and Adjutant Moore, coming up shortly afterwards, I despatched him also with them.

This party soon overtook the enemy, captured their two guns which were at once turned on their former owners, and cut up about 30 of them, Mr. Lamb being slightly wounded in the pursuit.

Owing to the difficult nature of the ground which gave secure cover to the enemy, their loss in killed and wounded was not so severe as I could have wished, but I estimate it in all at from 80 to a 100; their route and dispersal was however complete, and the only two guns which they had are now in our possession, with all their ammunition, &c.

I beg to bring prominently to your notice, the names of Mr. Veterinary Surgeon Lamb Lieutenant and Adjutant Moore, and Subadar Soojat Khan, 3rd Light Cavalry, for their gallantry in the capture of the enemy's guns in most difficult ground, and trust that Government may deem their services worthy of recognition.

I must not omit to bring to your notice, the zeal and energy of Serjeant Murphy, of the Bhopal Contingent Artillery, who worked his guns most successfully until knocked down by a sun-stroke.

I am happy to say, that we had no casualties from the enemy's fire; a few of the Europeans were knocked down by the sun, but are now doing well.

Enclosed is a list of our casualties, as also of the Artillery and Stores captured from the enemy.

I have, &c.,

Allahabad, the 5th October 1858.

No. 448 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to permit Lieutenant W. Thompson, 7th Madras Light Cavalry, to resign his appointment of 2nd in Command, 2nd Regiment Beatson's Horse. His services are accordingly placed at the disposal of the Government of Fort St. George.

No. 449 of 1858.—In publishing for general information, the following letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, No. 888, dated the 7th September 1858, forwarding one with enclosure from Major General Sir J. Hope Grant, K. C. B., reporting the occupation of Sultanpore by the troops under the Command of Brigadier Horsford, C. B., and the passage of the Goomtee, under the Major General's personal directions, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General desires to make known his high appreciation of the Military skill displayed by Sir Hope Grant, during the series of operations which occupied six weeks, and ended in the passage across the Goomtee. His Lordship also tenders to Brigadier Horsford, C. B., and to all the other Officers and Men engaged in these operations, his warmest acknowledgments for their gallantry and efficient service.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
TO THE SECT. TO THE GOVT. OF INDIA,
Military Department, with the Govr. Genl.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief to enclose in original a letter dated 30th ultimo. No. 212, with enclosures, from Major General Sir J Hope Grant, K. C. B., reporting the occupation of Sultanpore by the troops under Brigadier A. H. Horsford, C. B., and the passage of the Goomtee, under the personal directions of the Major General.

2. I am directed by His Excellency to beg you will draw the attention of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General to the admirable manner in which Sir J. Hope Grant has conducted the operations of the last six weeks; and more particularly those for the passage of the Goomtee, with most imperfect means.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) W. MATHEW, Lieut.-Colonel,
Adjutant General of the Army.

HEAD QUARTERS,
Allahabad, 7th September 1858.

No. 212.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Head Quarters.

Camp Sultanpore Cantonments, 30th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that under instructions received from the Chief of the Staff, I despatched from Fyzabad the force as per margin, under the Command of Brigadier Horsford, C. B., on the 9th instant, towards Sultanpore, to follow up the Rebel forces which had been besieging Maun Sing at Shahgung.

DETAIL.
Artillery.
F. Troop Royal Horse Artillery.
Cavalry.
A Wing 7th Hussars.
Detacht. 7th Hussars.
Infantry.
1st Madras Fusiliers.
5th Punjaub Rifles.
Detacht. Madras Sappers.

2. Heavy rain had fallen for some days before this force left Fyzabad, which rendered the track, (there is no road,) to Sultanpore very heavy and deep in places, for the guns and the hackeries carrying the Commissariat supplies. There are two considerable nuddees on this route, but by the exertions of Captain Reid, Deputy Commissioner, they were bridged.

3. Brigadier Horsford's Despatch, detailing his operations on the 13th instant, when he drove the enemy to the right bank, and occupied Sultanpore, I have already had the honor to forward.

4. It was intended that Brigadier Horsford should cross the Goomtee, and occupy the Cantonments, on the right bank, but the enemy having taken away or destroyed every boat, no bridge could be thrown across the river, and Brigadier Horsford's instructions were not to cross without one. The right bank being in the possession of the enemy for about fifteen miles up and down the river, it was found impracticable to bring boats from a distance.

The river Goomtee is upwards of 400 feet wide.

5. In consequence of the large increase of the Rebel force, amounting to about 20,000 men with 15 guns, opposing the passage of the river, I received further instructions from the Chief of the Staff to reinforce Brigadier Horsford; and for this purpose I despatched the 2nd Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, and two 9-pounder guns from Fyzabad, on the 16th instant. By order of the Commander-in Chief this entailed the following movements of the Oudh force, viz:—(1st)—The 53rd Regiment from Durriabad to Fyzabad, to replace the Rifles. (2nd)—The 1st Bengal Fusiliers from Nawabgunge to Durriabad; and (3rd)—A Wing of the 88th Regiment from Lucknow to Nawabgunge, Bara Banke.

6. In consequence of the increasing numbers of the enemy, the determined opposition shown to the passage of the river, and the importance attached to our occupying the right bank, I determined without waiting for His Excellency's instructions, to still further reinforce the Sultanpore Column, and I accordingly marched from Fyzabad on the 19th instant, with the detail mentioned in the margin.

7 In many places along the route, the track led across cultivation and through marshes, where the gun wheels sunk to the axle. The Infantry too were obliged to wade through sloughs frequently.

8. I arrived at Sultanpore on the 22nd instant. Brigadier Horsford had taken up a good position and secured an excellent point for the passage of the river. But no boats could be procured. Three small dinghies were found, and of these Lieutenant Raynsford had constructed a very good raft; he also had platforms for a bridge in a forward state. Three dinghies which were lying at the Biswee Nuddee, 9 miles distant, I had conveyed to the ghat, and three others were found sunk in the river; of these two more rafts were constructed.

9. All the preparations necessary for crossing the force on the rafts, with the exception of the heavy guns and park, were completed on the night of the 24th instant.

10. It being evident that there was no possibility of procuring boats for a bridge, until the enemy was driven from the opposite bank, I decided upon crossing without one.

11. The force of the enemy occupied several positions. The main position was at Hassenpore, about 4 miles from Cantonments. In the Cantonment there was another large body and 8 guns; and two villages in front of the point at which I intended crossing, were also occupied. Besides the above, there were picquets along the bank of the river, and several batteries, and a Regiment watched the Dhera Ghat, where it was said there were some boats.

12. On the 22nd instant, I received intelligence that Bene Madho had arrived at the rebel camp, bringing a strong reinforcement, but the numbers were variously reported.

13. The heavy guns being in position to cover the operation, and keep down the fire of the enemy, the force commenced passing over on the morning of the 25th.

By 4 P. M. the Madras Fusiliers, the 5th Punjaub Rifles, two 9-pounder guns, and a Detachment of Hodson's Horse had crossed, and I ordered this force to advance under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Galway, and take and occupy the two villages in my front. On the approach of the Column, the enemy fled; the villages were occupied; and I thus secured an excellent position; the river, which here forms a loop, protecting the flanks of the advanced line.

14. There was much difficulty in swimming the horses across the river, and all the force had not got over till late on the 27th.

15. On the 28th, I had my arrangements made for attacking the Rebels at the Cantonments on the following morning at day-break. On that afternoon, the enemy came out in strong force and attacked my position. They were easily repulsed, and driven back; but as it was late when this was accomplished, I did not think it advisable then to follow them up. The following morning I advanced at 4 o' clock, but found that the Cantonment was deserted.

16. The enemy retreated towards the south-west, but it is not ascertained yet what position they intend taking up.

17. This district is now clear of Rebels, and the right bank of the river being free, boats for a bridge will be up in a couple of days.

18. I beg to bring to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief the efficient co-operation and support I received from Brigadier Horsford, C. B., Commanding the Infantry Brigade; Lieutenant Colonel Sir W. Russell, Bart., who commanded the Cavalry and superintended the out-post duty; and Major Yates, R. H. A., who commanded the Artillery. Officers Commanding Regiments, Troops and Detachments:—Lieutenant Colonel Hill, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade; Lieutenant Colonel Galway, 1st Madras Fusiliers; Lieutenant Colonel Payn, H. M.'s 53rd Regiment; Major Horne, 7th Hussars; Major Vaughan, 5th Punjab Rifles; Major Daly, C. B., Irregular Cavalry; Lieutenant Strange, R. A.; Lieutenant Lyon, R. H. A., were most attentive in superintending the crossing of their men and horses.

The two heavy guns under charge of Lieutenant Warren rendered good service.

Brigadier Horsford speaks most favorably of his Staff. Major Mollan, Major of Brigade; Surgeon Fraser, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, Senior Surgeon; Lieutenant Ramsbottom, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, Orderly Officer, and Captain Græme, Deputy Assistant Commissary General, who was very efficient in keeping the troops supplied.

I have great satisfaction in bringing to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief the zeal and unceasing exertions of Lieutenant Scott, Field Engineer, and Lieutenant Raynsford, Commanding the Madras Sappers, in preparing the rafts, and crossing over the troops. Everything had to be made upon the spot, and the material to be collected from houses in the town. These two Officers and the Detachment of Madras Sappers, (who worked as I never saw native soldiers work before) were employed day and night, with very few hours' interval during the operation.

From the Civil Officers attached to this Column, St. G. Tucker, Esquire, Captain Reid and W. Forbes, Esquire, I have received every assistance; and Captain Reid used every exertion to procure boats for a bridge, but for the reasons above stated, he was unsuccessful.

All Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of this Column have performed their various duties cheerfully and well, and deserve my full approval. I have particularly to notice the great assistance rendered by the Punjab Rifles and Major Daly's Corps in swimming across the Artillery and 7th Hussars' horses.

I beg also to mention my Divisional and Personal Staff Major Hamilton, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General; Captain the Hon'ble A. Anson, A. D. C.; also Major Wolseley, who, as Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, had the superintendence of the arrangements for crossing the river, and who performed them to my perfect satisfaction.

I have, &c.,

Legislative Council of India.

THE 9TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 9th October 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 13th of January next :—

A Bill to empower the Governor in Council of Bombay to appoint a Magistrate for certain Districts within the Zillah Ahmedabad.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide specially for the Magisterial and Police Administration of such portions of the Zillah Ahmedabad as are mentioned in the Schedule to this Act ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay to appoint a Magistrate for the Districts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act ; and such Magistrate, when so appointed, shall exercise within the said Districts all the powers of a Magistrate as defined in the general Regulations of the Bombay Code and the Acts of the Legislative Council. Upon the appointment of a Magistrate under this Act, the said Districts shall be exempt from the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of Ahmedabad. It shall also be lawful for the said Governor in Council to appoint so many Assistants to the said Magistrate as may be required.

Governor in Council empowered to appoint a Magistrate for the Districts mentioned in Schedule.

Powers of Magistrate.

Exemption of Districts from jurisdiction of the Magistrate of Ahmedabad.

Governor in Council may appoint Assistants to the Magistrate.

II. Nothing contained in the preceding Section shall be held to remove the said Districts from the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Ahmedabad or of the Sudder Fouzdaree Adawlut.

Act not to be held to remove the said Districts from the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Ahmedabad or of the Sudder Court.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 9TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 9th October 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 13th of January next :—

A Bill to empower the Governor in Council of Bombay to appoint a Magistrate for certain Districts within the Zillah Ahmedabad.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide specially for the Magisterial and Police Administration of such portions of the Zillah Ahmedabad as are mentioned in the Schedule to this Act; It is enacted as follows :—

Governor in Council empowered to appoint a Magistrate for the Districts mentioned in Schedule.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay to appoint a Magistrate for the Districts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act; and such Magistrate, when so appointed, shall exercise within the said Districts all the powers of a Magistrate as defined in the general Regulations of the Bombay Code and the Acts of the Legislative Council. Upon the appointment of a Magistrate under this Act, the said Districts shall be exempt from the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of Ahmedabad. It shall also be lawful for the said Governor in Council to appoint so many Assistants to the said Magistrate as may be required.

Powers of Magistrate.

Exemption of Districts from jurisdiction of the Magistrate of Ahmedabad.

Governor in Council may appoint Assistants to the Magistrate.

Act not to be held to remove the said Districts from the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Ahmedabad or of the Sudder Court.

II. Nothing contained in the preceding Section shall be held to remove the said Districts from the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Ahmedabad or of the Sudder Fouzdaree Adawlut.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Military Department.
Allahabad, the 5th October 1858.

No. 450 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, No. 1007, dated the 24th ultimo, forwarding a Despatch from Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, reporting the successful operations of a Column, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, 25th Bombay Native Infantry, which was detached from Powree, in pursuit of the Rebels under Maun Sing.

The Governor General entirely concurs with the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief in the commendation bestowed on Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson and the Officers and men under his Command. The Havildars, whose meritorious conduct has been brought to notice, will be immediately rewarded in the manner proposed.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit the accompanying copy of letter No. 201, of the 11th instant, and enclosure, received from Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K. C. B., Commanding Gwalior Division, reporting the proceedings of a Column under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel G. H. Robertson, of the 25th Bombay Native Infantry, detached from Powree in pursuit of a Rebel force under Maun Sing; and to request that, in submitting the papers to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, you will have the goodness to express His Excellency's high approval and commendation of the conduct of the Commander, and of the troops concerned in these arduous and skilfully managed movements.

2. The Commander-in-Chief further recommends that the Havildars mentioned in the concluding paragraph of Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson's Despatch, may be rewarded with the 3rd Class of the "Order of Merit," for their exertions in procuring intelligence of the movements of the enemy.

HEAD QUARTERS, ALLAHABAD,
The 24th September 1858.

No. 201.

FROM BRIGADIER GENERAL SIR R. NAPIER, K. C. B., Commanding Gwalior Division,

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,

Dated Camp Sepree, 11th September 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to lay before His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief a report from Lieutenant Colonel Robertson, Commanding 25th Bombay Native Infantry, of the pursuit and defeat of the portion of the Powree fugitives that was composed of regular troops.

This body had formed the main strength of the Rebel Maun Sing, and gave him a complete superiority over Scindiah's district authorities, so that his depredations were unchecked, and becoming daily more formidable, until they brought on him the visitation of British troops

Colonel Robertson's Column was furnished with fifteen days' supplies for Europeans, and with all the carriage that could possibly be taken from the rest of the force, and with elephants and camels to amount about 200 men.

After a most ardous pursuit of ten days, the difficulties of which can only be fully appreciated by those who have seen the country through which it lay, Colonel Robertson's Column overtook and nearly annihilated the fugitives at Bijipoor.

In these dense jungles, the few scattered villages were either deserted, or in Maun Simg's interests, through fear or affection: for some have been in his jaghir, and others subject for a year to his unchecked raids. Nothing but Colonel Robertson's experience, and his unwearied perseverance, and steady determination and the high Military spirit and energy of his troops enabled him to conduct the expedition to its successful issue. Maun Sing, who is familiar with every path in the Jungles, appears to have doubled back about the 1st or 2nd, with 200 men, whilst his vaqueel, Pearee Lall, with a similar number, also turned off at the same time by a separate route; and the two have re-united and appeared again in the jungles north of Powree, with about 400 men, to which he is reduced from 4,000. The Local troops of Scindiah ought to be able now do deal with them, if any energy whatever is exerted in the matter. I beg to recommend most earnestly to His Excellency's favor and consideration, Colonel Robertson and the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates under his Command; the conduct of all appears to have been most excellent.

Colonel Robertson particularly recommends Captain Bolton, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; Lieutenant Williams, Deputy Assistant Commissary General; also Captain Poore, 8th Hussars; Captain Foster, 95th Regiment; Captain Rice, 25th Bombay Native Infantry; Lieutenant Stewart, 13th Light Infantry, Commanding Meade's Horse; Lieutenant Roome, 10th Bombay Native Infantry; Havildars Ram Lal, 10th Bombay Native Infantry; and Dowlut Sing, 25th Bombay Native Infantry.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) R. NAPIER, Brigdr. Genl.,
Commanding Gwalior Division.

FROM LIEUT. COLONEL G. H. ROBERTSON,
Commanding Pursuing Column,
Gwalior Division,

TO THE ASST. ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Gwalior Division.

Dated, Camp near Beejapooor, 5th September 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report that the Pursuing Column under my Command, strength as per margin, marched from Powree on the 27th ultimo, in pursuit of Maun Sing, said to have with him 1,000 Cavalry and 3,000 Infantry.

2. On the 29th, we came up with a small party of Maun Sing's Infantry, some of whom were killed, some taken prisoners, and the rest dispersed in the jungle. From the prisoners, I learnt that Maun Sing had told the Gwalior Contingent portion of his Infantry to leave him, as he could not supply them with food. We continued closely to follow Maun Sing, coming daily upon the encamping ground vacated by him a few hours before. At a pass among the hills between Sanda and Bijrawun, some of his fires were burning when we arrived on the evening of the 30th. At this ground, he divided his party, sending his wounded and superfluous baggage towards Padone. At 3 miles before reaching Sangye on the 31st, I saw traces on the ground of foot-prints (chiefly men's) turning sharply to our left rear, while the impressions of horses' hoofs continued on to Sangye. Here had evidently been a further division of Maun Sing's force, reported to be now reduced to 500; of these 200 were said to have gone towards Shahabad with Pearee Lall, and 300 with Maun Sing and his uncle Ajit Sing towards Rye. On the evening of the 2nd instant, we reached Rye, and there heard that three parties of Infantry Sepoys, had met at that village from different directions, and had left that morning. On the evening of the 3rd, we arrived at Burrumpore. In view to at once closing up with the enemy, who had contrived hitherto to be always just 10 or 12 miles ahead of us, I made arrangements on the line of march for pushing on with a portion of the Column as per margin, and at 2 o'clock next morning (4th instant) marched. At 10 A. M., we arrived at Jagur, marched again 5 P. M., bivouacked when it became dark, turned out at midnight, and reached within a short distance of Beejapoor on the Choupet river, a little before day break to-day.

3. The village of Beejapoor lay between us and the enemy, who were encamped on the bank of the river. Day broke, and I sent the Hussars and Irregular Cavalry round the village, by the right, to attack the enemy on their left flank, and took the Infantry through the village straight at them. They were posted in great numbers on high ground with a smaller portion lower down. There were about 7 or 800 Infantry and 150 Cavalry. Their appearance was certainly very imposing for a few minutes, but it was only for a minutes. Our Infantry rushed forward, and shot down and drove before them those who were on the lower ground, while our Cavalry charged across the higher ground, using their sabres most effectively, as shown on the 37 bodies which have since been counted on that spot.

4. The action commenced at ¼ past 5 A. M., and by 7 o'clock we were masters of the field. The enemy were shot and bayonetted along both banks of the river, and while crossing the river, and in the thickly wooded ravines in its neighbourhood, the Cavalry got among them wherever the ground admitted of their acting. The slaughter was immense; I am assured by every one who has examined the scene of conflict, that I am within the mark in saying, that at least 450 mutineers were destroyed. They belonged to the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Regiments of the Gwalior Contingent, the Allijah Bahadoor Regiment (Scindia's), 1st Regiment of the Kotah Contingent, 40th, 50th, and 52nd Bengal Native Infantry. Of the wounded, I can express no opinion. The enemy attempted to fly in various directions; those small bodies that could not be overtaken by our fatigued soldiers and sepoys, were fired into, and I feel certain that the total killed and wounded greatly exceed the number of our men (571) brought into action. Of Maun Sing, I have lost all clue in the last day or two. I do not believe he was present in the fight.

5. The casualties on our side are as follows :—

KILLED.—Lieutenant Fawcett, 95th Regiment.
Private Smith, 8th Hussars.
„ Chota Lal, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry.
„ Ramajee Row, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry.

WOUNDED.—Captain Poore, 8th Hussars, severely.
Lieutenant Hanbury, 8th Hussars, severely.
Troop Sergeant Major Champion, 8th Hussars, severely.
Private Parker, 8th Hussars, severely.
„ Kelly „ „ „
„ Oates, „ „ „
„ Willis, 95th Regiment, dangerously.
„ O'Keefe, „ „ mortally, (since dead.)
„ Parsons, 95th Regiment, severely.
Subadar Ramjee Sindah, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, severely.
Private Oomrow Khan, 10th Regt. By. N. I.
„ Nund Kussoor, „ „
„ Dookal Mooche, „ „
„ Essnak Dadnah, „ mortally, (since dead.)
„ Bhownath Aheer, 25th „ slightly.
Lieutenant Stewart, Meade's Horse, slightly.
„ Page, „ „
Private Khuruk Sing, „ severely.
„ Hyat Bux, „ slightly.
„ Sher Khan, „ slightly.
10 Horses of Meade's Horse.
5 Horses of 8th Hussars.

6. I beg to be permitted to bring to the notice of Brigadier General Sir Robert Napier, K. C. B., Commanding the Gwalior Division, the splendid behaviour of every individual under my Command. With one halt only, this Column has since the 27th ultimo, made long and harassing marches, averaging 16 miles daily, and that in rainy weather, across ploughed and muddy fields of black soil, and dense forests, where frequently there was no track whatever, through rivers whose rough and stony beds and banks severely shook, and otherwise injured the gun carriages, and over rocky mountain passes. Great labour has been gone through, great fatigue has been endured, most satisfactory has been the result as experienced this morning.

7. Most of the country we have traversed, was at one time under Maun Sing's charge, and many villages belong to him; I have therefore had peculiar difficulty in obtaining information regarding him. Frequently our march has been delayed for want of a clue to his movements, so that the turning out of the Column to proceed in pursuit of him has generally been at uncertain hours. From the day we left Powree, I have been under the deepest obligation to Captain Bolton, Assistant Quarter Master General, Rajpootana Division. The duty of picking up intelligence I entirely committed to him, and most ably has he performed it. Frequently during the night, when we were only too happy to be allowed to take some rest after the day's fatigues, has Captain Bolton been again and again disturbed, either to listen to the reports brought in, or to send out scouts.

8. The Commissariat arrangements have been most carefully attended to by Lieutenant Williams, Sub-Assistant Commissary General, Rajpootana Division. Few who are not behind the scenes can conceive what the difficulties of a Commissariat Officer's duties are in such a country as we are acting in, more especially while long marches are being daily made, thus affording very little time for procuring supplies from the neighbourhood.

9. I have the honor to submit, for the favorable consideration of the Brigadier General, in addition to the two Officers mentioned above, the names of the following Officers who commanded Detachments this day in the battle of Beejapoor. Captain Poore, 8th Hussars; Captain Foster, 95th Regiment; Captain Rice, 25th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, who also had with him the Detachment of the 86th Regiment, which had no Officer; Lieutenant Stewart, (13th Regiment Light Infantry,) Meade's Horse; Lieutenant Roome, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry.

10. In conclusion, I must strongly recommend to the consideration of the Brigadier General Commanding, Havildar Ram Lal, 1st Company 10th Regiment, and Havildar Dowlut Sing, Grenadier Company 25th Regiment. The services of these two men have been invaluable. They have acted as spies, and risked their lives in procuring information in a country where Maun Sing's influence is paramount, and where the villages were deserted as we approached them. It is difficult to say, how we could have proceeded without the aid of these two Havildars.

No. 455 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding the Goruckpore District, transmitting a Report from Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, of a successful attack made by a Detachment under his Command, on a body of Rebels at Debreheah, in the Gorruckpore District, on the 1st September 1858.

with the Governor General.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Mayhew,
Adjutant General of the Army,
Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Camp Bustee, District of Goruckpore,
11th September 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, copy of a Report from Major Cox, 13th Light Infantry, reporting a successful attack made by the Detachment under his Command, on the Rebel force of Mahomed Hoossen, on the 1st September, at Debreheah, about 12 miles north of Hurryah Bridge.

2. While the Detachment was out, I had sent to reinforce my two out-posts. When attacked on the 29th August, I considered it advisable to make a return attack on the Rebels, as tending to prevent the two out-posts to the westward being again soon molested. Major Cox marched from Hurryah Bridge, early on the morning of the 1st September, for Debreheah, where he met the Rebel force, about 50 sowars, 1,000 Infantry and 3 guns; and immediately boldly and ably attacked them, defeating and pursuing the enemy a considerable distance. The enemy's loss reported to be 90 killed and wounded, some sowars supposed to be of the 12th Irregular Cavalry, and most of them by their appointments, old sepoys of the 1st, 10th, and 38th Regiments Native Infantry. The late Nazim Mahomed Hoossen is reported to be wounded.

3. The troops are reported to have gone through much fatigue under heavy rain, and over bad swampy roads and country, with great cheerfulness and willing endurance, experiencing, I am happy to say, few or no casualties, and without suffering in health; and I beg to recommend Major Cox, the Officers and men of all arms, to the most favorable notice of His Excellency Sir Colin Campbell.

4. The Deputy Magistrate, Shekh Khyrooddeen, accompanied Major Cox, was present in the field, rendering much useful assistance. I had ordered him to collect a number of bildars to proceed with the Detachment, to assist the troops and guns, and to destroy Debreheah, and during the day that place and a large Serai were burnt, and completely destroyed; the Detachment returning to Hurryah the next morning, 2nd September.

5. An attack on Bungaon, 6 miles further north-west, was also contemplated, but I left it to Major Cox, to use his own judgment in doing so according to circumstances, as Mahomed Hoossen immediately removed what property he had into the forest and jungle close by, and all able to take refuge there; there was little chance of successful results attending the movement, and the troops would have had much exposure and fatigue; I therefore consider Major Cox was quite right and prudent in not moving on.

6. I had meditated a return attack on the Rajah of Gonda, and Rebels at Raneepore and Lumtee, beyond Belwa, and to have joined Major Cox with more troops on his return to Hurryah; but I heard the Rajah was alarmed, and preparing to retreat into Oudh; the distance was great, I could not follow them, and I could not remain there; and my attention was recalled to the Rebels collecting in the north; and and I very soon received urgent reports from Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner at Gorruckpore, and from Lieutenant Pullan at Bansee, with 250 Seikh Military Police Battalion, and 200 of the Rajah's Nujeebs, that he, the Rajah, and Mr. Wilson, Assistant Magistrate, were nearly surrounded and besieged. The Rebels had attacked them on the 3rd September, on both sides the river Raptee, plundered the town and burnt the treasury, but were repulsed with the loss of some 50 killed.

7. The arrival of the Detachment pushed on from this, with 100 men of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, called in from out-post duty. The safety of all, and relief of Bansee on the 8th September, I have already reported by service message. The Rebels made another attack on the night of the 6th September, when 60 of the Rajah's Nujeebs deserted to the enemy; I hear it was planned by the Rebels to have attacked Bansee, and my two out-posts to the westward on the same day.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding Goruckpore District, that the Rebels who attacked Hurryah on the 29th ultimo, having retreated towards this place; on the arrival of the reinforcements sent out under my Command, I marched here this morning with a Column as per margin.

Ben. Yeo. Cavalry.
4 Officers and 45 men, under Lieut. De. Hoxar.
6th Madras Lt. Cavalry.
1 European Officer, 1 Native Officer, and 40 men under Captain Vine.
Naval Brigade.
2 Officers and 20 men, 2 12-Pr. Howitzers Mountain Train, under Commander Turnour, R. N.
13th Light Infantry.
4 Officers and 175 men, under Captain Rowley.
27th Madras N. I.
1 European Officer, 1 N. Officer and 41 men, under Captain Garrard.
Seikh Levy.
1 N. Officer and 47 men.
Total.
12 European Officers, 3 Native Officers, and 374 men.

2. On our approach to Debreheah, the enemy's Infantry at once retired, covered by their Cavalry, which consisted of about 50 well-mounted men. I pushed on in pursuit for 8 miles during which 25 of them were cut up by our Cavalry, and as by this time, both men and horses were much exhausted, from marching 16 miles over very bad roads, and across a country in many places under water; as soon as the enemy were quite clear from our front, I took up a position for my camp about a mile in advance of Debreheah.

3. After a few hours, however, the Rebels returned in considerably increased numbers, being then about 1,000 Infantry with 3 guns; they extended for nearly 2 miles in our front, and threatened our flanks; at the same time, a party of several hundreds took up a position behind some large embankments on our right, from which they kept up a heavy fire from our advanced pickets.

4. As their numbers here continued to increase, I took down a Company of the 13th Light Infantry, under Captain Rowley, and a Mountain Train Howitzer under Captain Turnour, R. N., about 10 A. M., and joined them to a party of Native Infantry under Captain Garrard, and 30 of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, under Lieutenant De Hoxar; we then charged them with the bayonet, drove them from their position, and again pursued them for a considerable distance, after which they gradually retired from along our whole front; I then returned to camp with the party.

5. The Infantry opposed to us seemed to be all Rebel sepoys, and their whole force was of a superior description to any I have yet met in the District. They used minie ammunition, and some of them greased cartridges.

6. The enemy's loss during the day is reported to be 90 killed and wounded. The troops all behaved very gallantly, and their cheerful and willing endurance, having been marching and fighting for 12 hours over a wet country, and wet through from rain, is most praiseworthy.

7. I beg to enclose a list of the casualties.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief copies of a letter from Brigadier Wheler, Commanding the Saugor District, and a report from Captain Finch, of an encounter with the Rebels, who had attempted to take the Fort of Gurrakota. I trust that the conduct of the Officer in Command, and that of the troops engaged, which appears to have been very gallant and exemplary, will meet with the approbation of His Excellency.

No. 503.

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Saugor Field Division.

Saugor, 22nd August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE great satisfaction in forwarding copy of a Despatch from Captain Finch, 31st Bengal Native Infantry, Commanding a Detachment of about 200 of his own Regiment, and 65 of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry, reporting the total defeat of the large band of Rebels, which had the temerity to attempt to take Gurrakota, and which had plundered Shahpore and the neighbouring villages, and mutilated some of the inhabitants and police.

I feel sure that the Major General will accord his approval of Captain Finch's arrangements. and appreciate the gallantry of the 3rd Irregulars, for it appears to have been essentially a Cavalry action.

That 65 men, without an European Officer, should charge a large body armed with matchlocks, and aided by some few mutineers, and posted in, as I understand, rather a strong position, is very remarkable and very praiseworthy.

I trust that this gang of Rebels will now be broken up and that the Dumoh Rebels who have risen simultaneously will disperse; doubtless the loss in men and arms will be a heavy blow to them, and restore confidence to the police.

Thanks are due to Lieutenant Dickens, who commanded a body of police, for his co-operation.

The name of Ressaidar and Woordee Major Soobhan Khan, has frequently been brought to the notice of Government during the past year, and I beg leave again to bring his gallantry forward, and trust that the Major General will recommend him for honor and promotion, as well as Ressaidar Amanut Khan, who commanded the 2nd troop on this occasion.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) F. Wheler, Brigadier,

To Major W. Lamb,
Assistant Adjutant General,
Saugor Division,
Camp Gurrakota, 20th August 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier F. Wheler, Commanding Saugor Field Force, the total defeat and dispersion of the Rebel forces. I acknowledge the receipt of your letter, directing me to proceed to Gurrakota vid Shahpore without delay, with force as per margin. On enquiry, I found there was a direct road across-country, by which I could reach Gurrakota in one day, by making a forced marched of 20 miles, and knowing that time was of the greatest importance to save the town from being burnt, I resolved to push straight on to Gurrakota, and after a march of 10½ hours, I reached that place. Our arrival was utterly unexpected, as the Rebels thought we were going to Shahpore, where supplies had been laid in for us. From the direction in which I came, they were unable to retreat to the jungle and Government timber forest, and were obliged to take to the open plain in rear of Hirdernugger to effect their escape. We reached Gurrakota at 3½ P. M., and took them completely by surprise. They fled precipitately, and I lost no time in following them up; but my Infantry being thoroughly knocked up, were unable to come up with them, but this was well compensated by the admirable conduct of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry, led by Woordee Major Soobhan Khan, who came well up with them in the open plain; and from the appearance of the field which I inspected, I can state, that upwards of 150 were killed on the spot; and I have brought into camp 72 wounded and prisoners. It is reported that Hindur Goshee, the noted Rebel is killed, and several recognized his body. The Punnah Thakoor, whom I mentioned in my demi-official of yesterday, is also killed; and Bunwur Dowa and Dhokul Sing, nephew of Hindur Goshee, and Hindur Goshee's Kardar, a sepoy of the 52nd Native Infantry, and one of the Gwalior Contingent, are among the prisoners. Had our men been fresher, and night not come on, I think that hardly a man would have escaped. I shall send the prisoners into Saugor to-morrow.

31st Regiment Light Infy. 180 of all Ranks.
3rd Irregular Cavalry. 65 Irregular Cavalry.
Lieut Dickens and his Police. 40 or 50 Nujeebs.

I am of opinion that this force is thoroughly dispersed, and will not again become an organized body. I have brought into camp 300 matchlocks and swords. in addition to what the villagers took off the field. I shall halt here to-morrow for information. and if I hear of any Rebels in the neighbourhood, I shall attack them again, and if not, shall on the following day, march to Shahpore. Three sowars were slightly wounded, one horse killed, and two wounded. In conclusion, I beg to bring to the notice of the Brigadier, the admirable conduct of all concerned, and more especially the Cavalry, who pursued them till sun-set; to Lieutenant Dickens and his Police, and the Civil Police, my thanks are also due; and to Mr. Deputy Collector Rao Krishn Narain, whose information was most correct and valuable.

Head Quarters, Poona, 3rd September 1858.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to request you will submit to the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, the enclosed Despatch, dated the 16th ultimo, No. 241 A., from Major General Roberts, Commanding the Rajpootana Field Force detailing the result of an encounter with the Gwalior Rebels, on the 14th idem.

2. His Excellency desires me to express the exceeding pleasure with which he has perused the account of the successful pursuit of these Rebels and Mutineers, who only escaped a similar catastrophe overtaking them at Sanganeer, on the 8th August last, from the Major General having no Cavalry with them, the rapidity of the insurgents' flight, and the coming on of night.

3. For three hundred and forty miles this pursuit has been maintained, under fearful heat in the earlier part of it, and an unexampled deluge of rain, which ceased only shortly before the signal results were achieved, as related in the Major General's report.

4. The hardships and privations which the troops have undergone have been of no ordinary character, and His Lordship in Council will, the Commander-in-Chief is assured, peruse with pleasure Major General Roberts' acknowledgment of their patient endurance.

5. The Commander-in-Chief commends Major General Roberts, and his gallant Officers and Soldiers, to the protection of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, under the assurance that their sufferings, endurance and courage, will meet with the acknowledgments they so well deserve.

No. 241 A. OF 1858.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL H. G. ROBERTS,
Comdg. Rajpootana Field Force.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Poona.

Dated, Camp Moee, 16th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the gratifying duty to report, that the troops under my Command as per margin, fought a general action with the enemy on the 14th August, and completely defeated him.

2nd Troop H. Artv. of all ranks,	6	guns.

Lieut. Macaulay's Belooch Horse.
2nd Cos. 12th Regt. N. I.—Some Belooch Horse.

2. A guard, as per margin was detached with baggage and siege guns, in addition to the regular guards from each Regiment, and placed under the orders of Lieutenant Vibart, Acting Assistant Commissary of Ordnance.

3. The Rebel army was eight miles from us on the 13th, after the troops had marched near 70 miles in three successive days. The long and continued pursuit had taken effect, and their horses and cattle were much done up.

4. On finding our troops approaching, they moved out, and took up a strong position on a rocky ridge of low hills, which forms the right bank of the Bunnas, which flowed at the foot of the ridge along the whole front of their position; on our side the river was a perfect level plain. Their guns were placed on their right, and swept the whole of this plain before us.

5. Our troops formed behind a ridge, which concealed them from their view.

6. Supported by the Cavalry on their left, the Horse Artillery galloped forward to about 400 yards from their guns, and replied to their fire which had become sharp and the Battle of the Bunnas commenced.

7. Our Infantry now emerged into and across the plain, crossed the river knee-deep accompanied by the three guns No. 8 Light Field Battery, attacked and drove the enemy from the ridge he occupied, taking his four guns.

8. The guns secured, our Artillery and Cavalry passed the river, and the latter were pushed forward charged and cut up vast numbers.

9. The Infantry advanced in line, H. M's. 72nd Highlanders being in reserve, killing numbers of the enemy; it was by one concealed amongst the rocks, that I have to deplore the loss of the Sergeant Major Holland, of the 8th Hussars, who was mortally wounded by a musket shot.

10. After passing these rocks H. M's. 72nd Highlanders and 2 guns were detached to the right to drive back a body of Infantry, who had been pursued by a small Detachment of the Guzerat Irregular Horse, and stood at bay in some jungle; this body retreated, exchanging some shots at long distance.

11. The main body of the enemy consisting of Cavalry, and some of the more active of the Infantry who had thrown away every thing but their muskets retreated so rapidly across an undulating country, that they were already out of sight.

12. Accordingly the Cavalry, who were a good deal scattered, were judiciously collected by my Staff, and ordered to follow in pursuit, 4 guns Horse Artillery accompanying them. The other two guns subsequently joined also. They continued on the tracks of the enemy for about 7 miles, beyond which Artillery horses were unable to proceed.

13. The Cavalry under Colonel Naylor, 8th Hussars, who had his horse killed under him by a round shot, early in the day, went forward, killing numbers of the enemy. After about four miles, they came in sight of a large body.

14. As they were so numerous in Cavalry, Colonel Naylor slowly followed them, and sent back for the Lancers and Beloochees, who acting independently, had lost the track, and gone over to the left.

15. On their coming up, the whole went forward at the trot, drove in the rear guard, composed of the late Kotah Contingent and 5th Regiment Bengal Irregulars, on the main body.

16. Most of their remaining Infantry, and the badly mounted men, were killed, or threw away their arms, and sought refuge in the jungle bushes. Three elephants and a number of camels and other baggage animals were taken.

17. At last, the remains of the Infantry, about 100 men, took post in a village, 15 miles from the field of battle, and their Cavalry formed around them. Colonel Naylor, who had little more than 100 Regulars and 80 Beloochees with him, and was now in a country unsuitable for Cavalry, desisted and returned towards Camp, finding and killing many Rebels along the line, who had concealed themselves as he passed before. He did not reach Camp till 11 o'clock that night, and his men had not tasted food all day, having been 18 or 19 hours in the saddle.

18. I have now to perform the very pleasing duty of reporting the high sense I entertain of the service performed by the troops I had the honor to command on this occasion. Their steadiness under fire must have struck awe into the enemy, who dared not stand long before their imposing advance.

19. My best thanks are due to every Officer and soldier for the patient endurance during long and fatiguing pursuit,* in bad weather, which enabled me to bring the enemy to action at last.

* 340 miles.

I wish to bring to His Excellency's notice, the good service of Officers Commanding:—Lieutenant Colonel Price, R. A., Commanding Artillery, R. F. F.

Lieutenant Colonel Naylor, Commanding Cavalry in pursuit.

Major Tremenheere, Commanding Engineer, also Officers Commanding Regiments and Detachments as follows:—

Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, 12th Regiment Native Infantry; Lieutenant Colonel Steele, Her Majesty's 83rd Regiment; Major Lye, 13th Regiment Native Infantry; Major Rocke, Her Majesty's 72nd Highlanders; Captain Petrie, 2nd Troop Horse Artillery; Captain Dennies, 1st Light Cavalry, (Lancers;) Lieutenant Stevenson, half 8th Light Field Battery; Lieutenant Stock, 1st Lancers, who accompanied Colonel Naylor in pursuit with a troop; Lieutenant Macaulay, Belooch Horse.

20. I received the most able and valuable assistance from my Personal Staff, Lieutenant Newall, Acting Assistant Adjutant General; Captain Bullard, C. B., Assistant Quarter Master General, (who accompanied the Cavalry in pursuit); Captain Alban, Deputy Judge Advocate General; Captain Lucas, Deputy Assistant Commissary General, and my Staff Surgeon Wyllie, were eager in carrying my orders during the day, and I desire to bring their services to His Excellency's notice.

Captain Heathcote, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, also accompanied the force, and has shown much energy during the pursuit. Lieutenant Macaulay has throughout shown his usual intelligence; his services have been most important to me.

Colonel Price reports, that he has received every assistance from his Brigade Major, Lieutenant Sterling.

I must not omit to mention the cheerful and ready willingness of the Detachment of Guzerat Irregular Horse, under Ressaldar Meer Mahomed Alli, forming my escort; and on the 14th, they killed a number of the enemy equal to their own.

21. The loss of the enemy in killed, I compute at near 1000 men.

22. Our casualties are few in comparison. Her Majesty's 8th Hussars had 1-12th wounded of those who were in the battle.

23. I have since the action learnt that the enemy is quite disorganized and scattered; numbers have thrown away their arms; horses and ponies are wandering about the country, riderless. The better mounted portion remains, but disorganized and disheartened.

Colonel Parke, with Neemuch Force, is somewhere between that place and Oodeypoor, in, as near as I can judge, the direct line of the enemy's flight, and will, I trust, be enabled to give a good account of what may yet hold together.

24. The long pursuit of the enemy by the detached force under Colonel Holmes, and since his rejoining, its continuation by me personally, has sorely distressed and broken down the horses and baggage animals of the enemy, and has not been without severe affect on my own cattle, which obliged me to halt for a day after the action, (yesterday.) The pursuit, however, of what remains as a body, will be renewed in concert with Brigadier Parke, as soon as I ascertain the exact direction the Rebels have taken.

The casualty roll is enclosed; also return of ordnance taken.

A plan of the ground on which the action was fought will be forwarded when prepared, as also that of the action on the 8th instant.

I have, &c.,

Resolution by the Hon'ble Board, dated the 9th September 1858.

RESOLVED.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council fully participates in the feelings of gratification with which His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief has perused the account of the brilliant success obtained by the force under Major General Roberts, in the general action of the 14th August.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council considers that Major General Roberts has rendered a great and important service to the State, by the skill and gallantry with which he conducted the operations against the Rebels, and succeeded in bringing them to action, after a most harassing pursuit under circumstances of the greatest difficulty. It will afford sincere pleasure to His Lordship in Council to bring the valuable services of General Roberts, and of the Officers mentioned in his Despatch, to the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept., with the Govr. Genl.

No. 11.

Notification.

THE undersigned is reduced, by numerous enquiries from Collectors and other Civil Officers, to publish the following extracts from Section XXXIX. of the Pay Code:—

"110. The following form of declaration is "prescribed for Officers drawing Contingent Bills:—

"I do hereby declare upon my honor that the "sums contained in this Bill have been actually "expended by me or the purpose set forth.

(Signed) A. B.

"III. In all cases of Contingent Bills being "submitted for audit, when the amount has not "been actually, or been only partially disbursed "by the drawer of the Bill, the following form of "attestation is to be used instead of the preced- "ing:

"I do declare upon my honor that the above "charges of Co.'s Rs. ———— have been neces- "sarily incurred, and have been, or will be, paid "by me for the purposes set forth.

(Signed) A. B.

"121. All Bills are to be prepared on half or "a full sheet of foolscap paper, as circumstances "may require, and the vouchers or certificates in "support of them are in all practicable cases to "be entered at the foot or back of the Bills instead "of being attached to them,"

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

No. 129 of 1858.

OUR GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1.—The papers noted in the margin bring to our notice certain cases in which Civil Medical Officers in the various Presidencies have demanded excessive remuneration for their attendance on the Families of Civil Servants of Government, and of Military Officers in Civil employment, and apprize us of the measures adopted by you in consequence. The Notification of the 29th September 1857 lays down the principles on which your decisions in these various cases have been based. These are, first, that the rule under which Civil Medical Officers are unquestionably entitled to remuneration for attendance on the Families of Officers in Civil employment is a just one and should be maintained; secondly, that Government should not interfere by the issue of any general regulation with the amount of such remuneration, but should not fail to mark by severe censure, or in extreme cases, by removal from Civil employment, their disapproval of extortionate demands on the part of the Medical Officer.

No. 1447 of 1858.—The following Extracts from the London Gazette of the 3rd and 10th September 1858, are published for general information:—

War Office, 3rd September 1858.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officer and Soldier, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their respective names, viz.:—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
4th Bengal Native Infantry.	Lieut. (now Capt.) Frederick Robertson Aikman, Date of Act of Bravery, 1st March 1858.	This Officer commanding the 3rd Sikh Cavalry on the advanced Picquet, with one hundred of his men, having obtained information just as the force marched on the morning of the 1st March last of the proximity, three miles off the high road, of a body of 500 Rebel Infantry, 200 Horse and 2 Guns under Moosahib Ali, Chuckledar, attacked and utterly routed them, cutting up more than 100 men, capturing 2 Guns and driving the survivors into and over the Goomtee. This feat was performed under every disadvantage of broken ground and partially under the flanking fire of an adjoining Fort. Lieutenant Aikman received a severe sabre cut in the face in a personal encounter with several of the Enemy.
Bengal Horse Artillery.	Gunner William Connolly. Date of Act of Bravery, 7th July 1857.	This Soldier is recommended for the Victoria Cross for his gallantry in action with the Enemy at Jhelum, on the 7th of July 1857. Lieutenant Cookes, Bengal Horse Artillery, reports that "about day break on that day I advanced my half Troop at a Gallop, and engaged the Enemy within easy musket range. The Sponge-man of one of my Guns having been shot during the advance, Gunner Connolly assumed the duties of 2nd Sponge-man, and he had barely assisted in two discharges of his Gun when a musket ball, through the left thigh felled him to the ground; nothing daunted by pain and loss of blood, he was endeavouring to resume his post, when I ordered a movement in retirement and though severely wounded, he was mounted on his horse in the Gun team, and rode to the next position which the Guns took up, and manfully declined going to the rear when the necessity of his so doing was represented to him. About eleven o'clock A. M., when the Guns were still in action, the same Gunner whilst sponging was again knocked down by a musket ball striking him on the hip, thereby causing great faintness and partial unconsciousness, for the pain appeared excessive and the blood flowed fast. On seeing this I gave direction for his removal out of action; but this brave man hearing me, staggered to his feet, and said no, Sir, I will not go there, whilst I can work here and shortly afterwards he again resumed his post as Sponge-man. Late in the afternoon of the same day my three Guns were engaged at one hundred yards from the walls of a village with the defenders, viz., the 14th Native Infantry Mutineers, amidst a storm of bullets which did great execution. Gunner Connolly though suffering severely from his two previous wounds was wielding his sponge with an energy and courage which attracted the admiration of his comrades, and while cheerfully encouraging a wounded man to hasten in bringing up the ammunition, a musket ball tore through the muscles of his right leg; but with the most undaunted bravery he struggled on and not till he had loaded six times, did this man give way, when through loss of blood, he fell in my arms and I placed him on a waggon which shortly afterwards bore him in a state of unconsciousness from the flight.

BREVET.

War Office, 10th September 1858.

The under-mentiond promotions to take place in the Indian Military Forces of Her Majesty, consequent on the death of Major General Frederick Parkinson Lester, Bombay Artillery, on 3rd July 1858; James Henderson Dunsterville, Bombay Infantry, on 12th July 1858; Charles Evans, Bombay Infantry, on 19th July 1858; and Lieutenant-General John Anderson, Madras Infantry, on 22nd July 1858.

TO LIEUT.-COLONEL MAYHEW,
Adjutant General of the Army,
Head Quarters, Allahabad.

Camp Bustee, District of Goruckpore,
The 22nd September 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that on receiving requisitions from Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner of Goruckpore, and Lieutenant Pullan, Commanding a Detachment of 250 Seikhs, 2nd Military Police Battalion, for a Detachment of Troops to be sent up to Bansee, about 32 miles north of Bustee, I immediately despatched on the 5th and 6th instant, a Detachment of Troops as per margin, under the Command of Captain Mulcaster, 6th Madras Cavalry. The Detachment arrived at Bansee at 9 A. M. on the 8th September, and the garrison relieved. The Rebels retreated as our Troops approached. They attacked Bansee on the 3rd September, plundered the town, and burnt the Treasury, on the south bank of the river Raptee. Lieutenant Pullan and his Seikhs, from an entrenchment near the Rajah's house on the north bank of the river, gallantly repulsed the assaults of the enemy, killing and wounding about 50. The insurgents made another attack on the night of the 6th September but not a bold one.

Ben. Yeo. Cavalry, 40 Sabres, under Lieutenant Percival.
6th Madras Cavalry, 40 Sabres, under Captain Mulcaster.
Pearl's Naval Brigade, 80 men with 2 12-Pounder Mountain Train Howitzers, under Capt. Grant, R. N.
H. M's. 13th Light Infantry, 70 men, under Lieutenant Gillett.

2. A Detachment of 100 men of the 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, under Captain Condy, were called in from outpost duty at Sakreegunge; arrived here on the 7th, marched again on the 8th and reached Bansee by noon on the 9th September.

3. Brigadier Fischer, lately Commanding the 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, Commanding Madras Troops in Bengal, being at Goruckpore, I availed myself of his most readily offered services. The Brigadier marched from Goruckpore on the 7th September, with 50 men 13th Light Infantry, and 150 men 27th Madras Native Infantry, with spare ammunition for the Seikh Detachment, and reached Bansee on the 10th September.

4. I beg to enclose copies of reports as per margin, detailing the operations at Bansee. The rapid pursuit and attack on a body of about 300 Rebels, on the south bank of the river, on the evening of the 9th instant, by a party of the Bengal Yeomanry and 6th Madras Cavalry, under Captain Mulcaster, of the latter Regiment, and Lieutenant Percival, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, was very gallantly and boldly carried out, 40 of the Rebels being killed; our loss being only one Trooper of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, slightly wounded, 2 horses killed, 2 badly wounded, (since shot,) and one missing of the same Regiment.

Letter dated 9th September, from Captain Mulcaster, 6th Madras Cavalry.
Letter dated 10th Sept. from Captain Condy, 27th Madras N. I.
Letter No. 374, dated 14th Sept., from Brigadier Fischer, Commanding Field Detachment.

5. The Troops are reported to have gone through much fatigue, over difficult flooded roads and a swampy country, with great zeal and cheerfulness; and I beg to recommend Brigadier Fischer, the Officers and men of all arms, to the most favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief.

6. Brigadier Fischer and Detachment returned to Camp Bustee on the 17th and 18th instant, and I have reinforced the post at Bansee with the Regimental Head Quarters, 8 European Officers and 230 men, of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, under the Command of Captain Howlett.

I have, &c.,

To Captain Morgan, Brigade Major,
Camp Bustee.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Rowcroft, that I received at an early hour this morning, intelligence of 200 Rebel Sepoys, 100 budmashes and 50 or 60 Irregular Cavalry, being at the village of Purseeah-ka-Pokra, about 3 miles from Bansee on the south bank of the river, on the Doomreahgunj road, and also that there was a body of Rebels consisting of 700 Rebel Sepoys, 50 Irregular Cavalry and 950 budmashes, total 1,700 Rebels, at the village of Mawa or Burgudwah; the former about 4 miles, and the latter across a deep and difficult nullah to cross, 9 miles north-west from this, on the Etawah road.

2. I immediately despatched two Cavalry Patrols, one of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, under Lance Corporals Hely and Ryves, with directions to proceed on the Etawah road, and ascertain, if possible, the enemy's whereabouts, strength, position; and one of 6 Privates Madras Light Cavalry, under Havildar Baboo Row, with directions to cross the river, and proceed on the Doomreahgunj road; the former Patrol returned with intelligence, that the enemy, 1,700 strong, or thereabouts, were at the village of Burgudwah, 9 miles north-west from this, and had taken up a position across the nullah, and were erecting earthworks, and fired several shots on the Patrol. Havildar Baboo Row, 6th Madras Cavalry, also returned and reported that a body of Rebels about 360 strong was at the village of Purseeah-ka-Pokra, and on the Patrol nearing, turned out and formed up.

3. Being of opinion that the Rebels on the south bank of the river would endeavour to cut off our communication with Bustee, I considered it advisable to attack them at once, and Captain Grant, R. N., Commanding Detachment Pearl's Naval Brigade, being of the same opinion as myself, I ordered the Detachment as per margin to cross the river, and expected every thing to be across by 4 P. M. or thereabouts, and crossed the Naval Brigade and Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry the last, so as to expose them as little to the sun as possible.

30 Men Pearl's N. Brigade.

4. I directed the Detachment as per margin, under Lieutenant Gillett, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, to remain for the protection of the Rajah's Kote, on the north bank of the Raptee river.

10 Sabres Ben. Yeo. Cavy.
10 Do. 6th M. L. C.
35 Men Her M.'s 13th L. I.
25 Men Pearl's N. Brigade.
90 Seikhs.

5. At about 12 A. M., my advanced guard had crossed, or was crossing, when Captain Condy, 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, arrived; I informed him of my plans and handed over the command to him. Captain Condy, being of the same opinion as myself, regarding the advisability of attacking the Rebels, proceeded with the expedition.

6. The Detachment left the south bank of the Raptee river at about 4 P. M., and on nearing the village of Purseeah-ka- Pokra, an advanced Patrol of Cavalry which had been sent on under Lance Corporals Hely and Ryves, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, returned, stating that the Rebels were in a tope, and shortly after it, was reported they were retreating. Captain Condy immediately ordered me to advance with the Cavalry, and endeavour to cut off their retreat. After advancing at the gallop for about 4 miles from the village of Purseeah-ka-Pokra, I came in sight of the Rebels, and advancing, saw them retreating by the road, which at this particular place, was in some places 3 feet deep with water, and full of holes, and the surrounding fields full of water, and almost impassable. I rapidly advanced to the attack, and charged them and cut up about 40 of the Rebels; their dead bodies were lying on the road for about one mile.

We had then come about 7 miles from Bansee, and horses being much fatigued, and as it was late in the afternoon and about getting dark, Captain Condy ordered me to return.

7. I am much indebted to Lieutenant Percival, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, and Jemadar Syed Fuzul Ally, D. Troop 6th Madras Light Cavalry, and to all Officers and Men of the Cavalry engaged, for their gallantry on this occasion.

8. I am much satisfied with the conduct of Lance Corporals Hely and Ryves, of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, and Havildar Baboo Row, 6th Madras Light Cavalry, who proceeded in command of the Patrols, whose information turned out to be perfectly correct.

9. I regret to state that Trooper Herklotts, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, was wounded slightly, 2 horses were killed, 2 horses were wounded, and one horse is missing; a return of which I beg to enclose.

I have, &c.,

To the Brigade Major,
Sarun Field Force, Bustee.
Bansee, 10th September 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier Commanding, that I arrived here yesterday about noon, with the Detachment 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, under my Command. On crossing the river, I found a Detachment proceeding on service, by order of Captain Mulcaster, who had received information of some Rebels stated to be about 400, (of whom 200 were Sepoys and 50 Cavalry,) being within 3 miles of Bansee, and were entrenching themselves. The Troops ordered out by that Officer were as per margin, to which I added 50 Seikhs. The Detachment 27th Madras Native Infantry, having but just come off a long march of 16 miles, and over a very bad road, were too much fatigued to take any part in the affair.

30 Bengal Y. Cavalry.
30 Madras.
2 Guns, 1 Rocket.
30 Naval Brigade.
35 13th Light Infantry.
122 Seikhs.

The force had crossed the river Raptee by 4 P. M., and marched on the Rebels; we could only proceed very slowly on account of the road, which was in some places upwards of two feet deep in water and mud.

We had proceeded about 3 miles, when one of the advanced Cavalry Patrols rode back and reported that the Rebels were marching off. I directed the Cavalry under Captain Mulcaster to pursue, (the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry leading,) and accompanied them. After a gallop of nearly 4 miles, we came up with the Rebels, who were marching off some on the road, and others in the fields, where it was very difficult indeed for the men to get at them. However, it resulted in upwards of forty (40) being cut up; it was then approaching dark, and the Infantry and guns being far in the rear, I did not conceive it advisable to follow them up further.

I sounded the halt and returned to Bansee, reaching it by 9 P. M. The Troops immediately crossed, and were in their Barracks by 11 P. M.

I am happy to say, there are no casualties among the men, beyond one of the Yeomanry Cavalry slightly wounded, but 2 horses were killed, 2 so wounded as to render it necessary to shoot them, and one missing. Total 5 horses.

All did their duty well. The affair was entirely with the Cavalry, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, under Lieutenant Percival, leading, behaved as they have ever done; the 6th Madras Cavalry, under Jemadar Syed Fuzul Ally, also did their duty well. Captain Mulcaster, in riding well ahead at several of the enemy (his horse falling into a deep nullah and over him) was for a moment surrounded, and in a dangerous position.

I must beg particularly to bring to notice the conduct of the Seikhs; the advance guard, (one sub-division under a Native Officer,) doubled in for nearly two (2) miles, endeavouring to keep up with the Cavalry, and were well up but not in time. I conceive they deserve great credit, and expressed myself to that effect to them.

As I only joined from a long march in time to assume command of, and accompany the party going out, I consider that any credit Brigadier Rowcroft may consider due, for the planning of the attack, must be rendered to Captain Mulcaster and Captain Grant, R. N.

I enclose a Report from Captain Mulcaster of the 9th instant.

No. 474.

To the Brigade Major,
Camp Bustee.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier Commanding the District, that on my arrival at Bansee, on the morning of the 10th instant, I found that the Rebels, to the number of 1,800, who had been threatening Bansee for some time past, had entrenched themselves 9 miles from Bansee at the village of Burgudwah, astride the roads leading from Bansee to Biskohur and to Doomeeragunj. A third road led from the front of their position to Jhurao, and thence into the Terai. In fact, their position secured to them the only three communications with Oudh and the Terai. On their south was the Raptee, and impassable jheel nullah, protected their right flank; on the north were dense unhealthy jungles and the same impassable jheel nullah effectually protecting their left flank, and circling round their front. Behind the bend of the nullah were thrown up their entrenchments, surrounding three sides of the village of Burgudwah.

2. The Rajah's Kote at Bansee, a square enclosure, was occupied by Lieutenant Pullan, with 230 Seikhs and blocked the road to the eastward.

3. As the object of detaching the force was not simply to drive the Rebels from Bansee and Goruckpore District, but to bring them if possible to action, and punish them, I resolved to manœuvre round their right flank and seize their communication with Oudh.

4. Requiring Lieutenant Pullan, who was well acquainted with the country in which I was about to act, to accompany me with a few of his Seikhs, I substituted in his stead to hold the post at Bansee, an experienced Officer, Captain Condy, of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, with 40 men of his Regiment, in lieu of the Seikhs I had withdrawn from the post.

5. Captain Condy was instructed, immediately on hearing my guns, to proceed with 120 Seikhs, and his 40 Madras Native Infantry, to the large village of Pucker, about 6 miles from Bansee, for the purpose of forestalling the Rebels on the road to Jhurao, their only remaining line of retreat.

6. The 11th was occupied in making my arrangements to send boats 12 miles up the Raptee to Toorkowlea, where I intended crossing the river; I have now the honor to report, that on the morning of the 12th instant, I started with the Troops noted in the margin, to carry my plans into operation, and encamped at Toorkowlea, where I found Lieutenant Pullan, whom I had sent with the boats up the Raptee, the north bank of which was in possession of the enemy. Captain Kenny, of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, with two Divisions of that Regiment and one Division Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, each of 40 men, had proceeded by land up the south bank, in support of Lieutenant Pullan.

7. On the evening of the 12th, I received information that a body of Rebels, 400 strong, were entrenched at Doomeeragunj, on the south bank of the Raptee, only 7 miles distant from Toorkowlea. I resolved to disembarrass my left flank of this party and on the morning of the 13th, marched for that purpose to Doomeeragunj. The Rebels held a strong entrenched position, in front of my line of march from the eastward, having the Raptee to the north on their left. Captain Mulcaster, of the 6th Madras Cavalry, with his Troop and the Troop of Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, preceded the march of my Column, by half an hour, with instructions to place his Cavalry in observation on the west and south of the Rebels' entrenchments, without being himself seen by the Rebels; unfortunately, he was observed by an advanced picquet of the Rebels, and fired upon, as stated in a report which I enclose.

8. Shortly after, I received a report, that the Rebels were in full flight. I immediately ordered Captain Grant, of the Naval Brigade, to take his guns to the front, and join the Cavalry in pursuit, and directing my Infantry to follow with all expedition, I joined the advanced party of Cavalry, but pursuit was hopeless, the nature of the country favored the Rebels, who, leaving the roads, took advantage of the innumerable topes and jheels and wet cultivation to elude their pursuers. Captain Grant fired a few rounds, but with little effect. Having scattered and driven the Rebels some 6 or 8 miles from Doomeeragunj, I relinquished further pursuit, and encamped at the ghaut where I intended to cross the river.

9. Between 1 and 4 o'clock on the morning of the 14th, I threw my whole force across the Raptee, with a view of seizing their line of communication with Biskohur, and of attacking Etawah on that line, where my force would have been within 6 miles of, and immediately in rear of, the large Rebel force at Burgudwah, which place being surrounded by the impassable jheel nullah, stretching on both flanks, far beyond Etawah, as exhibited in the enclosed Sketch, the Rebels would have been secured within a cul-de-sac. After crossing the river, I proceeded about two miles, when despite the information of several spies, that the road was passable, I was stopped by a large jheel through which the road to Etawah passed. It would have taken me another day to have passed round this jheel. Immediately afterwards certain information having been received, that the whole Rebel force both at Etawah and Burgudwah were in wild flight too, and had neared Biskohur, I re-crossed the river, and purposed returning by easy marches to Bustee.

10. The object for which this force was rapidly concentrated at Bustee, from distant parts of the District, has been attained, although unsatisfactorily, by the total dispersion and flight of the Rebels, who have been for months past in possession of, and disturbing these parts of Goruckpore. I regret, that the state of the roads, and the absolute impossibility of rapid movements, have foiled my attempts to force the Rebels to action.

11. Allow me to express my entire satisfaction at the cheerfulness and zeal with which Officers and men of all arms have sustained the harassing and irksome marches exacted of them; and my obligations to Captain Grant, Naval Brigade; to Captain Mulcaster, Commanding the Cavalry; to Lieutenant Percival, of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry; to Captains Howlett and Condy, of the 27th Madras Native Infantry; to Captain Brown, Commanding Detachment Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry; to Captain Drury, my Brigade Major; to the Assistant Magistrate, Mr. Wilson; and to Lieutenant Pullan, of the Seikh Police Battalion.

MARINE COURT.

At a Marine Court assembled on Friday, the 17th day of September, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull was tried on the following Charge :—

CHARGE.

Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull placed under arrest by order of the Superintendent of Marine, for breach of duty, in the following instances :—

First Instance.—For disobedience of orders, in having neglected to attend at the Office of the Master Attendant, when ordered to do so by that Officer on the 30th ultimo and 1st instant.

Second Instance.—That having received the usual Service Order, on the 31st day of August last, to take upon himself the Pilotage Charge of the Ship Naval Brigade, he did wilfully neglect and disobey that order.

Third Instance.—That having been called upon to explain his conduct, he falsely asserted that he did not receive the above order on the 30th ultimo, although the receipt for the same on that date bears his own signature, such conduct being subversive of the discipline and good order of the Service.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

No. 52 of 1858.

Our Governor General of India in Council.

Having received from the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, an Extract from the French Newspaper Moniteur respecting various Ports in the Red Sea, we have caused a translation to be made of it, and have printed several copies for publication at Lloyds and elsewhere in this country ; and we forward several copies to you for publication in India.

We are, &c.,

Secretary.

TRANSLATION OF AN EXTRACT FROM THE "MONITEUR" FRENCH NEWSPAPER.

"We have received the following information "concerning the different Ports of the Red Sea, "which may present some interest in a commercial "point of view, as bearing on the North-East "Coast of Africa, and the navigation of that "District.

"At Berbera, the purchase of commodities "was effected with the greatest facility, and the "chiefs of the tribes promised that every French- "man who chose to come during the fair to trade "with them should be at all times perfectly well "treated.

"The trade of Zeyla, which was a few years ago "of considerable importance, has been completely "annihilated since the Governors arbitrarily levied "enormous anchorage and customs dues ; so that "now but very few of the country vessels are to be "seen, and those of very trifling tonnage. Very "few of the Abyssinian caravans now find their "way in that direction, in consequence of there "being but one road—and that a difficult one— "leading to Choa; besides that, it is the theatre "of frequent pillage. It is surrounded by the "most barbarous and ferocious tribes of Africa, "which are accustomed to fall upon and attack "the caravans when they are least capable of "making a defence.

"The anchorage at Zeyla is difficult to hold,— "numerous banks surround it; but few works, "nevertheless, are needed to render the Port ex- "cellent in all seasons. In all cases it is prudent "to cast anchor when there are at least six feet "of water beneath the keel, as a rather heavy "swell soon sets in.

"Tadjoura.—The numerous tracks which start "from Tadjoura, and run into the very heart of "the southern portion of Abyssinia, will, at a later "period, render this point one of the highest im- "portance. There would be a possibility of at- "tracting from the interior as many caravans as "one could wish, only there would be a necessity "of submitting to the mode of trading practised "in this country, and which consists in reposing "confidence in the honesty of the chiefs of the "caravans, as it is needful, by way of preliminary, "to advance a sum equal in amount to one-third "the value of the goods intended to be brought "from Abyssinia.

"Hodeida, which only a few years ago sup- "plied all the coffee of the Persian Gulf and "India, possesses now commercial importance of "so low an ebb that difficulty is experienced in "obtaining the smallest quantity of coffee. Large "and handsome houses, of two and even three "stories, are uninhabited; and it would be no easy "matter now to get together a thousand inhabi- "tants out of these vast ruins.

"The archipelago formed by the Dhalde Islands "has excellent anchorage but few inhabitants, and "they look very poor. The water is always "brackish. The greatest precaution is requisite "to navigate the place, tacking during the day "only, and keeping good watch, on account of the "defectiveness of the Charts, upon which none of "the sand-banks and very dangerous islets are "marked.

"Massoua.—It would be easy to obtain from "the Tigris some two to three thousand free hands, "composed for the most part of Christians, pro- "vided a station were formed upon the banks. "The country is extremely fertile, and the cara- "vans would be doubled if workmen were enlisted "there, and if, above all, there existed upon the "banks one spot about which trade might concen- "trate. Commercial operations would be the "easier of execution, as one might count upon the "King of the Tigris; in the first place, because he "is a Christian, and has, for more than twenty "years, been the only one to lend support to the "Missionaries, in spite of the orders he has receiv- "ed from the schismatic Bishop of Abyssinia.

"Finally, as long as the cutting of the Isthmus "of Suez remains unaccomplished, and as long as "France has no stations at Tadjoura, or upon the "Coast of Abyssinia, the best and especially the "most lucrative means of trading in that part of "the world, is to purchase at Berbera, Moka, and "Hodeida, portions of cargoes forwarded to Aden "from those various localities. The coasting "trade is carried on by means of the country "vessels, the freight of which is a mere trifle; "and those vessels which have not been able to "complete their cargo at Mozambique, Zanzi- "bar, and Lamoo, come to Aden to carry away "the goods thus deposited.

"In a word, the opening of the Asiatic Canal "promises the most felicitous chances of success "to the ulterior trade of the North-East Coast of "Africa, a trade which holds out the highest "advantages to speculation, and which, it may be "said, remains still undeveloped. If it is added, "that Tadjoura is placed upon the line of vessels "touching at Mozambique, Zanzibar, and Lamoo "before reaching Aden, in order to complete their "cargoes, no doubt can be raised as to the advan- "tage to be derived by rich commercial houses "at this present moment, in the establishing there "a factory under the management of able and "energetic agents."

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

No. 129 of 1858.

OUR GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1.—The papers noted in the margin bring to our notice certain cases in which Civil Medical Officers in the various Presidencies have demanded excessive remuneration for their attendance on the Families of Civil Servants of Government, and of Military Officers in Civil employment, and apprize us of the measures adopted by you in consequence. The Notification of the 29th September 1857 lays down the principles on which your decisions in these various cases have been based. These are, first, that the rule under which Civil Medical Officers are unquestionably entitled to remuneration for attendance on the Families of Officers in Civil employment is a just one and should be maintained; secondly, that Government should not interfere by the issue of any general regulation with the amount of such remuneration, but should not fail to mark by severe censure, or in extreme cases, by removal from Civil employment, their disapproval of extortionate demands on the part of the Medical Officer.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief, to annex for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, a Despatch received through Major General Roberts, Commanding Rajpootana Field Force, from Brigadier Smith, Commanding the Brigade of that Force attached to that under Major General Sir H. Rose, K. C. B., in the operations before Gwalior.

2. His Excellency has perused it with much satisfaction, as evincing the gallantry and steady conduct of another Brigade of European and Native Troops of this Presidency, which has aided in completing our successes in Central India, by the capture and re-occupation of the important stronghold of Gwalior.

3 As Sir Hugh Rose's Despatch of this action has not yet reached Army Head Quarters, Sir Henry Somerset will reserve till then, any further comment on the subject, but in the meantime, I am to recommend to the favorable notice of Government, the Officers honorably mentioned by Brigadier Smith, as shown in the annexment to this letter.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL H. G. ROBERTS,

Comdg. Rajpootana Field Force,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Poonah.

Camp Tonk, dated 13th July 1858.

SIR,

IT is with feelings of no ordinary pleasure, that I do myself the honor of submitting for His Excellency's perusal, the accompanying Reports as per margin relative to the operations of Brigadier Smith before Gwalior.

From Brigadier Smith, to the Assistant Adjutant General, R. F. F., No. 25, dated 25th June 1858.
From Lieut. Col. Raines, H. M's. 95th Regt., to Brigadier Smith, dated 18th June 1858.
From Lieut. Col. Owen, 1st Lancers, to Capt. Sir J. Hill, Major of Brigade, No. 55, dated 22nd June.
From Lieut. Roome, 10th N. I., to the Adjt. 10th Regt. N. I., dated 22nd June.
From Lieut. Col. Raines, to Brigadier Smith, dated 23rd June 1858.
Return of Casualties.

2. The very effective service rendered by the Troops of all arms under the Brigadier, and the gallant manner in which, disdaining the want of food and rest, they have overcome all opposition, merits my warmest approbation; and this too, under the intense heat of a sun, especially dangerous to European Troops, and which, I regret to observe, has caused the death of several gallant men.

3. The charge through the enemy's Camp of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars, on the afternoon of the 17th, when the Ranee of Jhansi was killed, is worthy of every admiration, and the manner in which when captured, the 95th Regiment turned the enemy's guns on themselves (the enemy,) is in accordance with the whole of the operations of that Regiment, as detailed at lenght by Colonel Raines. The practice of Horse Artillery appears to have been most effective.

4. The excellent behaviour of our Native Troops must ever be a source of sincere congratulation.

5. The charge of the 1st Lancers, as recorded by Colonel Owen, would appear to be a most dashing feat of arms; and the steady conduct and discipline of the 10th Regiment Native Infantry, is fully borne witness to by the Brigadier himself, and by Colonel Raines.

6. I am sure His Excellency will agree with me, that Brigadier Smith has rendered a most important service by the gallant, energetic and clear-sighted way in which he has led his Brigade to victory; and indeed I can assure His Excellency, that it is only what I expected from the well-known antecedents of that gallant Officer.

I have, &c.,

CAMP TONK,
The 13th July 1858.

No. 25 OF 1858.

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,

Rajpootana Field Force.

Camp before Gwalior, 25th June 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major General Roberts, Commanding Rajpootana Field Force, that on the morning of the 17th, I marched by Major General Sir Hugh Rose's order from Antree, through the pass to Kotah-ki-Serai, which lies between three and four miles South-East of Gwalior.

I had reconnoitred the pass the evening before, and occupied the difficult points by strong pickets and posts, so that, had there been any enemy, I should have been prepared.

I met with no opposition, however, and reached Kotah-ki-Serai at 7½ A. M.

Upon my arrival, I saw the enemy occupying the heights in front, and between me and Gwalior.

I had orders from Sir Hugh Rose to halt at Kotah-ki-Serai, and communicate with him, but as the enemy appeared determined to attack me, and being also hampered with a large quantity of baggage, and Kotah-ki-Serai not being a secure position, I thought it best to take the initiative.

I therefore collected my baggage in and near the Fort of Kotah-ki-Serai, placing it under a Troop of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars, and a Squadron of the 1st Lancers, and as strong a guard of Infantry as I could afford. I reconnoitred the ground in front, and found it to be most difficult, intersected with nullahs, and impracticable for Cavalry. About 1,500 yards from Kotah-ki-Serai, their guns were in position, and their line run all under the hills across the road to Gwalior.

This I ascertained by advancing with my reconnoitring party, to within about 4 or 500 yards, when they opened so heavy a fire upon us, that we were obliged to retire, not however, before I had made myself acquainted with the nature of the ground, and thus enabled myself to avoid being entangled in the nullahs abovementioned.

I advanced the Horse Artillery, and soon dislence their guns; after three or four rounds, they began to retire, and I sent my Infantry across the broken ground, giving the command of that branch to Lieutenant Colonel Raines, Commanding Her Majesty's 95th, (the Senior Infantry Officer present,) with orders to follow up the enemy as far as he thought advisable. I have called upon Lieutenant Colonel Raines to furnish me with a Report, which I enclose, as I conceive it gives a detailed and accurate account of the proceedings of the Infantry portion of the Force, from the time I gave him the order to advance, up to the time of occupying the heights above Gwalior.

I have only to add, that I cannot speak too highly of the steady and Soldier-like conduct of both Officers and Men of the 10th Native Infantry, who have given me the most prompt and ready assistance upon all occasions, and of Officers and Men of the 95th Regiment, who, (though exhausted from fatigue and want of food,) stormed the heights under a burning sun and a heavy fire.

In consequence of threatening movements of the enemy, as well as the unprotected position of the baggage, I was obliged to send back (to reinforce the Troops already left at Kotah-ki-Serai,) 1 Troop of Her Majesty's Hussars, 1 Division Horse Artillery, and 2 Companies 10th Native Infantry.

From the nature of the ground already described, I was unable for some time to bring my Cavalry into action, and nearly retained them as support and escort to the Troop of Horse Artillery, under Lieutenant Colonel Blake; but (having advanced to the head of the pass, partially occupied the heights above the plain near the Phoolbagh, and placed Infantry to guard the entrance of the defile, and protect a retreat,) I thought I might venture to advance with a Squadron of the 8th Hussars, and the two Divisions of Horse Artillery remaining at my disposal, and 1 Troop of the 1st Lancers, sending back for the remaining Troop of the 1st Lancers as a support.

I then ordered the Squadron of Hussars to charge to the front, which they did most gallantly, passing right through the enemy's camp, carrying every thing before them.

Upon the return of the Squadron, both Officers and Men were so completely exhausted, and prostrated from heat, fatigue and great exertion, they could scarcely sit on their saddles, and were for the moment incapable of further exertion.

This was a critical moment, as the enemy were collecting both on the front and flanks, but the 95th had arrived near the guns, and the 8th Hussars, spite of their fatigue, formed to their front in line, and, in order to show a greater front, I formed them in single rank. In the meantime, the remaining Troop of the 1st Lancers had arrived to support as second line. I then retired the Cavalry by alternate Troops, protected by the Artillery; during which movement both arms showed the greatest steadiness, and entered the ravine under the protection of the Infantry posted there.

I then took up a position for the night on the heights, sending for my baggage and placing it in tolerable security in a sort of amphitheatre formed by a portion of the hills we occupied. I guarded both ends of the defile with strong pickets of Infantry, in strong positions formed by the ground, and also threw out strong pickets, both Cavalry and Infantry, towards the heights on our right; the left of our position was defended against any sudden assaults by a steep bank and a canal.

Having now finished my first day's proceedings, I have only to add the names of some Officers who gave me most valuable assistance. Lieutenant-Colonel Hicks, Commanding details, who was most energetic, and always in the front, both in reconnoitring and in the charge, and it was at his suggestion that I ordered the charge of the Squadron of the 8th Hussars through the enemy's camp, which, although venturous, succeeded well with the enemy we had to deal with.

Captain Sir John Hill, acting as my Brigade Major who, in spite of the intense heat and great fatigue, was always at my side ready to give me assistance and carry out my instructions; also Captain Bolton, Acting Quarter Master General to the Brigade, who gave me most efficient assistance in addition to the performance of his own peculiar duties, which, under the circumstances, were arduous and trying in the extreme.

Lieutenant Williams, Sub-Assistant Commissary General, attached to the Brigade, who was always most active, energetic and indefatigable in the discharge of his duties; but on this occasion, when the obtaining of any supplies were most difficult, in fact next to impossible, he never spared himself in endeavouring to overcome difficulties. Captain MacMullin, 23rd Bengal Infantry, who volunteered to act as my Aide-de-Camp, and gave me most valuable and efficient assistance. Cornet Goldsworthy, Her Majesty's 8th Hussars, who also acted as my Aide-de-camp, carried my orders under a burning sun, and over very difficult ground, and once, at a most critical moment, viz., when I required Cavalry support upon the return of the Squadron of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars from their charge.

From Lieut. Colonel Raines,

H. M.'s 95th Regiment,

To Brigadier Smith,

Commanding the Column.

Of the assault on the enemy's entrenched position, before Kotah-ki-Serai, and subsequent capture of the heights in rear, near Gwalior.

Camp before Gwalior, 18th June 1858.

Sir,

Agreeably to your order, received about 8 o'clock A. M., on the banks of the stream near Kotah-ki-Serai, I proceeded with two Companies of the 95th Regiment, in skirmishing order, to attack the Rebel entrenchments, with supports, and the 10th Regiment Native Infantry, echelon, as a reserve. On nearing their breast-work, they opened a brisk fire of musketry on both corps along the line, accompanied with round shot and shell as fast as they could load their guns; seeing our approach, many of them commenced to retire from their left, when the skirmishers from the 95th opened fire on them.

When within 50 yards of their works, I ordered the skirmishers to advance at the double and charge, and on reaching their works, I discovered their Infantry retiring up the ravines, towards the left and right, and taking away the guns to our left.

Here we were stopped by a deep ditch with four feet of water, and the banks were so steep, that it was with difficulty, that the men got over in single file, and by the time that the skirmishers had ascended the opposite bank, the entrenchment was completely abandoned, but we still found a small body, evidently their rear, extended, firing and retiring through the ravines and up the hills in disorder. The skirmishers with the greatest eagerness pushed on, and succeeded in shooting several of them.

On gaining the heights in rear of the encampment, during which time a Company of the 95th had swept round the base of the hill to the left, I observed that the enemy had guns about 800 or 1,000 yards in front, on another hill about the same height, with Infantry and a large proportion of Cavalry. I sounded the halt and assembly, on which a fire of shrapnell was opened on the men. I then noticed on my immediate right, about 500 yards off, and which I afterwards ascertained was the road to Gwalior, about 100 of the Gwalior Contingent Cavalry protected from our fire by a high embankment, and as I anticipated that they would endeavour to turn my right flank by a charge, and thus cut me off from my reserve, I ordered the retire on the entrenchments, opening at the same time on them, a sharp fire from the Enfields, and having our rear covered by a Company of the 10th Regiment in skirmishing order.

On reaching the entrenchment, I found that Major Vialls, who commanded the reserve, was attacking the Gwalior Contingent Cavalry, above alluded to, with two Companies of the 95th, keeping them in check, and preventing them from advancing down the road, where they had brought a couple of 9-Pounder guns, to bear on us. In the mean time, another gun of heavy metal, judging from the distance of the range, twelve hundred yards, was brought into position, on a high hill to our extreme left front, when immediately afterwards 2 guns of the Bombay Artillery were placed to silence the fire, which considerably annoyed us.

Soon after this, I received your orders to proceed up the road with the 10th in reserve, and on our advancing, the Gwalior Contingent Cavalry, as well as the guns, retired. After advancing along the road for about a mile, (with a deep nullah and high embankment on our left, and the two Companies in skirmishing order in front, and covering the ridges to our right,) and until the skirmishers had entered on the plain of the Phoolbagh, large bodies of the enemy's Cavalry were observed as if preparing for a charge, and in such force as to imperil the safety of the skirmishers. However, (after being halted for an hour,) I ordered the support up a hill, on cresting which, I observed the Gwalior Cavalry, in their red uniforms, slowly advancing in skirmishing order up a broad ravine to our right, and about 200 yards in front of us. I immediately caused file firing in line to be opened on them, and on discovering our position, they instantly retired with the utmost precipitation, when you, Sir, directed the splendid charge of the 8th Hussars in pursuit. I immediately proceeded to support and follow them, to within a quarter of a mile of the Cantonments, when by your orders I halted. A portion of the 10th Native Infantry, during the advance, supported the 95th and a Company from each corps was left to guard the narrow passes as we advanced.

During the halt, and whilst the Cavalry were engaged in sweeping through the Cantonments, the enemy brought two guns into position on our left, one on our right, and two from the Fort opened fire on the 95th, and a division of the Horse Artillery, immediately and close to us.

Having remained here for about half an hour, you directed us to retire, and take up a position on the heights in front of Gwalior for the night. We reached them about 7 P. M.

I have the greatest pleasure in bearing witness to the extreme endurance, (especially of the 95th,) and gallant conduct of both corps. They had been out the whole day without a meal under a burning sun, and had marched at 2 A. M. that morning from the previous encampment ground, a distance of 10 miles, and although the list of Casualties in my Regiment, actually occurring from the enemy's fire, (and which, with that of the 10th, is copied in the margin,) presents a small proportion of 1 man killed, and 1 Officer and 4 men wounded, I regret to say, that 84 cases of coup-de-soleil occurred, one of which proved fatal on that day, exclusive of five Officers dangerously, but not fatally attacked.

H. M.'s 95th Regiment.

List of Casualties by the action on the 17th June.

In conclusion, I beg respectfully to bring to your notice, the valuable assistance I received from Major Vialls, Major Massey, and Lieutenant and Adjutant Sexton, who acted as my Staff Officer during the day; also from Lieutenant Crealock, who so ably headed his Company, and assisted in the reconnoissance previous to the attack; and from Captain Pelly, Commanding the 10th, who, with his men, greatly contributed and assisted towards our success in the action.

From Lieutenant-Colonel Owen,
Commanding 1st Light Cavalry Lancers,

To Captain Sir John Hill, Bart.,
Major of Brigade, Brigadier Smith's Column,
Camp before Gwalior, 22nd June 1858.

Sir,

In compliance with the wishes of the Brigadier, personally communicated to me by you, I proceed to report the part taken by the Regiment under my Command, in the operations of the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of June. The heights having been carried by the combined exertions of the Brigade after its mornings march on the 17th, and against every disadvantage of heat, and the strongly fortified positions of the enemy, that most trying day's proceedings closed with a charge on the plain before Gwalior, made by a Squadron of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars with some guns, supported by a Squadron of the 1st Lancers. This sudden dash of a small body of our Cavalry, (and I understand the Rance of Jhansie fell on this occasion,) in front of numerous batteries, and in the face of a considerable force of their Cavalry, could not have failed to carry a terrible lesson and panic to the enemy. After this daring exploit, the rapidity of which saved us from a severe loss, the whole retired to their positions on the heights; the 1st Lancers to a distant point to be employed throughout the night as a picquet. During the earlier operations of the day, I had the misfortune to lose the valuable services of Captain Anderson; whilst in Command of a detached Squadron, he was wounded in the left arm by a musket ball. On the 18th, the Regiment furnished several parties for reconnoitring and other duties, throughout the whole of which they were exposed to a heavy fire kept up by the enemy from their batteries and sikrmishors; several horses were also killed and wounded by round shot, which were fired into the position occupied by the corps. During the evening, the Regiment paraded for an action with the enemy, and were much exposed to their fire. On the 19th, the 1st Lancers and a portion of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars were engaged in protecting Artillery in front of the enemy's batteries, at the higher and lower fortifications of Gwalior; subsequently, the Lancers received a sudden and emergent order to ascend the heights, to protect the Infantry Column, serving the enemy's captured guns against their entrenched camp. At a later period, they were directed to quit the heights, and watch the road on the opposite side, leading into the enemy's camp and force, and while in that position, their services were required to carry some 18-pounder guns and mortars, which were being fired upon our Troops on the hills above. This service was speedily and well executed by Lieutenant Heath with his Squadron, accompanied by myself, nobly, and closely followed by his men. The enemy's horsemen, who had been seen near the guns, escaped among the trees and buildings, which offered every facility for their doing so. While Lieutenant Heath's Squadron dashed round the hill, Lieutenant Colonel Raines, with a portion of Her Majesty's 95th, rushed down it, when the enemy's camp and entrance to the suburbs of Gwalior were thus carried. On this occasion, two 18-pounder guns, some mortars, ammunition carts, store and magazine, fell into the hands of the British Troops. I now come to the last scene of conflict, in which my Regiment performed a conspicuous, and from the results, I may add, a very important part. Lieutenant Heath's advance was supported by Captain Loch, with the 2nd Squadron, and when arrived on the spot where the guns had been captured, a large body of the enemy's Infantry were seen in full retreat to the right; they were pursued by Captain Loch's Squadron, which I then joined, followed by Lieutenant Heath's Squadron, which became in its turn a support. There fell a fine promising young Soldier, Cornet Mills, shot through the lungs by one of the enemy, who was instantly cut down by Captain Loch. Fearful from the excellent bearing of all ranks, their faithful support of their Officers, and the excitement increased by the cheers, which they readily took up from the British Infantry around, that my Regiment might become involved in a street action against countless masses of the enemy, occupying the house-tops, &c., I hastened to recall them from the pursuit, and in this, I happily succeeded; and having personally reported to the Major General, who appeared on the ground, what had occurred, he instantly advanced into the suburbs with Her Majesty's 95th Regiment, and I believe, ere sunset, the British Army under his command, had carried every thing but the Fort of Gwalior, the enemy rapidly evacuating the town and suburbs. I cannot close this Report, without expressing to the Brigadier, how nobly supported I have been by all ranks of the Regiment I have the honor to command. It is because the Regiment is my own, that I fear to say more in its favor. I have as desired already, forwarded a return of Casualties.

From Lieutenant F. Roome,

To the Adjutant,
10th Regiment N. I.

Camp Jurkowlie, near Gwalior, 22nd June 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to request, that you will forward to Brigadier Smith, through the Officer Commanding the Regiment, the accompanying Report of the part taken by the 10th Regiment Native Infantry, in the action of the 19th instant.

On account of the indisposition of Captain Pelly, and in accordance with his orders, I assumed Command of the Regiment, and between 2 and 3 P. M. led it to the position pointed out to me, viz., the crest of the hill to the left of those hay-stacks which had that morning been set on fire by the enemy. I found that the fighting had already commenced, and that H. M.'s 86th Regiment had taken possession of the enemy's batteries on this point. I remained here a short time, but finding that the men of the 10th were exposed to a heavy fire of grape and bullets, without being able to return it, (on account of the short range of their muskets,) I left a portion of them as a support to the guns, and advancing with the remainder in skirmishing order, cleared the two nearest heights of the enemy. At the foot of the second hill, we discovered a plain, on which were two brass field pieces and three mortars; these we took with a rush, and having spiked as many as we could, we turned our attention to an Arsenal on our right, from which the enemy poured in a galling fire. We cleared them out of this, and then occupied a trench at the bottom of the hill, from which we kept up a heavy fire till there was a general advance of the force, when we skirmished through the lines on the opposite side of the plain. In doing this, we killed many of the enemy, and those who escaped us were eventually cut up by the 1st Bombay Lancers. Here all opposition ceased, and nothing remained to be done but to place guards on the different Arsenals and Magazines we had taken. I am happy to say, our Casualties were very few, as will be seen by the Return already sent in, and have only to add, that the behaviour of the Officers and Men under my Command, was beyond all praise.

(Report.)

From Lieut.-Col. R. Raines,
Who Commanded Her Majesty's 95th Regiment, and 10th Native Infantry attached to Brigadier Smith's Column, on the 19th June 1858,

To Brigadier Smith.

Camp Gwalior, 23rd June 1858.

Sir,

On receiving your order, soon after noon on the 19th, I proceeded with three Companies of my Regiment to line the high bank on the road to Gawlior, on the left of our encampment; on reaching which, I opened fire on the enemy's skirmishers in the plain, and on the sides of the hill, but who were not in great numbers. Seeing that we were in position, they gradually retired and fired the guns and jingalls from the entrenchments, firing canister in our direction.

After remaining here for about three quarter of an hour the Major General came up, and ordered me to advance in support of the skirmishers of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, and in rear of their right, which I did, until we crested the opposite hill, and found them in possession of the enemy's entrenchment, having captured 3 brass guns.

Finding that I was Senior Officer present, I took the Command, and desired the tumbril to be removed to the rear, in order to turn their guns upon their Cavalry, which I saw in detached bodies with some Infantry and guns in the plain below, at a distance of 1,000 yards. With much difficulty (as they appeared in confusion about the tumbrils,) the bullocks were removed, and the three tumbrils wheeled up the hill by the men of the 86th and 95th Regiments. One gun was pointed down the entrenchments, whilst another was immediately after, turned in the direction of some Columns to our left. Lieutenant Brockman, with some men of the 86th, I desired to serve one of the 9-pounder guns, whilst Lieutenant Budgen and Lieutenant and Adjutant Sexton, I directed to superintend the practice of the two other guns, which I manned with some men of the 95th, who had been instructed in the gun exercise. It is with great pleasure, that I beg to state, that the practice made by these guns, was excellent, as every Officer on the spot could testify, and though sometimes short, the ricochet often lodged the shot amongst the enemy, who soon after opened a hot fire, from guns of various calibre of round shot and shell, from three different points.

After remaining here for about half an hour, the remainder of the 95th joined me as a support, under Major Vialls, who reported his arrival. As I observed a body of the enemy apparently in force, occupying some houses amongst the trees, firing on the skirmishers of the 86th, who were advancing in that direction, I desired Captain Smith's Company, 95th Regiment, to proceed in support. Captain Smith then became detached, and was under the Command of Colonel Lowth.

On a spur running down parallel to the entrenchments, some 40 or 50 of the Rebels were placed under cover in different spots, and firing at our men, whilst they were serving the guns exposed in the open. Further to our left, I observed a party of the 95th advancing from the spur, and immediately ordered another Company of the Regiment across the valley to support them. The 10th Native Infantry here joined me under Command of Lieutenant Roome, and a portion of these also I pushed on, leaving a Company of the 95th, and the Gunners before alluded to, to keep up the practice with the captured guns. This spur was occupied, and the 10th N. I. were ordered in advance, to line what appeared to me a small ditch and parapet running round the base of the hill; about 30 yards in front of it, a small howitzer and brass mortar, abandoned by the enemy, were found by the 10th Native Infantry. Lieutenant Roome, by my desire, advanced with a few men, and disabled the gun by knocking off one of the wheels. Farther on, at a distance of about 100 yards were 2 heavy brass guns, (18-pounders,) and immediately in vicinity of them I perceived a number of the enemy's Cavalry, who I believed were posted there for the purpose of making a dash at us, in the event of our attempting to capture them. I therefore deemed it prudent to halt, and await orders and reinforcements, having 2 Companies of the 95th on the crest of the hill in skirmishing order, and lying down, a Company of the 86th, and the remainder of the 10th, 50 yards in rear, as a support.

During this time, the enemy took courage to come out, and load these guns with grape and canister, on finding which, I detached some men with their Enfield rifles, to keep them in check, and the fire from our men was so sharp, that after firing about 8 shots, the enemy retired behind the building.

Lieutenant Knatchbull, and 7 or 8 men of No. 1 Company of the 95th, went out by order, and dragged the small howitzer before alluded to, and tumbril up the hill to the end of the spur, and opened fire with it on the enemy posted behind the before-mentioned building.

I observed that the 25th had moved down and occupied a position to our left. Soon after this the Major General arrived. I reported myself to him as being in Command he then directed me to proceed with a Company of the 95th, and another to support to capture the 2 heavy guns were in position in the open, covering my advance with a gun which he had brought with him. I did so, but as we went on, a Troop of the 1st Lancers passed by our men at the gallop and I headed them at the charge with an Officer whose name I do not know, towards the guns which we at once captured. I then proceeded, acting under the orders of the Major General, towards the Maharajah's Palace, where, after leaving a guard of the 95th and 10th Native Infantry, I returned to Camp at 8 P. M., with four Companies, the remainder being on picquet duty in the town.

I beg to bring to prominent notice, Lieutenant Brockman and the men of the 86th Regiment; as well as Lieutenant Budgen, Lieutenant and Adjutant Sexton, and the Gunners of the 95th; specially Privates P. Murphy, Loix, Dempsy, and Colville, who so ably and with such effect, served the guns which were turned upon the enemy, and both corps seemed to vie with each other in firing quickly, and with proper effect. I regret to say that Lieutenant and Adjutant Sexton, and Corporal Joseph Hunt, were severely burnt by the accidental explosion of some loose powder, whilst serving the guns.

I also beg to mention Lieutenant Knatchbull, and the several men of his Company who removed the howitzer, and turned it on the enemy.

To Major Vialls, who Commanded the 95th, and Lieutenant Roome, in temporary Command of the 10th Native Infantry, my best thanks are due, for their valuable assistance; nor can I omit the name of Dr. Clarke, 95th, whose care and attention to the sick and wounded was unceasing, and who accompanied the Regiment throughout the action, though he had barely recovered from a severe attack of sunstroke, received two days before.

The Casualties of the day are small and present 2 Officers wounded, and 1 man killed, and 7 wounded of the 95th, and 6 men of the 10th wounded, more detailed Returns of which are already forwarded.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

TO THE SECY. TO GOVT. SECRET DEPT., Bombay.

Adjutant General's Office,

Head Quarters, Poonah, 20th August 1858.

SIR,

BY direction of the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to transmit for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, the enclosed letter dated the 9th instant, from Major General Roberts, Commanding the Rajpootana Field Force, detailing his operations against the Rebels at Sanganeer, on the 8th idem.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) EDWARD GREEN, Colonel,
Adjutant General.

No. 237 OF 1858.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL ROBERTS,
Commanding Rajpootana F. F.,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Poona.

Camp near Sanganeer, 9th August 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that from many reports I had gathered, it appeared likely the Rebel army would cross the Neemuch and Nusseerabad road, as soon therefore as the heavy rains would admit, and the river become fordable. I moved on as quickly as I could, and reached Bunaira yesterday morning, after a long and very heavy march.

2. I soon found, that the Rebels had reached, and were congregated about this place and Beelwara; as soon therefore as the men had had their breakfasts, and other circumstances would admit of, I marched with the Troops as per margin.

8th Light Field Battery, 3 guns.
12 Golundaumes.
18th Irregular Horse.
½ Company N. Sappers and Miners.
H. M.'s 83rd Regt. about	500
13th Regiment N. I.	200
Guzt. Irregular Horse,	50
With a few Belooch Horse.

3. On nearing Sanganeer, some 35 of the Guzerat Irregular Horse, with some Belooch Horse, under Rissaldar Meer Mahomed Alli, whom Captain Alban, Deputy Judge Adocate General, was good enough to accompany, being in advance, came on a strong picquet of the enemy, being about 100 in number; these retreated, but were followed with all speed, up to the town through which they passed, and our party halted, finding the enemy in great force beyond it. They had wounded and taken one man, whose uniform showed the buttons of the 41th Bengal Native Infantry.

4. On my approach about 5 P. M., I found, that the body of the enemy, who were West of the city, were crossing to the right bank of the river. From further observations, the enemy appeared in great force, extending from near the river in a semi-circle far to the right, and for upwards of two miles, my front occupying 400 yards.

5. Captain Brown, with three guns of No. 8 Light Field Battery, soon brought them into action, and having broken the enemy's right, and caused much confusion amongst them, I crossed the river with the Infantry under fire of two of the enemy's guns, which were well directed. Having forced the enemy's right to retire and close to their left, I brought my force on, left thrown forward, and directed a party of Her Majesty's 83rd to storm and occupy the small hamlet of Rowarree, on an eminence on our right. This of course was gallantly done and I then brought forward the Artillery, and which, with the Enfields of Her Majesty's 83rd, opened fire again on the enemy's left.

6. I had one 8-inch Howitzer with me, and which was close up during the whole march yesterday of near 30 miles, and Lieutenant Vibart, who has shown great energy, brought it into action on high ground on the left of the hamlet, but the enemy retired out of even its reach after the first discharge.

7. In the meantime, the Artillery, with a portion of Her Majesty's 83rd under Colonel Steele, and 13th Native Infantry under Major Lye, had driven the enemy's left in, and all were completely out of range, and fast retreating towards Beelwara, and the dark of night coming on, I recalled all and bivouacked for the night on this high ground, a better position than it accidentally afforded, as can hardly have been conceived.

8. I have the pleasure to report, that not one single Casualty occured on our side; the enemy's loss was not great, about 50 or 60 in all killed and wounded.

9. The greater part of the Rebels are Cavalry, and have belong to different Regiments of the Bengal Army; but more arrant cowards I have never seen and there appears little credit in having beaten so large a body, averaged at 5,000 men, with the small number of 800 of such men as I had the honor to Command.

10. The enemy had 5 guns, but I think only two in action, an 8 and a 6-Pounder, with some elephants; and it was obvious, that had I had any Cavalry, the whole of the material must have been captured, and numbers destroyed. You are aware I had sent all my available Cavalry in pursuit of the enemy from Tonk with Colonel Holmes.

11. I need not inform you of the good conduct of the Troops, such being a matter of course. I am indebted to every Officer with me for valuable work, and to every man in the ranks for a patient endurance and contempt of fatigue, which enabled me to bring the enemy to action after marching close on 30 miles.

12. My Personal Staff rendered me all the assistance that any General Officer could desire.

13. The enemy at once left Beelwara, and I have heard of them this morning a good way off, retreating still with all speed towards Bagore, from whence the line of march is at present unknown

14. I have intelligence from Colonel Holmes, dated 8th; he also was pushing on after the enemy to Beelwara, and would reach to-day, so that the enemy have had a very narrow escape.

15. I cannot conclude this Despatch without expressing my grateful thanks to Captain Eden, of the Madras Army, Political Agent at Jyepoor, who has accompanied me throughout, and acted on my Personal Staff; and it has been through him that I have been enabled to procure supplies, and that which was almost as necessary, good information; he was good enough also to send some very intelligent men with Colonel Holmes.

I have, &c.,

MARINE COURT.

At a Marine Court assembled on Friday, the 17th day of September, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull was tried on the following Charge :—

CHARGE.

Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull placed under arrest by order of the Superintendent of Marine, for breach of duty, in the following instances :—

First Instance.—For disobedience of orders, in having neglected to attend at the Office of the Master Attendant, when ordered to do so by that Officer on the 30th ultimo and 1st instant.

Second Instance.—That having received the usual Service Order, on the 31st day of August last, to take upon himself the Pilotage Charge of the Ship Naval Brigade, he did wilfully neglect and disobey that order.

Third Instance.—That having been called upon to explain his conduct, he falsely asserted that he did not receive the above order on the 30th ultimo, although the receipt for the same on that date bears his own signature, such conduct being subversive of the discipline and good order of the Service.

(Signed) H. HOWE,
Secretary.

MARINE SUPDT.'S OFFICE,
The 11th September 1858.

FINDING.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the Evidence brought forward in support of the Prosecution, together with the Defence, is of opinion that the Defendant, Mr. Master Pilot E.H. T. Bull, is Guilty of the first instance of the Charge, Guilty of the second instance of the Charge, and Guilty of the third instance of the Charge.

(Signed) J. GRAHAM,
President.

The Court having found the Defendant Guilty of the first instance of the Charge, Guilty of the second instance of the Charge, and Guilty of the third instance of the Charge, do adjudge, that he, Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull, lose three steps in rank, and that his name do stand in the List of Master Pilots below that of Mr. Robert S. Carter and above Mr. Alfred Bond, Senior Mate Pilot.

(Signed) J. GRAHAM,
President.

17th September 1858.

(Signed) THOMAS HILL,
Judge Advocate.

The Proceedings of the Trial having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has been pleased to confirm the Finding and Sentence of the Court, and the Master Attendant has been requested to release Mr. Master Pilot E. H. T. Bull from arrest, and to place his name in the List of Officers of the Pilot Service below that of Mr. Robert S. Carter and above that of Mr. Alfred Bond, Senior Mate Pilot.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine.

THE Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Act of Parliament, 21 and 22 VICTORIA, Cap. 106:—

ANNO VICESIMO PRIMO & VICESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. CVI.

AN ACT FOR THE BETTER GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

[2ND AUGUST 1858.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, "to provide for the Government of India," the Territories in the Possession and under the Government of the East India Company were continued under such Government, in trust for Her Majesty, until Parliament should otherwise provide, subject to the Provisions of that Act and of other Acts of Parliament, and the Property and Rights in the said Act referred to are held by the said Company in trust for Her Majesty for the Purposes of the said Government: And whereas it is expedient that the said Territories should be governed by and in the Name of Her Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; that is to say, 16 & 17 Vict. c. 95.

Transfer of the Government of India to Her Majesty.

Territories under the Government of the East India Company to be vested in Her Majesty, and Powers to be exercised in Her Name.

I. The Government of the Territories now in the Possession or under the Government of the East India Company, and all Powers in relation to Government vested in or exercised by the said Company in trust for Her Majesty, shall cease to be vested in or exercised by the said Company, and all Territories in the Possession or under the Government of the said Company, and all Rights vested in or which if this Act had not been passed might have been exercised by the said Company in relation to any Territories, shall become vested in Her Majesty, and be exercised in Her Name; and for the Purposes of this Act India shall mean the Territories vested in Her Majesty as aforesaid, and all Territories which may become vested in Her Majesty by virtue of any such Rights as aforesaid.

India to be governed by and in the Name of Her Majesty.

II. India shall be governed by and in the Name of Her Majesty, and all Rights in relation to any Territories which might have been exercised by the said Company if this Act had not been passed shall and may be exercised by and in the Name of Her Majesty as Rights incidental to the Government of India; and all the Territorial and other Revenues of or arising in India, and all Tributes and other Payments in respect of any Territories which would have been receivable by or in the Name of the said Company if this Act had not been passed, shall be received for and in the Name of Her Majesty, and shall be applied and disposed of for the Purposes of the Government of India alone, subject to the Provisions of this Act.

Secretary of State to exercise Powers now exercised by the Company or Board of Control.

III. Save as herein otherwise provided, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall have and perform all such or the like Powers and Duties in anywise relating to the Government or Revenues of India, and all such or the like Powers over all Officers appointed or continued under this Act, as might or should have been exercised or performed by the East India Company, or by the Court of Directors or Court of Proprietors of the said Company, either alone or by the Direction or with the Sanction or Approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India in relation to such Government or Revenues, and the Officers and Servants of the said Company respectively, and also all such Powers as might have been exercised by the said Commissioners alone; and any Warrant or Writing under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, which by the Act of the Session holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-seven, or otherwise, is required to be countersigned by the President of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall in lieu of being so countersigned be countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

As to Warrants, &c. required to be countersigned by 17 & 18 Vict. c. 77.

IV. After the Commencement of this Act any Four of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, and any Four of the Under Secretaries for the Time being to Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may sit and vote as Members of the House of Commons, but not more than Four such Principal Secretaries and not more than Four such Under Secretaries shall sit as Members of the House of Commons at the same time.

Four Principal and Four Under Secretaries of State may sit as Members in the House of Commons.

V. In case the Person who immediately before the Commencement of this Act is the President of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India be appointed, upon or within One Month after the Commencement of this Act, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and be at the Time of such Appointment a Member of the House of Commons, he shall not by reason of such Appointment vacate his Seat in Parliament.

If President of Board of Control is appointed Secretary of State, his Seat in the House of Commons not to be vacated.

VI. In case Her Majesty be pleased to appoint a Fifth Principal Secretary of State, there shall be paid out of the Revenues of India to such Principal Secretary of State and to his Under Secretaries respectively the like yearly Salaries as may for the Time being be paid to any other of such Secretaries of State and his Under Secretaries respectively.

Salaries of One Secretary of State and his Under Secretaries to be paid out of the Revenue of India.

Council of India.

VII. For the Purposes of this Act a Council shall be established, to consist of Fifteen Members, and to be styled the Council of India; and henceforth the Council in India now bearing that Name shall be styled the Council of the Governor General of India.

Council of India established.

VIII. Within Fourteen Days after the passing of this Act the Court of Directors of the East India Company shall, from among the Persons then being Directors of the said Company or having been three Years such Directors, elect Seven Persons to be with the Persons to be appointed by Her Majesty as herein-after mentioned the First Members of the Council under this Act, and the Names of the Persons so elected by the Court of Directors shall be forthwith, after such Election, certified to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, under the Seal of the said Company, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, within Thirty Days after the passing of this Act, to appoint to be Members of such Council Eight Persons: Provided always, that if the Court of Directors of the East India Company shall refuse or shall for such Fourteen Days neglect to make such election of such Seven Persons, and to certify the Names of such Persons as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, within Thirty Days after the Expiration of such Fourteen Days, to appoint from among the said Directors Seven Persons to make up the full Number of the said Council: Provided also, that if any Person being or having been such Director, and elected or appointed as aforesaid, shall refuse to accept the Office, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, to appoint in the Place of every Person so refusing some other Person to be a Member of the Council, but so that Nine Members of the Council at the least shall be Persons qualified as herein-after mentioned.

First Members of the Council.

IX. Every Vacancy happening from Time to Time among the Members of the Council appointed by Her Majesty, not being Members so appointed by reason of the Refusal or Neglect of the Court of Directors or the Refusal to accept Office herein-before mentioned, shall be filled up by Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, and every other Vacancy shall be filled up by the Council by Election made at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose.

Vacancies in the Council how to be filled up.

X. The major Part of the Persons to be elected by the Court of Directors, and the major Part of the Persons to be first appointed by Her Majesty after the passing of this Act to be Members of the Council, shall be Persons who shall have served or resided in India for Ten Years at the least, and (excepting in the Case of late and present Directors and Officers on the Home Establishment of the East India Company who shall have so served or resided) shall not have last left India more than Ten Years next preceding the Date of their Appointment; and no Person other than a Person so qualified shall be appointed or elected to fill any Vacancy in the Council unless at the Time of the Appointment or Election Nine at the least of the continuing Members of the Council be Persons qualified as aforesaid.

The major Part of the Council, with certain Exceptions, to be Persons who shall have served or resided Ten Years in India.

XI. Every Member of the Council appointed or elected under this Act shall hold his Office during good Behaviour; provided that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to remove any such Member from his Office upon an Address of both Houses of Parliament.

Tenure of Office of Members of the Council.

XII. No Member of the Council appointed or elected under this Act shall be capable of sitting or voting in Parliament.

Members of Council not to sit in Parliament.

XIII. There shall be paid to each Member of the Council the yearly Salary of One thousand two hundred Pounds, out of the Revenues of India.

Salaries of Members of Council.

As to Retiring Pensions, &c.

XIV. Any Member of the Council may, by Writing under his Hand, which shall be recorded in the Minutes of the Council, resign his Office, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, to grant to any Person who, having held the Office of Member of the Council for the Period of Ten Years or upwards, shall so resign by reason of Infirmity disabling him from a due Execution of the Duties of the Office, a Retiring Pension during Life of Five hundred Pounds: Provided, that if at any Time hereafter it should appear to Parliament expedient to reduce the Number or otherwise deal with the Constitution of the said Council, no Member of Council who has not served in his Office for a Period of Ten Years shall be entitled to claim any Compensation for the Loss of his Office, or for any Alteration in the Terms and Conditions under which the same is held.

Secretaries and Officers on the Home Establishment of Company to form the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council.

Secretary of State to submit a Scheme for a permanent Establishment.

XV. The Secretaries and other Officers and Servants on the Home Establishment of the said Company, and on the Establishment of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, immediately before the Commencement of this Act, shall on such Commencement be and form the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council; and the Secretary of State shall with all convenient Speed make such Arrangement of the said Establishments, and such Reductions therein, as may seem to him consistent with the due Conduct of the Public Business, and shall within Six Months after the Commencement of this Act submit a Scheme for the permanent Establishment to Her Majesty in Council; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by the Advice of Her Privy Council, upon Consideration of such Scheme, to fix and declare what shall constitute and be the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council, and what Salaries shall be paid to the Persons on the Establishment, and the Order of Her Majesty in Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, provided Parliament be then sitting or otherwise within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof; and after such Establishment has been formed by such Order in Council no Addition of Persons shall be made to such Establishment, nor any Addition made to the Salaries authorized by such Order, except by a similar Order in Council, to be laid in like Manner before both Houses of Parliament.

As to Removal of Officers and Supply of Vacancies after First Formation of Establishment.

XVI. After the First Formation of the Establishment, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State in Council to remove any Officer or Servant belonging thereto, and also to make all Appointments and Promotions to and in such Establishment; provided that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the Twenty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, or such other Regulations as may be from Time to Time established by Her Majesty for Examinations, Certificates, Probation or other Tests of Fitness, in relation to Appointments to junior Situations in the Civil Service, shall apply to such Appointments on the said Establishment.

Compensations to Officers on Home Establishment of the Company and of Board of Control not retained on new Establishment.

XVII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, to grant to any Secretary, Officer, or Servant on the Home Establishment of the said Company, or on the Establishment of the said Commissioners, who in consequence of such Reduction as aforesaid by the Secretary of State or under such Order in Council, is not retained on the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council, any Compensation, either by way of a gross or annual Payment, as, having regard to the Circumstances, may seem just.

As to Superannuation to Officers.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant countersigned as aforesaid, to grant to any such Secretary, Officer, or Servant as aforesaid, retained on such last-mentioned Establishment, such Compensation, Superannuation, or Retiring Allowance on his ceasing to hold Office as might have been granted to him if this Act had not been passed, and the Transfer of any Person to the Service of the Secretary of State in Council shall be deemed to be a Continuance of his previous Appointment or Employment, and shall not prejudice any Claims which he might have had in respect of Length of Service if his Service under the said Company or Commissioners had continued; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant countersigned as aforesaid, to grant to any Secretary, Officer, or Servant appointed on the said Establishment after the First Formation thereof such Compensation, Superannuation, or Retiring Allowance as, under the Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, or any other Act for the Time being in force concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service, may be granted to Persons appointed on the Establishment of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Duties and Procedure of the Council.

Duties of the Council.

XIX. The Council shall, under the Direction of the Secretary of State, and subject to the Provisions of this Act, conduct the Business transacted in the United Kingdom in relation to the Government of India and the Correspondence with India, but every Order or Communication sent to India shall be signed by One of the Principal Secretaries of State; and, save as expressly provided by this Act, every Order in the United Kingdom in relation to the Government of India under this Act shall be signed by such Secretary of State; and all Despatches from Governments and Presidencies in India, and other Despatches from India, which if this Act had not been passed should have been addressed to the Court of Directors or to their Secret Committee, shall be addressed to such Secretary of State.

Secretary of State to divide the Council into Committees, and to regulate the Transaction of Business.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to divide the Council into Committees for the more convenient Transaction of Business, and from Time to Time to re-arrange such Committees, and to direct what Departments of the Business in relation to the Government of India under this Act shall be under such Committees respectively, and generally to direct the Manner in which all such Business shall be transacted.

President and Vice-President.

XXI. The Secretary of State shall be the President of the Council, with Power to vote, and it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State in Council to appoint from Time to Time any Member of such Council to be Vice-President thereof, and any such Vice-President may at any Time be removed by the Secretary of State.

Meetings of the Council.

XXII. All Powers by this Act required to be exercised by the Secretary of State in Council, and all Powers of the Council, shall and may be exercised at Meetings of such Council, at which not less than Five Members shall be present, and at every Meeting the Secretary of State, or in his Absence the Vice-President, if present, shall preside, and in the Absence of the Secretary of State and Vice-President, One of the Members of the Council present shall be chosen by the Members present to preside at the Meeting; and such Council may act notwithstanding any Vacancy therein: Meetings of the Council shall be convened and held when and as the Secretary of State shall from Time to Time direct; provided that One such Meeting at least be held in every Week.

Procedure at Meetings.

XXIII. At any Meeting of the Council at which the Secretary of State is present, if there be a Difference of Opinion on any Question other than the Question of the Election of a Member of Council, or other than any Question with regard to which a Majority of the Votes at a Meeting is herein-after declared to be necessary, the Determination of the Secretary of State shall be final; and in case of an Equality of Votes at any Meeting of the Council, the Secretary of State, if present, and in his Absence the Vice-President, or Presiding Member, shall have a Casting Vote; and all Acts done at any Meeting of the Council in the Absence of the Secretary of State, except the Election of a Member of the Council, shall require the Sanction or Approval in Writing of the Secretary of State; and in case of Difference of Opinion on any Question decided at any Meeting, the Secretary of State may require that his Opinion, and the Reasons for the same, be entered in the Minutes of the Proceedings, and any Member of the Council who may have been present at the Meeting may require that his Opinion, and any Reasons for the same that he may have stated at the Meeting, be entered in like Manner.

Orders, &c. to be open to the Perusal of Members of Council, who may record their Opinions.

XXIV. Every Order or Communication proposed to be sent to India, and every Order proposed to be made in the United Kingdom by the Secretary of State, under this Act, shall, unless the same has been submitted to a Meeting of the Council, be placed in the Council Room for the Perusal of all Members of the Council during Seven Days before the sending or making thereof, except in the Cases herein-after provided; and it shall be lawful for any Member of the Council to record in a Minute Book, to be kept for that Purpose, his Opinion with respect to each such Order or Communication, and a Copy of every Opinion so recorded shall be sent forthwith to the Secretary of State.

Secretary of State acting against Opinions of the Majority to record his Reasons.

XXV. If a Majority of the Council record as aforesaid their Opinions against any Act proposed to be done, the Secretary of State shall, if he do not defer to the Opinions of the Majority, record his Reasons for acting in opposition thereto.

Provision for Cases of Urgency.

XXVI. Provided, That where it appears to the Secretary of State that the Despatch of any Communication, or the making of any Order, not being an Order for which a Majority of the Votes at a Meeting is hereby made necessary, is urgently required, the Communication may be sent or Order given notwithstanding the same may not have been submitted to a Meeting of the Council or deposited for Seven Days as aforesaid, the urgent Reasons for sending or making the same being recorded by the Secretary of State, and Notice thereof being given to every Member of the Council, except in the Cases herein-after mentioned.

Orders now sent through Secret Committee may be sent by Secretary of State without Communication with the Council.

XXVII. Provided also, That any Order, not being an Order for which a Majority of Votes at a Meeting is hereby made necessary, which might, if this Act had not been passed, have been sent by the Commissioners for the Affairs of India through the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors to Governments or Presidencies in India, or to the Officers or Servants of the said Company, may, after the Commencement of this Act, be sent to such Governments or Presidencies, or to any Officer or Servant in India, by the Secretary of State, without having been submitted to a Meeting or deposited for the Perusal of the Members of the Council, and without the Reasons being recorded or Notice thereof given as aforesaid.

As to Communication of Secret Despatches from India.

XXVIII. Any Despatches to Great Britain which might if this Act had not been passed have been addressed to the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors, may be marked "Secret" by the Authorities sending the same, and such Despatches shall not be communicated to the Members of the Council, unless the Secretary of State shall so think fit and direct.

Appointments and Patronage.

Appointments to be made by or with the Approbation of Her Majesty.

XXIX. The Appointments of Governor General of India, Fourth Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor General of India, and Governors of Presidencies in India, now made by the Court of Directors with the Approbation of Her Majesty, and the Appointments of Advocate General for the several Presidencies now made with the Approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall be made by Her Majesty by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual; the Appointments of the Ordinary Members of the Council of the Governor General of India, except the Fourth Ordinary Member, and the Appointments of the Members of Council of the several Presidencies, shall be made by the Secretary of State in Council, with the Concurrence of a Majority of Members present at a Meeting; the Appointments of the Lieutenant Governors of Provinces or Territories shall be made by the Governor General of India, subject to the Approbation of Her Majesty; and all such Appointments shall be subject to the Qualifications now by Law affecting such Offices respectively.

Appointments now made in India to continue to be made there.

XXX. All Appointments to Offices, Commands, and Employments in India, and all Promotions, which by Law, or under any Regulations, Usage, or Custom, are now made by any Authority in India, shall continue to be made in India by the like Authority, and subject to the Qualifications, Conditions, and Restrictions now affecting such Appointments respectively; but the Secretary of State in Council, with the Concurrence of a Majority of Members present at a Meeting, shall have the like Power to make Regulations for the Division and Distribution of Patronage and Power of Nomination among the several Authorities in India, and the like Power of restoring to their Stations, Offices, or Employments, Officers and Servants suspended or removed by any Authority in India as might have been exercised by the said Court of Directors, with the Approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, if this Act had not been passed.

Certain Sections of 16 and 17 Vict. c. 95, as to Appointment, &c. to the Civil Service repealed.

XXXI. Sections Thirty-seven, Thirty-eight, Thirty-nine, Forty, Forty-one, and Forty-two of the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-five, are hereby repealed, so far as the same apply to or provide for the Admission or Appointment of Persons to the Civil Service of the East India Company.

Secretary of State in Council to make Regulations for the Admission of Candidates to the Civil Service of India.

XXXII. With all convenient Speed after the passing of this Act, Regulations shall be made by the Secretary of State in Council, with the Advice and Assistance of the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of Her Majesty's Order in Council of Twenty-first May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, "for "regulating the Admission of Persons to the Civil "Service of the Crown," for admitting all Persons being natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty (and of such Age and Qualification as may be prescribed in this Behalf) who may be desirous of becoming Candidates for Appointment to the Civil Service of India to be examined as Candidates accordingly, and for prescribing the Branches of Knowledge in which such Candidates shall be examined, and generally for regulating and conducting such Examinations under the Superintendence of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or of the Persons for the Time being intrusted with the carrying out of such Regulations as may be from Time to Time established by Her Majesty for Examination, Certificate, or other Test of Fitness in relation to Appointments to junior Situations in the Civil Service of the Crown, and the Candidates who may be certified by the said Commissioners or other Persons as aforesaid to be entitled under such Regulations shall be recommended for Appointment according to the Order of their Proficiency as shown by such Examinations, and such Persons only as shall have been so certified as aforesaid shall be appointed or admitted to the Civil Service of India by the Secretary of State in Council: Provided always, that all Regulations to be made by the said Secretary of State in Council under this Act shall be laid before Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, if Parliament be sitting, and, if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof.

Regulations made by Secretary of State to be laid before Parliament.

Other Appointments and Admissions to Service vested in Her Majesty.

XXXIII. All Appointments to Cadetships, Naval and Military, and all Admissions to Service not herein otherwise expressly provided for, shall be vested in Her Majesty; and the Names of Persons to be from Time to Time recommended for such Cadetships and Service shall be submitted to Her Majesty by the Secretary of State.

Regulations to be made for admitting Persons to be examined for Cadetships in Engineers and Artillery.

XXXIV. With all convenient Speed after the Commencement of this Act, Regulations shall be made for admitting any Persons being natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty (and of such Age and Qualifications as may be prescribed in this Behalf) who may be desirous of becoming Candidates for Cadetships in the Engineers and in the Artillery, to be examined as Candidates accordingly, and for prescribing the Branches of Knowledge in which such Candidates shall be examined, and generally for regulating and conducting such Examinations.

Not less than One Tenth of Persons recommended for Military Cadetships to be selected from Sons of Persons who have served in India.

XXXV. Not less than One Tenth of the whole Number of Persons to be recommended in any Year for Military Cadetships (other than Cadetships in the Engineers and Artillery) shall be selected according to such Regulations as the Secretary of State in Council may from Time to Time make in this Behalf from among the Sons of Persons who have served in India in the Military or Civil Services of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company.

Nominations for Cadetships to be made by Secretary of State and Members of Council.

XXXVI. Except as aforesaid, all Persons to be recommended for Military Cadetships shall be nominated by the Secretary of State and Members of Council, so that out of Seventeen Nominations the Secretary of State shall have Two and each Member of Council shall have One; but no Person so nominated shall be recommended unless the Nomination be approved of by the Secretary of State in Council.

Regulations as to Appointments and Admissions to Service.

XXXVII. Save as herein-before provided, all Powers of making Regulations in relation to Appointments and Admissions to Service and other Matters connected therewith, and of altering or revoking such Regulations, which if this Act had not been passed might have been exercised by the Court of Directors or Commissioners for the Affairs of India, may be exercised by the Secretary of State in Council, and all Regulations in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act in relation to the Matters aforesaid shall remain in force, subject nevertheless to Alteration or Revocation by the Secretary of State in Council as aforesaid.

As to Removal of Officers by Her Majesty.

XXXVIII. Any Writing under the Royal Sign Manual, removing or dismissing any Person holding any Office, Employment, or Commission, Civil or Military, in India, of which, if this Act had not been passed, a Copy would have been required to be transmitted or delivered within Eight Days after being signed by Her Majesty to the Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Court of Directors, shall, in lieu thereof, be communicated within the time aforesaid to the Secretary of State in Council.

Transfer of Property.

Real and Personal Property of the Company to vest in Her Majesty for the purposes of the Government of India.

XXXIX. All Lands and Hereditaments, Monies, Stores, Goods, Chattels, and other Real and Personal Estate of the said Company, subject to the Debts and Liabilities affecting the same respectively, and the Benefit of all Contracts, Covenants, and Engagements, and all Rights to Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and all other Emoluments which the said Company shall be seized or possessed of, or entitled to at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, except the Capital Stock of the said Company and the Dividend thereon, shall become vested in Her Majesty, to be applied and disposed of, subject to the Provisions of this Act, for the Purposes of the Government of India.

Powers of Sale and Purchase, and to enter into Contracts, vested in Secretary of State in Council.

XL. The Secretary of State in Council, with the Concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting, shall have full Power to sell and dispose of all Real and Personal Estate whatsoever for the Time being vested in Her Majesty under this Act, as may be thought fit, or to raise Money on any such Real Estate by way of Mortgage, and make the proper Assurances for that Purpose, and to purchase and acquire any Land or Hereditaments, or any Interests therein, Stores, Goods, Chattels, and other Property, and to enter into any Contracts whatsoever, as may be thought fit, for the Purposes of this Act; and all Property so acquired shall vest in Her Majesty for the Service of the Government of India; and any Conveyance or Assurance of or concerning any Real Estate to be made by the Authority of the Secretary of State in Council may be made under the Hands and Seals of Three Members of the Council.

Revenues.

Expenditure of Revenues of India subject to Control of Secretary of State in Council.

XLI. The Expenditure of the Revenues of India, both in India and elsewhere, shall be subject to the Control of the Secretary of State in Council, and no Grant or Appropriation of any part of such Revenues, or of any other Property coming into the Possession of the Secretary of State in Council by virtue of this Act, shall be made without the Concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting of the Council.

Dividend on the Stock of the Company, and existing and future Debts, Liabilities, and Expenses, to be charged on Revenues of India.

XLII. The Dividend on the Capital Stock of the said Company secured by the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five, until the redemption thereof, and all the Bond, Debenture, and other Debt of the said Company in Great Britain, and all the Territorial Debt and all other Debts of the said Company, and all Sums of Money, Costs, Charges, and Expenses, which if this Act had not been passed would after the Time appointed for the Commencement thereof have been payable by the said Company out of the Revenues of India, in respect or by reason of any Treaties, Covenants, Contracts, Grants, or Liabilities then existing, and all Expenses, Debts, and Liabilities which after the Commencement of this Act shall be lawfully contracted and incurred on account of the Government of India, and all Payments under this Act, shall be charged and chargeable upon the Revenues of India alone, as the same would have been if this Act had not been passed, and such Expenses, Debts, Liabilities, and Payments as last aforesaid had been Expenses, Debts, and Liabilities lawfully contracted and incurred by the said Company, and such Revenues shall not be applied to any other Purpose whatsoever; and all other Monies vested in or arising or accruing from Property or Rights vested in Her Majesty under this Act, or to be received or disposed of by the Council under this Act, shall be applied in aid of such Revenues: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall lessen or prejudicially affect any Security to which the said Company, or any Proprietor or Creditor thereof, now is or may be entitled upon the Fund called "The Security Fund of the India Company," and mentioned in the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five, Section Fourteen.

Revenues remitted to Great Britain, and Monies arising in Great Britain to be paid to Secretary of State in Council.

XLIII. Such Part of the Revenues of India as shall be from Time to Time remitted to Great Britain, and all Monies of the said Company in their Treasury or under the Care of their Cashier, and all other Monies in Great Britain of the said Company, or which would have been received by them in Great Britain if this Act had not been passed, and all Monies arising or accruing in Great Britain from any Property or Rights vested in Her Majesty by this Act, or from the Sale or Disposition thereof, shall be paid to the Secretary of State in Council, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act; and all such Monies, except as herein-after otherwise provided shall be paid into the Bank of England, to the Credit of an Account to be opened by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be intituled "The Account of the Secretary of State in Council of India;" and all Monies to be placed to the Credit of such Account under this Act shall be paid out upon Drafts or Orders signed by Three Members of the Council, and countersigned by the Secretary of State or One of his Under Secretaries, and such Account shall be a public Account: Provided always, that the Secretary of State in Council may cause to be kept, from Time to Time, under the Care of their Cashier, in an Account to be kept at the Bank of England, such Sum or Sums of Money as they may deem necessary for the Payments now made out of Money under the Care of the Cashier of the said Company.

Cash Balance of the Company at the Bank to be transferred to Secretary of State in Council.

XLIV. Such Amount of Money as to the Time of the Commencement of this Act may be standing to the Credit of the East India Company at the Bank of England shall be transferred by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to the Credit of the Account to be opened in the Name of the Secretary of State in Council as aforesaid.

Stock Account to be opened at the Bank.

XLV. There shall be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England such Accounts as may be necessary in respect of any Stock or Stocks of Government Annuities, and all such Accounts respectively shall be intituled "The Stock Account of the Secretary of State in Council of India," and every such Account shall be a public Account.

Stock standing in the name of the Company transferred.

XLVI. Such Government Stock or Stocks as at the Time of the Commencement of this Act may be standing in the Name of the East India Company in the Books of the said Governor and Company shall be transferred by the Chief Cashier or the Chief Accountant of the said Governor and Company to the proper Account or Accounts to be raised as aforesaid.

Power to grant Letter of Attorney for Sale, &c. of Stock and Receipt of Dividends.

XLVII. The Secretary of State in Council, by Letter of Attorney, executed by Three Members of the Council, and countersigned by the Secretary of State or One of his Under Secretaries, may authorize all or any of the Cashiers of the Bank of England to sell and transfer all or any Part of the Stock or Stocks standing or that may thereafter stand in the Books of the said Bank to the several Accounts of the Secretary of State in Council, and to purchase and accept Stock on the said Accounts, and to receive the Dividends due and to become due on the several Stocks standing or that may thereafter stand on the said Accounts, and by any Writing signed by Three Members of the Council, and countersigned as aforesaid, may direct the Application of the Monies to be received in respect of such Sales and Dividends, but no Stock shall be purchased or sold and transferred by any of the said Cashiers under the Authority of such General Letter of Attorney, except upon an Order in Writing directed to the said Chief Cashier and Chief Accountant from Time to Time, and duly signed and countersigned as aforesaid.

Provision as to Exchequer Bills, Bonds, and other Securities.

XLVIII. All Exchequer Bills, Exchequer Bonds, or other Government Securities, or other Securities, of whatsoever Kind, not hereinbefore referred to, which shall be held by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in trust for or on account of the East India Company at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, shall thenceforward be held by the said Governor and Company in trust for and on account of the Secretary of State in Council; and all such Securities as aforesaid, and all such Securities as may thereafter be lodged with the said Governor and Company by or on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, shall and may be disposed of and the Proceeds thereof applied as may be authorized by Order in Writing signed by three Members of the Council, and countersigned by the Secretary of State or one of his Under Secretaries, and directed to the said Chief Cashier and Chief Accountant.

Powers of borrowing vested in the Company transferred to Secretary of State in Council.

XLIX. All Powers of issuing Bonds, Debentures, and other Securities for Money in Great Britain which, if this Act had not been passed, might have been exercised by the said Company, or the Court of Directors, under the Direction and Control of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, or otherwise, shall and may be exercised by the Secretary of State in Council, with the Concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting; and such Securities as might have been issued under the Seal of the said Company shall be issued under the Hands of three Members of the Council, and countersigned by the Secretary of State or One of his Under Secretaries.

Provisions in force relating to Forgery to extend to Bonds, &c. issued by Secretary of State in Council.

L. All Provisions now in force in any wise relating to the Offence of forging or altering, or offering, uttering, disposing of, or putting off, knowing the same to be forged or altered, any East India Bond, with Intent to defraud, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any Bond, Debenture, or Security issued by the Secretary of State in Council of India under the Authority of this Act.

Present System of issuing Warrants for Payments to be continued.

LI. The Regulations and Practice now acted on by the Court of Directors on the Issue of Warrants or Authorities for the Payment of Money shall be maintained and acted on by the Secretary of State in Council of India under this Act until the same be altered by the Authority of Her Majesty in Council: Provided, that where a Warrant or Authority for the Payment of Money passes through the Audit Department at the East India House before Payment, it shall be countersigned by such Officer or Officers of that Audit Department as the Secretary of State in Council may direct before Payment shall be made; and that Warrants or Authorities which have heretofore been signed by Two Directors of the East India Company shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be signed by Three Members of the Council of India.

As to the Audit of Accounts in Great Britain.

LII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, to appoint from Time to Time a fit person to be Auditor of the Accounts of the Secretary of State in Council, and to authorize such Auditor to appoint and remove from Time to Time such Assistants as may be specified in such Warrant; and every such Auditor shall hold Office during good Behaviour; and there shall be paid to such Auditor and Assistants out of the Revenues of India such respective Salaries as Her Majesty, by Warrant as aforesaid countersigned as aforesaid, may direct; and such Auditor shall examine and audit the Accounts of the Receipt, Expenditure, and Disposal in Great Britain of all Monies, Stores, and Property applicable for the Purposes of this Act; and the Secretary of State in Council shall by the Officers and Servants of the Establishment produce and lay before such Auditor from Time to Time all such Accounts, accompanied by proper Vouchers for the Support of the same, and shall submit to his Inspection all Books, Papers, and Writings having relation thereto; and such Auditor shall have Power to examine all such Officers and Servants in Great Britain of the Establishment as he may see fit in relation to such Accounts, and the Receipt, Expenditure, or Disposal of such Monies, Stores, and Property, and for that Purpose, by Writing under his Hand, to summon before him any such Officer or Servant; and such Auditor shall report from Time to Time to the Secretary of State in Council his Approval or Disapproval of such Accounts, with such Remarks and Observations in relation thereto as he may think fit, specially noting any Case, if such there shall be, in which it shall appear to him that any Money arising out of the Revenues of India has been appropriated to other Purposes than those of the Government of India to which alone they are declared to be applicable; and shall specify in detail in his Reports all Sums of Money, Stores, and Property which ought to be accounted for, and are not brought into account or have not been appropriated, in conformity with the Provisions of this Act, or have been expended or disposed of without due Authority, and shall also specify any Defects, Inaccuracies, or Irregularities which may appear in such Accounts, or in the Authorities, Vouchers, or Documents having relation thereto; and all such Reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament by such Auditor, together with the Accounts of the Year to which the same may relate.

Accounts to be annually laid before Parliament.

LIII. The Secretary of State in Council shall, within the first Fourteen days during which Parliament may be sitting next after the First Day of May in every Year, lay before both Houses of Parliament an account for the financial Year preceding that last completed of the annual Produce of the Revenues of India, distinguishing the same under the respective Heads thereof, at each of the several Presidencies or Governments, and of all the annual Receipts and Disbursements at Home and Abroad on account of the Government of India, distinguishing the same under the respective Heads thereof, together with the latest Estimate of the same for the last financial Year, and also the Amount of the Debts chargeable on the Revenues of India, with the Rates of Interest they respectively carry, and the annual Amount of such Interest, the State of the Effects and Credits at each Presidency or Government, and in England or elsewhere, applicable to the Purposes of the Government of India, according to the latest Advices which have been received thereof, and also a List of the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council, and the Salaries and Allowances payable in respect thereof; and if any new or increased Salaries or Pensions of Fifty Pounds a Year or upwards have been granted or created within any Year, the Particulars thereof shall be specially stated and explained at the Foot of the Account of such Year; and such Account shall be accompanied by a Statement prepared from detailed Reports from each Presidency and District in India in such Form as shall best exhibit the moral and material Progress and Condition of India in each such Presidency.

When Order to commence Hostilities is sent to India, the Fact to be communicated to Parliament.

LIV. When any Order is sent to India directing the actual Commencement of Hostilities by Her Majesty's Forces in India, the Fact of such Order having been sent shall be communicated to both Houses of Parliament within Three Months after the sending of such Order, if Parliament be sitting, unless such Order shall have been in the meantime revoked or suspended, and if Parliament be not sitting at the End of such Three Months then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Except for repelling Invasion, the Revenues of India not applicable for any Military operation beyond the Frontiers.

LV. Except for preventing or repelling actual Invasion of Her Majesty's Indian Possessions, or under other sudden and urgent Necessity, the Revenues of India shall not, without the Consent of both Houses of Parliament, be applicable to defray the Expenses of any Military Operation carried on beyond the external Frontiers of such Possessions by Her Majesty's Forces charged upon such Revenues.

Existing Establishments.

Indian Military and Naval Forces to remain under existing Conditions of Service.

LVI. The Military and Naval Forces of the East India Company shall be deemed to be the Indian Military and Naval Forces of Her Majesty, and shall be under the same Obligations to serve Her Majesty as they would have been under to serve the said Company, and shall be liable to serve within the same territorial Limits only, for the same Terms only, and be entitled to the like Pay, Pensions, Allowances, and Privileges, and the like Advantages as regards Promotion and otherwise, as if they had continued in the Service of the said Company: Such Forces, and all Persons hereafter enlisting in or entering the same, shall continue and be subject to all Acts of Parliament, Laws of the Governor General of India in Council, and Articles of War, and all other Laws, Regulations, and Provisions relating to the East India Company's Military and Naval Forces respectively, as if Her Majesty's Indian Military and Naval Forces respectively had throughout such Acts, Laws, Articles, Regulations, and Provisions been mentioned or referred to, instead of such Forces of the said Company; and the Pay and Expenses of an incident to Her Majesty's Indian Military and Naval Forces shall be defrayed out of the Revenues of India.

Provision for Persons hereafter entering Her Majesty's Indian Forces.

LVII. Provided, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time by Order in Council to alter or regulate the Terms and Conditions of Service under which Persons hereafter entering Her Majesty's Indian Forces shall be commissioned, enlisted, or entered to serve, and the Forms of Attestation and of the Oath or Declaration to be used and taken or made respectively on attesting Persons to serve in Her Majesty's Indian Forces shall be such as Her Majesty with regard to the European Forces, and the Governor General of India in Council with regard to the Native Forces, shall from Time to Time direct: Provided, that every such Order in Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, if Parliament be sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof.

Officers, &c., in Employ of the Company at the Commencement of this Act to be deemed to hold Offices under Her Majesty.

LVIII. All Persons who at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall hold any Offices, Employments, or Commissions whatever under the said Company in India shall thenceforth be deemed to hold such Offices, Employments, and Commissions under Her Majesty as if they had been appointed under this Act, and shall be paid out of the Revenues of India; and the Transfer of any Person to the Service of Her Majesty shall be deemed to be a Continuance of his previous Service, and shall not prejudice any Claims to Pension, or any Claims on the various Annuity Funds of the several Presidencies in India, which he might have had if this Act had not been passed.

All Orders of the Court of Directors or Board of Control given before Commencement of this Act to remain in force.

LIX. All Orders, Regulations, and Directions lawfully given or made before the Commencement of this Act by the Court of Directors or by the Commissioners for the Affairs of India shall remain in force; but the same shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be deemed to be the Orders, Regulations, and Directions under this Act, and take effect and be construed and be subject to Alteration or Revocation accordingly.

Cesser of Appointments and Functions of Directors, &c.

LX. All Functions and Powers of Courts of Proprietors and Courts of Directors of the said Company in relation to the Government of India, and all Appointments of such of the Directors of the said Company as have been appointed by Her Majesty, shall cease, and the yearly Sums payable to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, and other Directors of the said Company shall cease to be payable, and all Powers vested in Her Majesty of appointing Directors of the said Company shall cease and determine.

Board of Control abolished.

LXI. The Appointments and Powers of Appointment of Commissioners for the Affairs of India shall cease and determine.

Records, &c. of the Company to be delivered into the Care of Secretary of State in Council.

LXII. All Books, Records, and Archives of the said Company, except such Books and Documents as concern the Ownership of Shares in the Capital Stock of the said Company, and the Payments to the Proprietors of such Capital Stock of their respective Shares of the Dividend thereon, shall be delivered into the Care and Custody of the Secretary of State in Council as they may direct.

A Person succeeding to the Office of Governor General may exercise his Powers before he takes his Seat in Council.

LXIII. In case the Person who shall be entitled under any provisional Appointment to succeed to the Office of Governor General of India upon a Vacancy, therein, or who shall be appointed absolutely to assume that Office, shall be in India (upon or after the happening of the Vacancy, or upon or after the Receipt of such absolute Appointment, as the Case may require), but shall be absent from Fort William in Bengal, or from the Place where the Council of the Governor General of India may then be, and it shall appear to him necessary to exercise the Powers of Governor General before he shall have taken his Seat in Council, it shall be lawful for him to make known by Proclamation his Appointment, and his Intention to assume the said Office of Governor General, and after such Proclamation, and thenceforth until he shall repair to Fort William or the Place where the Council may assemble, it shall be lawful for him to exercise alone all or any of the Powers which might be exercised by the Governor General in Council, except the Power of making Laws and Regulations; and all Acts done in the exercise of the said Powers, except as aforesaid, shall be of the same Force and Effect as if they had been done by the Governor General in Council; provided that all Acts done in the said Council after the Date of such Proclamation, but before the Communication thereof to such Council, shall be valid, subject nevertheless to Revocation or Alteration by the Person who shall have so assumed the said Office of Governor General; and when the Office of Governor General is assumed under the foregoing Provision, if there be at any Time before the Governor General takes his Seat in Council no Vice-President of the Council authorized to Preside at Meetings for making Laws and Regulations (as provided by Section Twenty-two of the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty), the senior ordinary Member of Council then present shall preside therein, with the same Powers as if a Vice-President had been appointed and were absent.

Continuance of existing Enactments.

Existing Provisions to be applicable to Secretary of State in Council, &c.

LXIV. All Acts and Provisions now in force under Charter or otherwise concerning India shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, continue in force, and be construed as referring to the Secretary of State in Council in the Place of the said Company and the Court of Directors and Court of Proprietors thereof, and all Enactments applicable to the Officers and Servants of the said Company in India, and to appointments to Office or Admissions to Service by the said Court of Directors, shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, remain applicable to the Officers and Servants continued and to the Officers and Servants appointed or employed in India, and to appointments to Office and Admissions to Service under the Authority of this Act.

Actions and Contracts.

Secretary of State in Council may sue and be sued.

LXV. The Secretary of State in Council shall and may sue and be sued as well in India as in England by the Name of the Secretary of State in Council as a Body Corporate; and all Persons and Bodies Politic shall and may have and take the same Suits, Remedies, and Proceedings, legal and equitable, against the Secretary of State in Council of India as they could have done against the said Company; and the Property and Effects hereby vested in Her Majesty for the Purposes of the Government of India, or acquired for the said Purposes, shall be subject and liable to the same Judgments and Executions, as they would while vested in the said Company have been liable to in respect of Debts and Liabilities lawfully contracted and incurred by the said Company.

Secretary of State in Council to come in the Place of the Company with regard to pending Suits, &c.

LXVI. The Secretary of State in Council shall, with respect to all Actions, Suits, and all Proceedings by or against the said Company pending at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, come in the Place of the said Company, and that without the Necessity of substituting the Name of the Secretary of State in Council for that of the said Company.

LXVII. All Treaties made by the said Company shall be binding on Her Majesty, and all Contracts, Covenants, Liabilities, and Engagements of the said Company made, incurred or entered into before the Commencement of this Act may be enforced by and against the Secretary of State in Council in like Manner and in the same Courts as they might have been by and against the said Company if this Act had not been passed.

Treaties to be binding on Her Majesty, and Contracts, &c. of Company may be enforced, &c.

LXVIII. Neither the Secretary of State nor any Member of the Council shall be personally liable in respect of any such Contract, Covenant, or Engagement of the said Company as aforesaid, or in respect of any Contract entered into under the Authority of this Act, or other Liability of the said Secretary of State or Secretary of State in Council in their official Capacity; but all such Liabilities, and all Costs and Damages in respect thereof, shall be satisfied and paid out of the Revenues of India.

Members of Council not personally liable.

LXIX. After the Commencement of this Act such of the Directors as have been elected by the General Court of the said Company, or who shall from Time to Time be so elected, shall be the Directors of the said Company, and the major Part of such Directors for the Time being shall form a Court of Directors; and where the Presence, Signature, Consent, or Concurrence of Ten Directors is now requisite, the Presence, Signature, Consent, or Concurrence of the major Part of the Directors for the Time being shall be sufficient; and to the Intent that the Number of Directors may be reduced to Six, Two Directors only shall be elected by the General Court of the said Company at each biennial Election to fill the Vacancies occasioned by the Expiration of the Term of Office of Directors; and so much of the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty as requires any of the Directors to be Persons who have resided Ten Years in India shall be repealed, and in the Oath to be taken by a Director of the said Company, under Section Thirteen of the said Act, the Words "in the Administration of the "Government of India in trust for the Crown" shall be omitted.

The Directors elected by General Court of Company, alone to be the Directors of the Company.

Provision as to Reduction of Number of Directors.

LXX. It shall no longer be obligatory on the Directors to summon Four General Quarterly Courts in every Year as heretofore.

Quarterly Courts need not be summoned.

LXXI. Except Claims of Mortgagees of the Security Fund herein-before mentioned, the said Company shall not, after the passing of this Act, be liable in respect of any Claim, Demand, or Liability which has arisen or may hereafter arise out of any Treaty, Covenant, Contract, Grant, Engagement, or Fiduciary Obligation made, incurred, or entered into by the said Company before the passing of this Act, whether the said Company would, but for this Act, have been bound to satisfy such Claim, Demand, or Liability out of the Revenues of India, or in any other Manner whatsoever.

Company not to be liable in respect of any Claim arising out of any Covenant, &c. made before the passing of this Act.

Saving of Certain Rights of the Company.

LXXII. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State in Council to pay to the said Company out of the Revenues of India such annual Sum as Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, may direct for defraying the Expenses of and incident to the Payment to the Proprietors of the Capital Stock of the said Company of their respective Shares of the Dividend on such Stock, and of keeping the Books of the said Company for Transfers, and otherwise in relation to such Stock.

As to Payment of Expenses of the Company in respect of their Capital Stock and Dividend.

LXXIII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Preference secured by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth to the Dividend on the Capital Stock of the said Company or the Right of the said Company to demand the Redemption of the said Dividend secured by such Act; and all the Provisions of the said Act concerning the Security Fund thereby created shall remain in force, save that when the Approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India is required in relation to the Disposal of the said Security Fund, the Approbation of the Secretary of State in Council shall be required.

Saving of the Rights of the Company in respect of their Dividend and Security Fund.

Commencement of the Act.

LXXIV. Save as herein otherwise provided, this Act shall commence and take effect on the Expiration of Thirty Days after the Day of the passing thereof.

Commencement of Act.

LXXV. This Act shall be proclaimed in the several Presidencies and Governments of India as soon as conveniently may be after such Act has been received by the Governor-General of India; and until such Proclamation be made all Acts, Matters, and Things done, ordered, directed, or authorized in India in the Name of the East India Company, or otherwise in relation to the Government of India, shall be as valid and effectual as if this Act had not been passed.

Provision as to Proceedings in India before the Act is proclaimed there.

ALLAHABAD, MONDAY, 1st NOVEMBER 1858.

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL has received the Commands of HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN to make known the following gracious PROCLAMATION of HER MAJESTY to the PRINCES, the CHIEFS and the PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Proclamation by the Queen in Council,

TO THE PRINCES, CHIEFS, AND PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Victoria,

BY THE GRACE OF GOD, OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND OF THE COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES THEREOF IN EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA, AMERICA, AND AUSTRALASIA, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

Whereas, for divers weighty reasons, WE have resolved, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, to take upon Ourselves the Government of the Territories in INDIA heretofore administered in trust for Us by the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY:

Now, therefore, WE do by these Presents notify and declare that, by the advice and consent aforesaid, WE have taken upon Ourselves the said Government; and WE hereby call upon all Our Subjects within the said Territories to be faithful, and to bear true Allegiance to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and to submit themselves to the authority of those whom WE may hereafter, from time to time, see fit to appoint to administer the Government of Our said Territories, in Our name and on Our behalf:

And WE, reposing especial trust and confidence in the loyalty, ability and judgment of Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Councillor, CHARLES JOHN VISCOUNT CANNING, do hereby constitute and appoint him, the said VISCOUNT CANNING, to be Our first Viceroy and Governor General in and over Our said Territories, and to administer the Government thereof in Our name, and generally to act in Our name and on Our behalf, subject to such Orders and Regulations as he shall, from time to time, receive from Us through one of Our principal Secretaries of State:

And WE do hereby confirm in their several Offices, Civil and Military, all Persons now employed in the Service of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY, subject to Our future pleasure, and to such Laws and Regulations as may hereafter be enacted.

WE hereby announce to the Native Princes of India that all Treaties and Engagements made with them by or under the authority of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY are by Us accepted, and will be scrupulously maintained; and WE look for the like observance on their part.

WE desire no extension of Our present territorial Possessions; and while WE will permit no aggression upon Our Dominions or Our Rights to be attempted with impunity, WE shall sanction no encroachment on those of others. WE shall respect the Rights, Dignity, and Honor of Native Princes as Our own; and WE desire that they, as well as Our own Subjects, should enjoy that Prosperity and that social Advancement which can only be secured by internal Peace and good Government.

WE hold Ourselves bound to the Natives of Our Indian Territories by the same Obligations of Duty which bind Us to all Our other Subjects; and those Obligations, by the Blessing of ALMIGHTY GOD, WE shall faithfully and conscientiously fulfil.

Firmly relying Ourselves on the truth of Christianity, and acknowledging with gratitude the solace of Religion, WE disclaim alike the Right and the Desire to impose our Convictions on any of Our Subjects. WE declare it to be Our Royal Will and Pleasure that none be in any wise favored, none molested or disquieted, by reason of their Religious Faith or Observances; but that all shall alike enjoy the equal and impartial protection of the Law: and WE do strictly charge and enjoin all those who may be in authority under Us, that they abstain from all interference with the Religious Belief or Worship of any of Our Subjects, on pain of Our highest Displeasure.

And it is Our further Will that, so far as may be, Our Subjects, of whatever Race or Creed, be freely and impartially admitted to Offices in Our Service, the Duties of which they may be qualified, by their education, ability, and integrity, duly to discharge.

WE know, and respect, the feelings of attachment with which the Natives of INDIA regard the Lands inherited by them from their Ancestors; and WE desire to protect them in all Rights connected therewith, subject to the equitable demands of the State: and WE will that generally, in framing and administering the Law, due regard be paid to the ancient Rights, Usages, and Customs of INDIA.

WE deeply lament the evils and misery which have been brought upon INDIA by the acts of ambitious Men, who have deceived their Countrymen by false reports, and led them into open Rebellion. Our Power has been shown by the Suppression of that Rebellion in the field; WE desire to show our Mercy, by pardoning the Offences of those who have been thus misled, but who desire to return to the path of Duty.

Already in one Province, with a view to stop the further effusion of blood, and to hasten the Pacification of Our Indian Dominions, Our Viceroy and Governor General has held out the expectation of Pardon, on certain terms, to the great majority of those who, in the late unhappy Disturbances, have been guilty of Offences against our Government, and has declared the Punishment which will be inflicted on those whose Crimes place them beyond the reach of Forgiveness. WE approve and confirm the said act of Our Viceroy and Governor General, and do further announce and proclaim as follows:—

Our Clemency will be extended to all Offenders, save and except those who have been, or shall be, convicted of having directly taken part in the Murder of British Subjects. With regard to such, the demands of Justice forbid the exercise of Mercy.

To those who have willingly given asylum to Murderers, knowing them to be such, or who may have acted as Leaders or Instigators in Revolt, their Lives alone can be guaranteed; but in apportioning the Penalty due to such Persons, full consideration will be given to the circumstances under which they have been induced to throw off their Allegiance, and large indulgence will be shown to those whose Crimes may appear to have originated in too credulous acceptance of the false reports circulated by designing Men.

To all others in Arms against the Government, WE hereby promise unconditional Pardon, Amnesty, and Oblivion of all Offence against Ourselves, Our Crown and Dignity, on their return to their homes and peaceful pursuits.

It is Our Royal Pleasure that these Terms of Grace and Amnesty should be extended to all those who comply with their Conditions before the First Day of January next.

When, by the Blessing of PROVIDENCE, internal Tranquillity shall be restored, it is Our earnest Desire to stimulate the peaceful Industry of INDIA, to promote Works of Public Utility and Improvement, and to administer its Government for the benefit of all Our Subjects resident therein. In their Prosperity will be Our Strength; in their Contentment, Our Security; and in their Gratitude, Our best Reward. And may the GOD of all Power grant to Us, and to those in authority under Us, Strength to carry out these Our Wishes for the good of Our People.

Proclamation

BY THE

RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT; ALLAHABAD, 1st NOVEMBER 1858.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN having declared that it is Her gracious Pleasure to take upon Herself the Government of the British Territories in INDIA, the Viceroy and Governor General hereby notifies that from this Day all Acts of the Government of INDIA will be done in the name of the QUEEN alone.

From this Day all Men of every Race and Class who under the administration of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY have joined to uphold the Honor and Power of ENGLAND will be the Servants of the QUEEN alone.

The Governor General summons them, one and all, each in his degree, and according to his opportunity, and with his whole heart and strength, to aid in fulfilling the gracious Will and Pleasure of the QUEEN, as set forth in Her Royal Proclamation.

From the many Millions of HER MAJESTY'S Native Subjects in INDIA, the Governor General will now and at all times exact a loyal Obedience to the Call which, in words full of Benevolence and Mercy, their SOVEREIGN has made upon their Allegiance and Faithfulness.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secretary to the Government of India,
With the Governor General.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 30TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 5th October 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 30th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1858.

An Act to continue certain Privileges and Immunities to the Family and Retainers of His late Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the exemption from the jurisdiction of the Civil and Criminal Courts, enjoyed by the said late Nabob, his family, and servants, by virtue of the provisions of Act I of 1844, ceased at the death of the said late Nabob; and it is deemed expedient that some of the said persons should continue to be privileged, and that the privilege enjoyed by others should be continued as respects all acts done by them prior to the commencement of this Act; It is enacted as follows :—

No action to be commenced or prosecuted, and no process to issue against any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob mentioned in Schedule A, unless with the consent of the Governor in Council.

I. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob, whose names are entered in Schedule A attached to this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Nor against any of the Members of his family or any of his retainers mentioned in Schedules B and C, without a like consent.

II. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family or of the retainers of the late Nabob, who were protected from the process of the Civil and Criminal Courts by Act I of 1844, and whose names are entered in Schedules B and C annexed to this Act, on account of any contract which shall have been entered into, or cause of action which shall have accrued, at a time preceding the commencement of this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth, with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, in respect of any such contract or cause of action, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Commencement of Act.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major General Sir Hope Grant, K. C. B., Commanding, that on the 17th instant, I received a communication from Major Carnegie, the Deputy Commissioner of Durriabad, that the Rebles were increasing on the Island near Bhumore Ghât, about 11 miles off to the North-West; and that since the Troops from this were there on the 15th instant, Ram Sing, who was then in Command, had been joined by Outar Sing, Byring Sing, Gujadhur Sing, &c., and that their united forces amounted to upwards of 2,000. I immediately decided on dispersing the Rebels, and arranged for the Troops as per margin, to move from this at 12 P. M. on the 17th instant, which would enable all to have a rest before advancing on their position. After leaving sufficient for the protection of the camp and the town guards, added to the Police Corps under Command of Captain Bunbury, the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, 6 Companies.

Kuppoorthullah's Contingent.
Artillery 3 6-Pounders.
Cavalry	120 Sabres.
Infantry	600 Rank and File.
Hodson's Horse, 70 Sabres.

Troops marched as directed, but in consequence of having to proceed by a longer and more circuitous route than we did on the previous occasion, as we found the Rebels fully reckoned upon the Troops advancing by the same road as before, and had accordingly made arrangements for us, which, by taking the way we did, were defeated, great difficulty was experienced in obtaining any intelligence from the neighbouring villages, the entire population being apparently friendly to the Rebels. I therefore halted the Europeans under a tope, to enable us to ascertain the position of the enemy. At half past 7 A. M. I formed up the Column, having determined upon detaching the 3 guns of the Contingent with 2 Companies Bengal Fusiliers, 2 Companies of the Rajah's Troops, and the Regular Cavalry belonging to the Rajah. I placed this force under the Command of Lieutenant Magniac, Bengal Fusiliers, with directions to proceed up the West bank of the nuddee, to prevent the enemy crossing inland from the Island, whence I decided upon moving with the main portion of the Troops, 4 Companies Europeans, Kuppoorthullah Infantry, and Hodson's Horse, and so compelled the Rebels to fight, or run the risk of drowning in the Gogra. The two Columns moved off simultaneously, that under my command fording the nuddee, and proceeded on to the Island, which is five miles long, and one and half miles broad, and a greater portion of the ground very heavy. I threw out two Companies Bengal Fusiliers in skirmishing order, with the Troops of the Kuppoorthullah Contingent in the same manner, and advanced to sweep up the Island, with Lieutenant Magniac's force on our left, and Hodson's Horse under Lieutenant McGregor, (whom I appointed to do duty, and assume command of them,) and the Rajah's Regular Cavalry on our right. After having gone a short distance, the enemy opened a brisk fire on us, from the bank of a very deep nuddee, some 100 yards wide; this fire we replied most effectively, driving the Rebels from their cover, and being brought to a stand by the depth of water the Seikhs being obliged to return, after attempting to cross. Lieutenant McGregor in a most gallant way led the Irregular Cavalry rather lower down, and into the nuddee and across the water being well over their saddles. Whilst this was being accomplished, Lieutenant Hamilton Maxwell, my detachment Staff, who was also Second in Command, and Commanding the 4 Companies Bengal Fusiliers, galloped off to bring up the elephants from our rear, where they had been left under a guard with our spare ammunition, &c., before we crossed in the first instance. Lieutenant Maxwell speedily returned with the elephants, and we passed over the men as rapidly as possible; and when all were over, advanced on steadily, driving the enemy before us, and the Enfield Rifles doing good execution, turning the Rebels out of their rifle-pits, and forcing them to take the open plain, when Lieutenant McGregor charged them with Hodson's Horse most steadily. The Rebels had one gun, a brass five-pounder, with which they kept up a continual fire on our Columns, but without doing us any injury. We still continued advancing, until we had cleared the whole of our front, when I halted the Europeans, placed them under cover in some huts, and allowed His Highness the Rajah of Kuppoorthulfah to proceed to our right with his Infantry, and work down towards the Cavalry, whence they advanced together on the gun, which had fired on us, and which our guns on the opposite side under Lieutenant Magniac, from the great execution done by Ensign Roddy, made it too hot to remain in its original position, so that the Rebels tried to carry it off, when Hodson's Horse cut down the Gunners, and the gun was ours. The Rebels having now received a severe lesson, and all we could escape having done so, I determined upon withdrawing the Troops for the day. The Europeans suffered exceedingly, from having to follow up the Rebels for five miles in a burning sun, from the effects of which they were struck down, added to the heavy ground and deep nuddees we had to ford before we could drive them into a corner, that I was anxious to get the Bengal Fusiliers under a tope, after the steady persevering manner in which they had gone through the severe work of the day; and I had them under shade by half past 11 A. M., being then nearly twelve hours under arms. The details of the operations of the Force under Lieutenant Magniac on the West bank, I have called upon him to furnish a Report of, and have the pleasure to state that his arrangements during the five and half hours he was detached from me, have merited my warmest approval.

2. It is impossible to estimate the loss on the side of the Rebels, but the natives have reported to the Civil Authorities, that they numbered from 2,000 to 3,000 men in the first instance, and 450 are killed, missing and drowned, besides wounded. Ram Singh himself was severely wounded, Byrung Singh, one of the Rebel leaders was slain, and Ontar Singh's brother was killed also; two boat-loads of fugitives, containing 70 each, are reported to have been drowned whilst in their hurry to escape. This information has been supplied me by Mr. Bradford, Assistant Commissioner, Durriabad.

3. The Casualties on our side are, I am very happy to say, comparatively small, being 3 men killed, and 17 wounded, and 1 horse killed, and 8 horses wounded; the nature and severity of the wounds received at once show that the Troops were closely engaged.

4. I regret to say, that Lieutenant C. M. McGregor, late of the 57th Native Infantry, and whom I appointed to Command Hodson's Horse, was severely wounded, whilst charging the Rebels; and his Horse in three places, which has since had to be destroyed. The gallant manner in which this Officer behaved on this as on the previous occasions, when he has been with Hodson's Horse, seemed to gain the entire confidence of the men, and his being wounded was a great loss, inasmuch as there was not another European Officer to lead them, as had there been one, a good many Rebels that escaped would not have done so. No Officer could have behaved in a more gallant manner, or set a better example to his men than Lieutenant McGregor did, and the men themselves speak of his bravery on the occasion. I trust, that he will soon be able to resume his duties, and that Government will grant him compensation for the loss of his Horse. Mirza Ahmed Beg, Ressaidar 14th Troop 2nd Regiment Hodson's Horse, having behaved most gallantly, and led his men well after Lieutenant McGregor was wounded, I beg to recommend the Ressaidar for promotion. I have always found him most particular and strict in the performance of his duty.

5. The Force under my command remained under the tope until 5 P. M., when they returned to Durriabad arriving at 9 P. M.

6. It now becomes my pleasing duty to acknowledge the assistance so readily afforded me by every one on the 8th instant.

7. To all Officers and Men engaged throughout the day, who cheerfully bore the great fatigue and necessary exposure to the excessive heat on this trying occasion, my best thanks are specially due, and congratulate them on the result of their labors.

8. To Major Carnegie, the Deputy Commissioner, Durriabad, who accompanied the Force, and remained out during the day, my best thanks are due for his able assistance in obtaining information as to the position and strength of the enemy.

9. To Mr. Bradford, the Assistant Commissioner, whose absence on this occassion I greatly regretted, in consequence of having broken his collar-bone from his horse falling when out with the Force on the 15th instant, I am under great obligations for the zealous manner in which he has conducted the Intelligence Department, and trust his services may soon be again available.

10. To Lieutenant Hamilton Maxwell, my detachment Staff and Second in Command, whose unwearied and cheerful exertions the whole day, merited my highest approbation, has been always on the alert, and ready to aid me in every possible way, by best thanks are offered.

11. To Lieutenant Chamier, in Political charge of the Kuppoorthullah Contingent, I feel deeply indebted, and cannot speak too highly of the valuable services rendered me throughout the day by this excellent Officer, in the performance of the arduous duties that devolved upon him.

12. To Assistant Surgeon T. E. Charles, M. D., for his uniform kindness and attention to the men suffering from sun-stroke, as well as to the wounded generally, I beg to express my great appreciation of his able services particularly as he was suffering from illness himself.

13. The Kuppoorthullah Contingent performed the several duties required of them during the day.

14. His Highness the Rajah, his Brother, and his General, accompanied the Force and were at all times ready to lead their men and induced them to press on, though somewhat tired from the long march, after the retreating enemy, and my thanks are due to them.

15. Colonel Williamson, of the Rajah's Service, was left with two Companies of Seikhs and 25 Seikh Cavalry, to protect the road the enemy attempted once to get at the doolies and spare ammunition, but by Colonel Williamson's good disposition, they were sent to the right about.

16. The brass five-pounder gun captured from the enemy, is now in the Fort of Durriabad, and as his Highness the Rajah was present at the taking of it, I await instructions as to its disposal.

17. I beg to forward a Casualty List in detail, showing the number of killed and wounded, in the Force under my Command, on the 18th instant.

Camp Durriabad, 19th September 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major Hume, Commanding the Force, that agreeably to his instructions, I proceeded from Bhumarea Ghat, along the West bank of the nullah, which protected the position of the enemy in that direction, with the Force as per margin. After advancing for a short distance, I observed the enemy in large numbers on the opposite bank, who being emboldened by the difficulties their position presented to an attacking party, (the nullah here might be perhaps 100 yards broad, and very deep,) were making a stand, and keeping up a brisk fire on the main Column. As they were within easy range of Ensign Roddy's guns, I ordered them to the front, when that Officer opened a well directed fire, completely enfilading their advanced line of skirmishers, who retired after receiving a few rounds.

1st Bengal Fusiliers.
2 Companies.
Rajah of Kuppoorthullah's Contingent.
4 Guns 6-pounders.
4 Companies Infantry.
20 Sabres Regular Cavalry.

I then continued my advance towards a large party of Rebels to my left, but on the opposite bank and who, upon our approach, opened a smart fire of musketry from rifle-pits, and behind a line of breastworks.

2. Being anxious to drive them from this, and seeing that the Column had not yet crossed the nullah, I ordered one Company of the 1st Bengal Fusiliers out to skirmish along the bank, supported by the other Company, the whole under the Command of Lieutenant Butler; the Seikh Infantry remaining with the guns. In this order we advanced until opposite the breast-work; here Ensign Roddy again tried his guns, the Infantry from behind good cover, at 250 yards, keeping down the fire on them, which was at first very heavy. Finding after 10 or 12 rounds that the guns made no impression on the earthworks and observing that you had crossed the nullah, and turned the enemy's flank, I ceased firing, and on your continuing to advance, the enemy suddenly vacated their position. This gave us a good opportunity to punish them, and the guns directed by Ensign Roddy, made beautiful practice, thinning their ranks, and obliging them to retreat rapidly.

3. I followed them up towards a second line of works, where they had one gun, (the one subsequently taken.) Here they made but a short stand, endeavouring to take of their gun, which the well-directed fire from Ensign Roddy's 6-pounders, prevented their doing far, although they preserved for nearly a mile. The gun was soon after taken in first rate style by the Rajah of Kuppoorthullah's Infantry, assisted by a Detachment of Hodson's Horse.

4. The enemy being thus driven, made a precipitate retreat in all directions a few in their hurry attempting to swim the nullah, were shot; while others that succeeded in crossing a little higher up, were all cut down by the Rajah's Regular Cavalry, led by Ensigns Roddy and Woodgate.

5. The work being thus complete, the enemy being defeated and scattered, the pursuit naturally fell to the Cavalry, and the men being much exhausted, the Infantry were therefore halted, and as the sun was exceedingly powerful, I ordered them to retire slowly to a neighbouring tope, where we rested for a short time, and then returned to join the main Column.

6. The distance gone over by the men under my immediate command during the advance, could not have been less than 5 miles, and I cannot speak too highly of the cheerful alacrity displayed by every one under me, while exposed to the intense heat of this morning.

7. I beg to particularize the active energy displayed by Lieutenant T. A. Butler, in leading on the skirmisher, and Ensign Roddy also, who by his well-directed fire, contributed greatly to the success of the day. I particularly noticed "Nubbee Buksh," the Native Artillery Commandant of the Rajah of Kuppoorthullah's Contingent who, by his coolness and activity, proved himself a good and valuable Soldier.

8. I am happy to say, the Casualties were but trifling, being a Private of the 1st Bengal Fusiliers slightly wounded, and one mule attached to the guns also wounded; the cause of this I attribute to the heavy and accurate fire kept up by the men from the Enfield Rifles on the rifle-pits, held by the enemy, which effectually prevented them firing with any steadiness.

I have, &c.,

Legislative Council of India.

THE 30TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 5th October 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 30th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1858.

An Act to continue certain Privileges and Immunities to the Family and Retainers of His late Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the exemption from the jurisdiction of the Civil and Criminal Courts, enjoyed by the said late Nabob, his family, and servants, by virtue of the provisions of Act I of 1844, ceased at the death of the said late Nabob; and it is deemed expedient that some of the said persons should continue to be privileged, and that the privilege enjoyed by others should be continued as respects all acts done by them prior to the commencement of this Act; It is enacted as follows :—

No action to be commenced or prosecuted, and no process to issue against any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob mentioned in Schedule A, unless with the consent of the Governor in Council.

I. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob, whose names are entered in Schedule A attached to this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Nor against any of the Members of his family or any of his retainers mentioned in Schedules B and C, without a like consent.

II. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family or of the retainers of the late Nabob, who were protected from the process of the Civil and Criminal Courts by Act I of 1844, and whose names are entered in Schedules B and C annexed to this Act, on account of any contract which shall have been entered into, or cause of action which shall have accrued, at a time preceding the commencement of this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth, with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, in respect of any such contract or cause of action, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE HONORABLE THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, 5th November 1858.

No. 1489 of 1858.—The following Proclamations of Her Majesty the Queen and the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary of the 1st instant, are re-published in General Orders :—

ALLAHABAD, MONDAY, 1ST NOVEMBER 1858.

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL has received the Commands of HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN to make known the following gracious PROCLAMATION of HER MAJESTY to the PRINCES, the CHIEFS and the PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Proclamation by the Queen in Council,
TO THE PRINCES, CHIEFS, AND PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Victoria,

BY THE GRACE OF GOD, OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND OF THE COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES THEREOF IN EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA, AMERICA, AND AUSTRALASIA,

Queen, Defender of the Faith.

Whereas, for divers weighty reasons, WE have resolved, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, to take upon Ourselves the Government of the Territories in INDIA heretofore administered in trust for Us by the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY:

Now, therefore, WE do by these Presents notify and declare that, by the advice and consent aforesaid, WE have taken upon Ourselves the said Government; and WE hereby call upon all Our Subjects within the said Territories to be faithful, and to bear true Allegiance to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and to submit themselves to the authority of those whom WE may hereafter, from time to time, see fit to appoint to administer the Government of Our said Territories, in Our name and on Our behalf:

And WE, reposing especial trust and confidence in the loyalty, ability and judgment of Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Councillor, CHARLES JOHN VISCOUNT CANNING, do hereby constitute and appoint him, the said VISCOUNT CANNING, to be Our first Viceroy and Governor General in and over Our said Territories, and to administer the Government thereof in Our name, and generally to act in Our name and on Our behalf, subject to such Orders and Regulations as he shall, from time to time, receive from Us through one of Our principal Secretaries of State:

And WE do hereby confirm in their several Offices, Civil and Military, all Persons now employed in the Service of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY, subject to Our future pleasure, and to such Laws and Regulations as may hereafter be enacted.

We hereby announce to the Native Princes of India that all Treaties and Engagements made with them by or under the authority of the Honorable East India Company are by Us accepted, and will be scrupulously maintained; and We look for the like observance on their part.

We desire no extension of Our present territorial Possessions; and while We will permit no aggression upon Our Dominions or Our Rights to be attempted with impunity, We shall sanction no encroachment on those of others. We shall respect the Rights, Dignity, and Honor of Native Princes as Our own; and We desire that they, as well as Our own Subjects, should enjoy that Prosperity and that social Advancement which can only be secured by internal Peace and good Government.

We hold Ourselves bound to the Natives of Our Indian Territories by the same Obligations of Duty which bind Us to all Our other Subjects; and those Obligations, by the Blessing of Almighty God, We shall faithfully and conscientiously fulfil.

Firmly relying Ourselves on the truth of Christianity, and acknowledging with gratitude the solace of Religion, We disclaim alike the Right and the Desire to impose our Convictions on any of Our Subjects. We declare it to be Our Royal Will and Pleasure that none be in any wise favored, none molested or disquieted, by reason of their Religious Faith or Observances; but that all shall alike enjoy the equal and impartial protection of the Law: and We do strictly charge and enjoin all those who may be in authority under Us, that they abstain from all interference with the Religious Belief or Worship of any of Our Subjects, on pain of Our highest Displeasure.

And it is Our further Will that, so far as may be, Our Subjects, of whatever Race or Creed, be freely and impartially admitted to Offices in Our Service, the Duties of which they may be qualified, by their education, ability, and integrity, duly to discharge.

We know, and respect, the feelings of attachment with which the Natives of India regard the Lands inherited by them from their Ancestors; and We desire to protect them in all Rights connected therewith, subject to the equitable demands of the State: and We will that generally, in framing and administering the Law, due regard be paid to the ancient Rights, Usages, and Customs of India.

We deeply lament the evils and misery which have been brought upon India by the acts of ambitious Men, who have deceived their Countrymen by false reports, and led them into open Rebellion. Our Power has been shown by the Suppression of that Rebellion in the field; We desire to show our Mercy, by pardoning the Offences of those who have been thus misled, but who desire to return to the path of Duty.

Already in one Province, with a view to stop the further effusion of blood, and to hasten the Pacification of Our Indian Dominions, Our Viceroy and Governor General has held out the expectation of Pardon, on certain terms, to the great majority of those who, in the late unhappy Disturbances, have been guilty of Offences against our Government, and has declared the Punishment which will be inflicted on those whose Crimes place them beyond the reach of Forgiveness. We approve and confirm the said act of Our Viceroy and Governor General, and do further announce and proclaim as follows:—

Our Clemency will be extended to all Offenders, save and except those who have been, or shall be, convicted of having directly taken part in the Murder of British Subjects. With regard to such, the demands of Justice forbid the exercise of Mercy.

To those who have willingly given asylum to Murderers, knowing them to be such, or who may have acted as Leaders or Instigators in Revolt, their Lives alone can be guaranteed; but in apportioning the Penalty due to such Persons, full consideration will be given to the circumstances under which they have been induced to throw off their Allegiance, and large indulgence will be shown to those whose Crimes may appear to have originated in too credulous acceptance of the false reports circulated by designing Men.

To all others in Arms against the Government, WE hereby promise unconditional Pardon, Amnesty, and Oblivion of all Offence against Ourselves, Our Crown and Dignity, on their return to their homes and peaceful pursuits.

It is Our Royal Pleasure that these Terms of Grace and Amnesty should be extended to all those who comply with their Conditions before the First Day of January next.

When, by the Blessing of PROVIDENCE, internal Tranquillity shall be restored, it is Our earnest Desire to stimulate the peaceful Industry of INDIA, to promote Works of Public Utility and Improvement, and to administer its Government for the benefit of all Our Subjects resident therein. In their Prosperity will be Our Strength; in their Contentment, Our Security; and in their Gratitude, Our best Reward. And may the GOD of all Power grant to Us, and to those in authority under Us, Strength to carry out these Our Wishes for the good of Our People.

Proclamation

BY THE

RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT; ALLAHABAD, 1ST NOVEMBER 1858.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN having declared that it is Her gracious Pleasure to take upon Herself the Government of the British Territories in INDIA, the Viceroy and Governor General hereby notifies that from this Day all Acts of the Government of INDIA will be done in the name of the QUEEN alone.

From this Day all Men of every Race and Class who under the administration of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY have joined to uphold the Honor and Power of ENGLAND will be the Servants of the QUEEN alone.

The Governor General summons them, one and all, each in his degree, and according to his opportunity, and with his whole heart and strength, to aid in fulfilling the gracious Will and Pleasure of the QUEEN, as set forth in Her Royal Proclamation.

From the many Millions of HER MAJESTY'S Native Subjects in INDIA, the Governor General will now and at all times exact a loyal Obedience to the Call which, in words full of Benevolence and Mercy, their SOVEREIGN has made upon their Allegiance and Faithfulness.

No. 1490 of 1858.—The following Notification from the Home Department, is published in General Orders:—

Dated 1*st November* 1858.—In accordance with the desire of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Viceroy and Governor General of India, the Proclamation of Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA, to the Princes, Chiefs, and People of India, was publicly read, in the English and Bengali Languages, on the North Steps of Government House, this day, in the presence of the Civil, Military and Naval Officers of Her Majesty's Service, and of a vast Concourse of the People.

The following Troops were drawn up on the North Side of Government House, facing the Steps, and on the two Sides of the Building:—

A Battery of Royal Artillery,
The Calcutta Volunteer Artillery,
The Calcutta Volunteer Cavalry,
Her Majesty's 29th Regiment,
Detachment, Her Majesty's 48th Regiment,
Her Majesty's 77th Regiment,
The Calcutta Volunteer Infantry,
A Brigade of Seamen from H. M.'s Ship Pylades;

And in Fort William there were present:—

The East Indian Rifle Corps,
Detachment 73rd Native Infantry (Goorkhas.)

At a Quarter before 3 P. M. the Hon'ble the President of the Council of the Governor General of India was met in the Marble Hall by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, the Hon'ble Members of the Council of the Governor General of India, the Hon'ble Members of the Legislative Council of India, the Hon'ble the Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court, the principal Civil, Military, and Naval Officers at the Presidency, the Foreign Consuls, the Vakeels of Native Courts, and several Gentlemen of the Community, both English and Indian.

At 4 P. M., the Hon'ble the President, accompanied by the high Officers and other Persons above named, proceeded to the edge of the Platform at the top of the Grand Staircase.

The Troops presented Arms, and the Proclamation was then read by the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department.

On the conclusion of the Proclamation, the Royal Standard of England was hoisted in front of Government House by the Officers and Men of Her Majesty's Ship Pylades, and in Fort William by the Officers and Men of the Indian Navy on duty; the Troops presenting Arms and the Bands playing the National Anthem.

Royal Salutes were then fired in succession by the Battery of Royal Artillery in attendance at Government House, and from the Ramparts of Fort William, and Her Majesty's Ships Pylades, Pearl, Semiramis and Sparrowhawk.

In the Evening there was a general Illumination of the Town of Calcutta and of the Ships in the Port.

God Save the Queen

No. 1500 of 1858.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct the publication in General Order of the following paras. of a Military letter, from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, to the Government of India, No. 236, of the 30th August 1858.

14. Mr. Charles Sheridan, Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance, and Assistant Director of the Artillery Depôt of Instruction, has been in our Service 38 years. It is now strongly recommended by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that the Commission of Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment may be conferred upon him, and the Governor General has stated that in His Lordship's opinion the applicant is eminently worthy of that promotion.

Letter dated 25th May 1858.

Memorial from Mr. C. Sheridan, of the Ordnance Commissariat Department, praying for the rank of Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment, forwarded with the strong recommendation of Government.

15. We have now the satisfaction of authorizing you to confer on Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance Charles Sheridan, a Commission as Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment, from the date of your receipt of this Despatch.

16. Deputy Assistant Commissary Buckley, was severely wounded, whilst assisting in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi, and again whilst escaping after the Magazine was exploded. His Memorial praying a Commission on the Veteran Establishment is supported by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and by the earnest recommendation of the Governor General.

Letter dated 25th May 1858.

Memorial from Mr. J Buckley, Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance, praying for the Commission of Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment, forwarded with the earnest recommendation of Government.

17. We have much satisfaction in authorizing you to grant to Deputy Assistant Commissary Buckley, a Commission as Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment, from the date of your receipt of this Despatch.

The Hon'ble Court's Despatch having been received in this Department on the 18th October 1858, the Commissions of Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment conferred on Deputy Assistant Commissaries C. Sheridan and J. Buckley, and the allowances to be drawn by them will have effect from that date.

No. 492 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, submitting a Despatch from Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., Commanding on the Grand Trunk Road, reporting the result of a successful attack against the Rebels at Suhejnee near Peroo, on the 27th ultimo.

The Governor General entirely concurs with the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, in his appreciation of the conduct of Lieutenant Baker, of the Bengal Police Battalion, on the occasion, and of Mr. Chicken, of the Indian Naval Brigade.

The very efficient manner in which Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., has performed the duties entrusted to him, in the defence of the Grand Trunk Road, has deservedly called for the marked approval of the Commander-in-Chief, in which the Governor General fully concurs.

The several Officers and Men who have been particularly brought to notice, will be rewarded immediately.

SIR,

No 578, 30th September.

I AM directed by the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief to forward the enclosed Despatch from Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., Commanding on the Grand Trunk Road, with its enclosures.

2. I have the honor to request, on the part of His Lordship, that you will have the goodness to direct the attention of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General to the brilliancy of the exploit performed by Lieutenant G. C. Baker, of the Bengal Police Battalion, which is deserving of the highest encomium, on account both of conception and execution. His Lordship is of opinion that the Victoria Cross should be awarded to Lieutenant Baker, and to Mr. Chicken, of the Indian Navy, and he will take immediate measures for the execution of his intention in this respect.

3. Lord Clyde would avail himself of this opportunity of testifying to the admirable manner in which Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., Commanding on the Grand Trunk Road, has given effect to his instructions. His operations have been characterized alike by vigor and prudence throughout; he has made the very best use of the means placed at his disposal, and the results obtained in consequence are most important, as shown by the manner in which the Rebels have been pushed back from the Grand Trunk Road to the close neighbourhood of Jugdespore, at a season when, from the flooded state of the country, Military movements are deemed almost impossible.

I have, &c.,

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to annex, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in Chief, a copy of a Despatch, with its enclosures, this day sent to Brigadier Douglas, C. B., Commanding, relative to a successful action fought against the Rebels, by the Cavalry of my Force, on the 27th instant.

(COPY.)

No. 577.

To MAJOR SIR H. HAVELOCK, BART.,
Assistant Adjutant General,
with Brigadier Douglas, C. B.

Camp Dawuth, 30th September 1858.

SIR,

IN continuation of my Report of the 27th instant, I have now the honor to state, for the information of Brigadier Douglas, C. B., Commanding disturbed Districts, that whilst halted at Khurona for the men to breakfast, the information I had previously received of the enemy being in force at Suhejnee near Peroo was confirmed, and I made immediate arrangements to attack him.

From Khurona a road is marked on the Map as leading through Bessadeeh to Nonar, and so into the main road to Peroo, and it was my intention to have marched by this road, and attacked the enemy's left flank and rear. On examination, however, I found it such a bad pathway leading over rice field ridges, and so deep in mud, that I altered my arrangements, and proceeded as follows :—

2 Officers and 54 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry.
3 Officers and 68 Cavalry Bengal Police Seikh Battalion.

Parading the Cavalry as per margin, I called the Officers around me and impressed upon them my great anxiety to strike a severe blow upon Rebels, who trusting in their rice fields, and the generally impracticable state of the country, have hitherto escaped with but slight chastisement: and well and gallantly have these gentlemen, and the men they commanded, answered my appeal.

At 1 P. M., therefore, I ordered the Cavalry to march by Koosembey, Etumba, &c., and get into their rear with all possible despatch, and in case the enemy gave them a favorable chance to charge well-home, and cut up as many as they could. With the view also that there should be no want of European gentlemen to lead them, I placed at the disposal of Lieutenant Broughton, 3rd Seikh Cavalry, the Commanding Officer, the services of Lieutenant Nolan, Sasseram Sebundy Levy, Mr. Chicken, Master, Indian Naval Brigade, and George Blake, Esquire, who had volunteered, and were anxious to serve with him.

3 Officers and 71 H. M.'s 37th Regiment.
5 Officers and 117 Camel Corps. Natives and Europeans.
3 Officers and 164 Bengal Police Battalion.
1 Officer and 50 Men Sebundy Levy.

As the Cavalry wheeled from behind the village, I marched with the Infantry, as per margin, by Sippoora to Sheopoor, where I knew that the ground was firm and sandy, and thence direct upon Suhejnee; but on arriving within half a mile, found the place completely deserted. I therefore bivouacked in the village of Meighooan, in its immediate front, and awaited intelligence from the Cavalry

The annexed Despatch from Lieutenant Baker, Commanding Cavalry Bengal Police Battalion, (with the covering letter from Captain Rattray, Commanding Bengal Police Battalion, his immediate Commanding Officer,) to whom Lieutenant Broughton, declining the responsibility, had on the field handed over the Command, gives in detail the operations preceding, and the results of as gallant a charge as any made during the war. The enemy, at the lowest estimate, was 700 strong, well armed, and mostly old Sepoys of the 50th, 47th and 32nd Regiments Native Infantry, of whom a Subadar and 80 were left dead on the field, while the wounded, by native report, are stated to have been from 20 to 30 more. Indeed a spy from Jugdespore, who was present at the muster after they ran in, states that there were 115 of the number missing.

In conclusion, I beg most respectfully and warmly to request, that the Brigadier General will be pleased to bring to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the judgment and gallantry of Lieutenant Baker, who on all former occasions has shown a marked zeal and intelligence, and the Officers named by him, particularly Mr. Chicken, Master, Indian Naval Brigade, who was severely wounded ; Lieutenant Nolan, of the Sasseram Sebundy Levy ; George Blake, Esquire, Volunteer ; Ressaldar Mahomed Wuzeer Khan, Cavalry Bengal Police Battalion ; Ressaldar Fyzoolah Khan, 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry ; with Troopers Shabaz Khan, Cavalry Bengal Police Battalion, and Dhull Sing, 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry. I do myself the honor also to annex a list and Nominal Roll of Casualties, together with a list of the arms taken.

I have, &c.,

TO CAPTAIN GORDON,

Staff Officer Field Force.

Camp Dawuth, 30th September 1858.

SIR,

FOR the information of Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., Commanding Field Force, I do myself the honor to enclose a detailed account of the action fought at Suhejnee between the Cavalry of the Force, and the Rebels on the 27th. I beg permission to bring especially to the notice of the Commanding Officer, the gallant and excellent conduct displayed by Lieutenant Baker on this occasion, the command having devolved upon him. All the Officers concerned are of opinion, that but for him, the charge would not have been effected, which ended in such a happy result. I have before had occassion to speak of Lieutenant Baker's gallantry and consider well worthy of honorable mention.

It is also my pleasing duty to bring forward the name of George Bell Chicken, Master, Indian Navy. This Officer volunteered for service with my Corps, when it started from Dehree, with a determination as he expressed it, to win his Medal, and nobly has he earned it ; he, as Lieutenant Baker writes, charged into the middle of a considerable number of the enemy, and he succeeded in killing five before he was cut down himself. I consider this Officer as well worthy of the consideration of Government.

I beg also permission to draw Lieutenant Colonel Turner's attention to the names of Ressaldar Mahomed Wuzeer Khan, 1st Bengal Police Battalion, and Fyzoollah Khan, 3rd Seikh Cavalry. The former Native Officer has been in action in many occasions, during the last fifteen months, and has invariably distinguished himself. The Government have already promoted him to the 2nd Class "Order of British India," and I should be much pleased, if Lieutenant Colonel Turner could feel himself justified in recommending him for the 1st Class "Order of British India," or 3rd Class "Order of Merit."

It is also my duty to mention the names of Duffadar Akbeer Khan, who has been before mentioned in despatches by myself. Lance Duffadar Kala Khan, Trooper Shabaz Khan, (who particularly distinguished himself,) and Trooper Dhull Sing, 3rd Seikh Cavalry ; but for the gallantry of these men, Mr. Chicken must have been killed. I beg to recommend all these men for 3rd Class "Order of Merit," as also Troopers Nuttur Sing and Hakim Sing, whose names are especially mentioned by Lieutenant Baker. I deem it of great importance that these men should meet with some reward, not only on account of their individual gallantry, but as an incentive to their comrades to come to the front on future occasions.

I have, &c.,

TO CAPTAIN GORDON,

Field Adjutant,

Lieut.-Col. Turner's Field Force.

Dated Camp Munjhaen, 27th Sept. 1858.

SIR,

FOR the information of Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., Commanding Field Force, I have the honor to report the details of a successful attack by the Cavalry Detachments under my command, upon the Rebel Force at Suhejnee near Peroo, which resulted in the total rout of the enemy, whose loss is estimated at from 80 to 90 killed and many wounded, with but a comparatively small list of Casualties on our side.

2. In compliance with the orders of the Officer Commanding the Field Force, the Detachments of Cavalry noted in the margin, marched at about 1 P. M. yesterday, with the view of intercepting the retreat of the Rebel Force posted at the village of Suhejnee, distant five miles.

3. On nearing the village above-mentioned, I discovered the enemy in possession of it, as well as in occupation of all the neighbouring topes of trees, sugar-cane khêts, &c., from which positions a heavy fire was at once opened. An irregular fire at intervals from the adjacent village of Nonar proved that place to be also held by the Mutineer force.

4. Requesting Lieutenant Broughton, with the 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry, to take up a position to the North-West of Suhejnee, clear of the enemy's fire, which was now very hot, I halted my Troop, and despatched a note to Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., reporting the position of the enemy, and the very difficult nature of the ground for Cavalry to act upon, being a succession of muddy rice khêts, intersected by water-courses.

5. The enemy observing us stationary, and seing no Infantry or Guns advancing in support, became bold, threw out skirmishers, and emerging from their cover drew up in line, their right resting on Suhejnee, and their left on the village of Russowlee. At this moment, the Rebel force must have mustered from 900 to 1,000 strong in Infantry, with 50 Cavalry.

6. The enemy advanced. Without exchanging a shot, I at once retired slowly, followed up steadily by the Rebel line for a hundred yards, clear of village or jungle, when suddenly wheeling about my divisons into line with a hearty cheer, we charged into and through the centre of the enemy's line, Lieutenant Broughton with his Detachment immediately following up the movement, with excellent effect from his position upon the enemy's left. The Rebel right wing of about 300 men broke at once, but the centre and left, observing the great labour of the horses, in crossing the heavy ground, stood, and receiving the charge with repeated vollies, were cut down or broke only a few yards ahead of the Cavalry. From this moment, the pursuit was limited to the strongest and best horses of the Force, numbering some 60 of all ranks, who, dashing into and swimming a deep and wide nullah, followed the flying enemy through the village of Russowlee and its sugar-cane khêts, over two miles of swamp, and five hundred yards into the thick jungles near Peroo, when both men and horses being completely exhausted, I sounded "the halt" and "assembly," and, collecting my wounded, returned to Camp at Munjhaen about 6 P. M.

7. I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to the European Officers and Gentlemen Volunteers, who led the several Detachments on this occasion, who, by their courage and example, were the means of sustaining the pursuit over a most difficult country, far beyond my most sanguine hopes.

8. To Lieutenant Broughton, Commanding the 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry, and G. C. Blake, Esquire, Volunteer, doing duty, my thanks are especially due for so gallantly supporting the charge of my Troop, by leading the attack upon the enemy's left.

Mr. G. B. Chicken, Master, Indian Navy, of the Dehree Naval Brigade, and Lieutenant and Adjutant Nolan, of the 2nd Bengal Police Battalion, both Volunteers, doing duty with my Troop, rendered me the greatest assistance and service. The former Officer, who, I regret to say, was most severely wounded, performed a very gallant act, in charging into the jungle, and attacking a body of some 20 Sepoys, who were preparing to rally and open fire upon the now scattered pursuers. Surrounded on all sides, but fighting desperately, he would have been cut to pieces, had not Lance Duffadar Kala Khan, Duffader Ukber Khan, and Trooper Shabaz Khan, of the 1st Bengal Police Cavalry, with Trooper Dhull Sing, of the 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry, dashed into the crowd to his rescue, and routed it after killing several of the enemy. All these men, as well as their horses, were wounded. I would also beg especially to bring to the notice of Lieutenant Colonel Turner, C. B., the gallant conduct of Ressaldar Mahomed Wazeer Khan, and Troopers Nuttur Sing and Hakim Sing, of the 1st Bengal Police Cavalry. The Ressaldar has been mentioned in despatches by Captain Rattray, on former occasions, as having particularly distinguished himself, and the two Troopers were conspicuous in their gallantry on this.

9. Lieutenant Broughton particularly mentions Ressaldar Fyzoolah Khan of his Regiment, for his forward zeal, and I am happy in being able to add my testimony to his report.

10. I trust I may be pardoned for mentioning so many Officers and Men for distinguished conduct on this occasion; but the success of the charge and pursuit depended so entirely on the conduct of those who rode to the front, that I am naturally grateful to those men, whose brave example and support gave me so effective a victory, over a force composed almost entirely of well armed Mutineer Sepoys.

11. The greater portion of the captured arms and accoutrements of the enemy were by my orders broken up and thrown into wells, as a large number of the Troopers were obliged to dismount, to convey the wounded to Camp. Annexed is a list of a few that were brought in. I beg to enclose Casualty Rolls.

1	Enfield Rifle.
24	Percussion Muskets.
1	Flint do.
5	Matchlocks.
32	Tulwars.

I have, &c.,

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 30TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 5th October 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 30th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1858.

An Act to continue certain Privileges and Immunities to the Family and Retainers of His late Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the exemption from the jurisdiction of the Civil and Criminal Courts, enjoyed by the said late Nabob, his family, and servants, by virtue of the provisions of Act I of 1844, ceased at the death of the said late Nabob; and it is deemed expedient that some of the said persons should continue to be privileged, and that the privilege enjoyed by others should be continued as respects all acts done by them prior to the commencement of this Act; It is enacted as follows :—

No action to be commenced or prosecuted, and no process to issue against any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob mentioned in Schedule A, unless with the consent of the Governor in Council.

I. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob, whose names are entered in Schedule A attached to this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Nor against any of the Members of his family or any of his retainers mentioned in Schedules B and C, without a like consent.

II. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family or of the retainers of the late Nabob, who were protected from the process of the Civil and Criminal Courts by Act I of 1844, and whose names are entered in Schedules B and C annexed to this Act, on account of any contract which shall have been entered into, or cause of action which shall have accrued, at a time preceding the commencement of this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth, with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, in respect of any such contract or cause of action, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Commencement of Act.

All Officers, Civil or Military, Staff or Regimental, in Her Majesty's or the Hon'ble Company's Service, on their applying for Leave beyond Sea, whether to Europe or elsewhere, will be required to submit with their applications for Leave, reports from the Officers noted in the margin, stating whether, according to the information before them, there is reason to require Security as a special case on account of any doubtful items outstanding against the applicant, or because of any thing suspicious or extraordinary in the state of the applicant's accounts. The Reporting Officers must not delay their reports in ordinary cases by references to Local Officers, as with a proper system of despatch and proper vigilance on their part they ought, in all ordinary cases, to have the means of judging in their own Office. All Officers affected by these Rules are reminded of the necessity of using every means in their power for the settlement of their accounts, in order to obviate inconvenience to themselves from any delay in the issue of the report by the several Departments concerned.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General a letter in original from Brigadier J. Chute, Commanding at Lucknow, No. 318, of the 26th ultimo, giving cover to reports from Lieutenant Colonel Pratt and Major Bulwer, of Her Majesty's 23rd Fusiliers, detached with a force from Lucknow, to operate against the Rebels collected at and about Selimpore, in considerable numbers; and I am to beg you will be good enough to express to His Lordship the high opinion entertained by His Excellency of the brilliant manner in which these operations were conducted, more particularly that at Selimpore, by Major Bulwer.

2. I am further desired to draw the attention of Lord Canning to the gallantry displayed by Lieutenant C. F. Chamberlain, of the Oude Police.

No. 318.

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,

Army Head Quarters, Allahabad,

Lucknow, 26th September 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying Despatch from Major Bulwer, of the 23rd Fusiliers, in command of the force directed by me to operate against the Rebels at Selimpore, in compliance with the telegrams received from you, and in answer to my application to this effect.

I am happy to say that the expedition has been most successful, and been the cause of establishing confidence and tranquillity to a considerable extent along the right bank of the Goomtee.

Every credit is due to Major Bulwer, for the zeal and ability which he has evinced in the performance of this most important duty; and I trust you will bring his name to the favorable consideration of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief; as also the names of those Officers mentioned in the Despatch, who rendered such able assistance, particularly Lieutenant Chamberlain, of the Oudh Police, who seems to have shewn great dash and judgment.

I further beg to forward a Despatch, received from Lieutenant Colonel Pratt, 23rd Fusiliers, commanding a portion of the troops from Nawabgunge Barrabunker, detailing his movements on the left side of the Goomtee river, in co-operation with the force despatched from Lucknow.

I have &c.,

TO THE OFFG. DEPY. ASST. ADJT. GENERAL,
Lucknow,
Camp Goosaingunge, 25th September 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier Commanding at Lucknow, that, in pursuance to his orders, I proceeded on the night of the 22nd instant, with the force named in the margin, in the direction of Selimpore. It had been ordered, that the whole force should be formed at the Dilkusha at 9-30 P. M., but owing to some mistake, the Native Infantry did not arrive as soon as expected. I was delayed therefore a little at starting, but moved off at about 10-30 P. M; the road some 3 or 4 miles from the Dilkusha is excessively bad, and the mortars delayed the Column.

Infantry.
180 Men 23rd R. W. Fs.
120 Men 88th Regiment.
400 Native Police.
Cavalry.
800 Sowars.
Guns.
2 9-Pounders R. Arty.
2 5½-In. Mortars, R. Arty.

I received information from Mr. Martin, the Civil Officer, who accompanied me on the road, that Moosahib Ali, with 2,000 or 3,000 men, 4 guns, and 200 Sowars, occupied Selimpore, and was in direct communication with a large force of double that number, on the oppostie side of the Goomtee. My intention was to arrive at Selimpore about day-break, in order to co-operate with the Column from Nawabgunge, which was to attack the Rebels at Chirria Bagh at the same hour. I found myself, however, owing to delays, at that time at Moonsheegunge, a village about 2 miles from Selimpore, where I heard the firing of the Column on the opposite side of the river.

I immediately pushed on with all the available Cavalry under Lieutenant C. F. Chamberlain, 26th Bombay Native Infantry, and directed him to surround the place; this he accomplished most effectively and rapidly, and by the time the remainder of the force had come up, the whole entrenched position was watched. Having taken a reconnoissance with Mr. Martin, who was accompanied by the zemindars of the place, I found, from his information of the locality, that Selimpore was a strong entrenched position, with the river running on the north, and was surrounded with an outer and inner ditch and rampart, and that the only gate was on the south side. My plan of attack was, therefore, to open with the guns upon the south and west of the place, and detach Cavalry to the two flanks, for the purpose of cutting them off, in case of a retreat. I accordingly ordered the two guns under Lieutenant Cuthbert, and the two Mortars under Lieutenant Maitland to open fire, covered by a Company of 23rd, under Captain Monsell; and a Company of the 88th, under Captain Radcliffe; and at the same time Lieutenant Chamberlain drew the main body of his Cavalry to the right flank, leaving a Detachment to guard the left. A large body of the enemy, both Infantry and Cavalry, were seen flocking out towards the east side, or right flank. I accordingly withdrew the two guns under Lieutenant Cuthbert to that point, ordering a Company of Infantry to follow in support. In the mean time Lieutenant C. F. Chamberlain, by a charge of Cavalry, in which he cut up some of the enemy, caused them to retreat back into the town, and the guns coming up, opened on their retreat, Lieutenant Chamberlain advancing his Cavalry dismounted, and following them up. I directed the Infantry and Skirmishers on the left now to advance. They crossed the ditch with great gallantry, and got into the entrenchment, meeting the enemy, and causing great slaughter near the gate-way, and in the inner ditch. They were now in full retreat, endeavouring to cross the river. The guns were brought down to bear on them in the boats; the Cavalry advancing down to the bank, charged them most gallantly under Lieutenant Hill, cutting up a considerable number; some escaped, but most were killed or drowned. The boats were afterwards destroyed by Mr. Martin.

I cannot speak too highly of the behaviour of all the troops on this occasion, after a march of 20 miles, with the sun getting very hot, and little or no shade to be found; it is difficult to describe the fatigue and labour they underwent, but notwithstanding all the difficulties, they acted with the greatest vigour and gallantry, and took a very strong position occupied by a force infinitely numerically stronger then themselves. The loss of the enemy on this occasion must be very great; for besides the slaughter in different parts, there was one spot at the entrance of the fort, where I saw myself between 250 and 300 bodies lying together; I should compute the loss at 700 men killed. Amongst the slaughter, it is credibly ascertained that Koshal, the noted free-booter in this part of the country, was killed; it is also reported that Moosahib Ali has fallen, but as this does not seem certain, I have taken measures to ascertain the truth of it.

The loss on our side was 2 Europeans killed, 1 Officer, Lieutenant Moore, 88th Regiment, and 7 men wounded; in the Native force, 5 men killed, and 19 wounded, and 27 casualties among the horses.

I beg to enclose the return of casualties.

There were 4 guns captured, 5 zumburuks or camel guns, with their camels, and 2 elephants, besides 80 prisoners given over to Mr. Martin. I occupied the town during the night with European and Native Infantry. I had no means of destroying the fort; I therefore left it as it was, and returned on the morning of the 24th to Goosaingunge.

On my return, I sent patrols of Cavalry to the right and left flanks; the fort on the right, on the banks of the river, the residence of Moosahib Ali, was found evacuated, 250 of the enemy having left it during the night. After leaving our guns at Selimpore, I occupied this fort temporarily with the police; the fort on the left was also evacuated. The country is quieted all round, terror having been struck in the district by the great and signal blow inflicted at Selimpore. Confidence has been re-established at Goosaingunge, where the natives are flocking back to the bazaar, rejoiced at the death of Koshal, and at our occupation of the place.

I have reason to believe, that the effect of the movement altogether has been most beneficial to our power.

It is now my pleasing duty to bring to the notice of the Brigadier Commanding, the names of those who were engaged, and distinguished themselves. Where all behaved so well, it is difficult to fix upon any particular individual, but I must be allowed to mention the name of Lieutenant Chamberlain, who commanded the Police force, and whose activity, vigour, and thorough knowledge of the country and its inhabitants, combined with his great soldier-like qualities, rendered me the most valuable service; of his gallantry and dash it is almost useless my speaking. It must be well known. On this occasion it was most conspicuous. I will leave it to him to bring to the public notice, the names of his Officers who were all indefatigable. I have previously noticed the gallant charge made by Lieutenant Hill, on the bank of the river; I also wish to bring forward the names of Captain Radcliffe, who commanded the 88th, and led the assault most gallantly on the fort; of Captain Heigham, who commanded the two Companies of the 23rd R. W. Fusiliers; of Lieutenant Cuthbert, who commanded the two Field Guns; and Lieutenant Maitland, the two Mortars; they all afforded me the greatest assistance. Ensign Willes, 23rd Fusiliers, my Orderly Officer, was most zealous, active, and useful to me. I must also mention the name of Assistant Surgeon Morris, 23rd Fusiliers, and Assistant Surgeon Knipe, 88th Regiment, who performed their duties most zealously, having charge of the whole force, European and Native. As there were many men knocked up by the heat and fatigue, besides the wounded, these duties were most laborious. Mr. Martin, the Civil Officer, who accompanied me, was of the greatest assistance; he was most willing and obliging, in giving his services wherever I required them.

To Colonel Purnell, C. B.,

Commanding the Troops, Nawabgunge.

Camp Nawabgunge, 24th September 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to state, that agreeable to instructions received from you, I proceeded from this Camp in the direction of Chirria Bagh, with the force named in the margin, at ½ past 12 o'clock A. M., 23rd instant, to act in concert with a force from Lucknow, against a considerable number of Rebels in that vicinity, stated to be about 2,000 in number, at each side of the river Goomtee. At 6-30 A. M., we arrived within a mile of the enemy's camp, where I was informed, he was drawn up to receive us. I formed contiguous columns at deploying distance, with guns between each, and Cavalry on the flanks, and so advanced through corn-fields for about half a mile, when we came in sight of the enemy on the borders of an extensive tope of trees. We could see their Cavalry on our left, and a large number of Infantry on our front and right; I ordered up the guns, and moved on the Infantry in line to their support. The guns opened on the enemy's Infantry and Cavalry, at about five hundred yards with good effect and soon caused them to retire. One gun and some musketry was fired by the enemy in reply, but without injury to our troops. I followed up the enemy as quickly as possible, and sending on the guns as far as prudence would permit, continued an effective fire until he was driven into very broken ground full of nullahs, close to the river, and was dispersed in all directions.

2 Guns R. Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant Pickering.
4 Guns B. H. Artillery, commanded by Major Mackinnon.
53 Sabres 2nd Dn. Gds., commanded by Captain Powell.
80 Sabres Hodson's Horse, commanned by Lieutenant Mitford.
200 men 23rd R. W. Fs., commanded by Captain Norton.
200 men 88th Regiment, commanded by Major Bourke.
200 men 90th L. I., commanded by Major Finling.

The Cavalry had but little opportunity of acting with effect, the ground being so broken, but succeeded in cutting up about thirty or forty of the enemy. By this time it was about 8 o'clock A. M., and the sun became extremely hot, men began to fall out from fatigue, and two or three of the 88th and 90th suffered from coup-de-soleil. I therefore thougt it prudent to halt the force in the last tope of trees I met nearest the river, as both men and horses were completely done up; I did so, and let the men have their breakfasts. In the mean time, I could hear the guns from the Lucknow force, and saw by the smoke of the guns, that they had been brought close to the town of Selimpore, about a mile and a half from where we were, and at the opposite side of the river. About 11 A. M., I took two guns Bengal Artillery, Detachment 90th Regiment and Cavalry, and proceeded to the river's brink, burnt a large boat in which some of the enemy had got to the other side, and having ascertained that none of the enemy remained on our side of the river, and the day becoming excessively hot, we returned to the tope, where the men had their dinners, and having communicated with the Officer in Command on the other side of the river, and being informed by him that he required no assistance, or combined movement from us, commenced our march homewards at 7 P. M., and arrived at Nawabgunge at 3 A. M. this morning, having burnt the enemy's huts, as we passed through his encampment.

I cannot speak too highly in praise of the patient suffering with which two night marches, and the fatigues of a hot day, with scarce any rest, were borne by Officers and men, or of the cheerful and ready manner in which all my orders were carried out. The distance marched within the above mentioned period of 27 hours, and proceeding to near Selimpore, operations against the enemy there, and return to Camp, could not have been under 34 miles.

My best thanks are due to the undermentioned Officers for their ready support and attention to my instructions, during the operations detailed above. Major Bourke, 88th Regiment; Major Finling, 90th Regiment; Major Mackinnon, Bengal H. Artillery; Captain Powell, 2nd Dragoon Guards; Captain Norton, 23rd R. W. Fusiliers; Lieutenant Pickering, Royal Artillery; Captain Ross, Commissioner; and Lieutenant and Adjutant Gregorie, 23rd R. W. Fusiliers, who acted as my Staff Officer during the above proceedings.

Underneath is a return of casualties.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 6TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council, was ordered to be published for general information and to be reconsidered after two months:—

A Bill for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter.

WHEREAS it is expedient to simplify the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter, It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

CHAPTER I.

OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE CIVIL COURTS.

Civil Courts have cognizance of all suits unless specially barred.

1. The Civil Courts shall take cognizance of all suits of a Civil nature, with the exception of suits of which their cognizance is barred by any Act of Parliament, or by any Regulation of the Codes of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay respectively, or by any Act of the Governor General of India in Council.

Unless already heard and determined.

2. The Civil Courts shall not take cognizance, except in the way of review of judgment or of appeal, of any suit which shall have been already heard and determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction between the same parties, or parties under whom the parties to the suit claim.

No person exempted from jurisdiction by reason of place of birth or of descent.

3. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be in any Civil proceeding whatever excepted from the jurisdiction of any of the Civil Courts.

Jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

4. Subject to such pecuniary or other limitations as are or shall be prescribed by any law for the time being in force, the Civil Courts of each grade shall receive, try, and determine all suits hereby declared to be cognizable by those Courts, if in the case of suits for land or other immoveable property such land or property shall be situate within the limits to which their respective jurisdictions may extend, and in all other cases if the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall dwell, or personally work for gain, within such limits.

Court in which suit to be instituted.

Transfer of suits.

5. Every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade competent to try it. But it shall be lawful for the District Court to withdraw any suit instituted in any Court subordinate to such District Court and to try such suit itself or to refer it for trial to any other Court subordinate to its authority and competent in respect to the value of the suit to try the same, whenever it may see sufficient cause for so doing. In like manner the Sudder Court may order that the cognizance of any suit or appeal which may be instituted in any Court subordinate to such Sudder Court shall be transferred to any other Court subordinate to its authority and competent in respect of the value of the suit or appeal to try the same.

Suits for immoveable property situate within different jurisdictions of the same District.

6. If the suit be for land or other immoveable property situate within the limits of a single District, but within the jurisdiction of different Courts, the suit may be brought in the Court within the jurisdiction of which any portion of such land or other immoveable property is situate, provided the entire claim in respect of the value of the property in suit be cognizable by such Court; but in such case the Court in which the suit is brought shall apply to the District Court for authority to proceed with the same.

Suits for immoveable property situate in different Districts.

7. In like manner, if the property be situate within the limits of different Districts, the suit may be brought in any Court, otherwise competent to try it, within the jurisdiction of which any portion of the land or other immoveable property in suit is situate, but in such case the Court in which the suit is brought shall apply to the Sudder Court for authority to proceed with the same; if the suit is brought in any Court subordinate to a District Court; the application shall be submitted through the District Court to which such Court is subordinate.

Suits for immoveable property situate in Districts subject to different Sudder Courts.

8. If the Districts within the limits of which the property is situate, are subject to different Sudder Courts, the application shall be submitted to the Sudder Court to which the District, in which the suit is brought, is subject; and the Sudder Court to which such application is made, may, with the concurrence of the Sudder Court to which the other District is subject, give authority to proceed with the same.

Suit for land alleged by the defendant to be situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court.

9. If, in a suit for land situate on the borders of the Court's local jurisdiction, the defendant object to the hearing of the suit on the ground that the land is not included within the local jurisdiction of the Court, the Court shall have power to determine the point; and if the Court shall find that the land is included within its local jurisdiction, it shall proceed to try the suit. Provided that, if it be shown that the land in dispute has been adjudged by competent authority to belong to an estate, village, or other known division of land situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court, the Court in which the suit is brought shall reject the plaint, or return it to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Declaratory suit.

10. No suit shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Civil Courts to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

By whom judicial decisions may be revised.

11. The decisions of the Civil Courts shall be subject to revision only by those Courts under the rules applicable to reviews of judgment contained in this Act, or by the constituted Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction.

CHAPTER II.

Preliminary Rules.

Parties may appear in person or by recognized agent or by pleader.

12. All applications to any Civil Court, and all appearances of parties in any Civil Court, except when otherwise specially provided by this Act, shall be made by the party in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

Recognized Agents.

13. The recognized agents of parties by whom such applications and appearances may be made are—

Persons holding powers of attorney.

1st. Persons holding general powers of attorney from parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court, authorizing them to make such applications and appearances on behalf of such parties.

Persons carrying on trade or business for absent parties.

2ndly. Persons carrying on trade or business for and in the name of parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make such applications or appearances.

Persons authorized to act for Government.

3rdly. Persons being ex-officio or otherwise authorized to act for Government in respect of any suit or judicial proceeding.

Persons specially appointed to prosecute a suit for any Sovereign Prince.

4thly. Persons specially appointed by order of Government at the request of any Sovereign Prince, or Independent Chief, whether residing within or without the British Territories, to prosecute or defend a suit on his behalf.

Acts required to be done by a party to a suit in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Whenever the personal appearance of a party to a suit is required by this Act, such appearance may be made by his recognized agent, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be done by a party in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Service of notices on recognized agents.

Notices given to or processes served on a recognized agent relative to a suit shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and all the provisions of this Act relative to the service of notices or processes on a party to a suit shall be applicable to the service of notices and processes on such recognized agent.

Appointment of Pleader.

14. The appointment of a pleader to make any such application or appearance as aforesaid shall be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, it shall be considered to be in full force until revoked by a writing filed in the Court. All notices given to, or processes served on the pleader of any party, or left at the office or ordinary residence of such pleader, relative to a suit, and whether the same be for the personal attendance of the party or not, shall be presumed to be duly communicated and made known to the party whom the pleader represents, and shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Service of notices on Pleaders.

Officers or Soldiers who cannot obtain leave of absence may authorize any person to appear for them.

15. When an Officer or Soldier in the service of the Government is a party to a suit, and cannot obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person, he may authorize any member of his family or any other person to commence, conduct, and manage the suit or the defence, as the case may be, in his stead.

The authority shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the Officer or Soldier in the presence of his Commanding Officer, who shall countersign the same, and it shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, the counter-signature of the Commanding Officer shall be sufficient proof that the authority was duly executed, and that the Officer or Soldier by whom it was granted could not obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person.

The person so authorized may appear personally, or appoint pleader.

16. Any person who may be authorized, as in the last preceding Section mentioned, by an Officer or Soldier to prosecute or defend a suit in his stead, shall be competent to prosecute or defend it in person in the same manner as the Officer or Soldier could do if present; or he may appoint a pleader of the Court to prosecute or defend the suit on behalf of such Officer or Soldier. And all notices or processes relative to the suit which may be served upon any person who shall be so authorized as aforesaid by an Officer or Soldier, or upon any pleader who shall be appointed as aforesaid by such person to act for or on behalf of such Officer or Soldier, shall be as effectual for all purposes relative to the suit as if the same had been served on the party in person or on a pleader appointed by him.

Exemption of certain women from personal appearance.

17. Women, who according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, shall be exempt from personal appearance in Court.

Government may exempt certain persons from personal appearance.

18. The Government may at its discretion exempt from personal appearance in Court any person whose rank in the opinion of the Government entitles him to the privilege of exemption, and may at its discretion withdraw such privilege. The names of the persons so exempted (if any) residing within the jurisdiction of the Principal Civil Court of each District shall from time to time be forwarded to such Court by the local Government, and a list of such persons (if any) shall be kept in such Court and in the several subordinate Courts of the District.

Cost of serving process.

Requisite sum to be paid into Court before process issued.

19. Every process required to be issued under this Act, shall be served at the expense of the party at whose instance it is issued, unless otherwise specially directed by the Court; and the sum required to defray the cost of such service shall be paid into Court before the process is issued.

CHAPTER III.

OF A SUIT TILL FINAL DECREE.

Of the Institution of Suits.

Suits to be commenced by plaint.

20. All suits shall be commenced by a plaint which, except when otherwise specially provided by this Act, shall be presented to the Court by the plaintiff in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

5*thly*.—When the claim is for land or for any interest in land, the nature of the tenure or interest must be specified; and if the claim be for land forming part of a village or other known division, or for a house, garden, or the like, its situation shall be described by the setting forth of boundaries, or in such other manner as may suffice for its identification.

6thly.—In all suits by or against the Government, or one of its Officers in his official capacity, or any Corporation, or any Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the words "The Government," or "The Collector of ," or otherwise as the case may be, or the name of the Corporation, or the name or names of the Officer of Trustees of the Company, shall be inserted in Nos. 1*stly* and 2*ndly*, instead of the name and description of the plaintiff or defendant. But in all other cases it shall be necessary to specify the names of all the parties.

Plaint to be subscribed and verified.

22. The plaint shall be subscribed by the plaintiff and his pleader (if any), and shall be verified at the foot by the plaintiff in the manner following or to the like effect:—

I (A. B.) the plaintiff named in the above plaint do declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my information and belief.

If plaintiff by reason of absence be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint.

23. If the plaintiff, by reason of absence or for other good cause, be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint, the Court may allow the plaint to be subscribed and verified on behalf of the plaintiff by any person whom the Court may consider competent to make the verification.

In suits by a Corporation or Company, a Director or Secretary shall verify the plaint.

In suits by a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the plaint shall be subscribed and verified on behalf of the Corporation or Company by any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to depose to the facts of the case.

Court may reject plaint, if it do not contain the required particulars, &c.

24. If the plaint do not contain the several particulars hereinbefore required to be specified therein, or if it contain particulars other than those required to be specified whether relevant to the suit or not, or if the statement of particulars be unnecessarily prolix, or if the plaint be not subscribed and verified as hereinbefore required, the Court may reject the plaint, or at its discretion may allow the plaint to be amended.

Plaint to be returned, if the claim is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

25. If the amount or estimated value of the claim, as stated by the plaintiff, be beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaint shall be returned to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Plaint to be rejected, if improperly or insufficiently valued.

26. If it appear to the Court that the claim is improperly valued, or being properly valued that the plaint is written upon stamped paper of inadequate value, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct such improper valuation or to supply such additional stamp paper as may be necessary, shall not comply with the requisition, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Plaint to be rejected, if it appear to the Court that plaintiff has no cause of action or that right of action is barred by lapse of time.

27. If upon the face of the plaint, or after questioning the plaintiff, it appear to the Court that the subject matter of the plaint does not constitute a cause of action, or that the right of action is barred by lapse of time, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Amendment of plaint.

Provided that the Court may in any case allow the plaint to be amended, if it appear proper to do so.

Plaint to be returned, if it appear to the Court that it has not jurisdiction.

28. If it appear to the Court that the cause of action did not arise, or that the defendant is not dwelling or personally working for gain within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or, if the claim relate to land or other immoveable property, that such land or other property is not situate within such limits, the Court shall return the plaint to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Security for costs to be furnished by plaintiff, if residing out of the British territories in India.

29. A suit by a party residing out of the British territories in India, and not possessing any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property in suit, shall not be entertained unless the plaintiff, at the time of presenting the plaint or within such time as the Court shall order, furnish security for the payment of all costs that may be incurred by the defendant in the suit.

Plaint to be rejected if security be not furnished.

In the event of such security not being furnished, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Appeal from order rejecting plaint.

30. Whenever a plaint is rejected under any of the foregoing Sections, an appeal shall lie from the order rejecting the plaint.

Proceeding in a suit for immoveable property in different jurisdictions.

31. If the suit be for land or other immoveable property situate partly within the jurisdiction of the Court and partly within the jurisdiction of some other Court or Courts, the Court shall proceed according to the rules contained in Section 5, Section 6, or Section 7 of Chapter I as the case may be.

When the plaint is admissible, particulars to be entered in a Register.

32. If the Court consider the plaint admissible, the particulars mentioned in Section 21 of this Chapter shall be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Civil Suits; and the entries shall be numbered in every year according to the order in which the plaint is presented. The Form of the Register.

Register shall be kept in the form contained in the Schedule A hereunto annexed.

Written document to be produced in Court when plaint is presented.

33. When the plaintiff sues upon any written document or relies upon any such document as evidence in support of his claim, he shall produce the same in Court when the plaint is presented, and shall at the same time deliver a copy of the document to be filed with the plaint; if the document be an entry in a shop-book or other book, the plaintiff shall produce the book to the Court together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The Court shall forthwith mark the document for the purpose of identification; and after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the document to the plaintiff. The plaintiff may, if he think proper, deliver the original document to be filed instead of the copy. The Court may, if if see sufficient cause, direct any written document so produced to be impounded and kept in the custody of some Officer of the Court, for such period and subject to such conditions as to the Court shall seem meet. Any document not produced in Court by the plaintiff when the plaint is presented, shall not be received in evidence on his behalf at the hearing of the suit without the sanction of the Court.

And copy filed with plaint.

Original to be marked and returned.

If plaintiff wish, original may be filed instead of copy.

Court may order document to be impounded.

Document not produced when plaint filed, to be inadmissible in evidence.

34. If the plaintiff require the production of any written document in the possession or power of the defendant, he may, at the time of presenting the plaint, deliver to the Court a description of the document, in order that the defendant may be required to produce the same.

If plaintiff require production of document in possession of defendant.

OF SUMMONING THE DEFENDANT.

35. When the plaint has been registered, a summons under the signature of the Judge and the seal of the Court shall be issued to the defendant to appear and answer the claim, on a day to be therein specified, in person or by a pleader of the Court duly instructed and able to answer all material questions relating to the suit, or by a pleader who shall be accompanied by some other person able to answer all such questions.

On plaint being registered, summons to issue to defendant.

36. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the defendant, the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally in Court on the day therein specified. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the plaintiff on that day, it may make an order for such attendance. Provided that no plaintiff or defendant shall be ordered to attend in person, who at the time is bonâ fide residing at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the Court is held.

Summons may order personal appearance of defendant or plaintiff.

Proviso.

37. The summons to appear shall order the defendant to produce any written document in his possession or power, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant intends to rely in support of his defence.

Summons shall order defendant to produce documents.

38. The Summons shall be in the Form B given in the Appendix or to the like effect.

Form of summons.

39. The day for the appearance of the defendant shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the place of residence of the defendant, and the time necessary for the service of the summons; and the day shall be so fixed as to allow the defendant a sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer in person or by a pleader on such day.

The day for appearance of defendant how to be fixed.

40. In suits against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the Court may, if it think proper, require the personal attendance of any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

Court may order personal appearance of a Director or Secretary in suits against a Corporation or Company.

SERVICE OF SUMMONS ON THE DEFENDANT.

41. The summons shall be delivered to the Nazir or other proper Officer of the Court to be served by himself or one of his subordinates, and such Officer shall be responsible for its due service.

Summons shall be served by Officer of Court.

42. Service of the summons shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court; and when there are more defendants than one, service of the summons shall be made on each defendant.

How service shall be made.

When there are several defendants.

43. Whenever it may be practicable, the service shall be on the defendant in person, unless he have an agent empowered to accept the service, in which case service on such agent shall be sufficient.

Service to be on defendant in person, when practicable.

Service on duly authorized agent sufficient.

44. Besides the recognized agents described in Section 21 of Chapter II, any person residing within the jurisdiction of the Court may be appointed an agent to receive the service of summonses and other processes.

Who may be an agent to receive service.

45. The appointment of such agent shall be in writing, and the original appointment, or a copy thereof if the appointment be a general one, shall be filed in the Court.

Appointment of such agent to be in writing and to be filed in Court.

46. The Government pleader in each Court shall be accounted the agent of the Government for the purpose of receiving services of summonses and other judicial processes against the Government, issuing out of the Court in which he may be the pleader of Government.

Agent of Government.

47. When the defendant cannot be found, and has no agent empowered to accept the service of the summons, it may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

If defendant cannot be found, and has no agent, service may be made on a male member of his family.

48. In all cases where the summons is served on the defendant personally or any agent or other person on his behalf, the serving Officer shall require the signature of the person on whom the service may be made, to an acknowledgment of service, to be endorsed on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court. If such person refuse to sign the acknowledgment, the service of the summons shall nevertheless be held sufficient, if it be otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

In all cases the person served is to be required to endorse the summons.

49. When the defendant cannot be found, and there is no agent empowered to accept the service, nor any other person on whom the service can be made, the serving Officer shall fix the copy of the summons on the outer door of the house in which the defendant is dwelling; and if he is not dwelling in the place mentioned in the summons, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it. Provided that, if the serving Officer is informed that the defendant is to be found or has his dwelling in a place within the jurisdiction of the Court other than that indicated in the summons, the Officer may proceed to that place to serve the summons.

If the summons cannot be served, a copy shall be fixed to the door of the dwelling house.

If defendant do not dwell in the place mentioned, the summons shall be returned with an endorsement of non-service.

Proviso.

50. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court, the time when and the manner in which it was served.

If served, time and manner of service to be endorsed on summons.

51. When a summons is returned to the Court without having been served, if the plaintiff shall satisfy the Court that there is reasonable ground for believing that the defendant is keeping out of the way of its Officer for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, the Court shall order the summons to be served by fixing up a copy thereof upon some conspicuous place in the Court-house, and also upon the door of the house in which the defendant shall have last resided, if it be known where he last resided; or that the summons shall be served in such other manner as the Court shall think proper. And the service which shall be substituted by order of the Court, shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if it had been effected in the manner above specified.

When summons is returned unserved, Court to order substituted service, if satisfied that the defendant is avoiding service.

52. Whenever service shall be substituted by order of the Court by virtue of the power contained in the last preceding Section, the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require.

When service is substituted, the time for appearance to be fixed.

53. If the defendant be resident within the jurisdiction of any Court other than that in which the suit is instituted, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the Court in which the suit is instituted shall transmit the summons, either by an Officer of the Court or by post, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the defendant resides, by which it can be most conveniently served, and shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require; and the Court to which the summons is transmitted, shall, upon receipt of the summons, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be re-transmitted to the Court from whence it originally issued.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant is resident within the jurisdiction of another Court and has no agent to accept service.

54. If the defendant be resident out of the British territories in India, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons shall be addressed to the defendant at the place where he may reside, and forwarded to him by post: in such case the time for the appearance of the defendant shall be regulated by the time which may be required for communication by post between the place at which the Court is held and the place where the defendant resides; and if, on the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the defendant shall not appear in person or by pleader, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, and it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that the plaintiff shall be at liberty to proceed with his suit in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the Court may seem meet.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant resides out of the British territories in India and has no agent to accept service.

Time for appearance.

In case of non-appearance of defendant, Court may direct suit to proceed subject to conditions.

55. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property, and the summons for any reason cannot be served on the defendant in person, and the defendant has no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons may be served on any agent of the defendant in charge of such land or other immoveable property.

In suits for immoveable property, service may in certain cases be made on agent in charge of such property.

56. When the defendant is in the service of the Government, the Court may transmit a copy of the summons to the head Officer of the Office in which the defendant is employed, for the purpose of being served on him, if it shall appear to the Court that the summons may be most conveniently so served. If the defendant be an Officer or Soldier, the Court shall transmit a copy of the summons to the Commanding Officer of the Corps to which the defendant belongs, for the purpose of being served on him. The Officer to whom the summons is transmitted, after causing the summons to be served on the person to whom it is addressed if practicable, shall return it to the Court with the written acknowledgment of such person endorsed thereon. If from any cause the summons cannot be served upon the person to whom it is addressed, it shall be returned to the Court by which it was transmitted with information of the cause which has prevented the service. In such case the Court shall adopt such other means of serving the summons as it may deem proper.

How service may be made on Government Servants.

On Officers and Soldiers.

57. When the suit is against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the summons may be served by leaving the same at the registered Office (if any) of the Company, or sending it through the Post Office by a letter addressed to such Office, or by giving it to any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company.

Service on a Corporation or Company.

58. Nothing contained in the preceding rules shall be construed to prevent the Court from substituting for the summons, a letter or other appropriate communication under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court, when the person whose appearance is required is of a rank which entitles him to such mark of consideration. The letter or other communication shall contain all the particulars required to be stated in the summons, and shall be treated in all respects as a summons.

Letter may be substituted for summons in the case of privileged persons.

59. When a letter or other communication is substituted for a summons under the authority of the last preceding Section, it may be transmitted through the Post Office, or by a special messenger selected by the Court, or in any other manner which the Court may deem sufficient; unless the party shall have an agent empowered to accept service of judicial process, in which case delivery to such agent shall be deemed sufficient service.

Service how to be made on privileged persons.

60. Whenever it is provided that any summons, letter, or other communication may be transmitted to the person to whom it is addressed through the Post Office, proof that the same was correctly addressed to such person at his place of residence, and that it was duly posted and registered according to Section XXXVIII of Act XVII of 1854 (for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office), shall be sufficient proof of the due service and delivery of the summons, letter, or other communication, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Proof of due service and delivery of summons, letter, &c. transmitted through the post.

Of Suits against Government and Public Officers.

61. If the suit be against the Government, the summons shall be served on the Government Pleader. The Court, in fixing the day for the Government to answer to the plaint, shall allow a reasonable time for the necessary communication with the Government through the proper channels, and for the issue of instructions to the Government Pleader to appear and answer on behalf of the Government and may extend the time at its discretion on the application of the Government Pleader. The Court may also, if it think proper, direct the attendance of a person who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

In suits against Government, summons to be served on Government Pleader.

Appearance and answer.

62. If the suit be against an Officer of the Government for an act which the plaintiff alleges to have been done by such Officer in his official capacity, the summons shall be served upon such Officer in the manner hereinbefore provided.

In suits against Government Officers for alleged official acts, summons to be served on them.

63. If the Officer on receiving the summons shall consider it proper to make a reference to Government before answering to the plaint, he may move the Court to grant such extension of the time fixed in the summons as may be necessary to enable him to make such reference and to receive orders thereon through the proper channels; and the Court upon such motion may extend the time for so long as shall appear to it to be requisite.

Court may grant extension of time to enable Officer to make a reference to Government.

64. If the Government shall undertake the defence of the suit, the Government Pleader shall be furnished with authority to appear and answer to the plaint; and, upon motion made by him, the Court shall order a note to that effect to be entered in the Register.

If Government undertake defence, Government Pleader to appear and move that a note of his appearance be entered in the Register.

65. If such motion shall not be made by the Government Pleader on or before the day fixed in the notice for the defendant to appear and answer to the plaint, the case shall proceed as in a suit between private parties except that the defendant shall not be liable to arrest before judgment.

If no such motion be made, case to proceed as in a suit between private parties.

But defendant not liable to arrest before judgment.

66. If in any such suit the Court shall require the personal appearance of the defendant, and the defendant shall satisfy the Court that he cannot absent himself from his duty without injury to the public service, the Court shall exempt him from such appearance, but he shall be liable to be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

Defendant may in certain cases be exempted from personal appearance.

How Persons not before the Court may be made Parties to a Suit.

67. If it appear to the Court, at any hearing of a suit, that all the persons who may be entitled to, or who claim some share or interest in the subject matter of the suit, or who may be likely to be affected by the result, have not been made parties to the suit, the Court may adjourn the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and direct that such persons shall be made either plaintiffs or defendants in the suit as the case may be. In such case the Court shall issue a notice to such persons in the manner provided in this Act for the service of a summons on a defendant.

Court may adjourn hearing and direct that parties appearing to be interested in a suit shall be made parties to the suit.

Of Arrest before Judgment.

68. If in any suit, not being a suit for land or other immoveable property, the defendant, with intent to avoid or delay the plaintiff, or to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof, the plaintiff may, either at the institution of the suit, or at any time thereafter until final judgment, make an application to the Court that security be taken for the appearance of the defendant to answer any judgment that may be passed against him in the suit.

In suits for moveable property, when defendant is about to leave the jurisdiction with intent &c., plaintiff may apply that security be taken for his appearance.

69. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to leave its jurisdiction with the intent of avoiding or delaying the plaintiff, or that he has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof with the intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, enjoining him to bring the defendant before the Court, that he may show cause why he should not give good and sufficient bail for his appearance.

Court may issue warrant to bring up defendant to show cause why he should not give bail for his appearance.

70. If the defendant fail to show such cause, the Court shall order him to give bail for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending, and until execution or satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit; and the surety or sureties shall undertake, in default of such appearance, to pay any sum of money that may be adjudged against the defendant in the suit, with costs.

If defendant fail to show cause, Court may order him to give fail for his appearance.

71. Should a defendant offer, in lieu of bail for his appearance, to deposit a sum of money or other valuable property sufficient to answer the claim against him, with the costs of the suit, the Court may accept such deposit.

Deposit in lieu of bail.

72. In the event of the defendant neither furnishing security nor offering a sufficient deposit, he may be committed to custody until the decision of the suit, or until the execution of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit.

Defendant to be committed to custody if he cannot give security.

73. If it shall appear to the Court that the arrest of the defendant was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for any injury or loss which he may have sustained by reason of such arrest. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such arrest.

Compensation to defendant arrested on insufficient grounds.

Proviso as to amount.

74. If in any suit the defendant is about to leave the British territories in India with intent to remain absent so long that the plaintiff will or may thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of any decree that may be passed against the defendant, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court to the effect and in the manner aforesaid, and the procedure thereupon shall be in all respects the same as hereinbefore provided.

When the defendant is about to leave India, the application to be made to the Court.

Of Attachment before Judgment.

75. If the defendant, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to dispose of his property or any part thereof, or to remove any such property from the jurisdiction of the Court where the suit is pending, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, either at the time of the institution of the suit or at any time thereafter until final judgment, to call upon the defendant to furnish sufficient security to fulfil any decree that may be passed against him in the suit, and, on his failing to give such security, to direct that any property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, shall be attached until the further order of the Court.

In what cases plaintiff may apply before judgment for security from defendant to fulfil decree, or in default for an attachment of defendant's property.

76. The application shall contain a specification of the property required to be attached, and the estimated value of each article or item thereof; and the plaintiff shall, at the time of making the application, declare that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property with such intent as aforesaid.

Application how to be made.

77. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be satisfied that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of the decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, commanding him to call upon the defendant, within a time to be fixed by the Court, either to furnish security in such sum as may be specified in the order to produce and place at the disposal of the Court when required the said property or the value of the same or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to fulfil the decree, or to appear and show cause why he should not furnish security. The Court may also in the warrant direct the attachment until further order of the whole or any portion of the property specified in the application.

Form of warrant to be issued.

78. If the defendant fail to show such cause or to furnish the required security within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may direct that the property specified in the application, if not already attached, or such portion thereof as shall be sufficient to fulfil the decree, shall be attached until further order. If the defendant show such cause or furnish the required security, and the property specified in the application or any portion of it shall have been attached, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn.

If cause be not shown or security be not furnished, property may be attached.

Withdrawal of attachment.

79. The attachment shall be made according to the nature of the property to be attached, in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the attachment of property in execution of a decree for money.

How the attachment is to be made.

Claims to property attached before judgment, how to be investigated.

80. In the event of any claim being preferred to the property attached before judgment, such claim shall be investigated in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the investigation of claims to property attached in execution of a decree for money.

Attachment may be removed when security is furnished.

81. In all cases of attachment before judgment, the Court which passed the order for the attachment shall at any time remove the same, on the defendant furnishing security as above required, together with security for the costs of the attachment.

Compensation for attachment applied for on insufficient grounds, &c.

82. If it shall appear to the Court that the attachment was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the attachment of his property. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such attachment.

Proviso.

Attachment not to injure the rights of persons not parties to the suit, or bar the execution of decrees.

83. Attachments before judgment shall not affect the rights of persons not parties to the suit, nor bar any person holding a decree against the defendant from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

Court may stay the sale of property already under attachment, when execution of a decree fraudulently obtained is applied for.

84. If it shall appear to the Court by whose order the property may have been attached before judgment, that there is reasonable ground for supposing that the decree, in satisfaction of which the sale of the property is applied for, was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may refuse to allow the property to be sold in execution, if the decree be a decree of that Court; or if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings for a reasonable time to enable the plaintiff in the pending suit to adopt proceedings to set aside the decree.

Special case in which plaintiff may be put in immediate possession of land the subject of suit.

85. Whenever lands paying revenue to Government form the subject of a suit, if the party in possession of such lands shall neglect to pay the Government revenue, and a public sale shall in consequence be ordered to take place, the party not in possession shall, upon payment of the revenue due previously to the sale (and with or without security at the discretion of the Court), be put in immediate possession of the lands; and the Court in its decree may award against the defendant the amount so paid, with interest thereupon at such rate as to the Court may seem fit, or may charge the amount so paid, with interest thereupon, at such rate as the Court may order, in any adjustment of accounts which may be directed in the final decree upon the suit.

Of Injunctions.

Cases in which an injunction to stay waste may be granted.

86. In any suit in which it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Court that any property which is in dispute in the suit is in danger of being wasted, damaged, or alienated by any party to the suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue an injunction to such party, commanding him to refrain from doing the particular act complained of, or to give such other orders for the purpose of staying and preventing him from wasting, damaging, or alienating the property, as to the Court may seem meet. And in all cases in which it may appear to the Court to be necessary for the preservation or the better management or custody of any property which is in dispute in a suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a receiver or manager of such property, and, if need be, to remove the person in whose possession or custody the property may be from the possession or custody thereof, and to commit the same to the custody of such receiver or manager, and to grant to such receiver or manager all such powers for the management or the preservation and improvement of the property, and the collection of the rents and profits thereof, and the application and disposal of such rents and profits, as to the Court may seem proper. If the property be land paying revenue to Government, and it is considered that the interests of those concerned will be promoted by the management of the Collector, the Court may appoint the Collector to be receiver and manager of such land, unless the Government shall by any general order prohibit the appointment of Collectors for such purpose, or shall in any particular case prohibit the appointment of the Collector to be such receiver.

Or in which a receiver or manager may be appointed.

When the Collector may be appointed receiver or manager.

Special rule in actions for injunctions.

87. In any suit for restraining the defendant from the committal of any breach of contract or other injury, and whether the same be accompanied with any claim for damages or not, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff at any time after the commencement of the suit, and whether before or after judgment, to apply to the Court for an injunction to restrain the defendant from the repetition, or the continuance of the breach of contract or wrongful act complained of, or the committal of any breach of contract or injury of a like kind arising out of the same contract or relating to the same property or right; and such injunction may be granted by the Court on such terms as to the duration of the injunction, keeping an account, giving security, or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem reasonable and just, and in case of disobedience such injunction may be enforced by imprisonment in the same manner as a decree for specific performance: provided always that any order for an injunction may be discharged or varied or set aside by the Court, on application made thereto by any party dissatisfied with such order.

88. The Court may in every case before granting an injunction direct such reasonable notice of the application for the same to be given to the opposite party as it shall see fit.

Before granting injunction, Court may direct reasonable notice to be given to the opposite party.

89. If it shall appear to the Court that the injunction was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the claim of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise, and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such sum, not exceeding one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the issue of the injunction. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of the issue of the injunction.

Compensation to defendant for needless issue of injunction.

Proviso.

OF THE WITHDRAWAL AND ADJUSTMENT OF SUITS.

90. If the plaintiff at any time before final judgment satisfy the Court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit for the same matter, it shall be competent to the Court to grant such permission on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may deem proper. In any such fresh suit the plaintiff shall be bound by the rules for the limitation of actions in the same manner as if the first suit had not been brought. If the plaintiff withdraw from the suit without such permission, he shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit for the same matter.

Court may allow plaintiff to withdraw from a suit, with liberty to bring a fresh suit.

91. If a suit shall be adjusted by mutual agreement or compromise, or if the defendant satisfy the plaintiff in respect to the matter of the suit, such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction shall be recorded, and the suit shall be disposed of in accordance therewith. On the application of the plaintiff reciting the substance of such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction, the Court, if satisfied that such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction has been actually entered into or made, shall grant a certificate to the plaintiff authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of stamp-duty paid on the plaint if the application shall have been presented before the settlement of issues, or half the amount if presented at any time after the settlement of issues and before any witness has been examined. Provided however that no such certificate shall be granted if the adjustment between the parties be such as to require a decree to pass on which process of execution can be taken out.

Adjustment or compromise.

Court may grant certificate for refund of stamp duty on plaint, if suit be adjusted.

Proviso.

OF THE DEATH, MARRIAGE, AND BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY OF PARTIES.

92. The death of a plaintiff or defendant shall not cause the suit to abate if the cause of action survive.

Suit not to abate by death in certain cases.

93. If there be two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one of them die, and if the cause of action survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs, and against the surviving defendant or defendants.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs or defendants, if the cause of action survives.

94. If there be two or more plaintiffs, and one of them die, and if the cause of action shall not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone but shall survive to them and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff jointly, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such deceased plaintiff, and the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs and such legal representative of the deceased plaintiff. If no application shall be made to the Court by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs; and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff shall be interested in and shall be bound by the judgment given in the suit in the same manner as if the suit had proceeded at his instance conjointly with the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs, where the cause of action accrues to the survivor and the representative of the deceased.

95. In case of the death of a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of such plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the place of such plaintiff in the Register of the suit, and the suit shall thereupon proceed; if no such application shall be made to the Court within what it may consider a reasonable time by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court to pass an order that the suit shall abate, and to award to the defendant the reasonable costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff; or the Court may, if it think proper, on the application of the defendant, and upon such terms as to costs as may seem fit, pass such other order for bringing in the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff, and for proceeding with the suit in order to a final determination of the matters in dispute, as may appear just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Proceeding in case of death of sole or sole surviving plaintiff.

96. If any dispute arise as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court either to stay the suit until the fact has been duly determined in another suit, or to decide at or before the hearing of the suit who shall be admitted to be such legal representative for the purpose of prosecuting the suit.

Proceeding in case of dispute as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff.

97. If there be two or more defendants, and one of them die, and the cause of action shall not survive against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, and also in case of the death of a sole defendant or sole surviving defendant, where the action survives, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court, specifying the name, description, and place of abode of any person whom the plaintiff alleges to be the legal representative of such defendant, and whom he desires to be made the defendant in his stead; and the Court shall thereupon enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such defendant, and shall issue a summons to him to appear on a day to be therein mentioned to defend the suit; and the case shall thereupon proceed in the same manner as if such representative had originally been made a defendant and had been a party to the former proceedings in the suit.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several defendants, or of a sole or sole surviving defendant.

98. The marriage of a woman, plaintiff or defendant, shall not cause the suit to abate, but the suit may, notwithstanding, be proceeded with to judgment, and the decree thereupon may be executed upon the wife alone; and if the case is one in which the husband is by law liable for the debts of his wife, the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be executed against the husband also; and in case of judgment for the wife, execution of the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be issued upon the application of the husband, where the husband is by law entitled to the money or thing which may be the subject of the decree.

Marriage of a female plaintiff or defendant not to abate the suit.

99. The bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff in any suit which the Assignee might maintain for the benefit of the creditors shall not be a valid objection to the continuance of such suit, unless the Assignee shall decline to continue the suit and to give security for the costs thereof within such reasonable time as the Court may order; if the Assignee neglect or refuse to continue the suit and to give such security within the time limited by the order, the defendant may, within eight days after such neglect or refusal, plead the bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff as a reason for abating the suit.

Bankruptcy or insolvency when not to abate the suit.

Of Notices to produce, and how they are to be served.

100. Whenever any of the parties to a suit is desirous that any document, writing, or other thing, which he believes to be in the possession or power of another of the parties thereto, should be produced at any hearing of the suit, and the production of such document, writing, or other thing has not previously been required, under the provisions of Sections 34 and 37 of this Chapter, he shall at the earliest opportunity deliver to the Court two notices in writing to the party in whose possession or power he believes the document, writing, or other thing to be, calling upon him to produce the same; and one of such notices shall be filed in Court, and the other shall be delivered by the Court to the Nazir or other proper Officer, to be served upon such party.

Two notices in writing to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court.

101. In all cases in which a party to a suit has not appointed a pleader to act for him, all notices and other judicial processes shall be served upon such party in the manner hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons upon a defendant to appear and answer.

Service of notices and other judicial process how to be made on a party who has not appointed a pleader to act for him.

Of the appearance of the Parties, and consequences of non-appearance.

102. On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court-house in person or by a pleader, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing be adjourned to a future day which shall be fixed by the Court.

Parties must appear in person or by pleader.

103. If, on the day fixed for the defendant to appear and answer, or any other day subsequent thereto, to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, neither party shall appear, either in person or by a pleader, when duly called upon by the Court, the suit shall be dismissed. Whenever a suit is dismissed under the provisions of this Section, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to bring a fresh suit, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of actions; or if he shall within the period of thirty days satisfy the Court that there was a sufficient excuse for his non-appearance, the Court may issue a fresh summons upon the plaint already filed.

If neither party appear, suit to be dismissed with liberty to the plaintiff to bring a fresh suit.

Or if sufficient excuse for non-appearance, a fresh summons may be issued.

104. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served, the Court shall proceed to hear the suit ex parte. If the defendant appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, and shall assign good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, he may upon such terms as the Court may direct as to payment of costs or otherwise be heard in answer to the suit in like manner as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex parte if due service of summons be proved.

If defendant appear on day of adjourned hearing, and assign good cause for his previous non-appearance, he may be heard.

105. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served in any of the modes of service hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct a second summons to the defendant to be issued in any of the said modes.

If plaintiff only appear, and due service of summons be not proved, Court may order issue of second summons.

106. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was served on the defendant but not in sufficient time to enable the defendant to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and may direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

If defendant only appear, Court to pass judgment against plaintiff, unless defendant admit the claim.

107. If the defendant shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the plaintiff shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the Court shall pass judgment against the plaintiff by default, unless the defendant admit the claim, in which case the Court shall pass judgment against the defendant upon such admission.

When there are several plaintiffs or defendants, each may authorize the other to appear for him.

108. When there are two or more plaintiffs, any one or more of them may be authorized to appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them: and in like manner, when there are two or more defendants, any one or more of them may be authorized to appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them; provided that the authority shall in all cases be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court; when so filed, it shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if the person so authorized to appear, plead, and act, were a pleader of the Court.

Consequence of non-appearance of one or more of several plaintiffs.

109. If there are two or more plaintiffs, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, and the other and others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, it shall be competent to the Court to proceed with the suit at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs who shall have appeared, in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared, and to pass such order as may be just and proper in the circumstances of the case; and if there are two or more defendants, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, and the other or others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, the Court shall proceed with the suit to judgment, and shall at the time of passing judgment give such order with respect to the defendant or defendants who shall not have appeared as shall be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-appearance, without sufficient cause shown, of any party to a suit summoned or ordered to appear in person.

110. If any plaintiff or defendant who shall have been ordered or summoned to appear personally under the provisions of Section 36 of this Chapter, shall not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, such plaintiff or defendant shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing Sections applicable to plaintiffs and defendants respectively, who do not appear either in person or by pleader.

Court to receive declaration in support of cause shown.

111. In support of the cause shown by a plaintiff or defendant for failure to appear in person, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing on unstamped paper, if signed by such plaintiff or defendant and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints.

No appeal from judgments obtained ex parte or by default.

112. No appeal shall lie from a judgment passed ex parte against a defendant who has not appeared, or from a judgment against a plaintiff by default for non-appearance. But in all cases in which judgment may be passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply, within a reasonable time, not exceeding thirty days after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed, to the Court by which the judgment was passed, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that the defendant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

When and how judgment by default against a plaintiff may be set aside.

In all cases of judgment against a plaintiff by default, he may apply, within thirty days from the date of the judgment, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the plaintiff was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment by default, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit. But for an appeal from such final decision, and be written upon stamp paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

Of Written Statements.

Written statements may be tendered by the parties to assist the Court at the first hearing of the suit.

113. The parties or their pleaders may tender at the first hearing of the suit written statements of their respective cases, and the Court shall receive the same and put them on the record. Such statements shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

Set-off.

114. If in a suit for debt the defendant desire to set-off against the claim of the plaintiff the amount of any debt due to him from the plaintiff, he shall tender a written statement containing the particulars of his demand, and the Court shall thereupon enquire into the same. Provided that, if the sum claimed by the defendant exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant shall not be allowed to set-off the same unless he abandon the excess.

115. No written statement shall be received after the first hearing of the suit, unless called for by the Court. But it shall be competent to the Court, at any time before final judgment, to call for a written statement, or an additional written statement from any of the parties. When such statements are called for by the Court, they shall be received on plain paper.

No statement to be taken after first hearing unless called for by the Court.

Court may at any time call for a written statement.

116. Written statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and shall not be argumentative, nor by way of answer one to the other; but each statement shall be confined, as much as possible, to a simple narrative of the facts which the party by whom or on whose behalf the written statement is made believes to be material to the case, and which he believes he will be able to prove if called upon by the Court. Written statements shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints, and no written statement shall be received unless it be so subscribed and verified.

How written statements are to be framed.

Written statements to be subscribed and verified.

117. If it shall appear to the Court that any written statement presented by or on behalf of a party, whether the same have been spontaneously tendered or have been called for by the Court, is argumentative or unnecessarily prolix, or that it contains matter irrelevant to the suit, the Court may reject the same, and return it to the party with the order of rejection endorsed thereon; and it shall not be competent to a party whose written statement has been rejected for any of these causes, to present another written statement, unless it shall be expressly called for or allowed by the Court.

Court may reject a written statement which is argumentative, prolix, or irrelevant.

Of the Examination of the Parties.

118. At the first hearing of the suit, and if necessary at any subsequent hearing, any party who appears in person or is present in Court, or the pleader of any party who appears by a pleader, may be examined orally by the Court. Every party shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Oral examination of party or pleader.

Oath.

119. If any party who appears in person or is present in Court shall without lawful excuse refuse to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court may think proper to put to such party, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal of a party to answer.

120. If the pleader of any party who shall appear by a pleader, shall refuse or be unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall attend in person on such day; and if the party so directed to attend shall without lawful excuse fail to appear in person on the day to be so appointed, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal or inability of pleader to answer.

Of the Production of Documents.

121. The parties or their pleaders shall bring with them, and have in readiness at the first hearing of the suit to be produced when called upon by the Court, all their documentary evidence of every description which may not already have been filed in Court, and all documents, writings, or other things which may have been specified in any notice which may have been served on them respectively within a reasonable time before the hearing of the suit; and no documentary evidence of any kind, which the parties or any of them may desire to produce, shall be received by the Court at any subsequent stage of the proceedings, unless good cause be shown to its satisfaction for the non-production thereof at the first hearing.

Documentary evidence to be produced at first hearing.

122. All exhibits produced by the parties shall be received and inspected by the Court; but it shall be competent to the Court, after inspection, to reject any exhibit which it may consider irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection.

Exhibits to be received and inspected by the Court.

Rejection of exhibits.

123. If the exhibit be a deed, instrument, or writing, chargeable with stamp duty under any Regulation or Act for the time being in force, and it shall appear to the Court that the deed, instrument, or writing, although written on stamp paper, does not bear a sufficient stamp, the Court shall nevertheless receive the same in evidence, saving all just exceptions on other grounds, if the party producing it or requiring its production shall pay into Court the deficiency of the stamp duty and a penalty equal to ten times the amount of the deficiency. Provided that, if it shall appear to the Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the deed, instrument, or writing was not properly stamped with the intention of evading the stamp laws, the Court may reject the same.

Documents insufficiently stamped may be received on payment of deficient duty and penalty.

Proviso.

124. An entry of the fact of such payment and of the amount thereof shall be made in a book to be kept in the Court, and shall also be endorsed on the back of such deed, instrument, or writing under the signature of the Judge of the Court. The Court shall at the end of every month make a return to the Collector of Revenue of the District of the monies (if any) which it has so received by way of duty or penalty, distinguishing between such monies, and stating the number and title of the suit, and the name of the party from whom such monies were received, and the date (if any) and description of the document, for the purpose of identifying the same; and the Court shall pay over the said monies to the Collector of Revenue, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same ; and the Collector of Revenue, or other proper authority, shall, upon production of the deed, instrument, or writing, with the endorsement hereinbefore mentioned, cause such additional stamp as may be necessary to be affixed to such deed, instrument, or writing in respect of the sums so paid as aforesaid.

Admitted exhibits to be marked and filed.

125. When an exhibit is received by the Court and admitted in evidence, it shall be endorsed with the number and title of the suit, the name of the party producing it, and the date on which it was produced, and shall be filed as part of the record. Provided that, if the exhibit be an entry in any shop book or other book, the party on whose behalf such book is produced shall furnish a copy of the entry, which copy shall be endorsed as aforesaid, and shall be filed as part of the record, and the book shall be returned to the party producing it.

Proviso.

No stamp duty in respect of the production or filing of exhibits

126. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of the production or filing of any exhibit, any thing contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

Rejected exhibits to be marked and returned.

127. When an exhibit is rejected by the Court, it shall be endorsed in the manner specified in Section 125 with the addition of the word " rejected," and the endorsement shall be subscribed by the Judge. The exhibit shall then be returned to the party who produced it, unless the Court shall think proper, for special reasons (as on suspicion of forgery), to detain it.

After the time for appeal has elapsed, exhibit admitted in evidence may be returned.

128. When the time for preferring an appeal from the decision passed in the suit has elapsed, or if an appeal has been preferred from such decision, then after the appeal has been finally disposed of, any person, whether a party to the suit or not, who may be desirous of receiving back any exhibit produced by him in the suit, shall be entitled, on application to the Court in which such exhibit may be, to receive back the same unless the further use of such exhibit has been superseded by the terms of the decree, or the Court has directed it to be detained for purposes of public justice.

Exhibit may be returned before the time limited, for special reasons.

129. Any exhibit may be returned before the time mentioned in the last preceding Section, if the Court in which the document may be shall think proper, for special reasons, to order its return. But in every case a copy, properly certified, and made at the expense of the applicant, shall be substituted for the original in the record of the suit.

Certified copy to be kept.

Receipt to be given for returned exhibit.

130. Whenever an exhibit once received by a Court of Justice and admitted in evidence is returned, a receipt shall be given by the party receiving it in a receipt-book kept for the purpose.

Court may send for papers from its own records or from other public Offices or Courts.

131. Any Civil Court may of its own accord, or upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other public Office or Court, the record of any other suit or case, and inspect the same, when the inspection of such record or any part of it shall appear likely to elucidate the facts of the suit before the Court, and to promote the ends of justice.

Of the Settlement of Issues.

Framing of issues.

132. At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall enquire and ascertain upon what questions of law or fact the parties are at issue, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues of law and fact on which the right decision of the case may depend. The Court may frame the issues from the allegations of fact which it collects from the oral examination of the parties or their pleaders, notwithstanding any difference between such allegations of fact and the allegations of fact contained in the written statements, if any, tendered by the parties or their pleaders.

Court may examine witnesses or documents before framing the issues.

133. If the Court shall be of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person other than the persons already before the Court, or without the reading of some document not produced by any of such persons, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, to be fixed by the Court, and may compel the attendance of such person, or the production of the document by the person in whose hands it may be, by summons or other suitable process.

Amendment of issues.

Additional issues.

134. At any time before the decision of the case, the Court may amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as to it shall seem fit, and all such amendments as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real question or controversy between the parties shall be so made.

Of Issues by Agreement of Parties.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be stated by the parties in the form of an issue, and an agreement may be entered into for the payment of a sum of money, or the doing or the refraining to do a particular act, according to the result of the issue.

135. When the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question or questions of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may state the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing, which shall not be subject to any stamp duty, that upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue, a sum of money specified in the agreement, or to be ascertained by the Court upon a question inserted in the issue for that purpose, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding some property specified in the agreement, and in dispute in the suit, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act, or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act, specified in the agreement, and having reference to the matter in dispute.

Court, if satisfied that the agreement was executed bonâ fide, may decree accordingly.

136. If the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, and taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that the parties have a bonâ fide interest in the decision of such question, and that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it may proceed to record and try the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court, and may, upon the finding or decision on such issue, give judgment for the sum so agreed on or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise according to the terms of the agreement; and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

When the Suit may be disposed of at the First Hearing.

If the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact.

137. If at the first hearing of a suit it shall appear that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact, the Court may at once give judgment.

If the parties are at issue on questions of law or fact.

138. When the parties are at issue on some question of law or fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court shall be satisfied that no further argument or proof than such as the parties or their pleaders can at once supply is required upon any such of the issues of law or fact as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, the Court, after hearing such argument and proof, may proceed to determine such issue or issues, and if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly; otherwise the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence or for such further argument as the case may require.

Of Adjournments.

Court may grant time, or adjourn to a future day.

139. The Court may, if sufficient cause be shown, at any stage of the suit, grant time to the parties, or to either of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit; and in all such cases the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit. Provided that in all such cases the party applying for time shall pay the costs occasioned by such adjournment, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Proviso.

How Court is to proceed if the parties fail to appear on the day fixed.

140. If, on any day to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, the parties or either of them shall not appear in person or by pleader, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in the manner specified in Section 103, Section 104, or Section 107 of this Chapter as the case may be, or may make such other order as may appear to be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Court to proceed if either party fail to produce proofs or witnesses.

141. If either party to a suit to whom time may have been granted shall fail to produce his proofs, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to perform any other act for which time may have been allowed, the Court shall proceed to a decision of the suit on the record, notwithstanding such default.

Of summoning Witnesses.

Application for summons.

142. The parties or their pleaders may, at any time after the issues have been recorded, obtain, on application to the Court, summonses to witnesses or other persons to attend either to give evidence or to produce documents, and in any such summons the names of any number of persons may be inserted.

No stamp duty on application for summons.

143. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of any application for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, anything contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

Expenses of witnesses to be paid before issue of summons.

144. The person applying for a summons shall pay into Court such a sum of money as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of each witness, or other person mentioned in the summons, in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and for one day's attendance. If the Court be a subordinate Court, regard shall be had, in fixing the scale of such expenses, to the rules (if any) established by the Court to which such Court shall be immediately subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness or other person at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally. If it shall appear to the Court that the sum paid into Court on account of the travelling and other expenses of the witness or other person in passing to and from the Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the witness or other person as may appear to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, or may discharge the witness without requiring him to give evidence. If it shall be necessary to detain the witness or other person summoned for a longer period than one day, the Court may from time to time order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as may be sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order the witness to be discharged without requiring him to give evidence.

Time, place, and purpose of attendance to be specified in summons.

145. Every summons for the attendance of a witness or other person shall specify the time and place at which he is required to attend, and also whether his attendance is required for the purpose of giving evidence or to produce a document, or for both purposes; and any particular document which the witness or other person may be called on to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

Summons to produce a document.

146. Any person, whether a party to a suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document, without being summoned to give evidence; and any person, summoned merely to produce a document, shall be deemed to have complied with the summons, if he cause such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

SERVICE OF SUMMONS ON A WITNESS.

How and when the summons shall be served.

147. Every summons to a witness or other person shall be served by exhibiting the original, and delivering or tendering a copy; and the service shall in all cases be made a sufficient time before the time specified in the summons for the attendance of the witness or other person, to allow him a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Service to be on the witness, or a male member of his family.

148. Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the summons shall be upon the person thereby required to attend; but when he cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

When the summons cannot be served, it is to be returned to the Court.

149. When the person required to attend cannot be found, and there is no adult male member of his family on whom the summons can be served, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued, with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it.

Time and manner of service to be endorsed on the summons.

150. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons the time when and the manner in which it was served.

How a summons on a witness who resides in another jurisdiction is to be served.

151. If the person required to attend be resident within the jurisdiction of any other Court than that in which the suit is pending, the summons shall be transmitted by the Court in which the suit is pending, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the witness resides by which it can be most conveniently served; and the Court to which the summons is sent shall, upon receipt thereof, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be transmitted to the Court from whence it originally issued.

When a witness absconds, his property may be attached.

152 If the summons for the attendance of any person either to give evidence or to produce a document, cannot be served in either of the ways hereinbefore specified, the Court, on being certified thereof by the return of the serving Officer, and upon proof that the evidence of such witness or the production of the document is material, and that the witness or other person absconds or keeps out of the way for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document, at a time and place to be named therein to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon his house or place of abode; and if such person shall not attend at the time and place named in such proclamation, the Court may, at the instance of the party on whose application the summons was issued, make an order for the attachment of the moveable and immoveable property of such person, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, not being in excess of the amount of the costs of attachment and of any fine to which the person may be liable under the provisions of the following Section.

How the Court is to proceed with the witness on his appearance.

153. If, on the attachment of the property, such witness or other person shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If such witness or other person shall not appear, or appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not such a notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the property attached, or any part thereof, to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such attachment, together with the amount of any fine which the Court may impose upon such witness or other person under the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of a witness who may abscond or keep out of the way in order to avoid the service of a summons. If the witness or other person shall pay into Court the costs and fine as aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

OF THE EXAMINATION OF PARTIES AS WITNESSES.

A party to a suit appearing in person may be examined either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party.

154. When a party to a suit appears in person at any hearing of the suit, he may be examined as a witness, either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, in the same way as if he were not a party thereto.

Special application to be made for the examination of a party as a witness.

155. If any party to a suit shall require to enforce the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness, he shall, by himself or his pleader, make a special application to the Court for an order requiring the attendance of the party, and shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court, sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued.

The Court may first issue a notice to show cause.

156. The Court, if it think fit, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader, fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence; and may also, from time to time, if necessary, for good and sufficient reason, enlarge the time for such purpose.

157. In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing of the party, on unstamped paper, if signed by him and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Court may receive a written declaration in support of the cause shown.

158. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed, or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall issue its order requiring the party to attend and give evidence.

If no sufficient cause be shown, summons to issue.

159. If the Court shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to examine any party to the suit or to inspect any document in his possession or power, the Court may, of its own accord in any stage of the suit, cause such party to be summoned to attend as a witness to give evidence or to produce such document if in his possession or power on a day to be appointed in the summons, and may examine such party as a witness in open Court, or may cause such party to be examined in such other manner as the Court may direct.

Court may of its own accord at any time summon a witness.

ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES, AND CONSEQUENCE OF NON-ATTENDANCE.

160. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence in a suit shall be bound to attend at the time and place named in the summons for that purpose.

Persons summoned to give evidence must attend.

161. If any person, on whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been served in either of the ways specified in Section 148 of this Chapter, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons, the Court may order such person to be apprehended and brought before the Court. If such person abscond or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be apprehended or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the manner and subject to the rules provided in Sections 152 and 153 of this Chapter with respect to a witness or other person on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected.

Consequences of non-attendance by a witness not a party to the suit.

162. If any witness, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may commit such witness to close custody for such reasonable time as it may deem proper, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to give his evidence, or to produce the document. If after the expiration of such time the witness shall persist in his refusal, the Court may proceed to deal with him according to the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of persons refusing to give evidence.

Consequences of refusal to give evidence.

163. If any person, being a party to the suit, who shall be ordered to attend to give evidence or produce a document, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such order, or, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may either pass judgment against the party so failing or refusing, or make such other order in relation to the suit as the Court may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-attendance or refusal of a party to give evidence.

164. Any person present in Court, whether a party to the suit or not, may be called upon by the Court to give evidence and to produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence or to produce such document, and shall be liable to be dealt with by the Court as a party or witness, as the case may be, would, under any of the preceding provisions, be liable to be dealt with for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Any person present in Court may be called upon to give evidence though not summoned.

WHEN AND HOW WITNESSES ARE TO BE EXAMINED.

165. On the day appointed for the hearing of the suit or on some other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. In cases in which an appeal lies to a higher tribunal, the evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, in the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and, when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and also in the presence of the parties to the suit or their pleaders, or such of them as are in attendance, and shall, if necessary, be corrected, and shall be signed by the Judge. If the evidence be taken down in a different language from that in which it has been given, and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the witness may require his deposition as taken down in writing to be interpreted to him in the language in which it was given. Where all the parties to the suit present, and the pleaders of such as are absent, consent to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down in his own hand. It shall be in the discretion of the Court to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there shall appear any special reason for so doing, or any party or his pleader shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their pleaders, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Court shall record such remarks as it may think material respecting the demeanor of the witness while under examination.

Objection made to questions.

In cases in which the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge himself, he shall be bound, as the examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall accompany the record.

Memorandum of substance of the evidence to be made by judge as each witness is examined.

In cases in which an appeal does not lie to a higher tribunal, it shall not be necessary to take down the depositions of the witnesses in writing at length; but the Judge, as the examination of each witness proceeds, shall make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall form part of the record.

In what form evidence shall be taken in cases not appealable.

If the Judge shall be prevented from making a memorandum as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and in cases not appealable shall cause such memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such memorandum shall from part of the record.

If judge be unable to make a memorandum of the evidence, reason of inability to be recorded.

166. If a witness be about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or other good and sufficient cause can be shown to the satisfaction of the Court why his examination should be taken immediately, it shall be competent to the Court, upon the application of either party or of the witness, at any time after the institution of the suit, to take the examination of such witness forthwith, or on any day that may be fixed for that purpose, of which due notice shall be given to the parties if the day be fixed in their absence. The witness shall be examined, and his deposition shall be taken down in writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed; and the deposition so taken down may be read in evidence at any hearing of the suit.

A witness may for sufficient cause be examined immediately.

167. All witnesses shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Witnesses to be examined upon oath or affirmation, or according to the law for the time being in force.

Of Commissions to examine absent Witnesses and make Local Enquiries.

168. When the evidence of a witness is required who is resident at some place distant more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or who is unable from sickness or infirmity to attend before the Court to be personally examined, or is a person exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court; the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, or on the representation of the witness, order a Commission to issue for the examination of such witness on interrogatories or otherwise; and may, by the same or any subsequent order, give all such directions for taking such examinations as may appear reasonable and just.

Cases in which Court may issue a Commission to examine witnesses.

If the witness be resident within the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, the Commission may be issued to any Officer of the Court, or to any subordinate Court, or to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

When the witness resides within the Court's jurisdiction.

If the witness be resident at some place which is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, and not within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court, the Commission shall ordinarily be issued to the Court within whose jurisdiction the witness may reside, and which can most conveniently execute the same; but, under special circumstances, the Commission may be issued to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

When the witness resides beyond the Court's jurisdiction, and not within the Supreme Court's jurisdiction, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court.

169. If the witness be resident within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, the Commision shall ordinarily be issued to the Court of Small Causes held under Act IX of 1850 (for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay), but may, under special circumstances, be directed to any person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

When the witness is within the local jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

170. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the British territories in India or within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Court, if it be satisfied that the evidence of such witness is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the representation of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission for the examination of the witness; provided that, if the suit be pending in any Court subordinate to the principal Civil Court of a District, such subordinate Court shall not issue the Commission, but the principal Civil Court of the District may issue the Commission on the application of the subordinate Court.

When the witness is not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or the Supreme Court, but within the British territories or the territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government.

171. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place beyond the said territories and not within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Sudder Court, if the suit in which the evidence of the witness is required be pending in that Court and the Court be satisfied that such evidence is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission to examine the witness; if the suit be not pending in the Sudder Court, that Court may issue the Commission on the application of the Court in which the suit is pending. In all such cases, the Commission may be issued to any person or persons whom the Sudder Court may think proper to appoint.

Commission to be returned with the depositions of the witnesses.

172. After the Commission has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness who may have been examined thereunder, to the Court out of which the Commission issued, unless otherwise directed by the order for issuing the Commission, in which case it shall be returned in terms of such order, and the Commission and the return thereto and the deposition of the witness who may have been examined under such Commission shall in all cases form part of the record of the suit. But no deposition taken under a Commission shall be read in evidence without the consent of the party against whom the same may be offered, unless it be proved that the deponent is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, or dead, or unable from sickness or infirmity to attend to be personally examined, or distant, without collusion, more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court, or unless the Court shall, at its discretion, dispense with the proof of any of the above circumstances, or shall authorize the deposition of any witness being read in evidence, notwithstanding proof that the causes for taking such deposition have ceased at the time of reading the same.

When depositions may be read in evidence.

Commission for local investigations.

173. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which the Court may deem a local investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of elucidating the matters in dispute, or of ascertaining the amount of any mesne profits or damages, the Court may issue a Commission to an Officer of the Court appointed to execute such Commissions, or, if there be no such Officer, to any suitable person, directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to the Court. In all such cases, unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment, the Commissioner shall have power to examine any witnesses who may be produced to him by the parties or any of them, the parties themselves, and any other persons whom he may think proper to call upon to give evidence in the matters referred to him; and also to call for and examine documents and other papers relevant to the subject of enquiry; and persons not attending on the requisition of the Commissioner, or refusing to give their testimony or to produce any documents or other papers, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the report of the Commissioner, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court. The Commissioner, after such local inspection as he may deem necessary, and after reducing to writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for taking the depositions of witnesses in the presence of the Judge, the depositions taken by him, shall return the depositions, together with his report in writing, subscribed with his name, to the Court. The report and depositions shall be taken as evidence in the suit and shall form part of the record; but it shall be competent to the Court, or to the parties to the suit or any of them, with the permission of the Court, to examine the Commissioner personally in open Court, touching any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report, or the manner in which he may have conducted the investigation.

The report and depositions to be taken as evidence in the suit, but the Commissioner may be examined in person.

A Commissioner may be appointed to investigate and adjust accounts.

174. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which an investigation or adjustment of accounts may be necessary, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint such Officer or other person as aforesaid to be a Commissioner for the purpose of making such investigation or adjustment, and to direct that the parties or their attorneys or pleaders shall attend upon the Commissioner during such investigation or adjustment. In all such cases, the Court shall furnish the Commissioner with such part of the proceedings and such detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his information and guidance; and the instructions shall distinctly specify whether the Commissioner is merely to transmit the proceedings which he may hold on the enquiry or also to report his own opinion on the point referred for his investigation. The proceedings of the Commissioner shall be received in evidence in the case, unless the Court may have reason to be dissatisfied with them; in which case the Court shall make such further inquiry as may be requisite, and shall pass such ultimate judgment or order as may appear to it to be right and proper in the circumstances of the case.

In cases of local investigation or investigation into accounts, expenses of Commission to be paid into Court, before issue thereof.

175. Whenever a Commission is issued either for taking evidence or for a local investigation or an investigation into accounts, the Court, before issuing the Commission, may order such sum as may be thought reasonable for the expenses of the Commission to be paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Commission is issued.

Of Judgment and Decree.

When judgment is to be pronounced.

176. When the exhibits have been perused, the witnesses examined, and the parties heard in person or by their respective pleaders, the Court shall pronounce its judgment. The judgment shall be pronounced in open Court either immediately or on some future day of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

Judgment to be written in the vernacular language of the Judge.

Proviso.

177. The judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. Provided that, if the vernacular language of the Judge be not English and the Judge be sufficiently conversant with the English language to be able to write a clear and intelligible decision in that language, and prefer to write his judgment in it, the judgment may be written in English.

178. The judgment shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge in open Court at the time of pronouncing it. Whenever the judgment is written in any other language than that which is in ordinary use in the Court, the judgment shall be translated into the language in ordinary use in the Court, and the translation shall also be signed by the Judge.

Judgment what to contain.

Judgment to be translated.

179. In all suits in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision on each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues be sufficient for the decision of the suit.

Court to state its decision on each issue.

Proviso.

180. The judgment shall in all cases direct by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, whether by himself or by another party, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion; and the Court shall have full power to award and apportion costs in any manner it may deem proper.

Judgment to direct by whom costs are to be paid.

181. Under the denomination of costs are included the whole of the expenses necessarily incurred by either party on account of the suit, and in enforcing the decree passed therein, such as the expense of stamps, of summoning the defendants and witnesses, and of other processes, or of procuring copies of documents, fees of pleaders, charges of witnesses, and expenses of Commissioners either in taking evidence or in local investigations or in investigations into accounts.

What is included under the denomination of costs.

182. The decree shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and descriptions of the parties, and particulars of the claim, as stated in the Register of the suit, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the suit. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit and by what parties and in what proportions they are to be paid, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court.

Decree.

183. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property with specified boundaries, if the decree be for the recovery of a portion only of such property, it shall specify the boundaries of the land or property adjudged.

Decree for the recovery of a portion of immoveable property.

184. When the suit is for moveable property, if the decree be for the delivery of such property, it shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

Decree for the delivery of moveable property.

185. When the suit is for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court with the consent of the plaintiff may decree the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and in such case shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative if the contract is not performed.

Decree for damages for breach of contract.

186. When the suit is for a sum of money due to the plaintiff, the Court may in the decree order interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged from the date of suit to the date of payment at such rate as the Court may think proper.

In suits for money, decree may order certain interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged.

187. In all decrees for the payment of money, the Court may for any sufficient reason order that the amount shall be paid by instalments with or without interest. All moneys payable under a decree shall be paid into the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, unless the Court passing the decree shall otherwise direct.

Payment by instalments.

188. If the defendant shall have been allowed to set-off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount (if any) is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which shall appear to be due to either party. The decree of the Court with respect to any sum awarded to the defendant shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate suit against the plaintiff.

If set-off be allowed.

Effect of Decree.

189. When the suit is for land or other property paying rent, the Court may provide in the decree for the payment of mesne profits or rent on such land or other property from the date of the suit until the date of delivery of possession to the decree-holder with interest thereupon at such rate as the Court may think proper.

When the suit is for land, the Court may provide in the decree for payment of mesne profits with interest.

190. When the suit is for land and for mesne profits which have accrued thereon during a period prior to the date of suit, and the amount of such profits is disputed, the Court may either determine the amount prior to passing a decree for the land, or may pass a decree for the land and reserve the enquiry into the amount of mesne profits for the execution of the decree according as may appear most convenient.

Court may determine amount of mesne profits prior to passing decree or may reserve enquiry.

191. Certified copies of the decree and judgment shall be furnished to the parties or their pleaders on application to the Court, and on the production of the necessary stamps where stamps are required by any law for the time being in force. The application may be made either orally or by writing on unstamped paper.

Certified copies of the decree and judgment to be furnished.

CHAPTER IV.

Execution of Decrees.

192. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property, the same shall be delivered over to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged.

Decree for immoveable property.

193. If the decree be for any specific moveable, or for the specific performance of any contract, or for the performance of any other particular act, it shall be enforced by the seizure, if practicable, of the specific moveable and the delivery thereof to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged, or by imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by attaching his property and keeping the same under attachment until further order of the Court, or by both imprisonment and attachment if necessary; or if alternative damages be awarded, by levying such damages in the mode hereinafter provided for the execution of a decree for money.

Decree for moveable property, performance of contract, or alternative.

194. If the decree be for money, it shall be enforced by the imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by the attachment and sale of his property, or by both if necessary; and if such party be other than a defendant, the decree may be enforced against him in the same manner as a decree may be enforced under the provisions of this Chapter against a defendant.

Decree for money.

195. If the decree be for the execution of a conveyance or for the endorsement of a negotiable instrument, and the party ordered to execute or endorse such conveyance or negotiable instrument shall neglect or refuse so to do, any party interested in having the same executed or endorsed may prepare a conveyance or endorsement of the instrument in accordance with the terms of the decree, and tender the same to the Court, for execution upon the proper stamp (if any is required by law), and the signature thereof by the Judge shall have the same effect as the execution or endorsement thereof by the party ordered to execute.

Decrees for execution of conveyances, or endorsement of negotiable instruments.

196. If the decree be against a party as the representative of a deceased person, and such decree be for money to be paid out of the property of the deceased person, it may be executed by the attachment and sale of any such property, or, if no such property can be found and the defendant fail to satisfy the Court that he has duly applied such property of the deceased as shall be proved to have come into his possession, the decree may be executed against the defendant to the extent of the property not duly applied by him, in the same manner as if the decree had been against the defendant personally.

Decree against representatives of deceased persons.

197. Whenever a person has become liable as security for the performance of a decree or of any part thereof, the decree may be executed against such person to the extent to which he has rendered himself liable, in the same manner as a decree may be enforced against a defendant.

Decree against sureties.

198. The following property is liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, namely, lands, houses, goods, money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Government securities, bonds, or other securities for money, debts, shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other Public Company or Corporation, and all other property whatsoever, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, and whether the same be held in his own name or by another person in trust for him, or on his behalf.

What property liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree.

Application for Execution.

199. When any party in whose favor a decree has been made is desirous of enforcing the same, he shall apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree either in person or through his pleader in the suit or some other pleader duly appointed to act for him in that behalf. If there be two or more decree-holders, one or more of them may make the application, if the Court shall see sufficient cause for allowing him or them to make such application; and the Court shall in such case pass such order as it may deem necessary for protecting the interests of the other decree-holders.

Application for execution how to be made.

200. If a decree shall be transferred by assignment or by operation of law from the original decree-holder to any other person, application for the execution of the decree may be made by the person to whom it shall have been so transferred or his pleader; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed in the same manner as if the application were made by the original decree-holder.

Application by whom to be made, if decree be transferred from original decree-holder to another person.

201. If there be cross-decrees between the same parties for the payment of money, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained a decree for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum shall be entered on the decree for the larger sum as well as satisfaction on the decree for the smaller sum, and if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both decrees.

Cross-decrees.

The above rules shall apply to decrees sent to a Court for execution as well as to decrees in the same Court.

Whenever a suit shall be pending in any Court against the holder of a decree of such Court, by the person or persons against whom the decree was passed, the Court may, if it appear just and reasonable to do so, stay execution on the decree either absolutely or on such terms as it may think just, until a decree shall be passed in the pending suit.

202. If any person against whom a decree has been made shall die before execution has been fully had thereon, application for execution thereof may be made against the legal representative or the estate of the person so dying as aforesaid; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed accordingly.

If the person against whom a decree is made shall die, application may be made against his legal representative or estate.

203. If the decree be ordered to be executed against the legal representative, it shall be executed in the manner provided in Section 5 of this Chapter for the execution of a decree for money to be paid out of the property of a deceased person.

Decree how to be executed against legal representative.

204. The application for execution of a decree shall be in writing, and shall contain in a tabular form the following particulars, namely, the number of the suit, the names of the parties, the date of the decree, whether any appeal has been preferred from the decree, and whether any and what adjustment of the matter in dispute has been made between the parties subsequently to the decree; the amount of the debt or damages due upon it, or other relief granted by the decree; the amount of costs, if any were awarded; the name of the person against whom the enforcement of the decree is sought; and the mode in which the assistance of the Court is required, whether by the delivery of property specifically decreed, the arrest and imprisonment of the person named, or attachment of his property, or otherwise as the case may be.

Further particulars when the application is for an attachment of immoveable property.

205. When the application is for an attachment of any land or other immoveable property belonging to the defendant, it shall be accompanied with an inventory or list of such property, containing such a description of the property as may be sufficient to identify it, together with a specification of the defendant's share or interest therein, to the best of the applicant's belief and so far as he has been able to ascertain the same. And where the property is an estate paying revenue to Government, or any portion of such estate, the application for an attachment shall be accompanied with an authenticated extract from the Register of the Collector's Office, specifying the revenue of such estate, and the names and (where registered) the shares of the registered proprietors.

The application for an attachment of moveable property may be general, or may be accompanied with an inventory of the property to be attached.

206. Where the application is for an attachment of the defendant's moveable property or any part thereof, it may be accompanied with an inventory or list of the property to be attached, containing a reasonably accurate description thereof; or the applicant may apply for a general attachment of the defendant's moveable property wheresoever the same can be found, to the amount of the judgment and costs.

Procedure on receiving the application.

207. The Court, on receiving any application for execution of a decree, containing the particulars above mentioned, or such of them as may be applicable to the case, shall cause the same to be compared with the original decree contained in the record of the suit; and if they shall be found to correspond therewith, shall enter a note of the application, and the date on which it was made in the Register of the suit. If the particulars shall not be found to correspond with the original decree, the Court shall either return the application for correction to the person making it, or shall, with the consent of such person, cause the necessary correction to be made. If the application be admitted, the Court shall order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application.

Measures required in certain cases preliminary to the issue of the Warrant.

In certain special cases, notice to show cause why the decree should not be executed, shall be issued.

208. If an interval of more than one year shall have elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for its execution, or if the enforcement of the decree be applied for against the heir or representative of an original party to the suit, the Court shall issue a notice to the party against whom execution may be applied for, requiring him to show cause, within a limited period to be fixed by the Court, why the decree should not be executed against him. Provided that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of an interval of more than one year having elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for execution, if the application be made within one year from the date of the last order passed on any previous application for execution; and provided further that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of the application being against an heir or representative, if, upon a previous application for execution against the same person, the Court shall have ordered execution to issue against him.

Proviso.

Procedure after issue of notice.

209. When such notice is issued, if the party shall not attend in person or by a pleader, or shall not show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court why the decree should not be forthwith executed, the Court shall order it to be executed accordingly. If the party shall attend in person or by a pleader, and shall offer any objection to the enforcement of the decree, the Court shall pass such order as in the circumstances of the case may appear to be just and proper.

Application for a general attachment of moveable property.

210. Where the application is for a general attachment of the moveable property of the defendant, it shall be competent to the Court, if it shall think proper, before issuing an order for such attachment, to require the applicant to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, in such sum as may be considered adequate, for any injury that may be occasioned by the attachment of property belonging to any other person than the defendant.

Before granting order, Court may make certain enquiries as to the property to be attached.

211. Before granting the order for a general attachment or at the instance of the plaintiff at any time after judgment and before complete execution of the decree, the Court may summon the person against whom the application is made and examine him as to the property liable to be seized in satisfaction of the judgment. The Court may also, of its own motion or at the instance of any person interested in the enquiry, summon any other person whom it may think necessary and examine him in respect to such property, and may require the person summoned to produce all deeds and documents in his possession or power relating to such property.

Rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after judgment.

212. In all cases in which a summons may be issued for the attendance of a party to a suit or any other person at any time after judgment, the rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after issues recorded, shall apply to the party or witnesses so summoned.

Issue of the Warrant.

Warrant when to issue.

213. When all necessary preliminary measures have been taken, where any such are required, the Court, unless it see cause to the contrary, shall issue the proper warrants for the execution of the decree.

214. Every warrant for the execution of a decree shall bear the date of the day on which it is issued, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, and delivered to the Nazir or other proper Officer of the Court. A day shall be specified in the warrant on or before which it must be executed, and the Nazir or other proper Officer shall endorse upon the warrant the day and the manner in which it was executed, or, if it was not executed, the reason why it was not executed, and shall return it with such endorsement to the Court from which it issued.

Latest day of execution to be written in warrant, and time and manner of execution to be endorsed.

Of the execution of Decrees for Immoveable Property.

215. If the decree be for a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the institution of the suit, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been adjudged, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

How immoveable property is to be delivered when in the occupancy of a defendant or of some person under him.

216. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the warrant in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, the substance of the decree in regard to the property.

How it is to be delivered when in the occupancy of ryots.

217. If the decree be for the division of an estate or for the separate possession of a share of an undivided estate paying revenue to Government, the division of the estate or the separation of the share shall be made by the Collector under the orders of the Court according to the rules in force for the partition of an estate paying revenue to Government.

Division of estate or separation of share how to be made.

218. If, in the execution of a decree for land or other immoveable property, the Officer executing the same shall be resisted or obstructed by any person, the person in whose favor such decree was made may apply to the Court at any time within one month from the time of such resistance or obstruction. The Court shall fix a day for investigating the complaint and shall summon the party against whom the complaint is made to answer the same.

Obstruction to execution of decree for immoveable property.

219. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the obstruction or resistance was occasioned by the defendant or by some person at his instigation on the ground that the land or other immoveable property is not included in the decree, or on any other ground, the Court shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper under the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by defendant.

220. If the Court shall be satisfied, after such investigation of the facts of the case as it may deem proper, that the resistance or obstruction complained of was without any just cause and that the complainant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining effectual possession of the property adjudged to him by the decree, by the defendant or some person at his instigation, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff and without prejudice to any proceedings to which such defendant or other person may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, commit the defendant or such other person to close custody for such period not exceeding thirty days as may be necessary to prevent the continuance of such obstruction or resistance.

How defendant may be dealt with, if he persists in obstructing the complainant.

221. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the resistance or obstruction to the execution of the decree has been occasioned by any person, other than the defendant, claiming bonâ fide to be in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, the claim shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the decree-holder as plaintiff and the claimant as defendant, and the Court shall, without prejudice to any proceedings to which the claimant may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, proceed to investigate the claim in the same manner and with the like power as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the decree-holder against the claimant under the provisions of this Act, and shall pass such order for staying execution of the decree, or executing the same, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by a bonâ fide claimant other than the defendant.

222. If any person other than the defendant shall be dispossessed of any land or other immoveable property in execution of a decree, and such person shall dispute the right of the decree-holder to dispossess him of such property under the decree on the ground that the property was bonâ fide in his possession on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, and that it was not included in the decree, or, if included in the decree, that he was not a party to the suit in which the decree was passed, he may apply to the Court within one month from the date of such dispossession ; and if, after examining the applicant, it shall appear to the Court that there is probable cause for making the application, the application shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff, and the decree-holder as defendant, and the Court shall proceed to investigate the matter in dispute in the same manner and with the like powers as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the applicant against the decree-holder.

Procedure in certain cases if person dispossessed of immoveable property dispute the right of decree-holder to be put into possession of such property.

223. The decision passed by the Court under either of the last two Sections shall be of the same force as a decree in an ordinary suit, and shall be subject to appeal under the rules applicable to appeals from decrees; and no fresh suit shall be entertained in any Court between the same party or parties claiming under them in respect of the same cause of action.

Appeal from decision under the last two Sections.

OF THE EXECUTION OF DECREES FOR MONEY BY ATTACHMENT OF PROPERTY.

224. If the decree be for money, and the amount thereof is to be levied from the property of the person against whom the same may have been pronounced, the Court shall cause the property to be attached in the manner following.

Attachment of property in execution of decree for money, to be as follows.

225. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall keep the same in his own custody, or in the custody of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof.

Attachment of moveable property in possession of defendant, by seizure.

226. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of some other person to the immediate possession thereof, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the person in possession from giving over the property to the defendant.

Attachment by prohibitory order of moveable property, to which defendant is entitled subject to a lien.

227. Where the property shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the defendant from alienating the property by sale, gift, or in any other way, and all persons from receiving the same by purchase, gift, or otherwise.

Attachment of immoveable property, by prohibitory order.

228. Where the property shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments, or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts, and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person whomsoever, until the further order of the Court, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing from making any transfer of the shares or receiving payment of any dividends thereof, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment, until such further order.

Attachment of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies &c., by prohibitory order.

229. Where the property shall consist of money, or of any security, in deposit in any Court of Justice or in the hands of any Officer of Government, which is or may become payable to the defendant or on his behalf, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or Officer requesting that the money or security may be held subject to the further order of the Court by which the notice may be issued. Provided that, if such money or security is in deposit in any Court of Justice, any question of title or priority which may arise between the decree-holder and any other person, not being the defendant, claiming to be interested in such money or security by virtue of any assignment, attachment, or otherwise, shall be determined by the Court in which such money or security is in deposit.

Attachment of money or securities in deposit in a Court of Justice or with a Government Officer, by notice.

230. Where the property shall consist of a negotiable instrument, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall bring the same into Court, and such instrument shall be held subject to the further orders of the Court.

Attachment of negotiable instruments by seizure.

231. In the case of goods, chattels, or other moveable property not in the possession of the defendant, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the person in possession of the property. In the case of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the written order shall be read aloud at some place on or adjacent to such lands, houses, or other property, and shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house; and when the property is land or any interest in land, the written order shall also be fixed up in the Office of the Collector of the Zillah in which the land may be situated. In the case of debts, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and copies of the written order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to each individual debtor. And in the case of shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the written order shall in like manner be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation.

When the attachment is by prohibitory order, how the order is to be made known.

232. After any attachment shall have been made by actual seizure, or by written order as aforesaid, and in the case of an attachment by written order after it shall have been duly intimated and made known in manner aforesaid, any private alienation of the property attached, whether by sale, gift, or otherwise, and any payment of the debt or debts or dividends on shares to the defendant during the continuance of the attachment, shall be null and void.

Any private alienation of property after attachment to be null and void.

233. In every case in which a debtor shall be prohibited from making payment of his debt to the creditor, he may pay the amount into Court, and such payment shall have the same effect as payment to the party entitled to receive the debt.

Payment by a debtor who has been prohibited from making payment to his creditor.

234. In all cases of attachment under the preceding Sections, it shall be competent to the Court, at any time during the attachment, to direct that any part of the property so attached as shall consist of money or bank-notes, or a sufficient part thereof, shall be paid over to the party applying for execution of the decree; or that any part of the property so attached as may not consist of money or bank-notes, so far as may be necessary for the satisfaction of the decree, shall be sold, and that the money which may be realized by such sale, or a sufficient part thereof, shall be paid to such party.

The Court may direct money or bank notes to be paid to the plaintiff;

Or other attached property to be sold, and proceeds to be paid to him.

235. Where the property attached shall consist of debts due to the party who may be answerable for the amount of the decree, or of any lands, houses, or other immoveable property, it shall further be competent to the Court to appoint a manager of the said property, with power to sue for the debts, and to collect the rents or other receipts and profits of the land or other immoveable property, and to execute such deeds or instruments in writing as may be necessary for the purpose, and to pay and apply such rents, profits, or receipts towards the payment of the amount of the decree and costs; and in any case in which a manager shall be appointed, such manager shall be bound to render due and proper accounts of his receipts and disbursements from time to time as the Court may direct.

Where the property consists of debts or immoveable property, a manager may be appointed.

236. If the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses which may be incurred by the attachment be paid into Court, or if it shall be proved to the Court that satisfaction thereof has been made, an order shall be issued for the withdrawal of the attachment; and if the defendant shall desire it and shall deposit in Court a sum sufficient to cover the expense, the order shall be proclaimed or intimated in the same manner as hereinbefore prescribed for the proclamation or intimation of the attachment; and such steps shall be taken as may be necessary for staying further proceedings in execution of the decree.

Order for withdrawal of attachment after satisfaction of the decree.

Of Claims to Attached Property.

237. In the event of any claim being preferred to, or objection offered against the sale of lands or any other immoveable or moveable property which may have been attached in execution of a decree or under any order for attachment passed before judgment, as not liable to be sold in execution of a decree against the defendant, the Court shall, subject to the proviso contained in the next succeeding Section, proceed to investigate the same with the like powers as if the claimant had been originally made a defendant to the suit, and also with such powers as regards the summoning of the original defendant as are contained in Section 212 of this Chapter. And if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was not in the possession of the party against whom execution is sought, or of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, or that, being in the possession of the party himself at such time, it was so in his possession not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, the Court shall pass an order for releasing the said property from attachment. But if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was in possession of the party against whom execution is sought, as his own property, and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, the Court shall disallow the claim and shall direct the decree to be executed. The order which may be passed by the Court under this Section shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom the order may be given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one year from the date thereof.

How claims and objections to sale of attached property are be be investigated.

238. The claim or objection shall be made at the earliest opportunity to the Court which shall have ordered the attachment; and if the property to which the claim or objection applies, shall have been advertized for sale, the sale may (if it appears necessary) be postponed for the purpose of making the investigation mentioned in the last preceding Section. Provided that no such investigation shall be made if it appear that the making of the claim or objection was designedly and unnecessarily delayed, with a view to obstruct the ends of justice. The order disallowing the investigation shall not be subject to appeal, and the claimant shall be left to prosecute his claim by a regular suit.

Claims and objections should be preferred at the earliest opportunity.

Of Sales in execution of Decrees.

239. Sales in execution of decrees shall be conducted by an Officer of the Court, or by any other person whom the Court may appoint, and shall in all cases be made by public auction in manner hereinafter mentioned. Provided that, if the property to be sold shall consist of negotiable securities or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, it shall be competent to the Court, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, to authorize the sale of such securities or shares through a broker at the market-rate of the day. If the property to be sold shall be land paying revenue to Government and the Government shall so direct, the sale shall be conducted by the Collector on the requisition of the Court.

Sales to be by public auction.

Exception as to negotiable securities and shares in public Companies.

Collector to conduct sale of lands paying revenue to Government.

240. In all cases of intended sale by public auction, whether of moveable or immoveable property, in execution of a decree, a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale, the property to be sold, the revenue assessed upon the estate when the property to be sold is an estate or a part of an estate paying revenue to Government, and the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered, together with any other particulars that the Court may think necessary, shall be made in the current language of the District. Such proclamation shall be made on the spot where the property is attached by beat of drum or in such other mode as may be customary; and a written notification to the same effect shall be affixed in the Court-house of the Judge who shall have ordered the sale, and in some conspicuous spot in the town or village in which the attachment may have taken place. When the property ordered to be sold may consist of land or of any right or interest in land, the written notification shall also be affixed in the Office of the Collector of the District in which such land is situate and in the Court-house of the principal Civil Court of the District where the Court which ordered the sale is subordinate to such Court. The sale shall not take place until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immoveable property, and of at least fifteen days in the case of moveable property, calculated from the date on which the notification shall have been affixed in the Court-house of the Judge ordering the sale.

Time of sale.

241. The usual process for attachment and sale when the property to be attached consists of goods, chattels, or other personal estate other than debts, may be issued either successively or simultaneously as the Court directing the sale may in each instance think proper.

The process for attachment and sale may in certain cases be issued simultaneously.

242. In all cases of a public sale of property in execution of a decree, it shall be clearly explained to the bidders at the sale that nothing is guaranteed to them in the land or other property sold, beyond the right, title, and interest therein of the individual answerable for the amount of the decree in execution of which the sale is made.

Nothing but the right, title, and interest of the defendant guaranteed to the purchaser.

243. In all cases of sale of moveable property, the price of every lot shall be paid for at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall direct, and in default of such payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold. On payment of the purchase money, the Officer holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute.

Mode of payment on sale of moveable property.

244. No irregularity in the sale of moveable property under an execution, shall vitiate the sale; but any person who may sustain any injury by reason of such irregularity may recover damages by a suit in Court.

Irregularity not to vitiate sale of moveable property, but any person injured may recover damages by suit.

245. In all cases of sale of immoveable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold.

Deposit by purchaser in case of sale of immoveable property.

246. The full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the sale of the property took place, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day; and in default of payment within such period, the deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the property shall be resold and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

When full amount of purchase money to be made good.

Procedure on default.

247. If the proceeds of the sale which is eventually consummated be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be leviable from him under the rules for enforcing the payment of money in satisfaction of a decree of Court.

Defaulting purchaser answerable for loss by re-sale.

248. Every re-sale of immoveable property in default of payment of the purchase money shall be made after the issue of a fresh notification in the manner and for the period prescribed for original sales.

Notification on re-sale of immoveable property.

249. No sale of immoveable property shall become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Court. At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Court to set aside the sale on the ground of any material irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale, but no sale shall be set aside on the ground of such irregularity unless the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the Court that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity.

Confirmation of sale.

250. If no such application as is mentioned in the last preceding Section be made, or if such application be made and the objection be disallowed, the Court shall pass an order confirming the sale; and in like manner if such application be made, and if the objection be allowed, the Court shall pass an order setting aside the sale for irregularity. If the objection be allowed, the order made to set aside the sale shall be final; if the objection be disallowed, the order confirming the sale shall be open to appeal; and such order, unless appealed from, and if appealed from, then the order passed on the appeal, shall be final; and the party against whom the same has been given shall be precluded from bringing a suit for establishing his claim.

The sale, if not objected to for irregularity, or if the objection is disallowed, shall become absolute.

When the order to set aside a sale shall be open to appeal.

251. Whenever a sale of immoveable property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase money with or without interest, in such manner as it may appear proper to the Court to direct in each instance.

If the sale be set aside, price to be returned to purchaser.

252. After a sale of immoveable property shall have become absolute in manner aforesaid, the Court shall grant a certificate to the person who may have been declared the purchaser at such sale, to the effect that he has purchased the right, title, and interest of the defendant in the property sold, and such certificate shall be taken and deemed to be a valid transfer of such right, title, and interest.

Certificate to be granted to the purchasers of land.

253. The certificate shall state the name of the person who at the time of sale is declared to be the actual purchaser, and any suit brought against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser,

Certificate to state the name of actual purchaser.

though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

Delivery of moveable property in the possession of defendant.

254. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, or to the immediate possession of which the defendant is entitled, and of which actual seizure has been made, the property shall be delivered to the purchaser.

Delivery of moveable property to which defendant is entitled subject to lien.

255. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of any person to the immediate possession thereof, the delivery to the purchaser shall as far as practicable be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser thereof.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of defendants, &c.

256. If the property sold shall consist of a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the attachment of such property, the Court shall order delivery thereof to the made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been sold, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and, if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots, &c.

257. If the property sold shall consist of land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of sale in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, that the right, title, and interest of the defendant has been transferred to the purchaser.

Delivery of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies.

258. Where the property sold shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the delivery thereof shall be by a written order of the Court prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person or persons except the purchaser, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing, from making any transfer of the shares to any person except the purchaser, or receiving payment of any dividends thereon, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment to any person except the purchaser.

Delivery of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made.

259. Where the property sold shall consist of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made, the same shall be delivered to the purchaser thereof.

Transfer of securities and shares.

260. If the endorsement or conveyance of the party in whose name any negotiable security or any share in a public Company or Corporation is standing, shall be required to transfer the same, the Judge may endorse the security or the certificate of the share or may execute such other document as may be necessary for transferring the same. The endorsement or execution shall be in the following form or to the like effect—"A. B. by C. D. Judge of the Court of (or as the case may be); in a suit by E. F. versus A. B." Until the transfer of such security or share, the Judge may, by order, appoint some person to receive any interest or dividend due thereon, and to sign receipts for the same; and any endorsement made or document executed or receipts signed as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes, as if the same had been made or executed or signed by the party himself.

Resisting or obstructing purchasers in obtaining possession of property.

261. If the purchaser of any immoveable property sold in execution of a decree shall be resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession of the property, the provisions contained in Sections 218, 219, and 220 of this Chapter relating to resistance or obstruction to a party in whose favor a suit has been decreed in obtaining possession of the property adjudged to him, shall be applicable in the case of such resistance or obstruction.

Obstruction by claimants other than defendants.

262. If it shall appear that the resistance or obstruction to the delivery of possession was occasioned by any person other than the defendant claiming a right to the possession of the property sold as proprietor, mortgagee, lessee, or under any other title, or if in the delivery of possession to the purchaser any such person claiming as aforesaid shall be dispossessed, the Court, on the complaint of the purchaser, or of such person claiming as aforesaid, if made within one month from the date of such resistance of obstruction or of such dispossession as the case may be, shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper in the circumstances of the case. The order shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom it is given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one month from the date thereof.

Attaching creditor to be first paid out of property attached.

263. Whenever property is sold in execution of a decree, the person on whose application such property was attached shall be entitled to be first paid out of the proceeds thereof, notwithstanding a subsequent attachment of the same property by another party in execution of a prior decree.

Surplus to be rateably distributed among decree-holders who have taken out execution prior to the order for distribution.

264. If, after the claim of the person on whose application the property was attached has been satisfied in full from the proceeds of the sale, any surplus remain, such surplus shall be distributed rateably amongst any other persons who prior to the order for such distribution may have taken out execution of decrees against the same defendant and not obtained satisfaction thereof. Provided that, when any property is sold subject to a mortgage, the mortgagee shall not be entitled to share in any surplus arising from such sale.

Proviso where property is sold subject to a mortgage.

265. If it shall appear to the Court, upon the application of a decree-holder, that any other decree under which property has been attached was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may order that the applicant shall be satisfied out of the proceeds of the property attached so far as the same may suffice for the purpose if such other decree be a decree of that Court, or, if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings to enable the applicant to obtain a similar order from the Court by which the decree was made.

Court may on application, order another decree-holder to be satisfied out of proceeds of property attached under a decree obtained fraudulently.

OF ARREST IN EXECUTION OF DECREES FOR MONEY.

266. Any person arrested under a warrant in execution of a decree for money may, on being brought before the Court, apply for his discharge on the ground that he has no present means of paying the debt, either wholly or in part, or, if possessed of any property, that he is willing to place whatever property he possesses at the disposal of the Court. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found, or shall state that, with the exceptions above-mentioned, the applicant is not possessed of any property, and the application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for subscribing and verifying plaints.

On what grounds, application for discharge may be made.

Form of application.

267. Upon such application being made, the Court shall examine the applicant in the presence of the plaintiff or his pleader as to his then circumstances, and as to his future means of payment, and shall call upon the plaintiff to show cause why he does not proceed against any property of which the defendant is possessed and why the defendant should not be discharged ; and should the plaintiff fail to show such cause, the Court may direct the discharge of the defendant from custody. Pending any enquiry which the Court may consider it necessary to make into the allegations of either party, the Court may leave the defendant in the custody of the Officer of the Court to whom the service of the warrant was entrusted, on the defendant making the necessary deposit for paying the fees of such Officer ; or if the defendant furnish good and sufficient security for his appearance at any time when called upon while such enquiry is being made, his surety or sureties undertaking in default of such appearance to pay the amount mentioned in the warrant, the Court may release the defendant on such security.

Procedure on application.

268. The discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section shall not protect him from being arrested again and imprisoned if it should be shown that, in the application made by him, he had been guilty of any concealment or of wilfully making any false statement respecting the property belonging to him, whether in possession or in expectancy or held for him in trust, or had fraudulently concealed, transferred, or removed any property, or had committed any other act of bad faith ; nor shall such discharge exempt from attachment and sale any property then in the possession of the defendant, or of which he may afterwards become possessed.

Defendant liable to be again arrested if proved guilty of fraudulent concealment of property &c.

OF THE EXECUTION OF DECREES BY IMPRISONMENT.

269. When a defendant is committed to prison in execution of a decree, the Court shall fix whatever monthly allowance it shall think sufficient for his subsistence, not exceeding four annas per day, which shall be supplied by the party at whose instance the decree may have been executed, to the proper Officer of the Court, or of the gaol where the defendant may be in custody, by monthly payments in advance, before the 1st day of each month ; the first payment to be made for such portion of the current month as may remain unexpired before the defendant is committed to prison.

Subsistence-money of a defendant in gaol how fixed and furnished.

270. The Court may, in case of illness or for other special cause, fix the monthly allowance at such sum not exceeding six annas per day as shall appear necessary. The order fixing such allowance may from time to time be revised and altered on due cause being shown.

Court may vary the allowance in case of illness or for other special cause.

271. A defendant shall be released at any time on the decree being fully satisfied, or at the request of the person at whose instance he may have been imprisoned, or on such person omitting to pay the allowance as above directed. No person shall be imprisoned on account of a decree for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding five hundred Rupees or for a longer period than three months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Period of imprisonment for debt not to be longer than 2 years.
6 months if decree for money not exceeding 500 Rs.
3 months if not exceeding 50 Rs.

272. Sums disbursed by a plaintiff for the subsistence of a defendant in gaol shall be added to the costs of the decree, and shall be recoverable by the attachment and sale of the property of the defendant under the foregoing rules ; but the defendant shall not be detained in custody or arrested on account of any sums so disbursed.

Subsistence-money to be added to amount of decree.

273. Any person in confinement under a decree may apply to the Court for his discharge. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found ; and such application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints.

Application may be made for discharge on a surrender of the whole of the debtor's property.

274. On such application being made, the Court shall cause the plaintiff to be furnished with a copy of the account of the defendant's property, and shall fix a reasonable period within which the plaintiff may cause the whole or any part of such property to be attached and sold or may make proof that the defendant, for the purpose of procuring his discharge without satisfying the decree, has wilfully concealed property, or his right or interest therein, or fraudulently transferred or removed property, or committed any other act of bad faith. If within such period the plaintiff shall fail to make such proof, the Court shall cause the defendant to be set at liberty. If the plaintiff shall within the time specified or at any subsequent period prove to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been guilty of any of the acts above-mentioned, the Court shall, at the instance of the plaintiff, either retain the defendant in confinement, or commit him to prison, as the case may be, unless he shall have already been in confinement two years on account of the decree; and may also, if it shall think proper, send the defendant to the Magistrate to be dealt with according to law.

Procedure on such application.

Defendant to be discharged on plaintiff failing to prove fraud or concealment by defendant.

If guilty of fraud or concealment, debtor's imprisonment may be extended to two years;

and he may be further dealt with criminally.

275. A defendant once discharged shall not again be imprisoned on account of the same decree except under the operation of the last preceding Section, but his property shall continue liable, under the ordinary rules, to attachment and sale until the decree shall be fully satisfied, unless the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees and on account of a transaction bearing date subsequently to the passing of this Act. When the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees, and on account of a transaction bearing date as above, the Court may declare a defendant who shall be discharged as aforesaid absolved from further liability under that decree.

Though the defendant be discharged, his property is liable for the decree.

276. All questions regarding the amount of any mesne profits which by the terms of the decree may have been reserved for adjustment in the execution of the decree, or of any mesne profits or interest which may be payable in respect of the subject matter of a suit between the date of the institution of the suit and execution of the decree, as well as questions relating to sums alleged to have been paid in discharge or satisfaction of the decree or the like, shall be determined by order of the Court executing the decree and not by separate suit; and the order passed by the Court shall be open to appeal.

How questions regarding amount of mesne profits and interest, and sums paid in satisfaction of decree, are to be determined.

OF THE EXECUTION OF A DECREE OUT OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT BY WHICH IT WAS PASSED.

277. A decree of any Civil Court within any part of the British territories in India, or established by the authority of the Governor General of India in Council in the territories of any Foreign Prince or State, which cannot be executed within the jurisdiction of the Court whose duty it is to execute the same, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other such Court in the manner following.

How a decree of one Court may be executed within the jurisdiction of another Court.

278. The plaintiff in such case may apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, to transmit a copy thereof, together with a certificate that satisfaction of such decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the said Court, and a copy of any order for execution of such decree that may have been passed, to the Court by which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed.

Application for such execution.

279. The Court, unless there be any sufficient reason to the contrary, shall cause such copies and certificate to be prepared; and the same, after being signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court indicated by the applicant if that Court be within the same District, otherwise to the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District in which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed; and the Court to which such copies and certificates are transmitted shall cause the same to be filed therein, without any proof of the judgment or order for execution, or of the copies thereof, or of the seal or jurisdiction of any Court, or of the signature of any Judge, unless it shall, under any peculiar circumstances to be specified in an order, require such proof.

Copy of decree and order for execution to be transmitted.

280. The copy of any decree, or of any order for execution, when filed in the Court to which it shall have been transmitted for the purpose of being executed as aforesaid, shall for such purpose have the same effect as a decree or order for execution made by such Court, and may, if the Court be the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District, be executed by such Court, or any Court subordinate thereto, to which it may entrust the execution of the same.

Decree or order transmitted, to be executed as that of the Court.

281. When application shall be made to any Court to execute the decree of any other Court as aforesaid, the Court to which the application shall be made or referred shall proceed to execute the same according to its own rules in the like cases; provided that such Court shall have no power to enquire into the validity of the decree unless it appear upon the face of the decree that the Court by which it was made had no jurisdiction to make the same.

Execution how to be enforced by Court applied to.

282. The Court to which such application is made or referred for execution as aforesaid, shall take cognizance of and punish all wrongful acts or irregularities done or committed in executing such decree; and all persons disobeying or obstructing the execution of such decree shall be punishable by such Court in the same manner as if the decree had been made by such Court.

Wrongful acts or irregularities in executing decree to be punished by Court applied to.

283. The Court to which such application is made may, upon good and sufficient cause being shown, stay the execution of the decree for a reasonable time, to enable the defendant to apply to the Court by which the decree was passed, or to any Court having appellate jurisdiction in respect of the decree or the execution thereof, for an order to stay the execution, or for any other order relating to the decree or the execution thereof, which such Court of first instance or Court of Appeal might have made if execution had been issued by such Court of first instance, or if application for execution had been made to such Court; and in case the property or person of the defendant shall have been seized under an execution, the Court which issued the execution may order the restitution of the property or the discharge of the person of the defendant pending the result of such application.

Court applied to may in certain cases stay execution or order restitution of property or discharge of defendant.

Before staying execution, Court may require security from, or impose conditions upon defendant.

284. Before making an order to stay execution or for the restitution of property or the discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section, the Court may require such security from or impose such conditions upon the defendant as it may deem reasonable.

Order of Court passing decree or of Appellate Court to be binding upon Court applied to.

285. Any order of the Court in which the decree was passed or of such Court of Appeal as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Court to which the application for execution was made, and shall be a sufficient indemnity for all persons acting in execution of process issued by such last mentioned Court.

Liability of defendant discharged, to be re-taken.

286. No discharge of a defendant under the provisions of Section 283 of this Chapter, shall prevent him from being re-taken in execution of the decree.

What appeal from orders for execution under this Act.

287. All orders of a Court for executing the decree of another Court shall be subject to the same rules, in respect to appeal, as if the decree had been originally passed by the Court making such order.

Warrant of arrest or other process in execution of decrees, how to be enforced in Military Cantonments, &c.

288. If, in execution of a decree, a warrant of arrest or other process is to be enforced within the limits of a Garrison, Cantonment, Military Station, or Military Bazar, the Officer entrusted with the execution of such warrant or other process shall carry the same to the Commanding Officer, or in his absence to the Senior Officer actually present in the Garrison, Cantonment, Station, or Military Bazar; and the Commanding Officer or such Senior Officer, upon such warrant or other process being produced to him, shall back the same with his signature, and, in the case of a warrant of arrest, shall cause the person named in the warrant to be arrested if within the limits of his command and delivered, according to the exigency of the warrant, to the Civil Officer charged with the execution thereof.

Rules contained in this Chapter to be applicable to all Civil process.

289. The rules contained in this Chapter shall be applicable to the execution of any judicial process for the sale of property or for the payment of money which may be ordered by a Civil Court in any Civil proceeding.

CHAPTER V.

Of Pauper Suits.

Suits may be brought in formâ pauperis.

290. A suit may be brought in formâ pauperis in the Court having jurisdiction over the claim, subject to the following rules.

What suits excepted.

291. No pauper suit shall be brought for the recovery of any sum of money on account of damages for loss of caste, slander, abusive language, or assault.

Application to be by petition on stamp paper.

292. The application to the Court for permission to sue in formâ pauperis shall be by petition, which shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of eight annas.

Petition what to contain.

293. The petition shall contain the particulars required by Section 21, Chapter III of this Act, in regard to plaints, and shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the petitioner, with the estimated value thereof, and shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the subscription and verification of plaints.

How to be presented.

294. The petition shall be presented to the Court by the petitioner in person; but if the petitioner satisfy the Court that he is prevented by sickness from attending the Court in person, or if the petitioner be a female, who, according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, the petition may be presented by a duly authorized agent who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the application and who shall be liable to be examined in the same manner as the party represented by him might have been examined had such party attended in person.

Examination of petitioner, if a female, how to be taken.

Petition to be rejected if not in form.

295. If the petition be not framed or presented in the manner laid down in the last two preceding Sections, the Court shall reject the petition.

If in form, Court how to proceed.

296. If the petition be in form and duly presented, the Court shall proceed to examine the petitioner, or the agent of the petitioner as the case may be, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the petitioner.

If presented by an agent, Court may order petitioner to be examined in like manner as an absent witness.

When the petition is presented by an agent, the Court may also, if it think proper, order that the petitioner be examined in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the examination of absent witnesses.

Court may reject the application.

297. If it appear to the Court upon such examination that the defendant, or the matter of the suit, is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the claim is barred by the Statute of Limitations, or that the allegations of the petitioner do not constitute a reasonable ground of action, or (if none of the objections above stated exist) that the petitioner has failed to show that he is not possessed of sufficient means to enable him to pay for the stamps required for the institution and prosecution of the suit, or that the petitioner has recently disposed of any property fraudulently or with a view to obtain the benefit of this Chapter, the Court shall refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Notice to opposite party.

298. If upon such examination the Court shall see no reason to refuse the application on any of the grounds stated in the last preceding Section, it shall fix a day (of which at least ten days' previous notice shall be given to the opposite party) for receiving such evidence as the petitioner may adduce in proof of his pauperism, and for hearing any evidence which the opposite party may bring forward in disproof of the pauperism of the petitioner.

After a summary enquiry, the Court to pass a final order.

299. On the day appointed for the hearing, or as soon after as the business of the Court will permit, the Court shall consider any objections made by the opposite party, and shall examine any witnesses produced by either party and make a memorandum of the substance of their evidence, and shall either allow or refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Court may direct a local enquiry.

300. Previously to passing a final order in the case, the Court may, if it deem fit, institute a local enquiry, in the manner laid down in Section 173, Chapter III of this Act, regarding the property of the petitioner or regarding the amount or value of any property claimed.

Course of proceeding to be observed, if application be admitted.

301. If the application of the petitioner be granted, it shall be numbered and registered and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit shall proceed in all other respects as an ordinary suit, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to any further stamp duty in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader, or other proceeding connected with the suit or with the execution of any decree passed in it.

On the decision of the suit, costs how to be calculated.

302. On the decision of the suit, the Court shall calculate the amount of stamps which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper, and such amount shall be recoverable by Government from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, in the same manner as costs of suit are recoverable.

Refusal to allow to sue as a pauper, to bar any subsequent application of the like nature.

303. The refusal to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature in respect of the same cause of action; but the plaintiff shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the usual manner in respect of such cause of action, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of suits.

No appeals from orders under this Chapter.

304. The orders passed by the Court under the provisions of this Chapter shall not be subject to appeal.

CHAPTER VI.

Reference to Arbitration.

Reference to arbitration on application of the parties.

305. If the parties to a suit are desirous that the matters in difference between them in the suit, or any of such matters, shall be referred to the final decision of one or more arbitrator or arbitrators, they may apply to the Court at any time before final judgment for an order of reference.

Application how to be made.

306. The application shall be made by the parties in person or by their pleaders specially authorized in that behalf by an instrument in writing, which shall be presented to the Court at the time of making the application, and shall be filed with the proceedings in the suit.

Nomination and appointment of arbitrators.

307. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall be nominated by the parties in such manner as may be agreed upon between them. If the parties cannot agree with respect to the nomination of the arbitrator or arbitrators, or if the person or persons nominated by them shall refuse to accept the arbitration, and the parties are desirous that the nomination shall be made by the Court, the Court shall appoint the arbitrator or arbitrators.

Order of reference.

308. The Court shall, by an order under its seal, refer to the arbitrator or arbitrators the matters in difference in the suit which he or they may be required to determine, and shall fix such time as it may think reasonable for the delivery of the award, and the time so fixed shall be specified in the order.

When the reference is to two or more, the order shall provide for difference of opinion.

309. If the reference be to two or more arbitrators, provision shall be made in the order for a difference of opinion among the arbitrators, by the appointment of an umpire, or by declaring that the decision shall be with the majority, or by empowering the arbitrators to appoint an umpire, or otherwise as may be agreed upon between the parties; or if they cannot agree, as the Court may determine.

Powers of arbitrators.

310. When a reference is made to arbitration by an order of Court, the Court shall issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire may desire to have examined, as the Court is authorized to issue in suits tried before it; and persons not attending in consequence of such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their testimony, or being guilty of any contempt to the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire during the investigation of the suit, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court.

Extension of time for making award.

311. When the arbitrator or arbitrators shall not have been able to complete the award within the period specified in the order from the want of the necessary evidence or information or other good and sufficient cause, the Court may from time to time enlarge the period for the delivery of the award, if it shall think proper. In any case in which an umpire shall have been appointed, it shall be lawful for him to enter on the reference in lieu of the arbitrators, if they shall have allowed their time or their extended time to expire without making an award, or shall have delivered to the Court or to the umpire a notice in writing stating that they cannot agree. Provided that an award shall not be liable to be set aside only by reason of its not having been completed within the period allowed by the Court, unless on proof that the delay in completing the award arose from corruption or misconduct of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, or unless the award shall have been made after the issue of an order by the Court superseding the arbitration and recalling the suit.

In case of death, incapacity, or refusal to act of arbitrators or umpire, Court may appoint others in stead.

312. If, in any case of reference to arbitration by an order of Court, the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall die, or refuse or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a new arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, in the place of the person or persons so dying, or refusing or becoming incapable to act. Where the arbitrators are empowered by the terms of the order of reference to appoint an umpire and do not appoint an umpire, any of the parties may serve the arbitrators with a written notice to appoint an umpire ; and if within seven days after such notice shall have been served, no umpire be appointed, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of the party having served such notice as aforesaid, and upon proof to its satisfaction of such notice having been served, to appoint an umpire. In any case of appointment under this Section, the arbitrator or arbitrators, or umpire so appointed, shall have the like power to act in the reference, as if their name or names had been inserted in the original order of reference.

Award how to be submitted to Court.

313. When an award in a suit shall be made, either by the arbitrator or arbitrators, or by the umpire, it shall be submitted to the Court under the signature of the person or persons by whom it may be made, together with all the proceedings, depositions, and exhibits in the suit.

Arbitrator may state special case.

314. It shall be lawful for the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon any reference, by an order of Court, if he or they shall think fit, and if it is not provided to the contrary, to state his or their award as to the whole or any part thereof in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court.

Court may, on application, modify or correct an award in certain cases.

315. The Court may on the application of either party modify or correct an award where it appears that a part of the award is upon matters not referred to the arbitrators, provided such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred ; or where the award is imperfect in form or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision. The Court may also on such application make such order as it thinks just respecting the costs of the arbitration, if any question arise respecting such costs and the award contain no sufficient provision concerning them.

And make order respecting the costs of arbitration.

In what cases Court may remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration, for re-consideration.

316. In any of the following cases the Court shall have power to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration to the re-consideration of the same arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon such terms as it may think proper (that is to say)—

If the award has left undetermined some of the matters referred to arbitration, or if it determines matters not referred to arbitration.

If the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution.

If an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of the award.

Award not to be set aside except on ground of corruption.

Application to set aside the award.

317. No award shall be liable to be set aside except on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators or umpire. Any application to set aside an award shall be made within ten days after the same has been submitted to the Court.

Judgment to be according to the award.

318. If the Court shall not see cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for re-consideration in manner aforesaid, and if no application shall have been made to set aside the award, or if the Court shall have refused such application, the Court shall proceed to pass judgment according to the award or according to its own opinion on the special case if the award shall have been submitted to it in the form of a special case ; and upon the judgment which shall be so given decree shall follow and shall be carried into execution in the same manner as other decrees of the Court. In every case in which judgment shall be given according to the award, the judgment shall be final.

Agreement of parties to refer to arbitration may be filed in Court.

319. When any persons shall by an instrument in writing agree that any differences between them or any of them shall be referred to the arbitration of any person or persons named in the agreement or to be appointed by any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which it relates, application may be made by the parties thereto or any of them that the agreement be filed in such Court. On such application being made, the Court shall direct such notice to be given to any of the parties to the agreement, other than the applicants, as it may think necessary, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the agreement should not be filed. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of one-fourth of the value prescribed for plaints in suits, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between some or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant, if the application have been presented by all the parties or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the agreement, the agreement shall be filed and an order of reference to arbitration shall be made thereon. The several provisions of this Chapter, so far as they are not inconsistent with the terms of any agreement so filed, shall be applicable to all proceedings under an order of reference made by the Court and to the award of arbitration and to the enforcement of such award.

Provisions of this Chapter applicable.

320. When any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of any Court of Justice, and an award has been made, any person interested in the award may within six months from the date of the award make application to the Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the award relates, that the award be filed in Court. The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration other than the applicant, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the award should not be filed. The application shall be written on the stamp paper required for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions by any law for the time being in force, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the award, the award shall be filed and may be enforced as an award made under the provisions of this Chapter.

Filing in Court an award when the matter was referred to arbitration without intervention of Court.

Enforcement of such award.

CHAPTER VII.

OF PROCEEDINGS ON AGREEMENT OF PARTIES.

How questions may be raised for the decision of a Civil Court by any Persons interested.

321. Parties interested or claiming to be interested in the decision of any question of fact or law, may enter into an agreement, which shall be subject to the same stamp duty as prescribed for plaints in suits, that, upon the finding of a Court in the affirmative or negative of such question of fact or law, a sum of money fixed by the parties, or to be determined by the Court, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them; or that some property, moveable or immoveable, specified in the agreement, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them; or that one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act specified in the agreement. Where the agreement is for the delivery of some property moveable or immoveable, or for the doing or performing, or the refraining to do or perform any particular act, the estimated value of the property to be delivered, or to which the act specified may have reference, shall be stated in the agreement.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be raised by agreement for the decision of any Court having jurisdiction.

322. The agreement may be filed in any Court having jurisdiction in the matter, and, when so filed, shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant; and notice shall be given to all the parties to the agreement other than the party or parties by whom it was presented.

Agreement to be filed and numbered as a suit.

323. After the agreement shall have been filed, all the parties to it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, and shall be bound by the statements contained therein.

Parties to be subject to the Court's jurisdiction.

324. The case shall be set down for hearing as an ordinary suit; and if the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, or taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that they have a bonâ fide interest in the question of fact or law stated therein, and that the same is fit to be tried or decided, it shall proceed to record and try, or hear the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon, in the same way as in an ordinary suit; and shall, upon its finding or deciding upon the question of fact or law, give judgment for the sum fixed by the parties, or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise, according to the terms of the agreement, and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

Hearing and disposal of the case.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of Appeals.

325. Except when otherwise expressly provided in this or any other Regulation or Act for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie from the decrees of the Courts of original jurisdiction to the Courts authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of those Courts.

Appeal to lie from all decrees except when expressly prohibited.

How Appeals are to be preferred.

326. Appeals shall be made in the form of a memorandum which shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period hereinafter specified, unless the appellant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Appellate Court for not having presented it within such limited period; that is to say, within thirty days if the appeal be to a District Court, and within ninety days if the appeal be to the Sudder Court. The days shall be reckoned from and exclusive of the day on which judgment was pronounced, and also exclusive of such time as may be requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree appealed against.

Appeal to be preferred by a memorandum to be filed within specified time.

What the memorandum is to contain.

327. The memorandum of appeal shall set forth concisely, and under distinct heads, the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against, without any argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The appellant shall not, without the leave of the Court urge or be heard in support of any other ground of objection, but the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the appellant.

Form of memorandum.

328. The memorandum of appeal shall be in the following form, or to the following effect, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the decree appealed against—

Memorandum of Appeal.

(Name, &c. as in Register.) Plaintiff.
(Name, &c. as in Register.) Defendant.

[Name of Appellant] Plaintiff [or Defendant] above-named appeals to the Sudder Court at [or Zillah Court at as the case may be], against the decree of in the above suit, dated the day of ; for the following reasons, namely, [here state the reasons].

If memorandum be not in form or duly presented.

329. If the memorandum be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. If the memorandum be not presented within the prescribed period and no sufficient cause be shown for the delay, the appeal shall be rejected.

One of several plaintiffs or defendants may appeal and obtain a reversal of the whole decree if it proceed on a ground common to all.

330. If there be two or more plaintiffs or two or more defendants in a suit, and the decision of the Lower Court proceed on any ground common to all, any one of the plaintiffs or defendants may appeal against the whole decree, and the Appellate Court may reverse or modify the decree in favor of all the plaintiffs or defendants.

OF STAYING AND EXECUTING DECREES UNDER APPEAL.

Execution of decree not to be stayed by appeal. If sufficient cause be shown, execution may be stayed.

331. Execution of a decree shall not be stayed by reason only of an appeal having been preferred against such decree; but the Appellate Court may, for sufficient cause shown, order that execution be stayed. If application for execution be made before the time allowed for appeal has expired, and the Lower Court has not received intimation of an appeal having been preferred, the Lower Court, if sufficient cause be shown, may stay the execution. Before making an order to stay execution, the Court making the order shall require security to be given by the party against whom the decree was passed for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

Court, before making order to stay execution, shall require security for due performance of decree or order of Appellate Court.

Court making an order for execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, may require security for restitution of property, &c.

332. When an order is made for the execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, it shall be lawful for the Court which pronounced the decree to require security to be given for the restitution of any property which may be taken in execution of the decree or of the value thereof, and for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

No such security to be required from Government or any Public Officer.

333. In suits instituted or defended under the authority and at the expense of Government, no such security as is mentioned in the last two preceding Sections shall in any case be required from Government or from any public Officer.

OF PROCEDURE IN APPEALS FROM FINAL DECREES.

How the appeal is to be entered.

334. When a memorandum of appeal is presented in the prescribed form and within the time allowed, the Appellate Court, or the proper Officer of that Court, shall endorse thereon the date of presentment, and shall register the appeal in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Appeals. Such Register shall be in the form contained in the Schedule (C) hereunto annexed.

Form of the Register.

Appellate Court may, at its discretion, require security for costs from appellant.

Proviso.

335. It shall be in the discretion of the Appellate Court to demand security for costs from the appellant or not, as it shall see fit, before the respondent is called upon to appear and answer. Provided that the Court shall demand such security in all cases in which the appellant is residing out of the British Territories in India and is not possessed of any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property to which the appeal relates; and in the event of such security not being furnished at the time of presenting the memorandum of appeal or within such time as the Court shall order, the Court shall reject the appeal.

Appellate Court to send intimation to Lower Court of appeal being registered.

Lower Court to transmit papers to Appellate Court.

336. When the memorandum of appeal has been registered, the Appellate Court shall send intimation thereof to the Lower Court. If the appeal be from a Court the records of which are not deposited in the Appellate Court, the Lower Court shall, upon the receipt of the intimation, transmit to the Appellate Court with all practicable despatch all material papers in the suit, or such papers as may be specially called for by the Appellate Court. Either party may give notice in writing to the Lower Court specifying any exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court, and copies of such exhibits shall be prepared at the expense of the party giving the notice and shall be deposited in the Lower Court.

Either party may give notice of exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court.

337. A day shall be fixed by the Appellate Court for the hearing of the appeal. The day shall be so fixed, with reference to the place of residence of the respondent and the time necessary for the service of the notice of appeal, as to allow the respondent a sufficient time to enable him to appear in person or by a pleader on such day.

Day for hearing the appeal, how to be fixed.

338. Notice of the day which has been fixed for hearing the appeal shall be affixed in the Appellate Court, and a like notice shall be sent by the Appellate Court to the Lower Court and shall be served on the respondent in the same way as hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons to a defendant to appear and answer, and all rules applicable to such summons and to proceedings with reference to the service thereof, shall apply to the service of such notice. The notice to the respondent shall contain an intimation that, if he does not appear in the Appellate Court on the day so fixed for the hearing of the appeal, the case will be heard and decided ex parte in his absence. Provided that, if the respondent has appointed a pleader to appear in his behalf in the Appellate Court, the service of the notice on such pleader shall be sufficient.

Publication and service of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal.

Form of notice.

339. If on the day fixed for hearing the appeal or any other day subsequent thereto to which the hearing of the appeal may be adjourned, the appellant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be dismissed for default. If the appellant shall appear in person or by a pleader and the respondent shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be heard ex parte in his absence.

Consequence of non-appearance.

340. If an appeal be dismissed for default of prosecution, the appellant may, within thirty days from the date of the dismissal, apply to the Appellate Court for the re-admission of the appeal; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the appellant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court may re-admit the appeal.

Re-admission of appeals dismissed for default of prosecution.

341. Upon the hearing of the appeal, the respondent may take any objection to the decision of the Lower Court which he might have taken if he had preferred a separate appeal from such decision.

In appeal, respondent may take any objection to decision of Lower Court.

342. The Appellate Court, after hearing the appeal, shall proceed to give its judgment in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for giving judgment in Courts of original diction.

343. The judgment may be for confirming or reversing or modifying the decree of the Lower Court. But no decree shall be reversed or modified nor shall any case be remanded to the Lower Court on account of any error, defect, or irregularity either in the decision or in any interlocutory order passed in the suit not affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court.

No decision to be reversed for irregularity.

344. If the Lower Court shall have disposed of the case upon any preliminary point so as to exclude any evidence of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the rights of the parties, and the decree of the Lower Court upon such preliminary point shall be reversed by the decree in appeal, the Appellate Court may, if it think right, remand the case, together with a copy of the decree in appeal, to the Lower Court, with directions to restore the suit to its original number in the Register and proceed to investigate the merits of the case, and pass a decree therein.

When a case may be remanded by Appellate Court.

345. It shall not be competent to the Appellate Court to remand a case for a second decision by the Lower Court except as provided in the last preceding Section.

Power to remand limited as above.

346. When the evidence upon the record of the Lower Court is sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, the Appellate Court shall finally determine the case, notwithstanding that the judgment of the Lower Court has proceeded wholly upon some other ground.

When the Appellate Court may dispose of a case though the Lower Court has decided on other grounds.

347. If the Lower Court shall have omitted to raise or try any issue or to determine any question of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the right determination of the suit upon the merits, and the evidence upon the record is not sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to determine such issue or question of fact, the Appellate Court may frame an issue or issues for trial by the Lower Court and may refer the same to the Lower Court for trial. Thereupon the Lower Court shall proceed to try such issue or issues and shall return to the Appellate Court its finding thereon together with the evidence. Such finding and evidence shall become part of the record in the suit; and either party may, within a time to be fixed by the Appellate Court, file a memorandum of any objection to the finding; and after the expiration of the period so fixed, the Appellate Court shall proceed to determine the appeal.

Trial of issues by Lower Court on reference from Appellate Court.

348. It shall not be competent to the parties in an appeal to produce additional evidence in the Appellate Court, whether of exhibits or witnesses; but if it appear that the Lower Court refused to admit competent evidence, or if the Appellate Court require any exhibits to be produced or witnesses examined to enable it to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, or for any other substantial cause, the Appellate Court may allow additional exhibits to be received and any necessary witnesses to be examined, whether such witnesses shall have been previously examined in the Court below or not; provided that, whenever additional evidence is admitted by an Appellate Court, the reasons for the admission shall be recorded on the proceedings of such Court.

How additional evidence is to be taken.

349. Whenever additional evidence is permitted to be received, it shall be competent to the Appellate Court to take such evidence before itself, or to require the Lower or any other Court or to empower any person to take such evidence, and to transmit the evidence so taken to the Appellate Court. It shall also be competent to the Appellate Court to prescribe the manner in which such evidence shall be taken.

Points to be defined.

350. In all cases where additional evidence is permitted to be taken, the Appellate Court shall define the point or points to which the evidence is to be confined, and record the same on its proceedings.

Powers of Appellate Court.

351. The Appellate Court shall have all the like powers in regard to the granting of time, adjourning the hearing of the suit, examining the parties or their pleaders, and awarding costs, or otherwise, as are hereinbefore contained in regard to Courts of original jurisdiction.

How the judgment of the Appellate Court is to be delivered. In what language it is to be written.

352. The judgment of the Appellate Court shall be pronounced in open Court. It shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge or by the Judges concurring therein at the time of pronouncing it. The judgment shall be written in the English language; but if the Judge shall not be able to write an intelligible judgment in that language, the judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. When the language in which the judgment is written is not the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, the judgment shall be translated into such language, and the translation shall be signed by the Judge or Judges. Any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court shall state his opinion in writing, which shall form part of the record.

What the decree is to contain.

353. The decree of the Appellate Court shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and description of the parties appellant and respondent, and the memorandum of appeal, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the appeal. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the appeal, and by what parties and in what proportions such costs and the costs in the original suit are to be paid. The decree shall be signed by the Judge or Judges who passed it, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court. If there be a difference of opinion among the Judges of the Court, it shall not be necessary for any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court to sign the decree, but the opinion of such Judge shall be recited in the decree. Certified copies of the decree shall be furnished to the parties in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in regard to the decrees of Courts of original jurisdiction.

A certified copy of the decree to be transmitted to the Lower Court.

354. A copy of the decree or other order disposing of the appeal, certified by the Appellate Court or the proper Officer of such Court, and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit appealed from, and shall be filed with the original proceedings in the suit, and an entry of the judgment of the Appellate Court shall be made in the original Register of the suit.

How to be executed.

355. Application for execution of the decree of an Appellate Court shall be made to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit, and shall be executed by that Court, in the manner and according to the rules hereinbefore contained for the execution of original decrees.

Appeals from Orders.

No appeal from order passed before decree, but error or defect therein may be set forth as an objection if the decree be appealed against.

356. No appeal shall lie from any order passed in the course of a suit and relating thereto prior to decree; but if the decree be appealed against, any error, defect, or irregularity in any such order affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court, may be set forth as a ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal.

No appeal from orders passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as provided.

357. No appeal shall lie from any order passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as is hereinbefore expressly provided.

Appeal from orders as to fines or imprisonment.

358. All orders as to fines or the levying thereof or as to imprisonment under this Act (except when the imprisonment is in execution of a decree) shall be subject to appeal.

Procedure in appeals from orders.

359. When an appeal from any order is allowed, the procedure shall be in all respects the same as in an appeal from a decree.

CHAPTER IX.

Of Appeals in Forma Pauperis.

Who may appeal as pauper.

360. Any party to a suit who may be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of an appeal from the decision passed therein, may be allowed to appeal as a pauper from such decision subject to all the rules contained in the last preceding Chapter and in Chapter V in so far as they are applicable.

Application to whom and when to be presented.

361. The application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of one Rupee if the appeal lie to the Zillah Court, and on a stamp paper of the value of two Rupees if the appeal lie to the Sudder Court, and shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period allowed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal.

Form of application.

362. The application shall contain the particulars required to be set forth in the memorandum of appeal and shall be drawn up in the like manner. It shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the applicant with the estimated value thereof, and shall also be accompanied by copies of the judgment and decree from which the appeal is made.

Procedure.

363. If the Appellate Court, upon a perusal of the application and of the judgment and decree of the Court below, shall see no reason to think that the decision of that Court is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law or is otherwise erroneous or unjust, it shall reject the application. If the application be not rejected upon any of the grounds above-mentioned, enquiry shall be made into the alleged pauperism of the applicant, and such enquiry may be conducted either by the Appellate Court or by the Court from whose decision the appeal is made under the orders of the Appellate Court. Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue in formâ pauperis in the Court below, no further enquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary, unless the Appellate Court shall see special cause to direct such enquiry.

Effect of order by Appellate Court.

364. The order passed by the Appellate Court on an application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis, whether for the admission or rejection of the application, shall be final ; but, if the application be rejected, the Appellate Court may, if it think proper, allow the applicant a reasonable time for preferring an appeal on a stamp of the value prescribed for appeals from decrees.

CHAPTER X.

Of Special Appeals.

Special appeals allowed on what grounds.

365. A special appeal shall lie to the Sudder Court from all decisions passed in regular appeal by the Courts subordinate to the Sudder Court, on the ground of the decision being contrary to some law or usage having the force of law, or of a substantial error or defect in law in the procedure or investigation of the case, which may have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon the merits, and on no other ground.

Application how to be presented and written.

366. The application for the admission of a special appeal shall be presented in the Sudder Court within the period prescribed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal, and shall be accompanied by copies of the judgments and decrees of the Lower Appellate Court and of the Court of first instance. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular appeals; but if the applicant be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of the appeal, the Sudder Court may admit him to appeal as a pauper subject to all the rules contained in Chapter IX in respect to appeals from decrees in formâ pauperis in so far as the same may be applicable.

Form of application.

367. The application shall set forth concisely the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against without argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The applicant shall not, without the leave of the Court, be heard in support of any other ground of objection; but the determination of the Court may be upon any ground on which a special appeal would lie.

Application how to be dealt with.

368. If the application be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. When the application is correctly drawn up, it shall be registered in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be in the form contained in the Schedule D. hereunto annexed, and the case shall proceed in all other respects as a regular appeal, and shall be subject to all the rules hereinbefore provided for such appeals so far as the same may be applicable.

CHAPTER XI.

Review of Judgment

Cases in which a party may apply for a review of judgment.

369. Any person considering himself aggrieved by a decree of a Court of original jurisdiction, from which no appeal shall have been preferred to a Superior Court—or by a decree of a District Court in appeal, from which no special appeal shall have been admitted by the Sudder Court—or by a decree of the Sudder Court from which either no appeal may have been preferred to Her Majesty in Council, or an appeal having been preferred, no proceedings in the suit have been transmitted to Her Majesty in Council—and who, from the discovery of new matter or evidence which was not within his knowledge, or could not be adduced by him at the time when such decree was passed, or from any other good and sufficient reason, may be desirous of obtaining a review of the judgment passed against him—may apply for a review of judgment by the Court which passed the decree.

Within what time and on what paper the application should be made.

370. The application shall be made within ninety days from the date of the decree, unless the party preferring the same shall be able to show just and reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of the Court, for not having preferred such application within the limited period. If the application be made within the period above-mentioned, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required ; but if made after the expiration of that period, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for plaints.

The order of the Court for granting or refusing the review is final.

371. If the Court shall be of opinion that there are not any sufficient grounds for a review, it shall reject the application, but if it shall be of opinion that the review desired is necessary to correct an evident error or omission, or is otherwise requisite for the ends of justice, the Court shall grant the review, and its order in either case, whether for rejecting the application or granting the review, shall be final.

372. Provided that, if the Court to which the application for a review of its judgment has been presented be a Court consisting of two or more Judges, whenever the Judge or Judges who may have passed the decree, or if the decree have been passed by two or more Judges, when any of such Judges shall continue attached to the Court at the time when the application for a review is presented, and shall not be precluded by absence or other cause, for a period of six months after the application, from considering the judgment to which the application refers, it shall not be competent to any other Judge or Judges of the same Court to enter upon a consideration of the merits of the application, and record an order or opinion thereon.

Application for a review in the Sudder Court must be made to the Judge or Judges that passed the decree.

373. When an application for a review of judgment may be granted, the Court shall give such order, in regard to the summoning of the opposite party and hearing of the suit, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Whenever a review is granted, the parties are to be summoned.

CHAPTER XII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

374. The Sudder Court shall have power to make and issue general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Subordinate Civil Courts, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the said Courts for which it shall think necessary that a form be provided, and for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Officers, and from time to time to alter any such rule or form; provided that such rules and forms be not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law in force.

Powers of the Sudder Court in making rules of practice and framing forms, &c., for the Subordinate Civil Courts.

375. Except so far as relates to the examination of witnesses under a Commission and to the execution of decrees out of the jurisdiction of the Courts by which they were passed, this Act shall not extend to any suit instituted in any Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter or in any Court for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

Act not to extend, except in certain cases, to Supreme and Small Cause Courts in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

376. Nothing in this Act shall be held to alter or affect the jurisdiction or procedure in Civil cases of Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code; or the jurisdiction or procedure of Military Courts of Request; or the jurisdiction or procedure of a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars at Cantonments and Stations occupied by the Troops of those Presidencies respectively; or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Saving of jurisdiction and procedure of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—

of Military Courts of Request—

of single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

377. Nothing in this Act shall be held to affect the jurisdiction exercised by certain Jagheerdars and other authorities invested with powers under the provisions of Regulation XIII. 1830 of the Bombay Code and Act XV of 1840, or their procedure in the exercise of such jurisdiction; or to affect suits instituted under Regulation XI. 1816 of the Bengal Code, or cases of the nature defined in Regulation XXIX. 1827, Regulation VII. 1830, Regulations I and XVI. 1831 of the Bombay Code, Act XIX of 1835, and Act XIII of 1842, except that such suits and cases and the regular and special appeals to the Civil Courts allowed therein, shall be received, heard, and determined under the rules laid down in this Act, unless where those rules are inconsistent with any specific provisions contained in the Regulations and Acts above quoted.

Saving of certain special or local Laws.

378. This Act shall not take effect in any part of the territories not subject to the general Regulations of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, until the same shall be extended thereto by the Governor General of India in Council or by the Local Government to which such territory is subordinate, and notified in the Gazette.

Act not to take effect in places not subject to the general Regulations until extended thereto.

379. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

Interpretation.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 30TH OCTOBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 5th October 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 30th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1858.

An Act to continue certain Privileges and Immunities to the Family and Retainers of His late Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the exemption from the jurisdiction of the Civil and Criminal Courts, enjoyed by the said late Nabob, his family, and servants, by virtue of the provisions of Act I of 1844, ceased at the death of the said late Nabob; and it is deemed expedient that some of the said persons should continue to be privileged, and that the privilege enjoyed by others should be continued as respects all acts done by them prior to the commencement of this Act; It is enacted as follows:—

No action to be commenced or prosecuted, and no process to issue against any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob mentioned in Schedule A, unless with the consent of the Governor in Council.

I. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family of the late Nabob, whose names are entered in Schedule A attached to this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Nor against any of the Members of his family or any of his retainers mentioned in Schedules B and C, without a like consent.

II. No action shall be commenced or prosecuted, and no writ or process shall be sued forth against the person, goods, or property of any of the Members of the family or of the retainers of the late Nabob, who were protected from the process of the Civil and Criminal Courts by Act I of 1844, and whose names are entered in Schedules B and C annexed to this Act, on account of any contract which shall have been entered into, or cause of action which shall have accrued, at a time preceding the commencement of this Act, unless such action shall be commenced, or such writ or process shall be sued forth, with the consent of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George first had and obtained, such consent to be certified by the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government; and any action which shall at any time be commenced, and any writ or process which shall at any time be sued forth, in respect of any such contract or cause of action, against the person, goods, or property of any such person as aforesaid, without such consent as aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, shall be utterly null and void.

Commencement of Act.

III. This Act shall commence and take effect from the expiration of Act XXIV of 1858.

FROM THE GAZETTE, GOVERNOR GENERAL'S CAMP.

Allahabad, November 5, 1858.

Notifications.

No. 500.

Home Department,

Allahabad, the 5th November 1858.

The Proclamation of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, to the Princes, Chiefs, and People of India, was publicly read, in the English and Hindoostanee Languages, on the glacis of the Allahabad Fort, on Monday, the 1st Instant, in the presence of the Civil and Military Officers of Her Majesty's Service, of the European Residents of the Station, and numerous Native Inhabitants of the City.

All the English and Native Troops in the Garrison were present on the occasion and drawn up on the glacis of the Fort.

At 5. P. M., the Right Hon'ble the Viceroy and Governor General of India, attended by his Personal Staff, and accompanied by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Forces in India and his Staff, was met on the glacis of the Fort by the Chief Civil and Military Officers at Allahabad. Seats were arranged for the Members of the European Community, and provision was made for the suitable accommodation of the Native Officers of the Government, and the Inhabitants of the City who were all invited to attend.

On the arrival of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, the Troops presented Arms.

The Proclamation was then read by the Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor General, first in the English, and then in the Hindoostanee Language. On the conclusion of the Proclamation a Royal Salute was fired from the Ramparts of the Fort, and the Troops presented Arms.

In the evening there was an exhibition of Fireworks, and on the following night there was a general Illumination of the Station and City of Allahabad and of the Khusroo Bagh.

God save the Queen.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General directs the publication of the subjoined Despatch from the Hon'ble Court of Directors, and of a Resolution passed by a General Court of the East India Company, on the 30th of August last.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

No. 147 of 1858.

Our Governor General of India in Council.

We have the satisfaction of transmitting to you, for promulgation in such manner as you may consider suitable, the copy of a Resolution unanimously passed by the General Court of the East India Company, held on the 30th ultimo, expressing the thanks of the Court to the Servants and Officers of the Company "of every rank, and in every capacity."

We are, &c.,

(Signed) F. Currie.
„ W. J. Eastwick.

1st September 1858.

Countersigned in accordance with 16 and 17 Vict. Cap. 95, Sec. 2.

J. D. Dickenson,
Secretary.

Extract Minutes of a Special General Court of the East India Company, held at their House in Leadenhall Street, on Monday, the 30th August 1858.

A Proprietor adverting to the fact of this being the last occasion of the Meeting of the General Court before the severance of the Connection of the East India Company with the Government of India, and moving the Court, it was

Resolved Unanimously,—That the East India Company on surrendering at the bidding of Parliament, those powers connected with the Government of the British Territories in India, which it has long exercised as Trustee for the Crown, desires to return its warmest thanks to its Servants and Officers of every rank, and in every capacity, for the fidelity, zeal and efficiency with which they have performed their several duties, and offers to them its best wishes for their future prosperity.

To those who are Natives of India, the East India Company has the satisfaction of being able to give the fullest assurance, that in Her Majesty Queen Victoria, they will find a most Gracious Mistress, not unmindful of their past services under that authority which has hitherto had the honor of representing British Sovereignty in India, and and ever ready to reward loyalty to the British Crown.

The East India Company is convinced that the Members of the Home Department of the Company's Government will maintain the high reputation which that Department now enjoys, and will continue when enrolled in the direct service of the Crown, to command the esteem and confidence of their Official Chiefs and of the Public.

Of its Fellow-Countrymen employed in India, under the Company's Government, whether as Civilians or Soldiers, of those especially whose duty has recently subjected them to trials of unexampled severity, and who have done their duty so admirably as to win for them the praise and sympathy of their Sovereign and their Country, the East India Company is proud to say, that their past conduct affords the strongest security, that the Crown will possess no servants abler, none more devoted, than those who have been trained by the Company, and without in any manner arrogating to itself what is due to men, some of whose names are honored in every region of the civilized World, the East India Company trusts that in the page of impartial history, it may be recorded as having presented in the career which it has opened both to the Members of its own Civil and Military Services, and to the gallant Troops of Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors, a field for the exercise of the highest qualities of the Statesman and the Soldier.

In the humble hope, that the Company's rule will prove to have been in the hand of Divine Providence an instrument of good, and even of the highest good to India, the East India Company earnestly prays, that it may please Almighty God to bless the Queen's Indian Reign by the speedy restoration of peace, security, and order, and so to prosper Her Majesty's efforts for the welfare of Her East Indian subjects, that the millions who will henceforth be placed under Her Majesty's direct, as well as Sovereign dominion, constantly advancing in all that makes men and nations great, flourishing and happy, may reward Her Majesty's cares in their behalf by their faithful and firm attachment to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General, speaking not only for the Government of India, but for all of every Class who have acted under that Government, desires to record an assurance of the respectful thankfulness with which these parting words of good-will and approval will be received by the vast community of the Indian Civil and Military Services.

The Governor General is satisfied, that amongst all, there is but one common feeling of acknowledgment of the just, considerate, and liberal treatment, which has ever characterized the Great Company which has now ceased to govern the British Territories in India.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General,

perty in suit is situate, but in such case the Court in which the suit is brought shall apply to the Sudder Court for authority to proceed with the same; if the suit is brought in any Court subordinate to a District Court, the application shall be submitted through the District Court to which such Court is subordinate.

Suits for immoveable property situate in Districts subject to different Sudder Courts.

8. If the Districts within the limits of which the property is situate, are subject to different Sudder Courts, the application shall be submitted to the Sudder Court to which the District, in which the suit is brought, is subject; and the Sudder Court to which such application is made, may, with the concurrence of the Sudder Court to which the other District is subject, give authority to proceed with the same.

Suit for land alleged by the defendant to be situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court.

9. If, in a suit for land situate on the borders of the Court's local jurisdiction, the defendant object to the hearing of the suit on the ground that the land is not included within the local jurisdiction of the Court, the Court shall have power to determine the point; and if the Court shall find that the land is included within its local jurisdiction, it shall proceed to try the suit. Provided that, if it be shown that the land in dispute has been adjudged by competent authority to belong to an estate, village, or other known division of land situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court, the Court in which the suit is brought shall reject the plaint, or return it to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Declaratory suit.

10. No suit shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Civil Courts to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

By whom judicial decisions may be revised.

11. The decisions of the Civil Courts shall be subject to revision only by those Courts under the rules applicable to reviews of judgment contained in this Act, or by the constituted Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction.

CHAPTER II.

Preliminary Rules.

Parties may appear in person or by recognized agent or by pleader.

12. All applications to any Civil Court, and all appearances of parties in any Civil Court, except when otherwise specially provided by this Act, shall be made by the party in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

Recognized Agents.

13. The recognized agents of parties by whom such applications and appearances may be made are—

Persons holding powers of attorney.

1*st*. Persons holding general powers of attorney from parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court, authorizing them to make such applications and appearances on behalf of such parties.

Persons carrying on trade or business for absent parties.

2*ndly*. Persons carrying on trade or business for and in the name of parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make such applications or appearances.

Persons authorized to act for Government.

3*rdly*. Persons being ex-officio or otherwise authorized to act for Government in respect of any suit or judicial proceeding.

Persons specially appointed to prosecute a suit for any Sovereign Prince.

4*thly*. Persons specially appointed by order of Government at the request of any Sovereign Prince, or Independent Chief, whether residing within or without the British Territories, to prosecute or defend a suit on his behalf.

Acts required to be done by a party to a suit in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Whenever the personal appearance of a party to a suit is required by this Act, such appearance may be made by his recognized agent, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be done by a party in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Service of notices on recognized agents.

Notices given to or processes served on a recognized agent relative to a suit shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and all the provisions of this Act relative to the service of notices or processes on a party to a suit shall be applicable to the service of notices and processes on such recognized agent.

Appointment of Pleader.

14. The appointment of a pleader to make any such application or appearance as aforesaid shall be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, it shall be considered to be in full force until revoked by a writing filed in the Court. All notices given to, or processes served on the pleader of any party, or left at the office or ordinary residence of such pleader, relative to a suit, and whether the same be for the personal attendance of the party or not, shall be presumed to be duly communicated and made known to the party whom the pleader represents, and shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Service of notices on Pleaders.

Officers or Soldiers who cannot obtain leave of absence may authorize any person to appear for them.

15. When an Officer or Soldier in the service of the Government is a party to a suit, and cannot obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person, he may authorize any member of his family or any other person to commence, conduct, and manage the suit or the defence, as the case may be, in his stead.

The authority shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the Officer or Soldier in the presence of his Commanding Officer, who shall countersign the same, and it shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, the counter-signature of the Commanding Officer shall be sufficient proof that the authority was duly executed, and that the Officer or Soldier by whom it was granted could not obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person.

The person so authorized may appear personally, or appoint pleader.

16. Any person who may be authorized, as in the last preceding Section mentioned, by an Officer or Soldier to prosecute or defend a suit in his stead, shall be competent to prosecute or defend it in person in the same manner as the Officer or Soldier could do if present; or he may appoint a pleader of the Court to prosecute or defend the suit on behalf of such Officer or Soldier. And all notices or processes relative to the suit which may be served upon any person who shall be so authorized as aforesaid by an Officer or Soldier, or upon any pleader who shall be appointed as aforesaid by such person to act for or on behalf of such Officer or Soldier, shall be as effectual for all purposes relative to the suit as if the same had been served on the party in person or on a pleader appointed by him.

Exemption of certain women from personal appearance.

17. Women, who according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, shall be exempt from personal appearance in Court.

Government may exempt certain persons from personal appearance.

18. The Government may at its discretion exempt from personal appearance in Court any person whose rank in the opinion of the Government entitles him to the privilege of exemption, and may at its discretion withdraw such privilege. The names of the persons so exempted (if any) residing within the jurisdiction of the Principal Civil Court of each District shall from time to time be forwarded to such Court by the local Government, and a list of such persons (if any) shall be kept in such Court and in the several subordinate Courts of the District.

Cost of serving process.

Requisite sum to be paid into Court before process issued.

19. Every process required to be issued under this Act, shall be served at the expense of the party at whose instance it is issued, unless otherwise specially directed by the Court; and the sum required to defray the cost of such service shall be paid into Court before the process is issued.

CHAPTER III.

OF A SUIT TILL FINAL DECREE.

Of the Institution of Suits.

Suits to be commenced by plaint.

20. All suits shall be commenced by a plaint which, except when otherwise specially provided by this Act, shall be presented to the Court by the plaintiff in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

Particulars to be given in the plaint.

21. The plaint shall be distinctly written in the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, and shall contain the following particulars:—

1*st*.—The name, description, and place of abode of the plaintiff.

2*ndly*.—The name, description, and place of abode of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained.

5*thly*.—When the claim is for land or for any interest in land, the nature of the tenure or interest must be specified; and if the claim be for land forming part of a village or other known division, or for a house, garden, or the like, its situation shall be described by the setting forth of boundaries, or in such other manner as may suffice for its identification.

6thly.—In all suits by or against the Government, or one of its Officers in his official capacity, or any Corporation, or any Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the words "The Government," or "The Collector. of ," or otherwise as the case may be, or the name of the Corporation, or the name or names of the Officer of Trustees of the Company, shall be inserted in Nos. 1*stly* and 2*ndly*, instead of the name and description of the plaintiff or defendant. But in all other cases it shall be necessary to specify the names of all the parties.

Plaint to be subscribed and verified.

22. The plaint shall be subscribed by the plaintiff and his pleader (if any), and shall be verified at the foot by the plaintiff in the manner following or to the like effect:—

I (A. B.) the plaintiff named in the above plaint do declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my information and belief.

If plaintiff by reason of absence be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint.

23. If the plaintiff, by reason of absence or for other good cause, be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint, the Court may allow the plaint to be subscribed and verified on behalf of the plaintiff by any person whom the Court may consider competent to make the verification. In suits by a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the plaint shall be subscribed and verified on behalf of the Corporation or Company by any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to depose to the facts of the case.

In suits by a Corporation or Company, a Director or Secretary shall verify the plaint.

Court may reject plaint, if it do not contain the required particulars, &c.

24. If the plaint do not contain the several particulars hereinbefore required to be specified therein, or if it contain particulars other than those required to be specified whether relevant to the suit or not, or if the statement of particulars be unnecessarily prolix, or if the plaint be not subscribed and verified as hereinbefore required, the Court may reject the plaint, or at its discretion may allow the plaint to be amended.

Plaint to be returned, if the claim is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

25. If the amount or estimated value of the claim, as stated by the plaintiff, be beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaint shall be returned to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Plaint to be rejected, if improperly or insufficiently valued.

26. If it appear to the Court that the claim is improperly valued, or being properly valued that the plaint is written upon stamped paper of inadequate value, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct such improper valuation or to supply such additional stamp paper as may be necessary, shall not comply with the requisition, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Plaint to be rejected, if it appear to the Court that plaintiff has no cause of action or that right of action is barred by lapse of time.

27. If upon the face of the plaint, or after questioning the plaintiff, it appear to the Court that the subject matter of the plaint does not constitute a cause of action, or that the right of action is barred by lapse of time, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Amendment of plaint.

Provided that the Court may in any case allow the plaint to be amended, if it appear proper to do so.

Plaint to be returned, if it appear to the Court that it has not jurisdiction.

28. If it appear to the Court that the cause of action did not arise, or that the defendant is not dwelling or personally working for gain within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or, if the claim relate to land or other immoveable property, that such land or other property is not situate within such limits, the Court shall return the plaint to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Security for costs to be furnished by plaintiff, if residing out of the British territories in India.

29. A suit by a party residing out of the British territories in India, and not possessing any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property in suit, shall not be entertained unless the plaintiff, at the time of presenting the plaint or within such time as the Court shall order, furnish security for the payment of all costs that may be incurred by the defendant in the suit.

Plaint to be rejected if security be not furnished.

In the event of such security not being furnished, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Appeal from order rejecting plaint.

30. Whenever a plaint is rejected under any of the foregoing Sections, an appeal shall lie from the order rejecting the plaint.

Proceeding in a suit for immoveable property in different jurisdictions.

31. If the suit be for land or other immoveable property situate partly within the jurisdiction of the Court and partly within the jurisdiction of some other Court or Courts, the Court shall proceed according to the rules contained in Section 5, Section 6, or Section 7 of Chapter I as the case may be.

When the plaint is admissible, particulars to be entered in a Register.

32. If the Court consider the plaint admissible, the particulars mentioned in Section 21 of this Chapter shall be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Civil Suits; and the entries shall be numbered in every year according to the order in which the plaint is presented. The Register shall be kept in the form contained in the Schedule A hereunto annexed.

Form of the Register.

Written document to be produced in Court when plaint is presented.

33. When the plaintiff sues upon any written document or relies upon any such document as evidence in support of his claim, he shall produce the same in Court when the plaint is presented, and shall at the same time deliver a copy of the document to be filed with the plaint; if the document be an entry in a shop-book or other book, the plaintiff shall produce the book to the

And copy filed with plaint.

Court together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The Court shall forthwith mark the document for the purpose of identification; and after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the document to the plaintiff. The plaintiff may, if he think proper, deliver the original document to be filed instead of the copy. The Court may, if it see sufficient cause, direct any written document so produced to be impounded and kept in the custody of some Officer of the Court, for such period and subject to such conditions as to the Court shall seem meet. Any document not produced in Court by the plaintiff when the plaint is presented, shall not be received in evidence on his behalf at the hearing of the suit without the sanction of the Court.

Original to be marked and returned.

If plaintiff wish, original may be filed instead of copy.

Court may order document to be impounded.

Document not produced when plaint filed, to be inadmissible in evidence.

34. If the plaintiff require the production of any written document in the possession or power of the defendant, he may, at the time of presenting the plaint, deliver to the Court a description of the document, in order that the defendant may be required to produce the same.

If plaintiff require production of document in possession of defendant.

Of Summoning the Defendant.

35. When the plaint has been registered, a summons under the signature of the Judge and the seal of the Court shall be issued to the defendant to appear and answer the claim, on a day to be therein specified, in person or by a pleader of the Court duly instructed and able to answer all material questions relating to the suit, or by a pleader who shall be accompanied by some other person able to answer all such questions.

On plaint being registered, summons to issue to defendant.

36. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the defendant, the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally in Court on the day therein specified. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the plaintiff on that day, it may make an order for such attendance. Provided that no plaintiff or defendant shall be ordered to attend in person, who at the time is bonâ fide residing at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the Court is held.

Summons may order personal appearance of defendant or plaintiff.

Proviso.

37. The summons to appear shall order the defendant to produce any written document in his possession or power, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant intends to rely in support of his defence.

Summons shall order defendant to produce documents.

38. The Summons shall be in the Form B given in the Appendix or to the like effect.

Form of summons.

39. The day for the appearance of the defendant shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the place of residence of the defendant, and the time necessary for the service of the summons; and the day shall be so fixed as to allow the defendant a sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer in person or by a pleader on such day.

The day for appearance of defendant how to be fixed.

40. In suits against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the Court may, if it think proper, require the personal attendance of any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

Court may order personal appearance of a Director or Secretary in suits against a Corporation or Company.

Service of Summons on the Defendant.

41. The summons shall be delivered to the Nazir or other proper Officer of the Court to be served by himself or one of his subordinates, and such Officer shall be responsible for its due service.

Summons shall be served by Officer of Court.

42. Service of the summons shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court; and when there are more defendants than one, service of the summons shall be made on each defendant.

How service shall be made.

When there are several defendants.

43. Whenever it may be practicable, the service shall be on the defendant in person, unless he have an agent empowered to accept the service, in which case service on such agent shall be sufficient.

Service to be on defendant in person, when practicable.

Service on duly authorized agent sufficient.

44. Besides the recognized agents described in Section 21 of Chapter II, any person residing within the jurisdiction of the Court may be appointed an agent to receive the service of summonses and other processes.

Who may be an agent to receive service.

45. The appointment of such agent shall be in writing, and the original appointment, or a copy thereof if the appointment be a general one, shall be filed in the Court.

Appointment of such agent to be in writing and to be filed in Court.

46. The Government pleader in each Court shall be accounted the agent of the Government for the purpose of receiving services of summonses and other judicial processes against the Government, issuing out of the Court in which he may be the pleader of Government.

Agent of Government.

47. When the defendant cannot be found, and has no agent empowered to accept the service of the summons, it may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

If defendant cannot be found, and has no agent, service may be made on a male member of his family.

48. In all cases where the summons is served on the defendant personally or any agent or other person on his behalf, the serving Officer shall require the signature of the person on whom the service may be made, to an acknowledgment of service, to be endorsed on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court. If such person refuse to sign the acknowledgment, the service of the summons shall nevertheless be held sufficient, if it be otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

In all cases the person served is to be required to endorse the summons.

49. When the defendant cannot be found, and there is no agent empowered to accept the service, nor any other person on whom the service can be made, the serving Officer shall fix the copy of the summons on the outer door of the house in which the defendant is dwelling; and if he is not dwelling in the place mentioned in the summons, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it. Provided that, if the serving Officer is informed that the defendant is to be found or has his dwelling in a place within the jurisdiction of the Court other than that indicated in the summons, the Officer may proceed to that place to serve the summons.

If the summons cannot be served, a copy shall be fixed to the door of the dwelling house.

If defendant do not dwell in the place mentioned, the summons shall be returned with an endorsement of non-service.

Proviso.

50. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court, the time when and the manner in which it was served.

If served, time and manner of service to be endorsed on summons.

51. When a summons is returned to the Court without having been served, if the plaintiff shall satisfy the Court that there is reasonable ground for believing that the defendant is keeping out of the way of its Officer for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, the Court shall order the summons to be served by fixing up a copy thereof upon some conspicuous place in the Court-house, and also upon the door of the house in which the defendant shall have last resided, if it be known where he last resided; or that the summons shall be served in such other manner as the Court shall think proper. And the service which shall be substituted by order of the Court, shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if it had been effected in the manner above specified.

When summons is returned unserved, Court to order substituted service, if satisfied that the defendant is avoiding service.

52. Whenever service shall be substituted by order of the Court by virtue of the power contained in the last preceding Section, the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require.

When service is substituted, the time for appearance to be fixed.

53. If the defendant be resident within the jurisdiction of any Court other than that in which the suit is instituted, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the Court in which the suit is instituted shall transmit the summons, either by an Officer of the Court or by post, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the defendant resides, by which it can be most conveniently served, and shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require; and the Court to which the summons is transmitted, shall, upon receipt of the summons, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be re-transmitted to th Court from whence it originally issued.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant is resident within the jurisdiction of another Court and has no agent to accept service.

54. If the defendant be resident out of the British territories in India, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons shall be addressed to the defendant at the place where he may reside, and forwarded to him by post: in such case the time for the appearance of the defendant shall be regulated by the time which may be required for communication by post between the place at which the Court is held and the place where the defendant resides; and if, on the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the defendant shall not appear in person or by pleader, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, and it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that the plaintiff shall be at liberty to proceed with his suit in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the Court may seem meet.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant resides out of the British territories in India and has no agent to accept service.

Time for appearance.

In case of non-appearance of defendant, Court may direct suit to proceed subject to conditions.

55. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property, and the summons for any reason cannot be served on the defendant in person, and the defendant has no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons may be served on any agent of the defendant in charge of such land or other immoveable property.

In suits for immoveable property, service may in certain cases be made on agent in charge of such property.

56. When the defendant is in the service of the Government, the Court may transmit a copy of the summons to the head Officer of the Office in which the defendant is employed, for the purpose of being served on him, if it shall appear to the Court that the summons may be most conveniently so served. If the defendant be an Officer or Soldier, the Court shall transmit a copy of the summons to the Commanding Officer of the Corps to which the defendant belongs, for the purpose of being served on him. The Officer to whom the summons is transmitted, after causing the summons to be served on the person to whom it is addressed if practicable, shall return it to the Court with the written acknowledgment of such person endorsed thereon. If from any cause the summons cannot be served upon the person to whom it is addressed, it shall be returned to the Court by which it was transmitted with information of the cause which has prevented the service. In such case the Court shall adopt such other means of serving the summons as it may deem proper.

How service may be made on Government Servants.

On Officers and Soldiers.

57. When the suit is against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the summons may be served by leaving the same at the registered Office (if any) of the Company, or sending it through the Post Office by a letter addressed to such Office, or by giving it to any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company.

Service on a Corporation or Company.

58. Nothing contained in the preceding rules shall be construed to prevent the Court from substituting for the summons, a letter or other appropriate communication under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court, when the person whose appearance is required is of a rank which entitles him to such mark of consideration. The letter or other communication shall contain all the particulars required to be stated in the summons, and shall be treated in all respects as a summons.

Letter may be substituted for summons in the case of privileged persons.

59. When a letter or other communication is substituted for a summons under the authority of the last preceding Section, it may be transmitted through the Post Office, or by a special messenger selected by the Court, or in any other manner which the Court may deem sufficient; unless the party shall have an agent empowered to accept service of judicial process, in which case delivery to such agent shall be deemed sufficient service.

Service how to be made on privileged persons.

60. Whenever it is provided that any summons, letter, or other communication may be transmitted to the person to whom it is addressed through the Post Office, proof that the same was correctly addressed to such person at his place of residence, and that it was duly posted and registered according to Section XXXVIII of Act XVII of 1854 (for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office), shall be sufficient proof of the due service and delivery of the summons, letter, or other communication, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Proof of due service and delivery of summons, letter, &c. transmitted through the post.

Of Suits against Government and Public Officers.

61. If the suit be against the Government, the summons shall be served on the Government Pleader. The Court, in fixing the day for the Government to answer to the plaint, shall allow a reasonable time for the necessary communication with the Government through the proper channels, and for the issue of instructions to the Government Pleader to appear and answer on behalf of the Government and may extend the time at its discretion on the application of the Government Pleader. The Court may also, if it think proper, direct the attendance of a person who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

In suits against Government, summons to be served on Government Pleader.

Appearance and answer.

62. If the suit be against an Officer of the Government for an act which the plaintiff alleges to have been done by such Officer in his official capacity, the summons shall be served upon such Officer in the manner hereinbefore provided.

In suits against Government Officers for alleged official acts, summons to be served on them.

63. If the Officer on receiving the summons shall consider it proper to make a reference to Government before answering to the plaint, he may move the Court to grant such extension of the time fixed in the summons as may be necessary to enable him to make such reference and to receive orders thereon through the proper channels; and the Court upon such motion may extend the time for so long as shall appear to it to be requisite.

Court may grant extension of time to enable Officer to make a reference to Government.

64. If the Government shall undertake the defence of the suit, the Government Pleader shall be furnished with authority to appear and answer to the plaint; and, upon motion made by him, the Court shall order a note to that effect to be entered in the Register.

If Government undertake defence, Government Pleader to appear and move that a note of his appearance be entered in the Register.

65. If such motion shall not be made by the Government Pleader on or before the day fixed in the notice for the defendant to appear and answer to the plaint, the case shall proceed as in a suit between private parties except that the defendant shall not be liable to arrest before judgment.

If no such motion be made, case to proceed as in a suit between private parties.

But defendant not liable to arrest before judgment.

66. If in any such suit the Court shall require the personal appearance of the defendant, and the defendant shall satisfy the Court that he cannot absent himself from his duty without injury to the public service, the Court shall exempt him from such appearance, but he shall be liable to be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

Defendant may in certain cases be exempted from personal appearance.

How Persons not before the Court may be made Parties to a Suit.

67. If it appear to the Court, at any hearing of a suit, that all the persons who may be entitled to, or who claim some share or interest in the subject matter of the suit, or who may be likely to be affected by the result, have not been made parties to the suit, the Court may adjourn the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and direct that such persons shall be made either plaintiffs or defendants in the suit as the case may be. In such case the Court shall issue a notice to such persons in the manner provided in this Act for the service of a summons on a defendant.

Court may adjourn hearing and direct that parties appearing to be interested in a suit shall be made parties to the suit.

Of Arrest before Judgment.

68. If in any suit, not being a suit for land or other immoveable property, the defendant, with intent to avoid or delay the plaintiff, or to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof, the plaintiff may, either at the institution of the suit, or at any time thereafter until final judgment, make an application to the Court that security be taken for the appearance of the defendant to answer any judgment that may be passed against him in the suit.

In suits for moveable property, when defendant is about to leave the jurisdiction with intent &c., plaintiff may apply that security be taken for his appearance.

69. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to leave its jurisdiction with the intent of avoiding or delaying the plaintiff, or that he has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof with the intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, enjoining him to bring the defendant before the Court, that he may show cause why he should not give good and sufficient bail for his appearance.

Court may issue warrant to bring up defendant to show cause why he should not give bail for his appearance.

70. If the defendant fail to show such cause, the Court shall order him to give bail for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending, and until execution or satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit; and the surety or sureties shall undertake, in default of such appearance, to pay any sum of money that may be adjudged against the defendant in the suit, with costs.

If defendant fail to show cause, Court may order him to give bail for his appearance.

71. Should a defendant offer, in lieu of bail for his appearance, to deposit a sum of money or other valuable property sufficient to answer the claim against him, with the costs of the suit, the Court may accept such deposit.

Deposit in lieu of bail.

72. In the event of the defendant neither furnishing security nor offering a sufficient deposit, he may be committed to custody until the decision of the suit, or until the execution of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit.

Defendant to be committed to custody if he cannot give security.

73. If it shall appear to the Court that the arrest of the defendant was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for any injury or loss which he may have sustained by reason of such arrest. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such arrest.

Compensation to defendant arrested on insufficient grounds.

Proviso as to amount.

74. If in any suit the defendant is about to leave the British territories in India with intent to remain absent so long that the plaintiff will or may thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of any decree that may be passed against the defendant, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court to the effect and in the manner aforesaid, and the procedure thereupon shall be in all respects the same as hereinbefore provided.

When the defendant is about to leave India, the application to be made to the Court.

Of Attachment before Judgment.

75. If the defendant, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to dispose of his property or any part thereof, or to remove any such property from the jurisdiction of the Court where the suit is pending, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, either at the time of the institution of the suit or at any time thereafter until final judgment, to call upon the defendant to furnish sufficient security to fulfil any decree that may be passed against him in the suit, and, on his failing to give such security, to direct that any property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, shall be attached until the further order of the Court.

In what cases plaintiff may apply before judgment for security from defendant to fulfil decree, or in default for an attachment of defendant's property.

76. The application shall contain a specification of the property required to be attached, and the estimated value of each article or item thereof; and the plaintiff shall, at the time of making the application, declare that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property with such intent as aforesaid.

Application how to be made.

77. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be satisfied that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of the decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, commanding him to call upon the defendant, within a time to be fixed by the Court, either to furnish security in such sum as may be specified in the order to produce and place at the disposal of the Court when required the said property or the value of the same or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to fulfil the decree, or to appear and show cause why he should not furnish security. The Court may also in the warrant direct the attachment until further order of the whole or any portion of the property specified in the application.

Form of warrant to be issued.

78. If the defendant fail to show such cause or to furnish the required security within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may direct that the property specified in the application, if not already attached, or such portion thereof as shall be sufficient to fulfil the decree, shall be attached until further order. If the defendant show such cause or furnish the required security, and the property specified in the application or any portion of it shall have been attached, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn.

If cause be not shown or security be not furnished, property may be attached.

Withdrawal of attachment.

79. The attachment shall be made according to the nature of the property to be attached, in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the attachment of property in execution of a decree for money.

How the attachment is to be made.

80. In the event of any claim being preferred to the property attached before judgment, such claim shall be investigated in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the investigation of claims to property attached in execution of a decree for money.

Claims to property attached before judgment, how to be investigated.

81. In all cases of attachment before judgment, the Court which passed the order for the attachment shall at any time remove the same, on the defendant furnishing security as above required, together with security for the costs of the attachment.

Attachment may be removed when security is furnished.

82. If it shall appear to the Court that the attachment was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the attachment of his property. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such attachment.

Compensation for attachment applied for on insufficient grounds, &c.

Proviso.

83. Attachments before judgment shall not affect the rights of persons not parties to the suit, nor bar any person holding a decree against the defendant from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

Attachment not to injure the rights of persons not parties to the suit, or bar the execution of decrees.

84. If it shall appear to the Court by whose order the property may have been attached before judgment, that there is reasonable ground for supposing that the decree, in satisfaction of which the sale of the property is applied for, was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may refuse to allow the property to be sold in execution, if the decree be a decree of that Court; or if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings for a reasonable time to enable the plaintiff in the pending suit to adopt proceedings to set aside the decree.

Court may stay the sale of property already under attachment, when execution of a decree fraudulently obtained is applied for.

85. Whenever lands paying revenue to Government form the subject of a suit, if the party in possession of such lands shall neglect to pay the Government revenue, and a public sale shall in consequence be ordered to take place, the party not in possession shall, upon payment of the revenue due previously to the sale (and with or without security at the discretion of the Court), be put in immediate possession of the lands; and the Court in its decree may award against the defendant the amount so paid, with interest thereupon at such rate as to the Court may seem fit, or may charge the amount so paid, with interest thereupon, at such rate as the Court may order, in any adjustment of accounts which may be directed in the final decree upon the suit.

Special case in which plaintiff may be put in immediate possession of land the subject of suit.

Of Injunctions.

86. In any suit in which it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Court that any property which is in dispute in the suit is in danger of being wasted, damaged, or alienated by any party to the suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue an injunction to such party, commanding him to refrain from doing the particular act complained of, or to give such other orders for the purpose of staying and preventing him from wasting, damaging, or alienating the property, as to the Court may seem meet. And in all cases in which it may appear to the Court to be necessary for the preservation or the better management or custody of any property which is in dispute in a suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a receiver or manager of such property, and, if need be, to remove the person in whose possession or custody the property may be from the possession or custody thereof, and to commit the same to the custody of such receiver or manager, and to grant to such receiver or manager all such powers for the management or the preservation and improvement of the property, and the collection of the rents and profits thereof, and the application and disposal of such rents and profits, as to the Court may seem proper. If the property be land paying revenue to Government, and it is considered that the interests of those concerned will be promoted by the management of the Collector, the Court may appoint the Collector to be receiver and manager of such land, unless the Government shall by any general order prohibit the appointment of Collectors for such purpose, or shall in any particular case prohibit the appointment of the Collector to be such receiver.

Cases in which an injunction to stay waste may be granted.

Or in which a receiver or manager may be appointed.

When the Collector may be appointed receiver or manager.

87. In any suit for restraining the defendant from the committal of any breach of contract or other injury, and whether the same be accompanied with any claim for damages or not, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff at any time after the commencement of the suit, and whether before or after judgment, to apply to the Court for an injunction to restrain the defendant from the repetition, or the continuance of the breach of contract or wrongful act complained of, or the committal of any breach of contract or injury of a like kind arising out of the same contract or relating to the same property or right; and such injunction may be granted by the Court on such terms as to the duration of the injunction, keeping an account, giving security, or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem reasonable and just, and in case of disobedience such injunction may be enforced by imprisonment in the same manner as a decree for specific performance: provided always that any order for an injunction may be discharged or varied or set aside by the Court, on application made thereto by any party dissatisfied with such order.

Special rule in actions for injunctions.

88. The Court may in every case before granting an injunction direct such reasonable notice of the application for the same to be given to the opposite party as it shall see fit.

Before granting injunction, Court may direct reasonable notice to be given to the opposite party.

89. If it shall appear to the Court that the injunction was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the claim of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise, and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such sum, not exceeding one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the issue of the injunction. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of the issue of the injunction.

Compensation to defendant for needless issue of injunction.

Proviso.

OF THE WITHDRAWAL AND ADJUSTMENT OF SUITS.

90. If the plaintiff at any time before final judgment satisfy the Court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit for the same matter, it shall be competent to the Court to grant such permission on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may deem proper. In any such fresh suit the plaintiff shall be bound by the rules for the limitation of actions in the same manner as if the first suit had not been brought. If the plaintiff withdraw from the suit without such permission, he shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit for the same matter.

Court may allow plaintiff to withdraw from a suit, with liberty to bring a fresh suit.

91. If a suit shall be adjusted by mutual agreement or compromise, or if the defendant satisfy the plaintiff in respect to the matter of the suit, such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction shall be recorded, and the suit shall be disposed of in accordance therewith. On the application of the plaintiff reciting the substance of such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction, the Court, if satisfied that such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction has been actually entered into or made, shall grant a certificate to the plaintiff authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of stamp-duty paid on the plaint if the application shall have been presented before the settlement of issues, or half the amount if presented at any time after the settlement of issues and before any witness has been examined. Provided however that no such certificate shall be granted if the adjustment between the parties be such as to require a decree to pass on which process of execution can be taken out.

Adjustment or compromise.

Court may grant certificate for refund of stamp duty on plaint, if suit be adjusted.

Proviso.

OF THE DEATH, MARRIAGE, AND BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY OF PARTIES.

92. The death of a plaintiff or defendant shall not cause the suit to abate if the cause of action survive.

Suit not to abate by death in certain cases.

93. If there be two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one of them die, and if the cause of action survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs, and against the surviving defendant or defendants.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs or defendants, if the cause of action survives.

94. If there be two or more plaintiffs, and one of them die, and if the cause of action shall not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone but shall survive to them and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff jointly, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such deceased plaintiff, and the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs and such legal representative of the deceased plaintiff. If no application shall be made to the Court by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs; and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff shall be interested in and shall be bound by the judgment given in the suit in the same manner as if the suit had proceeded at his instance conjointly with the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs, where the cause of action accrues to the survivor and the representative of the deceased.

95. In case of the death of a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of such plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the place of such plaintiff in the Register of the suit, and the suit shall thereupon proceed; if no such application shall be made to the Court within what it may consider a reasonable time by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court to pass an order that the suit shall abate, and to award to the defendant the reasonable costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff; or the Court may, if it think proper, on the application of the defendant, and upon such terms as to costs as may seem fit, pass such other order for bringing in the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff, and for proceeding with the suit in order to a final determination of the matters in dispute, as may appear just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Proceeding in case of death of sole or sole surviving plaintiff.

96. If any dispute arise as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court either to stay the suit until the fact has been duly determined in another suit, or to decide at or before the hearing of the suit who shall be admitted to be such legal representative for the purpose of prosecuting the suit.

Proceeding in case of dispute as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff.

97. If there be two or more defendants, and one of them die, and the cause of action shall not survive against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, and also in case of the death of a sole defendant or sole surviving defendant, where the action survives, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court, specifying the name, description, and place of abode of any person whom the plaintiff alleges to be the legal representative of such defendant, and whom he desires to be made the defendant in his stead; and the Court shall thereupon enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such defendant, and shall issue a summons to him to appear on a day to be therein mentioned to defend the suit; and the case shall thereupon proceed in the same manner as if such representative had originally been made a defendant and had been a party to the former proceedings in the suit.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several defendants, or of a sole or sole surviving defendant.

98. The marriage of a woman, plaintiff or defendant, shall not cause the suit to abate, but the suit may, notwithstanding, be proceeded with to judgment, and the decree thereupon may be executed upon the wife alone; and if the case is one in which the husband is by law liable for the debts of his wife, the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be executed against the husband also; and in case of judgment for the wife, execution of the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be issued upon the application of the husband, where the husband is by law entitled to the money or thing which may be the subject of the decree.

Marriage of a female plaintiff or defendant not to abate the suit.

99. The bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff in any suit which the Assignee might maintain for the benefit of the creditors shall not be a valid objection to the continuance of such suit, unless the Assignee shall decline to continue the suit and to give security for the costs thereof within such reasonable time as the Court may order; if the Assignee neglect or refuse to continue the suit and to give such security within the time limited by the order, the defendant may, within eight days after such neglect or refusal, plead the bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff as a reason for abating the suit.

Bankruptcy or insolvency when not to abate the suit.

Of Notices to produce, and how they are to be served.

100. Whenever any of the parties to a suit is desirous that any document, writing, or other thing, which he believes to be in the possession or power of another of the parties thereto, should be produced at any hearing of the suit, and the production of such document, writing, or other thing has not previously been required, under the provisions of Sections 34 and 37 of this Chapter, he shall at the earliest opportunity deliver to the Court two notices in writing to the party in whose possession or power he believes the document, writing, or other thing to be, calling upon him to produce the same; and one of such notices shall be filed in Court, and the other shall be delivered by the Court to the Nazir or other proper Officer, to be served upon such party.

Two notices in writing to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court.

101. In all cases in which a party to a suit has not appointed a pleader to act for him, all notices and other judicial processes shall be served upon such party in the manner hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons upon a defendant to appear and answer.

Service of notices and other judicial process how to be made on a party who has not appointed a pleader to act for him.

Of the appearance of the Parties, and consequences of non-appearance.

102. On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court-house in person or by a pleader, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing be adjourned to a future day which shall be fixed by the Court.

Parties must appear in person or by pleader.

103. If, on the day fixed for the defendant to appear and answer, or any other day subsequent thereto, to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, neither party shall appear, either in person or by a pleader, when duly called upon by the Court, the suit shall be dismissed. Whenever a suit is dismissed under the provisions of this Section, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to bring a fresh suit, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of actions; or if he shall within the period of thirty days satisfy the Court that there was a sufficient excuse for his non-appearance, the Court may issue a fresh summons upon the plaint already filed.

If neither party appear, suit to be dismissed with liberty to the plaintiff to bring a fresh suit.

Or if sufficient excuse for non-appearance, a fresh summons may be issued.

104. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served, the Court shall proceed to hear the suit ex parte. If the defendant appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, and shall assign good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, he may upon such terms as the Court may direct as to payment of costs or otherwise be heard in answer to the suit in like manner as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex parte if due service of summons be proved.

If defendant appear on day of adjourned hearing, and assign good cause for his previous non-appearance, he may be heard.

105. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served in any of the modes of service hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct a second summons to the defendant to be issued in any of the said modes.

If plaintiff only appear, and due service of summons be not proved, Court may order issue of second summons.

106. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was served on the defendant but not in sufficient time to enable the defendant to appear and answer on the day fixed in the sum-

If plaintiff only appear, and service of summons be proved, but the service was not in due time, Court may adjourn hearing and give notice to defendant.

mons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and may direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

If defendant only appear, Court to pass judgment against plaintiff, unless defendant admit the claim.

107. If the defendant shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the plaintiff shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the Court shall pass judgment against the plaintiff by default, unless the defendant admit the claim, in which case the Court shall pass judgment against the defendant upon such admission.

When there are several plaintiffs or defendants, each may authorize the other to appear for him.

108. When there are two or more plaintiffs, any one or more of them may be authorized te appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them: and in like manner, when there are two or more defendants, any one or more of them may be authorized to appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them; provided that the authority shall in all cases be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court; when so filed, it shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if the person so authorized to appear, plead, and act, were a pleader of the Court.

Consequence of non-appearance of one or more of several plaintiffs.

109. If there are two or more plaintiffs, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, and the other and others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, it shall be competent to the Court to proceed with the suit at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs who shall have appeared, in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared, and to pass such order as may be just and proper in the circumstances of the case; and if there are two or more defendants, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, and the other or others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, the Court shall proceed with the suit to judgment, and shall at the time of passing judgment give such order with respect to the defendant or defendants who shall not have appeared as shall be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-appearance, without sufficient cause shown, of any party to a suit summoned or ordered to appear in person.

110. If any plaintiff or defendant who shall have been ordered or summoned to appear personally under the provisions of Section 36 of this Chapter, shall not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, such plaintiff or defendant shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing Sections applicable to plaintiffs and defendants respectively, who do not appear either in person or by pleader.

Court to receive declaration in support of cause shown.

111. In support of the cause shown by a plaintiff or defendant for failure to appear in person, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing on unstamped paper, if signed by such plaintiff or defendant and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints.

No appeal from judgments obtained ex parte or by default.

112. No appeal shall lie from a judgment passed ex parte against a defendant who has not appeared, or from a judgment against a plaintiff by default for non-appearance. But in all cases in which judgment may be passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply, within a reasonable time, not exceeding thirty days after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed, to the Court by which the judgment was passed, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that the defendant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

When and how judgment ex parte against a defendant may be set aside.

When and how judgment by default against a plaintiff may be set aside.

In all cases of judgment against a plaintiff by default, he may apply, within thirty days from the date of the judgment, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the plaintiff was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment by default, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit. But no judgment shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid, unless notice thereof have been served on the opposite party. In all cases in which the Court shall pass an order under this Section for setting aside a judgment, the order shall be final; but in all appealable cases in which the Court shall reject the application, an appeal shall lie from the order of rejection to the tribunal to which the final decision in the suit would be appealable, provided that the appeal be preferred within the time allowed for an appeal from such final decision, and be written upon stamp paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

No judgment to be set aside, without notice to opposite party.

Order for setting aside judgment shall be final.

In appealable cases, an appeal from order of rejection.

Proviso.

Of Written Statements.

Written statements may be tendered by the parties to assist the Court at the first hearing of the suit.

Written statements to be on stamp paper.

113. The parties or their pleaders may tender at the first hearing of the suit written statements of their respective cases, and the Court shall receive the same and put them on the record. Such statements shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

Set-off.

Abandonment of excess of set-off over claim.

114. If in a suit for debt the defendant desire to set-off against the claim of the plaintiff the amount of any debt due to him from the plaintiff, he shall tender a written statement containing the particulars of his demand, and the Court shall thereupon enquire into the same. Provided that, if the sum claimed by the defendant exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant shall not be allowed to set-off the same unless he abandon the excess.

115. No written statement shall be received after the first hearing of the suit, unless called for by the Court. But it shall be competent to the Court, at any time before final judgment, to call for a written statement, or an additional written statement from any of the parties. When such statements are called for by the Court, they shall be received on plain paper.

No statement to be taken after first hearing unless called for by the Court.

Court may at any time call for a written statement.

116. Written statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and shall not be argumentative, nor by way of answer one to the other; but each statement shall be confined, as much as possible, to a simple narrative of the facts which the party by whom or on whose behalf the written statement is made believes to be material to the case, and which he believes he will be able to prove if called upon by the Court. Written statements shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints, and no written statement shall be received unless it be so subscribed and verified.

How written statements are to be framed.

Written statements to be subscribed and verified.

117. If it shall appear to the Court that any written statement presented by or on behalf of a party, whether the same have been spontaneously tendered or have been called for by the Court, is argumentative or unnecessarily prolix, or that it contains matter irrelevant to the suit, the Court may reject the same, and return it to the party with the order of rejection endorsed thereon; and it shall not be competent to a party whose written statement has been rejected for any of these causes, to present another written statement, unless it shall be expressly called for or allowed by the Court.

Court may reject a written statement which is argumentative, prolix, or irrelevant.

Of the Examination of the Parties.

118. At the first hearing of the suit, and if necessary at any subsequent hearing, any party who appears in person or is present in Court, or the pleader of any party who appears by a pleader, may be examined orally by the Court. Every party shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Oral examination of party or pleader.

Oath.

119. If any party who appears in person or is present in Court shall without lawful excuse refuse to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court may think proper to put to such party, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal of a party to answer.

120. If the pleader of any party who shall appear by a pleader shall refuse or be unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall attend in person on such day; and if the party so directed to attend shall without lawful excuse fail to appear in person on the day to be so appointed, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal or inability of pleader to answer.

Of the Production of Documents.

121. The parties or their pleaders shall bring with them, and have in readiness at the first hearing of the suit to be produced when called upon by the Court, all their documentary evidence of every description which may not already have been filed in Court, and all documents, writings, or other things which may have been specified in any notice which may have been served on them respectively within a reasonable time before the hearing of the suit; and no documentary evidence of any kind, which the parties or any of them may desire to produce, shall be received by the Court at any subsequent stage of the proceedings, unless good cause be shown to its satisfaction for the non-production thereof at the first hearing.

Documentary evidence to be produced at first hearing.

122. All exhibits produced by the parties shall be received and inspected by the Court; but it shall be competent to the Court, after inspection, to reject any exhibit which it may consider irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection.

Exhibits to be received and inspected by the Court.

Rejection of exhibits.

123. If the exhibit be a deed, instrument, or writing, chargeable with stamp duty under any Regulation or Act for the time being in force, and it shall appear to the Court that the deed, instrument, or writing, although written on stamp paper, does not bear a sufficient stamp, the Court shall nevertheless receive the same in evidence, saving all just exceptions on other grounds, if the party producing it or requiring its production shall pay into Court the deficiency of the stamp duty and a penalty equal to ten times the amount of the deficiency. Provided that, if it shall appear to the Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the deed, instrument, or writing was not properly stamped with the intention of evading the stamp laws, the Court may reject the same.

Documents insufficiently stamped may be received on payment of deficient duty and penalty.

Proviso.

124. An entry of the fact of such payment and of the amount thereof shall be made in a book to be kept in the Court, and shall also be endorsed on the back of such deed, instrument, or writing under the signature of the Judge of the Court. The Court shall at the end of every month make a return to the Collector of Revenue of the District of the monies (if any) which it has so received by way of duty or penalty, distinguishing between such monies, and stating the number and title of the suit, and the name of the party from whom such monies were received, and the date (if any) and description of the document, for the purpose of identifying the same; and the Court shall pay over the said monies to the Collector of Revenue, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same ; and the Collector of Revenue, or other proper authority, shall, upon production of the deed, instrument, or writing, with the endorsement hereinbefore mentioned, cause such additional stamp as may be necessary to be affixed to such deed, instrument, or writing in respect of the sums so paid as aforesaid.

Admitted exhibits to be marked and filed.

125. When an exhibit is received by the Court and admitted in evidence, it shall be endorsed with the number and title of the suit, the name of the party producing it, and the date on which it was produced, and shall be filed as part of the record. Provided that, if the exhibit be an entry in any shop book or other book, the party on whose behalf such book is produced shall furnish a copy of the entry, which copy shall be endorsed as aforesaid, and shall be filed as part of the record, and the book shall be returned to the party producing it.

Proviso.

No stamp duty in respect of the production or filing of exhibits.

126. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of the production or filing of any exhibit, any thing contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

Rejected exhibits to be marked and returned.

127. When an exhibit is rejected by the Court, it shall be endorsed in the manner specified in Section 125 with the addition of the word "rejected," and the endorsement shall be subscribed by the Judge. The exhibit shall then be returned to the party who produced it, unless the Court shall think proper, for special reasons (as on suspicion of forgery), to detain it.

After the time for appeal has elapsed, exhibit admitted in evidence may be returned.

128. When the time for preferring an appeal from the decision passed in the suit has elapsed, or if an appeal has been preferred from such decision, then after the appeal has been finally disposed of, any person, whether a party to the suit or not, who may be desirous of receiving back any exhibit produced by him in the suit, shall be entitled, on application to the Court in which such exhibit may be, to receive back the same unless the further use of such exhibit has been superseded by the terms of the decree, or the Court has directed it to be detained for purposes of public justice.

Exhibit may be returned before the time limited, for special reasons.

129. Any exhibit may be returned before the time mentioned in the last preceding Section, if the Court in which the document may be shall think proper, for special reasons, to order its return. But in every case a copy, properly certified, and made at the expense of the applicant, shall be substituted for the original in the record of the suit.

Certified copy to be kept.

Receipt to be given for returned exhibit.

130. Whenever an exhibit once received by a Court of Justice and admitted in evidence is returned, a receipt shall be given by the party receiving it in a receipt-book kept for the purpose.

Court may send for papers from its own records or from other public Offices or Courts.

131. Any Civil Court may of its own accord, or upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other public Office or Court, the record of any other suit or case, and inspect the same, when the inspection of such record or any part of it shall appear likely to elucidate the facts of the suit before the Court, and to promote the ends of justice.

Of the Settlement of Issues.

Framing of issues.

132. At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall enquire and ascertain upon what questions of law or fact the parties are at issue, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues of law and fact on which the right decision of the case may depend. The Court may frame the issues from the allegations of fact which it collects from the oral examination of the parties or their pleaders, notwithstanding any difference between such allegations of fact and the allegations of fact contained in the written statements, if any, tendered by the parties or their pleaders.

Court may examine witnesses or documents before framing the issues.

133. If the Court shall be of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person other than the persons already before the Court, or without the reading of some document not produced by any of such persons, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, to be fixed by the Court, and may compel the attendance of such person, or the production of the document by the person in whose hands it may be, by summons or other suitable process.

Amendment of issues.

Additional issues.

134. At any time before the decision of the case, the Court may amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as to it shall seem fit, and all such amendments as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real question or controversy between the parties shall be so made.

Of Issues by Agreement of Parties.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be stated by the parties in the form of an issue, and an agreement may be entered into for the payment of a sum of money, or the doing or the refraining to do a particular act, according to the result of the issue.

135. When the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question or questions of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may state the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing, which shall not be subject to any stamp duty, that upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue, a sum of money specified in the agreement, or to be ascertained by the Court upon a question inserted in the issue for that purpose, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding some property specified in the agreement, and in dispute in the suit, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act, or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act, specified in the agreement, and having reference to the matter in dispute.

136. If the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, and taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that the parties have a bonâ fide interest in the decision of such question, and that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it may proceed to record and try the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court, and may, upon the finding or decision on such issue, give judgment for the sum so agreed on or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise according to the terms of the agreement; and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

Court, if satisfied that the agreement was executed bonâ fide, may decree accordingly.

When the Suit may be disposed of at the First Hearing.

137. If at the first hearing of a suit it shall appear that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact, the Court may at once give judgment.

If the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact.

138. When the parties are at issue on some question of law or fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court shall be satisfied that no further argument or proof than such as the parties or their pleaders can at once supply is required upon any such of the issues of law or fact as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, the Court, after hearing such argument and proof, may proceed to determine such issue or issues, and if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly; otherwise the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence or for such further argument as the case may require.

If the parties are at issue on questions of law or fact.

Of Adjournments.

139. The Court may, if sufficient cause be shown, at any stage of the suit, grant time to the parties, or to either of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit; and in all such cases the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit. Provided that in all such cases the party applying for time shall pay the costs occasioned by such adjournment, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Court may grant time, or adjourn to a future day.

Proviso.

140. If, on any day to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, the parties or either of them shall not appear in person or by pleader, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in the manner specified in Section 103, Section 104, or Section 107 of this Chapter as the case may be, or may make such other order as may appear to be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

How Court is to proceed if the parties fail to appear on the day fixed.

141. If either party to a suit to whom time may have been granted shall fail to produce his proofs, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to perform any other act for which time may have been allowed, the Court shall proceed to a decision of the suit on the record, notwithstanding such default.

Court to proceed if either party fail to produce proofs or witnesses.

Of summoning Witnesses.

142. The parties or their pleaders may, at any time after the issues have been recorded, obtain, on application to the Court, summonses to witnesses or other persons to attend either to give evidence or to produce documents, and in any such summons the names of any number of persons may be inserted.

Application for summons.

143. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of any application for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, anything contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

No stamp duty on application for summons.

144. The person applying for a summons shall pay into Court such a sum of money as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of each witness, or other person mentioned in the summons, in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and for one day's attendance. If the Court be a subordinate Court, regard shall be had, in fixing the scale of such expenses, to the rules (if any) established by the Court to which such Court shall be immediately subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness or other person at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally. If it shall appear to the Court that the sum paid into Court on account of the travelling and other expenses of the witness or other person in passing to and from the Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the witness or other person as may appear to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, or may discharge the witness without requiring him to give evidence. If it shall be necessary to detain the witness or other person summoned for a longer period than one day, the Court may from time to time order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as may be sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order the witness to be discharged without requiring him to give evidence.

Expenses of witnesses to be paid before issue of summons.

145. Every summons for the attendance of a witness or other person shall specify the time and place at which he is required to attend, and also whether his attendance is required for the purpose of giving evidence or to produce a document, or for both purposes; and any particular document which the witness or other person may be called on to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

Time, place, and purpose of attendance to be specified in summons.

Summons to produce a document.

146. Any person, whether a party to a suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document, without being summoned to give evidence; and any person, summoned merely to produce a document, shall be deemed to have complied with the summons, if he cause such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

SERVICE OF SUMMONS ON A WITNESS.

How and when the summons shall be served.

147. Every summons to a witness or other person shall be served by exhibiting the original, and delivering or tendering a copy; and the service shall in all cases be made a sufficient time before the time specified in the summons for the attendance of the witness or other person, to allow him a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Service to be on the witness, or a male member of his family.

148. Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the summons shall be upon the person thereby required to attend; but when he cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

When the summons cannot be served, it is to be returned to the Court.

149. When the person required to attend cannot be found, and there is no adult male member of his family on whom the summons can be served, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued, with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it.

Time and manner of service to be endorsed on the summons.

150. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons the time when and the manner in which it was served.

How a summons on a witness who resides in another jurisdiction is to be served.

151. If the person required to attend be resident within the jurisdiction of any other Court than that in which the suit is pending, the summons shall be transmitted by the Court in which the suit is pending, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the witness resides by which it can be most conveniently served; and the Court to which the summons is sent shall, upon receipt thereof, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be transmitted to the Court from whence it originally issued.

When a witness absconds, his property may be attached.

152. If the summons for the attendance of any person either to give evidence or to produce a document, cannot be served in either of the ways hereinbefore specified, the Court, on being certified thereof by the return of the serving Officer, and upon proof that the evidence of such witness or the production of the document is material, and that the witness or other person absconds or keeps out of the way for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document, at a time and place to be named therein to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon his house or place of abode; and if such person shall not attend at the time and place named in such proclamation, the Court may, at the instance of the party on whose application the summons was issued, make an order for the attachment of the moveable and immoveable property of such person, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, not being in excess of the amount of the costs of attachment and of any fine to which the person may be liable under the provisions of the following Section.

How the Court is to proceed with the witness on his appearance.

153. If, on the attachment of the property, such witness or other person shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If such witness or other person shall not appear, or appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not such a notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the property attached, or any part thereof, to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such attachment, together with the amount of any fine which the Court may impose upon such witness or other person under the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of a witness who may abscond or keep out of the way in order to avoid the service of a summons. If the witness or other person shall pay into Court the costs and fine as aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

OF THE EXAMINATION OF PARTIES AS WITNESSES.

A party to a suit appearing in person may be examined either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party.

154. When a party to a suit appears in person at any hearing of the suit, he may be examined as a witness, either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, in the same way as if he were not a party thereto.

Special application to be made for the examination of a party as a witness.

155. If any party to a suit shall require to enforce the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness, he shall, by himself or his pleader, make a special application to the Court for an order requiring the attendance of the party, and shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court, sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued.

The Court may first issue a notice to show cause.

156. The Court, if it think fit, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader, fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence; and may also, from time to time, if necessary, for good and sufficient reason, enlarge the time for such purpose.

157. In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing of the party, on unstamped paper, if signed by him and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Court may receive a written declaration in support of the cause shown.

158. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed, or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall issue its order requiring the party to attend and give evidence.

If no sufficient cause be shown, summons to issue.

159. If the Court shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to examine any party to the suit or to inspect any document in his possession or power, the Court may, of its own accord in any stage of the suit, cause such party to be summoned to attend as a witness to give evidence or to produce such document if in his possession or power on a day to be appointed in the summons, and may examine such party as a witness in open Court, or may cause such party to be examined in such other manner as the Court may direct.

Court may of its own accord at any time summon a witness.

ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES, AND CONSEQUENCE OF NON-ATTENDANCE.

160. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence in a suit shall be bound to attend at the time and place named in the summons for that purpose.

Persons summoned to give evidence must attend.

161. If any person, on whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been served in either of the ways specified in Section 148 of this Chapter, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons, the Court may order such person to be apprehended and brought before the Court. If such person abscond or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be apprehended or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the manner and subject to the rules provided in Sections 152 and 153 of this Chapter with respect to a witness or other person on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected.

Consequences of non-attendance by a witness not a party to the suit.

162. If any witness, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may commit such witness to close custody for such reasonable time as it may deem proper, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to give his evidence, or to produce the document. If after the expiration of such time the witness shall persist in his refusal, the Court may proceed to deal with him according to the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of persons refusing to give evidence.

Consequences of refusal to give evidence.

163. If any person, being a party to the suit, who shall be ordered to attend to give evidence or produce a document, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such order, or, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may either pass judgment against the party so failing or refusing, or make such other order in relation to the suit as the Court may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-attendance or refusal of a party to give evidence.

164. Any person present in Court, whether a party to the suit or not, may be called upon by the Court to give evidence and to produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence or to produce such document, and shall be liable to be dealt with by the Court as a party or witness, as the case may be, would, under any of the preceding provisions, be liable to be dealt with for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Any person present in Court may be called upon to give evidence though not summoned.

WHEN AND HOW WITNESSES ARE TO BE EXAMINED.

165. On the day appointed for the hearing of the suit or on some other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. In cases in which an appeal lies to a higher tribunal, the evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, in the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and, when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and also in the presence of the parties to the suit or their pleaders, or such of them as are in attendance, and shall, if necessary, be corrected, and shall be signed by the Judge. If the evidence be taken down in a different language from that in which it has been given, and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the witness may require his deposition as taken down in writing to be interpreted to him in the language in which it was given. Where all the parties to the suit present, and the pleaders of such as are absent, consent to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down in his own hand. It shall be in the discretion of the Court to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there shall appear any special reason for so doing, or any party or his pleader shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their pleaders, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Court shall record such remarks as it may think material respecting the demeanor of the witness while under examination. In cases in which the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge himself, he shall be bound, as the examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall accompany the record. In cases in which an appeal does not lie to a higher tribunal, it shall not be necessary to take down the depositions of the witnesses in writing at length; but the Judge, as the examination of each witness proceeds, shall make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall form part of the record. If the Judge shall be prevented from making a memorandum as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and in cases not appealable shall cause such memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such memorandum shall from part of the record.

Objection made to questions.

Memorandum of substance of the evidence to be made by judge as each witness is examined.

In what form evidence shall be taken in cases not appealable.

If judge be unable to make a memorandum of the evidence, reason of inability to be recorded.

166. If a witness be about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or other good and sufficient cause can be shown to the satisfaction of the Court why his examination should be taken immediately, it shall be competent to the Court, upon the application of either party or of the witness, at any time after the institution of the suit, to take the examination of such witness forthwith, or on any day that may be fixed for that purpose, of which due notice shall be given to the parties if the day be fixed in their absence. The witness shall be examined, and his deposition shall be taken down in writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed; and the deposition so taken down may be read in evidence at any hearing of the suit.

A witness may for sufficient cause be examined immediately.

167. All witnesses shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Witnesses to be examined upon oath or affirmation, or according to the law for the time being in force.

Of Commissions to examine absent Witnesses and make Local Enquiries.

168. When the evidence of a witness is required who is resident at some place distant more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or who is unable from sickness or infirmity to attend before the Court to be personally examined, or is a person exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court; the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, or on the representation of the witness, order a Commission to issue for the examination of such witness on interrogatories or otherwise; and may, by the same or any subsequent order, give all such directions for taking such examinations as may appear reasonable and just. If the witness be resident within the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, the Commission may be issued to any Officer of the Court, or to any subordinate Court, or to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint. If the witness be resident at some place which is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, and not within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court, the Commission shall ordinarily be issued to the Court within whose jurisdiction the witness may reside, and which can most conveniently execute the same; but, under special circumstances, the Commission may be issued to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

Cases in which Court may issue a Commission to examine witnesses.

When the witness resides within the Court's jurisdiction.

When the witness resides beyond the Court's jurisdiction, and not within the Supreme Court's jurisdiction, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court.

169. If the witness be resident within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, the Commision shall ordinarily be issued to the Court of Small Causes held under Act IX of 1850 (for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay), but may, under special circumstances, be directed to any person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

When the witness is within the local jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

170. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the British territories in India or within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Court, if it be satisfied that the evidence of such witness is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the representation of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission for the examination of the witness; provided that, if the suit be pending in any Court subordinate to the principal Civil Court of a District, such subordinate Court shall not issue the Commission, but the principal Civil Court of the District may issue the Commission on the application of the subordinate Court.

When the witness is not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or the Supreme Court, but within the British territories or the territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government.

171. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place beyond the said territories and not within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Sudder Court, if the suit in which the evidence of the witness is required be pending in that Court and the Court be satisfied that such evidence is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission to examine the witness; if the suit be not pending in the Sudder Court, that Court may issue the Commission on the application of the Court in which the suit is pending. In all such cases, the Commission may be issued to any person or persons whom the Sudder Court may think proper to appoint.

Commission to be returned with the depositions of the witnesses.

172. After the Commission has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness who may have been examined thereunder, to the Court out of which the Commission issued, unless otherwise directed by the order for issuing the Commission, in which case it shall be returned in terms of such order, and the Commission and the return thereto and the deposition of the witness who may have been examined under such Commission shall in all cases form part of the record of the suit. But no deposition taken under a Commission shall be read in evidence without the consent of the party against whom the same may be offered, unless it be proved that the deponent is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, or dead, or unable from sickness or infirmity to attend to be personally examined, or distant, without collusion, more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court, or unless the Court shall, at its discretion, dispense with the proof of any of the above circumstances, or shall authorize the deposition of any witness being read in evidence, notwithstanding proof that the causes for taking such deposition have ceased at the time of reading the same.

When depositions may be read in evidence.

Commission for local investigations.

173. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which the Court may deem a local investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of elucidating the matters in dispute, or of ascertaining the amount of any mesne profits or damages, the Court may issue a Commission to an Officer of the Court appointed to execute such Commissions, or, if there be no such Officer, to any suitable person, directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to the Court. In all such cases, unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment, the Commissioner shall have power to examine any witnesses who may be produced to him by the parties or any of them, the parties themselves, and any other persons whom he may think proper to call upon to give evidence in the matters referred to him; and also to call for and examine documents and other papers relevant to the subject of enquiry; and persons not attending on the requisition of the Commissioner, or refusing to give their testimony or to produce any documents or other papers, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the report of the Commissioner, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court. The Commissioner, after such local inspection as he may deem necessary, and after reducing to writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for taking the depositions of witnesses in the presence of the Judge, the depositions taken by him, shall return the depositions, together with his report in writing, subscribed with his name, to the Court. The report and depositions shall be taken as evidence in the suit and shall form part of the record; but it shall be competent to the Court, or to the parties to the suit or any of them, with the permission of the Court, to examine the Commissioner personally in open Court, touching any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report, or the manner in which he may have conducted the investigation.

The report and depositions to be taken as evidence in the suit, but the Commissioner may be examined in person.

A Commissioner may be appointed to investigate and adjust accounts.

174. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which an investigation or adjustment of accounts may be necessary, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint such Officer or other person as aforesaid to be a Commissioner for the purpose of making such investigation or adjustment, and to direct that the parties or their attorneys or pleaders shall attend upon the Commissioner during such investigation or adjustment. In all such cases, the Court shall furnish the Commissioner with such part of the proceedings and such detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his information and guidance; and the instructions shall distinctly specify whether the Commissioner is merely to transmit the proceedings which he may hold on the enquiry or also to report his own opinion on the point referred for his investigation. The proceedings of the Commissioner shall be received in evidence in the case, unless the Court may have reason to be dissatisfied with them; in which case the Court shall make such further inquiry as may be requisite, and shall pass such ultimate judgment or order as may appear to it to be right and proper in the circumstances of the case.

In cases of local investigation or investigation into accounts, expenses of Commission to be paid into Court, before issue thereof.

175. Whenever a Commission is issued either for taking evidence or for a local investigation or an investigation into accounts, the Court, before issuing the Commission, may order such sum as may be thought reasonable for the expenses of the Commission to be paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Commission is issued.

Of Judgment and Decree.

When judgment is to be pronounced.

176. When the exhibits have been perused, the witnesses examined, and the parties heard in person or by their respective pleaders, the Court shall pronounce its judgment. The judgment shall be pronounced in open Court either immediately or on some future day of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

Judgment to be written in the vernacular language of the Judge.

Proviso.

177. The judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. Provided that, if the vernacular language of the Judge be not English and the Judge be sufficiently conversant with the English language to be able to write a clear and intelligible decision in that language, and prefer to write his judgment in it, the judgment may be written in English.

178. The judgment shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge in open Court at the time of pronouncing it. Whenever the judgment is written in any other language than that which is in ordinary use in the Court, the judgment shall be translated into the language in ordinary use in the Court, and the translation shall also be signed by the Judge.

Judgment what to contain.

Judgment to be translated.

179. In all suits in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision on each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues be sufficient for the decision of the suit.

Court to state its decision on each issue.

Proviso.

180. The judgment shall in all cases direct by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, whether by himself or by another party, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion; and the Court shall have full power to award and apportion costs in any manner it may deem proper.

Judgment to direct by whom costs are to be paid.

181. Under the denomination of costs are included the whole of the expenses necessarily incurred by either party on account of the suit, and in enforcing the decree passed therein, such as the expense of stamps, of summoning the defendants and witnesses, and of other processes, or of procuring copies of documents, fees of pleaders, charges of witnesses, and expenses of Commissioners either in taking evidence or in local investigations or in investigations into accounts.

What is included under the denomination of costs.

182. The decree shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and descriptions of the parties, and particulars of the claim, as stated in the Register of the suit, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the suit. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit and by what parties and in what proportions they are to be paid, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court.

Decree.

183. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property with specified boundaries, if the decree be for the recovery of a portion only of such property, it shall specify the boundaries of the land or property adjudged.

Decree for the recovery of a portion of immoveable property.

184. When the suit is for moveable property, if the decree be for the delivery of such property, it shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

Decree for the delivery of moveable property.

185. When the suit is for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court with the consent of the plaintiff may decree the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and in such case shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative if the contract is not performed.

Decree for damages for breach of contract.

186. When the suit is for a sum of money due to the plaintiff, the Court may in the decree order interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged from the date of suit to the date of payment at such rate as the Court may think proper.

In suits for money, decree may order certain interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged.

187. In all decrees for the payment of money, the Court may for any sufficient reason order that the amount shall be paid by instalments with or without interest. All moneys payable under a decree shall be paid into the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, unless the Court passing the decree shall otherwise direct.

Payment by instalments.

188. If the defendant shall have been allowed to set-off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount (if any) is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which shall appear to be due to either party. The decree of the Court with respect to any sum awarded to the defendant shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate suit against the plaintiff.

If set-off be allowed.

Effect of Decree.

189. When the suit is for land or other property paying rent, the Court may provide in the decree for the payment of mesne profits or rent on such land or other property from the date of the suit until the date of delivery of possession to the decree-holder with interest thereupon at such rate as the Court may think proper.

When the suit is for land, the Court may provide in the decree for payment of mesne profits with interest.

190. When the suit is for land and for mesne profits which have accrued thereon during a period prior to the date of suit, and the amount of such profits is disputed, the Court may either determine the amount prior to passing a decree for the land, or may pass a decree for the land and reserve the enquiry into the amount of mesne profits for the execution of the decree according as may appear most convenient.

Court may determine amount of mesne profits prior to passing decree or may reserve enquiry.

191. Certified copies of the decree and judgment shall be furnished to the parties or their pleaders on application to the Court, and on the production of the necessary stamps where stamps are required by any law for the time being in force. The application may be made either orally or by writing on unstamped paper.

Certified copies of the decree and judgment to be furnished.

CHAPTER IV.

Execution of Decrees.

192. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property, the same shall be delivered over to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged

Decree for immoveable property.

193. If the decree be for any specific moveable, or for the specific performance of any contract, or for the performance of any other particular act, it shall be enforced by the seizure, if practicable, of the specific moveable and the delivery thereof to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged, or by imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by attaching his property and keeping the same under attachment until further order of the Court, or by both imprisonment and attachment if necessary; or if alternative damages be awarded, by levying such damages in the mode hereinafter provided for the execution of a decree for money.

Decree for moveable property, performance of contract, or alternative.

194. If the decree be for money, it shall be enforced by the imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by the attachment and sale of his property, or by both if necessary; and if such party be other than a defendant, the decree may be enforced against him in the same manner as a decree may be enforced under the provisions of this Chapter against a defendant.

Decree for money.

195. If the decree be for the execution of a conveyance or for the endorsement of a negotiable instrument, and the party ordered to execute or endorse such conveyance or negotiable instrument shall neglect or refuse so to do, any party interested in having the same executed or endorsed may prepare a conveyance or endorsement of the instrument in accordance with the terms of the decree, and tender the same to the Court, for execution upon the proper stamp (if any is required by law), and the signature thereof by the Judge shall have the same effect as the execution or endorsement thereof by the party ordered to execute.

Decrees for execution of conveyances, or endorsement of negotiable instruments.

196. If the decree be against a party as the representative of a deceased person, and such decree be for money to be paid out of the property of the deceased person, it may be executed by the attachment and sale of any such property, or, if no such property can be found and the defendant fail to satisfy the Court that he has duly applied such property of the deceased as shall be proved to have come into his possession, the decree may be executed against the defendant to the extent of the property not duly applied by him, in the same manner as if the decree had been against the defendant personally.

Decree against representatives of deceased persons.

197. Whenever a person has become liable as security for the performance of a decree or of any part thereof, the decree may be executed against such person to the extent to which he has rendered himself liable, in the same manner as a decree may be enforced against a defendant.

Decree against sureties.

198. The following property is liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, namely, lands, houses, goods, money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Government securities, bonds, or other securities for money, debts, shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other Public Company or Corporation, and all other property whatsoever, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, and whether the same be held in his own name or by another person in trust for him, or on his behalf.

What property liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree.

Application for Execution.

199. When any party in whose favor a decree has been made is desirous of enforcing the same, he shall apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree either in person or through his pleader in the suit or some other pleader duly appointed to act for him in that behalf. If there be two or more decree-holders, one or more of them may make the application, if the Court shall see sufficient cause for allowing him or them to make such application; and the Court shall in such case pass such order as it may deem necessary for protecting the interests of the other decree-holders.

Application for execution how to be made.

200. If a decree shall be transferred by assignment or by operation of law from the original decree-holder to any other person, application for the execution of the decree may be made by the person to whom it shall have been so transferred or his pleader; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed in the same manner as if the application were made by the original decree-holder.

Application by whom to be made, if decree be transferred from original decree-holder to another person.

201. If there be cross-decrees between the same parties for the payment of money, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained a decree for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum shall be entered on the decree for the larger sum as well as satisfaction on the decree for the smaller sum, and if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both decrees.

Cross-decrees.

The above rules shall apply to decrees sent to a Court for execution as well as to decrees in the same Court.

Whenever a suit shall be pending in any Court against the holder of a decree of such Court, by the person or persons against whom the decree was passed, the Court may, if it appear just and reasonable to do so, stay execution on the decree either absolutely or on such terms as it may think just, until a decree shall be passed in the pending suit.

202. If any person against whom a decree has been made shall die before execution has been fully had thereon, application for execution thereof may be made against the legal representative or the estate of the person so dying as aforesaid; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed accordingly.

If the person against whom a decree is made shall die, application may be made against his legal representative or estate.

203. If the decree be ordered to be executed against the legal representative, it shall be executed in the manner provided in Section 5 of this Chapter for the execution of a decree for money to be paid out of the property of a deceased person.

Decree how to be executed against legal representative.

204. The application for execution of a decree shall be in writing, and shall contain in a tabular form the following particulars, namely, the number of the suit, the names of the parties, the date of the decree, whe-

Form of application for execution of a decree.

ther any appeal has been preferred from the decree, and whether any and what adjustment of the matter in dispute has been made between the parties subsequently to the decree; the amount of the debt or damages due upon it, or other relief granted by the decree; the amount of costs, if any were awarded; the name of the person against whom the enforcement of the decree is sought; and the mode in which the assistance of the Court is required, whether by the delivery of property specifically decreed, the arrest and imprisonment of the person named, or attachment of his property, or otherwise as the case may be.

Further particulars when the application is for an attachment of immoveable property.

205. When the application is for an attachment of any land or other immoveable property belonging to the defendant, it shall be accompanied with an inventory or list of such property, containing such a description of the property as may be sufficient to identify it, together with a specification of the defendant's share or interest therein, to the best of the applicant's belief and so far as he has been able to ascertain the same. And where the property is an estate paying revenue to Government, or any portion of such estate, the application for an attachment shall be accompanied with an authenticated extract from the Register of the Collector's Office, specifying the revenue of such estate, and the names and (where registered) the shares of the registered proprietors.

The application for an attachment of moveable property may be general, or may be accompanied with an inventory of the property to be attached.

206. Where the application is for an attachment of the defendant's moveable property or any part thereof, it may be accompanied with an inventory or list of the property to be attached, containing a reasonably accurate description thereof; or the applicant may apply for a general attachment of the defendant's moveable property wheresoever the same can be found, to the amount of the judgment and costs.

Procedure on receiving the application.

207. The Court, on receiving any application for execution of a decree, containing the particulars above mentioned, or such of them as may be applicable to the case, shall cause the same to be compared with the original decree contained in the record of the suit; and if they shall be found to correspond therewith, shall enter a note of the application, and the date on which it was made in the Register of the suit. If the particulars shall not be found to correspond with the original decree, the Court shall either return the application for correction to the person making it, or shall, with the consent of such person, cause the necessary correction to be made. If the application be admitted, the Court shall order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application.

MEASURES REQUIRED IN CERTAIN CASES PRELIMINARY TO THE ISSUE OF THE WARRANT.

In certain special cases, notice to show cause why the decree should not be executed, shall be issued.

208. If an interval of more than one year shall have elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for its execution, or if the enforcement of the decree be applied for against the heir or representative of an original party to the suit, the Court shall issue a notice to the party against whom execution may be applied for, requiring him to show cause, within a limited period to be fixed by the Court, why the decree should not be executed against him. Provided that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of an interval of more than one year having elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for execution, if the application be made within one year from the date of the last order passed on any previous application for execution; and provided further that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of the application being against an heir or representative, if, upon a previous application for execution against the same person, the Court shall have ordered execution to issue against him.

Proviso.

Procedure after issue of notice.

209. When such notice is issued, if the party shall not attend in person or by a pleader, or shall not show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court why the decree should not be forthwith executed, the Court shall order it to be executed accordingly. If the party shall attend in person or by a pleader, and shall offer any objection to the enforcement of the decree, the Court shall pass such order as in the circumstances of the case may appear to be just and proper.

Application for a general attachment of moveable property.

210. Where the application is for a general attachment of the moveable property of the defendant, it shall be competent to the Court, if it shall think proper, before issuing an order for such attachment, to require the applicant to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, in such sum as may be considered adequate, for any injury that may be occasioned by the attachment of property belonging to any other person than the defendant.

Before granting order, Court may make certain enquiries as to the property to be attached.

211. Before granting the order for a general attachment or at the instance of the plaintiff at any time after judgment and before complete execution of the decree, the Court may summon the person against whom the application is made and examine him as to the property liable to be seized in satisfaction of the judgment. The Court may also, of its own motion or at the instance of any person interested in the enquiry, summon any other person whom it may think necessary and examine him in respect to such property, and may require the person summoned to produce all deeds and documents in his possession or power relating to such property.

Rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after judgment.

212. In all cases in which a summons may be issued for the attendance of a party to a suit or any other person at any time after judgment, the rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after issues recorded, shall apply to the party or witnesses so summoned.

ISSUE OF THE WARRANT.

Warrant when to issue.

213. When all necessary preliminary measures have been taken, where any such are required, the Court, unless it see cause to the contrary, shall issue the proper warrants for the execution of the decree.

214. Every warrant for the execution of a decree shall bear the date of the day on which it is issued, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, and delivered to the Nazir or other proper Officer of the Court. A day shall be specified in the warrant on or before which it must be executed, and the Nazir or other proper Officer shall endorse upon the warrant the day and the manner in which it was executed, or, if it was not executed, the reason why it was not executed, and shall return it with such endorsement to the Court from which it issued.

Latest day of execution to be written in warrant, and time and manner of execution to be endorsed.

Of the execution of Decrees for Immoveable Property.

215. If the decree be for a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the institution of the suit, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been adjudged, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

How immoveable property is to be delivered when in the occupancy of a defendant or of some person under him.

216. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the warrant in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, the substance of the decree in regard to the property.

How it is to be delivered when in the occupancy of ryots.

217. If the decree be for the division of an estate or for the separate possession of a share of an undivided estate paying revenue to Government, the division of the estate or the separation of the share shall be made by the Collector under the orders of the Court according to the rules in force for the partition of an estate paying revenue to Government.

Division of estate or separation of share how to be made.

218. If, in the execution of a decree for land or other immoveable property, the Officer executing the same shall be resisted or obstructed by any person, the person in whose favor such decree was made may apply to the Court at any time within one month from the time of such resistance or obstruction. The Court shall fix a day for investigating the complaint and shall summon the party against whom the complaint is made to answer the same.

Obstruction to execution of decree for immoveable property.

219. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the obstruction or resistance was occasioned by the defendant or by some person at his instigation on the ground that the land or other immoveable property is not included in the decree, or on any other ground, the Court shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper under the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by defendant.

220. If the Court shall be satisfied, after such investigation of the facts of the case as it may deem proper, that the resistance or obstruction complained of was without any just cause and that the complainant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining effectual possession of the property adjudged to him by the decree, by the defendant or some person at his instigation, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff and without prejudice to any proceedings to which such defendant or other person may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, commit the defendant or such other person to close custody for such period not exceeding thirty days as may be necessary to prevent the continuance of such obstruction or resistance.

How defendant may be dealt with, if he persists in obstructing the complainant.

221. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the resistance or obstruction to the execution of the decree has been occasioned by any person, other than the defendant, claiming bonâ fide to be in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, the claim shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the decree-holder as plaintiff and the claimant as defendant, and the Court shall, without prejudice to any proceedings to which the claimant may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, proceed to investigate the claim in the same manner and with the like power as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the decree-holder against the claimant under the provisions of this Act, and shall pass such order for staying execution of the decree, or executing the same, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by a bonâ fide claimant other than the defendant.

222. If any person other than the defendant shall be dispossessed of any land or other immoveable property in execution of a decree, and such person shall dispute the right of the decree-holder to dispossess him of such property under the decree on the ground that the property was bonâ fide in his possession on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, and that it was not included in the decree, or, if included in the decree, that he was not a party to the suit in which the decree was passed, he may apply to the Court within one month from the date of such dispossession ; and if, after examining the applicant, it shall appear to the Court that there is probable cause for making the application, the application shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff, and the decree-holder as defendant, and the Court shall proceed to investigate the matter in dispute in the same manner and with the like powers as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the applicant against the decree-holder.

Procedure in certain cases if person dispossessed of immoveable property dispute the right of decree-holder to be put into possession of such property.

223. The decision passed by the Court under either of the last two Sections shall be of the same force as a decree in an ordinary suit, and shall be subject to appeal under the rules applicable to appeals from decrees; and no fresh suit shall be entertained in any Court between the same party or parties claiming under them in respect of the same cause of action.

Appeal from decision under the last two Sections.

OF THE EXECUTION OF DECREES FOR MONEY BY ATTACHMENT OF PROPERTY.

224. If the decree be for money, and the amount thereof is to be levied from the property of the person against whom the same may have been pronounced, the Court shall cause the property to be attached in the manner following.

Attachment of property in execution of decree for money, to be as follows.

225. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall keep the same in his own custody, or in the custody of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof.

Attachment of moveable property in possession of defendant, by seizure.

226. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of some other person to the immediate possession thereof, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the person in possession from giving over the property to the defendant.

Attachment by prohibitory order of moveable property, to which defendant is entitled subject to a lien.

227. Where the property shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the defendant from alienating the property by sale, gift, or in any other way, and all persons from receiving the same by purchase, gift, or otherwise.

Attachment of immoveable property, by prohibitory order.

228. Where the property shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments, or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts, and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person whomsoever, until the further order of the Court, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing from making any transfer of the shares or receiving payment of any dividends thereof, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment, until such further order.

Attachment of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies &c., by prohibitory order.

229. Where the property shall consist of money, or of any security, in deposit in any Court of Justice or in the hands of any Officer of Government, which is or may become payable to the defendant or on his behalf, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or Officer requesting that the money or security may be held subject to the further order of the Court by which the notice may be issued. Provided that, if such money or security is in deposit in any Court of Justice, any question of title or priority which may arise between the decree-holder and any other person, not being the defendant, claiming to be interested in such money or security by virtue of any assignment, attachment, or otherwise, shall be determined by the Court in which such money or security is in deposit.

Attachment of money or securities in deposit in a Court of Justice or with a Government Officer, by notice.

230. Where the property shall consist of a negotiable instrument, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall bring the same into Court, and such instrument shall be held subject to the further orders of the Court.

Attachment of negotiable instruments by seizure.

231. In the case of goods, chattels, or other moveable property not in the possession of the defendant, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the person in possession of the property. In the case of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the written order shall be read aloud at some place on or adjacent to such lands, houses, or other property, and shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house; and when the property is land or any interest in land, the written order shall also be fixed up in the Office of the Collector of the Zillah in which the land may be situated. In the case of debts, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and copies of the written order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to each individual debtor. And in the case of shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the written order shall in like manner be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation.

When the attachment is by prohibitory order, how the order is to be made known.

232. After any attachment shall have been made by actual seizure, or by written order as aforesaid, and in the case of an attachment by written order after it shall have been duly intimated and made known in manner aforesaid, any private alienation of the property attached, whether by sale, gift, or otherwise, and any payment of the debt or debts or dividends on shares to the defendant during the continuance of the attachment, shall be null and void.

Any private alienation of property after attachment to be null and void.

233. In every case in which a debtor shall be prohibited from making payment of his debt to the creditor, he may pay the amount into Court, and such payment shall have the same effect as payment to the party entitled to receive the debt.

Payment by a debtor who has been prohibited from making payment to his creditor.

234. In all cases of attachment under the preceding Sections, it shall be competent to the Court, at any time during the attachment, to direct that any part of the property so attached as shall consist of money or bank-notes, or a sufficient part

The Court may direct money or bank notes to be paid to the plaintiff;

thereof, shall be paid over to the party applying for execution of the decree; or that any part of the property so attached as may not consist of money or bank-notes, so far as may be necessary for the satisfaction of the decree, shall be sold, and that the money which may be realized by such sale, or a sufficient part thereof, shall be paid to such party.

or other attached property to be sold, and proceeds to be paid to him.

235. Where the property attached shall consist of debts due to the party who may be answerable for the amount of the decree, or of any lands, houses, or other immoveable property, it shall further be competent to the Court to appoint a manager of the said property, with power to sue for the debts, and to collect the rents or other receipts and profits of the land or other immoveable property, and to execute such deeds or instruments in writing as may be necessary for the purpose, and to pay and apply such rents, profits, or receipts towards the payment of the amount of the decree and costs; and in any case in which a manager shall be appointed, such manager shall be bound to render due and proper accounts of his receipts and disbursements from time to time as the Court may direct.

Where the property consists of debts or immoveable property, a manager may be appointed.

236. If the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses which may be incurred by the attachment be paid into Court, or if it shall be proved to the Court that satisfaction thereof has been made, an order shall be issued for the withdrawal of the attachment; and if the defendant shall desire it and shall deposit in Court a sum sufficient to cover the expense, the order shall be proclaimed or intimated in the same manner as hereinbefore prescribed for the proclamation or intimation of the attachment; and such steps shall be taken as may be necessary for staying further proceedings in execution of the decree.

Order for withdrawal of attachment after satisfaction of the decree.

Of Claims to Attached Property.

237. In the event of any claim being preferred to, or objection offered against the sale of lands or any other immoveable or moveable property which may have been attached in execution of a decree or under any order for attachment passed before judgment, as not liable to be sold in execution of a decree against the defendant, the Court shall, subject to the proviso contained in the next succeeding Section, proceed to investigate the same with the like powers as if the claimant had been originally made a defendant to the suit, and also with such powers as regards the summoning of the original defendant as are contained in Section 212 of this Chapter. And if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was not in the possession of the party against whom execution is sought, or of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, or that, being in the possession of the party himself at such time, it was so in his possession not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, the Court shall pass an order for releasing the said property from attachment. But if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was in possession of the party against whom execution is sought, as his own property, and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, the Court shall disallow the claim and shall direct the decree to be executed. The order which may be passed by the Court under this Section shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom the order may be given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one year from the date thereof.

How claims and objections to sale of attached property are to be investigated.

238. The claim or objection shall be made at the earliest opportunity to the Court which shall have ordered the attachment; and if the property to which the claim or objection applies, shall have been advertized for sale, the sale may (if it appears necessary) be postponed for the purpose of making the investigation mentioned in the last preceding Section. Provided that no such investigation shall be made if it appear that the making of the claim or objection was designedly and unnecessarily delayed, with a view to obstruct the ends of justice. The order disallowing the investigation shall not be subject to appeal, and the claimant shall be left to prosecute his claim by a regular suit.

Claims and objections should be preferred at the earliest opportunity.

Of Sales in execution of Decrees.

239. Sales in execution of decrees shall be conducted by an Officer of the Court, or by any other person whom the Court may appoint, and shall in all cases be made by public auction in manner hereinafter mentioned. Provided that, if the property to be sold shall consist of negotiable securities or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, it shall be competent to the Court, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, to authorize the sale of such securities or shares through a broker at the market-rate of the day. If the property to be sold shall be land paying revenue to Government and the Government shall so direct, the sale shall be conducted by the Collector on the requisition of the Court.

Sales to be by public auction.

Exception as to negotiable securities and sh resinpublic Companies.

Collector to conduct sale of lands paying revenue to Government.

240. In all cases of intended sale by public auction, whether of moveable or immoveable property, in execution of a decree, a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale, the property to be sold, the revenue assessed upon the estate when the property to be sold is an estate or a part of an estate paying revenue to Government, and the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered, together with any other particulars that the Court may think necessary, shall be made in the current language of the District. Such proclamation shall be made on the spot where the property is attached by beat of drum or in such other mode as may be customary; and a written notification to the same effect shall be affixed in the Court-house of the Judge who shall have ordered the sale, and in some conspicuous spot in the town or village in which the attachment may have taken place. When the property ordered to be sold may consist of land or of any right or interest in land, the written notification shall also be affixed in the Office of the Collector of the District in which such land is situate and in the Court-house of the principal Civil Court of the District where the Court which ordered the sale is subordinate to such Court. The sale shall not take place until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immoveable property, and of at least fifteen days in the case of moveable property, calculated from the date on which the notification shall have been affixed in the Court-house of the Judge ordering the sale.

Notification of sales by public auction.

Time of sale.

241. The usual process for attachment and sale when the property to be attached consists of goods, chattels, or other personal estate other than debts, may be issued either successively or simultaneously as the Court directing the sale may in each instance think proper.

The process for attachment and sale may in certain cases be issued simultaneously.

242. In all cases of a public sale of property in execution of a decree, it shall be clearly explained to the bidders at the sale that nothing is guaranteed to them in the land or other property sold, beyond the right, title, and interest therein of the individual answerable for the amount of the decree in execution of which the sale is made.

Nothing but the right, title, and interest of the defendant guaranteed to the purchaser.

243. In all cases of sale of moveable property, the price of every lot shall be paid for at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall direct, and in default of such payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold. On payment of the purchase money, the Officer holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute.

Mode of payment on sale of moveable property.

244. No irregularity in the sale of moveable property under an execution, shall vitiate the sale; but any person who may sustain any injury by reason of such irregularity may recover damages by a suit in Court.

Irregularity not to vitiate sale of moveable property, but any person injured may recover damages by suit.

245. In all cases of sale of immoveable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold.

Deposit by purchaser in case of sale of immoveable property.

246. The full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the sale of the property took place, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day; and in default of payment within such period, the deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the property shall be resold and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

When full amount of purchase money to be made good.

Procedure on default.

247. If the proceeds of the sale which is eventually consummated be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be leviable from him under the rules for enforcing the payment of money in satisfaction of a decree of Court.

Defaulting purchaser answerable for loss by re-sale.

248. Every re-sale of immoveable property in default of payment of the purchase money shall be made after the issue of a fresh notification in the manner and for the period prescribed for original sales.

Notification on re-sale of immoveable property.

249. No sale of immoveable property shall become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Court. At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Court to set aside the sale on the ground of any material irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale, but no sale shall be set aside on the ground of such irregularity unless the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the Court that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity.

Confirmation of sale.

250. If no such application as is mentioned in the last preceding Section be made, or if such application be made and the objection be disallowed, the Court shall pass an order confirming the sale; and in like manner if such application be made, and if the objection be allowed, the Court shall pass an order setting aside the sale for irregularity. If the objection be allowed, the order made to set aside the sale shall be final; if the objection be disallowed, the order confirming the sale shall be open to appeal; and such order, unless appealed from, and if appealed from, then the order passed on the appeal, shall be final; and the party against whom the same has been given shall be precluded from bringing a suit for establishing his claim.

The sale, if not objected to for irregularity, or if the objection is disallowed, shall become absolute.

When the order to set aside a sale shall be open to appeal.

251. Whenever a sale of immoveable property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase money with or without interest, in such manner as it may appear proper to the Court to direct in each instance.

If the sale be set aside, price to be returned to purchaser.

252. After a sale of immoveable property shall have become absolute in manner aforesaid, the Court shall grant a certificate to the person who may have been declared the purchaser at such sale, to the effect that he has purchased the right, title, and interest of the defendant in the property sold, and such certificate shall be taken and deemed to be a valid transfer of such right, title, and interest.

Certificate to be granted to the purchasers of land.

253. The certificate shall state the name of the person who at the time of sale is declared to be the actual purchaser, and any suit brought against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser,

Certificate to state the name of actual purchaser.

though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

Delivery of moveable property in the possession of defendant.

254. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, or to the immediate possession of which the defendant is entitled, and of which actual seizure has been made, the property shall be delivered to the purchaser.

Delivery of moveable property to which defendant is entitled subject to lien.

255. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of any person to the immediate possession thereof, the delivery to the purchaser shall as far as practicable be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser thereof.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of defendants, &c.

256. If the property sold shall consist of a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the attachment of such property, the Court shall order delivery thereof to the made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been sold, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and, if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots, &c.

257. If the property sold shall consist of land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of sale in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, that the right, title, and interest of the defendant has been transferred to the purchaser.

Delivery of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies.

258. Where the property sold shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the delivery thereof shall be by a written order of the Court prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person or persons except the purchaser, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing, from making any transfer of the shares to any person except the purchaser, or receiving payment of any dividends thereon, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment to any person except the purchaser.

Delivery of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made.

259. Where the property sold shall consist of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made, the same shall be delivered to the purchaser thereof.

Transfer of securities and shares.

260. If the endorsement or conveyance of the party in whose name any negotiable security or any share in a public Company or Corporation is standing, shall be required to transfer the same, the Judge may endorse the security or the certificate of the share or may execute such other document as may be necessary for transferring the same. The endorsement or execution shall be in the following form or to the like effect—"A. B. by C. D. Judge of the Court of (or as the case may be); in a suit by E. F. versus A. B." Until the transfer of such security or share, the Judge may, by order, appoint some person to receive any interest or dividend due thereon, and to sign receipts for the same; and any endorsement made or document executed or receipts signed as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes, as if the same had been made or executed or signed by the party himself.

Resisting or obstructing purchasers in obtaining possession of property.

261. If the purchaser of any immoveable property sold in execution of a decree shall be resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession of the property, the provisions contained in Sections 218, 219, and 220 of this Chapter relating to resistance or obstruction to a party in whose favor a suit has been decreed in obtaining possession of the property adjudged to him, shall be applicable in the case of such resistance or obstruction.

Obstruction by claimants other than defendants.

262. If it shall appear that the resistance or obstruction to the delivery of possession was occasioned by any person other than the defendant claiming a right to the possession of the property sold as proprietor, mortgagee, lessee, or under any other title, or if in the delivery of possession to the purchaser any such person claiming as aforesaid shall be dispossessed, the Court, on the complaint of the purchaser, or of such person claiming as aforesaid, if made within one month from the date of such resistance or obstruction or of such dispossession as the case may be, shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper in the circumstances of the case. The order shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom it is given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one month from the date thereof.

Attaching creditor to be first paid out of property attached.

263. Whenever property is sold in execution of a decree, the person on whose application such property was attached shall be entitled to be first paid out of the proceeds thereof, notwithstanding a subsequent attachment of the same property by another party in execution of a prior decree.

Surplus to be rateably distributed among decree-holders who have taken out execution prior to the order for distribution.

264. If, after the claim of the person on whose application the property was attached has been satisfied in full from the proceeds of the sale, any surplus remain, such surplus shall be distributed rateably amongst any other persons who prior to the order for such distribution may have taken out execution of decrees against the same defendant and not obtained satisfaction thereof. Provided that, when any property is sold subject to a mortgage, the mortgagee shall not be entitled to share in any surplus arising from such sale.

Proviso where property is sold subject to a mortgage.

265. If it shall appear to the Court, upon the application of a decree-holder, that any other decree under which property has been attached was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may order that the applicant shall be satisfied out of the proceeds of the property attached so far as the same may suffice for the purpose if such other decree be a decree of that Court, or, if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings to enable the applicant to obtain a similar order from the Court by which the decree was made.

Court may on application, order another decree-holder to be satisfied out of proceeds of property attached under a decree obtained fraudulently.

Of Arrest in execution of Decrees for Money.

266. Any person arrested under a warrant in execution of a decree for money may, on being brought before the Court, apply for his discharge on the ground that he has no present means of paying the debt, either wholly or in part, or, if possessed of any property, that he is willing to place whatever property he possesses at the disposal of the Court. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found, or shall state that, with the exceptions above-mentioned, the applicant is not possessed of any property, and the application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for subscribing and verifying plaints.

On what grounds, application for discharge may be made.

Form of application.

267. Upon such application being made, the Court shall examine the applicant in the presence of the plaintiff or his pleader as to his then circumstances, and as to his future means of payment, and shall call upon the plaintiff to show cause why he does not proceed against any property of which the defendant is possessed and why the defendant should not be discharged ; and should the plaintiff fail to show such cause, the Court may direct the discharge of the defendant from custody. Pending any enquiry which the Court may consider it necessary to make into the allegations of either party, the Court may leave the defendant in the custody of the Officer of the Court to whom the service of the warrant was entrusted, on the defendant making the necessary deposit for paying the fees of such Officer ; or if the defendant furnish good and sufficient security for his appearance at any time when called upon while such enquiry is being made, his surety or sureties undertaking in default of such appearance to pay the amount mentioned in the warrant, the Court may release the defendant on such security.

Procedure on application.

268. The discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section shall not protect him from being arrested again and imprisoned if it should be shown that, in the application made by him, he had been guilty of any concealment or of wilfully making any false statement respecting the property belonging to him, whether in possession or in expectancy or held for him in trust, or had fraudulently concealed, transferred, or removed any property, or had committed any other act of bad faith ; nor shall such discharge exempt from attachment and sale any property then in the possession of the defendant, or of which he may afterwards become possessed.

Defendant liable to be again arrested if proved guilty of fraudulent concealment of property &c.

Of the execution of Decrees by Imprisonment.

269. When a defendant is committed to prison in execution of a decree, the Court shall fix whatever monthly allowance it shall think sufficient for his subsistence, not exceeding four annas per day, which shall be supplied by the party at whose instance the decree may have been executed, to the proper Officer of the Court, or of the gaol where the defendant may be in custody, by monthly payments in advance, before the 1st day of each month ; the first payment to be made for such portion of the current month as may remain unexpired before the defendant is committed to prison.

Subsistence-money of a defendant in gaol how fixed and furnished.

270. The Court may, in case of illness or for other special cause, fix the monthly allowance at such sum not exceeding six annas per day as shall appear necessary. The order fixing such allowance may from time to time be revised and altered on due cause being shown.

Court may vary the allowance in case of illness or for other special cause.

271. A defendant shall be released at any time on the decree being fully satisfied, or at the request of the person at whose instance he may have been imprisoned, or on such person omitting to pay the allowance as above directed. No person shall be imprisoned on account of a decree for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding five hundred Rupees or for a longer period than three months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Period of imprisonment for debt not to be longer than 2 years.

6 months if decree for money not exceeding 500 Rs.

3 months if not exceeding 50 Rs.

272. Sums disbursed by a plaintiff for the subsistence of a defendant in gaol shall be added to the costs of the decree, and shall be recoverable by the attachment and sale of the property of the defendant under the foregoing rules ; but the defendant shall not be detained in custody or arrested on account of any sums so disbursed.

Subsistence-money to be added to amount of decree.

273. Any person in confinement under a decree may apply to the Court for his discharge. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found ; and such application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints.

Application may be made for discharge on a surrender of the whole of the debtor's property.

274. On such application being made, the Court shall cause the plaintiff to be furnished with a copy of the account of the defendant's property, and shall fix a reasonable period within which the plaintiff may cause the whole or any part of such property to be attached and sold or may make proof that the defendant, for the purpose of procuring his discharge without satisfying the decree, has wilfully concealed property, or his right or interest therein, or fraudulently transferred or removed property, or committed any other act of bad faith. If within such period the plaintiff shall fail to make such proof, the Court shall cause the defendant to be set at liberty. If the plaintiff shall within the time specified or at any subsequent period prove to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been guilty of any of the acts above-mentioned, the Court shall, at the instance of the plaintiff, either retain the defendant in confinement, or commit him to prison, as the case may be, unless he shall have already been in confinement two years on account of the decree; and may also, if it shall think proper, send the defendant to the Magistrate to be dealt with according to law.

Procedure on such application.

Defendant to be discharged on plaintiff failing to prove fraud or concealment by defendant.

If guilty of fraud or concealment, debtor's imprisonment may be extended to two years;

and he may be further dealt with criminally.

275. A defendant once discharged shall not again be imprisoned on account of the same decree except under the operation of the last preceding Section, but his property shall continue liable, under the ordinary rules, to attachment and sale until the decree shall be fully satisfied, unless the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees and on account of a transaction bearing date subsequently to the passing of this Act. When the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees, and on account of a transaction bearing date as above, the Court may declare a defendant who shall be discharged as aforesaid absolved from further liability under that decree.

Though the defendant be discharged, his property is liable for the decree.

276. All questions regarding the amount of any mesne profits which by the terms of the decree may have been reserved for adjustment in the execution of the decree, or of any mesne profits or interest which may be payable in respect of the subject matter of a suit between the date of the institution of the suit and execution of the decree, as well as questions relating to sums alleged to have been paid in discharge or satisfaction of the decree or the like, shall be determined by order of the Court executing the decree and not by separate suit; and the order passed by the Court shall be open to appeal.

How questions regarding amount of mesne profits and interest, and sums paid in satisfaction of decree, are to be determined.

OF THE EXECUTION OF A DECREE OUT OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT BY WHICH IT WAS PASSED.

277. A decree of any Civil Court within any part of the British territories in India, or established by the authority of the Governor General of India in Council in the territories of any Foreign Prince or State, which cannot be executed within the jurisdiction of the Court whose duty it is to execute the same, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other such Court in the manner following.

How a decree of one Court may be executed within the jurisdiction of another Court.

278. The plaintiff in such case may apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, to transmit a copy thereof, together with a certificate that satisfaction of such decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the said Court, and a copy of any order for execution of such decree that may have been passed, to the Court by which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed.

Application for such execution.

279. The Court, unless there be any sufficient reason to the contrary, shall cause such copies and certificate to be prepared; and the same, after being signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court indicated by the applicant if that Court be within the same District, otherwise to the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District in which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed; and the Court to which such copies and certificates are transmitted shall cause the same to be filed therein, without any proof of the judgment or order for execution, or of the copies thereof, or of the seal or jurisdiction of any Court, or of the signature of any Judge, unless it shall, under any peculiar circumstances to be specified in an order, require such proof.

Copy of decree and order for execution to be transmitted.

280. The copy of any decree, or of any order for execution, when filed in the Court to which it shall have been transmitted for the purpose of being executed as aforesaid, shall for such purpose have the same effect as a decree or order for execution made by such Court, and may, if the Court be the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District, be executed by such Court, or any Court subordinate thereto, to which it may entrust the execution of the same.

Decree or order transmitted, to be executed as that of the Court.

281. When application shall be made to any Court to execute the decree of any other Court as aforesaid, the Court to which the application shall be made or referred shall proceed to execute the same according to its own rules in the like cases; provided that such Court shall have no power to enquire into the validity of the decree unless it appear upon the face of the decree that the Court by which it was made had no jurisdiction to make the same.

Execution how to be enforced by Court applied to.

282. The Court to which such application is made or referred for execution as aforesaid, shall take cognizance of and punish all wrongful acts or irregularities done or committed in executing such decree; and all persons disobeying or obstructing the execution of such decree shall be punishable by such Court in the same manner as if the decree had been made by such Court.

Wrongful acts or irregularities in executing decree to be punished by Court applied to.

283. The Court to which such application is made may, upon good and sufficient cause being shown, stay the execution of the decree for a reasonable time, to enable the defendant to apply to the Court by which the decree was passed, or to any Court having appellate jurisdiction in respect of the decree or the execution thereof, for an order to stay the execution, or for any other order relating to the decree or the execution thereof, which such Court of first instance or Court of Appeal might have made if execution had been issued by such Court of first instance, or if application for execution had been made to such Court; and in case the property or person of the defendant shall have been seized under an execution, the Court which issued the execution may order the restitution of the property or the discharge of the person of the defendant pending the result of such application.

Court applied to may in certain cases stay execution or order restitution of property or discharge of defendant.

Before staying execution, Court may require security from, or impose conditions upon defendant.

284. Before making an order to stay execution or for the restitution of property or the discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section, the Court may require such security from or impose such conditions upon the defendant as it may deem reasonable.

Order of Court passing decree or of Appellate Court to be binding upon Court applied to.

285. Any order of the Court in which the decree was passed or of such Court of Appeal as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Court to which the application for execution was made, and shall be a sufficient indemnity for all persons acting in execution of process issued by such last mentioned Court.

Liability of defendant discharged, to be re-taken.

286. No discharge of a defendant under the provisions of Section 283 of this Chapter, shall prevent him from being re-taken in execution of the decree.

What appeal from orders for execution under this Act.

287. All orders of a Court for executing the decree of another Court shall be subject to the same rules, in respect to appeal, as if the decree had been originally passed by the Court making such order.

Warrant of arrest or other process in execution of decrees, how to be enforced in Military Cantonments, &c.

288. If, in execution of a decree, a warrant of arrest or other process is to be enforced within the limits of a Garrison, Cantonment, Military Station, or Military Bazar, the Officer entrusted with the execution of such warrant or other process shall carry the same to the Commanding Officer, or in his absence to the Senior Officer actually present in the Garrison, Cantonment, Station, or Military Bazar; and the Commanding Officer or such Senior Officer, upon such warrant or other process being produced to him, shall back the same with his signature, and, in the case of a warrant of arrest, shall cause the person named in the warrant to be arrested if within the limits of his command and delivered, according to the exigency of the warrant, to the Civil Officer charged with the execution thereof.

Rules contained in this Chapter to be applicable to all Civil process.

289. The rules contained in this Chapter shall be applicable to the execution of any judicial process for the sale of property or for the payment of money which may be ordered by a Civil Court in any Civil proceeding.

CHAPTER V.

Of Pauper Suits.

Suits may be brought in formâ pauperis.

290. A suit may be brought in formâ pauperis in the Court having jurisdiction over the claim, subject to the following rules.

What suits excepted.

291. No pauper suit shall be brought for the recovery of any sum of money on account of damages for loss of caste, slander, abusive language, or assault.

Application to be by petition on stamp paper.

292. The application to the Court for permission to sue in formâ pauperis shall be by petition, which shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of eight annas.

Petition what to contain.

293. The petition shall contain the particulars required by Section 21, Chapter III of this Act, in regard to plaints, and shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the petitioner, with the estimated value thereof, and shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the subscription and verification of plaints.

How to be presented.

294. The petition shall be presented to the Court by the petitioner in person; but if the petitioner satisfy the Court that he is prevented by sickness from attending the Court in person, or if the petitioner be a female, who, according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, the petition may be presented by a duly authorized agent who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the application and who shall be liable to be examined in the same manner as the party represented by him might have been examined had such party attended in person.

Examination of petitioner, if a female, how to be taken.

Petition to be rejected if not in form.

295. If the petition be not framed or presented in the manner laid down in the last two preceding Sections, the Court shall reject the petition.

If in form, Court how to proceed.

296. If the petition be in form and duly presented, the Court shall proceed to examine the petitioner, or the agent of the petitioner as the case may be, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the petitioner.

If presented by an agent, Court may order petitioner to be examined in like manner as an absent witness.

When the petition is presented by an agent, the Court may also, if it think proper, order that the petitioner be examined in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the examination of absent witnesses.

Court may reject the application.

297. If it appear to the Court upon such examination that the defendant, or the matter of the suit, is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the claim is barred by the Statute of Limitations, or that the allegations of the petitioner do not constitute a reasonable ground of action, or (if none of the objections above stated exist) that the petitioner has failed to show that he is not possessed of sufficient means to enable him to pay for the stamps required for the institution and prosecution of the suit, or that the petitioner has recently disposed of any property fraudulently or with a view to obtain the benefit of this Chapter, the Court shall refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Notice to opposite party.

298. If upon such examination the Court shall see no reason to refuse the application on any of the grounds stated in the last preceding Section, it shall fix a day (of which at least ten days' previous notice shall be given to the opposite party) for receiving such evidence as the petitioner may adduce in proof of his pauperism, and for hearing any evidence which the opposite party may bring forward in disproof of the pauperism of the petitioner.

After a summary enquiry, the Court to pass a final order.

299. On the day appointed for the hearing, or as soon after as the business of the Court will permit, the Court shall consider any objections made by the opposite party, and shall examine any witnesses produced by either party and make a memorandum of the substance of their evidence, and shall either allow or refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Court may direct a local enquiry.

300. Previously to passing a final order in the case, the Court may, if it deem fit, institute a local enquiry, in the manner laid down in Section 173, Chapter III of this Act, regarding the property of the petitioner or regarding the amount or value of any property claimed.

Course of proceeding to be observed, if application be admitted.

301. If the application of the petitioner be granted, it shall be numbered and registered and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit shall proceed in all other respects as an ordinary suit, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to any further stamp duty in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader, or other proceeding connected with the suit or with the execution of any decree passed in it.

On the decision of the suit, costs how to be calculated.

302. On the decision of the suit, the Court shall calculate the amount of stamps which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper, and such amount shall be recoverable by Government from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, in the same manner as costs of suit are recoverable.

Refusal to allow to sue as a pauper, to bar any subsequent application of the like nature.

303. The refusal to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature in respect of the same cause of action; but the plaintiff shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the usual manner in respect of such cause of action, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of suits.

No appeals from orders under this Chapter.

304. The orders passed by the Court under the provisions of this Chapter shall not be subject to appeal.

CHAPTER VI.

Reference to Arbitration.

Reference to arbitration on application of the parties.

305. If the parties to a suit are desirous that the matters in difference between them in the suit, or any of such matters, shall be referred to the final decision of one or more arbitrator or arbitrators, they may apply to the Court at any time before final judgment for an order of reference.

Application how to be made.

306. The application shall be made by the parties in person or by their pleaders specially authorized in that behalf by an instrument in writing, which shall be presented to the Court at the time of making the application, and shall be filed with the proceedings in the suit.

Nomination and appointment of arbitrators.

307. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall be nominated by the parties in such manner as may be agreed upon between them. If the parties cannot agree with respect to the nomination of the arbitrator or arbitrators, or if the person or persons nominated by them shall refuse to accept the arbitration, and the parties are desirous that the nomination shall be made by the Court, the Court shall appoint the arbitrator or arbitrators.

Order of reference.

308. The Court shall, by an order under its seal, refer to the arbitrator or arbitrators the matters in difference in the suit which he or they may be required to determine, and shall fix such time as it may think reasonable for the delivery of the award, and the time so fixed shall be specified in the order.

When the reference is to two or more, the order shall provide for difference of opinion.

309. If the reference be to two or more arbitrators, provision shall be made in the order for a difference of opinion among the arbitrators, by the appointment of an umpire, or by declaring that the decision shall be with the majority, or by empowering the arbitrators to appoint an umpire, or otherwise as may be agreed upon between the parties; or if they cannot agree, as the Court may determine.

Powers of arbitrators.

310. When a reference is made to arbitration by an order of Court, the Court shall issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire may desire to have examined, as the Court is authorized to issue in suits tried before it; and persons not attending in consequence of such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their testimony, or being guilty of any contempt to the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire during the investigation of the suit, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court.

Extension of time for making award.

311. When the arbitrator or arbitrators shall not have been able to complete the award within the period specified in the order from the want of the necessary evidence or information or other good and sufficient cause, the Court may from time to time enlarge the period for the delivery of the award, if it shall think proper. In any case in which an umpire shall have been appointed, it shall be lawful for him to enter on the reference in lieu of the arbitrators, if they shall have allowed their time or their extended time to expire without making an award, or shall have delivered to the Court or to the umpire a notice in writing stating that they cannot agree. Provided that an award shall not be liable to be set aside only by reason of its not having been completed within the period allowed by the Court, unless on proof that the delay in completing the award arose from corruption or misconduct of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, or unless the award shall have been made after the issue of an order by the Court superseding the arbitration and recalling the suit.

In case of death, incapacity, or refusal to act of arbitrators or umpire, Court may appoint others in stead.

312. If, in any case of reference to arbitration by an order of Court, the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall die, or refuse or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a new arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, in the place of the person or persons so dying, or refusing or becoming incapable to act. Where the arbitrators are empowered by the terms of the order of reference to appoint an umpire and do not appoint an umpire, any of the parties may serve the arbitrators with a written notice to appoint an umpire ; and if within seven days after such notice shall have been served, no umpire be appointed, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of the party having served such notice as aforesaid, and upon proof to its satisfaction of such notice having been served, to appoint an umpire. In any case of appointment under this Section, the arbitrator or arbitrators, or umpire so appointed, shall have the like power to act in the reference, as if their name or names had been inserted in the original order of reference.

Award how to be submitted to Court.

313. When an award in a suit shall be made, either by the arbitrator or arbitrators, or by the umpire, it shall be submitted to the Court under the signature of the person or persons by whom it may be made, together with all the proceedings, depositions, and exhibits in the suit.

Arbitrator may state special case.

314. It shall be lawful for the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon any reference, by an order of Court, if he or they shall think fit, and if it is not provided to the contrary, to state his or their award as to the whole or any part thereof in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court.

Court may, on application, modify or correct an award in certain cases.

315. The Court may on the application of either party modify or correct an award where it appears that a part of the award is upon matters not referred to the arbitrators, provided such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred ; or where the award is imperfect in form or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision. The Court may also on such application make such order as it thinks just respecting the costs of the arbitration, if any question arise respecting such costs and the award contain no sufficient provision concerning them.

And make order respecting the costs of arbitration.

In what cases Court may remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration, for re-consideration.

316. In any of the following cases the Court shall have power to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration to the re-consideration of the same arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon such terms as it may think proper (that is to say)—

If the award has left undetermined some of the matters referred to arbitration, or if it determines matters not referred to arbitration.

If the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution.

If an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of the award.

Award not to be set aside except on ground of corruption.

Application to set aside the award.

317. No award shall be liable to be set aside except on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators or umpire. Any application to set aside an award shall be made within ten days after the same has been submitted to the Court.

Judgment to be according to the award.

318. If the Court shall not see cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for re-consideration in manner aforesaid, and if no application shall have been made to set aside the award, or if the Court shall have refused such application, the Court shall proceed to pass judgment according to the award or according to its own opinion on the special case if the award shall have been submitted to it in the form of a special case ; and upon the judgment which shall be so given decree shall follow and shall be carried into execution in the same manner as other decrees of the Court. In every case in which judgment shall be given according to the award, the judgment shall be final.

Agreement of parties to refer to arbitration may be filed in Court.

319. When any persons shall by an instrument in writing agree that any differences between them or any of them shall be referred to the arbitration of any person or persons named in the agreement or to be appointed by any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which it relates, application may be made by the parties thereto or any of them that the agreement be filed in such Court. On such application being made, the Court shall direct such notice to be given to any of the parties to the agreement, other than the applicants, as it may think necessary, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the agreement should not be filed. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of one-fourth of the value prescribed for plaints in suits, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between some or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant, if the application have been presented by all the parties or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the agreement, the agreement shall be filed and an order of reference to arbitration shall be made thereon. The several provisions of this Chapter, so far as they are not inconsistent with the terms of any agreement so filed, shall be applicable to all proceedings under an order of reference made by the Court and to the award of arbitration and to the enforcement of such award.

Provisions of this Chapter applicable.

320. When any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of any Court of Justice, and an award has been made, any person interested in the award may within six months from the date of the award make application to the Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the award relates, that the award be filed in Court. The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration other than the applicant, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the award should not be filed. The application shall be written on the stamp paper required for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions by any law for the time being in force, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the award, the award shall be filed and may be enforced as an award made under the provisions of this Chapter.

Filing in Court an award when the matter was referred to arbitration without intervention of Court.

Enforcement of such award.

CHAPTER VII.

OF PROCEEDINGS ON AGREEMENT OF PARTIES.

How questions may be raised for the decision of a Civil Court by any Persons interested.

321. Parties interested or claiming to be interested in the decision of any question of fact or law, may enter into an agreement, which shall be subject to the same stamp duty as prescribed for plaints in suits, that, upon the finding of a Court in the affirmative or negative of such question of fact or law, a sum of money fixed by the parties, or to be determined by the Court, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them; or that some property, moveable or immoveable, specified in the agreement, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them; or that one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act specified in the agreement. Where the agreement is for the delivery of some property moveable or immoveable, or for the doing or performing, or the refraining to do or perform any particular act, the estimated value of the property to be delivered, or to which the act specified may have reference, shall be stated in the agreement.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be raised by agreement for the decision of any Court having jurisdiction.

322. The agreement may be filed in any Court having jurisdiction in the matter, and, when so filed, shall be numbered and registered as a suit between some or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant; and notice shall be given to all the parties to the agreement other than the party or parties by whom it was presented.

Agreement to be filed and numbered as a suit.

323. After the agreement shall have been filed, all the parties to it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, and shall be bound by the statements contained therein.

Parties to be subject to the Court's jurisdiction.

324. The case shall be set down for hearing as an ordinary suit; and if the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, or taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that they have a bond fide interest in the question of fact or law stated therein, and that the same is fit to be tried or decided, it shall proceed to record and try, or hear the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon, in the same way as in an ordinary suit; and shall, upon its finding or deciding upon the question of fact or law, give judgment for the sum fixed by the parties, or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise, according to the terms of the agreement, and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

Hearing and disposal of the case.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of Appeals.

325. Except when otherwise expressly provided in this or any other Regulation or Act for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie from the decrees of the Courts of original jurisdiction to the Courts authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of those Courts.

Appeal to lie from all decrees except when expressly prohibited.

How Appeals are to be preferred.

326. Appeals shall be made in the form of a memorandum which shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period hereinafter specified, unless the appellant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Appellate Court for not having presented it within such limited period; that is to say, within thirty days if the appeal be to a District Court, and within ninety days if the appeal be to the Sudder Court. The days shall be reckoned from and exclusive of the day on which judgment was pronounced, and also exclusive of such time as may be requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree appealed against.

Appeal to be preferred by a memorandum to be filed within specified time.

What the memorandum is to contain.

327. The memorandum of appeal shall set forth concisely, and under distinct heads, the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against, without any argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The appellant shall not without the leave of the Court urge or be heard in support of any other ground of objection, but the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the appellant.

Form of memorandum.

328. The memorandum of appeal shall be in the following form, or to the following effect, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the decree appealed against—

Memorandum of Appeal.

(Name, &c. as in Register.) Plaintiff.
(Name, &c. as in Register.) Defendant.

[Name of Appellant] Plaintiff [or Defendant] above-named appeals to the Sudder Court at [or Zillah Court at be], against the decree of as the case may in the above suit, dated the day of ; for the following reasons, namely, [here state the reasons].

If memorandum be not in form or duly presented.

329. If the memorandum be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. If the memorandum be not presented within the prescribed period and no sufficient cause be shown for the delay, the appeal shall be rejected.

One of several plaintiffs or defendants may appeal and obtain a reversal of the whole decree if it proceed on a ground common to all.

330. If there be two or more plaintiffs or two or more defendants in a suit, and the decision of the Lower Court proceed on any ground common to all, any one of the plaintiffs or defendants may appeal against the whole decree, and the Appellate Court may reverse or modify the decree in favor of all the plaintiffs or defendants.

OF STAYING AND EXECUTING DECREES UNDER APPEAL.

Execution of decree not to be stayed by appeal. If sufficient cause be shown, execution may be stayed.

331. Execution of a decree shall not be stayed by reason only of an appeal having been preferred against such decree; but the Appellate Court may, for sufficient cause shown, order that execution be stayed. If application for execution be made before the time allowed for appeal has expired, and the Lower Court has not received intimation of an appeal having been preferred, the Lower Court, if sufficient cause be shown, may stay the execution. Before making an order to stay execution, the Court making the order shall require security to be given by the party against whom the decree was passed for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

Court, before making order to stay execution, shall require security for due performance of decree or order of Appellate Court.

Court making an order for execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, may require security for restitution of property, &c.

332. When an order is made for the execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, it shall be lawful for the Court which pronounced the decree to require security to be given for the restitution of any property which may be taken in execution of the decree or of the value thereof, and for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

No such security to be required from Government or any Public Officer.

333. In suits instituted or defended under the authority and at the expense of Government, no such security as is mentioned in the last two preceding Sections shall in any case be required from Government or from any public Officer.

OF PROCEDURE IN APPEALS FROM FINAL DECREES.

How the appeal is to be entered.

334. When a memorandum of appeal is presented in the prescribed form and within the time allowed, the Appellate Court, or the proper Officer of that Court, shall endorse thereon the date of presentment, and shall register the appeal in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Appeals. Such Register shall be in the form contained in the Schedule (C) hereunto annexed.

Form of the Register.

Appellate Court may, at its discretion, require security for costs from appellant.

Proviso.

335. It shall be in the discretion of the Appellate Court to demand security for costs from the appellant or not, as it shall see fit, before the respondent is called upon to appear and answer. Provided that the Court shall demand such security in all cases in which the appellant is residing out of the British Territories in India and is not possessed of any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property to which the appeal relates; and in the event of such security not being furnished at the time of presenting the memorandum of appeal or within such time as the Court shall order, the Court shall reject the appeal.

Appellate Court to send intimation to Lower Court of appeal being registered.

Lower Court to transmit papers to Appellate Court.

336. When the memorandum of appeal has been registered, the Appellate Court shall send intimation thereof to the Lower Court. If the appeal be from a Court the records of which are not deposited in the Appellate Court, the Lower Court shall, upon the receipt of the intimation, transmit to the Appellate Court with all practicable despatch all material papers in the suit, or such papers as may be specially called for by the Appellate Court. Either party may give notice in writing to the Lower Court specifying any exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court, and copies of such exhibits shall be prepared at the expense of the party giving the notice and shall be deposited in the Lower Court.

Either party may give notice of exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court.

337. A day shall be fixed by the Appellate Court for the hearing of the appeal. The day shall be so fixed, with reference to the place of residence of the respondent and the time necessary for the service of the notice of appeal, as to allow the respondent a sufficient time to enable him to appear in person or by a pleader on such day.

Day for hearing the appeal, how to be fixed.

338. Notice of the day which has been fixed for hearing the appeal shall be affixed in the Appellate Court, and a like notice shall be sent by the Appellate Court to the Lower Court and shall be served on the respondent in the same way as hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons to a defendant to appear and answer, and all rules applicable to such summons and to proceedings with reference to the service thereof, shall apply to the service of such notice. The notice to the respondent shall contain an intimation that, if he does not appear in the Appellate Court on the day so fixed for the hearing of the appeal, the case will be heard and decided ex parte in his absence. Provided that, if the respondent has appointed a pleader to appear in his behalf in the Appellate Court, the service of the notice on such pleader shall be sufficient.

Publication and service of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal.

Form of notice.

339. If on the day fixed for hearing the appeal or any other day subsequent thereto to which the hearing of the appeal may be adjourned, the appellant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be dismissed for default. If the appellant shall appear in person or by a pleader and the respondent shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be heard ex parte in his absence.

Consequence of non-appearance.

340. If an appeal be dismissed for default of prosecution, the appellant may, within thirty days from the date of the dismissal, apply to the Appellate Court for the re-admission of the appeal; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the appellant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court may re-admit the appeal.

Re-admission of appeals dismissed for default of prosecution.

341. Upon the hearing of the appeal, the respondent may take any objection to the decision of the Lower Court which he might have taken if he had preferred a separate appeal from such decision.

In appeal, respondent may take any objection to decision of Lower Court.

342. The Appellate Court, after hearing the appeal, shall proceed to give its judgment in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for giving judgment in Courts of original jurisdiction.

The Appellate Court how to give judgment.

343. The judgment may be for confirming or reversing or modifying the decree of the Lower Court. But no decree shall be reversed or modified nor shall any case be remanded to the Lower Court on account of any error, defect, or irregularity either in the decision or in any interlocutory order passed in the suit not affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court.

No decision to be reversed for irregularity.

344. If the Lower Court shall have disposed of the case upon any preliminary point so as to exclude any evidence of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the rights of the parties, and the decree of the Lower Court upon such preliminary point shall be reversed by the decree in appeal, the Appellate Court may, if it think right, remand the case, together with a copy of the decree in appeal, to the Lower Court, with directions to restore the suit to its original number in the Register and proceed to investigate the merits of the case, and pass a decree therein.

When a case may be remanded by Appellate Court.

345. It shall not be competent to the Appellate Court to remand a case for a second decision by the Lower Court except as provided in the last preceding Section.

Power to remand limited as above.

346. When the evidence upon the record of the Lower Court is sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, the Appellate Court shall finally determine the case, notwithstanding that the judgment of the Lower Court has proceeded wholly upon some other ground.

When the Appellate Court may dispose of a case though the Lower Court has decided on other grounds.

347. If the Lower Court shall have omitted to raise or try any issue or to determine any question of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the right determination of the suit upon the merits, and the evidence upon the record is not sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to determine such issue or question of fact, the Appellate Court may frame an issue or issues for trial by the Lower Court and may refer the same to the Lower Court for trial. Thereupon the Lower Court shall proceed to try such issue or issues and shall return to the Appellate Court its finding thereon together with the evidence. Such finding and evidence shall become part of the record in the suit; and either party may, within a time to be fixed by the Appellate Court, file a memorandum of any objection to the finding; and after the expiration of the period so fixed, the Appellate Court shall proceed to determine the appeal.

Trial of issues by Lower Court on reference from Appellate Court.

348. It shall not be competent to the parties in an appeal to produce additional evidence in the Appellate Court, whether of exhibits or witnesses; but if it appear that the Lower Court refused to admit competent evidence, or if the Appellate Court require any exhibits to be produced or witnesses examined to enable it to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, or for any other substantial cause, the Appellate Court may allow additional exhibits to be received and any necessary witnesses to be examined, whether such witnesses shall have been previously examined in the Court below or not; provided that, whenever additional evidence is admitted by an Appellate Court, the reasons for the admission shall be recorded on the proceedings of such Court.

When the Appellate Court may call for fresh evidence.

How additional evidence is to be taken.

349. Whenever additional evidence is permitted to be received, it shall be competent to the Appellate Court to take such evidence before itself, or to require the Lower or any other Court or to empower any person to take such evidence, and to transmit the evidence so taken to the Appellate Court. It shall also be competent to the Appellate Court to prescribe the manner in which such evidence shall be taken.

Points to be defined.

350. In all cases where additional evidence is permitted to be taken, the Appellate Court shall define the point or points to which the evidence is to be confined, and record the same on its proceedings.

Powers of Appellate Court.

351. The Appellate Court shall have all the like powers in regard to the granting of time, adjourning the hearing of the suit, examining the parties or their pleaders, and awarding costs, or otherwise, as are hereinbefore contained in regard to Courts of original jurisdiction.

How the judgment of the Appellate Court is to be delivered. In what language it is to be written.

352. The judgment of the Appellate Court shall be pronounced in open Court. It shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge or by the Judges concurring therein at the time of pronouncing it. The judgment shall be written in the English language; but if the Judge shall not be able to write an intelligible judgment in that language, the judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. When the language in which the judgment is written is not the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, the judgment shall be translated into such language, and the translation shall be signed by the Judge or Judges. Any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court shall state his opinion in writing, which shall form part of the record.

What the decree is to contain.

353. The decree of the Appellate Court shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and description of the parties appellant and respondent, and the memorandum of appeal, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the appeal. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the appeal, and by what parties and in what proportions such costs and the costs in the original suit are to be paid. The decree shall be signed by the Judge or Judges who passed it, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court. If there be a difference of opinion among the Judges of the Court, it shall not be necessary for any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court to sign the decree, but the opinion of such Judge shall be recited in the decree. Certified copies of the decree shall be furnished to the parties in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in regard to the decrees of Courts of original jurisdiction.

A certified copy of the decree to be transmitted to the Lower Court.

354. A copy of the decree or other order disposing of the appeal, certified by the Appellate Court or the proper Officer of such Court, and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit appealed from, and shall be filed with the original proceedings in the suit, and an entry of the judgment of the Appellate Court shall be made in the original Register of the suit.

How to be executed.

355. Application for execution of the decree of an Appellate Court shall be made to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit, and shall be executed by that Court, in the manner and according to the rules hereinbefore contained for the execution of original decrees.

Appeals from Orders.

No appeal from order passed before decree, but error or defect therein may be set forth as an objection if the decree be appealed against.

356. No appeal shall lie from any order passed in the course of a suit and relating thereto prior to decree; but if the decree be appealed against, any error, defect, or irregularity in any such order affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court, may be set forth as a ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal.

No appeal from orders passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as provided.

357. No appeal shall lie from any order passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as is hereinbefore expressly provided.

Appeal from orders as to fines or imprisonment.

358. All orders as to fines or the levying thereof or as to imprisonment under this Act (except when the imprisonment is in execution of a decree) shall be subject to appeal.

Procedure in appeals from orders.

359. When an appeal from any order is allowed, the procedure shall be in all respects the same as in an appeal from a decree.

CHAPTER IX.

Of Appeals in Forma Pauperis.

Who may appeal as pauper.

360. Any party to a suit who may be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of an appeal from the decision passed therein, may be allowed to appeal as a pauper from such decision subject to all the rules contained in the last preceding Chapter and in Chapter V in so far as they are applicable.

Application to whom and when to be presented.

361. The application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of one Rupee if the appeal lie to the Zillah Court, and on a stamp paper of the value of two Rupees if the appeal lie to the Sudder Court, and shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period allowed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal.

Form of application.

362. The application shall contain the particulars required to be set forth in the memorandum of appeal and shall be drawn up in the like manner. It shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the applicant with the estimated value thereof, and shall also be accompanied by copies of the judgment and decree from which the appeal is made.

Procedure.

363. If the Appellate Court, upon a perusal of the application and of the judgment and decree of the Court below, shall see no reason to think that the decision of that Court is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law or is otherwise erroneous or unjust, it shall reject the application. If the application be not rejected upon any of the grounds above-mentioned, enquiry shall be made into the alleged pauperism of the applicant, and such enquiry may be conducted either by the Appellate Court or by the Court from whose decision the appeal is made under the orders of the Appellate Court. Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue in formâ pauperis in the Court below, no further enquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary, unless the Appellate Court shall see special cause to direct such enquiry.

Effect of order by Appellate Court.

364. The order passed by the Appellate Court on an application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis, whether for the admission or rejection of the application, shall be final; but, if the application be rejected, the Appellate Court may, if it think proper, allow the applicant a reasonable time for preferring an appeal on a stamp of the value prescribed for appeals from decrees.

CHAPTER X.

Of Special Appeals.

Special appeals allowed on what grounds.

365. A special appeal shall lie to the Sudder Court from all decisions passed in regular appeal by the Courts subordinate to the Sudder Court, on the ground of the decision being contrary to some law or usage having the force of law, or of a substantial error or defect in law in the procedure or investigation of the case, which may have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon the merits, and on no other ground.

Application how to be presented and written.

366. The application for the admission of a special appeal shall be presented in the Sudder Court within the period prescribed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal, and shall be accompanied by copies of the judgments and decrees of the Lower Appellate Court and of the Court of first instance. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular appeals; but if the applicant be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of the appeal, the Sudder Court may admit him to appeal as a pauper subject to all the rules contained in Chapter IX in respect to appeals from decrees in formâ pauperis in so far as the same may be applicable.

Form of application.

367. The application shall set forth concisely the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against without argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The applicant shall not, without the leave of the Court, be heard in support of any other ground of objection; but the determination of the Court may be upon any ground on which a special appeal would lie.

Application how to be dealt with.

368. If the application be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. When the application is correctly drawn up, it shall be registered in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be in the form contained in the Schedule D. hereunto annexed, and the case shall proceed in all other respects as a regular appeal, and shall be subject to all the rules hereinbefore provided for such appeals so far as the same may be applicable.

CHAPTER XI.

Review of Judgment

Cases in which a party may apply for a review of judgment.

369. Any person considering himself aggrieved by a decree of a Court of original jurisdiction, from which no appeal shall have been preferred to a Superior Court—or by a decree of a District Court in appeal, from which no special appeal shall have been admitted by the Sudder Court—or by a decree of the Sudder Court from which either no appeal may have been preferred to Her Majesty in Council, or an appeal having been preferred, no proceedings in the suit have been transmitted to Her Majesty in Council—and who, from the discovery of new matter or evidence which was not within his knowledge, or could not be adduced by him at the time when such decree was passed, or from any other good and sufficient reason, may be desirous of obtaining a review of the judgment passed against him—may apply for a review of judgment by the Court which passed the decree.

Within what time and on what paper the application should be made.

370. The application shall be made within ninety days from the date of the decree, unless the party preferring the same shall be able to show just and reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of the Court, for not having preferred such application within the limited period. If the application be made within the period above-mentioned, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required; but if made after the expiration of that period, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for plaints.

The order of the Court for granting or refusing the review is final.

371. If the Court shall be of opinion that there are not any sufficient grounds for a review, it shall reject the application, but if it shall be of opinion that the review desired is necessary to correct an evident error or omission, or is otherwise requisite for the ends of justice, the Court shall grant the review, and its order in either case, whether for rejecting the application or granting the review, shall be final.

372. Provided that, if the Court to which the application for a review of its judgment has been presented be a Court consisting of two or more Judges, whenever the Judge or Judges who may have passed the decree, or if the decree have been passed by two or more Judges, when any of such Judges shall continue attached to the Court at the time when the application for a review is presented, and shall not be precluded by absence or other cause, for a period of six months after the application, from considering the judgment to which the application refers, it shall not be competent to any other Judge or Judges of the same Court to enter upon a consideration of the merits of the application, and record an order or opinion thereon.

Application for a review in the Sudder Court must be made to the Judge or Judges that passed the decree.

373. When an application for a review of judgment may be granted, the Court shall give such order, in regard to the summoning of the opposite party and hearing of the suit, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Whenever a review is granted, the parties are to be summoned.

CHAPTER XII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

374. The Sudder Court shall have power to make and issue general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Subordinate Civil Courts, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the said Courts for which it shall think necessary that a form be provided, and for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Officers, and from time to time to alter any such rule or form; provided that such rules and forms be not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law in force.

Powers of the Sudder Court in making rules of practice and framing forms, &c., for the Subordinate Civil Courts.

375. Except so far as relates to the examination of witnesses under a Commission and to the execution of decrees out of the jurisdiction of the Courts by which they were passed, this Act shall not extend to any suit instituted in any Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter or in any Court for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

Act not to extend, except in certain cases, to Supreme and Small Cause Courts in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

376. Nothing in this Act shall be held to alter or affect the jurisdiction or procedure in Civil cases of Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code; or the jurisdiction or procedure of Military Courts of Request; or the jurisdiction or procedure of a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars at Cantonments and Stations occupied by the Troops of those Presidencies respectively; or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Saving of jurisdiction and procedure of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—

of Military Courts of Request—

of single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

377. Nothing in this Act shall be held to affect the jurisdiction exercised by certain Jagheerdars and other authorities invested with powers under the provisions of Regulation XIII. 1830 of the Bombay Code and Act XV of 1840, or their procedure in the exercise of such jurisdiction; or to affect suits instituted under Regulation XI. 1816 of the Bengal Code, or cases of the nature defined in Regulation XXIX. 1827, Regulation VII. 1830, Regulations I and XVI. 1831 of the Bombay Code, Act XIX of 1835, and Act XIII of 1842, except that such suits and cases and the regular and special appeals to the Civil Courts allowed therein, shall be received, heard, and determined under the rules laid down in this Act, unless where those rules are inconsistent with any specific provisions contained in the Regulations and Acts above quoted.

Saving of certain special or local Laws.

378. This Act shall not take effect in any part of the territories not subject to the general Regulations of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, until the same shall be extended thereto by the Governor General of India in Council or by the Local Government to which such territory is subordinate, and notified in the Gazette.

Act not to take effect in places not subject to the general Regulations until extended thereto.

379. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

Interpretation.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

No. 147 of 1858.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

WE have the satisfaction of transmitting to you, for promulgation in such manner as you may consider suitable, the copy of a Resolution unanimously passed by the General Court of the East India Company, held on the 30th ultimo, expressing the thanks of the Court to the Servants and Officers of the Company "of every rank, and in every capacity."

We are, &c.,

(Signed) F. CURRIE.

LONDON,
1st September 1858.

Countersigned in accordance with 16 and 17 Vict. Cap. 95, Sec. 2.

J. D. DICKENSON,
Secretary.

Extract Minutes of a Special General Court of the East India Company, held at their House in Leadenhall Street, on Monday, the 30th August 1858.

A Proprietor adverting to the fact of this being the last occasion of the Meeting of the General Court before the severance of the Connection of the East India Company with the Government of India, and moving the Court, it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY.—That the East India Company on surrendering at the bidding of Parliament, those powers connected with the Government of the British Territories in India, which it has long exercised as Trustee for the Crown, desires to return its warmest thanks to its Servants and Officers of every rank, and in every capacity, for the fidelity, zeal and efficiency with which they have performed their several duties, and offers to them its best wishes for their future prosperity.

To those who are Natives of India, the East India Company has the satisfaction of being able to give the fullest assurance, that in Her Majesty Queen Victoria, they will find a most Gracious Mistress, not unmindful of their past services under that authority which has hitherto had the honor of representing British Sovereignty in India, and ever ready to reward loyalty to the British Crown.

The East India Company is convinced that the Members of the Home Department of the Company's Government will maintain the high reputation which that Department now enjoys, and will continue when enrolled in the direct service of the Crown, to command the esteem and confidence of their Official Chiefs and of the Public.

Of its Fellow-Countrymen employed in India, under the Company's Government, whether as Civilians or Soldiers, of those especially whose duty has recently subjected them to trials of unexampled severity, and who have done their duty so admirably as to win for them the praise and sympathy of their Sovereign and their Country, the East India Company is proud to say, that their past conduct affords the strongest security, that the Crown will possess no servants abler, none more devoted, than those who have been trained by the Company, and without in any manner arrogating to itself what is due to men, some of whose names are honored in every region of the civilized World, the East India Company trusts that in the page of impartial history, it may be recorded as having presented in the career which it has opened both to the Members of its own Civil and Military Services, and to the gallant Troops of Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors, a field for the exercise of the highest qualities of the Statesman and the Soldier.

In the humble hope, that the Company's rule will prove to have been in the hand of Divine Providence an instrument of good, and even of the highest good to India, the East India Company earnestly prays, that it may please Almighty God to bless the Queen's Indian Reign by the speedy restoration of peace, security, and order, and so to prosper Her Majesty's efforts for the welfare of Her East Indian subjects, that the millions who will henceforth be placed under Her Majesty's direct, as well as Sovereign dominion, constantly advancing in all that makes men and nations great, flourishing and happy, may reward Her Majesty's cares in their behalf by their faithful and firm attachment to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General, speaking not only for the Government of India, but for all of every Class who have acted under that Government, desires to record an assurance of the respectful thankfulness with which these parting words of good-will and approval will be received by the vast community of the Indian Civil and Military Services.

The Governor General is satisfied, that amongst all, there is but one common feeling of acknowledgment of the just, considerate, and liberal treatment, which has ever characterized the Great Company which has now ceased to govern the British Territories in India.

HEAD QUARTERS; ALLAHABAD, 23rd October 1858.

FROM BRIGADIER SIR T. SEATON, K. C. B.,
Comdg. at Shahjehanpore,

TO MAJOR GENL. SIR W. MANSFIELD, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff.

Shahjehanpore, 11th October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Right Hon'ble Lord Clyde, Commander-in-Chief, that, on the 6th instant, information reached me that Khan Bahadoor having advanced to his old position at Rajgurh, on the Oudh frontier, not far from Powaen, and that parties of his Cavalry were ravaging that territory, plundering and burning the villages, I directed a Squadron of the Mooltanee Regiment of Cavalry, under Lieutenant Prendergast, to proceed at night to Powaen, to communicate with Lieutenant DeKantzow, Commanding the Rohilcund Auxiliary Police Levy there, and acting in concert with him, to reconnoitre the country, and, if possible, to destroy some of their parties.

The Squadron reached Powaen in safety, before day-break on the morning of the 7th, and these Officers proceeded with their united force to carry out my wishes.

They found, however, that Khan Bahadoor Khan had advanced close to Powaen, and his Cavalry, which was very numerous, ready to receive them. As they, could effect nothing, Lieutenant Prendergast withdrew into the town of Powaen, which was immediately besieged by Khan Bahadoor's force.

On the news reaching me, I determined to march to the relief of Powaen, but I was afterwards assured that Khan Ali Khan, with his force, had advanced from Pusgaon, that a large body of his Infantry was on the banks of the Sookeeta Nullah, (the boundary of this district;) that parties of his Cavalry had surrounded the Police force at Gowree, 8 miles distant, had plundered and burnt that village, and were burning Bun-ka-tura, and other villages considerably nearer.

As this move on the part of the Rebels seemed to me to be designed either to keep the force at Shahjehanpore in check, whilst Khan Bahadoor laid siege to Powaen, or to make a rush at Shahjehanpore, if I left it to relieve Powaen; and as I knew the latter place could easily hold out for several days, the Rajah and his people being encouraged by the presence of British Officers, and aided by their troops, I determined to march on Khan Ali's position, and subsequently to turn my attention to the relief of Powaen.

Accordingly I marched with the troops as per margin on the morning of the 8th at two o'clock.

On the road I heard, that the parties who had burned our villages, had fallen back, and that they were at a village three miles form the Sookeeta Nullah called Bun-ka-gaong.

As we neared their village, we fell in with their picquet, and in about a quarter of an hour afterwards the sound of a Cavalry trumpet at some distance on our left, announced the presence of the enemy.

I sent out a party to reconnoitre, and followed shortly myself, when from a small mound, I observed the enemy drawn up in front of a village, with his guns in the centre of a line of Infantry, with Cavalry on both flanks.

The action may be very briefly described. The enemy opened upon us with shot and shell, and their Cavalry made a movement forwards on both flanks; but a few admirably planted shots from the Artillery, under Captain Cookworthy, dispersed their Infantry, and silenced their guns. The Cavalry on their left were dispersed by two of our guns, and a well-directed fire from the Rifles; and the Cavalry on their right was kept in check by the Mooltanee Horse, and sent sharply to the right-about by the Light Company 82nd Regiment.

I advanced at first with some caution towards the front of the Rebel position, as it was covered by a jheel, and in the grey of the morning the fort in the village appeared to have been newly repaired, but as no shots were fired from it, I sent three guns and the Carabineers in the direction the enemy's guns had taken, to the left, followed by the 82nd, whilst the 60th Rifles swept round the other side of the village.

On again discovering the Rebel guns, and main body of fugitives, I sent the whole of the Cavalry and three guns in pursuit.

Two guns were captured, and 300 of the enemy killed. The latter part of the action was entirely confined to Artillery and Cavalry; the Infantry had not a chance, for not only the Rebels fled so soon and fast, but the whole front of their position was covered by a succession of jheels and ponds, deep water cuts and holes.

I have never seen a stronger position. All round Bun-ka-gaong is a heavy jungle, with numerous swamps and deep drains, more embarrassing to a force ignorant of the localities than the enemy, who despaired, and hid themselves in the jungle, where, as I subsequently learned, they abandoned two more guns, unyoking and driving away the bullocks.

But for these difficulties, I should have been enabled to bring to a more satisfactory conclusion, an action that has not been altogether profitless. I have received information from a spy who was in the village, when the first shots were fired, that the enemy numbered a little over (4,000) four thousand, of whom six hundred were Sepoys. They had four guns; Khan Ali commanded in person; and we hear that, after the action, he was mortally wounded by a Sepoy; but this requires confirmation. The Rebels have retired on Nowrungabad, and Khan Bahadoor, repulsed at Powaen, has retired to that place also.

My thanks are due to the troops for their great exertions, and excellent conduct on the march and in action, and also to my Staff and to Commanding Officers, Captain Tedlie, Major of Brigade; Lieutenant E. H. Budgen, 82nd Regiment, acting as my Orderly Officer; Captain Cookworthy, Commanding the Artillery; Lieutenant Colonel Custance, C. B., Commanding Wing 6th Carabineers; Captain Cureton, Commanding Mooltanee Regiment of Cavalry; Captain Maguire, Commanding 1st Battalion 60th Royal Rifles; and Lieutenant Colonel Hale, C. B., Commanding 82nd Regiment. Lieutenant Colonel Clarke, Commissioner of Khyrabad District, Oudh, accompanied the Column, and rendered me efficient service.

I have the honor to annex a list of casualties, and return of Ordnance and Cattle captured.

I have, &c.,

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. PALMER,

Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5681, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

(A True Extract.)

Civil Auditor.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 6TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council, was ordered to be published for general information and to be reconsidered after two months:—

A Bill for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to simplify the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter, It is enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE CIVIL COURTS.

Civil Courts have cognizance of all suits unless specially barred.

1. The Civil Courts shall take cognizance of all suits of a Civil nature, with the exception of suits of which their cognizance is barred by any Act of Parliament, or by any Regulation of the Codes of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay respectively, or by any Act of the Governor General of India in Council.

Unless already heard and determined.

2. The Civil Courts shall not take cognizance, except in the way of review of judgment or of appeal, of any suit which shall have been already heard and determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction between the same parties, or parties under whom the parties to the suit claim.

No person exempted from jurisdiction by reason of place of birth or of descent.

3. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be in any Civil proceeding whatever excepted from the jurisdiction of any of the Civil Courts.

Jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

4. Subject to such pecuniary or other limitations as are or shall be prescribed by any law for the time being in force, the Civil Courts of each grade shall receive, try, and determine all suits hereby declared to be cognizable by those Courts, if in the case of suits for land or other immoveable property such land or property shall be situate within the limits to which their respective jurisdictions may extend, and in all other cases if the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall dwell, or personally work for gain, within such limits.

Court in which suit to be instituted.

Transfer of suits.

5. Every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade competent to try it. But it shall be lawful for the District Court to withdraw any suit instituted in any Court subordinate to such District Court and to try such suit itself or to refer it for trial to any other Court subordinate to its authority and competent in respect to the value of the suit to try the same, whenever it may see sufficient cause for so doing. In like manner the Sudder Court may order that the cognizance of any suit or appeal which may be instituted in any Court subordinate to such Sudder Court shall be transferred to any other Court subordinate to its authority and competent in respect of the value of the suit or appeal to try the same.

Suits for immoveable property situate within different jurisdictions of the same District.

6. If the suit be for land or other immoveable property situate within the limits of a single District, but within the jurisdiction of different Courts, the suit may be brought in the Court within the jurisdiction of which any portion of such land or other immoveable property is situate, provided the entire claim in respect of the value of the property in suit be cognizable by such Court; but in such case the Court in which the suit is brought shall apply to the District Court for authority to proceed with the same.

Suits for immoveable property situate in different Districts.

7. In like manner, if the property be situate within the limits of different Districts, the suit may be brought in any Court, otherwise competent to try it, within the jurisdiction of which any portion of the land or other immoveable property in suit is situate, but in such case the Court in which the suit is brought shall apply to the Sudder Court for authority to proceed with the same; if the suit is brought in any Court subordinate to a District Court, the application shall be submitted through the District Court to which such Court is subordinate.

Suits for immoveable property situate in Districts subject to different Sudder Courts.

8. If the Districts within the limits of which the property is situate, are subject to different Sudder Courts, the application shall be submitted to the Sudder Court to which the District, in which the suit is brought, is subject; and the Sudder Court to which such application is made, may, with the concurrence of the Sudder Court to which the other District is subject, give authority to proceed with the same.

Suit for land alleged by the defendant to be situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court.

9. If, in a suit for land situate on the borders of the Court's local jurisdiction, the defendant object to the hearing of the suit on the ground that the land is not included within the local jurisdiction of the Court, the Court shall have power to determine the point; and if the Court shall find that the land is included within its local jurisdiction, it shall proceed to try the suit. Provided that, if it be shown that the land in dispute has been adjudged by competent authority to belong to an estate, village, or other known division of land situate within the local jurisdiction of another Court, the Court in which the suit is brought shall reject the plaint, or return it to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Declaratory suit.

10. No suit shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Civil Courts to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

By whom judicial decisions may be revised.

11. The decisions of the Civil Courts shall be subject to revision only by those Courts under the rules applicable to reviews of judgment contained in this Act, or by the constituted Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction.

CHAPTER II.

Preliminary Rules.

Parties may appear in person or by recognized agent or by pleader.

12. All applications to any Civil Court, and all appearances of parties in any Civil Court, except when otherwise specially provided by this Act, shall be made by the party in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

Recognized Agents.

13. The recognized agents of parties by whom such applications and appearances may be made are—

Persons holding powers of attorney.

1*st*. Persons holding general powers of attorney from parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court, authorizing them to make such applications and appearances on behalf of such parties.

Persons carrying on trade or business for absent parties.

2*ndly*. Persons carrying on trade or business for and in the name of parties not within the jurisdiction of the Court in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make such applications or appearances.

Persons authorized to act for Government.

3*rdly*. Persons being ex-officio or otherwise authorized to act for Government in respect of any suit or judicial proceeding.

Persons specially appointed to prosecute a suit for any Sovereign Prince.

4*thly*. Persons specially appointed by order of Government at the request of any Sovereign Prince, or Independent Chief, whether residing within or without the British Territories, to prosecute or defend a suit on his behalf.

Acts required to be done by a party to a suit in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Whenever the personal appearance of a party to a suit is required by this Act, such appearance may be made by his recognized agent, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be done by a party in person may be done by his recognized agent.

Service of notices on recognized agents.

Notices given to or processes served on a recognized agent relative to a suit shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct; and all the provisions of this Act relative to the service of notices or processes on a party to a suit shall be applicable to the service of notices and processes on such recognized agent.

Appointment of Pleader.

14. The appointment of a pleader to make any such application or appearance as aforesaid shall be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, it shall be considered to be in full force until revoked by a writing filed in the Court.

Service of notices on Pleaders.

All notices given to, or processes served on the pleader of any party, or left at the office or ordinary residence of such pleader, relative to a suit, and whether the same be for the personal attendance of the party or not, shall be presumed to be duly communicated and made known to the party whom the pleader represents, and shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Officers or Soldiers who cannot obtain leave of absence may authorize any person to appear for them.

15. When an Officer or Soldier in the service of the Government is a party to a suit, and cannot obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person, he may authorize any member of his family or any other person to commence, conduct, and manage the suit or the defence, as the case may be, in his stead.

The authority shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the Officer or Soldier in the presence of his Commanding Officer, who shall countersign the same, and it shall be filed in the Court. When so filed, the counter-signature of the Commanding Officer shall be sufficient proof that the authority was duly executed, and that the Officer or Soldier by whom it was granted could not obtain a furlough or leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person.

The person so authorized may appear personally, or appoint pleader.

16. Any person who may be authorized, as in the last preceding Section mentioned, by an Officer or Soldier to prosecute or defend a suit in his stead, shall be competent to prosecute or defend it in person in the same manner as the Officer or Soldier could do if present; or he may appoint a pleader of the Court to prosecute or defend the suit on behalf of such Officer or Soldier. And all notices or processes relative to the suit which may be served upon any person who shall be so authorized as aforesaid by an Officer or Soldier, or upon any pleader who shall be appointed as aforesaid by such person to act for or on behalf of such Officer or Soldier, shall be as effectual for all purposes relative to the suit as if the same had been served on the party in person or on a pleader appointed by him.

Exemption of certain women from personal appearance.

17. Women, who according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, shall be exempt from personal appearance in Court.

Government may exempt certain persons from personal appearance.

18. The Government may at its discretion exempt from personal appearance in Court any person whose rank in the opinion of the Government entitles him to the privilege of exemption, and may at its discretion withdraw such privilege. The names of the persons so exempted (if any) residing within the jurisdiction of the Principal Civil Court of each District shall from time to time be forwarded to such Court by the local Government, and a list of such persons (if any) shall be kept in such Court and in the several subordinate Courts of the District.

Cost of serving process.

Requisite sum to be paid into Court before process issued.

19. Every process required to be issued under this Act, shall be served at the expense of the party at whose instance it is issued, unless otherwise specially directed by the Court; and the sum required to defray the cost of such service shall be paid into Court before the process is issued.

CHAPTER III.

OF A SUIT TILL FINAL DECREE.

Of the Institution of Suits.

Suits to be commenced by plaint.

But in all other cases it shall be necessary to specify the names of all the parties.

Plaint to be subscribed and verified.

22. The plaint shall be subscribed by the plaintiff and his pleader (if any), and shall be verified at the foot by the plaintiff in the manner following or to the like effect:—

I (A. B.) the plaintiff named in the above plaint do declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my information and belief.

If plaintiff by reason of absence be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint.

23. If the plaintiff, by reason of absence or for other good cause, be unable to subscribe and verify the plaint, the Court may allow the plaint to be subscribed and verified on behalf of the plaintiff by any person whom the Court may consider competent to make the verification. In suits by a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the plaint shall be subscribed and verified on behalf of the Corporation or Company by any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to depose to the facts of the case.

In suits by a Corporation or Company, a Director or Secretary shall verify the plaint.

Court may reject plaint, if it do not contain the required particulars, &c.

24. If the plaint do not contain the several particulars hereinbefore required to be specified therein, or if it contain particulars other than those required to be specified whether relevant to the suit or not, or if the statement of particulars be unnecessarily prolix, or if the plaint be not subscribed and verified as hereinbefore required, the Court may reject the plaint, or at its discretion may allow the plaint to be amended.

Plaint to be returned, if the claim is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

25. If the amount or estimated value of the claim, as stated by the plaintiff, be beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaint shall be returned to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Plaint to be rejected, if improperly or insufficiently valued.

26. If it appear to the Court that the claim is improperly valued, or being properly valued that the plaint is written upon stamped paper of inadequate value, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct such improper valuation or to supply such additional stamp paper as may be necessary, shall not comply with the requisition, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Plaint to be rejected, if it appear to the Court that plaintiff has no cause of action or that right of action is barred by lapse of time.

27. If upon the face of the plaint, or after questioning the plaintiff, it appear to the Court that the subject matter of the plaint does not constitute a cause of action, or that the right of action is barred by lapse of time, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Amendment of plaint.

Provided that the Court may in any case allow the plaint to be amended, if it appear proper to do so.

Plaint to be returned, if it appear to the Court that it has not jurisdiction.

28. If it appear to the Court that the cause of action did not arise, or that the defendant is not dwelling or personally working for gain within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or, if the claim relate to land or other immoveable property, that such land or other property is not situate within such limits, the Court shall return the plaint to the plaintiff in order to its being presented in the proper Court.

Security for costs to be furnished by plaintiff, if residing out of the British territories in India.

29. A suit by a party residing out of the British territories in India, and not possessing any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property in suit, shall not be entertained unless the plaintiff, at the time of presenting the plaint or within such time as the Court shall order, furnish security for the payment of all costs that may be incurred by the defendant in the suit.

Plaint to be rejected if security be not furnished.

In the event of such security not being furnished, the Court shall reject the plaint.

Appeal from order rejecting plaint.

30. Whenever a plaint is rejected under any of the foregoing Sections, an appeal shall lie from the order rejecting the plaint.

Proceeding in a suit for immoveable property in different jurisdictions.

31. If the suit be for land or other immoveable property situate partly within the jurisdiction of the Court and partly within the jurisdiction of some other Court or Courts, the Court shall proceed according to the rules contained in Section 5, Section 6, or Section 7 of Chapter I as the case may be.

When the plaint is admissible, particulars to be entered in a Register.

32. If the Court consider the plaint admissible, the particulars mentioned in Section 21 of this Chapter shall be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Civil Suits; and the entries shall be numbered in every year according to the order in which the plaint is presented. The Register shall be kept in the form contained in the Schedule A hereunto annexed.

Form of the Register.

Written document to be produced in Court when plaint is presented.

33. When the plaintiff sues upon any written document or relies upon any such document as evidence in support of his claim, he shall produce the same in Court when the plaint is presented, and shall at the same time deliver a copy of the document to be filed with the plaint; if the document be an entry in a shop-book or other book, the plaintiff shall produce the book to the

And copy filed with plaint.

Court together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The Court shall forthwith mark the document for the purpose of identification; and after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the document to the plaintiff. The plaintiff may, if he think proper, deliver the original document to be filed instead of the copy. The Court may, if if see sufficient cause, direct any written document so produced to be impounded and kept in the custody of some Officer of the Court, for such period and subject to such conditions as to the Court shall seem meet. Any document not produced in Court by the plaintiff when the plaint is presented, shall not be received in evidence on his behalf at the hearing of the suit without the sanction of the Court.

Original to be marked and returned.

If plaintiff wish, original may be filed instead of copy.

Court may order document to be impounded.

Document not produced when plaint filed, to be inadmissible in evidence.

34. If the plaintiff require the production of any written document in the possession or power of the defendant, he may, at the time of presenting the plaint, deliver to the Court a description of the document, in order that the defendant may be required to produce the same.

If plaintiff require production of document in possession of defendant.

Of Summoning the Defendant.

35. When the plaint has been registered, a summons under the signature of the Judge and the seal of the Court shall be issued to the defendant to appear and answer the claim, on a day to be therein specified, in person or by a pleader of the Court duly instructed and able to answer all material questions relating to the suit, or by a pleader who shall be accompanied by some other person able to answer all such questions.

On plaint being registered, summons to issue to defendant.

36. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the defendant, the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally in Court on the day therein specified. If the Court see reason to require the personal attendance of the plaintiff on that day, it may make an order for such attendance. Provided that no plaintiff or defendant shall be ordered to attend in person, who at the time is bonâ fide residing at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the Court is held.

Summons may order personal appearance of defendant or plaintiff.

Proviso.

37. The summons to appear shall order the defendant to produce any written document in his possession or power, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant intends to rely in support of his defence.

Summons shall order defendant to produce documents.

38. The Summons shall be in the Form B given in the Appendix or to the like effect.

Form of summons.

39. The day for the appearance of the defendant shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the place of residence of the defendant, and the time necessary for the service of the summons; and the day shall be so fixed as to allow the defendant a sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer in person or by a pleader on such day.

The day for appearance of defendant how to be fixed.

40. In suits against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the Court may, if it think proper, require the personal attendance of any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

Court may order personal appearance of a Director or Secretary in suits against a Corporation or Company.

Service of Summons on the Defendant.

41. The summons shall be delivered to the Nazir or other proper Officer of the Court to be served by himself or one of his subordinates, and such Officer shall be responsible for its due service.

Summons shall be served by Officer of Court.

42. Service of the summons shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court; and when there are more defendants than one, service of the summons shall be made on each defendant.

How service shall be made.

When there are several defendants.

43. Whenever it may be practicable, the service shall be on the defendant in person, unless he have an agent empowered to accept the service, in which case service on such agent shall be sufficient.

Service to be on defendant in person, when practicable.

Service on duly authorized agent sufficient.

44. Besides the recognized agents described in Section 21 of Chapter II, any person residing within the jurisdiction of the Court may be appointed an agent to receive the service of summonses and other processes.

Who may be an agent to receive service.

45. The appointment of such agent shall be in writing, and the original appointment, or a copy thereof if the appointment be a general one, shall be filed in the Court.

Appointment of such agent to be in writing and to be filed in Court.

46. The Government pleader in each Court shall be accounted the agent of the Government for the purpose of receiving services of summonses and other judicial processes against the Government, issuing out of the Court in which he may be the pleader of Government.

Agent of Government.

47. When the defendant cannot be found, and has no agent empowered to accept the service of the summons, it may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

If defendant cannot be found, and has no agent, service may be made on a male member of his family.

48. In all cases where the summons is served on the defendant personally or any agent or other person on his behalf, the serving Officer shall require the signature of the person on whom the service may be made, to an acknowledgment of service, to be endorsed on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court. If such person refuse to sign the acknowledgment, the service of the summons shall nevertheless be held sufficient, if it be otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the Court

In all cases the person served is to be required to endorse the summons.

49. When the defendant cannot be found, and there is no agent empowered to accept the service, nor any other person on whom the service can be made, the serving Officer shall fix the copy of the summons on the outer door of the house in which the defendant is dwelling; and if he is not dwelling in the place mentioned in the summons, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it. Provided that, if the serving Officer is informed that the defendant is to be found or has his dwelling in a place within the jurisdiction of the Court other than that indicated in the summons, the Officer may proceed to that place to serve the summons.

If the summons cannot be served, a copy shall be fixed to the door of the dwelling house.

If defendant do not dwell in the place mentioned, the summons shall be returned with an endorsement of non-service.

Proviso.

50. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons or on a copy thereof under the seal of the Court, the time when and the manner in which it was served.

If served, time and manner of service to be endorsed on summons.

51. When a summons is returned to the Court without having been served, if the plaintiff shall satisfy the Court that there is reasonable ground for believing that the defendant is keeping out of the way of its Officer for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, the Court shall order the summons to be served by fixing up a copy thereof upon some conspicuous place in the Court-house, and also upon the door of the house in which the defendant shall have last resided, if it be known where he last resided; or that the summons shall be served in such other manner as the Court shall think proper. And the service which shall be substituted by order of the Court, shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if it had been effected in the manner above specified.

When summons is returned unserved, Court to order substituted service, if satisfied that the defendant is avoiding service.

52. Whenever service shall be substituted by order of the Court by virtue of the power contained in the last preceding Section, the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require.

When service is substituted, the time for appearance to be fixed.

53. If the defendant be resident within the jurisdiction of any Court other than that in which the suit is instituted, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the Court in which the suit is instituted shall transmit the summons, either by an Officer of the Court or by post, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the defendant resides, by which it can be most conveniently served, and shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require; and the Court to which the summons is transmitted, shall, upon receipt of the summons, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be re-transmitted to the Court from whence it originally issued.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant is resident within the jurisdiction of another Court and has no agent to accept service.

54. If the defendant be resident out of the British territories in India, and have no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons shall be addressed to the defendant at the place where he may reside, and forwarded to him by post: in such case the time for the appearance of the defendant shall be regulated by the time which may be required for communication by post between the place at which the Court is held and the place where the defendant resides; and if, on the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the defendant shall not appear in person or by pleader, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, and it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that the plaintiff shall be at liberty to proceed with his suit in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the Court may seem meet.

How the summons is to be served when the defendant resides out of the British territories in India and has no agent to accept service.

Time for appearance.

In case of non-appearance of defendant, Court may direct suit to proceed subject to conditions.

55. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property, and the summons for any reason cannot be served on the defendant in person, and the defendant has no agent empowered to accept the service, the summons may be served on any agent of the defendant in charge of such land or other immoveable property.

In suits for immoveable property, service may in certain cases be made on agent in charge of such property.

56. When the defendant is in the service of the Government, the Court may transmit a copy of the summons to the head Officer of the Office in which the defendant is employed, for the purpose of being served on him, if it shall appear to the Court that the summons may be most conveniently so served. If the defendant be an Officer or Soldier, the Court shall transmit a copy of the summons to the Commanding Officer of the Corps to which the defendant belongs, for the purpose of being served on him. The Officer to whom the summons is transmitted, after causing the summons to be served on the person to whom it is addressed if practicable, shall return it to the Court with the written acknowledgment of such person endorsed thereon. If from any cause the summons cannot be served upon the person to whom it is addressed, it shall be returned to the Court by which it was transmitted with information of the cause which has prevented the service. In such case the Court shall adopt such other means of serving the summons as it may deem proper.

How service may be made on Government Servants.

On Officers and Soldiers.

57. When the suit is against a Corporation or a Company authorized to sue and be sued in the name of an Officer or Trustees, the summons may be served by leaving the same at the registered Office (if any) of the Company, or sending it through the Post Office by a letter addressed to such Office, or by giving it to any Director, Secretary, or other principal Officer of the Corporation or Company.

Service on a Corporation or Company.

58. Nothing contained in the preceding rules shall be construed to prevent the Court from substituting for the summons, a letter or other appropriate communication under the signature of the Judge and seal of the Court, when the person whose appearance is required is of a rank which entitles him to such mark of consideration. The letter or other communication shall contain all the particulars required to be stated in the summons, and shall be treated in all respects as a summons.

Letter may be substituted for summons in the case of privileged persons.

59. When a letter or other communication is substituted for a summons under the authority of the last preceding Section, it may be transmitted through the Post Office, or by a special messenger selected by the Court, or in any other manner which the Court may deem sufficient; unless the party shall have an agent empowered to accept service of judicial process, in which case delivery to such agent shall be deemed sufficient service.

Service how to be made on privileged persons.

60. Whenever it is provided that any summons, letter, or other communication may be transmitted to the person to whom it is addressed through the Post Office, proof that the same was correctly addressed to such person at his place of residence, and that it was duly posted and registered according to Section XXXVIII of Act XVII of 1854 (for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office), shall be sufficient proof of the due service and delivery of the summons, letter, or other communication, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Proof of due service and delivery of summons, letter, &c. transmitted through the post.

OF SUITS AGAINST GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC OFFICERS.

61. If the suit be against the Government, the summons shall be served on the Government Pleader. The Court, in fixing the day for the Government to answer to the plaint, shall allow a reasonable time for the necessary communication with the Government through the proper channels, and for the issue of instructions to the Government Pleader to appear and answer on behalf of the Government and may extend the time at its discretion on the application of the Government Pleader. The Court may also, if it think proper, direct the attendance of a person who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the suit.

In suits against Government, summons to be served on Government Pleader.

Appearance and answer.

62. If the suit be against an Officer of the Government for an act which the plaintiff alleges to have been done by such Officer in his official capacity, the summons shall be served upon such Officer in the manner hereinbefore provided.

In suits against Government Officers for alleged official acts, summons to be served on them.

63. If the Officer on receiving the summons shall consider it proper to make a reference to Government before answering to the plaint, he may move the Court to grant such extension of the time fixed in the summons as may be necessary to enable him to make such reference and to receive orders thereon through the proper channels; and the Court upon such motion may extend the time for so long as shall appear to it to be requisite.

Court may grant extension of time to enable Officer to make a reference to Government.

64. If the Government shall undertake the defence of the suit, the Government Pleader shall be furnished with authority to appear and answer to the plaint; and, upon motion made by him, the Court shall order a note to that effect to be entered in the Register.

If Government undertake defence, Government Pleader to appear and move that a note of his appearance be entered in the Register.

65. If such motion shall not be made by the Government Pleader on or before the day fixed in the notice for the defendant to appear and answer to the plaint, the case shall proceed as in a suit between private parties except that the defendant shall not be liable to arrest before judgment.

If no such motion be made, case to proceed as in a suit between private parties.

But defendant not liable to arrest before judgment.

66. If in any such suit the Court shall require the personal appearance of the defendant, and the defendant shall satisfy the Court that he cannot absent himself from his duty without injury to the public service, the Court shall exempt him from such appearance, but he shall be liable to be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

Defendant may in certain cases be exempted from personal appearance.

HOW PERSONS NOT BEFORE THE COURT MAY BE MADE PARTIES TO A SUIT.

67. If it appear to the Court, at any hearing of a suit, that all the persons who may be entitled to, or who claim some share or interest in the subject matter of the suit, or who may be likely to be affected by the result, have not been made parties to the suit, the Court may adjourn the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and direct that such persons shall be made either plaintiffs or defendants in the suit as the case may be. In such case the Court shall issue a notice to such persons in the manner provided in this Act for the service of a summons on a defendant.

Court may adjourn hearing and direct that parties appearing to be interested in a suit shall be made parties to the suit.

OF ARREST BEFORE JUDGMENT.

68. If in any suit, not being a suit for land or other immoveable property, the defendant, with intent to avoid or delay the plaintiff, or to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof, the plaintiff may, either at the institution of the suit, or at any time thereafter until final judgment, make an application to the Court that security be taken for the appearance of the defendant to answer any judgment that may be passed against him in the suit.

In suits for moveable property, when defendant is about to leave the jurisdiction with intent &c., plaintiff may apply that security be taken for his appearance.

69. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to leave its jurisdiction with the intent of avoiding or delaying the plaintiff, or that he has disposed of or removed from the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof with the intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, enjoining him to bring the defendant before the Court, that he may show cause why he should not give good and sufficient bail for his appearance.

Court may issue warrant to bring up defendant to show cause why he should not give bail for his appearance.

70. If the defendant fail to show such cause, the Court shall order him to give bail for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending, and until execution or satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit; and the surety or sureties shall undertake, in default of such appearance, to pay any sum of money that may be adjudged against the defendant in the suit, with costs.

If defendant fail to show cause, Court may order him to give bail for his appearance.

71. Should a defendant offer, in lieu of bail for his appearance, to deposit a sum of money or other valuable property sufficient to answer the claim against him, with the costs of the suit, the Court may accept such deposit.

Deposit in lieu of bail.

72. In the event of the defendant neither furnishing security nor offering a sufficient deposit, he may be committed to custody until the decision of the suit, or until the execution of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit.

Defendant to be committed to custody if he cannot give security.

73. If it shall appear to the Court that the arrest of the defendant was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for any injury or loss which he may have sustained by reason of such arrest. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such arrest.

Compensation to defendant arrested on insufficient grounds.

Proviso as to amount.

74. If in any suit the defendant is about to leave the British territories in India with intent to remain absent so long that the plaintiff will or may thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of any decree that may be passed against the defendant, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court to the effect and in the manner aforesaid, and the procedure thereupon shall be in all respects the same as hereinbefore provided.

When the defendant is about to leave India, the application to be made to the Court.

Of Attachment before Judgment.

75. If the defendant, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him, is about to dispose of his property or any part thereof, or to remove any such property from the jurisdiction of the Court where the suit is pending, the plaintiff may apply to the Court, either at the time of the institution of the suit or at any time thereafter until final judgment, to call upon the defendant to furnish sufficient security to fulfil any decree that may be passed against him in the suit, and, on his failing to give such security, to direct that any property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, shall be attached until the further order of the Court.

In what cases plaintiff may apply before judgment for security from defendant to fulfil decree, or in default for an attachment of defendant's property.

76. The application shall contain a specification of the property required to be attached, and the estimated value of each article or item thereof; and the plaintiff shall, at the time of making the application, declare that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property with such intent as aforesaid.

Application how to be made.

77. If the Court, after examining the applicant and making such further investigation as it may consider necessary, shall be satisfied that the defendant is about to dispose of or remove his property, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of the decree, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a warrant to the proper Officer, commanding him to call upon the defendant, within a time to be fixed by the Court, either to furnish security in such sum as may be specified in the order to produce and place at the disposal of the Court when required the said property or the value of the same or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to fulfil the decree, or to appear and show cause why he should not furnish security. The Court may also in the warrant direct the attachment until further order of the whole or any portion of the property specified in the application.

Form of warrant to be issued.

78. If the defendant fail to show such cause or to furnish the required security within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may direct that the property specified in the application, if not already attached, or such portion thereof as shall be sufficient to fulfil the decree, shall be attached until further order. If the defendant show such cause or furnish the required security, and the property specified in the application or any portion of it shall have been attached, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn.

If cause be not shown or security be not furnished, property may be attached.

Withdrawal of attachment.

79. The attachment shall be made according to the nature of the property to be attached, in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the attachment of property in execution of a decree for money.

How the attachment is to be made.

80. In the event of any claim being preferred to the property attached before judgment, such claim shall be investigated in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the investigation of claims to property attached in execution of a decree for money.

Claims to property attached before judgment, how to be investigated.

81. In all cases of attachment before judgment, the Court which passed the order for the attachment shall at any time remove the same, on the defendant furnishing security as above required, together with security for the costs of the attachment.

Attachment may be removed when security is furnished.

82. If it shall appear to the Court that the attachment was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such amount, not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the attachment of his property. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of such attachment.

Compensation for attachment applied for on insufficient grounds, &c.

Proviso.

83. Attachments before judgment shall not affect the rights of persons not parties to the suit, nor bar any person holding a decree against the defendant from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

Attachment not to injure the rights of persons not parties to the suit, or bar the execution of decrees.

84. If it shall appear to the Court by whose order the property may have been attached before judgment, that there is reasonable ground for supposing that the decree, in satisfaction of which the sale of the property is applied for, was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may refuse to allow the property to be sold in execution, if the decree be a decree of that Court; or if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings for a reasonable time to enable the plaintiff in the pending suit to adopt proceedings to set aside the decree.

Court may stay the sale of property already under attachment, when execution of a decree fraudulently obtained is applied for.

85. Whenever lands paying revenue to Government form the subject of a suit, if the party in possession of such lands shall neglect to pay the Government revenue, and a public sale shall in consequence be ordered to take place, the party not in possession shall, upon payment of the revenue due previously to the sale (and with or without security at the discretion of the Court), be put in immediate possession of the lands; and the Court in its decree may award against the defendant the amount so paid, with interest thereupon at such rate as to the Court may seem fit, or may charge the amount so paid, with interest thereupon, at such rate as the Court may order, in any adjustment of accounts which may be directed in the final decree upon the suit.

Special case in which plaintiff may be put in immediate possession of land the subject of suit.

Of Injunctions.

86. In any suit in which it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Court that any property which is in dispute in the suit is in danger of being wasted, damaged, or alienated by any party to the suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue an injunction to such party, commanding him to refrain from doing the particular act complained of, or to give such other orders for the purpose of staying and preventing him from wasting, damaging, or alienating the property, as to the Court may seem meet. And in all cases in which it may appear to the Court to be necessary for the preservation or the better management or custody of any property which is in dispute in a suit, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a receiver or manager of such property, and, if need be, to remove the person in whose possession or custody the property may be from the possession or custody thereof, and to commit the same to the custody of such receiver or manager, and to grant to such receiver or manager all such powers for the management or the preservation and improvement of the property, and the collection of the rents and profits thereof, and the application and disposal of such rents and profits, as to the Court may seem proper. If the property be land paying revenue to Government, and it is considered that the interests of those concerned will be promoted by the management of the Collector, the Court may appoint the Collector to be receiver and manager of such land, unless the Government shall by any general order prohibit the appointment of Collectors for such purpose, or shall in any particular case prohibit the appointment of the Collector to be such receiver.

Cases in which an injunction to stay waste may be granted.

Or in which a receiver or manager may be appointed.

When the Collector may be appointed receiver or manager.

87. In any suit for restraining the defendant from the committal of any breach of contract or other injury, and whether the same be accompanied with any claim for damages or not, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff at any time after the commencement of the suit, and whether before or after judgment, to apply to the Court for an injunction to restrain the defendant from the repetition, or the continuance of the breach of contract or wrongful act complained of, or the committal of any breach of contract or injury of a like kind arising out of the same contract or relating to the same property or right; and such injunction may be granted by the Court on such terms as to the duration of the injunction, keeping an account, giving security, or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem reasonable and just, and in case of disobedience such injunction may be enforced by imprisonment in the same manner as a decree for specific performance: provided always that any order for an injunction may be discharged or varied or set aside by the Court, on application made thereto by any party dissatisfied with such order.

Special rule in actions for injunctions.

88. The Court may in every case before granting an injunction direct such reasonable notice of the application for the same to be given to the opposite party as it shall see fit.

Before granting injunction, Court may direct reasonable notice to be given to the opposite party.

89. If it shall appear to the Court that the injunction was applied for on insufficient grounds, or if the claim of the plaintiff is dismissed or judgment is given against him by default or otherwise, and it shall appear to the Court that there was no probable ground for instituting the suit, the Court may (on the application of the defendant) award against the plaintiff in its decree such sum, not exceeding one thousand Rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation to the defendant for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the issue of the injunction. Provided that the Court shall not award a larger amount of compensation under this Section than it is competent to such Court to decree in an action for damages. An award of compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for damages in respect of the issue of the injunction.

Compensation to defendant for needless issue of injunction.

Proviso.

OF THE WITHDRAWAL AND ADJUSTMENT OF SUITS.

90. If the plaintiff at any time before final judgment satisfy the Court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit for the same matter, it shall be competent to the Court to grant such permission on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may deem proper. In any such fresh suit the plaintiff shall be bound by the rules for the limitation of actions in the same manner as if the first suit had not been brought. If the plaintiff withdraw from the suit without such permission, he shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit for the same matter.

Court may allow plaintiff to withdraw from a suit, with liberty to bring a fresh suit.

91. If a suit shall be adjusted by mutual agreement or compromise, or if the defendant satisfy the plaintiff in respect to the matter of the suit, such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction shall be recorded, and the suit shall be disposed of in accordance therewith. On the application of the plaintiff reciting the substance of such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction, the Court, if satisfied that such agreement, compromise, or satisfaction has been actually entered into or made, shall grant a certificate to the plaintiff authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of stamp-duty paid on the plaint if the application shall have been presented before the settlement of issues, or half the amount if presented at any time after the settlement of issues and before any witness has been examined. Provided however that no such certificate shall be granted if the adjustment between the parties be such as to require a decree to pass on which process of execution can be taken out.

Adjustment or compromise.

Court may grant certificate for refund of stamp duty on plaint, if suit be adjusted.

Proviso.

OF THE DEATH, MARRIAGE, AND BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY OF PARTIES.

92. The death of a plaintiff or defendant shall not cause the suit to abate if the cause of action survive.

Suit not to abate by death in certain cases.

93. If there be two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one of them die, and if the cause of action survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs, and against the surviving defendant or defendants.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs or defendants, if the cause of action survives.

94. If there be two or more plaintiffs, and one of them die, and if the cause of action shall not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone but shall survive to them and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff jointly, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such deceased plaintiff, and the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs and such legal representative of the deceased plaintiff. If no application shall be made to the Court by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs; and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff shall be interested in and shall be bound by the judgment given in the suit in the same manner as if the suit had proceeded at his instance conjointly with the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several plaintiffs, where the cause of action accrues to the survivor and the representative of the deceased.

95. In case of the death of a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of such plaintiff, enter the name of such representative in the place of such plaintiff in the Register of the suit, and the suit shall thereupon proceed; if no such application shall be made to the Court within what it may consider a reasonable time by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court to pass an order that the suit shall abate, and to award to the defendant the reasonable costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff; or the Court may, if it think proper, on the application of the defendant, and upon such terms as to costs as may seem fit, pass such other order for bringing in the legal representative of the deceased sole plaintiff or surviving plaintiff, and for proceeding with the suit in order to a final determination of the matters in dispute, as may appear just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Proceeding in case of death of sole or sole surviving plaintiff.

96. If any dispute arise as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff, it shall be competent to the Court either to stay the suit until the fact has been duly determined in another suit, or to decide at or before the hearing of the suit who shall be admitted to be such legal representative for the purpose of prosecuting the suit.

Proceeding in case of dispute as to who is the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff.

97. If there be two or more defendants, and one of them die, and the cause of action shall not survive against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, and also in case of the death of a sole defendant or sole surviving defendant, where the action survives, the plaintiff may make an application to the Court, specifying the name, description, and place of abode of any person whom the plaintiff alleges to be the legal representative of such defendant, and whom he desires to be made the defendant in his stead; and the Court shall thereupon enter the name of such representative in the Register of the suit in the place of such defendant, and shall issue a summons to him to appear on a day to be therein mentioned to defend the suit; and the case shall thereupon proceed in the same manner as if such representative had originally been made a defendant and had been a party to the former proceedings in the suit.

Proceeding in case of death of one of several defendants, or of a sole or sole surviving defendant.

98. The marriage of a woman, plaintiff or defendant, shall not cause the suit to abate, but the suit may, notwithstanding, be proceeded with to judgment, and the decree thereupon may be executed upon the wife alone; and if the case is one in which the husband is by law liable for the debts of his wife, the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be executed against the husband also; and in case of judgment for the wife, execution of the decree may, with the permission of the Court, be issued upon the application of the husband, where the husband is by law entitled to the money or thing which may be the subject of the decree.

Marriage of a female plaintiff or defendant not to abate the suit.

99. The bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff in any suit which the Assignee might maintain for the benefit of the creditors shall not be a valid objection to the continuance of such suit, unless the Assignee shall decline to continue the suit and to give security for the costs thereof within such reasonable time as the Court may order; if the Assignee neglect or refuse to continue the suit and to give such security within the time limited by the order, the defendant may, within eight days after such neglect or refusal, plead the bankruptcy or insolvency of the plaintiff as a reason for abating the suit.

Bankruptcy or insolvency when not to abate the suit.

Of Notices to produce, and how they are to be served.

100. Whenever any of the parties to a suit is desirous that any document, writing, or other thing, which he believes to be in the possession or power of another of the parties thereto, should be produced at any hearing of the suit, and the production of such document, writing, or other thing has not previously been required, under the provisions of Sections 34 and 37 of this Chapter, he shall at the earliest opportunity deliver to the Court two notices in writing to the party in whose possession or power he believes the document, writing, or other thing to be, calling upon him to produce the same; and one of such notices shall be filed in Court, and the other shall be delivered by the Court to the Nazir or other proper Officer, to be served upon such party.

Two notices in writing to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court.

101. In all cases in which a party to a suit has not appointed a pleader to act for him, all notices and other judicial processes shall be served upon such party in the manner hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons upon a defendant to appear and answer.

Service of notices and other judicial process how to be made on a party who has not appointed a pleader to act for him.

Of the appearance of the Parties, and consequences of non-appearance.

102. On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court-house in person or by a pleader, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing be adjourned to a future day which shall be fixed by the Court.

Parties must appear in person or by pleader.

103. If, on the day fixed for the defendant to appear and answer, or any other day subsequent thereto, to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, neither party shall appear, either in person or by a pleader, when duly called upon by the Court, the suit shall be dismissed. Whenever a suit is dismissed under the provisions of this Section, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to bring a fresh suit, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of actions; or if he shall within the period of thirty days satisfy the Court that there was a sufficient excuse for his non-appearance, the Court may issue a fresh summons upon the plaint already filed.

If neither party appear, suit to be dismissed with liberty to the plaintiff to bring a fresh suit.

Or if sufficient excuse for non-appearance, a fresh summons may be issued.

104. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served, the Court shall proceed to hear the suit ex parte. If the defendant appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, and shall assign good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, he may upon such terms as the Court may direct as to payment of costs or otherwise be heard in answer to the suit in like manner as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex parte if due service of summons be proved.

If defendant appear on day of adjourned hearing, and assign good cause for his previous non-appearance, he may be heard.

105. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served in any of the modes of service hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct a second summons to the defendant to be issued in any of the said modes.

If plaintiff only appear, and due service of summons be not proved, Court may order issue of second summons.

106. If the plaintiff shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the defendant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was served on the defendant but not in sufficient time to enable the defendant to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and may direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

If defendant only appear, Court to pass judgment against plaintiff, unless defendant admit the claim.

107. If the defendant shall appear in person or by a pleader, and the plaintiff shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the Court shall pass judgment against the plaintiff by default, unless the defendant admit the claim, in which case the Court shall pass judgment against the defendant upon such admission.

When there are several plaintiffs or defendants, each may authorize the other to appear for him.

108. When there are two or more plaintiffs, any one or more of them may be authorized to appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them: and in like manner, when there are two or more defendants, any one or more of them may be authorized to appear, plead, and act for the other or others of them; provided that the authority shall in all cases be in writing, and shall be filed in the Court; when so filed, it shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if the person so authorized to appear, plead, and act, were a pleader of the Court.

Consequence of non-appearance of one or more of several plaintiffs.

109. If there are two or more plaintiffs, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, and the other and others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-plaintiff duly authorized, it shall be competent to the Court to proceed with the suit at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs who shall have appeared, in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared, and to pass such order as may be just and proper in the circumstances of the case; and if there are two or more defendants, and one or more of them shall appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, and the other or others of them shall not appear in person or by a pleader or by a co-defendant duly authorized, the Court shall proceed with the suit to judgment, and shall at the time of passing judgment give such order with respect to the defendant or defendants who shall not have appeared as shall be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-appearance, without sufficient cause shown, of any party to a suit summoned or ordered to appear in person.

110. If any plaintiff or defendant who shall have been ordered or summoned to appear personally under the provisions of Section 36 of this Chapter, shall not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, such plaintiff or defendant shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing Sections applicable to plaintiffs and defendants respectively, who do not appear either in person or by pleader.

Court to receive declaration in support of cause shown.

111. In support of the cause shown by a plaintiff or defendant for failure to appear in person, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing on unstamped paper, if signed by such plaintiff or defendant and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints.

No appeal from judgments obtained ex parte or by default.

112. No appeal shall lie from a judgment passed ex parte against a defendant who has not appeared, or from a judgment against a plaintiff by default for non-appearance. But in all cases in which judgment may be passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply, within a reasonable time, not exceeding thirty days after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed, to the Court by which the judgment was passed, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that the defendant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

When and how judgment ex parte against a defendant may be set aside.

When and how judgment by default against a plaintiff may be set aside.

In all cases of judgment against a plaintiff by default, he may apply, within thirty days from the date of the judgment, for an order to set it aside; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the plaintiff was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall pass an order to set aside the judgment by default, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit. But for an appeal from such final decision, and be written upon stamp paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

Of Written Statements.

Written statements may be tendered by the parties to assist the Court at the first hearing of the suit.

113. The parties or their pleaders may tender at the first hearing of the suit written statements of their respective cases, and the Court shall receive the same and put them on the record. Such statements shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions.

Set-off.

114. If in a suit for debt the defendant desire to set-off against the claim of the plaintiff the amount of any debt due to him from the plaintiff, he shall tender a written statement containing the particulars of his demand, and the Court shall thereupon enquire into the same. Provided that, if the sum claimed by the defendant exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant shall not be allowed to set-off the same unless he abandon the excess.

115. No written statement shall be received after the first hearing of the suit, unless called for by the Court. But it shall be competent to the Court, at any time before final judgment, to call for a written statement, or an additional written statement from any of the parties. When such statements are called for by the Court, they shall be received on plain paper.

No statement to be taken after first hearing unless called for by the Court.

Court may at any time call for a written statement.

116. Written statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and shall not be argumentative, nor by way of answer one to the other; but each statement shall be confined, as much as possible, to a simple narrative of the facts which the party by whom or on whose behalf the written statement is made believes to be material to the case, and which he believes he will be able to prove if called upon by the Court. Written statements shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints, and no written statement shall be received unless it be so subscribed and verified.

How written statements are to be framed.

Written statements to be subscribed and verified.

117. If it shall appear to the Court that any written statement presented by or on behalf of a party, whether the same have been spontaneously tendered or have been called for by the Court, is argumentative or unnecessarily prolix, or that it contains matter irrelevant to the suit, the Court may reject the same, and return it to the party with the order of rejection endorsed thereon; and it shall not be competent to a party whose written statement has been rejected for any of these causes, to present another written statement, unless it shall be expressly called for or allowed by the Court.

Court may reject a written statement which is argumentative, prolix, or irrelevant.

Of the Examination of the Parties.

118. At the first hearing of the suit, and if necessary at any subsequent hearing, any party who appears in person or is present in Court, or the pleader of any party who appears by a pleader, may be examined orally by the Court. Every party shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Oral examination of party or pleader.

Oath.

119. If any party who appears in person or is present in Court shall without lawful excuse refuse to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court may think proper to put to such party, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal of a party to answer.

120. If the pleader of any party who shall appear by a pleader shall refuse or be unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall attend in person on such day; and if the party so directed to attend shall without lawful excuse fail to appear in person on the day to be so appointed, the Court may pass judgment against him, or make such other order in relation to the suit as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of refusal or inability of pleader to answer.

Of the Production of Documents.

121. The parties or their pleaders shall bring with them, and have in readiness at the first hearing of the suit to be produced when called upon by the Court, all their documentary evidence of every description which may not already have been filed in Court, and all documents, writings, or other things which may have been specified in any notice which may have been served on them respectively within a reasonable time before the hearing of the suit; and no documentary evidence of any kind, which the parties or any of them may desire to produce, shall be received by the Court at any subsequent stage of the proceedings, unless good cause be shown to its satisfaction for the non-production thereof at the first hearing.

Documentary evidence to be produced at first hearing.

122. All exhibits produced by the parties shall be received and inspected by the Court; but it shall be competent to the Court, after inspection, to reject any exhibit which it may consider irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection.

Exhibits to be received and inspected by the Court.

Rejection of exhibits.

123. If the exhibit be a deed, instrument, or writing, chargeable with stamp duty under any Regulation or Act for the time being in force, and it shall appear to the Court that the deed, instrument, or writing, although written on stamp paper, does not bear a sufficient stamp, the Court shall nevertheless receive the same in evidence, saving all just exceptions on other grounds, if the party producing it or requiring its production shall pay into Court the deficiency of the stamp duty and a penalty equal to ten times the amount of the deficiency. Provided that, if it shall appear to the Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the deed, instrument, or writing was not properly stamped with the intention of evading the stamp laws, the Court may reject the same.

Documents insufficiently stamped may be received on payment of deficient duty and penalty.

Proviso.

124. An entry of the fact of such payment and of the amount thereof shall be made in a book to be kept in the Court, and shall also be endorsed on the back of such deed, instrument, or writing under the signature of the Judge of the Court. The Court shall at the end of every month make a return to the Collector of Revenue of the District of the monies (if any) which it has so received by way of duty or penalty, distinguishing between such monies, and stating the number and title of the suit, and the name of the party from whom such monies were received, and the date (if any) and description of the document, for the purpose of identifying the same; and the Court shall pay over the said monies to the Collector of Revenue, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same; and the Collector of Revenue, or other proper authority, shall, upon production of the deed, instrument, or writing, with the endorsement hereinbefore mentioned, cause such additional stamp as may be necessary to be affixed to such deed, instrument, or writing in respect of the sums so paid as aforesaid.

Admitted exhibits to be marked and filed.

125. When an exhibit is received by the Court and admitted in evidence, it shall be endorsed with the number and title of the suit, the name of the party producing it, and the date on which it was produced, and shall be filed as part of the record. Provided that, if the exhibit be an entry in any shop book or other book, the party on whose behalf such book is produced shall furnish a copy of the entry, which copy shall be endorsed as aforesaid, and shall be filed as part of the record, and the book shall be returned to the party producing it.

Proviso.

No stamp duty in respect of the production or filing of exhibits.

126. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of the production or filing of any exhibit, any thing contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

Rejected exhibits to be marked and returned.

127. When an exhibit is rejected by the Court, it shall be endorsed in the manner specified in Section 125 with the addition of the word "rejected," and the endorsement shall be subscribed by the Judge. The exhibit shall then be returned to the party who produced it, unless the Court shall think proper, for special reasons (as on suspicion of forgery), to detain it.

After the time for appeal has elapsed, exhibit admitted in evidence may be returned.

128. When the time for preferring an appeal from the decision passed in the suit has elapsed, or if an appeal has been preferred from such decision, then after the appeal has been finally disposed of, any person, whether a party to the suit or not, who may be desirous of receiving back any exhibit produced by him in the suit, shall be entitled, on application to the Court in which such exhibit may be, to receive back the same unless the further use of such exhibit has been superseded by the terms of the decree, or the Court has directed it to be detained for purposes of public justice.

Exhibit may be returned before the time limited, for special reasons.

129. Any exhibit may be returned before the time mentioned in the last preceding Section, if the Court in which the document may be shall think proper, for special reasons, to order its return. But in every case a copy, properly certified, and made at the expense of the applicant, shall be substituted for the original in the record of the suit.

Certified copy to be kept.

Receipt to be given for returned exhibit.

130. Whenever an exhibit once received by a Court of Justice and admitted in evidence is returned, a receipt shall be given by the party receiving it in a receipt-book kept for the purpose.

Court may send for papers from its own records or from other public Offices or Courts.

131. Any Civil Court may of its own accord, or upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other public Office or Court, the record of any other suit or case, and inspect the same, when the inspection of such record or any part of it shall appear likely to elucidate the facts of the suit before the Court, and to promote the ends of justice.

Of the Settlement of Issues.

Framing of issues.

132. At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall enquire and ascertain upon what questions of law or fact the parties are at issue, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues of law and fact on which the right decision of the case may depend. The Court may frame the issues from the allegations of fact which it collects from the oral examination of the parties or their pleaders, notwithstanding any difference between such allegations of fact and the allegations of fact contained in the written statements, if any, tendered by the parties or their pleaders.

Court may examine witnesses or documents before framing the issues.

133. If the Court shall be of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person other than the persons already before the Court, or without the reading of some document not produced by any of such persons, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, to be fixed by the Court, and may compel the attendance of such person, or the production of the document by the person in whose hands it may be, by summons or other suitable process.

Amendment of issues.

Additional issues.

134. At any time before the decision of the case, the Court may amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as to it shall seem fit, and all such amendments as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real question or controversy between the parties shall be so made.

Of Issues by Agreement of Parties.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be stated by the parties in the form of an issue, and an agreement may be entered into for the payment of a sum of money, or the doing or the refraining to do a particular act, according to the result of the issue.

135. When the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question or questions of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may state the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing, which shall not be subject to any stamp duty, that upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue, a sum of money specified in the agreement, or to be ascertained by the Court upon a question inserted in the issue for that purpose, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding some property specified in the agreement, and in dispute in the suit, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or that upon such finding one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act, or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act, specified in the agreement, and having reference to the matter in dispute.

Court, if satisfied that the agreement was executed bonâ fide, may decree accordingly.

136. If the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, and taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that the parties have a bonâ fide interest in the decision of such question, and that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it may proceed to record and try the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court, and may, upon the finding or decision on such issue, give judgment for the sum so agreed on or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise according to the terms of the agreement; and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

When the Suit may be disposed of at the First Hearing.

If the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact.

137. If at the first hearing of a suit it shall appear that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact, the Court may at once give judgment.

If the parties are at issue on questions of law or fact.

138. When the parties are at issue on some question of law or fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court shall be satisfied that no further argument or proof than such as the parties or their pleaders can at once supply is required upon any such of the issues of law or fact as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, the Court, after hearing such argument and proof, may proceed to determine such issue or issues, and if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly; otherwise the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence or for such further argument as the case may require.

Of Adjournments.

Court may grant time, or adjourn to a future day.

139. The Court may, if sufficient cause be shown, at any stage of the suit, grant time to the parties, or to either of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit; and in all such cases the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit. Provided that in all such cases the party applying for time shall pay the costs occasioned by such adjournment, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

Proviso.

How Court is to proceed if the parties fail to appear on the day fixed.

140. If, on any day to which the hearing of the suit may be adjourned, the parties or either of them shall not appear in person or by pleader, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in the manner specified in Section 103, Section 104, or Section 107 of this Chapter as the case may be, or may make such other order as may appear to be just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Court to proceed if either party fail to produce proofs or witnesses.

141. If either party to a suit to whom time may have been granted shall fail to produce his proofs, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to perform any other act for which time may have been allowed, the Court shall proceed to a decision of the suit on the record, notwithstanding such default.

Of summoning Witnesses.

Application for summons.

142. The parties or their pleaders may, at any time after the issues have been recorded, obtain, on application to the Court, summonses to witnesses or other persons to attend either to give evidence or to produce documents, and in any such summons the names of any number of persons may be inserted.

No stamp duty on application for summons.

143. No stamp duty shall be leviable in respect of any application for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, anything contained in any Regulation or Act notwithstanding.

Expenses of witnesses to be paid before issue of summons.

144. The person applying for a summons shall pay into Court such a sum of money as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of each witness, or other person mentioned in the summons, in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and for one day's attendance. If the Court be a subordinate Court, regard shall be had, in fixing the scale of such expenses, to the rules (if any) established by the Court to which such Court shall be immediately subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness or other person at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally. If it shall appear to the Court that the sum paid into Court on account of the travelling and other expenses of the witness or other person in passing to and from the Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the witness or other person as may appear to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, or may discharge the witness without requiring him to give evidence. If it shall be necessary to detain the witness or other person summoned for a longer period than one day, the Court may from time to time order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as may be sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order the witness to be discharged without requiring him to give evidence.

Time, place, and purpose of attendance to be specified in summons.

145. Every summons for the attendance of a witness or other person shall specify the time and place at which he is required to attend, and also whether his attendance is required for the purpose of giving evidence or to produce a document, or for both purposes; and any particular document which the witness or other person may be called on to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

Summons to produce a document.

146. Any person, whether a party to a suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document, without being summoned to give evidence; and any person, summoned merely to produce a document, shall be deemed to have complied with the summons, if he cause such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

SERVICE OF SUMMONS ON A WITNESS.

How and when the summons shall be served.

147. Every summons to a witness or other person shall be served by exhibiting the original, and delivering or tendering a copy; and the service shall in all cases be made a sufficient time before the time specified in the summons for the attendance of the witness or other person, to allow him a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Service to be on the witness, or a male member of his family.

148. Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the summons shall be upon the person thereby required to attend; but when he cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him.

When the summons cannot be served, it is to be returned to the Court.

149. When the person required to attend cannot be found, and there is no adult male member of his family on whom the summons can be served, the serving Officer shall return the summons to the Court from whence it issued, with an endorsement thereon that he has been unable to serve it.

Time and manner of service to be endorsed on the summons.

150. The serving Officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served, endorse on the original summons the time when and the manner in which it was served.

How a summons on a witness who resides in another jurisdiction is to be served.

151. If the person required to attend be resident within the jurisdiction of any other Court than that in which the suit is pending, the summons shall be transmitted by the Court in which the suit is pending, to any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the witness resides by which it can be most conveniently served; and the Court to which the summons is sent shall, upon receipt thereof, deliver the same to the Nazir or other proper Officer of such Court, to be served in the manner above directed; and upon the return of the summons by the serving Officer, it shall be transmitted to the Court from whence it originally issued.

When a witness absconds, his property may be attached.

152. If the summons for the attendance of any person either to give evidence or to produce a document, cannot be served in either of the ways hereinbefore specified, the Court, on being certified thereof by the return of the serving Officer, and upon proof that the evidence of such witness or the production of the document is material, and that the witness or other person absconds or keeps out of the way for the purpose of avoiding the service of the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document, at a time and place to be named therein to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon his house or place of abode; and if such person shall not attend at the time and place named in such proclamation, the Court may, at the instance of the party on whose application the summons was issued, make an order for the attachment of the moveable and immoveable property of such person, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, not being in excess of the amount of the costs of attachment and of any fine to which the person may be liable under the provisions of the following Section.

How the Court is to proceed with the witness on his appearance.

153. If, on the attachment of the property, such witness or other person shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If such witness or other person shall not appear, or appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond or keep out of the way to avoid service of the summons, and that he had not such a notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the property attached, or any part thereof, to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such attachment, together with the amount of any fine which the Court may impose upon such witness or other person under the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of a witness who may abscond or keep out of the way in order to avoid the service of a summons. If the witness or other person shall pay into Court the costs and fine as aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

OF THE EXAMINATION OF PARTIES AS WITNESSES.

A party to a suit appearing in person may be examined either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party.

154. When a party to a suit appears in person at any hearing of the suit, he may be examined as a witness, either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, in the same way as if he were not a party thereto.

Special application to be made for the examination of a party as a witness.

155. If any party to a suit shall require to enforce the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness, he shall, by himself or his pleader, make a special application to the Court for an order requiring the attendance of the party, and shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court, sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued.

The Court may first issue a notice to show cause.

156. The Court, if it think fit, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader, fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence; and may also, from time to time, if necessary, for good and sufficient reason, enlarge the time for such purpose.

157. In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive any declaration in writing of the party, on unstamped paper, if signed by him and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for the verification of plaints, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Court may receive a written declaration in support of the cause shown.

158. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed, or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall issue its order requiring the party to attend and give evidence.

If no sufficient cause be shown, summons to issue.

159. If the Court shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to examine any party to the suit or to inspect any document in his possession or power, the Court may, of its own accord in any stage of the suit, cause such party to be summoned to attend as a witness to give evidence or to produce such document if in his possession or power on a day to be appointed in the summons, and may examine such party as a witness in open Court, or may cause such party to be examined in such other manner as the Court may direct.

Court may of its own accord at any time summon a witness.

ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES, AND CONSEQUENCE OF NON-ATTENDANCE.

160. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence in a suit shall be bound to attend at the time and place named in the summons for that purpose.

Persons summoned to give evidence must attend.

161. If any person, on whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been served in either of the ways specified in Section 148 of this Chapter, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons, the Court may order such person to be apprehended and brought before the Court. If such person abscond or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be apprehended or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the manner and subject to the rules provided in Sections 152 and 153 of this Chapter with respect to a witness or other person on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected.

Consequences of non-attendance by a witness not a party to the suit.

162. If any witness, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may commit such witness to close custody for such reasonable time as it may deem proper, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to give his evidence, or to produce the document. If after the expiration of such time the witness shall persist in his refusal, the Court may proceed to deal with him according to the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the punishment of persons refusing to give evidence.

Consequences of refusal to give evidence.

163. If any person, being a party to the suit, who shall be ordered to attend to give evidence or produce a document, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such order, or, attending or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court may either pass judgment against the party so failing or refusing, or make such other order in relation to the suit as the Court may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Consequence of non-attendance or refusal of a party to give evidence.

164 Any person present in Court, whether a party to the suit or not, may be called upon by the Court to give evidence and to produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence or to produce such document, and shall be liable to be dealt with by the Court as a party or witness, as the case may be, would, under any of the preceding provisions, be liable to be dealt with for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Any person present in Court may be called upon to give evidence though not summoned.

WHEN AND HOW WITNESSES ARE TO BE EXAMINED.

165. On the day appointed for the hearing of the suit or on some other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. In cases in which an appeal lies to a higher tribunal, the evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, in the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and, when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and also in the presence of the parties to the suit or their pleaders, or such of them as are in attendance, and shall, if necessary, be corrected, and shall be signed by the Judge. If the evidence be taken down in a different language from that in which it has been given, and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the witness may require his deposition as taken down in writing to be interpreted to him in the language in which it was given. Where all the parties to the suit present, and the pleaders of such as are absent, consent to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down in his own hand. It shall be in the discretion of the Court to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there shall appear any special reason for so doing, or any party or his pleader shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their pleaders, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Court shall record such remarks as it may think material respecting the demeanor of the witness while under examination. In cases in which the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge himself, he shall be bound, as the examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall accompany the record. In cases in which an appeal does not lie to a higher tribunal, it shall not be necessary to take down the depositions of the witnesses in writing at length; but the Judge, as the examination of each witness proceeds, shall make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge with his own hand, and shall form part of the record. If the Judge shall be prevented from making a memorandum as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and in cases not appealable shall cause such memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such memorandum shall from part of the record.

Objection made to questions.

Memorandum of substance of the evidence to be made by judge as each witness is examined.

In what form evidence shall be taken in cases not appealable.

If judge be unable to make a memorandum of the evidence, reason of inability to be recorded.

166. If a witness be about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or other good and sufficient cause can be shown to the satisfaction of the Court why his examination should be taken immediately, it shall be competent to the Court, upon the application of either party or of the witness, at any time after the institution of the suit, to take the examination of such witness forthwith, or on any day that may be fixed for that purpose, of which due notice shall be given to the parties if the day be fixed in their absence. The witness shall be examined, and his deposition shall be taken down in writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed; and the deposition so taken down may be read in evidence at any hearing of the suit.

A witness may for sufficient cause be examined immediately.

167. All witnesses shall be examined upon oath or affirmation or otherwise according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force in relation to the examination of witnesses.

Witnesses to be examined upon oath or affirmation, or according to the law for the time being in force.

Of Commissions to examine absent Witnesses and make Local Enquiries.

168. When the evidence of a witness is required who is resident at some place distant more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or who is unable from sickness or infirmity to attend before the Court to be personally examined, or is a person exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court; the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, or on the representation of the witness, order a Commission to issue for the examination of such witness on interrogatories or otherwise; and may, by the same or any subsequent order, give all such directions for taking such examinations as may appear reasonable and just. If the witness be resident within the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, the Commission may be issued to any Officer of the Court, or to any subordinate Court, or to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint. If the witness be resident at some place which is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Commission, and not within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court, the Commission shall ordinarily be issued to the Court within whose jurisdiction the witness may reside, and which can most conveniently execute the same; but, under special circumstances, the Commission may be issued to any other person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

Cases in which Court may issue a Commission to examine witnesses.

When the witness resides within the Court's jurisdiction.

When the witness resides beyond the Court's jurisdiction, and not within the Supreme Court's jurisdiction, but within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court.

169. If the witness be resident within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, the Commision shall ordinarily be issued to the Court of Small Causes held under Act IX of 1850 (for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay), but may, under special circumstances, be directed to any person or persons whom the Court issuing the Commission may think proper to appoint.

When the witness is within the local jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

170. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, but within the British territories in India or within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Court, if it be satisfied that the evidence of such witness is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the representation of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission for the examination of the witness; provided that, if the suit be pending in any Court subordinate to the principal Civil Court of a District, such subordinate Court shall not issue the Commission, but the principal Civil Court of the District may issue the Commission on the application of the subordinate Court.

When the witness is not within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court or the Supreme Court, but within the British territories or the territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government.

171. When the evidence of a witness is required, who is resident at some place beyond the said territories and not within the territories of a Native Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, the Sudder Court, if the suit in which the evidence of the witness is required be pending in that Court and the Court be satisfied that such evidence is necessary, may, of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, issue a Commission to examine the witness; if the suit be not pending in the Sudder Court, that Court may issue the Commission on the application of the Court in which the suit is pending. In all such cases, the Commission may be issued to any person or persons whom the Sudder Court may think proper to appoint.

Commission to be returned with the depositions of the witnesses.

172. After the Commission has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness who may have been examined thereunder, to the Court out of which the Commission issued, unless otherwise directed by the order for issuing the Commission, in which case it shall be returned in terms of such order, and the Commission and the return thereto and the deposition of the witness who may have been examined under such Commission shall in all cases form part of the record of the suit. But no deposition taken under a Commission shall be read in evidence without the consent of the party against whom the same may be offered, unless it be proved that the deponent is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, or dead, or unable from sickness or infirmity to attend to be personally examined, or distant, without collusion, more than a hundred miles from the place where the Court is held, or exempted by reason of rank or sex from personal appearance in Court, or unless the Court shall, at its discretion, dispense with the proof of any of the above circumstances, or shall authorize the deposition of any witness being read in evidence, notwithstanding proof that the causes for taking such deposition have ceased at the time of reading the same.

When depositions may be read in evidence.

Commission for local investigations.

173. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which the Court may deem a local investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of elucidating the matters in dispute, or of ascertaining the amount of any mesne profits or damages, the Court may issue a Commission to an Officer of the Court appointed to execute such Commissions, or, if there be no such Officer, to any suitable person, directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to the Court. In all such cases, unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment, the Commissioner shall have power to examine any witnesses who may be produced to him by the parties or any of them, the parties themselves, and any other persons whom he may think proper to call upon to give evidence in the matters referred to him; and also to call for and examine documents and other papers relevant to the subject of enquiry; and persons not attending on the requisition of the Commissioner, or refusing to give their testimony or to produce any documents or other papers, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the report of the Commissioner, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court. The Commissioner, after such local inspection as he may deem necessary, and after reducing to writing, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for taking the depositions of witnesses in the presence of the Judge, the depositions taken by him, shall return the depositions, together with his report in writing, subscribed with his name, to the Court. The report and depositions shall be taken as evidence in the suit and shall form part of the record; but it shall be competent to the Court, or to the parties to the suit or any of them, with the permission of the Court, to examine the Commissioner personally in open Court, touching any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report, or the manner in which he may have conducted the investigation.

The report and depositions to be taken as evidence in the suit, but the Commissioner may be examined in person.

A Commissioner may be appointed to investigate and adjust accounts.

174. In any suit or other judicial proceeding in which an investigation or adjustment of accounts may be necessary, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint such Officer or other person as aforesaid to be a Commissioner for the purpose of making such investigation or adjustment, and to direct that the parties or their attorneys or pleaders shall attend upon the Commissioner during such investigation or adjustment. In all such cases, the Court shall furnish the Commissioner with such part of the proceedings and such detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his information and guidance; and the instructions shall distinctly specify whether the Commissioner is merely to transmit the proceedings which he may hold on the enquiry or also to report his own opinion on the point referred for his investigation. The proceedings of the Commissioner shall be received in evidence in the case, unless the Court may have reason to be dissatisfied with them; in which case the Court shall make such further inquiry as may be requisite, and shall pass such ultimate judgment or order as may appear to it to be right and proper in the circumstances of the case.

In cases of local investigation or investigation into accounts, expenses of Commission to be paid into Court, before issue thereof.

175. Whenever a Commission is issued either for taking evidence or for a local investigation or an investigation into accounts, the Court, before issuing the Commission, may order such sum as may be thought reasonable for the expenses of the Commission to be paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Commission is issued.

Of Judgment and Decree.

When judgment is to be pronounced.

176. When the exhibits have been perused, the witnesses examined, and the parties heard in person or by their respective pleaders, the Court shall pronounce its judgment. The judgment shall be pronounced in open Court either immediately or on some future day of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

Judgment to be written in the vernacular language of the Judge.

Proviso.

177. The judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. Provided that, if the vernacular language of the Judge be not English and the Judge be sufficiently conversant with the English language to be able to write a clear and intelligible decision in that language, and prefer to write his judgment in it, the judgment may be written in English.

178. The judgment shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge in open Court at the time of pronouncing it. Whenever the judgment is written in any other language than that which is in ordinary use in the Court, the judgment shall be translated into the language in ordinary use in the Court, and the translation shall also be signed by the Judge.

Judgment what to contain.

Judgment to be translated.

179. In all suits in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision on each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues be sufficient for the decision of the suit.

Court to state its decision on each issue.

Proviso.

180. The judgment shall in all cases direct by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, whether by himself or by another party, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion; and the Court shall have full power to award and apportion costs in any manner it may deem proper.

Judgment to direct by whom costs are to be paid.

181. Under the denomination of costs are included the whole of the expenses necessarily incurred by either party on account of the suit, and in enforcing the decree passed therein, such as the expense of stamps, of summoning the defendants and witnesses, and of other processes, or of procuring copies of documents, fees of pleaders, charges of witnesses, and expenses of Commissioners either in taking evidence or in local investigations or in investigations into accounts.

What is included under the denomination of costs.

182. The decree shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and descriptions of the parties, and particulars of the claim, as stated in the Register of the suit, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the suit. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit and by what parties and in what proportions they are to be paid, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court.

Decree.

183. When the suit is for land or other immoveable property with specified boundaries, if the decree be for the recovery of a portion only of such property, it shall specify the boundaries of the land or property adjudged.

Decree for the recovery of a portion of immoveable property.

184. When the suit is for moveable property, if the decree be for the delivery of such property, it shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

Decree for the delivery of moveable property.

185. When the suit is for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court with the consent of the plaintiff may decree the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and in such case shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative if the contract is not performed.

Decree for damages for breach of contract.

186. When the suit is for a sum of money due to the plaintiff, the Court may in the decree order interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged from the date of suit to the date of payment at such rate as the Court may think proper.

In suits for money, decree may order certain interest to be paid on the principal sum adjudged.

187. In all decrees for the payment of money, the Court may for any sufficient reason order that the amount shall be paid by instalments with or without interest. All moneys payable under a decree shall be paid into the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, unless the Court passing the decree shall otherwise direct.

Payment by instalments.

188. If the defendant shall have been allowed to set-off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount (if any) is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which shall appear to be due to either party. The decree of the Court with respect to any sum awarded to the defendant shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate suit against the plaintiff.

If set-off be allowed.

Effect of Decree.

189. When the suit is for land or other property paying rent, the Court may provide in the decree for the payment of mesne profits or rent on such land or other property from the date of the suit until the date of delivery of possession to the decree-holder with interest thereupon at such rate as the Court may think proper.

When the suit is for land, the Court may provide in the decree for payment of mesne profits with interest.

190. When the suit is for land and for mesne profits which have accrued thereon during a period prior to the date of suit, and the amount of such profits is disputed, the Court may either determine the amount prior to passing a decree for the land, or may pass a decree for the land and reserve the enquiry into the amount of mesne profits for the execution of the decree according as may appear most convenient.

Court may determine amount of mesne profits prior to passing decree or may reserve enquiry.

191. Certified copies of the decree and judgment shall be furnished to the parties or their pleaders on application to the Court, and on the production of the necessary stamps where stamps are required by any law for the time being in force. The application may be made either orally or by writing on unstamped paper.

Certified copies of the decree and judgment to be furnished.

CHAPTER IV.

Execution of Decrees.

192. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property, the same shall be delivered over to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged.

Decree for immoveable property.

193. If the decree be for any specific moveable, or for the specific performance of any contract, or for the performance of any other particular act, it shall be enforced by the seizure, if practicable, of the specific moveable and the delivery thereof to the party to whom it shall have been adjudged, or by imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by attaching his property and keeping the same under attachment until further order of the Court, or by both imprisonment and attachment if necessary; or if alternative damages be awarded, by levying such damages in the mode hereinafter provided for the execution of a decree for money.

Decree for moveable property, performance of contract, or alternative.

194. If the decree be for money, it shall be enforced by the imprisonment of the party against whom the decree is made, or by the attachment and sale of his property, or by both if necessary; and if such party be other than a defendant, the decree may be enforced against him in the same manner as a decree may be enforced under the provisions of this Chapter against a defendant.

Decree for money.

195. If the decree be for the execution of a conveyance or for the endorsement of a negotiable instrument, and the party ordered to execute or endorse such conveyance or negotiable instrument shall neglect or refuse so to do, any party interested in having the same executed or endorsed may prepare a conveyance or endorsement of the instrument in accordance with the terms of the decree, and tender the same to the Court, for execution upon the proper stamp (if any is required by law), and the signature thereof by the Judge shall have the same effect as the execution or endorsement thereof by the party ordered to execute.

Decrees for execution of conveyances, or endorsement of negotiable instruments.

196. If the decree be against a party as the representative of a deceased person, and such decree be for money to be paid out of the property of the deceased person, it may be executed by the attachment and sale of any such property, or, if no such property can be found and the defendant fail to satisfy the Court that he has duly applied such property of the deceased as shall be proved to have come into his possession, the decree may be executed against the defendant to the extent of the property not duly applied by him, in the same manner as if the decree had been against the defendant personally.

Decree against representatives of deceased persons.

197. Whenever a person has become liable as security for the performance of a decree or of any part thereof, the decree may be executed against such person to the extent to which he has rendered himself liable, in the same manner as a decree may be enforced against a defendant.

Decree against sureties.

198. The following property is liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, namely, lands, houses, goods, money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Government securities, bonds, or other securities for money, debts, shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other Public Company or Corporation, and all other property whatsoever, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the defendant, and whether the same be held in his own name or by another person in trust for him, or on his behalf.

What property liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree.

Application for Execution.

199. When any party in whose favor a decree has been made is desirous of enforcing the same, he shall apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree either in person or through his pleader in the suit or some other pleader duly appointed to act for him in that behalf. If there be two or more decree-holders, one or more of them may make the application, if the Court shall see sufficient cause for allowing him or them to make such application; and the Court shall in such case pass such order as it may deem necessary for protecting the interests of the other decree-holders.

Application for execution how to be made.

200. If a decree shall be transferred by assignment or by operation of law from the original decree-holder to any other person, application for the execution of the decree may be made by the person to whom it shall have been so transferred or his pleader; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed in the same manner as if the application were made by the original decree-holder.

Application by whom to be made, if decree be transferred from original decree-holder to another person.

201. If there be cross-decrees between the same parties for the payment of money, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained a decree for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum shall be entered on the decree for the larger sum as well as satisfaction on the decree for the smaller sum, and if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both decrees.

Cross-decrees.

The above rules shall apply to decrees sent to a Court for execution as well as to decrees in the same Court.

Whenever a suit shall be pending in any Court against the holder of a decree of such Court, by the person or persons against whom the decree was passed, the Court may, if it appear just and reasonable to do so, stay execution on the decree either absolutely or on such terms as it may think just, until a decree shall be passed in the pending suit.

202. If any person against whom a decree has been made shall die before execution has been fully had thereon, application for execution thereof may be made against the legal representative or the estate of the person so dying as aforesaid; and if the Court shall think proper to grant such application, the decree may be executed accordingly.

If the person against whom a decree is made shall die, application may be made against his legal representative or estate.

203. If the decree be ordered to be executed against the legal representative, it shall be executed in the manner provided in Section 5 of this Chapter for the execution of a decree for money to be paid out of the property of a deceased person.

Decree how to be executed against legal representative.

204. The application for execution of a decree shall be in writing, and shall contain in a tabular form the following particulars, namely, the number of the suit, the names of the parties, the date of the decree, whether any appeal has been preferred from the decree, and whether any and what adjustment of the matter in dispute has been made between the parties subsequently to the decree; the amount of the debt or damages due upon it, or other relief granted by the decree; the amount of costs, if any were awarded; the name of the person against whom the enforcement of the decree is sought; and the mode in which the assistance of the Court is required, whether by the delivery of property specifically decreed, the arrest and imprisonment of the person named, or attachment of his property, or otherwise as the case may be.

Further particulars when the application is for an attachment of immoveable property.

205. When the application is for an attachment of any land or other immoveable property belonging to the defendant, it shall be accompanied with an inventory or list of such property, containing such a description of the property as may be sufficient to identify it, together with a specification of the defendant's share or interest therein, to the best of the applicant's belief and so far as he has been able to ascertain the same. And where the property is an estate paying revenue to Government, or any portion of such estate, the application for an attachment shall be accompanied with an authenticated extract from the Register of the Collector's Office, specifying the revenue of such estate, and the names and (where registered) the shares of the registered proprietors.

The application for an attachment of moveable property may be general, or may be accompanied with an inventory of the property to be attached.

206. Where the application is for an attachment of the defendant's moveable property or any part thereof, it may be accompanied with an inventory or list of the property to be attached, containing a reasonably accurate description thereof; or the applicant may apply for a general attachment of the defendant's moveable property wheresoever the same can be found, to the amount of the judgment and costs.

Procedure on receiving the application.

207. The Court, on receiving any application for execution of a decree, containing the particulars above mentioned, or such of them as may be applicable to the case, shall cause the same to be compared with the original decree contained in the record of the suit; and if they shall be found to correspond therewith, shall enter a note of the application, and the date on which it was made in the Register of the suit. If the particulars shall not be found to correspond with the original decree, the Court shall either return the application for correction to the person making it, or shall, with the consent of such person, cause the necessary correction to be made. If the application be admitted, the Court shall order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application.

Measures required in certain cases preliminary to the issue of the Warrant.

In certain special cases, notice to show cause why the decree should not be executed, shall be issued.

208. If an interval of more than one year shall have elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for its execution, or if the enforcement of the decree be applied for against the heir or representative of an original party to the suit, the Court shall issue a notice to the party against whom execution may be applied for, requiring him to show cause, within a limited period to be fixed by the Court, why the decree should not be executed against him. Provided that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of an interval of more than one year having elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for execution, if the application be made within one year from the date of the last order passed on any previous application for execution; and provided further that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of the application being against an heir or representative, if, upon a previous application for execution against the same person, the Court shall have ordered execution to issue against him.

Proviso.

Procedure after issue of notice.

209. When such notice is issued, if the party shall not attend in person or by a pleader, or shall not show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court why the decree should not be forthwith executed, the Court shall order it to be executed accordingly. If the party shall attend in person or by a pleader, and shall offer any objection to the enforcement of the decree, the Court shall pass such order as in the circumstances of the case may appear to be just and proper.

Application for a general attachment of moveable property.

210. Where the application is for a general attachment of the moveable property of the defendant, it shall be competent to the Court, if it shall think proper, before issuing an order for such attachment, to require the applicant to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, in such sum as may be considered adequate, for any injury that may be occasioned by the attachment of property belonging to any other person than the defendant.

Before granting order, Court may make certain enquiries as to the property to be attached.

211. Before granting the order for a general attachment or at the instance of the plaintiff at any time after judgment and before complete execution of the decree, the Court may summon the person against whom the application is made and examine him as to the property liable to be seized in satisfaction of the judgment. The Court may also, of its own motion or at the instance of any person interested in the enquiry, summon any other person whom it may think necessary and examine him in respect to such property, and may require the person summoned to produce all deeds and documents in his possession or power relating to such property.

Rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after judgment.

212. In all cases in which a summons may be issued for the attendance of a party to a suit or any other person at any time after judgment, the rules applicable to the summoning and examination of parties and witnesses after issues recorded, shall apply to the party or witnesses so summoned.

Issue of the Warrant.

Warrant when to issue.

213. When all necessary preliminary measures have been taken, where any such are required, the Court, unless it see cause to the contrary, shall issue the proper warrants for the execution of the decree.

214. Every warrant for the execution of a decree shall bear the date of the day on which it is issued, and shall be signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, and delivered to the Nazir, or other proper Officer of the Court. A day shall be specified in the warrant on or before which it must be executed, and the Nazir or other proper Officer shall endorse upon the warrant the day and the manner in which it was executed, or, if it was not executed, the reason why it was not executed, and shall return it with such endorsement to the Court from which it issued.

Latest day of execution to be written in warrant, and time and manner of execution to be endorsed.

Of the execution of Decrees for Immoveable Property.

215. If the decree be for a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the institution of the suit, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been adjudged, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

How immoveable property is to be delivered when in the occupancy of a defendant or of some person under him.

216. If the decree be for land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the warrant in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, the substance of the decree in regard to the property.

How it is to be delivered when in the occupancy of ryot.

217. If the decree be for the division of an estate or for the separate possession of a share of an undivided estate paying revenue to Government, the division of the estate or the separation of the share shall be made by the Collector under the orders of the Court according to the rules in force for the partition of an estate paying revenue to Government.

Division of estate or separation of share how to be made.

218. If, in the execution of a decree for land or other immoveable property, the Officer executing the same shall be resisted or obstructed by any person, the person in whose favor such decree was made may apply to the Court at any time within one month from the time of such resistance or obstruction. The Court shall fix a day for investigating the complaint and shall summon the party against whom the complaint is made to answer the same.

Obstruction to execution of decree for immoveable property.

219. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the obstruction or resistance was occasioned by the defendant or by some person at his instigation on the ground that the land or other immoveable property is not included in the decree, or on any other ground, the Court shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper under the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by defendant.

220. If the Court shall be satisfied, after such investigation of the facts of the case as it may deem proper, that the resistance or obstruction complained of was without any just cause and that the complainant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining effectual possession of the property adjudged to him by the decree, by the defendant or some person at his instigation, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff and without prejudice to any proceedings to which such defendant or other person may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, commit the defendant or such other person to close custody for such period not exceeding thirty days as may be necessary to prevent the continuance of such obstruction or resistance.

How defendant may be dealt with, if he persists in obstructing the complainant.

221. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the resistance or obstruction to the execution of the decree has been occasioned by any person, other than the defendant, claiming bonâ fide to be in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, the claim shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the decree-holder as plaintiff and the claimant as defendant, and the Court shall, without prejudice to any proceedings to which the claimant may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, proceed to investigate the claim in the same manner and with the like power as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the decree-holder against the claimant under the provisions of this Act, and shall pass such order for staying execution of the decree, or executing the same, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Obstruction by a bonâ fide claimant other than the defendant.

222. If any person other than the defendant shall be dispossessed of any land or other immoveable property in execution of a decree, and such person shall dispute the right of the decree-holder to dispossess him of such property under the decree on the ground that the property was bonâ fide in his possession on his own account or on account of some other person than the defendant, and that it was not included in the decree, or, if included in the decree, that he was not a party to the suit in which the decree was passed, he may apply to the Court within one month from the date of such dispossession; and if, after examining the applicant, it shall appear to the Court that there is probable cause for making the application, the application shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff, and the decree-holder as defendant, and the Court shall proceed to investigate the matter in dispute in the same manner and with the like powers as if a suit for the property had been instituted by the applicant against the decree-holder.

Procedure in certain cases if person dispossessed of immoveable property dispute the right of decree-holder to be put into possession of such property.

223. The decision passed by the Court under either of the last two Sections shall be of the same force as a decree in an ordinary suit, and shall be subject to appeal under the rules applicable to appeals from decrees; and no fresh suit shall be entertained in any Court between the same party or parties claiming under them in respect of the same cause of action.

Appeal from decision under the last two Sections.

OF THE EXECUTION OF DECREES FOR MONEY BY ATTACHMENT OF PROPERTY.

224. If the decree be for money, and the amount thereof is to be levied from the property of the person against whom the same may have been pronounced, the Court shall cause the property to be attached in the manner following.

Attachment of property in execution of decree for money, to be as follows.

225. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall keep the same in his own custody, or in the custody of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof.

Attachment of moveable property in possession of defendant, by seizure.

226. Where the property shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of some other person to the immediate possession thereof, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the person in possession from giving over the property to the defendant.

Attachment by prohibitory order of moveable property, to which defendant is entitled subject to a lien.

227. Where the property shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the defendant from alienating the property by sale, gift, or in any other way, and all persons from receiving the same by purchase, gift, or otherwise.

Attachment of immoveable property, by prohibitory order.

228. Where the property shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments, or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts, and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person whomsoever, until the further order of the Court, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing from making any transfer of the shares or receiving payment of any dividends thereof, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment, until such further order.

Attachment of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies &c., by prohibitory order.

229. Where the property shall consist of money, or of any security, in deposit in any Court of Justice or in the hands of any Officer of Government, which is or may become payable to the defendant or on his behalf, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or Officer requesting that the money or security may be held subject to the further order of the Court by which the notice may be issued. Provided that, if such money or security is in deposit in any Court of Justice, any question of title or priority which may arise between the decree-holder and any other person, not being the defendant, claiming to be interested in such money or security by virtue of any assignment, attachment, or otherwise, shall be determined by the Court in which such money or security is in deposit.

Attachment of money or securities in deposit in a Court of Justice or with a Government Officer, by notice.

230. Where the property shall consist of a negotiable instrument, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the Nazir or other Officer shall bring the same into Court, and such instrument shall be held subject to the further orders of the Court.

Attachment of negotiable instruments by seizure.

231. In the case of goods, chattels, or other moveable property not in the possession of the defendant, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the person in possession of the property. In the case of lands, houses, or other immoveable property, the written order shall be read aloud at some place on or adjacent to such lands, houses, or other property, and shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house; and when the property is land or any interest in land, the written order shall also be fixed up in the Office of the Collector of the Zillah in which the land may be situated. In the case of debts, the written order shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and copies of the written order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to each individual debtor. And in the case of shares in the capital or joint-stock of any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the written order shall in like manner be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and a copy of the order shall be delivered or sent registered by post to the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation.

When the attachment is by prohibitory order, how the order is to be made known.

232. After any attachment shall have been made by actual seizure, or by written order as aforesaid, and in the case of an attachment by written order after it shall have been duly intimated and made known in manner aforesaid, any private alienation of the property attached, whether by sale, gift, or otherwise, and any payment of the debt or debts or dividends on shares to the defendant during the continuance of the attachment, shall be null and void.

Any private alienation of property after attachment to be null and void.

233. In every case in which a debtor shall be prohibited from making payment of his debt to the creditor, he may pay the amount into Court, and such payment shall have the same effect as payment to the party entitled to receive the debt.

Payment by a debtor who has been prohibited from making payment to his creditor.

234. In all cases of attachment under the preceding Sections, it shall be competent to the Court, at any time during the attachment, to direct that any part of the property so attached as shall consist of money or bank-notes, or a sufficient part

The Court may direct money or bank notes to be paid to the plaintiff;

thereof, shall be paid over to the party applying for execution of the decree; or that any part of the property so attached as may not consist of money or bank-notes, so far as may be necessary for the satisfaction of the decree, shall be sold, and that the money which may be realized by such sale, or a sufficient part thereof, shall be paid to such party.

or other attached property to be sold, and proceeds to be paid to him.

235. Where the property attached shall consist of debts due to the party who may be answerable for the amount of the decree, or of any lands, houses, or other immoveable property, it shall further be competent to the Court to appoint a manager of the said property, with power to sue for the debts, and to collect the rents or other receipts and profits of the land or other immoveable property, and to execute such deeds or instruments in writing as may be necessary for the purpose, and to pay and apply such rents, profits, or receipts towards the payment of the amount of the decree and costs; and in any case in which a manager shall be appointed, such manager shall be bound to render due and proper accounts of his receipts and disbursements from time to time as the Court may direct.

Where the property consists of debts or immoveable property, a manager may be appointed.

236. If the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses which may be incurred by the attachment be paid into Court, or if it shall be proved to the Court that satisfaction thereof has been made, an order shall be issued for the withdrawal of the attachment; and if the defendant shall desire it and shall deposit in Court a sum sufficient to cover the expense, the order shall be proclaimed or intimated in the same manner as hereinbefore prescribed for the proclamation or intimation of the attachment; and such steps shall be taken as may be necessary for staying further proceedings in execution of the decree.

Order for withdrawal of attachment after satisfaction of the decree.

Of Claims to Attached Property.

237. In the event of any claim being preferred to, or objection offered against the sale of lands or any other immoveable or moveable property which may have been attached in execution of a decree or under any order for attachment passed before judgment, as not liable to be sold in execution of a decree against the defendant, the Court shall, subject to the proviso contained in the next succeeding Section, proceed to investigate the same with the like powers as if the claimant had been originally made a defendant to the suit, and also with such powers as regards the summoning of the original defendant as are contained in Section 212 of this Chapter. And if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was not in the possession of the party against whom execution is sought, or of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, or that, being in the possession of the party himself at such time, it was so in his possession not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, the Court shall pass an order for releasing the said property from attachment. But if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the land or other immoveable or moveable property was in possession of the party against whom execution is sought, as his own property, and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of ryots or cultivators or other persons paying rent to him at the time when the property was attached, the Court shall disallow the claim and shall direct the decree to be executed. The order which may be passed by the Court under this Section shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom the order may be given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one year from the date thereof.

How claims and objections to sale of attached property are to be investigated.

238. The claim or objection shall be made at the earliest opportunity to the Court which shall have ordered the attachment; and if the property to which the claim or objection applies, shall have been advertized for sale, the sale may (if it appears necessary) be postponed for the purpose of making the investigation mentioned in the last preceding Section. Provided that no such investigation shall be made if it appear that the making of the claim or objection was designedly and unnecessarily delayed, with a view to obstruct the ends of justice. The order disallowing the investigation shall not be subject to appeal; and the claimant shall be left to prosecute his claim by a regular suit.

Claims and objections should be preferred at the earliest opportunity.

Of Sales in execution of Decrees.

239. Sales in execution of decrees shall be conducted by an Officer of the Court, or by any other person whom the Court may appoint, and shall in all cases be made by public auction in manner hereinafter mentioned. Provided that, if the property to be sold shall consist of negotiable securities or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, it shall be competent to the Court, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, to authorize the sale of such securities or shares through a broker at the market-rate of the day. If the property to be sold shall be land paying revenue to Government and the Government shall so direct, the sale shall be conducted by the Collector on the requisition of the Court.

Sales to be by public auction.

Exception as to negotiable securities and shares in public Companies.

Collector to conduct sale of lands paying revenue to Government.

240. In all cases of intended sale by public auction, whether of moveable or immoveable property, in execution of a decree, a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale, the property to be sold, the revenue assessed upon the estate when the property to be sold is an estate or a part of an estate paying revenue to Government, and the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered, together with any other particulars that the Court may think necessary, shall be made in the current language of the District. Such proclamation shall be made on the spot where the property is attached by beat of drum or in such other mode as may be customary; and a written notification to the same effect shall be affixed in the Court-house of the Judge who shall have ordered the sale, and in some conspicuous spot in the town or village in which the attachment may have taken place. When the property ordered to be sold may consist of land or of any right or interest in land, the written notification shall also be affixed in the Office of the Collector of the District in which such land is situate and in the Court-house of the principal Civil Court of the District where the Court which ordered the sale is subordinate to such Court. The sale shall not take place until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immoveable property, and of at least fifteen days in the case of moveable property, calculated from the date on which the notification shall have been affixed in the Court-house of the Judge ordering the sale.

Notification of sales by public auction.

Time of sale.

241. The usual process for attachment and sale when the property to be attached consists of goods, chattels, or other personal estate other than debts, may be issued either successively or simultaneously as the Court directing the sale may in each instance think proper.

The process for attachment and sale may in certain cases be issued simultaneously.

242. In all cases of a public sale of property in execution of a decree, it shall be clearly explained to the bidders at the sale that nothing is guaranteed to them in the land or other property sold, beyond the right, title, and interest therein of the individual answerable for the amount of the decree in execution of which the sale is made.

Nothing but the right, title, and interest of the defendant guaranteed to the purchaser.

243. In all cases of sale of moveable property, the price of every lot shall be paid for at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall direct, and in default of such payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold. On payment of the purchase money, the Officer holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute.

Mode of payment on sale of moveable property.

244. No irregularity in the sale of moveable property under an execution, shall vitiate the sale; but any person who may sustain any injury by reason of such irregularity may recover damages by a suit in Court.

Irregularity not to vitiate sale of moveable property, but any person injured may recover damages by suit.

245. In all cases of sale of immoveable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold.

Deposit by purchaser in case of sale of immoveable property.

246. The full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the sale of the property took place, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day; and in default of payment within such period, the deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the property shall be resold and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

When full amount of purchase money to be made good.

Procedure on default.

247. If the proceeds of the sale which is eventually consummated be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be leviable from him under the rules for enforcing the payment of money in satisfaction of a decree of Court.

Defaulting purchaser answerable for loss by re-sale.

248. Every re-sale of immoveable property in default of payment of the purchase money shall be made after the issue of a fresh notification in the manner and for the period prescribed for original sales.

Notification on re-sale of immoveable property.

249. No sale of immoveable property shall become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Court. At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Court to set aside the sale on the ground of any material irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale, but no sale shall be set aside on the ground of such irregularity unless the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the Court that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity.

Confirmation of sale.

250. If no such application as is mentioned in the last preceding Section be made, or if such application be made and the objection be disallowed, the Court shall pass an order confirming the sale; and in like manner if such application be made, and if the objection be allowed, the Court shall pass an order setting aside the sale for irregularity. If the objection be allowed, the order made to set aside the sale shall be final; if the objection be disallowed, the order confirming the sale shall be open to appeal; and such order, unless appealed from, and if appealed from, then the order passed on the appeal, shall be final; and the party against whom the same has been given shall be precluded from bringing a suit for establishing his claim.

The sale, if not objected to for irregularity, or if the objection is disallowed, shall become absolute.

When the order to set aside a sale shall be open to appeal.

251. Whenever a sale of immoveable property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase money with or without interest, in such manner as it may appear proper to the Court to direct in each instance.

If the sale be set aside, price to be returned to purchaser.

252. After a sale of immoveable property shall have become absolute in manner aforesaid, the Court shall grant a certificate to the person who may have been declared the purchaser at such sale, to the effect that he has purchased the right, title, and interest of the defendant in the property sold, and such certificate shall be taken and deemed to be a valid transfer of such right, title, and interest.

Certificate to be granted to the purchasers of land.

253. The certificate shall state the name of the person who at the time of sale is declared to be the actual purchaser, and any suit brought against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser,

Certificate to state the name of actual purchaser.

though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

Delivery of moveable property in the possession of defendant.

254. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property in the possession of the defendant, or to the immediate possession of which the defendant is entitled, and of which actual seizure has been made, the property shall be delivered to the purchaser.

Delivery of moveable property to which defendant is entitled subject to lien.

255. Where the property sold shall consist of goods, chattels, or other moveable property to which the defendant is entitled subject to a lien or right of any person to the immediate possession thereof, the delivery to the purchaser shall as far as practicable be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser thereof.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of defendants, &c.

256. If the property sold shall consist of a house, land, or other immoveable property in the occupancy of a defendant or some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under a title created by the defendant subsequently to the attachment of such property, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by putting the party to whom the house, land, or other immoveable property may have been sold, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession thereof, and, if need be, by removing any person who may refuse to vacate the same.

Delivery of immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots, &c.

257. If the property sold shall consist of land or other immoveable property in the occupancy of ryots or other persons entitled to occupy the same, the Court shall order delivery thereof to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of sale in some conspicuous place on the land or other immoveable property, and proclaiming to the occupants of the property by beat of drum, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place or places, that the right, title, and interest of the defendant has been transferred to the purchaser.

Delivery of debts not being negotiable instruments, and of shares in public Companies.

258. Where the property sold shall consist of debts not being negotiable instruments or of shares in any Railway, Banking, or other public Company or Corporation, the delivery thereof shall be by a written order of the Court prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debts and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person or persons except the purchaser, or prohibiting the person in whose name the shares may be standing, from making any transfer of the shares to any person except the purchaser, or receiving payment of any dividends thereon, and the Manager, Secretary, or other proper Officer of the Company or Corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment to any person except the purchaser.

Delivery of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made.

259. Where the property sold shall consist of negotiable securities of which actual seizure has been made, the same shall be delivered to the purchaser thereof.

Transfer of securities and shares.

260. If the endorsement or conveyance of the party in whose name any negotiable security or any share in a public Company or Corporation is standing, shall be required to transfer the same, the Judge may endorse the security or the certificate of the share or may execute such other document as may be necessary for transferring the same. The endorsement or execution shall be in the following form or to the like effect—"A. B. by C. D. Judge of the Court of (or as the case may be); in a suit by E. F. versus A. B." Until the transfer of such security or share, the Judge may, by order, appoint some person to receive any interest or dividend due thereon, and to sign receipts for the same; and any endorsement made or document executed or receipts signed as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes, as if the same had been made or executed or signed by the party himself.

Resisting or obstructing purchasers in obtaining possession of property.

261. If the purchaser of any immoveable property sold in execution of a decree shall be resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession of the property, the provisions contained in Sections 218, 219, and 220 of this Chapter relating to resistance or obstruction to a party in whose favor a suit has been decreed in obtaining possession of the property adjudged to him, shall be applicable in the case of such resistance or obstruction.

Obstruction by claimants other than defendants.

262. If it shall appear that the resistance or obstruction to the delivery of possession was occasioned by any person other than the defendant claiming a right to the possession of the property sold as proprietor, mortgagee, lessee, or under any other title, or if in the delivery of possession to the purchaser any such person claiming as aforesaid shall be dispossessed, the Court, on the complaint of the purchaser, or of such person claiming as aforesaid, if made within one month from the date of such resistance or obstruction or of such dispossession as the case may be, shall enquire into the matter of the complaint and pass such order as may be proper in the circumstances of the case. The order shall not be subject to appeal, but the party against whom it is given shall be at liberty to bring a suit to establish his right at any time within one month from the date thereof.

Attaching creditor to be first paid out of property attached.

263. Whenever property is sold in execution of a decree, the person on whose application such property was attached shall be entitled to be first paid out of the proceeds thereof, notwithstanding a subsequent attachment of the same property by another party in execution of a prior decree.

Surplus to be rateably distributed among decree-holders who have taken out execution prior to the order for distribution.

264. If, after the claim of the person on whose application the property was attached has been satisfied in full from the proceeds of the sale, any surplus remain, such surplus shall be distributed rateably amongst any other persons who prior to the order for such distribution may have taken out execution of decrees against the same defendant and not obtained satisfaction thereof. Provided that, when any property is sold subject to a mortgage, the mortgagee shall not be entitled to share in any surplus arising from such sale.

Proviso where property is sold subject to a mortgage.

265. If it shall appear to the Court, upon the application of a decree-holder, that any other decree under which property has been attached was obtained by fraud or other improper means, the Court may order that the applicant shall be satisfied out of the proceeds of the property attached so far as the same may suffice for the purpose if such other decree be a decree of that Court, or, if it be a decree of another Court, may stay the proceedings to enable the applicant to obtain a similar order from the Court by which the decree was made.

Court may on application, order another decree-holder to be satisfied out of proceeds of property attached under a decree obtained fraudulently.

OF ARREST IN EXECUTION OF DECREES FOR MONEY.

266. Any person arrested under a warrant in execution of a decree for money may, on being brought before the Court, apply for his discharge on the ground that he has no present means of paying the debt, either wholly or in part, or, if possessed of any property, that he is willing to place whatever property he possesses at the disposal of the Court. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found, or shall state that, with the exceptions above-mentioned, the applicant is not possessed of any property, and the application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for subscribing and verifying plaints.

On what grounds, application for discharge may be made.

Form of application.

267. Upon such application being made, the Court shall examine the applicant in the presence of the plaintiff or his pleader as to his then circumstances, and as to his future means of payment, and shall call upon the plaintiff to show cause why he does not proceed against any property of which the defendant is possessed and why the defendant should not be discharged ; and should the plaintiff fail to show such cause, the Court may direct the discharge of the defendant from custody. Pending any enquiry which the Court may consider it necessary to make into the allegations of either party, the Court may leave the defendant in the custody of the Officer of the Court to whom the service of the warrant was entrusted, on the defendant making the necessary deposit for paying the fees of such Officer ; or if the defendant furnish good and sufficient security for his appearance at any time when called upon while such enquiry is being made, his surety or sureties undertaking in default of such appearance to pay the amount mentioned in the warrant, the Court may release the defendant on such security.

Procedure on application.

268. The discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section shall not protect him from being arrested again and imprisoned if it should be shown that, in the application made by him, he had been guilty of any concealment or of wilfully making any false statement respecting the property belonging to him, whether in possession or in expectancy or held for him in trust, or had fraudulently concealed, transferred, or removed any property, or had committed any other act of bad faith ; nor shall such discharge exempt from attachment and sale any property then in the possession of the defendant, or of which he may afterwards become possessed.

Defendant liable to be again arrested if proved guilty of fraudulent concealment of property &c.

OF THE EXECUTION OF DECREES BY IMPRISONMENT.

269. When a defendant is committed to prison in execution of a decree, the Court shall fix whatever monthly allowance it shall think sufficient for his subsistence, not exceeding four annas per day, which shall be supplied by the party at whose instance the decree may have been executed, to the proper Officer of the Court, or of the gaol where the defendant may be in custody, by monthly payments in advance, before the 1st day of each month ; the first payment to be made for such portion of the current month as may remain unexpired before the defendant is committed to prison.

Subsistence-money of a defendant in gaol how fixed and furnished.

270. The Court may, in case of illness or for other special cause, fix the monthly allowance at such sum not exceeding six annas per day as shall appear necessary. The order fixing such allowance may from time to time be revised and altered on due cause being shown.

Court may vary the allowance in case of illness or for other special cause.

271. A defendant shall be released at any time on the decree being fully satisfied, or at the request of the person at whose instance he may have been imprisoned, or on such person omitting to pay the allowance as above directed. No person shall be imprisoned on account of a decree for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding five hundred Rupees or for a longer period than three months if the decree be for the payment of money not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Period of imprisonment for debt not to be longer than 2 years.

6 months if decree for money not exceeding 500 Rs.

3 months if not exceeding 50 Rs.

272. Sums disbursed by a plaintiff for the subsistence of a defendant in gaol shall be added to the costs of the decree, and shall be recoverable by the attachment and sale of the property of the defendant under the foregoing rules ; but the defendant shall not be detained in custody or arrested on account of any sums so disbursed.

Subsistence-money to be added to amount of decree.

273. Any person in confinement under a decree may apply to the Court for his discharge. The application shall contain a full account of all property of whatever nature belonging to the applicant, whether in expectancy or in possession, and whether held exclusively by himself or jointly with others, or by others in trust for him (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself and his family and the necessary implements of his trade), and of the places respectively where such property is to be found ; and such application shall be subscribed and verified by the applicant in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints.

Application may be made for discharge on a surrender of the whole of the debtor's property.

Procedure on such application.

274. On such application being made, the Court shall cause the plaintiff to be furnished with a copy of the account of the defendant's property, and shall fix a reasonable period within which the plaintiff may cause the whole or any part of such property to be attached and sold or may make proof that the defendant, for the purpose of procuring his discharge without satisfying the decree, has wilfully concealed property, or his right or interest therein, or fraudulently transferred or removed property, or committed any other act of bad faith. If within such period the plaintiff shall fail to make such proof, the Court shall cause the defendant to be set at liberty. If the plaintiff shall within the time specified or at any subsequent period prove to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been guilty of any of the acts above-mentioned, the Court shall, at the instance of the plaintiff, either retain the defendant in confinement, or commit him to prison, as the case may be, unless he shall have already been in confinement two years on account of the decree; and may also, if it shall think proper, send the defendant to the Magistrate to be dealt with according to law.

Defendant to be discharged on plaintiff failing to prove fraud or concealment by defendant.

If guilty of fraud or concealment, debtor's imprisonment may be extended to two years;

and he may be further dealt with criminally.

Though the defendant be discharged, his property is liable for the decree.

275. A defendant once discharged shall not again be imprisoned on account of the same decree except under the operation of the last preceding Section, but his property shall continue liable, under the ordinary rules, to attachment and sale until the decree shall be fully satisfied, unless the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees and on account of a transaction bearing date subsequently to the passing of this Act. When the decree shall be for a sum less than one hundred Rupees, and on account of a transaction bearing date as above, the Court may declare a defendant who shall be discharged as aforesaid absolved from further liability under that decree.

How questions regarding amount of mesne profits and interest, and sums paid in satisfaction of decree, are to be determined.

276. All questions regarding the amount of any mesne profits which by the terms of the decree may have been reserved for adjustment in the execution of the decree, or of any mesne profits or interest which may be payable in respect of the subject matter of a suit between the date of the institution of the suit and execution of the decree, as well as questions relating to sums alleged to have been paid in discharge or satisfaction of the decree or the like, shall be determined by order of the Court executing the decree and not by separate suit; and the order passed by the Court shall be open to appeal.

OF THE EXECUTION OF A DECREE OUT OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT BY WHICH IT WAS PASSED.

How a decree of one Court may be executed within the jurisdiction of another Court.

277. A decree of any Civil Court within any part of the British territories in India, or established by the authority of the Governor General of India in Council in the territories of any Foreign Prince or State, which cannot be executed within the jurisdiction of the Court whose duty it is to execute the same, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other such Court in the manner following.

Application for such execution.

278. The plaintiff in such case may apply to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, to transmit a copy thereof, together with a certificate that satisfaction of such decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the said Court, and a copy of any order for execution of such decree that may have been passed, to the Court by which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed.

Copy of decree and order for execution to be transmitted.

279. The Court, unless there be any sufficient reason to the contrary, shall cause such copies and certificate to be prepared; and the same, after being signed by the Judge and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court indicated by the applicant if that Court be within the same District, otherwise to the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District in which the applicant may wish the decree to be executed; and the Court to which such copies and certificates are transmitted shall cause the same to be filed therein, without any proof of the judgment or order for execution, or of the copies thereof, or of the seal or jurisdiction of any Court, or of the signature of any Judge, unless it shall, under any peculiar circumstances to be specified in an order, require such proof.

Decree or order transmitted, to be executed as that of the Court.

280. The copy of any decree, or of any order for execution, when filed in the Court to which it shall have been transmitted for the purpose of being executed as aforesaid, shall for such purpose have the same effect as a decree or order for execution made by such Court, and may, if the Court be the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District, be executed by such Court, or any Court subordinate thereto, to which it may entrust the execution of the same.

Execution how to be enforced by Court applied to.

281. When application shall be made to any Court to execute the decree of any other Court as aforesaid, the Court to which the application shall be made or referred shall proceed to execute the same according to its own rules in the like cases; provided that such Court shall have no power to enquire into the validity of the decree unless it appear upon the face of the decree that the Court by which it was made had no jurisdiction to make the same.

Wrongful acts or irregularities in executing decree to be punished by Court applied to.

282. The Court to which such application is made or referred for execution as aforesaid, shall take cognizance of and punish all wrongful acts or irregularities done or committed in executing such decree; and all persons disobeying or obstructing the execution of such decree shall be punishable by such Court in the same manner as if the decree had been made by such Court.

Court applied to may in certain cases stay execution or order restitution of property or discharge of defendant.

283. The Court to which such application is made may, upon good and sufficient cause being shown, stay the execution of the decree for a reasonable time, to enable the defendant to apply to the Court by which the decree was passed, or to any Court having appellate jurisdiction in respect of the decree or the execution thereof, for an order to stay the execution, or for any other order relating to the decree or the execution thereof, which such Court of first instance or Court of Appeal might have made if execution had been issued by such Court of first instance, or if application for execution had been made to such Court; and in case the property or person of the defendant shall have been seized under an execution, the Court which issued the execution may order the restitution of the property or the discharge of the person of the defendant pending the result of such application.

Before staying execution, Court may require security from, or impose conditions upon defendant.

284. Before making an order to stay execution or for the restitution of property or the discharge of the defendant under the last preceding Section, the Court may require such security from or impose such conditions upon the defendant as it may deem reasonable.

Order of Court passing decree or of Appellate Court to be binding upon Court applied to.

285. Any order of the Court in which the decree was passed or of such Court of Appeal as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Court to which the application for execution was made, and shall be a sufficient indemnity for all persons acting in execution of process issued by such last mentioned Court.

Liability of defendant discharged, to be re-taken.

286. No discharge of a defendant under the provisions of Section 283 of this Chapter, shall prevent him from being re-taken in execution of the decree.

What appeal from orders for execution under this Act.

287. All orders of a Court for executing the decree of another Court shall be subject to the same rules, in respect to appeal, as if the decree had been originally passed by the Court making such order.

Warrant of arrest or other process in execution of decrees, how to be enforced in Military Cantonments, &c.

288. If, in execution of a decree, a warrant of arrest or other process is to be enforced within the limits of a Garrison, Cantonment, Military Station, or Military Bazar, the Officer entrusted with the execution of such warrant or other process shall carry the same to the Commanding Officer, or in his absence to the Senior Officer actually present in the Garrison, Cantonment, Station, or Military Bazar; and the Commanding Officer or such Senior Officer, upon such warrant or other process being produced to him, shall back the same with his signature, and, in the case of a warrant of arrest, shall cause the person named in the warrant to be arrested if within the limits of his command and delivered, according to the exigency of the warrant, to the Civil Officer charged with the execution thereof.

Rules contained in this Chapter to be applicable to all Civil process.

289. The rules contained in this Chapter shall be applicable to the execution of any judicial process for the sale of property or for the payment of money which may be ordered by a Civil Court in any Civil proceeding.

CHAPTER V

Of Pauper Suits.

Suits may be brought in formâ pauperis.

290. A suit may be brought in formâ pauperis in the Court having jurisdiction over the claim, subject to the following rules.

What suits excepted.

291. No pauper suit shall be brought for the recovery of any sum of money on account of damages for loss of caste, slander, abusive language, or assault.

Application to be by petition on stamp paper.

292. The application to the Court for permission to sue in formâ pauperis shall be by petition, which shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of eight annas.

Petition what to contain.

293. The petition shall contain the particulars required by Section 21, Chapter III of this Act, in regard to plaints, and shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the petitioner, with the estimated value thereof, and shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the subscription and verification of plaints.

How to be presented.

294. The petition shall be presented to the Court by the petitioner in person; but if the petitioner satisfy the Court that he is prevented by sickness from attending the Court in person, or if the petitioner be a female, who, according to the custom and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, the petition may be presented by a duly authorized agent who may be able to answer all material questions relating to the application and who shall be liable to be examined in the same manner as the party represented by him might have been examined had such party attended in person.

Examination of petitioner, if a female, how to be taken.

Petition to be rejected if not in form.

295. If the petition be not framed or presented in the manner laid down in the last two preceding Sections, the Court shall reject the petition.

If in form, Court how to proceed.

296. If the petition be in form and duly presented, the Court shall proceed to examine the petitioner, or the agent of the petitioner as the case may be, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the petitioner.

If presented by an agent, Court may order petitioner to be examined in like manner as an absent witness.

When the petition is presented by an agent, the Court may also, if it think proper, order that the petitioner be examined in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the examination of absent witnesses.

Court may reject the application.

297. If it appear to the Court upon such examination that the defendant, or the matter of the suit, is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the claim is barred by the Statute of Limitations, or that the allegations of the petitioner do not constitute a reasonable ground of action, or (if none of the objections above stated exist) that the petitioner has failed to show that he is not possessed of sufficient means to enable him to pay for the stamps required for the institution and prosecution of the suit, or that the petitioner has recently disposed of any property fraudulently or with a view to obtain the benefit of this Chapter, the Court shall refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Notice to opposite party.

298. If upon such examination the Court shall see no reason to refuse the application on any of the grounds stated in the last preceding Section, it shall fix a day (of which at least ten days' previous notice shall be given to the opposite party) for receiving such evidence as the petitioner may adduce in proof of his pauperism, and for hearing any evidence which the opposite party may bring forward in disproof of the pauperism of the petitioner.

After a summary enquiry, the Court to pass a final order.

299. On the day appointed for the hearing, or as soon after as the business of the Court will permit, the Court shall consider any objections made by the opposite party, and shall examine any witnesses produced by either party and make a memorandum of the substance of their evidence, and shall either allow or refuse to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper.

Court may direct a local enquiry.

300. Previously to passing a final order in the case, the Court may, if it deem fit, institute a local enquiry, in the manner laid down in Section 173, Chapter III of this Act, regarding the property of the petitioner or regarding the amount or value of any property claimed.

Course of proceeding to be observed, if application be admitted.

301. If the application of the petitioner be granted, it shall be numbered and registered and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit shall proceed in all other respects as an ordinary suit, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to any further stamp duty in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader, or other proceeding connected with the suit or with the execution of any decree passed in it.

On the decision of the suit, costs how to be calculated.

302. On the decision of the suit, the Court shall calculate the amount of stamps which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper, and such amount shall be recoverable by Government from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, in the same manner as costs of suit are recoverable.

Refusal to allow to sue as a pauper, to bar any subsequent application of the like nature.

303. The refusal to allow the petitioner to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature in respect of the same cause of action; but the plaintiff shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the usual manner in respect of such cause of action, unless precluded by the rules for the limitation of suits.

No appeals from orders under this Chapter.

304. The orders passed by the Court under the provisions of this Chapter shall not be subject to appeal.

CHAPTER VI.

Reference to Arbitration.

Reference to arbitration on application of the parties.

305. If the parties to a suit are desirous that the matters in difference between them in the suit, or any of such matters, shall be referred to the final decision of one or more arbitrator or arbitrators, they may apply to the Court at any time before final judgment for an order of reference.

Application how to be made.

306. The application shall be made by the parties in person or by their pleaders specially authorized in that behalf by an instrument in writing, which shall be presented to the Court at the time of making the application, and shall be filed with the proceedings in the suit.

Nomination and appointment of arbitrators.

307. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall be nominated by the parties in such manner as may be agreed upon between them. If the parties cannot agree with respect to the nomination of the arbitrator or arbitrators, or if the person or persons nominated by them shall refuse to accept the arbitration, and the parties are desirous that the nomination shall be made by the Court, the Court shall appoint the arbitrator or arbitrators.

Order of reference.

308. The Court shall, by an order under its seal, refer to the arbitrator or arbitrators the matters in difference in the suit which he or they may be required to determine, and shall fix such time as it may think reasonable for the delivery of the award, and the time so fixed shall be specified in the order.

When the reference is to two or more, the order shall provide for difference of opinion.

309. If the reference be to two or more arbitrators, provision shall be made in the order for a difference of opinion among the arbitrators, by the appointment of an umpire, or by declaring that the decision shall be with the majority, or by empowering the arbitrators to appoint an umpire, or otherwise as may be agreed upon between the parties; or if they cannot agree, as the Court may determine.

Powers of arbitrators.

310. When a reference is made to arbitration by an order of Court, the Court shall issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire may desire to have examined, as the Court is authorized to issue in suits tried before it; and persons not attending in consequence of such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their testimony, or being guilty of any contempt to the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire during the investigation of the suit, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as they would incur for the same offences in suits tried before the Court.

Extension of time for making award.

311. When the arbitrator or arbitrators shall not have been able to complete the award within the period specified in the order from the want of the necessary evidence or information or other good and sufficient cause, the Court may from time to time enlarge the period for the delivery of the award, if it shall think proper. In any case in which an umpire shall have been appointed, it shall be lawful for him to enter on the reference in lieu of the arbitrators, if they shall have allowed their time or their extended time to expire without making an award, or shall have delivered to the Court or to the umpire a notice in writing stating that they cannot agree. Provided that an award shall not be liable to be set aside only by reason of its not having been completed within the period allowed by the Court, unless on proof that the delay in completing the award arose from corruption or misconduct of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, or unless the award shall have been made after the issue of an order by the Court superseding the arbitration and recalling the suit.

In case of death, incapacity, or refusal to act of arbitrators or umpire, Court may appoint others in stead.

312. If, in any case of reference to arbitration by an order of Court, the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall die, or refuse or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for the Court to appoint a new arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, in the place of the person or persons so dying, or refusing or becoming incapable to act. Where the arbitrators are empowered by the terms of the order of reference to appoint an umpire and do not appoint an umpire, any of the parties may serve the arbitrators with a written notice to appoint an umpire; and if within seven days after such notice shall have been served, no umpire be appointed, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of the party having served such notice as aforesaid, and upon proof to its satisfaction of such notice having been served, to appoint an umpire. In any case of appointment under this Section, the arbitrator or arbitrators, or umpire so appointed, shall have the like power to act in the reference, as if their name or names had been inserted in the original order of reference.

Award how to be submitted to Court.

313. When an award in a suit shall be made, either by the arbitrator or arbitrators, or by the umpire, it shall be submitted to the Court under the signature of the person or persons by whom it may be made, together with all the proceedings, depositions, and exhibits in the suit.

Arbitrator may state special case.

314. It shall be lawful for the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon any reference, by an order of Court, if he or they shall think fit, and if it is not provided to the contrary, to state his or their award as to the whole or any part thereof in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court.

Court may, on application, modify or correct an award in certain cases.

315. The Court may on the application of either party modify or correct an award where it appears that a part of the award is upon matters not referred to the arbitrators, provided such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred; or where the award is imperfect in form or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision. The Court may also on such application make such order as it thinks just respecting the costs of the arbitration, if any question arise respecting such costs and the award contain no sufficient provision concerning them.

And make order respecting the costs of arbitration.

In what cases Court may remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration, for re-consideration.

316. In any of the following cases the Court shall have power to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration to the re-consideration of the same arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, upon such terms as it may think proper (that is to say)—

If the award has left undetermined some of the matters referred to arbitration, or if it determines matters not referred to arbitration.

If the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution.

If an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of the award.

Award not to be set aside except on ground of corruption.

Application to set aside the award.

317. No award shall be liable to be set aside except on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators or umpire. Any application to set aside an award shall be made within ten days after the same has been submitted to the Court.

Judgment to be according to the award.

318. If the Court shall not see cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for re-consideration in manner aforesaid, and if no application shall have been made to set aside the award, or if the Court shall have refused such application, the Court shall proceed to pass judgment according to the award or according to its own opinion on the special case if the award shall have been submitted to it in the form of a special case; and upon the judgment which shall be so given decree shall follow and shall be carried into execution in the same manner as other decrees of the Court. In every case in which judgment shall be given according to the award, the judgment shall be final.

Agreement of parties to refer to arbitration may be filed in Court.

319. When any persons shall by an instrument in writing agree that any differences between them or any of them shall be referred to the arbitration of any person or persons named in the agreement or to be appointed by any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which it relates, application may be made by the parties thereto or any of them that the agreement be filed in such Court. On such application being made, the Court shall direct such notice to be given to any of the parties to the agreement, other than the applicants, as it may think necessary, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the agreement should not be filed. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of one-fourth of the value prescribed for plaints in suits, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between some or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant, if the application have been presented by all the parties or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the agreement, the agreement shall be filed and an order of reference to arbitration shall be made thereon. The several provisions of this Chapter, so far as they are not inconsistent with the terms of any agreement so filed, shall be applicable to all proceedings under an order of reference made by the Court and to the award of arbitration and to the enforcement of such award.

Provisions of this Chapter applicable.

320. When any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of any Court of Justice, and an award has been made, any person interested in the award may within six months from the date of the award make application to the Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the award relates, that the award be filed in Court. The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration other than the applicant, requiring such parties to show cause, within a time to be specified, why the award should not be filed. The application shall be written on the stamp paper required for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required for petitions by any law for the time being in force, and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants. If no sufficient cause be shown against the award, the award shall be filed and may be enforced as an award made under the provisions of this Chapter.

Filing in Court an award when the matter was referred to arbitration without intervention of Court.

Enforcement of such award.

CHAPTER VII.

OF PROCEEDINGS ON AGREEMENT OF PARTIES.

How questions may be raised for the decision of a Civil Court by any Persons interested.

321. Parties interested or claiming to be interested in the decision of any question of fact or law, may enter into an agreement, which shall be subject to the same stamp duty as prescribed for plaints in suits, that, upon the finding of a Court in the affirmative or negative of such question of fact or law, a sum of money fixed by the parties, or to be determined by the Court, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them; or that some property, moveable or immoveable, specified in the agreement, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them; or that one or more of the parties shall do or perform some particular legal act or shall refrain from doing or performing some particular act specified in the agreement. Where the agreement is for the delivery of some property moveable or immoveable, or for the doing or performing, or the refraining to do or perform any particular act, the estimated value of the property to be delivered, or to which the act specified may have reference, shall be stated in the agreement.

Questions of fact, or of law or equity, may be raised by agreement for the decision of any Court having jurisdiction.

322. The agreement may be filed in any Court having jurisdiction in the matter, and, when so filed, shall be numbered and registered as a suit between some or one of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiffs or plaintiff, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant; and notice shall be given to all the parties to the agreement other than the party or parties by whom it was presented.

Agreement to be filed and numbered as a suit.

323. After the agreement shall have been filed, all the parties to it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, and shall be bound by the statements contained therein.

Parties to be subject to the Court's jurisdiction.

324. The case shall be set down for hearing as an ordinary suit; and if the Court shall be satisfied, after an examination of the parties or their pleaders, or taking such evidence as it may deem proper, that the agreement was duly executed by the parties, and that they have a bonâ fide interest in the question of fact or law stated therein, and that the same is fit to be tried or decided, it shall proceed to record and try, or hear the same, and deliver its finding or opinion thereon, in the same way as in an ordinary suit; and shall, upon its finding or deciding upon the question of fact or law, give judgment for the sum fixed by the parties, or so ascertained as aforesaid, or otherwise, according to the terms of the agreement, and upon the judgment which shall be so given, decree shall follow and may be executed in the same way as if the judgment had been pronounced in a contested suit.

Hearing and disposal of the case.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of Appeals.

325. Except when otherwise expressly provided in this or any other Regulation or Act for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie from the decrees of the Courts of original jurisdiction to the Courts authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of those Courts.

Appeal to lie from all decrees except when expressly prohibited.

How Appeals are to be preferred.

326. Appeals shall be made in the form of a memorandum which shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period hereinafter specified, unless the appellant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Appellate Court for not having presented it within such limited period; that is to say, within thirty days if the appeal be to a District Court, and within ninety days if the appeal be to the Sudder Court. The days shall be reckoned from and exclusive of the day on which judgment was pronounced, and also exclusive of such time as may be requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree appealed against.

Appeal to be preferred by a memorandum to be filed within specified time.

What the memorandum is to contain.

327. The memorandum of appeal shall set forth concisely, and under distinct heads, the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against, without any argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The appellant shall not without the leave of the Court urge or be heard in support of any other ground of objection, but the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the appellant.

Form of memorandum.

328. The memorandum of appeal shall be in the following form, or to the following effect, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the decree appealed against—

Memorandum of Appeal.

(Name, &c. as in Register.) Plaintiff.
(Name, &c. as in Register.) Defendant.

[Name of Appellant] Plaintiff [or Defendant] above-named appeals to the Sudder Court at [or Zillah Court at as the case may be], against the decree of in the above suit, dated the day of ; for the following reasons, namely, [here state the reasons].

If memorandum be not in form or duly presented.

329. If the memorandum be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. If the memorandum be not presented within the prescribed period and no sufficient cause be shown for the delay, the appeal shall be rejected.

One of several plaintiffs or defendants may appeal and obtain a reversal of the whole decree if it proceed on a ground common to all.

330. If there be two or more plaintiffs or two or more defendants in a suit, and the decision of the Lower Court proceed on any ground common to all, any one of the plaintiffs or defendants may appeal against the whole decree, and the Appellate Court may reverse or modify the decree in favor of all the plaintiffs or defendants.

OF STAYING AND EXECUTING DECREES UNDER APPEAL.

Execution of decree not to be stayed by appeal. If sufficient cause be shown, execution may be stayed.

331. Execution of a decree shall not be stayed by reason only of an appeal having been preferred against such decree; but the Appellate Court may, for sufficient cause shown, order that execution be stayed. If application for execution be made before the time allowed for appeal has expired, and the Lower Court has not received intimation of an appeal having been preferred, the Lower Court, if sufficient cause be shown, may stay the execution. Before making an order to stay execution, the Court making the order shall require security to be given by the party against whom the decree was passed for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

Court, before making order to stay execution, shall require security for due performance of decree or order of Appellate Court.

Court making an order for execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, may require security for restitution of property, &c.

332. When an order is made for the execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred, it shall be lawful for the Court which pronounced the decree to require security to be given for the restitution of any property which may be taken in execution of the decree or of the value thereof, and for the due performance of the decree or order of the Appellate Court.

No such security to be required from Government or any Public Officer.

333. In suits instituted or defended under the authority and at the expense of Government, no such security as is mentioned in the last two preceding Sections shall in any case be required from Government or from any public Officer.

OF PROCEDURE IN APPEALS FROM FINAL DECREES.

How the appeal is to be entered.

334. When a memorandum of appeal is presented in the prescribed form and within the time allowed, the Appellate Court, or the proper Officer of that Court, shall endorse thereon the date of presentment, and shall register the appeal in a book to be kept for the purpose, and called the Register of Appeals. Such Register shall be in the form contained in the Schedule (C) hereunto annexed.

Form of the Register.

Appellate Court may, at its discretion, require security for costs from appellant.

Proviso.

335. It shall be in the discretion of the Appellate Court to demand security for costs from the appellant or not, as it shall see fit, before the respondent is called upon to appear and answer. Provided that the Court shall demand such security in all cases in which the appellant is residing out of the British Territories in India and is not possessed of any land or other immoveable property within those territories independent of the property to which the appeal relates; and in the event of such security not being furnished at the time of presenting the memorandum of appeal or within such time as the Court shall order, the Court shall reject the appeal.

Appellate Court to send intimation to Lower Court of appeal being registered.

Lower Court to transmit papers to Appellate Court.

336. When the memorandum of appeal has been registered, the Appellate Court shall send intimation thereof to the Lower Court. If the appeal be from a Court the records of which are not deposited in the Appellate Court, the Lower Court shall, upon the receipt of the intimation, transmit to the Appellate Court with all practicable despatch all material papers in the suit, or such papers as may be specially called for by the Appellate Court. Either party may give notice in writing to the Lower Court specifying any exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court, and copies of such exhibits shall be prepared at the expense of the party giving the notice and shall be deposited in the Lower Court.

Either party may give notice of exhibits of which he requires copies to be made and deposited in the Lower Court.

337. A day shall be fixed by the Appellate Court for the hearing of the appeal. The day shall be so fixed, with reference to the place of residence of the respondent and the time necessary for the service of the notice of appeal, as to allow the respondent a sufficient time to enable him to appear in person or by a pleader on such day.

Day for hearing the appeal, how to be fixed.

338. Notice of the day which has been fixed for hearing the appeal shall be affixed in the Appellate Court, and a like notice shall be sent by the Appellate Court to the Lower Court and shall be served on the respondent in the same way as hereinbefore provided for the service of a summons to a defendant to appear and answer, and all rules applicable to such summons and to proceedings with reference to the service thereof, shall apply to the service of such notice. The notice to the respondent shall contain an intimation that, if he does not appear in the Appellate Court on the day so fixed for the hearing of the appeal, the case will be heard and decided ex parte in his absence. Provided that, if the respondent has appointed a pleader to appear in his behalf in the Appellate Court, the service of the notice on such pleader shall be sufficient.

Publication and service of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal.

Form of notice.

339. If on the day fixed for hearing the appeal or any other day subsequent thereto to which the hearing of the appeal may be adjourned, the appellant shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be dismissed for default. If the appellant shall appear in person or by a pleader and the respondent shall not appear in person or by a pleader, the appeal shall be heard ex parte in his absence.

Consequence of non-appearance.

340. If an appeal be dismissed for default of prosecution, the appellant may, within thirty days from the date of the dismissal, apply to the Appellate Court for the re-admission of the appeal; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the appellant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court may re-admit the appeal.

Re-admission of appeals dismissed for default of prosecution.

341. Upon the hearing of the appeal, the respondent may take any objection to the decision of the Lower Court which he might have taken if he had preferred a separate appeal from such decision.

In appeal, respondent may take any objection to decision of Lower Court.

342. The Appellate Court, after hearing the appeal, shall proceed to give its judgment in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for giving judgment in Courts of original jurisdiction.

The Appellate Court how to give judgment.

343. The judgment may be for confirming or reversing or modifying the decree of the Lower Court. But no decree shall be reversed or modified nor shall any case be remanded to the Lower Court on account of any error, defect, or irregularity either in the decision or in any interlocutory order passed in the suit not affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court.

No decision to be reversed for irregularity.

344. If the Lower Court shall have disposed of the case upon any preliminary point so as to exclude any evidence of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the rights of the parties, and the decree of the Lower Court upon such preliminary point shall be reversed by the decree in appeal, the Appellate Court may, if it think right, remand the case, together with a copy of the decree in appeal, to the Lower Court, with directions to restore the suit to its original number in the Register and proceed to investigate the merits of the case, and pass a decree therein.

When a case may be remanded by Appellate Court.

345. It shall not be competent to the Appellate Court to remand a case for a second decision by the Lower Court except as provided in the last preceding Section.

Power to remand limited as above.

346. When the evidence upon the record of the Lower Court is sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, the Appellate Court shall finally determine the case, notwithstanding that the judgment of the Lower Court has proceeded wholly upon some other ground.

When the Appellate Court may dispose of a case though the Lower Court has decided on other grounds.

347. If the Lower Court shall have omitted to raise or try any issue or to determine any question of fact which shall appear to the Appellate Court essential to the right determination of the suit upon the merits, and the evidence upon the record is not sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to determine such issue or question of fact, the Appellate Court may frame an issue or issues for trial by the Lower Court and may refer the same to the Lower Court for trial. Thereupon the Lower Court shall proceed to try such issue or issues and shall return to the Appellate Court its finding thereon together with the evidence. Such finding and evidence shall become part of the record in the suit; and either party may, within a time to be fixed by the Appellate Court, file a memorandum of any objection to the finding; and after the expiration of the period so fixed, the Appellate Court shall proceed to determine the appeal.

Trial of issues by Lower Court on reference from Appellate Court.

348. It shall not be competent to the parties in an appeal to produce additional evidence in the Appellate Court, whether of exhibits or witnesses; but if it appear that the Lower Court refused to admit competent evidence, or if the Appellate Court require any exhibits to be produced or witnesses examined to enable it to pronounce a satisfactory judgment, or for any other substantial cause, the Appellate Court may allow additional exhibits to be received and any necessary witnesses to be examined, whether such witnesses shall have been previously examined in the Court below or not; provided that, whenever additional evidence is admitted by an Appellate Court, the reasons for the admission shall be recorded on the proceedings of such Court.

When the Appellate Court may call for fresh evidence.

How additional evidence is to be taken.

349. Whenever additional evidence is permitted to be received, it shall be competent to the Appellate Court to take such evidence before itself, or to require the Lower or any other Court or to empower any person to take such evidence, and to transmit the evidence so taken to the Appellate Court. It shall also be competent to the Appellate Court to prescribe the manner in which such evidence shall be taken.

Points to be defined.

350. In all cases where additional evidence is permitted to be taken, the Appellate Court shall define the point or points to which the evidence is to be confined, and record the same on its proceedings.

Powers of Appellate Court.

351. The Appellate Court shall have all the like powers in regard to the granting of time, adjourning the hearing of the suit, examining the parties or their pleaders, and awarding costs, or otherwise, as are hereinbefore contained in regard to Courts of original jurisdiction.

How the judgment of the Appellate Court is to be delivered. In what language it is to be written.

352. The judgment of the Appellate Court shall be pronounced in open Court. It shall contain the point or points for determination, the decision thereupon, and the reasons for the decision, and shall be dated and signed by the Judge or by the Judges concurring therein at the time of pronouncing it. The judgment shall be written in the English language; but if the Judge shall not be able to write an intelligible judgment in that language, the judgment shall be written in the vernacular language of the Judge. When the language in which the judgment is written is not the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, the judgment shall be translated into such language, and the translation shall be signed by the Judge or Judges. Any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court shall state his opinion in writing, which shall form part of the record.

What the decree is to contain.

353. The decree of the Appellate Court shall bear date the day on which the judgment was passed. It shall contain the number of the suit, the names and description of the parties appellant and respondent, and the memorandum of appeal, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the appeal. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the appeal, and by what parties and in what proportions such costs and the costs in the original suit are to be paid. The decree shall be signed by the Judge or Judges who passed it, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court. If there be a difference of opinion among the Judges of the Court, it shall not be necessary for any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court to sign the decree, but the opinion of such Judge shall be recited in the decree. Certified copies of the decree shall be furnished to the parties in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in regard to the decrees of Courts of original jurisdiction.

A certified copy of the decree to be transmitted to the Lower Court.

354. A copy of the decree or other order disposing of the appeal, certified by the Appellate Court or the proper Officer of such Court, and sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be transmitted to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit appealed from, and shall be filed with the original proceedings in the suit, and an entry of the judgment of the Appellate Court shall be made in the original Register of the suit.

How to be executed.

355. Application for execution of the decree of an Appellate Court shall be made to the Court which passed the first decree in the suit, and shall be executed by that Court, in the manner and according to the rules hereinbefore contained for the execution of original decrees.

Appeals from Orders.

No appeal from order passed before decree, but error or defect therein may be set forth as an objection if the decree be appealed against.

356. No appeal shall lie from any order passed in the course of a suit and relating thereto prior to decree; but if the decree be appealed against, any error, defect, or irregularity in any such order affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court, may be set forth as a ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal.

No appeal from orders passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as provided.

357. No appeal shall lie from any order passed after decree and relating to the execution thereof except as is hereinbefore expressly provided.

Appeal from orders as to fines or imprisonment.

358. All orders as to fines or the levying thereof or as to imprisonment under this Act (except when the imprisonment is in execution of a decree) shall be subject to appeal.

Procedure in appeals from orders.

359. When an appeal from any order is allowed, the procedure shall be in all respects the same as in an appeal from a decree.

CHAPTER IX.

Of Appeals in Forma Pauperis.

Who may appeal as pauper.

360. Any party to a suit who may be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of an appeal from the decision passed therein, may be allowed to appeal as a pauper from such decision subject to all the rules contained in the last preceding Chapter and in Chapter V in so far as they are applicable.

Application to whom and when to be presented.

361. The application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis shall be written on a stamp paper of the value of one Rupee if the appeal lie to the Zillah Court, and on a stamp paper of the value of two Rupees if the appeal lie to the Sudder Court, and shall be presented in the Appellate Court within the period allowed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal.

Form of application.

362. The application shall contain the particulars required to be set forth in the memorandum of appeal and shall be drawn up in the like manner. It shall have annexed to it a Schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the applicant with the estimated value thereof, and shall also be accompanied by copies of the judgment and decree from which the appeal is made.

Procedure.

363. If the Appellate Court, upon a perusal of the application and of the judgment and decree of the Court below, shall see no reason to think that the decision of that Court is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law or is otherwise erroneous or unjust, it shall reject the application. If the application be not rejected upon any of the grounds above-mentioned, enquiry shall be made into the alleged pauperism of the applicant, and such enquiry may be conducted either by the Appellate Court or by the Court from whose decision the appeal is made under the orders of the Appellate Court. Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue in formâ pauperis in the Court below, no further enquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary, unless the Appellate Court shall see special cause to direct such enquiry.

Effect of order by Appellate Court.

364. The order passed by the Appellate Court on an application to be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis, whether for the admission or rejection of the application, shall be final; but, if the application be rejected, the Appellate Court may, if it think proper, allow the applicant a reasonable time for preferring an appeal on a stamp of the value prescribed for appeals from decrees.

CHAPTER X.

Of Special Appeals.

Special appeals allowed on what grounds.

365. A special appeal shall lie to the Sudder Court from all decisions passed in regular appeal by the Courts subordinate to the Sudder Court, on the ground of the decision being contrary to some law or usage having the force of law, or of a substantial error or defect in law in the procedure or investigation of the case, which may have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon the merits, and on no other ground.

Application how to be presented and written.

366. The application for the admission of a special appeal shall be presented in the Sudder Court within the period prescribed for the presentation of a memorandum of appeal, and shall be accompanied by copies of the judgments and decrees of the Lower Appellate Court and of the Court of first instance. The application shall be written on a stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular appeals; but if the applicant be unable to pay for the stamps required for the prosecution of the appeal, the Sudder Court may admit him to appeal as a pauper subject to all the rules contained in Chapter IX in respect to appeals from decrees in formâ pauperis in so far as the same may be applicable.

Form of application.

367. The application shall set forth concisely the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against without argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively. The applicant shall not, without the leave of the Court, be heard in support of any other ground of objection; but the determination of the Court may be upon any ground on which a special appeal would lie.

Application how to be dealt with.

368. If the application be not drawn up in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, the Court may reject it or may return it to the party for the purpose of being corrected. When the application is correctly drawn up, it shall be registered in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be in the form contained in the Schedule D. hereunto annexed, and the case shall proceed in all other respects as a regular appeal, and shall be subject to all the rules hereinbefore provided for such appeals so far as the same may be applicable.

CHAPTER XI.

Review of Judgment.

Cases in which a party may apply for a review of judgment.

369. Any person considering himself aggrieved by a decree of a Court of original jurisdiction, from which no appeal shall have been preferred to a Superior Court—or by a decree of a District Court in appeal, from which no special appeal shall have been admitted by the Sudder Court—or by a decree of the Sudder Court from which either no appeal may have been preferred to Her Majesty in Council, or an appeal having been preferred, no proceedings in the suit have been transmitted to Her Majesty in Council—and who, from the discovery of new matter or evidence which was not within his knowledge, or could not be adduced by him at the time when such decree was passed, or from any other good and sufficient reason, may be desirous of obtaining a review of the judgment passed against him—may apply for a review of judgment by the Court which passed the decree.

Within what time and on what paper the application should be made.

370. The application shall be made within ninety days from the date of the decree, unless the party preferring the same shall be able to show just and reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of the Court, for not having preferred such application within the limited period. If the application be made within the period above-mentioned, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for petitions to the Court where a stamp is required; but if made after the expiration of that period, it shall be written on the stamp paper prescribed for plaints.

The order of the Court for granting or refusing the review is final.

371. If the Court shall be of opinion that there are not any sufficient grounds for a review, it shall reject the application, but if it shall be of opinion that the review desired is necessary to correct an evident error or omission, or is otherwise requisite for the ends of justice, the Court shall grant the review, and its order in either case, whether for rejecting the application or granting the review, shall be final.

372. Provided that, if the Court to which the application for a review of its judgment has been presented be a Court consisting of two or more Judges, whenever the Judge or Judges who may have passed the decree, or if the decree have been passed by two or more Judges, when any of such Judges shall continue attached to the Court at the time when the application for a review is presented, and shall not be precluded by absence or other cause, for a period of six months after the application, from considering the judgment to which the application refers, it shall not be competent to any other Judge or Judges of the same Court to enter upon a consideration of the merits of the application, and record an order or opinion thereon.

Application for a review in the Sudder Court must be made to the Judge or Judges that passed the decree.

373. When an application for a review of judgment may be granted, the Court shall give such order, in regard to the summoning of the opposite party and hearing of the suit, as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case.

Whenever a review is granted, the parties are to be summoned.

CHAPTER XII.

Miscellaneous.

374. The Sudder Court shall have power to make and issue general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Subordinate Civil Courts, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the said Courts for which it shall think necessary that a form be provided, and for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Officers, and from time to time to alter any such rule or form; provided that such rules and forms be not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law in force.

Powers of the Sudder Court in making rules of practice and framing forms, &c., for the Subordinate Civil Courts.

375. Except so far as relates to the examination of witnesses under a Commission and to the execution of decrees out of the jurisdiction of the Courts by which they were passed, this Act shall not extend to any suit instituted in any Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter or in any Court for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

Act not to extend, except in certain cases, to Supreme and Small Cause Courts in Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

376. Nothing in this Act shall be held to alter or affect the jurisdiction or procedure in Civil cases of Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code; or the jurisdiction or procedure of Military Courts of Request; or the jurisdiction or procedure of a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars at Cantonments and Stations occupied by the Troops of those Presidencies respectively; or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Saving of jurisdiction and procedure of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—or the jurisdiction or procedure of Military Courts of Request—

of single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

377. Nothing in this Act shall be held to affect the jurisdiction exercised by certain Jagheerdars and other authorities invested with powers under the provisions of Regulation XIII. 1830 of the Bombay Code and Act XV of 1840, or their procedure in the exercise of such jurisdiction; or to affect suits instituted under Regulation XI. 1816 of the Bengal Code, or cases of the nature defined in Regulation XXIX. 1827, Regulation VII. 1830, Regulations I and XVI. 1831 of the Bombay Code, Act XIX of 1835, and Act XIII of 1842, except that such suits and cases and the regular and special appeals to the Civil Courts allowed therein, shall be received, heard, and determined under the rules laid down in this Act, unless where those rules are inconsistent with any specific provisions contained in the Regulations and Acts above quoted.

Saving of certain special or local Laws.

378. This Act shall not take effect in any part of the territories not subject to the general Regulations of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, until the same shall be extended thereto by the Governor General of India in Council or by the Local Government to which such territory is subordinate, and notified in the Gazette.

Act not to take effect in places not subject to the general Regulations until extended thereto.

379. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

Interpretation.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Gender.

The local jurisdiction of a Principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction shall be deemed a District for the purposes of this Act; and the words "District Court" shall mean such Court.

"District."

"District Court."

In any part of the British territories in India to which this Act may be extended under the provisions of Section 378 of this Chapter, the expression "Sudder Court" shall be deemed to include the highest Civil Court of Appeal in such part of the said territories.

"Sudder Court."

380. This Act shall take effect from the day of as to all suits then pending or thereafter to be instituted. But if in any suit then pending it shall appear to the Court that the application of any provision of this Act would deprive any party to the suit of any right in reference to the procedure of the suit, whether of appeal or otherwise, which but for the passing of this Act would have belonged to him, the Court shall proceed according to the law in force before this Act takes effect.

Commencement of Act.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, the 19th November 1858.

No. 63.

WITH reference to the Notification from this Department, No. 61, dated the 12th instant, it is hereby notified that the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India has determined to extend to Proprietors of Transfer Loan Property, registered on the books in India, the advantage which is enjoyed by the Holders of Notes of the 4 per Cent Loans, of subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, half in Cash and half in Transfer Loan Security.

By this arrangement, Holders of Transfer Loan Property registered on the London books will have the option, by Transfer to the India books, and by then subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, of availing themselves of the grant, in England, of Bills for Interest on Indian Loan Securities, in common with other Creditors of the Indian Government.

No. 64.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained as to the Construction of Para. 9 of the Notification, No. 61, issued from this Department on the 12th instant, relative to the Payment of Interest on Indian Government Promissory Notes at the East India House in London, by Bills on the Treasuries of Calcutta and Madras, it is hereby notified that the Application mentioned in Para. 9 of that Notification is the Application for Enfacement referred to in Paras. 2 and 3, and that Endorsements made in England of enfaced Notes will be recognized in England.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

C. HUGH LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Fort William, the 12th November 1858.

No. 61.

THE Holders of Indian Government Promissory Notes are hereby informed that, from and after the 1st of December 1858, Interest on their Promissory Notes will be made payable, if desired, at the East India House in London, by Bills on demand on the General Treasuries of Calcutta and Madras, subject to the Rules and Regulations at present in force, or that may hereafter be issued by the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, or by this Government.

2. When Holders of Notes in Calcutta desire that the Interest thereon should be made payable by Bills issued in London, they must present their Notes at the Office of the Accountant General to the Government of India, where an enfacement will be made on each of the Notes in question as follows:—

"Interest payable in London by Draft on Calcutta (or Madras, as the case may be.")

3. Notes presented for enfacement at Bombay and Madras will be forwarded to the Accountant General to the Government of India at this Presidency, by whom the Notes, after enfacement and registry, will be returned to the Presidency whence they were sent, for delivery to the Holders.

4. Notes presented for enfacement in India will be double-numbered, for transmission, if desired, by halves, in order to facilitate the issue of a Duplicate in case of loss in transit. A fee of one Rupee will be levied for the transfer-enfacement and double-numbering.

*1st 4 per Cent Loan of 1824-25 (Sicca)	Interest payable quarterly on different dates varying with the date of original subscription to the Loan.
2nd 4 per Cent (Sicca) of 1828-29.	Ditto ditto.
3rd 4 per Cent (Sicca) of 1832-33.	Interest payable— 1st May and 1st November.
4th 4 per Cent 1835-36 ..	31st March and 30th September.
5th 4 per Cent 1842-43 ..	1st February and 1st August.
3½ per Cent 1853-54 ..	28th February and 31st August.
6th 4 per Cent 1854-55 ..	30th June and 31st December.
5 per Cent Public Works Loan of 1854-55.	31st March and 30th September.
4½ per Cent of 1856-57	28th February and 31st August.
5 per Cent of 1856-57	28th February and 31st August.

5. On presentation of the transferred Notes at the East India House, on or after the dates* on which the Interest falls due on the different Loans, Drafts for the Interest then payable will be granted on the General Treasury of Calcutta or Madras, after due examination and Check of the Notes.

6. Whenever Holders of such Notes may require Interest to be made again payable in India, the Notes must be presented at the East India House, with an application to that effect to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State, who will cause the previous enfacements to be cancelled, and a fresh enfacement entry to be made on each Note as follows:—

"Interest Payable in India."

7. Holders of Promissory Notes in London on which Interest is payable by Draft on Calcutta, may require Drafts on Madras in lieu, or vice versâ. This object will be effected by a cancellation of the previous enfacement on the Notes, and by a fresh enfacement-entry to be made in London.

8. Every Applicant, upon sending in a Note for enfacement, must in his application state that he agrees to be bound by the Rules which for the time being may be in force relative to Notes enfaced for payment of Interest in England.

9. Whenever application is made by the Endorsee of a Note for the payment of Interest in England by Drafts on the General Treasury at Calcutta or Madras, the Applicant must have his Note previously renewed in his own name. Any endorsement made in India of an enfaced Note will not be recognized in England.

10. Interest payable in Sicca Rupees will be paid in England by Bills for the equivalent amount in Company's Rupees, at the rate of Company's Rupees 106-10-8 for every 100 Sicca Rupees.

11. Any charge incurred in England on account of Stamps must be borne by the Holders of the Promissory Notes, and must be paid at the India House on application for Drafts.

12. Enfaced Notes will be received at the East India House, for renewal or consolidation or subdivision, and will be sent out thence to Calcutta, a receipt being given to the Holder of the Notes. The new Notes when received from India will not be delivered except upon the production of the receipt, and payment of a fee of two Shillings for each new Note, and the amount of Postage levied on the Notes in transmission to and from India.

13. No Duplicate of a lost Note, enfaced for payment of Interest in England, will be issued until notice of such loss, and of an application having been made for a duplicate has been advertized in three successive issues of the London Gazette, and also of the Times, or such other newspaper as the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State may direct, in addition to the Advertisements in India required by the Rules for the time being in force in India; and such duplicate will not be granted except at the Loan Office in Calcutta, and to the person nominated by the Home Authorities to receive the Duplicate.

14. In all other respects the Rules for the time being in force in India relating to the issue of Duplicates of lost Notes will be applicable to enfaced Notes.

15. Interest will be payable only to the legal Holder of a Note, and no Trust will be recognized.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

C. HUGH LUSHINGTON,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. Palmer,
Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5681, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

(A True Extract.)

W. P. Palmer,
Civil Auditor.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, Financial Department,

THE 19TH NOVEMBER 1858.

No. 63.

WITH reference to the Notification from this Department, No. 61, dated the 12th instant, it is hereby notified that the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India has determined to extend to Proprietors of Transfer Loan Property, registered on the books in India, the advantage which is enjoyed by the Holders of Notes of the 4 per Cent Loans, of subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, half in Cash and half in Transfer Loan Security.

By this arrangement, Holders of Transfer Loan Property registered on the London books will have the option, by Transfer to the India Books, and by then subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, of availing themselves of the grant, in England, of Bills for Interest on Indian Loan Securities, in common with other Creditors of the Indian Government.

No. 64.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained as to the Construction of Para. 9 of the Notification, No. 61, issued from this Department on the 12th instant, relative to the Payment of Interest on Indian Government Promissory Notes at the East India House in London, by Bills on the Treasuries of Calcutta and Madras, it is hereby notified that the Application mentioned in Para. 9 of that Notification is the Application for Enfacement referred to in Paras. 2 and 3, and that Endorsements made in England of enfaced Notes will be recognized in England.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 13th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of January next :—

A Bill to empower the Holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom to grant leases extending beyond the period of their own possession.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained whether the Ghatwals of the District of Beerbhoom, who pay the revenue of their lands directly to Government under the provisions of Regulation XXIX. 1814 of the Bengal Code, have power to grant leases of those lands, or of any part thereof, for any term extending beyond the period of their own possession ; and whereas, for the development of the mineral resources of the country in which the said Ghatwalee lands are situate, and for the improvement of the said lands, it is expedient that the power of granting leases for a long term of years, or in perpetuity, should be extended to the possessors of such lands ; It is enacted as follows :—

Ghatwals of Beerbhoom to have the same right of granting leases as is allowed to other proprietors of lands.

I. All holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom under the provisions of the aforesaid Regulation, shall have the same power of granting leases for any period which they may deem most conducive to the improvement of their tenures, as is allowed by law to the proprietors of other lands. Provided that no lease of Ghatwalee lands for any period extending beyond the life-time of the Grantor of the lease shall be valid and binding on the successors of the Grantor, unless the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the Commissioner of the Division, such approval being certified by an endorsement on the lease under the signature of the Collector.

Proviso.

Court of Wards and Revenue authorities to have the like power in certain cases.

II. If any of the said Ghatwalee lands should be taken under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or should otherwise become subject to the direct control of the Officers of Government, it shall be lawful for the manager or farmer under the Court of Wards with the sanction of the Court, or for the Collector with the sanction of the Commissioner, to grant any such lease as aforesaid ; and every lease so granted shall be valid and binding on all future possessors of the said lands, anything in the existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 20th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of February next :—

A Bill for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes ; It is enacted as follows :—

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Memorandum of Association.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say,)

The name of the Society,

The objects of the Society,

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted. A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

Registration.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act. There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Fees.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

IV. Once in every year, on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society.

Property of Society how to be vested.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested for the time being in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

How suits by and against Societies to be brought.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or principal Secretary, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman thereof, if, on application to the governing body, some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

Suits not to abate.

VII. No suit or proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person, by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued, dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successor of such person.

How judgment to be enforced against.

VIII. If a judgment shall be recovered against the person or Officer named on behalf of the Society, such judgment shall not be put in force against the property, moveable or immoveable, or against the body of such person or Officer, but against the property of the Society. The application for execution shall set forth the judgment, the fact of the party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the case may be, on behalf of the Society only, and shall require to have the judgment enforced against the property of the Society.

Society may make Bye-law to be enforced.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

Members liable to be sued as strangers.

X. Any Member who may be in arrear of a subscription which, according to the Rules of the Society he is bound to pay, or who shall possess himself of or detain any property of the Society in a manner or for a time contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy any property of the Society, may be sued for such arrear or for the damage accruing from such detention, injury, or destruction of property in the manner herein before provided. But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted, shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

Societies enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their purposes.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

XIII. Any number not less than three-fifths of the Members of any Society may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the Society, its claims, and liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Society applicable thereto, if any, and, if not, then as the governing body shall find expedient, provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing body or the Members of the Society, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the District in which the chief building of the Society is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite. Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the Members at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint Stock Companies.

Who is a Member.

XV. For the purposes of this Act a Member of a Society shall be a person who, having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a subscription, or shall have signed the roll or list of Members thereof; but in all proceedings under this Act no person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose subscription at the time shall have been in arrear for a period exceeding three months.

The governing body defined.

XVI. The governing body of the Society shall be the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other body to whom by the Rules and Regulations of the Society the management of its affairs is entrusted.

Registration of Societies formed before this Act.

XVII. Any Company or Society established for a Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose and registered under Act XLIII of 1850, or any such Society established and constituted previously to the passing of this Act but not registered under the said Act XLIII of 1850, may at any time hereafter be registered as a Society under this Act; subject to the proviso that no such Company or Society shall be registered under this Act unless an assent to its being so registered has been given by three-fifths of the Members present personally, or by proxy, at some General Meeting convened for that purpose by the governing body. In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth.

Such Societies to file Memorandum, &c., with Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies.

XVIII. In order to any such Society as is mentioned in the last preceding Section obtaining registry under this Act, it shall be sufficient that the governing body file with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, under Act XIX of 1857, a Memorandum showing the name of the Society, the objects of the Society, and the names, addresses, and occupations of the governing body, together with a copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society certified as provided in Section II, and a copy of the report of the Proceedings of the General Meeting at which the registration was resolved on.

Inspection of documents.

Certified copies.

XIX. Any person may inspect all documents filed with the Registrar under this Act on payment of a fee of one Rupee for each inspection; and any person may require a copy or extract of any document or any part of any document, to be certified by the Registrar, on payment of two annas for every hundred words of such copy or extract; and such certified copy shall be primâ facie evidence of the matters therein contained in all legal proceedings whatever.

To what Societies the Act shall apply.

XX. The following Societies may be registered under this Act: Charitable Societies, Societies established for the promotion of Science, Literature, or the Fine Arts, for instruction, the diffusion of useful knowledge, the foundation or maintenance of Libraries or Reading-rooms for general use among the Members or open to the Public, or Public Museums and Galleries of Paintings and other works of Art, Collections of Natural History, Mechanical and Philosophical Inventions, Instruments, or Designs.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort William, the 19th November 1858.

No. 63.

WITH reference to the Notification from this Department, No. 61, dated the 12th instant, it is hereby notified that the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India has determined to extend to Proprietors of Transfer Loan Property, registered on the books in India, the advantage which is enjoyed by the Holders of Notes of the 4 per Cent Loans, of subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, half in Cash and half in Transfer Loan Security.

By this arrangement, Holders of Transfer Loan Property registered on the London books will have the option, by Transfer to the India books, and by then subscribing to the 5 per Cent Loan, of availing themselves of the grant, in England, of Bills for Interest on Indian Loan Securities, in common with other Creditors of the Indian Government.

No. 64.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained as to the Construction of Para. 9 of the Notification, No. 61; issued from this Department on the 12th instant, relative to the Payment of Interest on Indian Government Promissory Notes at the East India House in London, by Bills on the Treasuries of Application mentioned in Para. 9 of that Notification is the Application for Enfacement referred to in Paras. 2 and 3, and that Endorsements made in England of enfaced Notes will be recognized in England.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

C. HUGH LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Fort William, the 12th November 1858.

No. 61.

THE Holders of Indian Government Promissory Notes are hereby informed that, from and after the 1st of December 1858, Interest on their Promissory Notes will be made payable, if desired, at the East India House in London, by Bills on demand on the General Treasuries of Calcutta and Madras, subject to the Rules and Regulations at present in force, or that may hereafter be issued by the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, or by this Government.

2. When Holders of Notes in Calcutta desire that the Interest thereon should be made payable by Bills issued in London, they must present their Notes at the Office of the Accountant General to the Government of India, where an enfacement will be made on each of the Notes in question as follows:—

"Interest payable in London by Draft on Calcutta (or Madras, as the case may be.")

3. Notes presented for enfacement at Bombay and Madras will be forwarded to the Accountant General to the Government of India at this Presidency, by whom the Notes, after enfacement and registry, will be returned to the Presidency whence they were sent, for delivery to the Holders.

4. Notes presented for enfacement in India will be double-numbered, for transmission, if desired, by halves, in order to facilitate the issue of a Duplicate in case of loss in transit. A fee of one Rupee will be levied for the transfer-enfacement and double-numbering.

*1st 4 per Cent Loan of 1824-25 (Sicca)	Interest payable quarterly on different dates varying with the date of original subscription to the Loan.
2nd 4 per Cent (Sicca) of 1828-29.	Ditto ditto.
3rd 4 per Cent (Sicca) of 1832-33.	Interest payable— 1st May and 1st November.
4th 4 per Cent 1836-36 ..	31st March and 30th September.
5th 4 per Cent 1842-43 ..	1st February and 1st August.
3½ per Cent 1853-54 ..	28th February and 31st August.
6th 4 per Cent 1854-55 ..	30th June and 31st December.
5 per Cent Public Works Loan of 1854-55.	31st March and 30th September.
4½ per Cent of 1856-57	28th February and 31st August.
5 per Cent of 1856-57	28th February and 31st August.

5. On presentation of the transferred Notes at the East India House, on or after the dates* on which the Interest falls due on the different Loans, Drafts for the Interest then payable will be granted on the General Treasury of Calcutta or Madras, after due examination and Check of the Notes.

6. Whenever Holders of such Notes may require Interest to be made again payable in India, the Notes must be presented at the East India House, with an application to that effect to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State, who will cause the previous enfacements to be cancelled, and a fresh enfacement entry to be made on each Note as follows:—

"Interest Payable in India."

7. Holders of Promissory Notes in London on which Interest is payable by Draft on Calcutta, may require Drafts on Madras in lieu, or vice versâ. This object will be effected by a cancellation of the previous enfacement on the Notes, and by a fresh enfacement-entry to be made in London.

8. Every Applicant, upon sending in a Note for enfacement, must in his application state that he agrees to be bound by the Rules which for the time being may be in force relative to Notes enfaced for payment of Interest in England.

9. Whenever application is made by the Endorsee of a Note for the payment of Interest in England by Drafts on the General Treasury at Calcutta or Madras, the Applicant must have his Note previously renewed in his own name. Any endorsement made in India of an enfaced Note will not be recognized in England.

10. Interest payable in Sicca Rupees will be paid in England by Bills for the equivalent amount in Company's Rupees, at the rate of Company's Rupees 106-10-8 for every 100 Sicca Rupees.

11. Any charge incurred in England on account of Stamps must be borne by the Holders of the Promissory Notes, and must be paid at the India House on application for Drafts.

12. Enfaced Notes will be received at the East India House, for renewal or consolidation or subdivision, and will be sent out thence to Calcutta, a receipt being given to the Holder of the Notes. The new Notes when received from India will not be delivered except upon the production of the receipt, and payment of a fee of two Shillings for each new Note, and the amount of Postage levied on the Notes in transmission to and from India.

13. No Duplicate of a lost Note, enfaced for payment of Interest in England, will be issued until notice of such loss, and of an application having been made for a duplicate has been advertized in three successive issues of the London Gazette, and also of the Times, or such other newspaper as the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State may direct, in addition to the Advertisements in India required by the Rules for the time being in force in India; and such duplicate will not be granted except at the Loan Office in Calcutta, and to the person nominated by the Home Authorities to receive the Duplicate.

14. In all other respects the Rules for the time being in force in India relating to the issue of Duplicates of lost Notes will be applicable to enfaced Notes.

15. Interest will be payable only to the legal Holder of a Note, and no Trust will be recognized.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

HUGH LUSHINGTON,

Secretary to the Government of India.

FROM BRIGADIER PINCKNEY, C. B.,

Commdg. at Pertabgurh and Sultanpore,

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,

Allahabad.

Camp Beylah, 22nd October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward, for your submission to the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, a Despatch from Brigadier Horsford, Commanding Troops at Sultanpore, detailing the successful result of a surprise of a large body of Rebels at Daodpore, on the Lucknow Road. I also beg to forward a casualty return, together with list of guns, horses, ammunition, &c., captured.

I have, &c.,

TO THE MAJOR OF BRIGADE,

Camp Beylah, Pertabgurh.

Camp Sultanpore, 21st October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Brigadier Pinckney, C. B., Commanding the Troops at Pertabgurh and Sultanpore, that having received reliable intelligence of the enemy having taken up a strong position at Daodpore, a village eleven miles west of my Camp, on the Lucknow road, with a force of about 200 Cavalry, 6 guns, and 4000 Infantry, including the body of mutineer Sepoys known as the Nusseerabad Brigade, with their two Field Battery horsed guns, under the Command of General Davbie Dheen, and the Rebel Nazim Mehndee Hussein, I determined to attack him.

Total,	1185
Grand Total, men	1589

2. Accordingly I marched from my Camp at 2 A. M. yesterday, with the force as per margin, carrying one day's cooked rations, and arrived within three miles of the enemy's position at daylight; here the country became more intricate, with large patches of jungle, and paddy fields on all sides, so that it was necessary to confine the movements of my Artillery to the road.

3. On approaching within two miles of Daodpore, the jungle became very dense, and it was necessary to proceed with caution, particularly as I had information, that the enemy had commenced throwing up batteries to command the road; and which proved to be correct.

4. I advanced with a line of skirmishers on both sides of the road, the Artillery, supported by Cavalry and Infantry, kept on the road. The main body of my Cavalry under Command of Captain Stisted, 7th Hussars, I had previously detached to the left, with the view of turning the enemy's right. This manœuvre was completely successful, and in combination with my forward movement in front, had the effect of causing an immediate retreat on the part of the enemy, who offered but a feeble opposition to the fire of our skirmishers, who pressed them rapidly through the village of Daodpore and adjoining hamlets.

5. Here I could distinctly perceive the track of their gun-wheels, and was informed that their guns had retired towards the Khandoo Nuddee, and had already got off about two miles. No time was to be lost. I therefore ordered the Infantry, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Carmichael, 32nd Light Infantry, to continue their advance; and I instantly started in pursuit with the Artillery and that portion of the Cavalry which I had retained with the guns.

6. After a steady gallop of four miles, I had the satisfaction of coming up with the enemy retreating in great disorder; the Artillery and Cavalry keeping up the pursuit in the most vigorous manner, and opening fire as opportunity offered. The enemy was soon compelled to abandon his guns, which, with their horses, ammunition tumbrils, store carts, with quantities of saddlery, and Artillery harness, fell into our hands, several of the gunners having been cut down at their guns, whilst others sought refuge by jumping off their horses, and running into the jungle.

7. I was here joined by the main body of my Cavalry, which had already had an opportunity of inflicting considerable loss on the enemy. I directed them to continue the pursuit for two or three miles further; but their numbers being small, and the enemy being known to have a strong post at Mosuffur Khana, (towards which lay their line of retreat,) I was anxious that they should not commit themselves at a distance from support.

My orders were admirably carried out, and several of the enemy slain in the fields through which they were retreating in the most scattered and disorderly manner: three elephants were also captured, on one of which Mehndee Hussein is reported to have been, but was compelled to abandon it, and fly on horseback.

8. Having effected as much as could be accomplished by the force at my disposal, and the heat of the day increasing, I now retired four miles to some topes of trees where the Infantry, by my orders, had halted: the troops rested here until 4 P. M., when I commenced my return march to Sultanpore, which the force reached at 9½ P. M., the Infantry having marched six and twenty miles, and the Cavalry and Artillery at least five and thirty. Nothing could exceed the cheerful exertions of the Troops of all Arms.

9. I am happy to say, my casualties are merely nominal. A return is forwarded herewith, as well as one of the captured ordnance and stores.

10. From information I received on the spot, it is certain the enemy had removed their bullock guns the previous day, doubtless under the impression that their horsed guns could at any time retire leisurely. The numbers of the enemy killed cannot be far short of one hundred and fifty; and it is remarkable that all were Sepoys, armed with percussion muskets, and equipped with cross belts, their Cavalry having retreated early in the day.

11. My thanks are due to Lieutenant Colonel Carmichael, for the able manner in which he commanded the Infantry; also to the Officers Commanding Corps and Detachments, namely:—Lieutenant Colonel Galwey, C. B., Madras Fusiliers; Captain Stisted, who commanded the Cavalry, and gave me every assistance; Lieuenants Strange and Lyon, who managed their guns with both energy and skill; Captain Hoste, Commanding Detachment 5th Punjab Rifles; Lieutenant Palliser, Commanding 1st Regiment Hodson's Horse; Lieutenant Sadlier, Commanding Military Police Cavalry; Captain Bunbury, Commanding Military Police Infantry, and Lieutenant Raynsford, Commanding Madras Sappers.

I wish particularly to bring to notice the unvaried zeal and ability of my Brigade Major, Lieutenant Colonel Mollan, 75th Regiment; Lieutenant Sladen, 1st Madras Fusiliers, who acted as my Orderly Officer, has on this occasion, as on several others, been of great service to me.

My thanks are due to Captain Græme, 5th Bengal European Regiment, Officiating Sub-Assistant Commissary General; and also to Major Torrens, 23rd Foot: Lieutenant Biddulph, Royal Artillery; Lieutenant Thompson, 67th Bengal Native Infantry, Assistant Commissioners; and to Lieutenant Watson, 46th Bengal Native Intantry, these Officers having volunteered their services, and been of great assistance to me.

I am specially thankful to Captain Steel, 17th Bengal Native Infantry, Assistant Commissioner, for the very clear information I have received from him as to the movements of the enemy. This Officer was also of great service to me in the field.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Pinckney, C. B., Commanding Troops at Pertabgurh and Sultanpore, that previous to my march yesterday, I had re-inforced the Troops here, by withdrawing 2 Horse Artillery guns and 150 men of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, from Lieutenant Colonel Payn's Force at Silka, having previously received authority to do so from Major General Sir Hope Grant, should I deem such a step advisable.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council to forward to you for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, No. 3611, dated the 21st of last month, enclosing a Despatch from Major General Michel, C. B., Commanding the Mhow Field Force, reporting the defeat of Tantia Topee by the force under his Command on the 15th idem.

2. The Adjutant General has been informed in reply, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council heartily concurs with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in the opinion which he has expressed of the service rendered by Major General Michel, C. B. and the gallant force under his Command, on this occasion.

3. In forwarding this Despatch, I am directed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council to draw the favorable attention of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India to the important services rendered by Major General Michel, and at the same time to recommend to His Lordship's protection, the Officers prominently mentioned in the Despatch.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

TO THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Secret Department, Bombay.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to forward for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, the accompanying Despatch dated 16th instant, this day received from Major General Michel, C. B., Commanding Mhow Field Force, and to convey at the same time His Excellency's gratification at the complete success which has attended the operations herein reported, and which appear to have been conducted with so much judgment and tact by the Major General, supported so admirably by the European and Native Troops of all Arms under him.

2. I am also to recommend to the favorable notice and protection of His Lordship in Council, the Officers prominently mentioned by Major General Michel, for the assistance rendered by them, in an engagement which has resulted in another victory over the mutinous Army and Rebels of Bengal, together with the capture of 27 of their guns, their camp equipage, cattle and material.

I have, &c.,

Adjutant General of the Army.

No. 234 of 1858.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL MICHEL,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Biowra, 16th September 1858.

SIR,

IN continuation of my letter of the 13th instant, to the Quarter Master General of the Army, I have the honor to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that having received information, that the Rebels on the 13th instant marched towards Rajgurh, and that Brigadier Parke was en route to cover Indore, on the morning of the 14th, the Mhow Field Force under my orders marched towards Rajgurh.

2. About 3 in the evening, I reconnoitred the enemy's positions, who were at both sides the river at Rajgurh, but the heat of the weather was so excessive, and so large a proportion of the Infantry were affected by the sun, that I found it impossible to attack the same evening.

3. On the 15th, at 2½ A. M., I marched on Rajgurh, force as per margin.

17th Lancers	80
3rd D. Cavalry,	180
No. 8 Bengal Lt. Field Battery, 4 guns.
European Infantry 92nd and 70th.	600
Native Infy. 19th and 4th Rifles.	1,100

4. The enemy had marched away in the night. On crossing the river I found them in a very strong position, on the road to Biowra; on reconnoitring with Cavalry, they moved on for 4 or 5 miles. We there had a slight skirmish with their rear guard, wherein the 3rd Cavalry behaved very gallantly, and eventually we found their guns in position on ground, commanding our line of march as per annexed diagram.

5. Our Cavalry were compelled to retire, and the Artillery of the enemy opened fire on our troops as they arrived on the field.

6. I endeavoured to check their fire, opening our 9-pounders on them, but the range was too great for guns of such calibre as ours. I therefore partially retired the force, whilst the enemy slightly advanced.

7. On the arrival of the European Infantry, the whole line advanced, covered by the skirmishers of the Rifles and 92nd.

8. The enemy, from about 8 heavy guns, kept up a well sustained fire for some time during the advance, and although they had the exact range, we sustained no loss.

On our approaching their position, they commenced to retreat, and crowds of fugitives were seen hurrying to the rear.

9. I did not allow the soldiers to fire a round with their minies, although within range, as it would have checked our speed. Thus the enemy had opportunities of opening his guns again once or twice, after once having commenced his retreat.

10. We proceeded in this order for about 2 or 3 miles, when two of our guns were rapidly brought into action before the skirmishers, and the excellent practice of Lieutenant LeMarchant, Commanding the Artillery, began to throw them into extreme confusion.

11. Another advance, and another dash forward of the Artillery, completed their defeat.

12. Captain Sir W. Gordon, Her Majesty's 17th Lancers, Commanding the Cavalry, had, during the whole action, been proceeding on the extreme right flank, waiting for the moment when he might strike the last blow.

Every minute, guns, material and baggage was falling into our hands, and I now let him loose to complete their route.

He dashed to the front, and having dispersed the remaining symptoms of an organized body, pursued for 4 or 5 miles, until horses and men were completely worn out.

13. The loss of the enemy probably did not exceed 2 or 300 men, owing to our want of Cavalry, and to the fact of the impossibility of the Infantry coming up to their main body.

14. I cannot say too much for the conduct of the Troops. The Native portion had been without food for upwards of 36 hours, the Europeans had to contend with a most severe march, under a deadly sun, which in some cases was fatal.

15. Although we sustained no loss, which, considering the amount of magnificent Artillery the enemy possessed, and the way in which for some time it was served, (nearly every shot plumping into the intervals between the Troops,) was most extraordinary. Still I consider that I should not do my duty, did I not record that, to the able assistance I received from the Officers Commanding Columns, namely:—Lieutenant Colonel Lockhart, 92nd Regiment; and Lieutenant Colonel Hope, 71st Regiment; and from the Officers Commanding Corps, namely:—Captain Bethune, 92nd Regiment; Major Blennerhasset, 71st Regiment; Sir W. Gordon, 17th Lancers; Captain Oldfield, 3rd Light Cavalry; Captain Barrow, 19th Native Infantry; Major Manson, 4th Rifles; Lieutenant LeMarchant, Bengal Artillery; I owe the success that has been achieved.

The Officers Commanding Columns, have recorded their approbation of their Staff Officers:—Captain St. John, 92nd Regiment, and Captain Parker, 71st Regiment, H. M. Troops, in which I cordially concur.

16. Captain Sir W. Gordon, by his judicious management, and gallant bearing at the head of the Cavalry and Lieutenant LeMarchant, by the manner in which he brought our Artillery into action, especially contributed to our success.

17. The General Staff:—Captain Champion, Assistant Adjutant General; Lieutenant Holland, Assistant Quarter Master General; and Lieutenant Shewell, D. A. C. General, (who was with me near the field;) as well as my Personal Staff, Major Elkington, 6th Regiment, A. D. C.; and Lieutenant Malcolm, Bombay Engineers, whom I had attached to my Staff, did their duty well.

18. The result of the day's operations has been the entire dispersion of the Rebel Army, number unknown, but from the best information that could be procured, estimated at about 10,000 men. The capture of 27 guns, with all its material, ammunition, and draught cattle as per annexed return, as well as a quantity of camp equipage, &c. &c.

Also the saving of the large town of Biowra, with its Telegraphic Station, &c.

19. I cannot close this Despatch without soliciting His Excellency to convey to the Government our Military thanks for the very valuable advice and energetic aid that this Force has received from Captain Hutchinson, Assistant Political Agent to Governor General. To Lieutenant Cummings, Assistant Bheel Agent, our best thanks are also due. Both gentlemen were present, and active in the field.

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5081, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

(A True Extract.)
W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 13th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of January next :—

A Bill to empower the Holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom to grant leases extending beyond the period of their own possession.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained whether the Ghatwals of the District of Beerbhoom, who pay the revenue of their lands directly to Government under the provisions of Regulation XXIX. 1814 of the Bengal Code, have power to grant leases of those lands, or of any part thereof, for any term extending beyond the period of their own possession; and whereas, for the development of the mineral resources of the country in which the said Ghatwalee lands are situate, and for the improvement of the said lands, it is expedient that the power of granting leases for a long term of years, or in perpetuity, should be extended to the possessors of such lands; It is enacted as follows :—

Ghatwals of Beerbhoom to have the same right of granting leases as is allowed to other proprietors of lands.

I. All holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom under the provisions of the aforesaid Regulation, shall have the same power of granting leases for any period which they may deem most conducive to the improvement of their tenures, as is allowed by law to the proprietors of other lands. Provided that no lease of Ghatwalee lands for any period extending beyond the life-time of the Grantor of the lease shall be valid and binding on the successors of the Grantor, unless the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the Commissioner of the Division, such approval being certified by an endorsement on the lease under the signature of the Collector.

Proviso.

Court of Wards and Revenue authorities to have the like power in certain cases.

II. If any of the said Ghatwalee lands should be taken under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or should otherwise become subject to the direct control of the Officers of Government, it shall be lawful for the manager or farmer under the Court of Wards with the sanction of the Court, or for the Collector with the sanction of the Commissioner, to grant any such lease as aforesaid; and every lease so granted shall be valid and binding on all future possessors of the said lands, anything in the existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 20th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of February next :—

A Bill for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes; It is enacted as follows :—

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Memorandum of Association.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say,)

The name of the Society,

The objects of the Society,

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted.

A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

Registration.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act.

Fees.

There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

IV. Once in every year, on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society.

Property of Society how to be vested.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested for the time being in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

How suits by and against Societies to be brought.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or principal Secretary, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman thereof, if, on application to the governing body, some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

Suits not to abate.

VII. No suit or proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person, by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued, dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successor of such person.

How judgment to be enforced against.

VIII. If a judgment shall be recovered against the person or Officer named on behalf of the Society, such judgment shall not be put in force against the property, moveable or immoveable, or against the body of such person or Officer, but against the property of the Society. The application for execution shall set forth the judgment, the fact of the party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the case may be, on behalf of the Society only, and shall require to have the judgment enforced against the property of the Society.

Society may make Bye-law to be enforced.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

Members liable to be sued as strangers.

X. Any Member who may be in arrear of a subscription which, according to the Rules of the Society he is bound to pay, or who shall possess himself of or detain any property of the Society in a manner or for a time contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy any property of the Society, may be sued for such arrear or for the damage accruing from such detention, injury or destruction of property in the manner herein before provided. But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted, shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

Societies enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their purposes.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

XIII. Any number not less than three-fifths of the Members of any Society may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the Society, its claims, and liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Society applicable thereto, if any, and, if not, then as the governing body shall find expedient, provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing body or the Members of the Society, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the District in which the chief building of the Society is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite. Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the Members at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint Stock Companies.

Who is a Member.

XV. For the purposes of this Act a Member of a Society shall be a person who, having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a subscription, or shall have signed the roll or list of Members thereof; but in all proceedings under this Act no person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose subscription at the time shall have been in arrear for a period exceeding three months.

The governing body defined.

XVI. The governing body of the Society shall be the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other body to whom by the Rules and Regulations of the Society the management of its affairs is entrusted.

Registration of Societies formed before this Act.

XVII. Any Company or Society established for a Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose and registered under Act XLIII of 1850, or any such Society established and constituted previously to the passing of this Act but not registered under the said Act XLIII of 1850, may at any time hereafter be registered as a Society under this Act; subject to the proviso that no such Company or Society shall be registered under this Act unless an assent to its being so registered has been given by three-fifths of the Members present personally, or by proxy, at some General Meeting convened for that purpose by the governing body. In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth.

Such Societies to file Memorandum, &c., with Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies.

XVIII. In order to any such Society as is mentioned in the last preceding Section obtaining registry under this Act, it shall be sufficient that the governing body file with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, under Act XIX of 1857, a Memorandum showing the name of the Society, the objects of the Society, and the names, addresses, and occupations of the governing body, together with a copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society certified as provided in Section II, and a copy of the report of the Proceedings of the General Meeting at which the registration was resolved on.

Inspection of documents.

XIX. Any person may inspect all documents filed with the Registrar under this Act on payment of a fee of one Rupee for each inspection; and any person may require a copy or extract of any document or any part of any document, to be certified by the Registrar, on payment of two annas for every hundred words of such copy or extract; and such certified copy shall be primâ facie evidence of the matters therein contained in all legal proceedings whatever.

Certified copies.

To what Societies the Act shall apply.

XX. The following Societies may be registered under this Act: Charitable Societies, Societies established for the promotion of Science, Literature, or the Fine Arts, for instruction, the diffusion of useful knowledge, the foundation or maintenance of Libraries or Reading-rooms for general use among the Members or open to the Public, or Public Museums and Galleries of Paintings and other works of Art, Collections of Natural History, Mechanical and Philosophical Inventions, Instruments, or Designs.

TO MAJOR GENL. SIR WILLIAM MANSFIELD, K. C. B.
Chief of the Staff.

Camp Sundeela, 24th October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report that on the 31st instant, I attacked the Fort of "Birwah," with the force mentioned in the margin, and took it by assault after eight hours' firing. Having reconnoitred the Fort the previous day, I selected the west front for my principal attack, where the outer defences appeared the weakest, and where I knew the Fort itself had but one line of works; a few hundred yards from this side, there was also a village upon a mound, which was said by the natives and by Bahrut Sing, a friendly Zemindar, to command the interior of the Fort, which they declared to be visible from it, (this however, I found was not the case). The village was entrenched and occupied by the enemy, and my first object therefore was to drive them from it having previously sent the Cavalry round to the north, on which side the jungle was very extensive, to prevent escape in that direction. I commenced by placing Captain Dowell's guns in a position to enfilade the entrenchments, and fire in rear of the villages. It was immediately abandoned; the Rifles pushed through with the Police Infantry on their left, and passing a topo of large trees, came upon the edge of the dense thorny jungle, which nearly surrounds the Fort; the 88th in the meantime, threatening the south-west angle of the outer works, drove the enemy from a part of them, and their guns in these lines were withdrawn.

My chief difficulty now, was to ascertain the nature and exact position of the principal works, so completely was the Fort concealed by the jungle, which was almost impenetrable. Captain Pearson's guns were brought into action on the right of the village, upon that portion of the outer defences where the enemy was visible on this side; the mortars were placed close to the village, and in the topo of mangoe trees, whence a continued fire was kept up on the place, but, owing to the impossibility of seeing the object I fear their fire was somewhat ineffectual.

An 18-pounder and an 8-inch howitzer were brought down to the edge of the jungle, and opened at a distance of 100 yards upon the wall of the Fort, (a very small portion of one embrasure, whence a gun was occasionally fired, being visible through the jungle,) they very soon cleared away the intervening trees and exposed the S. W. Bastion, which I then determined to breach, knowing that it would give immediate access to the body of the place, the only other accessible sides having double lines of defence. The enemy still kept up a fire from a portion of the outer works, and I therefore directed a party of Rifles, under Lieutenant Percival, and Police Infantry under Captain Dawson, to move along the ditch on the west side, where it was inconsiderable, and mounting the breastwork to clear it of the enemy; this was easily effected and the enemy rapidly driven before them, escaping through paths in the jungle, and abandoning the outer works (which were completely turned by this movement) they retired to the inner Fort; the 88th passing to the right, entered the outer works by the main-gate on the east, and now communicated with us on the south side; we found the outer defences on the east and south of great strength, the ditch being newly cut about 20 feet deep and with nearly perpendicular sides. By this time the breach was rapidly improving, and I therefore made my dispositions for the assault of the body of the place.

The 88th were ordered to enter by the main-gate on the east; here I know there was a double line of works, but I imagined that when the assault at the breach on the opposite side took place, these would be abandoned. Lieutenant Carnegie, Bengal Engineers, was to blow open the gates. Captain Dawson, with 200 Police Infantry, was to make his way round the north-west angle, through the jungle, to a gate on the north side, by which the enemy would endeavour to escape; this also was to be blown open, if necessary, and Serjeant Charlton, Royal Artillery, accompanied the party for this purpose.

The breach was to be stormed by a party of the Rifle Brigade, under Captain Alexander, and 100 Police Infantry, the remainder of each Regiment being held in reserve. Major Goodenough, Royal Artillery, acting as my Brigade Major, personally ascertained that it was possible to ascend the breach, with the assistance of ladders, which would also be required to get into the ditch, (this upon subsequent measurement was found to be nearly 40 feet wide, and 30 feet deep, having 3 or 4 feet of mud and water at the bottom.) The Police Infantry were to carry the ladders through the jungle and place them in the ditch while 100 of the Rifles kept down the enemy's fire from the loop-holes, &c.; the signal for the general attack, was to be the cheers of the storming party at the breach. The arrangements of each attacking party, were admirably made by their respective Commanding Officers, and the attacks were simultaneous; no loss was sustained in ascending the breach, although most difficult to get up. Ensign Richards, Rifle Brigade, was the first man at the top, closely followed by Major Goodenough, R. A., and Color Serjeant Maloney, of the Rifle Brigade; the enemy attempting to escape by the north gate were met by Captain Dawson and his Police Infantry, and driven back; at the same time the 88th, under Major Maynard, entered by the main gate on the east, in the most gallant style, the enemy receiving them with a round of grape as they advanced; the gate was blown to atoms by Lieutenant Carnegie, B. E., who I regret to say, was severely burnt in the attempt, owing to the fuze burning slowly and his advancing a second time to ascertain the cause. The second gate (as I expected) was entered without opposition. The place was now in our possession and with comparatively little loss; the enemy concealed themselves in the various buildings inside, and the principal number, with Gholab Sing, had retired to a house in the centre, from which a sharp fire was kept up from the loop-holes and windows. This fire, I am sorry to say, caused us many casualties. Captain Dawson, in a most gallant attempt to get inside, received a severe sabre cut on the right arm. It was now getting dusk, and feeling that my loss had already been very heavy, I determined to blow up what part of the house I could, and let the rest burn, for it was already on fire, as were most of the other buildings; Captain Dowell, Bengal Artillery, and Major Goodenough, R. A., (this Officer, although severely wounded in the right hand, continued to render me most valuable assistance) succeeded in blowing down one side of the house, and exposed the court-yard, but the house was found to consist of a number of small rooms, and as considerable loss would probably have been incurred in forcing an entrance, I determined upon waiting for the fire to do its work, leaving strong parties to guard the doors, &c., by which the enemy could escape. From some prisoners taken, we learnt that Gholab Sing, and about 50 men had retired to this house upon the assault taking place; and their retreat being cut off by the north, many of these had been shot down, burnt or buried in the ruins by the explosion, but still a few remained who continued to fire upon any man exposing himself; the house was however well on fire, and I thought it impossible that any could escape. I left the 88th Regiment and the Police Infantry in the Fort, to hold the place and dispose of the rest of the enemy when daylight should appear, and returned to Camp with the remainder of the force and wounded. It was then passed midnight.

We learnt that on our approach in the morning, the Fort was occupied by 700 men, but that during the day the greater number of them had got away into the jungle, Gholab Sing's own men alone remaining; they offered a most determined resistance, and the strength of the place enabled them to inflict great loss; I am sorry to say that Gholab Sing himself and about 10 men who were shut up in the centre building, when I left after midnight, effected their escape during the night, by making a sudden rush to one of the bastions, and scrambling into the ditch, whence they new a path to the jungle; it is said Gholab Sing was wounded and eventually got off with only three followers.

I most sincerely deplore the heavy losses the force has sustained, but I imagine a Fort of such strength has seldom been taken in in so short a time; had the assault however been delayed the enemy would certainly have escaped, and although our loss immediately after the final assault was comparatively inconsiderable, the failure of daylight favored the enemy, and any attempt at forcing an entrance into the rooms after dark, would have doubtless still further increased our casualties. Eight guns were captured in the place and the loss of the enemy is estimated from 200 to 250. The Fort itself is now being destroyed under the superintendence of Lieutenant Tracy, Royal Artillery.

I beg to bring to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, the names of the several Officers, whom I have to thank for their gallant and valuable assistance. Major Maynard, Commanding 88th Regiment, made all his arrangements in a most perfect manner, and greatly contributed to our success; this Officer speaks in the highest terms of Major Mauleverer, of the same Regiment, who distinguished himself by the cool and fearless manner in which he behaved. Major Oxenden, Commanding Rifle Brigade, deserves the greatest credit for the manner in which he handled his men and disposed them for the assault of the breach. Major Seymour, 2nd Dragoon Guards, Commanding the Cavalry, made excellent arrangements for preventing the escape of the enemy, and the denseness of the jungle and the failure of daylight, after which I withdrew them, alone prevented the Cavalry from taking a more active part in the operations. Major Pearson and Captain Dowell, Commanding the Field Batteries, afforded me every assistance, and the latter was most useful in blowing up the house in the interior which the Rebels occupied. Major Goodenough, Royal Artillery, proved himself in every way a most excellent Officer, and distinguished himself by his gallantry throughout the day, particularly at the assault of the breach. I regret to say he was wounded soon after this took place. Captain Campbell, Royal Artillery, acting as Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, conspicuous for his energy, exerted himself to the utmost and rendered me every possible assistance. To Captain Boileau, Divisional Commandant Oudh Police, I am very much indebted for the valuable assistance he afforded me on all occasions. Captain Dawson, Commanding Police Infantry, as usual displayed the greatest courage and discretion in the management of his men. I felt much the loss of his assistance when he received his wound, which I trust, however, will not eventually incapacitate him for duty, nor long deprive the country of his services. Captain Alexander, Rifle Brigade, Commanding the storming party, deserves the greatest credit, and Lieutenant Cragg and Ensign Richards, who accompanied him displayed the greatest courage; the latter, as I have stated, was the first at the top of the breach, but I regret to say, was shortly afterwards severely wounded. Lieutenant Carnegie, Bengal Engineers, a most gallant and intelligent Officer, whom I have already mentioned as having been severely burnt, rendered every possible assistance and displayed the greatest courage. Lieutenant Graham, Commanding the Oudh Police Cavalry, rendered valuable aid to that part of the force. Lieutenants Brown and Tracy, Royal Artillery, Commanding respectively the breaching batteries and mortars, the former of whom was slightly wounded, deserve the greatest praise for their conduct. The names of the following Officers in addition to those I have already spoken of, have been mentioned as particularly deserving praise: Lieutenants Waring, Burke and Moore, and Assistant Surgeon Knipe, 88th Regiment; and Major Seymour speaks in high terms of the assistance he received from Captains Stapylton and Carnegie, Squadron Leaders; and Lieutenant and Adjutant Calvert, 2nd Dragoon Guards; and particularly of Lieutenant Graham, Commanding Police Cavalry, Surgeon Cape, Oudh Police; Assistant Surgeon Rowbotham, 2nd Dragoon Guards; Assistant Surgeon Storey, Rifle Brigade; and Assistant Surgeon Bird, Bengal Artillery; deserve the greatest praise for their attention to the wounded during the nights.

The peculiar nature of the engagement afforded many opportunities for the display of individual courage, Serjeant Charlton, 6th Company 11th Battalion Royal Artillery, who accompanied Captain Dawson's party to the north gate, particularly distinguished himself by his coolness and courage, and he is most highly spoken of by that Officer. The names of the men mentioned in the margin, have been brought to my notice by their respective Commanding Officers as having particularly distinguished themselves, and many instances came under my own observation. I am sorry that several of these names should also appear among the wounded.

The conduct of the whole Force was admirable. I must not omit to state how much I am indebted to Mr. Kavanagh, Assistant Commissioner, for his assistance. Though last mentioned, his services are far from being the least important; his knowledge of the country, his energy and constant activity in procuring intelligence, render his services of the greatest value; his well known courage places him ever among the foremost in danger, and he rendered me the greatest aid throughout the engagement. I have derived the greatest benefit from Mr. Kavanagh's assistance, since assuming the Command here and it is at all times most freely given.

I beg to enclose a list of Killed and Wounded.

Major of Brigade.

Allahabad, the 13th November 1858.

No. 524 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, No. 1202, dated the 16th ultimo, forwarding a Despatch from Brigadier Chute, Commanding at Lucknow, reporting the defeat on the 6th and 8th October last, of a large body of Rebels near Sundeela, by the Troops under the Command, respectively, of Major Maynard, Her Majesty's 88th Regiment, and Brigadier Barker, C. B.

The ability and vigour which has characterized the operations of Brigadier Barker, have deservedly obtained the marked approval of the Commander-in-Chief, in which the Governor General fully concurs.

The Governor General has also perused with great satisfaction the report on the conduct of Major Maynard and Lieutenants Green and Chamberlain, on this occasion.

No. 1202.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
Military Department, with the Governor General.

SIR,

I have the honor, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, a letter, in original, from Brigadier J. Chute, Commanding at Lucknow, dated 10th instant, with its enclosures, reporting the defeat of a large body of Insurgents near Sundeela, by the Troops under Command of Major Maynard, Her Majesty's 88th Regiment, and subsequently of Brigadier Barker, C. B.

2. The Commander-in-Chief desires to draw the attention of His Lordship to the ability and vigour which have characterized Brigadier Barker's attack and pursuit of the enemy, the results of which have been so signal; and Lord Clyde recommends that Officer and Major Maynard to special notice.

3. I am also to request, marked attention to the gallantry of Lieutenant Green of the Rifle Brigade, who has been dangerously wounded; and to the active part taken by Lieutenant Chamberlain, of the Oudh Police, in this, as in other operation in which he has been engaged.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) W. MAYHEW, Lieut-Colonel, Adjutant General of the Army.

HEAD QUARTERS; ALLAHABAD, The 16th October 1858.

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF, ALLAHABAD,

Lucknow, the 10th October 1858.

SIR,

On the afternoon of the 4th instant, I received intelligence from the Chief Commissioner, that the Police Force at Sundeela, under Captain Dawson, was threatened to be invested by a large body of Rebels with a request that a small force might be sent with 2 guns to assist him.

Two guns No. 12 Battery.
Two 5½ in. Mortars.
88th Regiment, 120 Bayts.
Police Infantry, 600
Police Cavalry, 278 Sabres.

Accordingly at 10 o'clock that night, a force under Major Maynard, 88th Regiment, as per margin, proceeded from Lucknow towards Sundeela.

The following morning a message was received by the Chief Commissioner, that Captain Dawson was in a serious position, his force being completely invested, and the enemy's numbers said to be increased up to 12,000 men.

Fearing therefore, that the force sent on the previous night would be hardly sufficient, under these circumstances, for carrying out the operations they were intended to, I deemed it advisable to despatch a large additional force.

Brigadier Barker, C. B., having proffered his services, I gladly availed myself of them, and at 9 P. M., a column as per margin, marched for Sundeela, under his command.

2nd Dr. Gds., 200 Sabres.
Hodson's Horse, 25 "
88th Regiment, 200 Bayts.
3rd Bn. R. B., 100 "
Two guns of No. 12 Battery.

I have the honor to enclose the following Despatches —

1*st*. From Major Maynard, Commanding the force sent on the 4th instant, which relieved Sundeela on the 6th instant, and caused the enemy to retire some distance, with a loss of one gun and 150 men killed.

2*nd*. From Brigadier Barker, C. B., who attacked the Rebels, strongly posted about 3 miles beyond Sundeela, on the 8th instant.

The force under this distinguished Officer completely dispersed the main body of the Rebels, taking 4 guns, and killing upwards of a thousand of the enemy.

The country round Sundeela is now reported to be completely clear of the Rebels, who have retired across the Goomtee.

I beg you will bring to the favorable notice of His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief the valuable services of Brigadier Barker, C. B., and Major Maynard, 88th Regiment, as also the Officers mentioned in their Despatches.

I have &c.,

TO THE DEPY. ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,
&c., &c., &c.,
Lucknow.

Camp Sundeela, 7th October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Chute, Commanding Troops at Lucknow, that according to instructions, I marched from Lucknow with the force as per margin, on the night of the 4th instant, and arrived at Mulleabad about 7 the following morning, where I was joined by 460 of the 2nd Oudh Police Cavalry, halted there till ½ past 3 o'clock P. M., when I again proceeded towards Ruheemabad, which place we reached about 7 P. M. and there halted for the night.

5th Oudh Police Cavalry.

2nd Oudh Police Cavalry.
460 Sabres, under Lieutenant Graham, who joined at Mullabad.
7th Oudh Police Infy.
600 Bayonets, under Lieutenant Worsley.

The following morning, the 6th instant, we marched for Sundeela, and as we approached the City about 6 A. M., discovered the enemy's Cavalry Picquets in our front. I threw forward my Cavalry in skirmishing order, supported by the Infantry and Guns in line, showing as strong and extensive a front as possible. In this order we advanced for some distance driving in the Picquets, and on nearer approaching the City, were assailed by a heavy fire from Infantry and Artillery, from the northern and western sides of the City, and the topes and gardens around; and our left flank threatened by the enemy's Cavalry; the latter were charged with success by the 5th, and part of the 2nd Oudh Police Cavalry, who succeeded in capturing one 3-pr. gun, and sabreing a considerable number, while I brought up my guns and mortars to bear upon the gardens and enclosures occupied by the Infantry. Perceiving that the enemy's Cavalry was again menacing our left in considerable force, I removed my guns and directed my fire upon them, which I kept up for some time, and then a second time our Cavalry charged them, obliging them to retreat with loss.

After this the Cavalry of the enemy again reformed in our front in very extensive masses, and to all appearance as if they intended to hold their ground, when I ordered our guns and mortars to advance, supported on either flank by the Detachment of the 88th Regiment, in extended order; our fire proved most effectual (the Enfield Rifles doing considerable execution) and this time the enemy were driven back in complete disorder, our Cavalry in pursuit.

Their Infantry, which had hitherto been keeping a heavy fire upon us from the City and neighbouring enclosures, at the same time retreated rapidly in disorder, threatened by the 7th Police Infantry who followed them well up, our guns being brought to bear upon their left flank, the ground was such that Cavalry could not pursue.

Owing to the inability further to advance my guns on account of the obstacles presented, such as thick topes and bad ground, and the hard work the Europeans and Horses had undergone in the heat of the day, I did not consider it prudent further to follow up the pursuit.

We were engaged from 6 in the morning till 12 noon, previously having had a march of 8 miles.

The enemy's force from the best information may be computed at about 12,000 Cavalry and Infantry, the Cavalry preponderating; their loss may be put down at about 150 killed. I annex a list of Casualties.

The conduct of both Officers and Men is deserving of the greatest praise, and I beg to bring under the notice of the Brigadier, that of Captain Dowell, Commanding Detachment Bengal Artillery; Lieutenant Chamberlain, Divisional Commandant; Lieutenant Brown, Royal Artillery; Captain Hall, Commanding Detachment 88th Regiment.

To BRIGADIER CHUTE,
Commanding at Lucknow.

Camp Sundeela, 9th October 1858.

SIR,

ON the day of my arrival at Sundeela, information was received that the main body of the Rebels, who had been recently investing this place, and had only been driven away the day before, by the advance of Major Maynard's party, was still within 4 miles at a place called "Jamo."

Accordingly at daybreak the following morning I started with the force as per margin, leaving a small force for the protection of the Town and Camp. I divided the Cavalry into two Columns, to act upon either flank, so as to cut off the enemy's retreat, when driven from their position. The left Column, under Command of Major Seymour, 2nd Dragoon Guards consisted of one Squadron 2nd Dragoon Guards, and 300 Police Cavalry; the right Column of the same strength was under the Command of Captain Stapylton 2nd Dragoon Guards.

H. M's. 2nd D. Guards, 170 Sabres.
4 guns, 12 Lt. F. Battery.
2 5½ In. Mortars, R. A.
H. M's. 88th Regiment, 250 Bayonets.
3rd Battalion Rifle Brigade, 60 Bayonets.
Police Cavalry, 670 Sabres.
Police Infy., 950 Bayonets.
Hodson's Horse, 25 Sabres.

I advanced myself with the Infantry and Guns against the enemy's position at "Jamo," having the Police Infantry under Captain Dawson on the right.

The enemy's position was admirably chosen, the village being situated on high ground completely commanding the whole plain over which we had to pass, and surrounded with "Dhauk" jungle and numerous jheels. Fire was opened upon us from 4 guns about the village, and from numerous jingalls and matchlocks in the jungle. Our guns were immediately brought into action, the Rifles being thrown out in skirmishing order to the right and the 88th to the left, leaving one Company in support of the guns. The 7th Police Infantry were for the time kept in reserve.

The Troops advanced steadily through the jungle the right being well forward. The party of the Rifle Brigade under Lieutenant Green, gallantly rushed up the high position in front of the village, and captured a 6-pounder gun; at the same time Captain Dawson, with the 3rd and 6th Police Infantry, passed round the village and completely turned their left flanks by which they were thrown into disorder, and commenced a precipitate retreat. The Oudh Police here captured 3 guns, and killed a great number of the enemy, who were at first encountered in good formation.

At one time the Rebels made a show of turning our left flank, but the advance of the 88th prevented it, and they then dispersed through the jungle in full retreat.

The arrangements for cutting off the retiring enemy were completely successful; each Column of Cavalry came upon them in their retreat, and killed large numbers of them.

The total loss of the Rebels is estimated at upwards of 1,000 killed, but it was impossible to judge accurately, owing to the great extent and very difficult nature of the ground passed over during the pursuit. They have however received a lesson, which will keep the country clear for some time.

I much regret that our Casualties were necessarily somewhat heavy, though chiefly among the Native Troops, but it was impossible to avoid, the Troops being rather dispersed, owing to the extremely difficult nature of the country.

Among the wounded, (and I am sorry to say he is dangerously so) is Lieutenant Green, of the Rifle Brigade, who was attacked by a number of Sepoys whilst leading his men through a thick piece of jungle he received 9 severe sabre cuts, before his men could destroy the whole party, some 20 or 30. This Officer had behaved so gallantly all through the day, that I most deeply lament this misfortune.

It is my pleasing duty to record my thanks to Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding the Oudh Povice. I am much indebted to him for his active assistance during the engagement, and I owe to him the suggestion of the plan of attack which was so successful.

To Captain Orr, Assistant Commissioner, I am much indebted for the very valuable and accurate information he obtained, as to the position and Intention of the Rebels. To Major Maynard, Commanding 88th Regiment, Major Seymour and Captain Stapylton, 2nd Dragoon Guards, Commanding respectively the left and right Columns of Cavalry, and to Lieutenant Green, Commanding Detachment of Rifle Brigade, great praise is due. Major Seymour speaks highly of the conduct of Captain Carnegy, 2nd Dragoon Guards, the Squadron Leader; and of Lieutenant Graham, Commanding the Police Cavalry with the left Column, whose zeal and intelligence rendered him of the greatest assistance; and also of Lieutenant Hawkins serving under him.

Major Seymour also speaks most highly of Lieutenants Green and Ensign Richards, of the Rifle Brigade, who getting near the Cavalry in the pursuit most effectually cleared that part of the jungle for them: Major Seymour was with Lieutenant Green when he was wounded, and was himself struck by two sword cuts, but was fortunately not much injured.

Captain Stapylton speaks in praise of Lieutenants Calvert and Ormsby, 2nd Dragoon Guards, and most highly of the dashing conduct of Lieutenant Drummond, of the Police Cavalry, whose tact and discretion in the management of his men, enabled them to render valuable service. Captain Barrow also did good service with this Column. This Officer speaks highly of Serjeant Major Ward, and Trumpeter Smith, 2nd Dragoon Guards; the latter a mere boy engaged a Sepoy and had his Horse shot under him.

Of Captain Dawson, Commanding the Oudh Police Infantry, it is impossible to speak too highly; his dashing gallantry and the admirable tact which he at all times displays renders the Troops under his command most valuable assistance to an European Force.

Captain Dowell, Commanding the Artillery, performed good service with his guns at the commencement of the action, but from the nature of the ground it was afterwards impossible to make use of the Artillery.

To Lieutenant Biddulph, Royal Artillery, my Brigade Major, I have to offer my best thanks; his energy and intelligence at all times renders him a most valuable assistant.

Lieutenant Lawford, Hodson's Horse, with a small detachment of his own Regiment and a few Police Cavalry, accompanied the centre Column, and did good service, cutting up some 150 of the enemy.

I would also mention Lieutenant Worsley, Commanding 7th Police Infantry; but the good services of Officers of the Oudh Police will be more prominently brought to the notice of Government by Lieutenant Chamberlain, through the Chief Commissioner.

Four Guns were captured, but one has not yet been brought in, having been abandoned for the moment during the pursuit, and has not yet been found.

I beg to enclose a list of Casualties and a return of captured Ordnance.

Several hackeries of ammunition were blown up, and much baggage taken. One elephant was also captured by the Oudh Police.

It is reported that two or three men of rank are amongst the killed, whom the Moulvie is said to be one.*

* His ring has since been brought in.

The force immediately opposed to us was about 5,000 men with 4 guns; but some distance in rear, there was a large body of about 2,000 men with 4 more guns. These however retired across the Goomtee at the very commencement, and were untouched.

The Assistant Commissioner reports the country perfectly clear up to the Goomtee, with the exception of 2 or 3 small Forts.

I have, &c.,

FORT WILLIAM,
The 22nd November 1858.

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5681, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 13th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of January next :—

A Bill to empower the Holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom to grant leases extending beyond the period of their own possession.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained whether the Ghatwals of the District of Beerbhoom, who pay the revenue of their lands directly to Government under the provisions of Regulation XXIX. 1814 of the Bengal Code, have power to grant leases of those lands, or of any part thereof, for any term extending beyond the period of their own possession ; and whereas, for the development of the mineral resources of the country in which the said Ghatwalee lands are situate, and for the improvement of the said lands, it is expedient that the power of granting leases for a long term of years, or in perpetuity, should be extended to the possessors of such lands ; It is enacted as follows :—

Ghatwals of Beerbhoom to have the same right of granting leases as is allowed to other proprietors of lands.

I. All holders of Ghatwalee lands in the District of Beerbhoom under the provisions of the aforesaid Regulation, shall have the same power of granting leases for any period which they may deem most conducive to the improvement of their tenures, as is allowed by law to the proprietors of other lands. Provided that no lease of Ghatwalee lands for any period extending beyond the life-time of the Grantor of the lease shall be valid and binding on the successors of the Grantor, unless the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the Commissioner of the Division, such approval being certified by an endorsement on the lease under the signature of the Collector.

Proviso.

Court of Wards and Revenue authorities to have the like power in certain cases.

II. If any of the said Ghatwalee lands should be taken under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or should otherwise become subject to the direct control of the Officers of Government, it shall be lawful for the manager or farmer under the Court of Wards with the sanction of the Court, or for the Collector with the sanction of the Commissioner, to grant any such lease as aforesaid ; and every lease so granted shall be valid and binding on all future possessors of the said lands, anything in the existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 20th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of February next :—

A Bill for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes ; It is enacted as follows :—

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Memorandum of Association.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say,)

The name of the Society,

The objects of the Society,

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted. A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

Registration.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act. There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Fees.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

IV. Once in every year, on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society.

Property of Society how to be vested.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested for the time being in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

How suits by and against Societies to be brought.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or principal Secretary, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman thereof, if, on application to the governing body, some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

Suits not to abate.

VII. No suit or proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person, by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued, dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successor of such person.

How judgment to be enforced against.

VIII. If a judgment shall be recovered against the person or Officer named on behalf of the Society, such judgment shall not be put in force against the property, moveable or immoveable, or against the body of such person or Officer, but against the property of the Society. The application for execution shall set forth the judgment, the fact of the party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the case may be, on behalf of the Society only, and shall require to have the judgment enforced against the property of the Society.

Society may make Bye-law to be enforced.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

Members liable to be sued as strangers.

X. Any Member who may be in arrear of a subscription which, according to the Rules of the Society he is bound to pay, or who shall possess himself of or detain any property of the Society in a manner or for a time contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy any property of the Society, may be sued for such arrear or for the damage accruing from such detention, injury, or destruction of property in the manner herein before provided. But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted, shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

Societies enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their purposes.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

XIII. Any number not less than three-fifths of the Members of any Society may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the Society, its claims, and liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Society applicable thereto, if any, and, if not, then as the governing body shall find expedient, provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing body or the Members of the Society, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the District in which the chief building of the Society is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite. Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the Members at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint Stock Companies.

Who is a Member.

XV. For the purposes of this Act a Member of a Society shall be a person who, having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a subscription, or shall have signed the roll or list of Members thereof; but in all proceedings under this Act no person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose subscription at the time shall have been in arrear for a period exceeding three months.

The governing body defined.

XVI. The governing body of the Society shall be the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other body to whom by the Rules and Regulations of the Society the management of its affairs is entrusted.

Registration of Societies formed before this Act.

XVII. Any Company or Society established for a Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose and registered under Act XLIII of 1850, or any such Society established and constituted previously to the passing of this Act but not registered under the said Act XLIII of 1850, may at any time hereafter be registered as a Society under this Act; subject to the proviso that no such Company or Society shall be registered under this Act unless an assent to its being so registered has been given by three-fifths of the Members present personally, or by proxy, at some General Meeting convened for that purpose by the governing body. In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth.

Such Societies to file Memorandum, &c., with Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies.

XVIII. In order to any such Society as is mentioned in the last preceding Section obtaining registry under this Act, it shall be sufficient that the governing body file with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, under Act XIX of 1857, a Memorandum showing the name of the Society, the objects of the Society, and the names, addresses, and occupations of the governing body, together with a copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society certified as provided in Section II, and a copy of the report of the Proceedings of the General Meeting at which the registration was resolved on.

Inspection of documents.

Certified copies.

XIX. Any person may inspect all documents filed with the Registrar under this Act on payment of a fee of one Rupee for each inspection; and any person may require a copy or extract of any document or any part of any document, to be certified by the Registrar, on payment of two annas for every hundred words of such copy or extract; and such certified copy shall be primâ facie evidence of the matters therein contained in all legal proceedings whatever.

To what Societies the Act shall apply.

XX. The following Societies may be registered under this Act: Charitable Societies, Societies established for the promotion of Science, Literature, or the Fine Arts, for instruction, the diffusion of useful knowledge, the foundation or maintenance of Libraries or Reading-rooms for general use among the Members or open to the Public, or Public Museums and Galleries of Paintings and other works of Art, Collections of Natural History, Mechanical and Philosophical Inventions, Instruments, or Designs.

W. Morgan,
Clerk of the Council.

The 20th November 1858.

The following Bill was read a first time on the 20th October 1858. The second reading has been postponed for four months, in order that the Bill may be published with a view to elicit the opinions of the public generally upon the subject of Judicial Oaths and Affirmations :—

A Bill concerning Oaths and Affirmations.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to Oaths and Affirmations ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

Acts repealed.

I. Acts V of 1840, and II of 1847, are hereby repealed.

Person required to make oath in any Court &c., shall be sworn in manner most binding on his conscience.

II. In all cases in which at present any person is required to make oath or affirmation in any Court of Justice, or before any person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, such person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be sworn to speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth (or in the case of a juror, to give a true verdict according to the evidence) in the manner that may be considered most binding on the conscience of such person, by the Court or person before whom such person may be examined.

Affirmation in certain cases.

III. Provided always that, if a person be of a rank which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel him or her to take an oath, or if any person have conscientious scruples against taking an oath, the Court or person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, may dispense with such person being sworn, provided that such person shall make the following affirmation—

"I solemnly affirm that what I shall state in the matter now under investigation shall be the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

Or if the person be a juror—

"I solemnly affirm that I will give a true verdict according to the evidence."

Punishment for false statement upon oath.

IV. If any person, making such oath or affirmation as aforesaid, shall wilfully and falsely state for truth that which he knows or believes to be false, or which he does not know or believe to be true, such person shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of perjury and giving false evidence.

Punishment for causing or procuring another to make false statement upon oath.

V. Any person causing or procuring another to commit the offence defined in the last preceding Section, shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of subornation of perjury, or causing or procuring false evidence.

Act not to interfere with certain provisions of Act II of 1855.

VI. Nothing in this Act shall be held to interfere with the provisions of Sections XV and XVI of Act II of 1855 (for the further improvement of the Law of Evidence), which enact that any person who, by reason of immature age, or want of religious belief, or by reason of defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of the Court or person before whom his or her attendance is required, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on a simple affirmation that he or she will speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that the same provision shall apply to testimony given by affidavit or otherwise ; and the provisions of the said Sections shall have the same force and effect as if this Act had not been passed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 27TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 27th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of March next :—

A Bill for the establishment of Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter.

WHEREAS, with a view to the more easy recovery of small debts and demands, it is expedient to establish Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter at the several Presidencies of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

Constitution of Small Cause Courts.

I. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government of any of the said Presidencies or of any place, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, to constitute Courts of Small Causes, with the required establishment of Officers, at any place within the limits of their respective Governments, for the trial of suits under this Act. Whenever any such Court may be so constituted, the Executive Government shall fix the territorial jurisdiction of such Court, and may, from time to time, alter the same as may appear proper.

Limits of territorial jurisdiction to be fixed.

Certain existing Courts may be invested with Small Cause jurisdiction.

II. It shall also be lawful for any such Executive Government to invest any Court subordinate to a District Court, now existing or which may hereafter be established within the limits of their respective Governments, with Small Cause jurisdiction for the trial of suits made cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act.

Description of suits cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

III. The following are the suits which shall be cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act, namely, claims for money due, whether on bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of five hundred Rupees.

Proviso.

Provided that no action shall lie in any such Court on a balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents ; or for a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or for a legacy or part of a legacy under a will ; or for any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for which claim or for any part whereof a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department if commenced in due time ; or for the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

Seal of the Court.

IV. Every Court constituted under this Act shall use a seal, bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court——"Court of Small Causes of ;" and every such Court shall be a Court of Record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the District and of the Sudder Court.

Court to be a Court of Record, and to be generally subject to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

Language to be used in proceedings.

V. The language to be used in the proceedings of the Courts constituted under this Act, shall be the same as that in use in the principal Court of Civil jurisdiction in the District in which such Courts are established.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

VI. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted or invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act ; and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, or personally work for gain, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court.

Suits cognizable by a Small Cause Court under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

VII. Whenever a Court of Small Causes is constituted under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which shall arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in such Court, and shall not be cognizable, except in the way of appeal, in any other Court. In like manner whenever any Court is invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which may arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Saving of jurisdiction of Magistrates &c—

VIII. Nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate, can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature ; or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayets under Regulation VII. 1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and Stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies, respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—

of Military Courts of Request—

of Single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

Courts where to be held.

IX. Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act shall be held at such place or places within the local limits of their respective jurisdictions as shall be appointed by the local Government to which such Courts are subordinate.

Time of holding Courts, if they be directed to be held in more places than one.

X. Whenever any such Court is directed to be held at more places than one within the local limits of its jurisdiction, the Judge of such Court, subject to the control of the Judge of the District, shall appoint the time at which the Court shall hold its sittings in every such place. Due notice of the time so appointed shall be given by a proclamation to be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Court-house or other building in which the sittings of the Court are to be held.

Procedure.

XI. The procedure to be observed in the trial of cases cognizable under this Act, shall be that prescribed in Act (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter), and the provisions of that Act, unless otherwise herein provided, shall be applicable to cases tried under this Act.

Decision in certain suits to be final.

XII. In suits tried under this Act, the decision of the Court shall be final, if the amount or value of the property in dispute shall not exceed the sum of fifty Rupees ; but if it exceed that sum, an appeal shall lie from the decision to the District Court, and the decision of the District Court upon the appeal, if any, shall be final.

Appeal to District Court if value of property in dispute exceed fifty Rupees.

Decision of District Court final.

Court may refer questions of law &c. to Sudder Court.

XIII. If in the trial of any suit under this Act, whether originally or in appeal, any question of law or usage having the force of law or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision shall arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, the Court may either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, draw up a statement of the case and submit it, with its own opinion, for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

XIV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred ; but no execution shall be issued in any case in which a reference may be made to the Sudder Court, until the receipt of the order of that Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

XV. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

XVI. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court-house of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

XVII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

XVIII. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, o the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

XIX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

New trial.

XX. In cases decided under this Act, in which no appeal is allowed, or if allowed, in which no appeal may have been preferred, it shall be competent to the Court which decided the case, to grant one new trial if applied for within the period of thirty days from the date of the decision, unless the party making the application can show just and reasonable cause for not having preferred the same within that period.

with the Governor General.

SIR

I HAVE the honor to forward a letter in original, from Major A. Hume, of the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, Commanding at Durriabad, No. 41, of the 7th instant, reporting the defeat of a considerable body of Rebels who had occupied Kintoor, and threatened a further advance.

2. The Commander-in-Chief has directed me to request you will bring to the notice of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, the vigour and promptitude displayed by Major Hume, throughout his operations; and also the excellent services rendered on this occasion by Ensign P. Roddy and others, prominently engaged.

3. Lord Clyde would also draw the marked attention of the Governor General, to the valuable aid afforded by the Rajah of Kuppurthullah, and the readiness of his Troops, who bore the brunt of the day.

No. 41.

To Major Hamilton,

Assistant Adjutant General,

Oude Force, Sultanpore.

Camp Durriabad, 7th October 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major General Sir J. H. Grant, K. C. B., Commanding Oudh Force, that I received intimation from Mr. Bradford, the Assistant Commissioner, on the 5th instant, of a body of the Madahewa Rebels having advanced and occupied Kintoor, distance 10 miles from this north-east, and Buddoo Serai, to the north-west, a mile and a half from there, pushing on their picquets about a mile and a half towards us. I sent out a Cavalry Patrol on the 5th instant, to reconnoitre the enemy's position, and finding that they were likely to remain there, I determined upon moving to attack them, with the force as per margin. I accordingly marched from this, at half past 2 o'clock A. M., for Kintoor, taking the European Infantry on elephants, and using bullocks to draw the Artillery, thereby easing the horses and enabling all to go fresh into action. I halted a short time before daybreak, and about 6 o'clock the enemy's advanced picquet was distinctly visible, upon which I ordered the Cavalry to drive in the same, and ascertain the exact position of the main body of the Rebels, directing at the same time the guns of the European Artillery, under Lieutenant Swinton, and Kuppurthullah Contingent under Ensign Roddy, to be immediately horsed, and proceed to the front as quickly as possible, which was accomplished most satisfactorily, having 3 miles to gallop up to them. Ensign Roddy's guns were the first to open on the Rebel Cavalry, reported to be some of the late 3rd Light Cavalry of Meerut notoriety, under the Command of a Havildar Major of the same Corps, and who had drawn up his men in good order, sounding the different Cavalry calls, and apparently with the intention of charging, when Ensign Roddy sent grape into their ranks, the first discharge emptying six saddles, and causing the Commandant to retire himself, and a few more rounds threw them into confusion, and they retreated. The only gun that opened on us now received Ensign Roddy's attention; the first round shot knocking over three of the gun bullocks in one yoke, having passed through two, and lodged in the third, and the gun was shortly after captured by Ensign Roddy's guns, when he immediately pursued the retreating enemy for 5 miles, accompanied by the Cavalry, and as he drove the enemy from Kintoor towards Buddu Serai, they were followed up by the Cavalry and intercepted by the European Artillery, placed on a commanding eminence, so as to cut off their retreat to the latter place, which was most effectually done. The chief work of the day devolved on the Kuppurthulla Contingent guns, under Ensign Roddy, Hodson's Horse, under Lieutenant Battye, of the 19th Native Infantry, doing duty with the Bengal Fusiliers, and the Kuppurthullah Cavalry, under Lieutenant Woodgate, 11th Native Infantry. These Officers, with their respective Troops, forming the pursuing force, with 100 men of the Oudh Military Police, whilst the European guns under Lieutenant Swinton occupied the left position towards Buddu Serai, and held the enemy in check there.

2. The enemy were estimated at 3,000 Infantry and 200 or 300 Cavalry, and 4 guns, originally; but from getting intelligence the previous night of our intended attack, they removed some of their guns at once and the only one which opened on us was captured, a copper 9-pounder of native manufacture. I was not aware of this gun being taken until the return of Ensign Roddy, when he reported the same, and concluding that we should follow in his rear and so take charge whilst he was in pursuit, did not send to inform me of it. I immediately started off with Lieutenant Chamier, Assistant Commissioner, Lieutenant Morland, my Orderly Officer, and 100 Sowars of the Oudh Police, under Lieutenant Sadlier, to obtain the gun, which we found had been removed by the enemy, and after following the track of the carriage for about 4 miles at a sharp gallop, we sighted the Cavalry retreating far in advance. We pursued as far as was judicious, and on our return found the gun and bullocks deserted near the spot where we first saw the enemy's Cavalry retreating. On my return after this, I placed the Troops in topes for the remainder of the day, no opportunity having offered of the Infantry being engaged, though I believe that the fact of seeing them in the distance on elephants, had a wonderful effect on the Rebels in causing them to retreat rapidly.

3. Every thing passed off most satisfactorily, and the severe chastisement the enemy have received will, I hope, prove beneficial, 450 having been killed, including some natives of rank, added to which we burnt their camp, captured an elephant, 10 camels and several bullocks, some with the Government brand, and destroyed their ammunition and new gun limbers, which were being made. Their dead were lying quite thick, 50 in one space, and 30 in another altogether. Mr. Bradford, the Assistant Commissioner, reports that from native information alone the affair was most complete; the Casualties on our side are very trifling, being 4 men wounded, 7 horses wounded and 1 killed.

4. My best thanks are due to Lieutenant Chamier Assistant Commissioner, Durriabad, and in Political charge Kuppurthullah Contingent, for his most valuable assistance on this as also previous occasions; to Lieutenant Sadlier, Commanding Detachment Oudh Military Police, who at my solicitation deferred his march from this for a day, and kindly placed his services and that of his Cavalry at my disposal, this augmentation to that branch in which we are deficient being most acceptable; and the meritorious conduct of Kote Duffadar Phoola Singh, of the Oudh Military Police Cavalry, having been brought to my notice by Lieutenant Sadlier, as being severely wounded when engaged with three of the enemy. I have much pleasure in recommending him to favorable consideration; also to Lieutenant Hamilton Maxwell, my Detachment Staff; as also Lieutenant Morland, my Orderly Officer, both of whom were most active and energetic in the performance of their respective duties; and to Lieutenant Swinton, Commanding the European Artillery; and Ensign Roddy, of the Kuppurthullah Contingent, for their excellent practice and great execution, as also to Lieutenant Woodgate, 11th Native Infantry, Commanding the Rajah's Cavalry, and Lieutenant Battye, 19th Native Infantry, Commanding Detachment Hodson's Horse, both of whom, aided by Unattached Ensign Nuthall, belonging to the Punjab Sappers, who volunteered to do duty with Hodson's Horse, as he was remaining at Durriabad for the day, and who, I am informed, killed three men himself; my thanks are equally due for their exertions in pursuit of the enemy.

5. His Highness the Rajah of Kuppurthullah and his brother accompanied the Column, and remained with the same during, and was highly gratified with the favorable result of the day's labors.

6. The Rebel leaders are reported to be four, viz.:—
Collector Darakhaie, relative of Mummo Khan.
Darogah of the Begum.
Ditto Abid Khan, ditto ditto ditto.
Abson Khan, Major-General.
Mahomed Ameer Khan, Eunuch,
all of whom made an early retreat leaving their

Troops to follow. Several Seikhs are reported to have been fighting against us, and some of them were killed; one taken prisoner, states that the Rebels thought the Contingent would attack them alone, as at Kuthiya, without Europeans, in which case they purposed standing, but finding the Europeans make their appearance they determined upon not remaining to see them.

7. I beg to enclose a return of Killed and Wounded

To Lieutenant-Colonel Mayhew,
Adjutant General of the Army,
Head Quarters, Allahabad.

Camp Bustee, District of Goruckpore,
The 7th October 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to transmit to you, for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying Report from Captain Howlett, 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, Commanding the out-post at Bansee, of two successful actions with the enemy, about 1,200 or 1,500 strong near Chittiah, about 6 miles from Bansee, on the 28th and 30th September with the Detachments under his command, of the 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, 2nd Seikh Military Police Battalion, a Troop 6th Madras Cavalry, and one of the Bansee Rajah's guns, on the first day; and on the second day with the re-inforcement sent up from Bustee of 2 guns and 30 men Pearl's Naval Brigade, 70 men 13th Light Infantry, and half a Troop Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry. On the 28th the enemy suffered a loss of about 50 killed and wounded. On the 30th the enemy were driven from a very strong position, but few are reported to be killed in this attack, as immediately the guns opened they rapidly retired over a difficult and swampy country, pursued by our Troops for a considerable distance, and making for the westward towards Biskohur and the forest.

2. In the first action one of their leaders was killed, and another leader, a Subadar, had his horse shot under him, and in the retreat was murdered by the Rebels, accused of having got them into difficulty and trouble.

3. I am happy to say, our Casualty List is very light.

4. The good conduct, zeal, and cheerful alacrity of the Officers and Troops of all arms, in bad wet weather, and over a difficult country, is highly spoken of, and I beg to recommend them and Captain Howlett, Commanding the Detachment, to the most favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

I have, &c.,

To the Brigade Major,
Bustee.

Sir,

I reported on the evening of the 27th ultimo, my intention of bridging the Parassy Nuddee, in readiness for offensive movements against the Rebels, who, to the number of about 2,000, occupied an entrenched position in Chettiah, and the neighbouring villages, three coss north of Bansee.

2. Accordingly, early on the 28th, I took out coolies and materials, with an escort of 120 men of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, under Captain Kenney. On reaching the river's bank my advanced guard was met by a sharp file fire from the Rebel picquets, who were soon after supported by their main body. The swell of the ground, and much brushwood afforded them good cover, and the bend of the river upon our right flank exposed us to the fire of their left, where they brought their gun and zumbooruk to bear upon us: there was also some brushwood on our side of the river, under cover of which I extended my men and returned the fire, sending back on Bansee for a gun and more Troops, and constructing menwhile a raft with which to force a passage. This was ready in about three hours, during which time a constant interchange of fire had been kept up. I then crossed over with all my force, seizing a village which covered the right flank of the Rebels. Here very heavy rain, which had been falling for a considerable time, and the lateness of the hour, induced me to halt, as I could not expect to accomplish more before dark. Next morning the European reinforcements from Bustee arrived, and I marched on Chettiah with the force detailed in the margin. I found the place evacuated and halted here, in consequence of violent and continued rain, and my information regarding the exact position of the Rebels being unsatisfactory.

6th Madras Light Cavalry ..	42
Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry	70
27th Madras Native Infantry	180

3. Next morning again I marched westward, and soon after day light, came up with the enemy, who held a strong position, and seemed inclined to fight, for they had thrown out skirmishers to meet us, but their courage failed as we advanced, and a shell or two from the Naval guns decided them. They fled, and we pursued them for fully 4 miles, till they obtained the cover of the jungle; the difficult nature of the ground precluded the efficient use of Cavalry.

4. Our attack has had the effect of completely disheartening the Rebels, who are clearing quickly out of the District, making, as I believe, for Oude.

5. I have not been able to learn the exact loss of the Rebels. On the 20th their loss was certainly upwards of 50 killed and wounded, besides two of their Sirdars; they also burst their gun on that occasion, but on the 30th they got away with less damage.

6. I have the satisfaction, in concluding, of recommending to the Brigadier's notice the praiseworthy zeal and energy alike displayed by Officers and Men in these two affairs, especially in that of the Parrassy Nuddee, when the men showed great coolness and steadiness under fire. The names of Assistant Apothecary Sansman and a Naique, and Private of the 27th Madras Native Infantry, were particularly brought to my notice.

I think it due also to Lieutenant Pullan, Commanding Seikh Detachment, to mention that this Officer's local knowledge has enabled him to render me much assistance.

2. I am also to request that you will bring the judicious conduct of Major G. Carr, of the Madras Rifles, who Commanded the Troops, to the favorable notice of His Lordship; and express His Excellency's deep regret at the loss of those two very distinguished Officers, Captain Nason, of the Military Train Corps, and Captain Douglas, of the 4th Madras Light Cavalry, both of whom fell nobly in the discharge of their duty in the action near Keree.

HEAD QUARTERS,
ALLAHABAD,
The 18th October 1858.

No. 158.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Army Head Quarters, Allahabad,
Left Bank of the Soane.

Camp Koelwar, 11th October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief a report from Lieutenant-Colonel Dunsford, C. B., Commanding at Buxar, of an expedition despatched by him up the Kurrumnassa River, with the intention of surprising (if possible) Megha Rao, a Rebel Chief who has been for some time past plundering the Zemaniah portion of the District of Ghazeepore.

2. This expedition,—though from the circumstances under which it was undertaken, and from defective information,—only partially successful,—reflects great credit on Major Carr, Madras Rifles, to whom the command was entrusted.

3. The punishment inflicted on the Rebels was severe, and will no doubt produce beneficial effect in the District.

4. I am unable to express my grief at the loss to the service of two such good and dashing Cavalry Officers, as Captain Nason, Military Train, and Captain Douglas, 4th Madras Light Cavalry. They were both brave to a fault, and both had greatly distinguished themselves. Both were shot through the body at the head of their respective Troops, almost at the same moment. Captain Nason deliberately charged a Sepoy, who stood to receive him with a loaded musket and bayonet; he was so close that his body was blackened by the powder

Captain Douglas ran the man through and was almost immediately shot, but strange to say, he cut down two Sepoys after receiving his death-wound. I had counted on both these Officers, in my present operations for important commands, and their loss to me at this moment, is irreparable.

Although the great disproportion between the loss in Officers and Men, (of whom several are slightly wounded) may lead at first sight to the inference that the latter did not heartily support their Officers; this is, by no means the case. Major Carr speaks in the highest terms of the gallant bearing of the Soldiers, both of the Military Train and the 4th Madras Cavalry; and my personal observation of their conduct in all cases in the field, fully bears out and corroborates this opinion.

No return of the number of horses wounded has reached me; but this will be obtained and forwarded hereafter.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) JOHN DOUGLAS, Brigadier,
Commanding in the disturbed Districts of Behar and Ghazeepore.

FROM LIEUT.-COL. H. F. DUNSFORD, C. B.,
Commanding at Buxar,

TO MAJOR SIR H. HAVELOCK, BART.,
Deputy. Asst. Adjt.-General,
with Brigadier Douglas, C. B.,
Dinapore.

Dated Camp Buxar, 8th October 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Douglas, C. B., that having learnt from my spies that Megha Rao, a resident of Gohumr, (who has lately assembled a number of men about him) was at the head of about four hundred Sepoys, levying contributions in the Chowsa District I determined to take advantage of a great rise in the River Kurrumnassa, to try and effect his capture. For this purpose, I had previously sent up the gun-boat "Benares," under her energetic enterprising Commander Mr. Browne, who reported he could with safety take up about two hundred men as far as Dehree. On the evening of the 6th instant, therefore, I detailed the party as per margin, sending the Infantry by Steamer and the Cavalry around vid Chowsa, with orders to meet the Infantry at a place to be appointed by Major Carr, of the Madras Rifles, whom I had named to command the expedition, and whose report I beg to enclose. The lamented loss of the two gallant Cavalry Leaders, Captain Nason, Military Train, and Captain Douglas, 4th Madras Cavalry, has greatly dimmed this otherwise most successful expedition, in which all behaved so cheerfully and well. The loss to the enemy of so many Sepoys will no doubt be severely felt, but still greater will be the moral effect of a surprise upon a Rebel Chief, who has hitherto carried on his depredations unmolested. Megha Rao is said to have been of the party, but was probably one of the first to make his escape.

Military Train 1 Troop, commanded by Capt. Nason, 4th Madras Cavy., 1 Troop, commanded by Captain Douglas, and afterwards by Lieutenant Galloway.
Her Majesty's 84th, 100 Bayonets, commanded by Captain Snow.
Madras Rifles, 32 Bayonets, commanded by Captain Barclay, 68th Regt. N. I.
20th Regt. Punjab Infantry 53 Bayonets, under command of Lieut. Jarrett.
The whole commanded by Major Carr, of the Madras Rifles.

I had been given to understand that Keree, a village not marked in the Map, was only about 4 miles from Dehree, whereas Major Carr reported it to be much more, and that instead of being landed at Dehree the march was much lengthened by the Troops having been disembarked by mistake, at a short distance South of Soompa.

In conclusion, I would beg to report, that the Kurrumnassa has been cleared of all boats, and communication with the Ghazeepore side, I hope, effectually cut off.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. F. DUNSFORD, Lieut.-Col.,
Commanding Buxar.

To LIEUTENANT COLONEL DUNSFORD, C. B.,
Commanding Buxar.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform you, that agreeably to your instructions, I embarked with 100 men of Her Majesty's 84th Foot, under Captain Snow, 32 men of the Madras Rifles, under Captain Barclay, of the 68th Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, and 53 men of the 20th Punjaub Infantry, under Lieutenant Jarrett, at 11 P. M. of the 6th instant, and proceeded as previously arranged up the Kurrumnassa River to Dehree, where I expected to meet a Troop of the Military Train under Captain Nason, and a Troop of the 4th Madras Light Cavalry, under Captain Douglas, who had command of the Cavalry portion of the expedition.

Through faulty information we landed some 3 miles short of Dehree, at 5 A. M. of the 7th instant, and it was consequently some time before I could arrange for the Cavalry to join me. On their doing so, I requested Captain Douglas to push on to the village of Keree, which, as the Head Quarters of Megha Rao Sing was the object of the expedition, with directions to surround the village, so as to prevent the escape of the Rebels whom I expected to find to the number of two and three hundred, with the usual complement of budmashes, until I came up with the Infantry portion of the Force. Keree was reported to me only two koss from Dehree; it was fully nine miles.

Captain Douglas accordingly proceeded, but when he arrived about two miles from Keree; he encountered a body of the enemy of fully 300 Sepoys, who had either come out to meet the Force, or were proceeding on a plundering expedition. The Rebels took post on a low marshy ground, amongst standing corn, or rather advanced to meet the advance of the Cavalry who were three quarters of a mile in advance of the Infantry. The Cavalry charged and broke the Rebels, who, on retiring and fighting desperately, lost a number.

Mr. Garstin, the Magistrate, who accompanied the expedition, counted in one place 38 bodies all of Sepoys; in the standing corn where the first collision took place, a greater number are said to have been killed; five more were killed in the village of Keree; and I think I may say that sixty is below the number of those who were killed.

The enemy were completely broken, but our victory was purchased dearly. In almost the first conflict, the gallant Nason fell, shot [redacted] seconds afterwards, the gallant Douglas received a mortal wound, from which he has since died. Both these invaluable Officers were shot in the same place; in the centre of the body.

The horses of the Cavalry being completely worn out, they halted; I came up with the Infantry, but the enemy had all disappeared.

I advanced on the village of Keree, with the whole Force, fully expecting that the village was occupied. I formed the Detachment in regular order, sending the Cavalry, divided into two equal portions, on the right and left of the village; the Infantry advanced on and into it; the village, which was a very long one was completely deserted; according to instruction it was set fire to, but with only partial success, as the houses were all tiled; however a good deal of it was destroyed.

I remained with the whole Force at Keree until 2 P. M; the object of the expedition being then fully accomplished, I commenced my march back to the Steamer, which I reached at 8 P. M. The force of the sun was dreadful, and the brave Soldiers of Her Majesty's 84th Foot suffered very much; a number of them were struck down by the sun, but by God's blessing, on the untiring efforts of Assistant Surgeon Eteson, of the 20th Punjab Infantry, none died.

Instead of 4 miles to Keree, and 4 back as you were led to believe, we had to march upwards of 24 miles before we got back to the Steamer. The Infantry portion of the Force arrived back here at 3 A. M. to-day. The Cavalry, who from the time they started from Buxar, to the time of their return, a little more than twenty-four hours, had marched fully fifty miles, had fought an action in dreadfully swampy ground, got back here a short time before us.

I have the honor to bear my testimony to the good conduct and perseverance of all the Force, and the cheerful endurance of a very trying day's labour.

I would wish particularly to notice the exertions of Assistant Surgeon Eteson, who being the only Medical Officer with the Force, performed the duty of two Medical Officers, to the satisfaction of all.

Three men of the Military Train and one of the 4th Madras Light Cavalry, were slightly wounded; many horses were wounded more or less, and one belonging to the Military Train being unable to move, I ordered it to be shot.

I have, &c.,

Sir,

I have the honor to forward to you the accompanying extract of a letter from the Officer commanding at Sundeela, who has sent 120 Seikhs to occupy Bharut Sing's fort, whilst his men occupy the other.

Colonel Purnell, C. B., reports that on the 10th instant, he sent 100 Sowars under Lieutenant Mitford, of Hodson's Horse, to relieve a friendly Zemindar, (at Bibipore, 15 miles from Nawabgunge,) who was being besieged by Sepoys. On the approach of the party, the Sepoys took refuge in a house, and Lieutenant Mitford, forcing an entrance with 20 dismounted men, killed 11 and made prisoners of nine others, whom he brought back to Camp, together with the muskets and accoutrements of the whole party.

The 8*th October* 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to transmit for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, a report from Captain Garrard, 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, Commanding the outpost of Amorha, of an attack made on his post by the Rebel Force, about 1,200 strong, with 2 guns, from the westward, under Benee Singh, on the 1st October, when the enemy were completely defeated and pursued for a considerable distance, losing, as stated by late reports, about 150 killed and wounded.

2. The repulse and defeat of the enemy appear to have been very ably managed by Captain Garrard.

3. The Pearl's Naval Brigade men under Lieutenants Fawkes and Macquay are very favorably mentioned on the occasion. One of their guns in the pursuit was got up close to the Rebels, doing good execution. Captain Rowley, Commanding a Party of Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and Lieutenant MacDonald, Commanding Troop 6th Madras Cavalry, are also very favorably mentioned; and I beg to recommend the Officers and Men of all Arms, for their zeal and gallantry, to the most favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

4. I beg to mention that Havildar Syed Modeen, Jemadar Emam Khan, Trumpeter Offerman, and Trooper Noor Khan, of the 6th Madras Cavalry, have been particularly brought to my notice, for their gallant forward conduct: the first named cutting down and killing three, the others, each two of the Rebels, and to solicit such notice of their zealous bearing, as the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief may deem them deserving of. I am happy to report that our casualty list is very light.

FROM CAPTAIN F. T. GARRARD,

TO THE BRIGADE MAJOR,

Goruckpore Field Force.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Officer Commanding the Goruckpore Field Force, that the enemy from Lumpti, 1,200 strong, with two guns under Banee Sing attacked Amorha, yesterday, in front, a further body 600 strong with 2 guns from Jugdespore, threatening it on the right and rear. My Detachment* occupied posts in a semi-circle, at 600 yards out-side the entrenchment, the guns in the centre and Cavalry in rear of the left. The action commenced at 2½ P. M., and by 4½ the Rebels commenced retiring. Leaving the rest of my Force in position to meet the expected attack from Jugdespore, I pursued with the Seikhs, the Cavalry and one gun, with half the Naval Brigade, and 30 of Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry in support. Heavy rain rendered the matchlocks of the Rebels useless, and overtaking them at three miles from this, we cut up a good many. Lieutenant MacDonell, Commanding the Cavalry, reports highly of Havildar Syud Modeen, who cut down three and was most forward. Also of Jemadar Emam Khan, Trumpeter Offerman, and Trooper Noor Khan, each of whom killed two Rebels, and did their duty right well. The enemy are said to have lost 200, of whom 35 have been accounted for as killed, and 40 wounded; of the remainder nothing certain is known. I have to express my thanks to Captain Rowley, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry; Lieutenants Fawkes and Macquay of the Naval Brigade; and Lieutenant MacDonell of the Cavalry, as well as to the men under their Command, for their zeal and gallantry throughout the affair.

The Thannadar of Amorha has given me much satisfaction on account of the correct intelligence procured by him.

I beg to enclose a list of casualties in the Force.

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5681, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a first time on the 6th November 1858. The second reading has been postponed for four months, in order that the Bill may be published with a view to elicit the opinions of the public generally upon the subject of Judicial Oaths and Affirmations :—

A Bill concerning Oaths and Affirmations.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to Oaths and Affirmations; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Acts repealed.

I. Acts V of 1840, and II of 1847, are hereby repealed.

Person required to make oath in any Court &c., shall be sworn in manner most binding on his conscience.

II. In all cases in which at present any person is required to make oath or affirmation in any Court of Justice, or before any person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, such person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be sworn to speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth (or in the case of a juror, to give a true verdict according to the evidence) in the manner that may be considered most binding on the conscience of such person, by the Court or person before whom such person may be examined.

Affirmation in certain cases.

III. Provided always that, if a person be of a rank which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel him or her to take an oath, or if any person have conscientious scruples against taking an oath, the Court or person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, may dispense with such person being sworn, provided that such person shall make the following affirmation—

"I solemnly affirm that what I shall state in the matter now under investigation shall be the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

Or if the person be a juror—

"I solemnly affirm that I will give a true verdict according to the evidence."

Punishment for false statement upon oath.

IV. If any person, making such oath or affirmation as aforesaid, shall wilfully and falsely state for truth that which he knows or believes to be false, or which he does not know or believe to be true, such person shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of perjury and giving false evidence.

Punishment for causing or procuring another to make false statement upon oath.

V. Any person causing or procuring another to commit the offence defined in the last preceding Section, shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of subornation of perjury, or causing or procuring false evidence.

Act not to interfere with certain provisions of Act II of 1855.

VI. Nothing in this Act shall be held to interfere with the provisions of Sections XV and XVI of Act II of 1855 (for the further improvement of the Law of Evidence), which enact that any person who, by reason of immature age, or want of religious belief, or by reason of defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of the Court or person before whom his or her attendance is required, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on a simple affirmation that he or she will speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that the same provision shall apply to testimony given by affidavit or otherwise; and the provisions of the said Sections shall have the same force and effect as if this Act had not been passed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 27TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 27th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of March next:—

A Bill for the establishment of Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, with a view to the more easy recovery of small debts and demands, it is expedient to establish Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter at the several Presidencies of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; It is enacted as follows:—

Constitution of Small Cause Courts.

I. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government of any of the said Presidencies or of any place, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, to constitute Courts of Small Causes, with the required establishment of Officers, at any place within the limits of their respective Governments, for the trial of suits under this Act. Whenever any such Court may be so constituted,

Limits of territorial jurisdiction to be fixed.

the Executive Government shall fix the territorial jurisdiction of such Court, and may, from time to time, alter the same as may appear proper.

Certain existing Courts may be invested with Small Cause jurisdiction.

II. It shall also be lawful for any such Executive Government to invest any Court subordinate to a District Court, now existing or which may hereafter be established within the limits of their respective Governments, with Small Cause jurisdiction for the trial of suits made cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act.

Description of suits cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

III. The following are the suits which shall be cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act, namely, claims for money due, whether on bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of five hundred Rupees. Provided that no action shall lie in any such Court on a balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents; or for a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or for a legacy or part of a legacy under a will; or for any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for which claim or for any part whereof a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department if commenced in due time; or for the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

Seal of the Court.

IV. Every Court constituted under this Act shall use a seal, bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court——"Court of Small Causes of ;" and

Court to be a Court of Record, and to be generally subject to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

every such Court shall be a Court of Record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the District and of the Sudder Court.

Language to be used in proceedings.

V. The language to be used in the proceedings of the Courts constituted under this Act, shall be the same as that in use in the principal Court of Civil jurisdiction in the District in which such Courts are established.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

VI. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted or invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act; and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, or personally work for gain, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court.

Suits cognizable by a Small Cause Court under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

VII. Whenever a Court of Small Causes is constituted under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which shall arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in such Court, and shall not be cognizable, except in the way of appeal, in any other Court. In like manner whenever any Court is invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which may arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Saving of jurisdiction of Magistrates &c—

VIII. Nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate, can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature; or the

of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—jurisdiction which can be exercised by Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayets under Regulation VII. 1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of

of Military Courts of Request—

of Single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and Stations occupied by the troops and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

of those Presidencies, respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Courts where to be held.

IX. Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act shall be held at such place or places within the local limits of their respective jurisdictions as shall be appointed by the local Government to which such Courts are subordinate.

Time of holding Courts, if they be directed to be held in more places than one.

X. Whenever any such Court is directed to be held at more places than one within the local limits of its jurisdiction, the Judge of such Court, subject to the control of the Judge of the District, shall appoint the time at which the Court shall hold its sittings in every such place. Due notice of the time so appointed shall be given by a proclamation to be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Court-house or other building in which the sittings of the Court are to be held.

Procedure.

XI. The procedure to be observed in the trial of cases cognizable under this Act, shall be that prescribed in Act (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter), and the provisions of that Act, unless otherwise herein provided, shall be applicable to cases tried under this Act.

Decision in certain suits to be final.

XII. In suits tried under this Act, the decision of the Court shall be final, if the amount or value of the property in dispute shall not exceed the sum of fifty Rupees; but if it exceed that sum, an appeal shall lie from the decision to the District Court, and the decision of the District Court upon the appeal, if any, shall be final.

Appeal to District Court if value of property in dispute exceed fifty Rupees.

Decision of District Court final.

Court may refer questions of law &c. to Sudder Court.

XIII. If in the trial of any suit under this Act, whether originally or in appeal, any question of law or usage having the force of law or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision shall arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, the Court may either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, draw up a statement of the case and submit it, with its own opinion, for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

XIV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; but no execution shall be issued in any case in which a reference may be made to the Sudder Court, until the receipt of the order of that Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

XV. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

XVI. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court-house of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

XVII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

XVIII. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, of the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

XIX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

New trial.

XX. In cases decided under this Act, in which no appeal is allowed, or if allowed, in which no appeal may have been preferred, it shall be competent to the Court which decided the case, to grant one new trial if applied for within the period of thirty days from the date of the decision, unless the party making the application can show just and reasonable cause for not having preferred the same within that period.

No. 66.

Fort William, the 30th October 1858.

Notifications.—The following Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, No. 78 of 1858, dated the 1st September, is published for general information:—

Letter from, dated 14th May 1858, No. 63.

Transmit copy of correspondence relative to an application from the Government of Bombay, soliciting a decision on two questions submitted by the Reverend G. N. Mitford, Assistant Chaplain, Bombay Establishment, viz.:—

1*st.*—"What period of Service as "distinguished from Residence, is "requisite to entitle a Chaplain to "the higher rate of Furlough Pay, "viz., £191-12-6 laid down, in 1841 "by the Hon'ble Court, as well as "for Pension."

2*nd.*—"Is the period of seven "years to be counted from the date "of Arrival, or must the time taken "under Medical Certificate be made "up by actual Service."

Para. 2. The term "Residence" in Section XXXI. of the Absentee Rules, and in paragraphs 2 and 3 of our Despatch in this Department dated 28th December 1855, No. 113, must be construed as "residence in actual Service," consequently a Chaplain will not be entitled to the higher rate of Furlough Allowance till he has completed seven years of actual Service, computed from the date of his arrival in India, nor will he be entitled to Pension on retirement until he has completed an actual Service, either of fifteen years if appointed before the 11th January 1854, or of seventeen years if appointed subsequently to that date. The time of absence passed on the ordinary Privilege Leave is, however, permitted to reckon as time spent on Service.

3. You were informed in paragraph 6 of our Despatch dated 15th September 1855, No. 78, that we did not require retrospective effect to be given to the new Rules, in respect of any leave which might have been taken by Chaplains in India previous to the date of their promulgation.

No. 67.

The 3rd December 1858.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. H. A. Mangles, 2nd Assistant Accountant General to the Government of India, three months' privilege leave under Section XII. of the Covenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules. Mr. S. G. Wyatt, 3rd Assistant Accountant General will officiate as 2nd Assistant Accountant General, and Mr. G. W. Kellner to officiate as 3rd Assistant Accountant General, during the absence of Mr. Mangles, or until further orders.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

C. Hugh Lushington,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Foreign Department.

Fort William, the 3rd December 1858.

No. 4011.

Notifications.—In the year 1855, a Public Officer serving under the Government of Bengal, with the cognizance of his immediate official superior, sold a house to a native gentleman living within his jurisdiction for 900 Rupees There was not the remotest reason to suppose that the sale was in any respect otherwise than a fair transaction, but the matter having in due course been reported to the Honorable Court of Directors, the Court were pleased, in a Despatch dated the 4th March last, to desire that sales of this description between public Servants in India and Natives within their jurisdiction or beyond, should be strictly prohibited. The President in Council is assured that pecuniary transactions of an objectionable nature between public Servants and Natives of India seldom, if ever, now occur, and has the fullest reliance on the honor of the Queen's Servants in all Departments; but transactions of the nature alluded to, though in themselves entirely fair, and perfectly free on both sides from all unworthy motives, are liable to misconstruction, and when misconstrued are no less mischievous in their effect than corrupt dealings. In conformity, therefore, with the instructions of the Honorable Court, all such sales are prohibited. Should a Public Officer be doubtful whether a transaction to which he desires to become a party comes within this prohibition, he will consult his superior Officer and be guided by the instructions he may receive. A controlling Officer consulted on such an occasion will dispose of the case himself, or refer it for the orders of Government, as he may consider proper.

Ordination.

The Right Reverend George Edward Lynch, Lord Bishop of Calcutta and Metropolitan, purposes to hold an Ordination of Priests and Deacons, in St. Paul's Cathedral, on Tuesday, the 25th January next, being the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

Divine Service will commence at 10 o'clock A. M., and the Sermon will be preached by the Reverend T. H. Burn, B. A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, Domestic Chaplain to the Lord Bishop.

Candidates for Holy Orders are desired to forward their Papers before Christmas Day, addressed to the Reverend Thomas Harris Burn, Bishop's Palace, Chowringhee, and those in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, to call at the Palace for a personal interview with the Bishop.

By desire of the Lord Bishop, dated at Calcutta this 17th day of November 1858,

William H. Abbott,
Registrar and Secretary.

Confirmation.

Notice is given, that the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Calcutta purposes to hold a Confirmation in the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, Calcutta, on Wednesday, the 2nd February 1859.

Divine Service will commence at 10 o'clock.

Candidates for Confirmation are requested, in mean time, to apply to their respective Ministers or to the Officiating Chaplains of their respective Districts, for the purpose of being examined, and, if approved, receiving the necessary Ticket.

By desire of the Lord Bishop, dated at Calcutta this 17th day of November 1858,

William H. Abbott,
Registrar and Secretary.

2. The general conditions of the Sale now advertized will be the same as usual. They may be ascertained by reference to the Notification issued on the 21st November 1857, and published in the Government and Exchange Gazettes, or on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue.

3. The latest dates for deposit and clearance will be the 11th and 21st December 1858 respectively, that is to say, no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, Company's Paper, or other Public Securities that may be tendered for deposit in redemption of Promissory Notes given by purchasers at the sale will be received after 4 P. M. of Saturday, the 11th December 1858, and no Treasury Receipts in full payment of lots will be accepted after 4 P. M. of Tuesday, the 21st December 1858.

By Order of the Board of Revenue,

Edw. Lushington,
Junior Secretary.

Fort William,
The 22nd November 1858.

Civil Auditor's Office.

Fort William, 11th November 1858.

Notification.—The attention of all Public Officers in the Civil Department, who have any Establishment under them, is requested to the subjoined paragraphs 2 and 3 of a Resolution of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 28th September last, cancelling that of 19th March preceding, which limited the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year and in making it discretional with Heads of Offices to grant such Leave in case of sickness, death of near relative or any similar occasion. Leave granted under this Resolution by Heads of Offices need not be exhibited in the Monthly Statements which accompany Pay Abstracts. Any entry of Casual Leave in future Statements will subject the party against whose name it is made to loss of salary under Section V. of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, there being since the issue of the Orders now notified no other free Leave than that under Section VII.

W. P. Palmer,
Civil Auditor.

Extract Paras. 2 and 3 of the Financial Resolution, No. 5681, dated the 28th September 1858.

Para. 2. In respect to Casual Leave, His Honor in Council directs, after a careful consideration of the difficulties and inconvenience which an attempt to regulate such Leave by general Rules is apt to produce, that the Financial Resolution of 19th March 1858, which limits the grant of Casual Leave to fifteen days in every Calendar Year be cancelled; and that it be left to the Heads of Offices, subject to the orders of their own Government, to grant, at their discretion, Casual Leave of absence from Office in case of sickness, death of near relatives, &c., on condition that the Local Government shall see that the discretionary power to be placed in the Heads of Offices is not abused.

Para. 3. Such casual absences from Office should not be reported to the Civil Auditor, but they should be systematically entered in a Book to be kept in each Office, and when an application for Privilege Leave may be received, the Leave should be granted or refused with some reference to the entries in the Book. Reports, however, should be made as at present to the Civil Auditor, in respect to the other descriptions of leave mentioned in the first part of this Resolution.

(A True Extract).

W. P. Palmer,
Civil Auditor.

Notification.

The Civil Treasury at Oonao (Poorwah District) in Oude having resumed operations, Bills drawn by the Officer in charge of that Treasury are to be duly honored. Until further orders, it is not to be drawn upon except when absolutely necessary and on the Public Service only.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a first time on the 6th November 1858. The second reading has been postponed for four months, in order that the Bill may be published with a view to elicit the opinions of the public generally upon the subject of Judicial Oaths and Affirmations :—

A Bill concerning Oaths and Affirmations.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to Oaths and Affirmations ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Acts repealed. I. Acts V of 1840, and II of 1847, are hereby repealed.

Person required to make oath in any Court &c., shall be sworn in manner most binding on his conscience. II. In all cases in which at present any person is required to make oath or affirmation in any Court of Justice, or before any person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, such person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be sworn to speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth (or in the case of a juror, to give a true verdict according to the evidence) in the manner that may be considered most binding on the conscience of such person, by the Court or person before whom such person may be examined.

Affirmation in certain cases. III. Provided always that, if a person be of a rank which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel him or her to take an oath, or if any person have conscientious scruples against taking an oath, the Court or person empowered by law to administer oaths or affirmations, may dispense with such person being sworn, provided that such person shall make the following affirmation—

"I solemnly affirm that what I shall state in the matter now under investigation shall be the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

Or if the person be a juror—

"I solemnly affirm that I will give a true verdict according to the evidence."

Punishment for false statement upon oath. IV. If any person, making such oath or affirmation as aforesaid, shall wilfully and falsely state for truth that which he knows or believes to be false, or which he does not know or believe to be true, such person shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of perjury and giving false evidence.

Punishment for causing or procuring another to make false statement upon oath. V. Any person causing or procuring another to commit the offence defined in the last preceding Section, shall be punishable in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the punishment of subornation of perjury, or causing or procuring false evidence.

Act not to interfere with certain provisions of Act II of 1855. VI. Nothing in this Act shall be held to interfere with the provisions of Sections XV and XVI of Act II of 1855 (for the further improvement of the Law of Evidence), which enact that any person who, by reason of immature age, or want of religious belief, or by reason of defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of the Court or person before whom his or her attendance is required, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on a simple affirmation that he or she will speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that the same provision shall apply to testimony given by affidavit or otherwise ; and the provisions of the said Sections shall have the same force and effect as if this Act had not been passed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 27TH NOVEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 27th November 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of March next:—

A Bill for the establishment of Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter.

WHEREAS, with a view to the more easy recovery of small debts and demands, it is expedient to establish Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter at the several Presidencies of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government of any of the said Presidencies or of any place, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, to constitute Courts of Small Causes, with the required establishment of Officers, at any place within the limits of their respective Governments, for the trial of suits under this Act. Whenever any such Court may be so constituted, the Executive Government shall fix the territorial jurisdiction of such Court, and may, from time to time, alter the same as may appear proper.

Constitution of Small Cause Courts.

Limits of territorial jurisdiction to be fixed.

II. It shall also be lawful for any such Executive Government to invest any Court subordinate to a District Court, now existing or which may hereafter be established within the limits of their respective Governments, with Small Cause jurisdiction for the trial of suits made cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act.

Certain existing Courts may be invested with Small Cause jurisdiction.

III. The following are the suits which shall be cognizable by Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act, namely, claims for money due, whether on bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of five hundred Rupees. Provided that no action shall lie in any such Court on a balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents; or for a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or for a legacy or part of a legacy under a will; or for any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for which claim or for any part whereof a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department if commenced in due time; or for the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

Description of suits cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

Proviso.

IV. Every Court constituted under this Act shall use a seal, bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court——"Court of Small Causes of ;" and every such Court shall be a Court of Record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the District and of the Sudder Court.

Seal of the Court.

Court to be a Court of Record, and to be generally subject to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

V. The language to be used in the proceedings of the Courts constituted under this Act, shall be the same as that in use in the principal Court of Civil jurisdiction in the District in which such Courts are established.

Language to be used in proceedings.

VI. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted or invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act; and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, or personally work for gain, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

VII. Whenever a Court of Small Causes is constituted under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which shall arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in such Court, and shall not be cognizable, except in the way of appeal, in any other Court. In like manner whenever any Court is invested with Small Cause jurisdiction under this Act, all suits cognizable under the provisions of this Act, which may arise within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, shall be heard and determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Suits cognizable by a Small Cause Court under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

VIII. Nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate, can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature; or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by Village Moonsiffs or Village or District Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayets under Regulation VII. 1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and Stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies, respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Saving of jurisdiction of Magistrates &c—

of Village Moonsiffs and Village or District Punchayets in Madras—

of Military Courts of Request—

of Single Officers appointed to try small suits in Madras and Bombay—

and of Military Punchayets in Madras.

Courts where to be held.

IX. Courts of Small Causes constituted under this Act shall be held at such place or places within the local limits of their respective jurisdictions as shall be appointed by the local Government to which such Courts are subordinate.

Time of holding Courts, if they be directed to be held in more places than one.

X. Whenever any such Court is directed to be held at more places than one within the local limits of its jurisdiction, the Judge of such Court, subject to the control of the Judge of the District, shall appoint the time at which the Court shall hold its sittings in every such place. Due notice of the time so appointed shall be given by a proclamation to be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Court-house or other building in which the sittings of the Court are to be held.

Procedure.

XI. The procedure to be observed in the trial of cases cognizable under this Act, shall be that prescribed in Act . (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter), and the provisions of that Act, unless otherwise herein provided, shall be applicable to cases tried under this Act.

Decision in certain suits to be final.

XII. In suits tried under this Act, the decision of the Court shall be final, if the amount or value of the property in dispute shall not exceed the sum of fifty Rupees; but if it exceed that sum, an appeal shall lie from the decision to the District Court, and the decision of the District Court upon the appeal, if any, shall be final.

Appeal to District Court if value of property in dispute exceed fifty Rupees.

Decision of District Court final.

Court may refer questions of law &c. to Sudder Court.

XIII. If in the trial of any suit under this Act, whether originally or in appeal, any question of law or usage having the force of law or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision shall arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, the Court may either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, draw up a statement of the case and submit it, with its own opinion, for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

XIV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; but no execution shall be issued in any case in which a reference may be made to the Sudder Court, until the receipt of the order of that Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

XV. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

XVI. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court-house of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

XVII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

XVIII. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, of the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

XIX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

New trial.

XX. In cases decided under this Act, in which no appeal is allowed, or if allowed, in which no appeal may have been preferred, it shall be competent to the Court which decided the case, to grant one new trial if applied for within the period of thirty days from the date of the decision, unless the party making the application can show just and reasonable cause for not having preferred the same within that period.

General Orders by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 4th December 1858.

No. 1624 of 1858.—The following Notification, issued from the Financial Department, is published in General Orders :—

No. 66.—The 30th October 1858.—Notification. The following Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, No. 78 of 1858, dated the 1st September, is published for general information :—

Letter from, dated 14th May 1858, No. 63.

Transmit copy of correspondence relative to an application from the Government of Bombay, soliciting a decision on two questions submitted by the Reverend G. N. Mitford, Assistant Chaplain, Bombay Establishment, viz. :—

1*st.*—"What period of Service as "distinguished from Residence, is "requisite to entitle a Chaplain to "the higher rate of Furlough Pay, "viz., £191-12-6 laid down in 1844 "by the Hon'ble Court, as well as "for Pension."

2*nd.*—"Is the period of seven "years to be counted from the date "of Arrival, or must the time taken "under Medical Certificate be made "up by actual Service."

Para. 2. The term "Residence" in Section XXXI. of the Absentee Rules, and in paragraphs 2 and 3 of our Despatch in this Department dated 28th December 1855, No. 113, must be construed as "residence in actual Service," consequently a Chaplain will not be entitled to the higher rate of Furlough Allowance till he has completed seven years of actual Service, computed from the date of his arrival in India, nor will he be entitled to Pension on retirement until he has completed an actual Service, either of fifteen years if appointed before the 11th January 1854, or of seventeen years if appointed subsequently to that date. The time of absence passed on the ordinary Privilege Leave is, however, permitted to reckon as time spent on Service.

3. You were informed in paragraph 6 of our Despatch, dated 15th September 1855, No. 78, that we did not require retrospective effect to be given to the new Rules, in respect of any leave which might have been taken by Chaplains in India previous to the date of their promulgation.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, to transmit to you for submission to the Government of India, the accompanying copies of a letter from the Quarter Master General, No. 2030, dated 14th ultimo, and its enclosures, reporting the proceedings of a Field Detachment, sent in pursuit under Command of Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, 12th Regiment Native Infantry, by General Roberts, from Tonk.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council considers the march performed by this Detachment, in pursuit of the Rebels, from Tonk to Bheelwara, to reflect the highest credit upon the Officers and men who were engaged in it.

I have, &c.,

No. 2030 OF 1858.

FROM THE QUARTER MASTER GENL. OF THE ARMY,

TO THE SECY. TO GOVT., MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to submit for the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council copies of letters as per margin, containing an account of a Field Detachment sent under Command of Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, 12th Native Infantry, by General Roberts, from Tonk, on the 8th July, to pursue the Rebels, accompanied by a sketch of the route traversed by the Force.

Letter No. 655, 17*th August* 1858.
From Major-General Roberts, Commanding Rajpootana Field Force.
Report by Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, dated 16th August 1858.

HEAD QUARTERS:
Poona, the 14th Sept. 1858.

No. 655 OF 1858.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL ROBERTS,
Commanding Rajpootana Field Force,

TO THE QUARTER MASTER GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a report by Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, 12th Native Infantry, whom I sent on the 8th ultimo, from the further side of Tonk to pursue the Rebels.

2. I trust that the perseverance which Colonel Holmes displayed, and the patient endurance by the Troops, forced marches for 340 miles, partly during heat so intense that I lost 22 Europeans in three days, by sunstroke alone, when marching in the early morning, and partly during rains, said to be heavier than any which have been known in Rajpootana, will meet with the approval of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

3. I beg to bring to notice, that these men had already gone 135 miles with me, when we marched to save Jeypore, and that on rejoining after one day's halt, they accompanied me during the three forced marches, which enabled me on the fourth day (August 14th) to close with the Rebels on the Bunnass.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) H. G. ROBERTS, Major Genl.
Comdg. R. F. Force.

CAMP KOORJ:
The 17th August 1858.

From Lieutenant Colonel Holmes,
Comdg. Light Field Force,

To the Assistant Adjutant General,
Rajpootana Field Force.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Major General Commanding Rajpootana Field Force, the operations of the Light Field Detachment which he did me the honor to place under my Command, in Division Orders of the 8th ultimo. At 9 P. M. of the 8th ultimo the Column marched on Seelah, (distant about 18 miles) which I reached about 6 A. M. on the 9th. On the march, the sound of cannonnading at Tonk was heard, and on arrival, reports were brought of the Rebel Force being in possession of the Town of Tonk.

Strength of the Light Field Detachment.

2nd Troop Horse Artillery, Captain Petrie, Commanding.
H. M.'s 8th K. R. I. Hussars, Lieutenant Colonel Naylor, Commanding.
8 Officers.
130 Sabres.
1st Bombay Lancers, Captain Dennis, Commanding.
3 European Officers.
5 Native do.
115 Sabres.
H. M.'s 72nd Highlanders, Major Rocke, Commanding.
10 Officers.
13 Sergeants.
5 Drummers.
199 Rank and File.
12th Regiment Native Infantry, Lieut.-Col. Holmes, Commanding.
8 European Officers.
14 Native do.
31 Havildars.
11 Drummers.
422 Rank and File.
Belooch Horse, Lieutenant Macauley, Commanding.
300 Sabres.

Under instructions from Head Quarters, I moved on the morning of the 10th to the ford of the Bunnass River, at Kakray. Here I received information that the Rebels having knowledge of the approach of the British Force, abandoned Tonk and fled in the direction of Bunneetah, carrying off 4 guns and 4 tumbrils, besides spare ammunition belonging to the Nawab of Tonk.

On the 12th I marched to Ghans (distant 12 miles); reports of the Rebels' movements were conflicting. Some said they were at Bunneetah, others at Allyghur Rampoora, and others again, that their force, said to amount to 20,000 men, were divided between the two places above-named.

On the 13th I marched to Soontallah, where, hearing that the enemy were still on my left flank, I halted. In the evening I received intimation that the whole Rebel Force was at Koostulah and Mahdapore, trying to obtain possession of the latter place.

At midnight I continued my march for Koostulah, (distant about 18 miles); at a village about 4 miles from Koostulah, I heard that the Rebels were encamped at Koostulah. Giving time for the ammunition to close up, and directing the baggage to remain at the village (Poochalla), I moved forward with the hope of bringing the enemy to action.

On our Cavalry skirmishers approaching Koostulah, parties of Horse and Foot of the enemy were seen in flight through the ravines up to the hills. In that direction the Belooch Horse pursued, but were not successful in killing more than four men, one said to be a Jemadar of the Kotah Contingent, as also three men of that Corps. Several prisoners were made that day, but they were followers of the Rebels, and not worth detaining, and they were, after examination, dismissed.

A large body of the enemy it would appear had gone off to Ghodee and Pachowlass, the first thing in the morning or the night before; and as the Force under my Command had made a long march, our Baggage and Commissariat behind, and bodies of the enemy on the hills to the left of our route, and a column of them said to be on our left rear, I ordered a halt, sending the Belooch Horse to reconnoitre; they came upon one abandoned tumbril.

A large part of my baggage did not come up till late in the evening, and some not until the next morning, just as I was about to resume my march.

During the night, numerous camp fires could be seen along the ridge of the hills to our left front and left rear, and at 10 o'clock P. M., I received information from a Christian Officer (whose name I forget) Commanding the Nagur Battalion, in Mehdapore, that his Battalion had gone over to the enemy, and intended, in concert with the Rebels on the hills, to attack my Camp during the night; this obliged me to wait till daybreak, before I could attempt any further advance.

On the morning of the 14th, I marched to Pachowlass, starting at 7 o'clock, and was obliged to halt there, the Europeans being much exhausted with the heat.

The march to Koostulah forced many of the Rebels up the hills, and these I believe were never able to rejoin their main body.

Before me in flight remained the Rebel leaders, Tantia Topee, Rao Sahib, the Nawab of Banda, Raheem Ali and others, two Regiments of Sepoys (Scindiah's), some hundreds of Bengal Mutineers, 5th and 7th Regiments of Irregular Cavalry, and some 3 or 4,000 other Horsemen, in all 10 or 12,000, men; no accounts that I could obtain made them less.

On the morning of the 15th ultimo I marched to Goolee, 6 miles, and in the evening to Augora, 6 more. The country becoming very difficult from jungle, ravines and nullahs, I was obliged to move during daylight.

On the 16th I halted in consequence of requiring supplies of flour for the Troops and extra carriage, and grain, and grass for the horses, all supplies on the line of march having been eaten up by the enemy.

On the 17th I moved to Pontara, 13 miles distant, through a strong Pass, and entered a valley formed by hills on our right, and the Mey River on our left; all this valley to Kutkur is full of ravines and jungle, and would be unsafe for Cavalry and Artillery to traverse without the protection of Infantry.

Information was brought that the enemy was halted on the Mey River in front of Kutkur, unable to pass the river.

At daylight on the 18th I moved on Kutkur (distant about 15 miles); on arrival, I heard that the Rebels had mostly passed the ford the day before, and the rear guard at daylight, but I am disposed to think that all had passed the day before. On this march one more tumbril was found abandoned, and was made over to the Tonk Horsemen accompanying me, and some gun ammunition was strewn along the road.

The ford of the river was deep and it took all that day, and a greater part of the night to pass the Troops and Baggage over.

On the 19th, hearing that the Rebels were entrenching at Matoonda, determined to make a stand, at 2½ P. M. I moved on Nowagaum (distant 6 miles); on arrival, being informed that they had moved to Boondee, I halted for the night and marched at early dawn to Boondee, on the 20th ultimo.

At Boondee on the 20th, I obtained information that the Rebels had marched the day before to Neem Keekera, and that they were moving through the Keena Pass, and intended marching upon Johaypore.

The road through the Keena Pass was described as difficult in the extreme, and supplies not procurable. I therefore decided on leaving the direct line of pursuit and by marching through the Boondee Pass to Johaypore; if I did not meet the enemy there to move on in pursuit, in the direction of Mundel Gurh, and intercept them between the River Bunnass and the hill country which they were traversing.

On the 21st I marched to Nowagaum and encamped on the banks of the Mey. This river, which on my arrival was ankle deep, rose most rapidly, and within an hour after was totally impassable, and it was not until the morning of the 25th, that I was enabled to cross the Column over to the village of Manglee.

On the morning of the 26th I commenced my march for Etonda. The advance guard of Cavalry and Detachment 72nd Highlanders crossed a nullah a short way in my front, and the Artillery was about to follow, when the water rose so rapidly, that no further progress could be made, and it was with difficulty that I could recross that portion of the Force which had already passed over. After doing so, the river to my rear and the nullah to my front rose to so great a height, that I was obliged to halt till the 30th instant.

During the halt it was with the utmost difficulty that I could obtain supplies, and it was only by the construction of rafts, and by the employment of some men of the 12th Regiment Native Infantry, (expert swimmers) that I was enabled to procure supplies for the subsistence of the Troops, and Horses of the Artillery and Cavalry. During this protracted delay, I was receiving intelligence of the Rebels being at Keera, Jellodra, Maunpoora, Hora and Mundelgurh.

On the 31st at 10 A. M. the nullah becoming fordable, I crossed the Force over, encamped the Cavalry and Infantry just across the nullah.

On the 1st August at 3 P. M. I marched to Sarspoora, distant 4 miles, the road exceedingly deep in mud.

On the 2nd August at 2½ I marched to Tookra, distant 5 miles; the road most difficult for Artillery, and it was with the greatest exertions that the Troop Horse Artillery reached the encamping ground, between 7 and 8 o'clock, and part of the baggage, sick, carts, &c., did not arrive till the next morning.

On the 3rd August I was obliged to halt as the road ahead which I had directed to be examined, was pronounced impracticable.

On the 4th August, having discovered another route, I marched to Johaypore, where I received information of the Rebels being at Mundelgurh.

It was my intention to have resumed my march on the 5th, but I was prevented in consequence of the want of carriage with the Force, great numbers of camels having died on the march from Indagurh to Boondee, and during the eleven days' detention at Nowagaum and Manglee, as also on the march to Johaypore.

On the morning of the 6th I marched to Kujooru, where information was brought that the Rebels were crossing the Bunnass River at the Turbanee ford, and intended to march to Bheelwara.

On the morning of the 7th I marched to Kurhola. The Bunnass River was 4 or 5 miles in front, and said to be impracticable, excepting where the Rebels had crossed, and it was not till after many hours' search and till too late to make any further movement, that the Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Captain Heathcote, was able to discover one.

At 4 A. M. on the morning of the 8th, I moved on the ford, which was broad and upwards of three feet deep, and the passage of Troops and Baggage was not effected till nearly 5 o'clock.

About 2 o'clock P. M. I received intimation from the Assistant Quarter Master General, that the General's Camp was at Sanganeer, and that the Rebels were encamped at Bheelwara. I immediately made arrangements to march on Bheelwara as soon as the men had dined.

The Troops had fallen in for the march at 6½ P. M.; but not being furnished with proper guides, the march was not commenced till 9½ o'clock. The Troops marched all night, and between 2 and 3 o'clock P. M. on the 9th instant, reached Bheelwara, having marched about 35 miles, when I had the gratification of hearing of the successful action that had been fought the evening before.

From the date of my leaving Head Quarters Camp, it had been my earnest endeavour to pursue as rapidly as possible, but the difficulties of the road were great and the heat of the weather in the first instance told upon the Europeans, and afterwards the heavy rains impeded the progress of the Artillery and baggage, and for eleven days the force was obliged to halt at the villages of Nowagaum and Manglee, in consequence of the flooded state of the Mey River, and a swollen stream in front of Manglee; yet in spite of these difficulties, added to the loss of a large number of our baggage camels, the Troops had marched upwards of 240 miles from the date of leaving, till joining the Head Quarters Camp; and though I was unable to overtake the Rebels, yet they were so constantly kept on the move, that they were prevented from plundering many villages and towns, which, but for the fear of being overtaken, they would have done.

The conduct of the Troops was admirable; they met every difficulty and privation with the utmost cheerfulness; and from the Commanding Officers of the different Detachments of the Force, I have received the most cordial support.

A native gentleman, Moulvee Mahomed Moheedeem, Vakeel of Jeypore, who accompanied me through the pursuit, rendered me so much good service, (in procuring information, carriage, supplies, &c.,) that I beg strongly to recommend him to the Major General's consideration.

I have, &c.,

Registrar and Secretary.

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

Produce of Behar Agency	.	Chests 1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto	...	„ 345
Total Chests	. .	2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots adver-tized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shewn to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so:—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

Article 6th.—"With regard to the Trade in Opium it is agreed between the high contracting parties that at each of the periodical Sales of that article there shall be reserved for the French Government and delivered upon requisition duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests so applied for, provided that such supply shall not exceed Three Hundred Chests in each year, and the price for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodical Sale, it being understood, that if the quantity of Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much in reduction of the Three Hundred Chests hereinbefore mentioned. The requisitions for Opium as aforesaid are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta within thirty days after notice of the intended Sales shall have been published in the Government Gazette."

Article of the Convention above refered to.

Supdt. Nuddeah Rivers.

CAMP HAUT BAULEAH,
ON THE PANGASSEE RIVER,
The 1st December 1858.

* The operations and works at the head of this River having been attended to date with beneficial results, all Boats trading on the Nuddea Rivers should proceed by the "Bhaugiruttee Route." There is every probability of 3½ feet of water being the least depth that will exist in it for some time to come.

† No improvement has taken place at the head of this River in the position of the large shoal formed across its entrance some years ago by the Ganges.

‡ No Boat drawing more than 1 foot 9 inches to 2 feet of water should proceed by this River after this date, if its voyage extends above Haut Boleah or the head of the Lower Matabangah which has silted up very much the past few years.

No. 4069.

Fort William, the 10th December 1858.

In part of the Edition of the Calcutta Gazette of the 4th instant, the word "house" having by an error of the Press been substituted for the word horse in the Notification from this Department, No. 4011, dated the 3rd instant, the Notification in question is re-published.

No. 4011.

Fort William, the 3rd December 1858.

In the year 1855, a Public Officer serving under the Government of Bengal, with the cognizance of his immediate official superior, sold a horse to a Native gentleman living within his jurisdiction for 900 Rupees. There was not the remotest reason to suppose that the sale was in any respect otherwise than a fair transaction, but the matter having in due course been reported to the Hon'ble Court of Directors, the Court were pleased, in a Despatch dated the 4th March last, to desire that sales of this description between Public Servants in India and Natives within their jurisdiction or beyond, should be strictly prohibited. The President in Council is assured that pecuniary transactions of an objectionable nature between Public Servants and Natives of India seldom, if ever, now occur, and has the fullest reliance on the honor of the Queen's Servants in all Departments; but transactions of the nature alluded to, though in themselves entirely fair, and perfectly free on both sides from all unworthy motives, are liable to misconstruction, and when misconstrued are no less mischievous in their effect than corrupt dealings. In conformity, therefore, with the instructions of the Hon'ble Court, all such sales are prohibited. Should a Public Officer be doubtful whether a transaction to which he desires to become a party comes within this prohibition, he will consult his superior Officer and be guided by the instructions he may receive. A controlling Officer consulted on such an occasion will dispose of the case himself, or refer it for the orders of Government, as he may consider proper.

Report upon the Fort and Entrenchments of Kussiah Rampore, Oudh.

The Fort and Entrenchments of Kussiah Rampore are situated on a bend or loop of the river Sae.

The Fort being at the top or north-west of this loop, surrounded by the southern entrenchments, which close the loop to the south, and by the northern entrenchments, which enclose it on all sides.

They occupy an extent of ground equal to 200 acres, and are 3¼ miles in length.

The interior of these entrenchments is a dense, impenetrable bamboo and thorn jungle, through which a number of covered ways, similar to parallels, afford communication.

On the outside the jungle grows close up to the works, and in most places 5 or 600 yards or more to the front. Paths lead through it into the Fort, but they are of no use, except to the defenders.

Besides this, a very close and impenetrable abattis of cut thorn jungle, is to be found close upon the counterscrap of the ditch of the work, following it in all its sinuosities.

This ditch varies from 12 to 18 feet in depth, (in one or two places nearly 23 feet) and 8 to 20 feet in width, and surrounds the whole of the works, except in a few places where a formidable abattis supplies its place.

The profile of all the entrenchments is good; the command varying from 10 to 20 feet, the thickness of parapet from 10 to 18 feet, and well able to resist the heaviest Ordnance from the nature of the soil, which is principally clay.

In some parts the profile consists of two lines of parapet, separated from each other by a ditch; in others two ditches are to be found.

The interior Fort, or entrenchment, is of the nature generally found in this country, a rectangle with circular bastions at the angles, connected by straight curtains, which also have bastions.

This Fort has a very great command over the works surrounding it, and the country around.

It also affords a good defence against an attempt to take it from the south, especially across the ford.

The trace of the entrenchments is very irregular consisting of circular bastions, connected by irregular curtains, every bastion having four or more embrazures for guns.

In front of each bastion, a low line of parapet for musketry is to be found, and this generally flanks the entrances (mentioned before) into the Fort.

The trace on the whole is good. It has a few weak points on the river, where the entrenchments close upon it.

But these could be strengthened at the very last moment.

In fact, if a European Force had possession of such works, it could defy any attack, except that of a regular blockade to starvation.

The date of the construction of the different parts of the works, is of course difficult to ascertain. I should think that all the works, with the exception of the Fort and western Entrenchments, have been built since the first outbreak of the mutiny.

The ditch surrounding them, is however very old. It has been deepened in a great many places. The works have also been considerably strengthened and repaired since the rains; and in some parts there are signs showing that more works were contemplated.

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

Produce of Behar Agency ...	Chests	1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto ...	„	345
Total Chests ...		2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 11TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th December 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 15th of February next:—

A Bill to amend the Law for the trial of Officers of the Bengal Pilot Service for breach of duty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law for the trial of persons employed in the Pilot Service of Government, at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, when accused of breach of duty; It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. Act XXIV of 1845 (for establishing a Court for the trial of Officers of the Pilot Service accused of breach of duty) and Act I of 1851 (for the appropriation of fines levied under Act XXIV of 1845), are hereby repealed.

How Pilots accused of breach of duty shall be brought to trial.

II. When any person employed in the Pilot Service of Government at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall be accused of having committed any breach of duty while engaged in such Service, and it shall appear to the Superintendent of Marine, or to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, that such person ought to be brought to trial for such breach of duty, such person shall be brought to trial upon a charge or charges framed by the said Superintendent of Marine, or such other person as the said Lieutenant-Governor shall direct, before a Court constituted under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of Judge.

III. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall appoint a fit person to be Judge of the said Court.

Who shall be summoned to sit as a Jury.

IV. When the Judge of the said Court shall be about to hold a trial under this Act, he shall summon, by writing under his hand, three persons, two of whom shall be Merchants of Calcutta and one a Master of a Merchant Ship lying in the Port of Calcutta, to sit as a Jury at the said trial. If any such person when duly summoned shall, without lawful cause, neglect or refuse to attend at the time appointed, or to remain in attendance until the trial shall be completed, it shall be lawful for the said Judge to impose upon any such person a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees for every such default; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by the Judge. Such warrant may be transmitted by the Judge to any Magistrate of Police for the town of Calcutta, and thereupon such Magistrate shall endorse the same and shall cause it to be executed in the same manner as if the warrant had been issued by such Magistrate.

Penalty for persons so summoned not attending.

Appointment of Prosecutor.

V. The Lieutenant-Governor shall appoint such person as he may think proper to conduct the proceedings before the Court as Prosecutor on the part of Government.

Due notice of time and place of trial to be given to Prosecutor and the accused.

VI. The Judge of the said Court shall give sufficient notice to the Prosecutor, and to the party accused, of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the trial.

Jurors to be sworn.

VII. Before the commencement of any trial under this Act, the persons summoned and attending as Jurors shall be sworn by the Judge of the Court to give a true verdict according to the evidence.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, at the instance of the Prosecutor, or of the party accused, or of his own motion, by writing under his hand, to summon any person to attend as a witness at a time and place to be specified in the summons, for the purpose of being examined at any trial before the said Court; or if such person shall be about to depart from Calcutta, so as to be unable to attend at such trial without serious inconvenience, then to be examined before the Judge of the said Court before the day fixed for the trial; provided always that due notice of the time and place of such examination shall be given to the accused party; provided also that such witness may nevertheless be examined at the trial if he shall be able to attend thereat, in which case his previous examination may also be read at the trial.

Judge may summon witnesses to attend at a certain time and place.

Examination of witnesses about to leave Calcutta.

IX. If any person who shall have been duly summoned to attend as a witness shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to attend, or attending shall refuse to give evidence or to answer any question which may be lawfully put to him, such person shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, as the Judge of the said Court shall order; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same in the manner prescribed in Section IV of this Act.

Penalty for witnesses not attending or refusing to give evidence.

X. The evidence of every witness examined before the said Court shall be given on oath, affirmation, or otherwise, according to the rules in that behalf for the examination of witnesses in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature.

Witnesses to be examined on oath, according to the rules in force in the Supreme Court.

XI. Upon the completion of the trial the Jurors shall give their verdict upon the charge, or, if there be more than one, upon each separate charge. The verdict shall be according to the opinion of the majority of Jurors.

Verdict of Jurors.

XII. If by such verdict the accused person is found guilty of the charge or of any one or more of the charges preferred against him, the Judge of the Court shall sentence him to be dismissed from the said Pilot Service, or shall award such other punishment, by loss of rank or pay, or by suspension from employment for a specified period, as to the Judge shall appear fit. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, may prepare a Schedule of offences and punishments (such punishments being of the same nature as those hereinbefore mentioned) for the guidance of the said Court; and if such Schedule be prepared and sanctioned, and the charge proved before the said Court is an offence specified in such Schedule, the Judge of the said Court shall award such punishment as is prescribed for such offence in the said Schedule, and no other. If by such verdict as aforesaid the accused person is found not guilty of the charge or charges preferred against him, the Judge shall declare him acquitted of the same.

Sentence of Court if the accused be found guilty.

Schedule of offences and punishments to be prepared.

Acquittal.

XIII. The Proceedings of the Court shall be sent by the Judge to the Superintendent of Marine for submission to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal; and no sentence of punishment pronounced by the Judge of the said Court shall be final until it has been approved of by the said Lieutenant-Governor. The said Lieutenant-Governor may remit the whole or any part of such sentence, or may direct the substitution of any mitigated punishment, in lieu of the punishment awarded by the said Court, as he shall think fit.

No sentence to be final till approved by Government.

Government may remit sentence or mitigate punishment.

XIV. If it shall appear to the Judge of the said Court that the verdict of the Jurors is manifestly contrary to the evidence, or that the trial is otherwise insufficient, the Judge, instead of passing sentence on the accused person, or declaring him acquitted, as the case may be, may certify the same to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. If the verdict of the Jurors be a verdict of acquittal, the said Lieutenant-Governor may either direct that no further proceedings shall be taken in the case, or may order a new trial before another Jury, as he shall think fit. If the verdict be a verdict of conviction, the said Lieutenant-Governor shall order a new trial before another Jury.

If verdict of Jurors be manifestly contrary to evidence, or trial be otherwise insufficient.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to make such rules as he shall think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for conducting the proceedings and regulating the practice of the said Court.

Power of Government to make rules.

XVI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to restrict the Marine Authorities or the Government from passing such orders as may be deemed proper upon any charge of breach of duty preferred against any person employed in the said Pilot Service, when it shall not be deemed necessary that such person should be brought to trial for such breach of duty under the provisions of this Act.

Act not to restrict Government from giving such orders as may be thought proper upon a charge of breach of duty where a trial is not deemed necessary.

XVII. The provisions of this Act shall extend to all persons employed in the Pilot Service at the said Presidency and borne on the rolls of the Government establishment, whether such persons receive fixed salaries, or are remunerated by a portion of the Pilotage charged on the vessels piloted by them, or in any other manner.

Act applicable to what persons.

Allahabad, the 10th December 1858.

No. 574 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General has much satisfaction in directing the publication of the following Despatch from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Major-Genl.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
with the Governor-General.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VISCOUNT CANNING,
VICEROY AND GOVERNOR GENERAL,

Head Quarters, Camp near Doundeakera,
The 25th November 1858.

MY LORD,

I HAD the honor to announce to your Lordship in a Despatch dated the 23rd October 1858, addressed by the Chief of the Staff to the Secretary of Government in the Military Department, that I was about to take the field for the purpose of assuming the personal direction of Military affairs in the Byswarra Country.

2. Accordingly on the 2nd November, I rode to Pertabghur, where my Camp had preceded me.

3. Much care had been previously given to the exact calculation of time. The Column under Sir Hope Grant, which had recently been aiding the advance of Colonel Kelly from Azimghur; that under Brigadier Wetherall from Soraon; and that under Brigadier Pinckney at Pertabghur, having been alike combined in their movements for the reduction of the Country through which they passed, and to compel the submission of the Rajah Lall Madho of Amathee, if possible without loss of life.

4. During these movements, Sir Hope Grant had an affair with the enemy in the neighbourhood of the Goomtee, and took some guns, and Brigadier Wetherall stormed the Fort of Rampoor Kussea.

5. On my arrival at Pertabghur, these Officers had respectively reached the points indicated for a general operation against Amathee.

6. It was my earnest wish to carry into execution the instructions I had the honor to receive from your Lordship on the 1st November in completion of the Queen's Proclamation. I accordingly gave every chance to Lall Madho, who had peculiar claims on your Lordship's clemency, in consequence of the protection afforded by him to British fugitives at the time of the outbreak.

7. His allegiance was not willingly rendered, and I was obliged to close my forces round Amathee, before he would consent to come into my Camp. His Fort was then evacuated and his gun secured; the former has since been destroyed, his land and property having been assured to the Rajah.

8. From Amathee, I moved without delay to Shunkerpore, the Fort of Beni Madho, the most influential leader of the Byswarra, where I arrived on the 15th instant. He was summoned to lay down his arms with his followers, on which event taking place, life and liberty to go home were to be secured to the latter, and a careful consideration of his own claims to the former. But he was told in explicit terms that to treat with the Rebels in arms was absolutely forbidden by your Lordship, while in trusting to your Lordship's clemency, he had nothing to fear.

9. In order not to alarm him and so to cause a conflict between the picquets, and prevent the acceptance of the terms by the conduct of his followers, the three Brigades under Sir Hope Grant, Brigadier Pinckney, and Brigadier Wetherall were placed on the North, South and East of his Fort, but out of sight, although he was quite aware of their presence. Colonel Evelegh, who had been advancing by my order from Poorwa to the West, was not quite in time to complete the investment, he having been delayed of the difficulty of the cross roads. During his advance he had taken the Fort of Simree and dispersed a body of Rebels.

10. The Rana Beni Madho taking advantage of my extreme forbearance, evacuated the Shunkerpore Fort, on the night of the 15th instant, and led his Troops, about 10,000 in number, to the Westward. Very early in the morning of the 16th, Sir Hope Grant was despatched to the Northward to Roy Bareilly, for the neighbourhood of which place, viz., Peroo, the Rana was supposed to be making. On the same morning, Brigadier Wetherall's Brigade, now transferred to Colonel Taylor, 79th Hussars, was ordered to move by forced marches to Fyzabad, to commence the Trans-Gogra movement. I remained for two days at Shunkerpore with Brigadier Pinckney's Brigade, now under orders of Colonel Jones, Carabineers, to enable the Civil Authorities to complete their arrangements when I moved towards Roy Bareilly.

11. On the 17th, while Brigadier Evelegh was pursuing his advance according to his orders, he came across part of the Rana's force, numbering about 5,000 men, which he dispersed, taking 3 guns. At that time it was reported that Peroo, on the Sye, was still held, and Colonel Evelegh was ordered to advance on that place. Reports were most conflicting as to the direction taken by the Rana. Colonel Evelegh was directed to send in his heavy guns and encumbrances to Roy Bareilly, and then to march toward Doundeakera with all despatch, to which we believed the Rana would now repair. He was desired to give no rest. I myself moved at the same time to Buchraon in one march, with the intention of intercepting the fugitives when struck by Colonel Evelegh, whatever might be their direction. The followers of the Rana had again gathered round him at Doundeakera. I accordingly joined Brigadier Evelegh at Nuggur, on the 23rd instant, having marched 60 miles in three days, and have reason to congratulate myself on having done so, as the enemy had again mustered in considerable force at the strong position of Doundeakera, under the Rana in person. The position, consisting of enclosures of jungle flanked by the Fort of Doundeakera and the village of Buksur, is very strong.

12. I attacked him early in the morning of the 24th instant, (detail of Brigades as per margin,) with the two Brigades composed as per margin, completely broke and dispersed the Rebel Forces, inflicting a very heavy loss upon them and taking all the guns (7) in number, which still remained in possession of the enemy. The pursuit was pressed with great vigor till near midnight.

1st Compy. Sikh Artillery with 4 mortars.
Total, about 2,900 men of all Arms.

13. It was probable that the Rana Beni Madho left early in the action. He is a fugitive with a few followers, and it is supposed he has again turned Northwards. I am now waiting for some exact information, before taking further measures. Urgent instructions will be given to the various Officers Commanding Posts to act with the greatest promptitude towards preventing the Rebels from again gathering together.

14. I am happy to be able to inform your Lordship, that in consequence of these movements and the hopelessness of the rebel cause, which has now become apparent to all, the Talookdars and Zemindars of the Byswarra Country are everywhere giving in their submission.

15. The force that had left Shunkerpore under Sir Hope Grant did not stop at Roy Bareilly, but advanced according to instructions to Jugdespore and the Goomtee. Sir Hope Grant himself having been ordered to Fyzabad, to take charge of the operation proceeding from that quarter, put the Brigade that he had been with under Brigadier Horsford, who is now moving leisurely up the right bank of the Goomtee towards Lucknow, and is engaged in destroying Forts and reducing that part of the Country.

16. Thus I think. I may assure your Lordship, that the first half of the Oudh campaign has been brought to a conclusion in conformity with the plans I have had the honor to submit for your Lordship's consideration. Although extending over a length of more than two hundred miles, each movement and each apparently isolated attack, has been made to defend and to support what was going on to the right and left. The advance in line, stretching from the confines of Rohilcund to Allahabad and Azimghur, has compressed everything like rebellion in a large sense of the word beyond the Gogra, with the single exception of the Sectapore District, which is about being settled by the advance of Brigadier Barker.

He is already across the Goomtee. The late proceedings of that Officer and of Brigadier Troup (the latter having taken Mitowlee, and beaten the Rebels opposed to him in two or three actions) in the North-west, in giving execution to their several instructions toward the general plan of campaign, have been very satisfactory.

17. It is to be expected, when rebellion has been so long dominant in a very extensive Country, that Chiefs whose acts have placed them beyond the pale of mercy, and bodies of plunderers, will still continue to give trouble. I trust however, that the late operations will have so far carried out your Lordship's policy, as to reduce the remaining difficulty to a matter of Police, rather than of Military combination in that part of the Province which has now been subdued.

I am about to march to Lucknow. A movement on Byramghat and across the Gogra, in aid of that conducted by Sir Hope Grant from Fyzabad, will ensue very shortly.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
Your Lordship's
Obedient humble servant,
CLYDE, General,
Commander-in-Chief, East Indies.

P. S.—In these operations the conduct of the Troops has been admirable as usual, and I shall have much pleasure hereafter in bringing to your Lordship's notice the names of those Officers and Soldiers, who have more particularly distinguished themselves.

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

Notice is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

Produce of Behar Agency	...	Chests 1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto	...	„ 345
Total Chests	...	2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so:—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 11TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th December 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 15th of February next:—

A Bill to amend the Law for the trial of Officers of the Bengal Pilot Service for breach of duty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law for the trial of persons employed in the Pilot Service of Government, at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, when accused of breach of duty; It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. Act XXIV of 1845 (for establishing a Court for the trial of Officers of the Pilot Service accused of breach of duty) and Act I of 1851 (for the appropriation of fines levied under Act XXIV of 1845), are hereby repealed.

How Pilots accused of breach of duty shall be brought to trial.

II. When any person employed in the Pilot Service of Government at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall be accused of having committed any breach of duty while engaged in such Service, and it shall appear to the Superintendent of Marine, or to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, that such person ought to be brought to trial for such breach of duty, such person shall be brought to trial upon a charge or charges framed by the said Superintendent of Marine, or such other person as the said Lieutenant-Governor shall direct, before a Court constituted under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of Judge.

III. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall appoint a fit person to be Judge of the said Court.

Who shall be summoned to sit as a Jury.

IV. When the Judge of the said Court shall be about to hold a trial under this Act, he shall summon, by writing under his hand, three persons, two of whom shall be Merchants of Calcutta and one a Master of a Merchant Ship lying in the Port of Calcutta, to sit as a Jury at the said trial. If any such person when duly summoned shall, without lawful cause, neglect or refuse to attend at the time appointed, or to remain in attendance until the trial shall be completed, it shall be lawful for the said Judge to impose upon any such person a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees for every such default; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by the Judge. Such warrant may be transmitted by the Judge to any Magistrate of Police for the town of Calcutta, and thereupon such Magistrate shall endorse the same and shall cause it to be executed in the same manner as if the warrant had been issued by such Magistrate.

Penalty for persons so summoned not attending.

Appointment of Prosecutor.

V. The Lieutenant-Governor shall appoint such person as he may think proper to conduct the proceedings before the Court as Prosecutor on the part of Government.

Due notice of time and place of trial to be given to Prosecutor and the accused.

VI. The Judge of the said Court shall give sufficient notice to the Prosecutor, and to the party accused, of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the trial.

Jurors to be sworn.

VII. Before the commencement of any trial under this Act, the persons summoned and attending as Jurors shall be sworn by the Judge of the Court to give a true verdict according to the evidence.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, at the instance of the Prosecutor, or of the party accused, or of his own motion, by writing under his hand, to summon any person to attend as a witness at a time and place to be specified in the summons, for the purpose of being examined at any trial before the said Court; or if such person shall be about to depart from Calcutta, so as to be unable to attend at such trial without serious inconvenience, then to be examined before the Judge of the said Court before the day fixed for the trial; provided always that due notice of the time and place of such examination shall be given to the accused party; provided also that such witness may nevertheless be examined at the trial if he shall be able to attend thereat, in which case his previous examination may also be read at the trial.

Judge may summon witnesses to attend at a certain time and place.

Examination of witnesses about to leave Calcutta.

IX. If any person who shall have been duly summoned to attend as a witness shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to attend, or attending shall refuse to give evidence or to answer any question which may be lawfully put to him, such person shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, as the Judge of the said Court shall order; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same in the manner prescribed in Section IV of this Act.

Penalty for witnesses not attending or refusing to give evidence.

X. The evidence of every witness examined before the said Court shall be given on oath, affirmation, or otherwise, according to the rules in that behalf for the examination of witnesses in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature.

Witnesses to be examined on oath, according to the rules in force in the Supreme Court.

XI. Upon the completion of the trial the Jurors shall give their verdict upon the charge, or, if there be more than one, upon each separate charge. The verdict shall be according to the opinion of the majority of Jurors.

Verdict of Jurors.

XII. If by such verdict the accused person is found guilty of the charge or of any one or more of the charges preferred against him, the Judge of the Court shall sentence him to be dismissed from the said Pilot Service, or shall award such other punishment, by loss of rank or pay, or by suspension from employment for a specified period, as to the Judge shall appear fit. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, may prepare a Schedule of offences and punishments (such punishments being of the same nature as those hereinbefore mentioned) for the guidance of the said Court; and if such Schedule be prepared and sanctioned, and the charge proved before the said Court is an offence specified in such Schedule, the Judge of the said Court shall award such punishment as is prescribed for such offence in the said Schedule, and no other. If by such verdict as aforesaid the accused person is found not guilty of the charge or charges preferred against him, the Judge shall declare him acquitted of the same.

Sentence of Court if the accused be found guilty.

Schedule of offences and punishments to be prepared.

Acquittal.

XIII. The Proceedings of the Court shall be sent by the Judge to the Superintendent of Marine for submission to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal; and no sentence of punishment pronounced by the Judge of the said Court shall be final until it has been approved of by the said Lieutenant-Governor. The said Lieutenant-Governor may remit the whole or any part of such sentence, or may direct the substitution of any mitigated punishment, in lieu of the punishment awarded by the said Court, as he shall think fit.

No sentence to be final till approved by Government.

Government may remit sentence or mitigate punishment.

XIV. If it shall appear to the Judge of the said Court that the verdict of the Jurors is manifestly contrary to the evidence, or that the trial is otherwise insufficient, the Judge, instead of passing sentence on the accused person, or declaring him acquitted, as the case may be, may certify the same to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. If the verdict of the Jurors be a verdict of acquittal, the said Lieutenant-Governor may either direct that no further proceedings shall be taken in the case, or may order a new trial before another Jury, as he shall think fit. If the verdict be a verdict of conviction, the said Lieutenant-Governor shall order a new trial before another Jury.

If verdict of Jurors be manifestly contrary to evidence, or trial be otherwise insufficient.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to make such rules as he shall think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for conducting the proceedings and regulating the practice of the said Court.

Power of Government to make rules.

XVI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to restrict the Marine Authorities or the Government from passing such orders as may be deemed proper upon any charge of breach of duty preferred against any person employed in the said Pilot Service, when it shall not be deemed necessary that such person should be brought to trial for such breach of duty under the provisions of this Act.

Act not to restrict Government from giving such orders as may be thought proper upon a charge of breach of duty where a trial is not deemed necessary.

XVII. The provisions of this Act shall extend to all persons employed in the Pilot Service at the said Presidency and borne on the rolls of the Government establishment, whether such persons receive fixed salaries, or are remunerated by a portion of the Pilotage charged on the vessels piloted by them, or in any other manner.

Act applicable to what persons.

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

Produce of Behar Agency	...	Chests 1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto	...	„ 345
Total Chests	...	2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so:—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

PEARL FISHERY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Pearl Fishery will take place at Aripo, in the Island of Ceylon, on or about the 1st of March next 1859, and that the Banks to be fished are the Modregam Bank, and that portion of the North-west part of the Chivel Paar Bank left unfinished last March, estimated to contain Oysters sufficient to employ fifty Boats for fifteen days.

It is therefore recommended, that such Boat-owners and Divers as may wish to be employed at the said Fishery should be at Aripo, on or before the 20th February next. And it is particularly notified, that the first day's fishing will positively take place on the first day in March that the weather may permit the Boats to fish.

The Fishery will be conducted on account of Government, and the Oysters put up to sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

The arrangements of the Fishery will be the same as have been usual on similar occasions.

All payments to be made in Ready Money in Ceylon Currency, or in East India Company's Rupees.

Drafts on the Banks in Colombo, or Bills on the Agents of this Government in India, at Ten days' Sight will be taken, on Letters of Credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such Drafts or Bills.

For the convenience of Purchasers, the Treasurer at Colombo and the different Government Agents of Provinces, will be authorized to receive Cash Deposits from parties intending to become Purchasers, and Receipts of these Officers will be taken in payment of any sums due on account of the Fishery.

No deposit will be received for a less sum than fifty pounds.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. J. MACCARTHY,
Colonial Secretary.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1858.

An Act to repeal Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code, and to make certain provisions rendered necessary by the transfer of the Delhi Territory to the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the whole of the Delhi Territory, except such part thereof as is specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, has been placed under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and it is expedient that Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code should be repealed; It is enacted as follows:—

Regulation repealed.

I. Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code is hereby repealed, except as to that part of the Delhi Territory which is mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Suits and proceedings pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

II. All suits and proceedings which were pending in any Court or before any Officer within any part of the said Territory, except as aforesaid, at the time when the same was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab and which have been or shall be transferred to the Courts or Officers which have been or shall be established or appointed for the administration of Civil and Criminal justice and the collection of the Revenues therein, shall be deemed to have been lawfully transferred to such Courts and Officers according to their respective jurisdictions; and any suits or proceedings which, subsequently to the time when the said Territory was so placed under such administration, shall have been instituted in any such Court or before any such Officer, shall be deemed to have been lawfully instituted.

Suits instituted subsequently.

Suits determined before the transfer, but which may be remanded by an appellate Court.

III. Any suit which, prior to the time when the said Territory was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, had been determined, and which hath been or shall be remanded by any Appellate Court, shall be tried before the Court which, for the time being, would be competent to try such a suit if instituted after the passing of this Act.

Appeals or proceedings now pending before the Sudder Court or Board.

IV. All appeals or proceedings now pending in the Court of Sudder Dewany Adawlut or in the Court of Nizamut Adawlut or before the Sudder Board of Revenue for the North-Western Provinces shall be determined by such Court or Board in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed; and all applications for execution of decrees or orders which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been made to any Court existing at the period above-mentioned, shall be made to the Court or Officer who would have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter in dispute, had the suit or proceeding been instituted after the passing of this Act.

Applications for execution of decrees.

Appeals not pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

V. All appeals from decrees or orders passed before the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, which were not pending when the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, shall be received, heard, and determined by the Courts or Officers who would have had jurisdiction over such appeals, had the decrees or orders to which they relate been passed after the passing of this Act;

and all decisions or orders passed by any such Courts or Officers on any appeals which may have been preferred between the date on which the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and the date of the passing of this Act, shall be of the same force as if such decisions or orders had been passed after the passing of this Act.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the better recovery of Arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency

Preamble.

WHEREAS difficulties occur in applying the rules of Regulation XXVIII. 1802 of the Madras Code to lands under Ryotwar Settlements or otherwise subject to a Khas collection on the part of Government, and it is expedient to modify those rules; and whereas it is necessary to provide that the Collector shall, at his discretion, proceed to realize arrears of such Revenue by the sale of either the moveable or immoveable property of defaulters; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Act repealed.

I. Act XXIII of 1856 (for the better recovery of arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency) is hereby repealed except so far as relates to indemnity for anything done before the passing of that Act.

Collector empowered to recover arrears of Revenue or rent by sale of moveable or immoveable property of defaulter.

II. Whenever the Revenue or rent of any such lands is withheld beyond the day on which it falls due according to the Kistbundy or other engagement, or where no particular day is fixed, then beyond the time when such Revenue or rent becomes payable agreeably to local usage, the Collector shall have authority to proceed for the recovery of such arrears by the distress and the sale of the moveable property or the sale of the immoveable property of the defaulter wherever found. Provided that bullocks necessary to the cultivation of a tenant's holding, ploughs and implements of husbandry, and the tools of artisans shall not be subject to distraint or sale.

Proviso.

Seizure and sale of moveable property to be made as follows.

III. In the seizure and sale of moveable property for arrears of Revenue or rent, the following rules shall be observed.

Collector to furnish person distraining with a demand in writing.

First.—The Collector, or any other Officer empowered by the Collector in that behalf, shall furnish to the person employed to distrain the property of a defaulter, a demand in writing and signed with his name specifying the amount of the arrear for which the distress may be issued, and the date on which the arrear fell due. The person so deputed shall produce the writing as authority for making the distress, and on the day on which the property may be distrained, shall deliver a copy of such writing to the defaulter, endorsing thereon a list or inventory of the property distrained and the name of the place where it may be lodged or kept.

Defaulter to be served with a copy.

Writing to state that the distrained property will be sold.

Second.—The writing shall further set forth that the distrained property will be immediately brought to public sale, unless the amount and the expense of the distress be previously discharged.

Mode of service when defaulter is absent.

Third.—When a defaulter may be absent, a copy of the writing, with the endorsement, shall be fixed or left at his usual place of residence before the expiration of the third day, calculating from the day of the distress.

Consequence of defaulter neglecting to pay after notice, or absenting himself.

IV. Where a defaulter on receiving notice may neglect to pay the amount due or to give satisfactory security for early payment, or where a defaulter may have absconded or may be otherwise not forthcoming so that the notice cannot be served upon him, the distrainer shall in either case transmit an inventory of the property distrained to the nearest public Officer empowered to sell distrained property in order that it may be publicly sold for the discharge of the arrear due.

On tender of arrear and expenses prior to the day of sale, distress to be withdrawn.

V. Where a defaulter may tender payment of the arrear demanded after his property may have been distrained and prior to the day fixed for sale, together with payment of the necessary expenses attending the distress, the distrainer shall receive the amount of such arrear and expenses immediately upon the same being tendered, and shall forthwith release the property.

Distrained crops how to be dealt with.

VI. The distrainer attaching the crops or ungathered products of the lands belonging to a defaulter, may cause them to be sold when fit for reaping or gathering, or at his option may cause them to be reaped or gathered in due season and stored in proper places until sold. In the latter case the expense of reaping or gathering and storing such crops or products, shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Distrained cattle or goods not be used.

VII. The distrainer shall not work the bullocks or cattle, or make use of the goods or effects distrained; he shall provide the necessary food for the cattle or live-stock, the expense attending which shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Officer responsible for neglect in respect to distrained property.

VIII. Where property distrained may be stolen, or lost, or damaged by reason of the necessary precautions for its due preservation not having been taken, the loss or damage shall be made good by the Officer whose neglect occasioned the loss or damage.

Distress to be proportionate to the arrear.

IX. The distress levied shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible proportionate to the amount of the arrear.

Time for distress.

X. Distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset and not otherwise.

Penalty for fraudulent conveyance of property to prevent distress.

XI. Where a defaulter may make a fraudulent conveyance of property, to prevent the distress for arrears, the Zillah Court, upon proof thereof, shall summarily cause the property to be delivered up to the distrainer, and may impose on the parties to the fraud such fine, not exceeding one-half of the value of the property, as it may think proper.

Claims to property distrained and sold.

XII. Where a person, not being a defaulter or responsible for a defaulter, may claim a right to the property distrained, and the distrainer may, notwithstanding, cause the same to be sold, the claimants, on proof of such right in the Zillah Court and in the event of the distrainer being unable to prove the responsibility for the arrear of Revenue or rent on account of which the property may have been sold, shall recover from the distrainer the full value of such property with costs and damages, according to the circumstances of the case. But claims to crops upon the ground, or to gathered products of the ground attached, in the possession of the defaulter, whether founded upon a previous sale, mortgage, or otherwise, shall not bar the prior claim of Revenue or rent due from the ground upon which such crop or product may have been grown.

Penalty for forcibly or clandestinely taking away distrained property.

XIII. Where it may be proved to the satisfaction of the Zillah Court that any person has forcibly or clandestinely taken away property once distrained, the Court may cause such person to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months or until he sooner restore the property or make good the value of it to the distrainer, and may also impose on him a fine not exceeding the value of such property.

What places distrainer may force open.

XIV. The distrainer shall have power to force open any stable, cow-house, golah, granary, godown, outhouse, or other building, as also to enter any dwelling-house the outer door of which may be open (excepting the apartments in such dwelling-house appropriated for the Zenana or residence of women), and to break open the door of any room in such dwelling-house for the purpose of attaching property belonging to a defaulter and lodged therein.

Powers of distrainer to force open doors in the presence of a Police Officer.

XV. Where a distrainer may have reason to suppose that the property of a defaulter is lodged within a dwelling-house the outer door of which may be shut, or within any apartments appropriated to women which by the usage of the country are considered private, such distrainer shall represent the same to the head Officer of the Police (within whose jurisdiction the house may be situated), and on such representation the head Officer of the Police shall send a Police Officer to the spot, in the presence of whom the distrainer may force open the outer door of such dwelling-house, in like manner as they may break open the door of any room within the house, except the Zenana; the distrainer may also, in the presence of the Police Officer, after due notice given for the removal of women within a Zenana, and after furnishing means for their removal in a suitable manner (if they be women of rank who according to the customs of the country cannot appear in public), enter the Zenana apartments for the purpose of distraining the defaulter's property deposited therein; but such property, if found, shall be immediately removed from such apartments, after which they shall be left free to the former occupants; and nothing in this Act shall be understood to authorize a distrainer or his agent to force open the door of a dwelling-house, or to enter the apartments of women which by the usage of the country are considered private, in any other mode than is herein prescribed.

Punishment for unlawful entry.

XVI. Persons entering the apartments of women, or forcing open the outer door of dwelling-houses, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall on conviction before a Magistrate be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding six months.

Proclamation to be made of the time of sale and of the property to be sold.

XVII. The Public Officer empowered to sell distrained property shall cause to be affixed to the outer door of the defaulter's house a list of the property to be sold, with a notice specifying the place where and the day and hour at which the distrained property will be sold, and shall cause proclamation of the intended sale to be made by beat of drum in the village to which the lands on which the arrear has accrued may belong and in such place or places as the Collector may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale. No sale shall take place until after the expiration of a period of fifteen days from the date on which the notice may be so affixed.

Sale how to be conducted.

XVIII. At the appointed time, the property shall be put up in one or more lots as the distrainer may consider advisable, and shall be disposed of to the highest bidder. Where the property may sell for more than the amount of the arrear, the overplus, after deducting expenses of process and interest, shall be paid to the defaulter.

Payment on the purchase of distrained property how to be made.

XIX. The property shall be paid for in ready money at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall appoint, and the purchaser shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until he has paid for the same. Where the purchaser may fail in the payment of the purchase money, the property shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall make good to the distrainer any loss arising, as well as the expenses incurred on the re-sale.

When Collector may sell the real property instead of or in addition to the personal property of the defaulter.

XX. When a defaulter shall not have any moveable property of which distraint can be made, or when, after the moveable property of such defaulter shall have been distrained and sold, the arrear due with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale is not liquidated by the proceeds of such sale, the Collector shall have authority to proceed against and sell the immoveable property of the defaulter for the amount due with interest and all expenses attending such sale.

Previous sanction of the Board of Revenue necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

XXI. Immediately on the occurrence of an arrear, or at any subsequent period, the Collector shall have authority to attach at his discretion the whole or such portion of a defaulter's immoveable property as he may deem sufficient to answer the amount in arrear, but the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue shall in all cases be necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

Rules applicable to the sale of immoveable property.

XXII. The provisions of Sections XI, XII, XIII, XV, XVI, and XVII, Regulation XXVI. 1802 shall be applicable to sales of immoveable property under this Act, but a Persian translation of the sale advertisement shall not be necessary.

When Collector may sell the moveable property after the immoveable property of the defaulter has been distrained.

XXIII. When the immoveable property of a defaulter is first attached and sold, if the arrear due with interest, expenses of attachment and sale, and all other just charges, be not fully liquidated by the sale, the Collector may cause the moveable property of the defaulter to be distrained and sold for the recovery of the balance thereof with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale.

When arrears cannot be liquidated by distress, defaulter may be arrested.

XXIV. When arrears of Revenue or rent with interest and other charges as aforesaid may not be liquidated by the sale of the property of the defaulter, and the Collector shall have reason to believe that the defaulter is wilfully withholding payment of the arrears or has been guilty of any fraudulent conduct in order to evade payment, it shall be lawful for him to cause the arrest of the defaulter in the manner prescribed in Section XIII of Regulation XXVII. 1802 ; but no person shall be imprisoned on account of an arrear of Revenue for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the arrear does not exceed five hundred Rupees, or for a longer period than three months if the arrear does not exceed fifty Rupees.

Limit of imprisonment.

Mode of proceeding by persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section.

XXV. Persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section may proceed in the Zillah Court according to the provisions of Sections XI and XII, Regulation XXVII. 1802. The provisions of the said Sections shall be applicable to such proceedings, and no other proceeding in any Court shall be had or taken against the Collector.

What interest to be charged on arrears.

XXVI. Interest at one per centum per mensem shall be charged on all arrears of rent or Revenue under this Act from and after thirty days after the arrear has accrued.

Regulation V. 1822 not to apply to sales under this Act.

XXVII. Regulation V. 1822 shall not be applicable to sales of property under this Act.

Arrears of certain Revenue not land Revenue, and other sums, recovered under this Act.

XXVIII. Arrears of Revenue due to Government other than land Revenue and demands recoverable as arrears of Revenue, shall hereafter be recoverable in the same manner as arrears of land Revenue may be recovered under the provisions of this Act.

Regulation XXVIII. 1802 not to apply to arrears recoverable under this Act.

XXIX. Regulation XXVIII. 1802 shall be inoperative as respects arrears of Revenue recoverable under this Act.

Recovery of Fines.

XXX. The amount of any fine imposed under this Act shall be recoverable by the Collector in the manner prescribed in this Act for the recovery of arrears of Revenue or rent.

Suits by persons aggrieved by proceedings under this Act.

XXXI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to prevent parties, aggrieved by any proceedings under this Act, except as hereinbefore provided, from applying to the Courts of Adawlut for redress.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XL OF 1858.

An Act for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800, Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section V Regulation XVII. 1805, and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors, are repealed.

Persons and property of Minors not under the protection of the Court of Wards shall be subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying Revenue to Government who have been or shall be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors (not being European British subjects) and the charge of their property, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

What persons claiming to have charge of property in trust for a Minor may apply for certificate of administration.

III. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor under a Will or Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, may apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate of administration; and

No person competent to institute or defend a suit without such Certificate.

no person shall be entitled to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge until he shall have obtained such Certificate. Provided that, when the property is of small value, or for any other sufficient reason, any Court having jurisdiction may allow any relative of a Minor to institute or defend a suit on his behalf, although a Certificate of administration has not been granted to such relative.

Proviso.

Who may apply to Court to appoint a person to take charge of the property &c. of a Minor.

IV. Any relative or friend of a Minor in respect of whose property such Certificate has not been granted, or, if the property consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, the Collector of the District, may apply to the Civil Court to appoint a fit person to take charge of the property and person of such Minor.

To what Court application to be made, if property be situate in more than one District.

V. If the property be situate in more than one District, any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the Civil Court of the District in which the Minor has his residence.

Enquiry to be made by Court on application.

VI. When an application shall have been made to the Civil Court either by a person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor, or by any relative or friend of a Minor, or by the Collector, the Court shall issue notice of the application and fix a day for hearing the same. On the day so fixed, or as soon after as may be convenient, the Court shall enquire summarily into the circumstances and pass orders in the case. Provided always that it shall be competent to the Civil Court to direct and Court subordinate to it to make such enquiry any report the result.

Proviso.

Certificate of administration to whom to be granted.

VII. If it shall appear that any person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor is entitled to such right by virtue of a Will or Deed, and is willing to undertake the trust, the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to such person. If there is no person so entitled, or if such person is unwilling to undertake the trust, and there is any near relative of the Minor who is willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of his property the Court may grant a Certificate to such relative.

Court may appoint such person Guardian.

The Court may also, if it think fit, (unless a Guardian have been appointed by the father), appoint such person as aforesaid or such relative or any other relative or friend of the Minor, to be Guardian of the person of the Minor.

Court may call upon Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of relative or friend.

VIII. The Court may call upon the Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of any relative or friend of the Minor who may be desirous or willing to be entrusted with the charge of his property or person.

Proceeding if no title to a Certificate be established, and if there be no relative fit to be entrusted with the property &c. of a Minor.

IX. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will or Deed, and if there be no near relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property of the Minor, and the Court shall think it to be necessary for the interest of the Minor that provision should be made by the Court for the charge of his property and person, the Court may proceed to make such provision in the manner hereinafter provided.

If estate consist only of moveable property &c., Court may grant Certificate to Public Curator or other person.

X. If the estate of the Minor consist of moveable property or of houses, gardens, or the like, the Court may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act XIX of 1841, or, if there be no Public Curator, to any fit person whom the Court may appoint for the purpose.

Appointment of Guardian.

XI. Whenever the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to the estate of a Minor to the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid, it shall at the same time appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the Minor. The person to whom a Certificate of administration has been granted, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. If the person appointed to be Guardian be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court may assign him such allowance, to be paid out of the estate of the Minor, as under the circumstances of the case it may think suitable. The Court may also fix such allowance as it may think proper for the maintenance of the Minor; and such allowance and the allowance of the Guardian (if any) shall be paid to the Guardian by the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid.

When the estate consists of land, Court may direct Collector to take charge of estate.

XII. If the estate of the Minor consist, in whole or in part, of land or any interest in land, the Court may direct the Collector to take charge of estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the Property of the Minor and a Guardian of his person, in the same manner and subject to the same rules in respect of such appointments and of the duties to be performed by the Manager and the Guardian respectively, so far as the same may be applicable, as if the property and person of the Minor were subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards.

Payment of costs.

XIII. In all enquiries held by the Civil Court under this Act, the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by the person on whose application the enquiry was made, or out of the estate of the Minor or otherwise as it may think proper.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situate, may represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Court, unless it see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall in such case appoint a Guardian for the care of the persons, and a Manager for the charge of the property of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. If the property be situate in more than one District, the representation shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the property under the Court of Wards, to the Civil Court of his own District, and the orders of the Court of that District shall have effect also in other Districts in which portions of the property may be situate.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XV. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Public Curator &c. to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

XVI. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, deliver in Court an inventory of any immoveable property belonging to the Minor, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And the Public Curator and every such other Administrator shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If any relative or friend of a Minor or any Public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Curator or Administrator and enquire summarily into the matter, and make such order thereon as it shall think proper, or the Court at its discretion may refer such petition to any subordinate Court.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or account be impugned.

Public Curator &c. to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XVII. All sums received by the Public Curator or such other Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Minor or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Powers of person to whom Certificate has been granted in the management of a Minor's estate.

XVIII. Every person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, may exercise the same powers in the management of the Estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a Minor, and may collect and pay all just claims, debts, and liabilities due to or by the estate of the Minor. But no such person shall have power to sell or mortgage any immoveable property, or to grant a lease thereof for any period exceeding five years, without an order of the Civil Court previously obtained.

Relative or friend may sue for an account.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any relative or friend of a Minor, at any time during the continuance of the minority, to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, or from any such Manager or person, after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Continuance of suit instituted under this Act after disqualification shall have ceased.

XX. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to continue the prosecution of the suit on his own behalf.

Revocation of Certificate.

XXI. The Civil Court for any sufficient cause may recall any Certificate granted under this Act, and may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, or may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator or any other person as the case may be; and may compel the person whose Certificate has been recalled to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him. The Court may also for any sufficient cause remove any Guardian appointed by the Court.

Removal of Guardian.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXII. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any person who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court; and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court; and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Civil Court may permit resignation of trust &c.

XXIII. The Civil Court may permit any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under this Act not being the Public Curator, and any Guardian appointed by the Court, to resign his trust; and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands.

Remuneration of Public Curator &c.

XXIV. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X, shall be entitled to receive such commission not exceeding five per centum on the sums received and disbursed by him, or such other allowance, to be paid out of the Minor's estate, as the Civil Court shall think fit.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education.

XXV. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court, or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of any male Minor, shall be bound to provide for his education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of all such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act XXVI of 1854 (for making better provision for the education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards) shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

Persons under the age of 18 years to be held Minors for the purposes of this Act.

XXVI. For the purposes of this Act, every person shall be held to be a Minor, who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

Act not to authorize the appointment of Guardians of certain married women and other persons.

XXVII. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of a Guardian of the person of a female whose husband is not a Minor, or the appointment of a Guardian of the person of any Minor whose father is living and is not a Minor; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of any person other than a female as the Guardian of the person of a female. If a Guardian of the person of a Minor be appointed during the minority of the father or husband of the Minor, the Guardianship shall cease as soon as the father or husband (as the case may be) shall attain the age of majority.

Guardianship during the minority of the father or husband of a Minor when to cease.

Appeals.

XXVIII. All orders passed by the Civil Court or by any Subordinate Court under this Act shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of such Court and the Subordinate Courts.

Interpretation. "Civil Court."

XXIX. The expression "Civil Court" as used in this Act shall be held to mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the district, and shall not include the Supreme Court; and nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the powers of the Supreme Court over the person or property of any Minor subject to its jurisdiction. Unless the contrary appears from the context, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

THE 11TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th December 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 15th of February next:—

A Bill to amend the Law for the trial of Officers of the Bengal Pilot Service for breach of duty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law for the trial of persons employed in the Pilot Service of Government, at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, when accused of breach of duty; It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. Act XXIV of 1845 (for establishing a Court for the trial of Officers of the Pilot Service accused of breach of duty) and Act I of 1851 (for the appropriation of fines levied under Act XXIV of 1845), are hereby repealed.

How Pilots accused of breach of duty shall be brought to trial.

II. When any person employed in the Pilot Service of Government at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall be accused of having committed any breach of duty while engaged in such Service, and it shall appear to the Superintendent of Marine, or to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, that such person ought to be brought to trial for such breach of duty, such person shall be brought to trial upon a charge or charges framed by the said Superintendent of Marine, or such other person as the said Lieutenant-Governor shall direct, before a Court constituted under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of Judge.

III. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall appoint a fit person to be Judge of the said Court.

Who shall be summoned to sit as a Jury.

IV. When the Judge of the said Court shall be about to hold a trial under this Act, he shall summon, by writing under his hand, three persons, two of whom shall be Merchants of Calcutta and one a Master of a Merchant Ship lying in the Port of Calcutta, to sit as a Jury at the said trial. If any such person when duly summoned shall, without lawful cause, neglect or refuse to attend at the time appointed, or to remain in attendance until the trial shall be completed, it shall be lawful for the said Judge to impose upon any such person a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees for every such default; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by the Judge. Such warrant may be transmitted by the Judge to any Magistrate of Police for the town of Calcutta, and thereupon such Magistrate shall endorse the same and shall cause it to be executed in the same manner as if the warrant had been issued by such Magistrate.

Penalty for persons so summoned not attending.

V. The Lieutenant-Governor shall appoint such person as he may think proper to conduct the proceedings before the Court as Prosecutor on the part of Government.

Appointment of Prosecutor.

VI. The Judge of the said Court shall give sufficient notice to the Prosecutor, and to the party accused, of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the trial.

Due notice of time and place of trial to be given to Prosecutor and the accused.

VII. Before the commencement of any trial under this Act, the persons summoned and attending as Jurors shall be sworn by the Judge of the Court to give a true verdict according to the evidence.

Jurors to be sworn.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, at the instance of the Prosecutor, or of the party accused, or of his own motion, by writing under his hand, to summon any person to attend as a witness at a time and place to be specified in the summons, for the purpose of being examined at any trial before the said Court; or if such person shall be about to depart from Calcutta, so as to be unable to attend at such trial without serious inconvenience, then to be examined before the Judge of the said Court before the day fixed for the trial; provided always that due notice of the time and place of such examination shall be given to the accused party; provided also that such witness may nevertheless be examined at the trial if he shall be able to attend thereat, in which case his previous examination may also be read at the trial.

Judge may summon witnesses to attend at a certain time and place.

Examination of witnesses about to leave Calcutta.

IX. If any person who shall have been duly summoned to attend as a witness shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to attend, or attending shall refuse to give evidence or to answer any question which may be lawfully put to him, such person shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, as the Judge of the said Court shall order; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same in the manner prescribed in Section IV of this Act.

Penalty for witnesses not attending or refusing to give evidence.

X. The evidence of every witness examined before the said Court shall be given on oath, affirmation, or otherwise, according to the rules in that behalf for the examination of witnesses in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature.

Witnesses to be examined on oath, according to the rules in force in the Supreme Court.

XI. Upon the completion of the trial the Jurors shall give their verdict upon the charge, or, if there be more than one, upon each separate charge. The verdict shall be according to the opinion of the majority of Jurors.

Verdict of Jurors.

XII. If by such verdict the accused person is found guilty of the charge or of any one or more of the charges preferred against him, the Judge of the Court shall sentence him to be dismissed from the said Pilot Service, or shall award such other punishment, by loss of rank or pay, or by suspension from employment for a specified period, as to the Judge shall appear fit. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, may prepare a Schedule of offences and punishments (such punishments being of the same nature as those hereinbefore mentioned) for the guidance of the said Court; and if such Schedule be prepared and sanctioned, and the charge proved before the said Court is an offence specified in such Schedule, the Judge of the said Court shall award such punishment as is prescribed for such offence in the said Schedule, and no other. If by such verdict as aforesaid the accused person is found not guilty of the charge or charges preferred against him, the Judge shall declare him acquitted of the same.

Sentence of Court if the accused be found guilty.

Schedule of offences and punishments to be prepared.

Acquittal.

XIII. The Proceedings of the Court shall be sent by the Judge to the Superintendent of Marine for submission to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal; and no sentence of punishment pronounced by the Judge of the said Court shall be final until it has been approved of by the said Lieutenant-Governor. The said Lieutenant-Governor may remit the whole or any part of such sentence, or may direct the substitution of any mitigated punishment, in lieu of the punishment awarded by the said Court, as he shall think fit.

No sentence to be final till approved by Government.

Government may remit sentence or mitigate punishment.

XIV. If it shall appear to the Judge of the said Court that the verdict of the Jurors is manifestly contrary to the evidence, or that the trial is otherwise insufficient, the Judge, instead of passing sentence on the accused person, or declaring him acquitted, as the case may be, may certify the same to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. If the verdict of the Jurors be a verdict of acquittal, the said Lieutenant-Governor may either direct that no further proceedings shall be taken in the case, or may order a new trial before another Jury, as he shall think fit. If the verdict be a verdict of conviction, the said Lieutenant-Governor shall order a new trial before another Jury.

If verdict of Jurors be manifestly contrary to evidence, or trial be otherwise insufficient.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to make such rules as he shall think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for conducting the proceedings and regulating the practice of the said Court.

Power of Government to make rules.

XVI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to restrict the Marine Authorities or the Government from passing such orders as may be deemed proper upon any charge of breach of duty preferred against any person employed in the said Pilot Service, when it shall not be deemed necessary that such person should be brought to trial for such breach of duty under the provisions of this Act.

Act not to restrict Government from giving such orders as may be thought proper upon a charge of breach of duty where a trial is not deemed necessary.

XVII. The provisions of this Act shall extend to all persons employed in the Pilot Service at the said Presidency and borne on the rolls of the Government establishment, whether such persons receive fixed salaries, or are remunerated by a portion of the Pilotage charged on the vessels piloted by them, or in any other manner.

Act applicable to what persons.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE follwing Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 18th December 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 22nd of March next :—

A Bill to amend Act XVIII of 1848 (for the administration of the Estate of the late Nabob of Surat, and to continue privileges to his family).

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act XVIII of 1848 in order that the proceedings of the Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration to and distribution of the Estate of the late Nabob of Surat may be subject to such appeal as is hereinafter provided ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. So much of Section II of Act XVIII of 1848, as enacts that "no act of the said Governor of Bombay in Council, in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property as is therein referred to from the date of the death of the said late Nabab, shall be liable to be questioned in any Court of Law or Equity," is repealed.

Part of Section II Act XVIII of 1848 repealed.

II. No act of the said Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property from the date of the death of the said late Nabob, shall be liable to be questioned in any Court of Law or Equity or be subject to any appeal save as is hereinafter provided.

No act of Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration of the late Nabob's Estate to be questioned in any Court or to be appealable, except as provided by this Act.

III. All orders and decisions of the said Governor of Bombay in Council made and passed in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property, shall be deemed to be respectively orders and decisions of a Court of Justice, and shall be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, it being intended that the said orders and decisions shall be open to appeal in like manner as orders passed by the said Governor in Council under the provision of Clause 1 Section V Regulation XXIX. 1827 of the Bombay Code.

Decisions of Governor in Council respecting the administration of the Estate to be deemed judicial decisions and to be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

R. J. H. Birch, Major-Genl.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
with the Govr. Genl.

Camp at Simree,
The 9th November 1858.

Sir,

I have the honor to state for the information of the Major General Commanding Oudh Field Force, that I marched from Poorwah with the Troops named in the margin, at 5 o'Clock on the morning of the 8th instant leaving a small Force behind, for the protection of the Town, under Major Bulwer, Her Majesty's 23rd R. W. F.

4 Guns, R. H. Artillery.
2 Guns, R. Artillery.
Siege Train.
300 1st Seikh Cavalry.
424 3rd Police Cavalry.
230 5th Ditto.
240 Her Majesty's 30th Regt.
250 H. M's. 23rd R. W. F.
190 Her Majesty's 80th Regt.
360 4th Police Infantry
550 7th Ditto ditto.

Having been informed on the previous night, that Oomero Sing was in occupation of the village of Morar Mow, with about 4,000 and 3 guns, 1,400 of whom were estimated to be Cavalry, I advanced with two Horse Artillery Guns and 400 Cavalry, finding the approach to the village very difficult, and the surrounding country intersected with deep nullahs, and abounding in salt pits, especially about the vicinity of the village.

I ordered a Troop of Cavalry to the right, and one to the left of Morar Mow, to turn his flank, and advanced with considerable difficulty with the remainder of the advanced Force.

Hearing from Lieutenant Chamberlain, of the Oudh Police Force, who was on the right, that the enemy was in retreat on that flank, I despatched another Squadron in that direction and galloped forward with the remainder.

On reaching the other side of the village, I sent the whole of the Cavalry in pursuit under Captain Jones, 1st Seikh Cavalry, the Senior Officer, who pursued them for several miles, over almost impassable ground, and through thick crops and topes of trees.

The result was most satisfactory, 2 of the enemy's guns being captured, and about 100 men killed, chiefly Sepoys of the Bengal Army, and a few of the 2nd Cavalry.

The Police Cavalry under Lieutenant Chamberlain, and the 1st Seikh Cavalry under Lieutenant Godby, behaved remarkably well.

Captain Jones, who Commanded the whole, brings to my notice Lieutenant Stewart, of his Corps, who particularly distinguished himself in a hand to hand encounter with some Sepoys; also Naib Ressaldar Subhan Khan, who acted as his Orderly, and showed himself a true and daring Soldier, and has been at all times most zealous in the Intelligence Department, and saved the lives of many of his Officers when his Regiment, the 9th Light Cavalry, mutinied at Sealkote; also Lance Duffadar Sham Sing, who distinguished himself in an encounter with some Sepoys.

Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding the Police Cavalry, brings to my notice also, Ressaldar Ummer Sing, of the 5th Cavalry, and Jemadar Purubdiah, of the 3rd, who was wounded when leading in a hand to hand fight, and showed a good example to his men.

I beg to thank Captain Jones for the zeal and activity he displayed with his Force, over most difficult ground.

Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding the Police Cavalry, and those under his Command, also merit my best thanks.

I beg to annex a list of the Casualties and captured Ordnance.

I have, &c.,

No. 578 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from Brigadier Troup, Commanding a Moveable Column, reporting his operations against the Rebels at Mittoulee, on the 8th November 1858.

The Governor General entirely approves of the operations of Brigadier Troup, and of the conduct of the Officers and Men engaged in this action.

No. 3.

From Brigadier Colin Troup,
Commanding Moveable Column,

To Major-Genl. Sir W. Mansfield, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff.

Camp Mittoulee, 8th November 1858.

Sir,

Since my last No. 15 of the 4th November 1858, I have had the honor of receiving your Telegram, but before it arrived, however, I had made up my mind to defer my advance on Mittoulee no longer, as the Rebels were collecting there in great numbers, and I saw no probability of the Mittoulee Rajah coming in.

2. Having now fully determined to take Mittoulee, and having received no camels to relieve me of my carts; at noon on the 5th I started the whole of my heavy baggage, tents, carts, &c., off to Mahomdee, having first obtained Sir Thomas Seaton's sanction to the arrangement, and requested Colonel Watson, who was Commanding there to take charge of my baggage, and so leave me uncncumbered to operate against the Rajah of Mittoulee.

3. The escort which accompanied the baggage to Mahomdee, returned to Camp at noon on the 6th, having been out 24 hours.

4. My position at Nikana was immediately opposite the Pumorah Ghat on the Rutna, by which I intended crossing the river, and advancing on the Fort; but hearing of the preparations the Rajah and his allies had made to oppose my progress, and the obstacles they had thrown across the road by felling large trees, and cutting double rows of trenches, at intervals across the track through the jungle, this was represented to be so narrow, as barely to admit of a passage for the light guns; this information has since proved true. I abandoned this project, and determined to make a flank movement by Mahouly, and so come on to the south-eastern face of the Fort, where the enemy did not expect me.

5. I kept my own counsel, and continued sending Patrols in the direction of Pumorah Ghat, so as to deceive the enemy and lead the Rajah to suppose, that my advance was to be by that road.

6. The deception was more successful than I thought it possible for it to be; the Rajah seemed quite sure, that I should advance on this Ghat, and sent guns to command it, which he placed in such a position (a sketch of which is enclosed) that had I gone that way, my Troops might have suffered considerably, and the loss of life might have been great.

7. My plan being matured, I fell in my Column at 1 A. M. on the morning of the 7th, and marched (vid Norrungabad) to a Ghat, some miles down the river, called the Simara Ghat, but on arrival there found it impracticable, so I had to move about 2 miles further down the river and cross the river by a fine stone bridge to Mahouly and bivoucked there for the day.

8. Mahouly is a very large village on the eastern side of the Rutna, occupying a commanding position on the Seetapore road, with a small ghurree on an eminence, on the river side, viz. the west, with various other commanding sites on either side of the river; had the enemy occupied this position, the passage of the river by the bridge, would have been accomplished with great difficulty. The reason for my digressing to describe the position of Mahouly, is to make Lord Clyde acquainted, as far as possible, with the passage of the Rutna, between Nurrungabad and Seetapore.

9. At day break on the 8th, I formed my Column of march, as shown in the margin, with my flanks protected by Cavalry and Skirmishers, and moved on Mittoulee about sun rise.

One Troop Cureton's Horse under the Command of the Field Officer coming off duty.

10. Proceeding about 2 miles to the village of Chuhor, through light jungle, I found a large body of Rebel Cavalry watching us. The ground was very unfavourable for our Cavalry to act on, so I brought my light guns under Lieutenant-Colonel Remington, C. B., under the direction of Lieut.-Colonel Brind, C. B., Commanding the Artillery, to bear upon them, and after a few rounds cleared the place.

11. I then went on 2 miles further to the village of Burragaon, where I expected to find Khan Ali and Feroze Shah, but they had disappeared, and I passed through the village unmolested, a little delay took place in getting my Column through the village as soon as the Column was closed up, which was rapidly done, I again advanced and, proceeding a short distance, I saw the enemy's Cavalry to my front a second time, I again cleared them with my light guns, supported by a party, 6th Dragoon Guards and Rifles.

12. After this I went on feeling my way to a village called Lullos, and then a mile on to Tundos, a small village just within very long range of the guns of the southern face of the Fort.

13. In rear of this village, I halted the head of my Column and reconnoitering the Fort, moved up my guns and attacked the south-eastern bastion, my light guns being on the left, the heavy battery in the centre, and the mortars under cover of trees to the right. My guns were in position, and opened fire between 1 and 2 P. M., at a distance varying from 800 to 1,200 yards, the enemy's guns playing on our Artillery while we were getting into position, and their fire increasing as they brought nearly all their guns to the southern face.

14. The guns were supported as follows: by 4 Companies 60th Rifles, with the Light Artillery strengthened by the Head Quarters of that Regiment, as the heavy battery came up, the Carabineers, being judiciously placed in support on the flanks, while the Mooltanee Cavalry were feeling the jungle and country about, and watching the enemy.

15. The fire from the Fort increasing, and it being evident that the enemy was bringing all his Artillery to the southern face of the Fort, both on the enciente and in the jungles on our front, it was found necessary to advance the heavy battery to within 600 or 700 yards, so as to overpower the Rebel guns, the 2 guns No. 7 Light Field Battery, being judiciously placed under cover to the left front, to keep that flank clear, Lieutenant Colonel Remington having at the same time been detached with 4 Horse Artillery guns to the left of the main body, with instructions to watch the enemy, but reserve his fire as far as circumstances justified; these guns were not again required to come into action. The other 2 guns of his Troop, remained for the protection of the baggage and parks.

16. Towards dusk, the favourable effect of our fire became perceptible, and as it appeared that the enemy were still unshaken, arrangements were made for a night bivouack, the advanced Artillery was consolidated with the mortar battery in judicious order, with reference to a night attack. The night past without molestation with the exception of a shot or two fired from the Fort, and a few shot from matchlocks.

17. In conjunction with Lieutenant Colonel Brind, Commanding the Artillery, and Captain Maunsell, Commanding the Engineers, I made arrangements for continuing operations on the following morning, but from ignorance of the nature of the ground around the Fort, and the impossibility of collecting trustworthy information from the people of the country, though the largest inducements in the shape of pecuniary rewards were offered, together with the darkness of the night, I deemed it advisable to defer all operations till daylight, with the hope of obtaining by observation, and expected information from our scouts, a clearer knowledge of the difficulties we might have to encounter.

18. At daylight, on the morning of the 9th, I directed Captain Cureton to reconnoitre the Fort; he advanced with one Troop of his Regiment to the south west angle, and seeing no sign of its being occupied, proceeded close under the walls; not being molested in any way, he sent me information to this effect. I immediately directed some Light Troops to move on to the front, Lieutenant Colonel Brind, C. B., Commanding them; this party entered the Fort, and finding it empty, took possession of it, I followed immediately after, and went over the Fort, and its defences, a description of which by Captain Maunsell, I do myself the honor to enclose.

19. The Rajah and his allies carried away or secreted all the guns they had, with the exception of those shown in the return of captured Ordnance.

20. It is now my pleasing duty to bring to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, the conduct of the whole of the Troops under my command; the behaviour of the Artillery was remarkable, who followed the noble energetic and cool example of their Commanding Officer Lieutenant Colonel Brind, C. B. Both Officers and Men worked like slaves throughout the entire day, to the admiration of all who witnessed them. On this occasion, this branch of the service upheld its reputation; the fire that our guns and mortars were under from the Fort guns, worked under cover of the works of the Fort, was very severe; notwithstanding this, our Artillery engaged the enemy without shelter of any kind, and doubtless by their coolness and precision of fire, paralyzed the enemy, and forced him to take advantage of the night to make a hasty retreat. To Colonel Brind, C. B., Commanding the Artillery, every praise is due for the cool and judicious manner in which he placed his guns, and I wish particularly to bring the assistance I receive from this Officer on every occasion, whether connected with his own branch of the service or any other, with reference generally to the operations in which we are engaged, prominently to the notice of Lord Clyde. Lieutenant Colonel Remington, C. B., Commanding 3rd Troop, 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, with his guns cleared our road of the enemy's Cavalry, wherever they showed themselves; my thanks are especially due to him for the splendid manner in which he worked his Troop, throughout the entire day. I was greatly pleased at the way Captain Cox, with the heavy guns, and Captain Stubbs, with the mortars, and Lieutenant Wake, with 2 guns No. 7 Light Battery, commanded their respective batteries, and at the manner the guns and mortars were worked. I wish to bring the names of these Officers to the notice of Lord Clyde, as being Artillery Officers of great coolness, judgment and experience, and well-worthy of his favorable consideration. I fully concur with Lieutenant Colonel Brind, in the high estimate he has formed of Captain Bishop, Divisional Staff to the Artillery, and recommend him strongly to the favourable notice of the Commander-in-Chief.

21. Captain Maunsell, Commanding the Sappers is worthy of every praise I can give him and is well known to his Lordship; he has rendered me most willing and able assistance since the time of his joining my Column, and, with his Sappers, is a very great help to me; he is now engaged in the heavy work of destroying the Fort of Mittoulee, on the completion of which I will more fully allude to the valuable services of this Officer. I must beg to be allowed to bring to his Lordship's notice, in conjunction with Captain Maunsell's services the name of Lieutenant Humphrey, Adjutant of the Sappers, who had volunteered to undertake the important, but dangerous duty, of blowing open the gate of the Fort in case of an assault.

22. To Lieutenant Colonel Custance, C. B., I feel indebted for the manner in which he disposed of his Cavalry, and kept my flanks completely protected. On Captain C. Jones, Commanding Her Majesty's 1st Battalion 60th Rifles, and his Officers and Men, I cannot bestow too much praise; in bringing Captain Jones's name to his Lordship's notice, I am sorry to be obliged to add, that he received a severe contusion from a round shot, just as it was getting dusk; on Captain Jones being wounded, the Command of the Regiment devolved on Captain McQueen. I hope it may not be out of place for me to add, that the 60th Rifles, although employed on bad ground, under most harrassing circumstances, performed their duty with great willingness and cheerfulness, and with a degree of order and precision that would have done credit to a review parade; to every Officer and man of that Regiment, I wish to tender my best thanks.

23. I also offer my best thanks to Colonel Hay, C. B., Commanding 93rd Highlanders, and Captain Hockly, Commanding 66th Goorkahs, who with the men under their respective commands, carried out all the duties allotted to them to my entire satisfaction. It is my pleasing duty again to bring to his Lordship's notice, Captain Cureton and his Regiment of Mooltanee Cavalry.

Commanding Officers and Men are always willing and ready to perform any duty, whether fighting the enemy, seeking information, or whatever may be required of them. Whatever they undertake they perform right well.

24. To my own personal Staff, viz., Brevet Major Cox, Major of Brigade to the Column; Captain C. Warde, Officiating Deputy Quarter Master General; Lieutenant Prendergast, Orderly Officer, I beg to tender my best thanks for their services, and for the ready and efficient aid they gave me, on all occasions throughout the entire day.

25. To Captain Law, Sub-Assistant Commissary General, I am deeply indebted and thank him for the excellent arrangements he made under considerable difficulties, for provisioning the Force, and wish to bring him prominently to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, as an excellent Commissariat Officer.

26. Doctor Tienin, Senior Surgeon of the Force, ably and readily assisted by the other Medical Officers of the Column, made all their arrangements entirely to my satisfaction, and my best thanks are due to them, for the manner in which all the medical arrangements were carried out.

27. It is now with great satisfaction that I record the obligations I feel myself under to Mr. Balmain, Lieutenant Clarke, and Captain William Hearsay, Civil Officers with my Column, for the ready and cordial assistance they have renderd me, in an unknown and difficult country, where the greatest judgment is necessary in testing the information received from doubtful sources.

Captain Hearsay, in a bad state of health, has at all hours of the day and night, been engaged in his duties connected with the Intelligence Department, though suffering from great pain, and unable to mount a horse; I beg therefore, that I may be allowed to solicit his Lordship's interest and most favourable report to Government of this meritorious Officer.

28. I beg to enclose a Return of Killed and Wounded, also one of captured Ordnance with the reports from Commanding Officers.

I have, &c.,

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1*st December* 1858.

Notice is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

Produce of Behar Agency ...	Chests	1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto ...	„	345
Total Chests ...		2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so:—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

Article 6th.—"With regard to the Trade in Opium it is agreed between the high contracting parties that at each of the periodical Sales of that article there shall be reserved for the French Government and delivered upon requisition duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests so applied for, provided that such supply shall not exceed Three Hundred Chests in each year, and the price for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodical Sale, it being understood, that if the quantity of Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much in reduction of the Three Hundred Chests hereinbefore mentioned. The requisitions for Opium as aforesaid are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta within thirty days after notice of the intended Sales shall have been published in the Government Gazette."

Article of the Convention above refered to.

PEARL FISHERY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Pearl Fishery will take place at Aripo, in the Island of Ceylon, on or about the 1st of March next 1859, and that the Banks to be fished are the Modregam Bank, and that portion of the North-west part of the Chivel Paar Bank left unfinished last March, estimated to contain Oysters sufficient to employ fifty Boats for fifteen days.

It is therefore recommended, that such Boat-owners and Divers as may wish to be employed at the said Fishery should be at Aripo, on or before the 20th February next. And it is particularly notified, that the first day's fishing will positively take place on the first day in March that the weather may permit the Boats to fish.

The Fishery will be conducted on account of Government, and the Oysters put up to sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

The arrangements of the Fishery will be the same as have been usual on similar occasions.

All payments to be made in Ready Money in Ceylon Currency, or in East India Company's Rupees.

Drafts on the Banks in Colombo, or Bills on the Agents of this Government in India, at Ten days' Sight will be taken, on Letters of Credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such Drafts or Bills.

For the convenience of Purchasers, the Treasurer at Colombo and the different Government Agents of Provinces, will be authorized to receive Cash Deposits from parties intending to become Purchasers, and Receipts of these Officers will be taken in payment of any sums due on account of the Fishery.

No deposit will be received for a less sum than fifty pounds.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. J. MACCARTHY,
Colonial Secretary.

CAMP HEAD OF THE BHAGIRUTTY RIVER,
The 16th December 1858.

NOTE.—Tolls have not been collected since the 6th instant on the Matabangah River.

* The effects of the Works at this River's Entrance are favorable to date. All Boats should therefore take the Bhagiruttee Route.

† This depth of 2 ft. 4 inches is only at one Shoal near Berhampore, and was caused by the neglect of a subordinate. It is now being worked at.

‡ Entrance closed at present by the Large Shoal created by the Ganges in 1853-54.

§ The entrance and upper part of this River is very favorable.

The Spur that has been built into the Ganges brings in a good supply of water, no Shoal exists to date to near Haut Boleah (44 Miles) There the head of the Lower River is closed, the water flowing down the Pangassee.

Boats can trade to Alickdeah from Calcutta and thence their Cargoes must go by land to Haut Boleah (10 or 11 Miles) just above this place the Upper River is reached which is well open this year and will be kept so,—it is hoped.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1858.

An Act to repeal Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code, and to make certain provisions rendered necessary by the transfer of the Delhi Territory to the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the whole of the Delhi Territory, except such part thereof as is specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, has been placed under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and it is expedient that Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code should be repealed; It is enacted as follows:—

Regulation repealed.

I. Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code is hereby repealed, except as to that part of the Delhi Territory which is mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Suits and proceedings pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

II. All suits and proceedings which were pending in any Court or before any Officer within any part of the said Territory, except as aforesaid, at the time when the same was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab and which have been or shall be transferred to the Courts or Officers which have been or shall be established or appointed for the administration of Civil and Criminal justice and the collection of the Revenues therein, shall be deemed to have been lawfully transferred to such Courts and Officers according to their respective jurisdictions; and any suits or proceedings which, subsequently to the time when the said Territory was so placed under such administration, shall have been instituted in any such Court or before any such Officer, shall be deemed to have been lawfully instituted.

Suits instituted subsequently.

Suits determined before the transfer, but which may be remanded by an appellate Court.

III. Any suit which, prior to the time when the said Territory was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, had been determined, and which hath been or shall be remanded by any Appellate Court, shall be tried before the Court which, for the time being, would be competent to try such a suit if instituted after the passing of this Act.

Appeals or proceedings now pending before the Sudder Court or Board.

IV. All appeals or proceedings now pending in the Court of Sudder Dewany Adawlut or in the Court of Nizamut Adawlut or before the Sudder Board of Revenue for the North-Western Provinces shall be determined by such Court or Board in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed; and all applications for execution of decrees or orders which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been made to any Court existing at the period above-mentioned, shall be made to the Court or Officer who would have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter in dispute, had the suit or proceeding been instituted after the passing of this Act.

Applications for execution of decrees.

Appeals not pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

V. All appeals from decrees or orders passed before the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, which were not pending when the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, shall be received, heard, and determined by the Courts or Officers who would have had jurisdiction over such appeals, had the decrees or orders to which they relate been passed after the passing of this Act, and all decisions or orders passed by any such Courts or Officers on any appeals which may have been preferred between the date on which the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and the date of the passing of this Act, shall be of the same force as if such decisions or orders had been passed after the passing of this Act.

Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the better recovery of Arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency

Preamble.

WHEREAS difficulties occur in applying the rules of Regulation XXVIII. 1802 of the Madras Code to lands under Ryotwar Settlements or otherwise subject to a Khas collection on the part of Government, and it is expedient to modify those rules; and whereas it is necessary to provide that the Collector shall, at his discretion, proceed to realize arrears of such Revenue by the sale of either the moveable or immoveable property of defaulters; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Act repealed.

I. Act XXIII of 1850 (for the better recovery of arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency) is hereby repealed except so far as relates to indemnity for anything done before the passing of that Act.

Collector empowered to recover arrears of Revenue or rent by sale of moveable or immoveable property of defaulter.

II. Whenever the Revenue or rent of any such lands is withheld beyond the day on which it falls due according to the Kistbundy or other engagement, or where no particular day is fixed, then beyond the time when such Revenue or rent becomes payable agreeably to local usage, the Collector shall have authority to proceed for the recovery of such arrears by the distress and the sale of the moveable property or the sale of the immoveable property of the defaulter wherever found. Provided that bullocks necessary to the cultivation of a tenant's holding, ploughs and implements of husbandry, and the tools of artisans shall not be subject to distraint or sale.

Proviso.

Seizure and sale of moveable property to be made as follows.

III. In the seizure and sale of moveable property for arrears of Revenue or rent, the following rules shall be observed.

Collector to furnish person distraining with a demand in writing.

First.—The Collector, or any other Officer empowered by the Collector in that behalf, shall furnish to the person employed to distrain the property of a defaulter, a demand in writing and signed with his name specifying the amount of the arrear for which the distress may be issued, and the date on which the arrear fell due.

Defaulter to be served with a copy.

The person so deputed shall produce the writing as authority for making the distress, and on the day on which the property may be distrained, shall deliver a copy of such writing to the defaulter, endorsing thereon a list or inventory of the property distrained and the name of the place where it may be lodged or kept.

Writing to state that the distrained property will be sold.

Second.—The writing shall further set forth that the distrained property will be immediately brought to public sale, unless the amount and the expense of the distress be previously discharged.

Mode of service when defaulter is absent.

Third.—When a defaulter may be absent, a copy of the writing, with the endorsement, shall be fixed or left at his usual place of residence before the expiration of the third day, calculating from the day of the distress.

Consequence of defaulter neglecting to pay after notice, or absenting himself.

IV. Where a defaulter on receiving notice may neglect to pay the amount due or to give satisfactory security for early payment, or where a defaulter may have absconded or may be otherwise not forthcoming so that the notice cannot be served upon him, the distrainer shall in either case transmit an inventory of the property distrained to the nearest public Officer empowered to sell distrained property in order that it may be publicly sold for the discharge of the arrear due.

On tender of arrear and expenses prior to the day of sale, distress to be withdrawn.

V. Where a defaulter may tender payment of the arrear demanded after his property may have been distrained and prior to the day fixed for sale, together with payment of the necessary expenses attending the distress, the distrainer shall receive the amount of such arrear and expenses immediately upon the same being tendered, and shall forthwith release the property.

Distrained crops how to be dealt with.

VI. The distrainer attaching the crops or ungathered products of the lands belonging to a defaulter, may cause them to be sold when fit for reaping or gathering, or at his option may cause them to be reaped or gathered in due season and stored in proper places until sold. In the latter case the expense of reaping or gathering and storing such crops or products, shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Distrained cattle or goods not be used.

VII. The distrainer shall not work the bullocks or cattle, or make use of the goods or effects distrained; he shall provide the necessary food for the cattle or live-stock, the expense attending which shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Officer responsible for neglect in respect to distrained property.

VIII. Where property distrained may be stolen, or lost, or damaged by reason of the necessary precautions for its due preservation not having been taken, the loss or damage shall be made good by the Officer whose neglect occasioned the loss or damage.

Distress to be proportionate to the arrear.

IX. The distress levied shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible proportionate to the amount of the arrear.

Time for distress.

X. Distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset and not otherwise.

Penalty for fraudulent conveyance of property to prevent distress.

XI. Where a defaulter may make a fraudulent conveyance of property, to prevent the distress for arrears, the Zillah Court, upon proof thereof, shall summarily cause the property to be delivered up to the distrainer, and may impose on the parties to the fraud such fine, not exceeding one-half of the value of the property, as it may think proper.

Claims to property distrained and sold.

XII. Where a person, not being a defaulter or responsible for a defaulter, may claim a right to the property distrained, and the distrainer may, notwithstanding, cause the same to be sold, the claimants, on proof of such right in the Zillah Court and in the event of the distrainer being unable to prove the responsibility for the arrear of Revenue or rent on account of which the property may have been sold, shall recover from the distrainer the full value of such property with costs and damages, according to the circumstances of the case. But claims to crops upon the ground, or to gathered products of the ground attached, in the possession of the defaulter, whether founded upon a previous sale, mortgage, or otherwise, shall not bar the prior claim of Revenue or rent due from the ground upon which such crop or product may have been grown.

Penalty for forcibly or clandestinely taking away distrained property.

XIII. Where it may be proved to the satisfaction of the Zillah Court that any person has forcibly or clandestinely taken away property once distrained, the Court may cause such person to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months or until he sooner restore the property or make good the value of it to the distrainer, and may also impose on him a fine not exceeding the value of such property.

What places distrainer may force open.

XIV. The distrainer shall have power to force open any stable, cow-house, goluh, granary, godown, out-house, or other building, as also to enter any dwelling-house the outer door of which may be open (excepting the apartments in such dwelling-house appropriated for the Zenana or residence of women), and to break open the door of any room in such dwelling-house for the purpose of attaching property belonging to a defaulter and lodged therein.

Powers of distrainer to force open doors in the presence of a Police Officer.

XV. Where a distrainer may have reason to suppose that the property of a defaulter is lodged within a dwelling-house the outer door of which may be shut, or within any apartments appropriated to women which by the usage of the country are considered private, such distrainer shall represent the same to the head Officer of the Police (within whose jurisdiction the house may be situated), and on such representation the head Officer of the Police shall send a Police Officer to the spot, in the presence of whom the distrainer may force open the outer door of such dwelling-house, in like manner as they may break open the door of any room within the house, except the Zenana; the distrainer may also, in the presence of the Police Officer, after due notice given for the removal of women within a Zenana, and after furnishing means for their removal in a suitable manner (if they be women of rank who according to the customs of the country cannot appear in public), enter the Zenana apartments for the purpose of distraining the defaulter's property deposited therein; but such property, if found, shall be immediately removed from such apartments, after which they shall be left free to the former occupants; and nothing in this Act shall be understood to authorize a distrainer or his agent to force open the door of a dwelling-house, or to enter the apartments of women which by the usage of the country are considered private, in any other mode than is herein prescribed.

Punishment for unlawful entry.

XVI. Persons entering the apartments of women, or forcing open the outer door of dwelling-houses, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall on conviction before a Magistrate be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding six months.

Proclamation to be made of the time of sale and of the property to be sold.

XVII. The Public Officer empowered to sell distrained property shall cause to be affixed to the outer door of the defaulter's house a list of the property to be sold, with a notice specifying the place where and the day and hour at which the distrained property will be sold, and shall cause proclamation of the intended sale to be made by beat of drum in the village to which the lands on which the arrear has accrued may belong and in such place or places as the Collector may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale. No sale shall take place until after the expiration of a period of fifteen days from the date on which the notice may be so affixed.

Sale how to be conducted.

XVIII. At the appointed time, the property shall be put up in one or more lots as the distrainer may consider advisable, and shall be disposed of to the highest bidder. Where the property may sell for more than the amount of the arrear, the overplus, after deducting expenses of process and interest, shall be paid to the defaulter.

Payment on the purchase of distrained property how to be made.

XIX. The property shall be paid for in ready money at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall appoint, and the purchaser shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until he has paid for the same. Where the purchaser may fail in the payment of the purchase money, the property shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall make good to the distrainer any loss arising, as well as the expenses incurred on the re-sale.

When Collector may sell the real property instead of or in addition to the personal property of the defaulter.

XX. When a defaulter shall not have any moveable property of which distraint can be made, or when, after the moveable property of such defaulter shall have been distrained and sold, the arrear due with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale is not liquidated by the proceeds of such sale, the Collector shall have authority to proceed against and sell the immoveable property of the defaulter for the amount due with interest and all expenses attending such sale.

Previous sanction of the Board of Revenue necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

XXI. Immediately on the occurrence of an arrear, or at any subsequent period, the Collector shall have authority to attach at his discretion the whole or such portion of a defaulter's immoveable property as he may deem sufficient to answer the amount in arrear, but the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue shall in all cases be necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

Rules applicable to the sale of immoveable property.

XXII. The provisions of Sections XI, XII, XIII, XV, XVI, and XVII, Regulation XXVI. 1802 shall be applicable to sales of immoveable property under this Act, but a Persian translation of the sale advertisement shall not be necessary.

When Collector may sell the moveable property after the immoveable property of the defaulter has been distrained.

XXIII. When the immoveable property of a defaulter is first attached and sold, if the arrear due with interest, expenses of attachment and sale, and all other just charges, be not fully liquidated by the sale, the Collector may cause the moveable property of the defaulter to be distrained and sold for the recovery of the balance thereof with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale.

When arrears cannot be liquidated by distress, defaulter may be arrested.

XXIV. When arrears of Revenue or rent with interest and other charges as aforesaid may not be liquidated by the sale of the property of the defaulter, and the Collector shall have reason to believe that the defaulter is wilfully withholding payment of the arrears or has been guilty of any fraudulent conduct in order to evade payment, it shall be lawful for him to cause the arrest of the defaulter in the manner prescribed in Section XIII of Regulation XXVII. 1802 ; but no person shall be imprisoned on account of an arrear of Revenue for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the arrear does not exceed five hundred Rupees, or for a longer period than three months if the arrear does not exceed fifty Rupees.

Limit of imprisonment.

Mode of proceeding by persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section.

XXV. Persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section may proceed in the Zillah Court according to the provisions of Sections XI and XII, Regulation XXVII. 1802. The provisions of the said Sections shall be applicable to such proceedings, and no other proceeding in any Court shall be had or taken against the Collector.

What interest to be charged on arrears.

XXVI. Interest at one per centum per mensem shall be charged on all arrears of rent or Revenue under this Act from and after thirty days after the arrear has accrued.

Regulation V. 1822 not to apply to sales under this Act.

XXVII. Regulation V. 1822 shall not be applicable to sales of property under this Act.

Arrears of certain Revenue not land Revenue, and other sums, recovered under this Act.

XXVIII. Arrears of Revenue due to Government other than land Revenue and demands recoverable as arrears of Revenue, shall hereafter be recoverable in the same manner as arrears of land Revenue may be recovered under the provisions of this Act.

Regulation XXVIII. 1802 not to apply to arrears recoverable under this Act.

XXIX. Regulation XXVIII. 1802 shall be inoperative as respects arrears of Revenue recoverable under this Act.

Recovery of Fines.

XXX. The amount of any fine imposed under this Act shall be recoverable by the Collector in the manner prescribed in this Act for the recovery of arrears of Revenue or rent.

Suits by persons aggrieved by proceedings under this Act.

XXXI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to prevent parties, aggrieved by any proceedings under this Act, except as hereinbefore provided, from applying to the Courts of Adawlut for redress.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XL OF 1858.

An Act for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800, Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section V Regulation XVII. 1805, and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors, are repealed.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying Revenue to Government who have been or shall be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors (not being European British subjects) and the charge of their property, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

Persons and property of Minors not under the protection of the Court of Wards shall be subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

III. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor under a Will or Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, may apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate of administration; and no person shall be entitled to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge until he shall have obtained such Certificate. Provided that, when the property is of small value, or for any other sufficient reason, any Court having jurisdiction may allow any relative of a Minor to institute or defend a suit on his behalf, although a Certificate of administration has not been granted to such relative.

What persons claiming to have charge of property in trust for a Minor may apply for certificate of administration.

No person competent to institute or defend a suit without such Certificate.

Proviso.

IV. Any relative or friend of a Minor in respect of whose property such Certificate has not been granted, or, if the property consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, the Collector of the District, may apply to the Civil Court to appoint a fit person to take charge of the property and person of such Minor.

Who may apply to Court to appoint a person to take charge of the property &c. of a Minor.

V. If the property be situate in more than one District, any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the Civil Court of the District in which the Minor has his residence.

To what Court application to be made, if property be situate in more than one District.

VI. When an application shall have been made to the Civil Court either by a person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor, or by any relative or friend of a Minor, or by the Collector, the Court shall issue notice of the application and fix a day for hearing the same. On the day so fixed, or as soon after as may be convenient, the Court shall enquire summarily into the circumstances and pass orders in the case. Provided always that it shall be competent to the Civil Court to direct and Court subordinate to it to make such enquiry any report the result.

Enquiry to be made by Court on application.

Proviso.

VII. If it shall appear that any person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor is entitled to such right by virtue of a Will or Deed, and is willing to undertake the trust, the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to such person. If there is no person so entitled, or if such person is unwilling to undertake the trust, and there is any near relative of the Minor who is willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of his property the Court may grant a Certificate to such relative.

Certificate of administration to whom to be granted.

The Court may also, if it think fit, (unless a Guardian have been appointed by the father), appoint such person as aforesaid or such relative or any other relative or friend of the Minor, to be Guardian of the person of the Minor.

Court may appoint such person Guardian.

VIII. The Court may call upon the Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of any relative or friend of the Minor who may be desirous or willing to be entrusted with the charge of his property or person.

Court may call upon Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of relative or friend.

IX. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will or Deed, and if there be no near relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property of the Minor, and the Court shall think it to be necessary for the interest of the Minor that provision should be made by the Court for the charge of his property and person, the Court may proceed to make such provision in the manner hereinafter provided.

Proceeding if no title to a Certificate be established, and if there be no relative fit to be entrusted with the property &c. of a Minor.

X. If the estate of the Minor consist of moveable property or of houses, gardens, or the like, the Court may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act XIX of 1841, or, if there be no Public Curator, to any fit person whom the Court may appoint for the purpose.

If estate consist only of moveable property &c., Court may grant Certificate to Public Curator or other person.

XI. Whenever the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to the estate of a Minor to the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid, it shall at the same time appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the Minor. The person to whom a Certificate of administration has been granted, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. If the person appointed to be Guardian be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court may assign him such allowance, to be paid out of the estate of the Minor, as under the circumstances of the case it may think suitable. The Court may also fix such allowance as it may think proper for the maintenance of the Minor; and such allowance and the allowance of the Guardian (if any) shall be paid to the Guardian by the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid.

Appointment of Guardian.

XII. If the estate of the Minor consist, in whole or in part, of land or any interest in land, the Court may direct the Collector to take charge of estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the Property of the Minor and a Guardian of his person, in the same manner and subject to the same rules in respect of such appointments and of the duties to be performed by the Manager and the Guardian respectively, so far as the same may be applicable, as

When the estate consists of land, Court may direct Collector to take charge of estate.

if the property and person of the Minor were subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards.

Payment of costs.

XIII. In all enquiries held by the Civil Court under this Act, the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by the person on whose application the enquiry was made, or out of the estate of the Minor or otherwise as it may think proper.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situate, may represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Court, unless it see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall in such case appoint a Guardian for the care of the persons, and a Manager for the charge of the property of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. If the property be situate in more than one District, the representation shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the property under the Court of Wards, to the Civil Court of his own District, and the orders of the Court of that District shall have effect also in other Districts in which portions of the property may be situate.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XV. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Public Curator &c. to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

XVI. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, deliver in Court an inventory of any immoveable property belonging to the Minor, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And the Public Curator and every such other Administrator shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If any relative or friend of a Minor or any Public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Curator or Administrator and enquire summarily into the matter, and make such order thereon as itshall think proper, or the Court at its discretion may refer such petition to any subordinate Court.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or account be impugned.

Public Curator &c. to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XVII. All sums received by the Public Curator or such other Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Minor or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Powers of person to whom Certificate has been granted in the management of a Minor's estate.

XVIII. Every person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, may exercise the same powers in the management of the Estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a Minor, and may collect and pay all just claims, debts, and liabilities due to or by the estate of the Minor. But no such person shall have power to sell or mortgage any immoveable property, or to grant a lease thereof for any period exceeding five years, without an order of the Civil Court previously obtained.

Relative or friend may sue for an account.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any relative or friend of a Minor, at any time during the continuance of the minority, to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, or from any such Manager or person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Continuance of suit instituted under this Act after disqualification shall have ceased.

XX. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to continue the prosecution of the suit on his own behalf.

Revocation of Certificate.

XXI. The Civil Court for any sufficient cause may recall any Certificate granted under this Act, and may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, or may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator or any other person as the case may be; and may compel the person whose Certificate has been recalled to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him. The Court may also for any sufficient cause remove any Guardian appointed by the Court.

Removal of Guardian.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXII. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any person who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court; and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court; and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Civil Court may permit resignation of trust &c.

XXIII. The Civil Court may permit any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under this Act not being the Public Curator, and any Guardian appointed by the Court, to resign his trust; and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands.

Remuneration of Public Curator &c.

XXIV. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X, shall be entitled to receive such commission not exceeding five per centum on the sums received and disbursed by him, or such other allowance, to be paid out of the Minor's estate, as the Civil Court shall think fit.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education.

XXV. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court, or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of any male Minor, shall be bound to provide for his education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of all such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act XXVI of 1854 (for making better provision for the education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards) shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

Persons under the age of 18 years to be held Minors for the purposes of this Act.

XXVI. For the purposes of this Act, every person shall be held to be a Minor, who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

Act not to authorize the appointment of Guardians of certain married women and other persons.

XXVII. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of a Guardian of the person of a female whose husband is not a Minor, or the appointment of a Guardian of the person of any Minor whose father is living and is not a Minor; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of any person other than a female as the Guardian of the person of a female. If a Guardian of the person of a Minor be appointed during the minority of the father or husband of the Minor, the Guardianship shall cease as soon as the father or husband (as the case may be) shall attain the age of majority.

Guardianship during the minority of the father or husband of a Minor when to cease.

Appeals.

XXVIII. All orders passed by the Civil Court or by any Subordinate Court under this Act shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of such Court and the Subordinate Courts.

Interpretation. "Civil Court."

XXIX. The expression "Civil Court" as used in this Act shall be held to mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the district, and shall not include the Supreme Court; and nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the powers of the Supreme Court over the person or property of any Minor subject to its jurisdiction. Unless the contrary appears from the context, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 18th December 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 22nd of March next:—

A Bill to amend Act XVIII of 1848 (for the administration of the Estate of the late Nabob of Surat, and to continue privileges to his family).

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act XVIII of 1848 in order that the proceedings of the Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration to and distribution of the Estate of the late Nabob of Surat may be subject to such appeal as is hereinafter provided; It is enacted as follows:—

Part of Section II Act XVIII of 1848 repealed.

I. So much of Section II of Act XVIII of 1848, as enacts that "no act of the said Governor of Bombay in Council, in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property as is therein referred to from the date of the death of the said late Nabab, shall be liable to be questioned in any Court of Law or Equity," is repealed.

No act of Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration of the late Nabob's Estate to be questioned in any Court or to be appealable, except as provided by this Act.

II. No act of the said Governor of Bombay in Council in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property from the date of the death of the said late Nabob, shall be liable to be questioned in any Court of Law or Equity or be subject to any appeal save as is hereinafter provided.

Decisions of Governor in Council respecting the administration of the Estate to be deemed judicial decisions and to be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

III. All orders and decisions of the said Governor of Bombay in Council made and passed in respect to the administration to and distribution of such property, shall be deemed to be respectively orders and decisions of a Court of Justice, and shall be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, it being intended that the said orders and decisions shall be open to appeal in like manner as orders passed by the said Governor in Council under the provision of Clause 1 Section V Regulation XXIX. 1827 of the Bombay Code.

No. 1711 of 1858.—1. The following Rules will have effect from the 1st January 1859, with the concurrence of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.

2. The Barrack Department in the Presidency of Bengal shall, from the 1st January 1859, be separated from the Department Public Works, and attached to that of the Quarter-Master General of the Army.

3. The following grades of Officers will form the Establishment of the Barrack Department, under the orders of the Quarter-Master General :—

First Class Barrack-Masters, on a Staff Salary of	... Rs. 120	per mensem.
Second Class Barrack-Masters, on a Staff Salary of	... Rs. 70
Barrack Serjeant, on a Staff Salary of	... Rs. 20

in addition to the Military Pay and Allowances of their rank.

These Staff Salaries, and the pay of Office Establishments as below noted, will be drawn from the Pay Offices under the audit of the Military Auditor General.

Unattached Officers and Officers of the Invalid Battalion are eligible for appointment as Barrack-Masters, and the situation is also open to Warrant Officers who have served in the Department.

4. Travelling Allowance to Officers of the Quarter-Master General's Department, and to Barrack-Masters, when employed under proper authority on the inspection of Barracks, will be passed at the rate of eight annas a mile going and returning if travelling by Dâk, three annas a mile if travelling by Rail, or 5 Rupees a day if marching.

5. The Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department at the Head Quarters of each Division will have a general charge over the whole of the Barrack Buildings in the Division, and the several Barrack-Masters will be subordinate to him.

6. A First Class Barrack-Master will be allowed for each Station or Circle of adjacent Stations, where the Barrack Buildings are intended for more than two European Regiments, and a Second Class Barrack-Master when the buildings are for from one to two Regiments.

7. Buildings at Out-posts intended for one Regiment or less will be placed under charge of the nearest Barrack-Master.

8. A Barrack-Serjeant and one Peon are allowed for each set of buildings for a Regiment of Cavalry, Infantry, or Detachment of Artillery, and the same for each detached Station when the buildings are for less than one Regiment.

9. The nomination of Barrack-Masters and of Barrack-Serjeants and their appointment to Stations will be made by the Commander-in-Chief.

10. No Office Establishment will be allowed to Barrack-Masters, but a room with furniture will be set apart in one of the buildings for an Office, and they and their Barrack-Serjeants will be required to prepare all Reports, Returns, &c., Printed Forms and Stationery being provided in such proportion as may be considered necessary by the Quarter-Master General of the Army.

11. An Office Establishment will be allowed at the Head Quarters of each Division under the Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department consisting of

One Writer at	Rupees	30
One „ „	„	20
One Peon at	„	5

and Rupees 20 per mensem Office Rent, when a room cannot be provided in one of the buildings for the Office.

Office Furniture and the necessary quantity of Stationery, &c., will be provided as in the case of Barrack-Masters.

12. All Reports, Returns, &c., from the several Barrack-Masters, and Out-stations of each Division, are to be made to the Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department at Divisional Head Quarters.

13. The whole of the Barrack and Hospital Buildings, Barrack and Hospital Furniture will be in charge of the Barrack Department, by which the usual Returns of Furniture will be submitted to the Military Auditor General in the Ordnance Department, under such regulations as he may prescribe.

14. The repairs of Barracks and other Regimental Buildings, with their fixtures (not including Punkahs,) excepting petty repairs, will be executed by the Executive Engineer under the Rules laid down in the Public Works' Code. All petty repairs, that is those likely to cost under Rupees (50) fifty each job, will be done on the requisition of the Barrack Department, countersigned by the Regimental Commanding Officer. On such a requisition the necessary labor and material will be supplied, and the disbursements made by the Public Works Department, but the immediate supervision of the work, and the responsibility for its being properly executed will rest with the Barrack Department. The Barrack Department will furnish the Executive Engineer at the end of each month with a Certificate of Completion, embracing all the petty repairs executed under this order, describing briefly the work done in each case, and countersigned by the several Regimental Commanding Officers. This document is to serve as the Executive Engineer's voucher for his disbursements on this account.

15. The Commissariat Department will supply on Indent of the Barrack-Master, countersigned by the Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department, or in emergent cases a Station Order, all new articles of Barrack or Hospital Furniture Boxes and Lanterns, Doolies, Kujawas, Punkah, Tatties, &c., to the authorized extent, and shall, upon the requisition of the Barrack Department, disburse all charges for repairing and removing them, for hanging Punkahs, &c. The charges will be finally audited in the Commissariat Accounts.

16. The Ordnance Department will supply and repair Lanterns for Tents, Metal Water-Vessels for the march, Tools for Conservancy purposes, and Fire-Engines.

17. The authorized Establishments for Conservancy, Punkah-pulling, Tattee-watering, Chowkeedars for empty Barracks, &c., required for European Troops will be paid by the Commissariat Department on the Bills of Regimental Officers or Heads of Departments. The Barrack Department will be expected to give all necessary assistance in procuring the requisite Establishments, especially in the case of newly-arrived Corps.

18. In carrying these orders into effect all Barracks and Hospitals, &c., with their Furniture, as well as all the Furniture in store, shall be transferred by the Executive Officers of the Public Works Department (immediately on a Barrack-Master being appointed) to the Barrack Department, and receipts shall be obtained for the same, signed by the Barrack-Master. All Furniture, &c., is to be presented for transfer, but if the Barrack-Master should deem any unserviceable, and the fact not be admitted by the Public Works Officer, an umpire shall be appointed by the Officer Commanding the Station, whose decision shall be final; and the Officers of the Public Works Department shall sell the unserviceable articles by Public Auction, and the value will be written off in the usual manner.

19. All new Barrack Buildings, on being reported complete with their fixtures, and ready for occupation, shall be made over with Descriptive Returns, including every fixture, (panes of glass, bolts, hinges, arm-ranks, &c., being all separately mentioned with their value) to the Department of the Quarter-Master General of the Army, whose control over them, and responsibility for them, shall then commence.

20. The Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department shall, under such General Regulations as may be laid down by the Commander-in-Chief, inspect once in each Half-year all Barracks and Furniture in his Division, and submit an Inspection Report to the Quarter-Master General of the Army.

21. Barrack-Masters are required to make an inspection of the whole of the Buildings, Furniture, &c., under their charge once in every month, submitting their report to the Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department at the Head Quarters of the Division.

22. The Barracks and Furniture of each Regiment or Detachment shall be inspected every Monday morning by a Barrack-Serjeant, and the Inspector shall be accompanied by the Quarter-Master Serjeant of the Regiment in occupation, or, if a Detachment, by a Non-Commissioned Officer appointed by the Officer Commanding. During any of these inspections, damages to, or loss of Barrack Furniture shall be noted, and any damage to Barracks or fixtures, or Furniture, other than by fair wear and tear, shall be specially remarked upon, and the Inspection Return shall be signed by both the inspecting parties. The damage by fair wear and tear shall be made good at the expense of the State; that by negligence or wilfulness, by the occupants of the building.

23. The Executive Engineer can at any time he considers requisite inspect the several public Buildings, and the Barrack-Master and Regimental Authorities are to give him every necessary information.

24. The Executive Officers or Agents of the Public Works or Commissariat Department shall at once make good the damage or loss by fair wear and tear according to the Rules in force, charging for the same in their public accounts. Where the amount of the damage has to be recovered from the occupants of the building, Bills for the amount, estimated on the spot, on the fixed or known value of the article damaged, and supported by an Extract from the Weekly Inspection Return, shall be presented for acceptance to the Officer Commanding the Regiment, or Detachment in occupation. The Bills, if accepted, are to be sent to the Officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department at Divisional Head Quarters, who will register them and send them to Commanding Officers, by whom the money will be recovered in the usual course. In cases of dispute as to the cause or amount of damage or loss, the matter shall be decided by an umpire appointed under the Orders of the Officer Commanding the Station.

25. The Barrack-Master on his Monthly Inspections will specially bring to the notice of the Officer of the Quarter-Master General of the Division any apparent neglect in carrying out these orders.

26. The existing regulations as to the transfer of Barracks from one Regiment to another will remain in force, and the Barrack Department will be held responsible for any loss that may arise from the neglect of those regulations. (See Public Works Code, Chapter XX., Section III.)

27. The general superintendence of the conservancy of Stations, and inspection of Fire-Engines will be with the Barrack Department.

28. The supply of Lights, Water Jars, Filters, Fuel, Lime, and any other articles authorized for the use of Troops will be provided by the Commissariat.

29. The Barrack-Master in Fort William, who will be allowed an Office Establishment, as laid down in paragraph 11, will be under the orders of the Town Major.

30. A complete set of Rules for the guidance of Barrack-Masters will be hereafter printed, but until the issue of the new Rules those laid down in the Public Works' Code will be held applicable to all matters in which they are not superseded by the foregoing orders.

31. The duties of the Barrack Department will continue to be performed, but under the orders of the Quarter-Master General of the Army, by the Establishment appointed by the Public Works Department, and on the present rates of Salary, which will be drawn and passed under existing Rules, but will be charged in the accounts of the Barrack Department until its relief can be carried out, when the present Barrack-Masters and others, whose further services may not be required, will resume their duties in the Public Works Department.

No. 102.

Public Works Department,

GENERAL.—ESTABLISHMENTS,

Allahabad, the 18th December 1858.

Notification.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to confirm the leave for two months on Medical Certificate, granted by the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab to 2nd Captain W. Henderson, of the Bengal Engineers, Executive Engineer, Attock Division, Lahore and Peshawur Road, from 1st January next, to enable him to proceed to Bombay, preparatory to applying for Furlough to Europe.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General,

H. YULE, Captain,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India,
with the Governor-General.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.

Military Department.

Allahabad, the 15th December 1858.

No. 581 of 1858.—With reference to General Order by the Governor General, No. 486, dated 22nd October 1858, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to authorize the entertainment of an Hospital Establishment as per margin for the Eurasian and Native Christian Artillery Company raising at Agra, also the Establishment of a School for the Children of the Gunners, with an allowance of Rupees 25 per mensem for a School Master Sergeant and the usual proportion of Books and Stationery and School Room Furniture.

1 Christian Native Doctor.
1 Shop Coolie,
1 Bheestie,
1 Cook,
1 Sweeper,
5 Doolie Bearers,
With the usual Hospital Furniture and supply of Medicines, allowed for a full Company.

Sanction is likewise granted for the enlistment of 12 Boys, on half pay, of the age of 12 years and upwards, to be brought up as Gunners, and re-enlisted at the age of 18 for a term of 10 years

Allahabad, the 16th December 1858.

No. 582 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to confer the "Order of Merit," 2nd Class, on Havildar Kullundur Buksh, of the 4th Sikh Infantry, in consideration of the gallantry and soldier-like conduct displayed by him on the 8th June 1857, in the encounter with the Jullundur Mutineers at Loodiana.

No. 583 of 1858.—In General Order No. 355, dated the 12th August 1858, the 3rd Class of the "Order of Merit" was conferred for conspicuous gallantry in the Action at Debreheah, in the Goruckpore District, on the 23rd July last, on three Individuals of the 6th Regiment Madras Light Cavalry, who were all understood to be Native Soldiers, viz.:—

Farrier Betreen,
Trooper Mahomed Akbar,
Trooper Mahomed Alli;

and on the same day the Government of Fort St. George were requested to suggest some appropriate reward, pecuniary or otherwise, for Trumpeter John Dore, of the same Regiment, whose gallantry had been very conspicuous on the same occasion, and whom the Right Hon'ble the Governor General desired to distinguish.

Information has now been received from Madras, that the Farrier mentioned is named Samuel Betreen, that he is an Eurasian, and that Trumpeter John Dore is of the same class.

The Governor General being of opinion that both these brave men should be rewarded alike, their gallantry having been alike conspicuous, is pleased to grant to Farrier Samuel Betreen and to Trumpeter John Dore, respectively, the privilege of drawing half their Pay, in addition to their present emoluments; and this without prejudice to their claim to additional Pay for length of service, or to other Allowances.

Under this order, the Pay of Farrier Samuel Betreen, who now receives Rupees 16-10-4 per mensem, ordinary Pay, will, from the 12th of August 1858, be Rupees 24-15-6, and that of Trumpeter John Dore, now in the receipt of Rupees 16, ordinary Pay, will from the same date be Rupees 24 per mensem.

This reward exceeds the pecuniary advantage of the 3rd Class of the "Order of Merit," which has granted under a misapprehension to Farrier Betreen, and the grant of that Order to him is necessarily cancelled, it being applicable exclusively to Soldiers of pure Native origin.

No. 584 of 1858.—The following Order issued by the Government of Bombay, is confirmed :—

Granting leave of absence to Europe, on Medical Certificate, to the under-mentioned Officer :—

No. 1126, dated 20*th November* 1858.—Surgeon J. H. Orr, of the Madras Establishment, and in Medical Charge, 4th Cavalry Regiment, Hyderabad Contingent ...	For fifteen months, under the new Regulations.

Allahabad, the 17*th December* 1858.

No. 585 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch, from Colonel Evelegh, C. B., Commanding a Moveable Force, reporting his successful attack on the Fort of Simree, in Oudh, on the 9th November 1858, and its destruction.

The Governor General highly approves of the operations of Colonel Evelegh, C. B., and of the conduct of all the Officers and Men engaged on this occasion.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Major-General,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
with the Govr.-Genl.

TO LIEUT. BIDDULPH.

Depy. Asst. Adjt. General,
Oudh Field Force.
Camp at Simree,
The 12*th November* 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Major General Commanding Oudh Field Force, that I started with the Troops named in the margin, from my place of encampment near Morar Mow, at 6 A. M. on the 9th instant, for the purpose of attacking the Fort of Simree.

4 guns 1st Tr. 1st Bde. B. H. A.
2 guns Roy. Art. Siege Train.
300 1st Seikh Irr. Cav.
420 3rd Oudh P. Cav.
230 5th do.
220 H. M.'s 20th Regt.
230 H. M.'s 23rd R. W. F.
170 do. 80th.
300 [illegible] Pol. Inf.
420 7th do.

After half an hour's march, I observed the enemy's Cavalry and Infantry in front, who retired, however, on the approach of the Column. At some little distance farther on, the enemy's Infantry again appeared in the jungle and khets, and I therefore directed 3 Companies of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment and 2 Companies of Her Majesty's 20th Regiment to extend and clear the front, and a Company of the latter Regiment also to search a village to my right, whilst a troop of Cavalry turned its flank.

During the time these movements were being carried out, Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding the Police Force, informed me that the enemy was moving in considerable strength to my right. Fearing that his object might be to attack my baggage, I sent with that Officer some Cavalry, 2 guns Royal Artillery, and 2 Companies of Police Infantry.

The enemy, meanwhile, being driven from my immediate front, and hearing considerable firing on the right, I at once halted the Column, and proceeding with the Detachments of the 20th and 80th Regiments to Lieutenant Chamberlain's assistance, and found the enemy's Infantry extended in thick jungle and nullahs, and in a position most difficult to approach, even for Infantry, from the nature of the ground. The fire from the guns and Enfields, however, caused them to retreat after some time, when the Infantry advanced, skirmishing through jungle khets and over some deep nullahs, and drove them from a strong position on a hill, where they had previously moved to.

The right flank being thus effectually cleared, I returned to the Column about two miles off, whose front was also engaged with the enemy's Infantry, who were firing on it from the jungle, but were driven off by the effective fire of 2 guns of Horse Artillery and some Infantry, the whole under command of Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, who had charge of the Column during my absence.

Here I remained for more than an hour, unable to obtain any correct information as to the direct road to the Simree Fort, or its position, but on advancing about half a mile, a Native pointed to a high tree, and said that the fort was in the jungle, 200 yards beyond it ; but so dense was the jungle all around, that no walls were visible. On proceeding some hundred yards farther on, however, a man was observed standing on a bastion of the fort, just above the jungle, and firing at my party, and Major Bruce, who commanded the Artillery of the Force, was of opinion that he could shell it with the mortars.

I therefore ordered the heavy guns to be brought up, together with some Infantry and 2 Horse Artillery guns ; the remaining Horse Artillery guns, 4th Police Infantry, and a Company of the 20th to protect the baggage, and 3 Companies of the 20th and the 2 Royal Artillery guns to proceed to a village on my right and rear, to prevent the enemy from the jungle attacking that part.

I then extended 2 Companies of the 80th and 2 of the 23rd R. W. F., with the necessary supports, and a reserve of the 7th Police Infantry ; the whole under the command of Major Miller.

These I directed to advance and clear the enemy's numerous skirmishers out of the jungle (so as to enable me to approach nearer to the fort) and then to return.

In the meantime, the enemy opened fire from two guns in the fort on the Artillery and Infantry, which was returned by the 2 Horse Artillery guns on the left, and a few shots from our 18-pounder gun.

The skirmishers advanced, driving the enemy before them, and, to their surprise, came most unexpectedly close upon the fort, and observing the wall in one part to be rather low, and a few bushes only in front of a wicket gate, they gave a cheer and rushed boldly on, when the enemy ran bodily from the walls and bastions into the jungle behind.

The advance of the 80th under Captain Young, and also of the 23rd R. W. F. under Captain Heigham, excited my warmest admiration.

The whole of the Troops behaved most admirably, the Infantry and guns skirmishing over a considerable distance, from 7 till 9-30 o'clock, and again from 11 till 12 o'clock, through the very worst country I ever saw. They underwent great fatigue with great cheerfulness.

I am happy to say the loss of life on our side was most trifling, only 2 men killed, and 1 Officer and 2 men wounded ; a return of which I annex.

Two small guns were captured in the fort, together with a considerable quantity of powder, which I require to destroy the fort ; also many thousands of percussion caps.

The fort of Simree is exceedingly strong by nature, is situated in a dense jungle running from 1½ to 3 miles on three sides, and the east side, by which I approached, surrounded by a narrow belt of jungle, and a strong abattis completely concealing it.

I beg to enclose a rough sketch of it made by Dr. Kelsall, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment.

I am unable to ascertain the strength of the enemy, but he was in considerable force.

His loss was not great, but was certainly about 100 men, all Sepoys (the Natives say, 200 were killed); 80 were cut up by the Police Cavalry under Lieutenant Hawkins on my left, who found them in full retreat towards Sunkerpore.

I beg to return my thanks to all the Officers and Troops of the Force under my command, especially to Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, Commanding Infantry; Major Bruce, Horse Artillery, Commanding the Artillery; and Captain Jones, 1st Seikh Cavalry, Commanding the Cavalry; also to Captain Lyons, Commanding the 20th Regiment; Captain Heigham, Commanding 23rd R. W. F., and Captain Young, Commanding the 80th Regiment; Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding the Police Force; Lieutenant Manderson, in charge of Siege Train; and to my Staff Officer, Lieutenant Burne, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment, for the able assistance they afforded me in carrying out my wishes.

I have been busily employed during the last two days, with strong fatigue parties of Europeans and Native Infantry, destroying the fort, and blowing up the bastions, which I hope will be effectually completed before I march.

I have, &c.,

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

Produce of Behar Agency	... Chests	1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto	... „	345
Total Chests	...	2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so :—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

Article of the Convention above refered to.

Article 6th.—"With regard to the Trade in Opium it is agreed between the high contracting parties that at each of the periodical Sales of that article there shall be reserved for the French Government and delivered upon requisition duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests so applied for, provided that such supply shall not exceed Three Hundred Chests in each year, and the price for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodical Sale, it being understood, that if the quantity of Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much in reduction of the Three Hundred Chests hereinbefore mentioned. The requisitions for Opium as aforesaid are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta within thirty days after notice of the intended Sales shall have been published in the Government Gazette."

By Order of the Board of Revenue,

EDW. LUSHINGTON,

Junior Secretary.

PEARL FISHERY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Pearl Fishery will take place at Aripo, in the Island of Ceylon, on or about the 1st of March next 1859, and that the Banks to be fished are the Modregam Bank, and that portion of the North-west part of the Chivel Paar Bank left unfinished last March, estimated to contain Oysters sufficient to employ fifty Boats for fifteen days.

It is therefore recommended, that such Boat-owners and Divers as may wish to be employed at the said Fishery should be at Aripo, on or before the 20th February next. And it is particularly notified, that the first day's fishing will positively take place on the first day in March that the weather may permit the Boats to fish.

The Fishery will be conducted on account of Government, and the Oysters put up to sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

The arrangements of the Fishery will be the same as have been usual on similar occasions.

All payments to be made in Ready Money in Ceylon Currency, or in East India Company's Rupees.

Drafts on the Banks in Colombo, or Bills on the Agents of this Government in India, at Ten days' Sight will be taken, on Letters of Credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such Drafts or Bills.

For the convenience of Purchasers, the Treasurer at Colombo and the different Government Agents of Provinces, will be authorized to receive Cash Deposits from parties intending to become Purchasers, and Receipts of these Officers will be taken in payment of any sums due on account of the Fishery.

No deposit will be received for a less sum than fifty pounds.

By His Excellency's Command,

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Colombo, 20th November 1858.

C. J. MACCARTHY,
Colonial Secretary.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor-General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1858.

An Act to repeal Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code, and to make certain provisions rendered necessary by the transfer of the Delhi Territory to the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the whole of the Delhi Territory, except such part thereof as is specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, has been placed under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and it is expedient that Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code should be repealed; It is enacted as follows:—

Regulation repealed.

I. Regulation V. 1832 of the Bengal Code is hereby repealed, except as to that part of the Delhi Territory which is mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Suits and proceedings pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

II. All suits and proceedings which were pending in any Court or before any Officer within any part of the said Territory, except as aforesaid, at the time when the same was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab and which have been or shall be transferred to the Courts or Officers which have been or shall be established or appointed for the administration of Civil and Criminal justice and the collection of the Revenues therein, shall be deemed to have been lawfully transferred to such Courts and Officers according to their respective jurisdictions; and any suits or proceedings which, subsequently to the time when the said Territory was so placed under such administration, shall have been instituted in any such Court or before any such Officer, shall be deemed to have been lawfully instituted.

Suits instituted subsequently.

Suits determined before the transfer, but which may be remanded by an appellate Court.

III. Any suit which, prior to the time when the said Territory was placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, had been determined, and which hath been or shall be remanded by any Appellate Court, shall be tried before the Court which, for the time being, would be competent to try such a suit if instituted after the passing of this Act.

Appeals or proceedings now pending before the Sudder Court or Board.

IV. All appeals or proceedings now pending in the Court of Sudder Dewany Adawlut or in the Court of Nizamut Adawlut or before the Sudder Board of Revenue for the North-Western Provinces shall be determined by such Court or Board in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed; and all applications for execution of decrees or orders which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been made to any Court existing at the period above-mentioned, shall be made to the Court or Officer who would have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter in dispute, had the suit or proceeding been instituted after the passing of this Act.

Applications for execution of decrees.

Appeals not pending at the time of the transfer of the Territory.

V. All appeals from decrees or orders passed before the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, which were not pending when the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner, shall be received, heard, and determined by the Courts or Officers who would have had jurisdiction over such appeals, had the decrees or orders to which they relate been passed after the passing of this Act;

and all decisions or orders passed by any such Courts or Officers on any appeals which may have been preferred between the date on which the said Territory was so placed under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, and the date of the passing of this Act, shall be of the same force as if such decisions or orders had been passed after the passing of this Act.

Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the better recovery of Arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency

Preamble.

WHEREAS difficulties occur in applying the rules of Regulation XXVIII. 1802 of the Madras Code to lands under Ryotwar Settlements or otherwise subject to a Khas collection on the part of Government, and it is expedient to modify those rules; and whereas it is necessary to provide that the Collector shall, at his discretion, proceed to realize arrears of such Revenue by the sale of either the moveable or immoveable property of defaulters; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Act repealed.

I. Act XXIII of 1856 (for the better recovery of arrears of Revenue under Ryotwar Settlements in the Madras Presidency) is hereby repealed except so far as relates to indemnity for anything done before the passing of that Act.

Collector empowered to recover arrears of Revenue or rent by sale of moveable or immoveable property of defaulter.

II. Whenever the Revenue or rent of any such lands is withheld beyond the day on which it falls due according to the Kistbundy or other engagement, or where no particular day is fixed, then beyond the time when such Revenue or rent becomes payable agreeably to local usage, the Collector shall have authority to proceed for the recovery of such arrears by the distress and the sale of the moveable property or the sale of the immoveable property of the defaulter wherever found. Provided that bullocks necessary to the cultivation of a tenant's holding, ploughs and implements of husbandry, and the tools of artisans shall not be subject to distraint or sale.

Proviso.

Seizure and sale of moveable property to be made as follows.

III. In the seizure and sale of moveable property for arrears of Revenue or rent, the following rules shall be observed.

Collector to furnish person distraining with a demand in writing.

First.—The Collector, or any other Officer empowered by the Collector in that behalf, shall furnish to the person employed to distrain the property of a defaulter, a demand in writing and signed with his name specifying the amount of the arrear for which the distress may be issued, and the date on which the arrear fell due.

Defaulter to be served with a copy.

The person so deputed shall produce the writing as authority for making the distress, and on the day on which the property may be distrained, shall deliver a copy of such writing to the defaulter, endorsing thereon a list or inventory of the property distrained and the name of the place where it may be lodged or kept.

Writing to state that the distrained property will be sold.

Second.—The writing shall further set forth that the distrained property will be immediately brought to public sale, unless the amount and the expense of the distress be previously discharged.

Mode of service when defaulter is absent.

Third.—When a defaulter may be absent, a copy of the writing, with the endorsement, shall be fixed or left at his usual place of residence before the expiration of the third day, calculating from the day of the distress.

Consequence of defaulter neglecting to pay after notice, or absenting himself.

IV. Where a defaulter on receiving notice may neglect to pay the amount due or to give satisfactory security for early payment, or where a defaulter may have absconded or may be otherwise not forthcoming so that the notice cannot be served upon him, the distrainer shall in either case transmit an inventory of the property distrained to the nearest public Officer empowered to sell distrained property in order that it may be publicly sold for the discharge of the arrear due.

On tender of arrear and expenses prior to the day of sale, distress to be withdrawn.

V. Where a defaulter may tender payment of the arrear demanded after his property may have been distrained and prior to the day fixed for sale, together with payment of the necessary expenses attending the distress, the distrainer shall receive the amount of such arrear and expenses immediately upon the same being tendered, and shall forthwith release the property.

Distrained crops how to be dealt with.

VI. The distrainer attaching the crops or ungathered products of the lands belonging to a defaulter, may cause them to be sold when fit for reaping or gathering, or at his option may cause them to be reaped or gathered in due season and stored in proper places until sold. In the latter case the expense of reaping or gathering and storing such crops or products, shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Distrained cattle or goods not be used.

VII. The distrainer shall not work the bullocks or cattle, or make use of the goods or effects distrained; he shall provide the necessary food for the cattle or live-stock, the expense attending which shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property, or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold.

Officer responsible for neglect in respect to distrained property.

VIII. Where property distrained may be stolen, or lost, or damaged by reason of the necessary precautions for its due preservation not having been taken, the loss or damage shall be made good by the Officer whose neglect occasioned the loss or damage.

Distress to be proportionate to the arrear.

IX. The distress levied shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible proportionate to the amount of the arrear.

Time for distress.

X. Distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset and not otherwise.

Penalty for fraudulent conveyance of property to prevent distress.

XI. Where a defaulter may make a fraudulent conveyance of property, to prevent the distress for arrears, the Zillah Court, upon proof thereof, shall summarily cause the property to be delivered up to the distrainer, and may impose on the parties to the fraud such fine, not exceeding one-half of the value of the property, as it may think proper.

Claims to property distrained and sold.

XII. Where a person, not being a defaulter or responsible for a defaulter, may claim a right to the property distrained, and the distrainer may, notwithstanding, cause the same to be sold, the claimants, on proof of such right in the Zillah Court and in the event of the distrainer being unable to prove the responsibility for the arrear of Revenue or rent on account of which the property may have been sold, shall recover from the distrainer the full value of such property with costs and damages, according to the circumstances of the case. But claims to crops upon the ground, or to gathered products of the ground attached, in the possession of the defaulter, whether founded upon a previous sale, mortgage, or otherwise, shall not bar the prior claim of Revenue or rent due from the ground upon which such crop or product may have been grown.

Penalty for forcibly or clandestinely taking away distrained property.

XIII. Where it may be proved to the satisfaction of the Zillah Court that any person has forcibly or clandestinely taken away property once distrained, the Court may cause such person to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months or until he sooner restore the property or make good the value of it to the distrainer, and may also impose on him a fine not exceeding the value of such property.

What places distrainer may force open.

XIV. The distrainer shall have power to force open any stable, cow-house, golah, granary, godown, outhouse, or other building, as also to enter any dwelling-house the outer door of which may be open (excepting the apartments in such dwelling-house appropriated for the Zenana or residence of women), and to break open the door of any room in such dwelling-house for the purpose of attaching property belonging to a defaulter and lodged therein.

Powers of distrainer to force open doors in the presence of a Police Officer.

XV. Where a distrainer may have reason to suppose that the property of a defaulter is lodged within a dwelling-house the outer door of which may be shut, or within any apartments appropriated to women which by the usage of the country are considered private, such distrainer shall represent the same to the head Officer of the Police (within whose jurisdiction the house may be situated), and on such representation the head Officer of the Police shall send a Police Officer to the spot, in the presence of whom the distrainer may force open the outer door of such dwelling-house, in like manner as they may break open the door of any room within the house, except the Zenana; the distrainer may also, in the presence of the Police Officer, after due notice given for the removal of women within a Zenana, and after furnishing means for their removal in a suitable manner (if they be women of rank who according to the customs of the country cannot appear in public), enter the Zenana apartments for the purpose of distraining the defaulter's property deposited therein; but such property, if found, shall be immediately removed from such apartments, after which they shall be left free to the former occupants; and nothing in this Act shall be understood to authorize a distrainer or his agent to force open the door of a dwelling-house, or to enter the apartments of women which by the usage of the country are considered private, in any other mode than is herein prescribed.

Punishment for unlawful entry.

XVI. Persons entering the apartments of women, or forcing open the outer door of dwelling-houses, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall on conviction before a Magistrate be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding six months.

Proclamation to be made of the time of sale and of the property to be sold.

XVII. The Public Officer empowered to sell distrained property shall cause to be affixed to the outer door of the defaulter's house a list of the property to be sold, with a notice specifying the place where and the day and hour at which the distrained property will be sold, and shall cause proclamation of the intended sale to be made by beat of drum in the village to which the lands on which the arrear has accrued may belong and in such place or places as the Collector may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale. No sale shall take place until after the expiration of a period of fifteen days from the date on which the notice may be so affixed.

Sale how to be conducted.

XVIII. At the appointed time, the property shall be put up in one or more lots as the distrainer may consider advisable, and shall be disposed of to the highest bidder. Where the property may sell for more than the amount of the arrear, the overplus, after deducting expenses of process and interest, shall be paid to the defaulter.

Payment on the purchase of distrained property how to be made.

XIX. The property shall be paid for in ready money at the time of sale or as soon after as the Officer holding the sale shall appoint, and the purchaser shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until he has paid for the same. Where the purchaser may fail in the payment of the purchase money, the property shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall make good to the distrainer any loss arising, as well as the expenses incurred on the re-sale.

When Collector may sell the real property instead of or in addition to the personal property of the defaulter.

XX. When a defaulter shall not have any moveable property of which distraint can be made, or when, after the moveable property of such defaulter shall have been distrained and sold, the arrear due with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale is not liquidated by the proceeds of such sale, the Collector shall have authority to proceed against and sell the immoveable property of the defaulter for the amount due with interest and all expenses attending such sale.

Previous sanction of the Board of Revenue necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

XXI. Immediately on the occurrence of an arrear, or at any subsequent period, the Collector shall have authority to attach at his discretion the whole or such portion of a defaulter's immoveable property as he may deem sufficient to answer the amount in arrear, but the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue shall in all cases be necessary for the sale of immoveable property.

Rules applicable to the sale of immoveable property.

XXII. The provisions of Sections XI, XII, XIII, XV, XVI, and XVII, Regulation XXVI. 1802 shall be applicable to sales of immoveable property under this Act, but a Persian translation of the sale advertisement shall not be necessary.

When Collector may sell the moveable property after the immoveable property of the defaulter has been distrained.

XXIII. When the immoveable property of a defaulter is first attached and sold, if the arrear due with interest, expenses of attachment and sale, and all other just charges, be not fully liquidated by the sale, the Collector may cause the moveable property of the defaulter to be distrained and sold for the recovery of the balance thereof with interest and all expenses of the distress and sale.

When arrears cannot be liquidated by distress, defaulter may be arrested.

XXIV. When arrears of Revenue or rent with interest and other charges as aforesaid may not be liquidated by the sale of the property of the defaulter, and the Collector shall have reason to believe that the defaulter is wilfully withholding payment of the arrears or has been guilty of any fraudulent conduct in order to evade payment, it shall be lawful for him to cause the arrest of the defaulter in the manner prescribed in Section XIII of Regulation XXVII. 1802 ; but no person shall be imprisoned on account of an arrear of Revenue for a longer period than two years, or for a longer period than six months if the arrear does not exceed five hundred Rupees, or for a longer period than three months if the arrear does not exceed fifty Rupees.

Limit of imprisonment.

Mode of proceeding by persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section.

XXV. Persons aggrieved by the Collector's acts under the preceding Section may proceed in the Zillah Court according to the provisions of Sections XI and XII, Regulation XXVII. 1802. The provisions of the said Sections shall be applicable to such proceedings, and no other proceeding in any Court shall be had or taken against the Collector.

What interest to be charged on arrears.

XXVI. Interest at one per centum per mensem shall be charged on all arrears of rent or Revenue under this Act from and after thirty days after the arrear has accrued.

Regulation V. 1822 not to apply to sales under this Act.

XXVII. Regulation V. 1822 shall not be applicable to sales of property under this Act.

Arrears of certain Revenue not land Revenue, and other sums, recovered under this Act.

XXVIII. Arrears of Revenue due to Government other than land Revenue and demands recoverable as arrears of Revenue, shall hereafter be recoverable in the same manner as arrears of land Revenue may be recovered under the provisions of this Act.

Regulation XXVIII. 1802 not to apply to arrears recoverable under this Act.

XXIX. Regulation XXVIII. 1802 shall be inoperative as respects arrears of Revenue recoverable under this Act.

Recovery of Fines.

XXX. The amount of any fine imposed under this Act shall be recoverable by the Collector in the manner prescribed in this Act for the recovery of arrears of Revenue or rent.

Suits by persons aggrieved by proceedings under this Act.

XXXI. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to prevent parties, aggrieved by any proceedings under this Act, except as hereinbefore provided, from applying to the Courts of Adawlut for redress.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 18TH DECEMBER 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th December 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XL OF 1858.

An Act for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800, Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section V Regulation XVII. 1805, and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors, are repealed.

Persons and property of Minors not under the protection of the Court of Wards shall be subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying Revenue to Government who have been or shall be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors (not being European British subjects) and the charge of their property, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

What persons claiming to have charge of property in trust for a Minor may apply for certificate of administration.

III. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor under a Will or Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, may apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate of administration; and no person shall be entitled to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge until he shall have obtained such Certificate. Provided that, when the property is of small value, or for any other sufficient reason, any Court having jurisdiction may allow any relative of a Minor to institute or defend a suit on his behalf, although a Certificate of administration has not been granted to such relative.

No person competent to institute or defend a suit without such Certificate.

Proviso.

Who may apply to Court to appoint a person to take charge of the property &c. of a Minor.

IV. Any relative or friend of a Minor in respect of whose property such Certificate has not been granted, or, if the property consist in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, the Collector of the District, may apply to the Civil Court to appoint a fit person to take charge of the property and person of such Minor.

To what Court application to be made, if property be situate in more than one District.

V. If the property be situate in more than one District, any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the Civil Court of the District in which the Minor has his residence.

Enquiry to be made by Court on application.

VI. When an application shall have been made to the Civil Court either by a person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor, or by any relative or friend of a Minor, or by the Collector the Court shall issue notice of the application and fix a day for hearing the same. On the day so fixed, or as soon after as may be convenient, the Court shall enquire summarily into the circumstances and pass orders in the case. Provided always that it shall be competent to the Civil Court to direct and Court subordinate to it to make such enquiry any report the result.

Proviso.

Certificate of administration to whom to be granted.

VII. If it shall appear that any person claiming a right to have charge of the property of a Minor is entitled to such right by virtue of a Will or Deed, and is willing to undertake the trust, the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to such person. If there is no person so entitled, or if such person is unwilling to undertake the trust, and there is any near relative of the Minor who is willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of his property the Court may grant a Certificate to such relative.

Court may appoint such person Guardian.

The Court may also, if it think fit, (unless a Guardian have been appointed by the father), appoint such person as aforesaid or such relative or any other relative or friend of the Minor, to be Guardian of the person of the Minor.

Court may call upon Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of relative or friend.

VIII. The Court may call upon the Collector or Magistrate for a report on the character and qualification of any relative or friend of the Minor who may be desirous or willing to be entrusted with the charge of his property or person.

Proceeding if no title to a Certificate be established, and if there be no relative fit to be entrusted with the property &c. of a Minor.

IX. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will or Deed, and if there be no near relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property of the Minor, and the Court shall think it to be necessary for the interest of the Minor that provision should be made by the Court for the charge of his property and person, the Court may proceed to make such provision in the manner hereinafter provided.

If estate consist only of moveable property &c., Court may grant Certificate to Public Curator or other person.

X. If the estate of the Minor consist of moveable property or of houses, gardens, or the like, the Court may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act XIX of 1841, or, if there be no Public Curator, to any fit person whom the Court may appoint for the purpose.

Appointment of Guardian.

XI. Whenever the Court shall grant a Certificate of administration to the estate of a Minor to the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid, it shall at the same time appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the Minor. The person to whom a Certificate of administration has been granted, unless he be the Public Curator, may be appointed Guardian. If the person appointed to be Guardian be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Court may assign him such allowance, to be paid out of the estate of the Minor, as under the circumstances of the case it may think suitable. The Court may also fix such allowance as it may think proper for the maintenance of the Minor; and such allowance and the allowance of the Guardian (if any) shall be paid to the Guardian by the Public Curator or other person as aforesaid.

When the estate consists of land, Court may direct Collector to take charge of estate.

XII. If the estate of the Minor consist, in whole or in part, of land or any interest in land, the Court may direct the Collector to take charge of estate, and thereupon the Collector shall appoint a Manager of the Property of the Minor and a Guardian of his person, in the same manner and subject to the same rules in respect of such appointments and of the duties to be performed by the Manager and the Guardian respectively, so far as the same may be applicable, as if the property and person of the Minor were subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards.

Payment of costs.

XIII. In all enquiries held by the Civil Court under this Act, the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by the person on whose application the enquiry was made, or out of the estate of the Minor or otherwise as it may think proper.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situate, may represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Court, unless it see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall in such case appoint a Guardian for the care of the persons, and a Manager for the charge of the property of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. If the property be situate in more than one District, the representation shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the property under the Court of Wards, to the Civil Court of his own District, and the orders of the Court of that District shall have effect also in other Districts in which portions of the property may be situate.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XV. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this Act shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities.

Public Curator &c. to furnish inventory and annual accounts.

XVI. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, deliver in Court an inventory of any immoveable property belonging to the Minor, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And the Public Curator and every such other Administrator shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the year of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If any relative or friend of a Minor or any Public Officer, by petition to the Court, shall impugn the accuracy of the said inventory and statement or of any annual account, the Court may summon the Curator or Administrator and enquire summarily into the matter, and make such order thereon as it shall think proper, or the Court at its discretion may refer such petition to any subordinate Court.

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or account be impugned.

Public Curator &c. to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XVII. All sums received by the Public Curator or such other Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the Minor or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities.

Powers of person to whom Certificate has been granted in the management of a Minor's estate.

XVIII. Every person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, may exercise the same powers in the management of the Estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a Minor, and may collect and pay all just claims, debts, and liabilities due to or by the estate of the Minor. But no such person shall have power to sell or mortgage any immoveable property, or to grant a lease thereof for any period exceeding five years, without an order of the Civil Court previously obtained.

Relative or friend may sue for an account.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any relative or friend of a Minor, at any time during the continuance of the minority, to sue for an account from any Manager appointed under this Act, or from any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under the provisions of this Act, or from any such Manager or person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

Continuance of suit instituted under this Act after disqualification shall have ceased.

XX. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to continue the prosecution of the suit on his own behalf.

Revocation of Certificate.

XXI. The Civil Court for any sufficient cause may recall any Certificate granted under this Act, and may direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, or may grant a Certificate to the Public Curator or any other person as the case may be; and may compel the person whose Certificate has been recalled to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him. The Court may also for any sufficient cause remove any Guardian appointed by the Court.

Removal of Guardian.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXII. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees on any person who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court; and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court; and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Civil Court may permit resignation of trust &c.

XXIII. The Civil Court may permit any person to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under this Act not being the Public Curator, and any Guardian appointed by the Court, to resign his trust; and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands.

Remuneration of Public Curator &c.

XXIV. The Public Curator and every other Administrator to whom a Certificate shall have been granted under Section X, shall be entitled to receive such commission not exceeding five per centum on the sums received and disbursed by him, or such other allowance, to be paid out of the Minor's estate, as the Civil Court shall think fit.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education.

XXV. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court, or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of any male Minor, shall be bound to provide for his education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of all such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act XXVI of 1854 (for making better provision for the education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards) shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

Persons under the age of 18 years to be held Minors for the purposes of this Act.

XXVI. For the purposes of this Act, every person shall be held to be a Minor, who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

Act not to authorize the appointment of Guardians of certain married women and other persons.

XXVII. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of a Guardian of the person of a female whose husband is not a Minor, or the appointment of a Guardian of the person of any Minor whose father is living and is not a Minor; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the appointment of any person other than a female as the Guardian of the person of a female. If a Guardian of the person of a Minor be appointed during the minority of the father or husband of the Minor, the Guardianship shall cease as soon as the father or husband (as the case may be) shall attain the age of majority.

Guardianship during the minority of the father or husband of a Minor when to cease.

Appeals.

XXVIII. All orders passed by the Civil Court or by any Subordinate Court under this Act shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of such Court and the Subordinate Courts.

Interpretation. "Civil Court."

XXIX. The expression "Civil Court" as used in this Act shall be held to mean the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the district, and shall not include the Supreme Court; and nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the powers of the Supreme Court over the person or property of any Minor subject to its jurisdiction. Unless the contrary appears from the context, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

No. 597 of 1858.—The Governor General has much pleasure in directing the publication of the subjoined account of a very gallant and successful attack made by the Officers and Men of the Etawah Levy, upon a Force of Rebel Soldiery largely superior in numbers and well equipped. It was a daring exploit, and the Governor General desires to express his warm commendation of the courage, skill and determination which marked it. His Lordship's thanks are due to Lieutenant Forbes, Commanding the Levy; to Mr. Hume, the Magistrate of Etawah; to Mr. Maconochie; and Serjeant-Major Edmonds. The death of Mr. Doyle, who sold his life dearly at the head of the Cavalry under his Command, is a great loss to the Public Service. It will be a satisfaction to the Governor General to mark, by the grant of a Pension to Mr. Doyle's widow, his sense of the zeal and courage with which that Officer's duties have at all times been performed.

The Governor General desires to acknowledge the gallantry and good example of Ressaldar Mahomed Assudulah Khan, also an Officer of the Police Cavalry. His Lordship confers upon this brave man the 1st Class of the "Order of British India," with the Title of "Sirdar Bahadoor."

FROM LIEUTENANT FORBES,

Comdg. Etawah Yeomanry Levies,

TO W. MUIR, ESQ.,

Secy. to Govt., N. W. P., Allahabad,

Camp Sahson, 12th December 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, that an engagement took place between the Etawah Levies, with a Troop of Police Cavalry, and a large body of Rebels under Ferozeshah and other leaders.

On the afternoon of the 6th instant, while in Camp at Deenapore, intelligence reached Mr. Hume, the Magistrate, that a body of Rebels, said to be under the Nana, had crossed the Ganges; it was determined at once to march to Puppoond. The distance, 34 miles, was accomplished during the night.

During the 7th, the Rebels having arrived in the Etawah District, ravaging the villages, some information was obtained as to their numbers, and, as late at night, it was ascertained that they had surrounded the Fort of Sehar, where the Tehseeldar of Biddoonah resides, and parties were threatening Hurchundpore, the Fort of a very loyal Zemindar hard by, it was determined by Mr. Hume and myself to move out early next morning to the latter place, and attack the enemy at once, it being extremely probable that, with their superior numbers, they would choose their own opportunity and attack us at a disadvantage.

Some reinforcements reached Camp during the night, and on the morning of the 8th the Force, as per margin, left Puppoond and just about 8 o'clock A. M., came across an outlying picket of the enemy. Their cattle, elephants, &c., were grazing in the fields about 2½ miles from their main body. It was afterwards ascertained that they were surprised, no intimation of our movements having reached them. A couple of round shot drove in the picket, and another mile brought us in sight of the main body under Ferozeshah numbering 1,400 Cavalry and between one and two hundred Infantry; the latter, men of the 28th Native Infantry, who joined Ferozeshah after the evacuation of Fort Royah. The remainder of the Cavalry, 600 strong, moved off with the followers, elephants, camels, &c., to the West, some distance from the scene of action.

Our Infantry and Guns advanced in line, the left being covered by the Etawah Cavalry, the right by a Company of Infantry, in skirmishing order, and the 13th Troop Police Cavalry.

When within 600 yards of the enemy, the guns were brought into action to the front, and the Rebels, shifting a large body of Cavalry to our right, the skirmishers were recalled and the Etawah Cavalry and the 13th Troop rapidly exchanged positions. The Etawah Cavalry were advanced against the enemy under cover of the guns, which, under the able direction of Mr. Hume, who acted as Second in Command during the day, played on them to the last moment.

The Cavalry, under their gallant leader Mr. Doyle, charged a large division of the Rebels. A desperate struggle took place, Mr. Doyle distinguishing himself by the same skilful swordmanship and daring bravery which gained himself so conspicuous a name in all the affairs of the Agra Militia during 1857; when, his Horse being severely wounded, he was dismounted and cut to pieces. On this, about 50 of the men, pressed on all sides by superior numbers, gave way and, pursued by the Rebel Cavalry, swept down on our right flank. A like number got completely separated from our Force, and being prevented from rejoining by the crowd of the enemy's horsemen, made their way into Etawah; the remainder, for nearly 10 minutes, made a desperate stand over the body of their leader, and at last retired in good order.

The loss of so distinguished an Officer rendered our subsequent success most dearly fought.

Meanwhile, a party of the enemy came down on our left flank, but were stopped by two successive charges of the 13th Troop Police Cavalry, under the able leadership of Ressaldar Mahomed Assudoolah Khan, himself desperately wounded. This brave man, a model of a native Soldier, is worthy of reward, and I have the honor to request you will be good enough to move His Lordship, in order that some recognition of his distinguished services may be made; other men of this Troop also signalised themselves in hand to hand encounters.

The partial success of the Rebels on our right emboldened them. A third detachment, leaving men to engage the 13th Troop, swept round to our left rear, and attacked the Infantry Ammunition Guard; they were repulsed with loss on both sides. A fourth party, avoiding the charge of the Etawah Cavalry, passed by our right flank to the rear, and succeeded in driving off 3 camels; these were speedily re-captured by a Company of Infantry, who, extending in skirmishing order, advanced rapidly over the plain, retook the camels, and, closing up again, moved back to the guns, threatened in front and flank by the Rebel Cavalry, who seemed ubiquitous.

During their absence, Mr. Hume was left in Command of the guns, and few remaining Infantry. He was charged, front, left flank and rear, by the Rebels in great force. Three times they forced their way boldly down on the guns, which, supported by Infantry, were brought into action in the above directions; each time they were driven off with loss. This was the critical period of the fight.

The Infantry and Artillery, reserving their fire, behaved to the admiration of all. Mr. Maconochie directed 2 of the guns, and Serjeant-Major Edmonds, conspicuous for his address, contributed mainly to the repulse of the last charge, by swinging round the 12-pounder gun he was serving, and taking the enemy in their flank with a volley of grape. Such clouds of dust and smoke were raised, that, except the flashing of the sabres and the noise of the horses, little could be perceived of the movements of the enemy, until they were almost into the square of guns and Infantry.

After these repulses, they seemed to have had enough of the fight, and sheered off in all directions. The affair lasted three hours.

We gathered up our dead and wounded, and intelligence (which proved false) having been received of the advance of a large body of Infantry, it was deemed prudent to move on to our destination, Hurchundpore.

The enemy on the field numbered 1,400 Cavalry, and between one and two hundred Infantry. The only large individual bodies of men were of the 1st and 2nd Regular, and 11th, 12th and 15th Irregular Cavalry; the remainder were made up of men of every mutinied Cavalry Regiment in the Service, with 150 Seiks and Affghans, all well armed, the Cavalry well mounted.

Their loss was 58 killed, and about 25 severely wounded, who were subsequently carried off in the Doolies they had with their Force: many more were wounded and went off on their horses. Moorad Ally Khan, an Ex-Nazim of the Nawab of Furruckabad, and one of their leading Resaldars were killed; Goolam Ghah Peerjee (a disciple of the Moulvie killed at Powayn) severely wounded. These and other particulars were verified by the statements of one of the Rebel Sowars subsequently taken prisoner.

Our loss was heavy, and is detailed below.

Some carbines, muskets, and a large number of horses remained in our possession. The Rebels, encouraged by our small numbers, fought with great energy and determination. They probably comprise the best body of Cavalry in the field against us. Full particulars of the week's operations have been detailed in a report submitted by Mr. Hume.

I have, &c.,

No. 598 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C. B., Commanding Artillery Field Force, reporting the operations of a Light Column from Brigadier Troup's Brigade, and an affair with the rebels at Mehndi on the 18th November 1858.

These operations are highly approved of by the Governor General.

To Major Cox, Major of Brigade,
Brigadier Colin Troup's Field Force,
Camp Mehndi, 20th November 1858.

Sir,

I have the satisfaction of reporting for the information of Brigadier Colin Troup, Commanding Field Force, the successful operations of the Light Column as per margin, entrusted to my command. For the more perfect understanding of the performances of this Detachment, I consider it necessary to faintly trace the progress of the Column from Mittowlie. The Brigadier broke ground at about 7 o'clock on the morning of the 17th, with his Movable Column, in the order shown in margin. Crossing about ¾ of a mile of open space, our course for 3 miles was through thick trees and underwood jungle, when the country was found tolerably open for a considerable distance, here and there narrow belts of jungle, and extensive groves of mangœ and other trees, with villages and cultivation scattered over a beautifully undulating expanse, to the small town of Secundrabad, distant from Mittowlie 11 miles, which we reached about 10 ½ A. M. Here the Force rested and took refreshment for an hour. From this to Jellalpore the scenery is very similar to that south of Secundrabad; rich and picturesque. There is a gurra or fort at this place, of the general Oudh character, surrounded by thick bamboo fences, and grown over with low jungle, which the Brigadier had carefully examined previous to the Force passing by it and through the village, north of which, for a mile or two, high grass and patches of forest and cultivation are the principal features, up to the dense belt of jungle, through which we passed the last three miles of the road to the Oel Nudlee, without any event worthy of record, a little before sunset. The distance travelled to this point is about 25 miles. Whilst fording the river, having evidence of the enemy being in force at Ally Gunge and neighbouring villages, distant 3 miles to the north; in accordance with orders, I advanced at as rapid a pace as the cattle were equal to over heavy ground. The enemy opened fire upon my Detachment (consisting of 4 guns of the 3rd Troop, with Brigade Staff, 1 Squadron of the 6th Dragoon Guards, under Lieutenant-Colonel Custance, and the Mooltanee Horse, under Major Cureton). When we were about 16 hundred yards from their position, 4 light guns discharged a few shot, which fell harmless about us. The night was closing in upon us, so, if only to secure safety of our Force during the night's bivouack, I determined to dash forward to 600 and 300 yards from villages, &c., a telling range for round shot and shrapnell, which we poured into the flying foe, until I perceived that the Mooltanee Cavalry I had sent on was sufficiently advanced to fall upon their rear. To our right flank I turned the fire of our guns, and by the admirable practice of Captain Mercer and his Officers, the jungle in that direction was also cleared, and I waited the return of the Mooltanee Horse. Major Cureton could not trace the rebels, owing to the jungle and dusk; so I moved towards the main force and made my report to the Brigadier at about 7½ P. M. Major Cureton was as energetic and able in the reconnoisance, which, but for the late hour, would have been turned into a pursuit, as were the Horse Artillery in discomfiting and dislodging the rebel force, of whatever strength, from the country around the open space selected for our bivouack. In the morning, the entire Force marched to the encamping ground selected for a day's rest; but the Commanding Officer having satisfied himself that the Rebel Army, under command of their leaders, Prince Feroz Shah, Ismail Khan, Mosa Ali Khan, Waliyat Ali, the Peer Zadah and other minor Sirdars, who had been the previous day compelled to retire from Ally Gunge, had passed the night at and near to Choukutta, a village 5 miles to the east, determined on sending a Light Column in pursuit.

At 10 A. M., I received orders to move in Command of the Column as per margin, and in half an hour the Force marched. We found Major Cureton's information perfectly correct; at, and about the village of Chowkutta was abundant evidence of a large force having lately encamped there with guns, and many elephants, camels, &c. Up to the village of Mohsimabad, I followed in the track of the united rebel forces; for although they had tried very skilfully to mislead, by diverging with their guns to the right and left, and sweeping the wheel marks from the surface with bramble, &c., the attempts to mislead merely added to our labors; and during our half hour's halt at Bullarecah village, to refresh horse and man, we ascertained that Khan Ali and another Sirdar had taken the direct road to Khuree, vid Mahowagunge, with some of the guns and the principal number of elephants, camels, &c., &c., whilst Ferozeshah and the other Chiefs had made for Tendoora, having with them ten or eleven guns and about 3,000 Troops of sorts. I at once decided upon pursuing this force, as the nature of the soil, grass jungle, &c., prevented the possibility of our losing the many gun tracks, where, as along the line of ploughed country over which the Khuree force has passed, the gun tracks were obliterated by the prints of animals' and men's feet.

Head Quarters and 3rd Troop 3rd Brigade H. Arty.
1 Squadron 6th D. G. under Captain Bott.
1 Squadron Mooltanee H. under Captain Dixon.
The 4th Irregular Cavalry 300 Sabres, Commanded by Captain Hall and 80 of Her Majesty's 60 Rifles, Commanded by Captain Ellis.

We found arms and other munitions of war in the villages and huts in every direction, and secured many armed villagers, from whom I obtained valuable information, under threat of their being treated as rebels, with whom they had evidently been serving, though probably on compulsion. The same evidences of attempts to mislead were found throughout our progress, but at last, after a journey of 25 miles, wandering from south round by east, and north to west, we found the enemy retiring from the forests and villages to our front upon Mehndee, when they drew up in as good a Military position as they could select; a branch of the Chokha river secured their left flank from being turned, and high grass jungle in the rear to cover their retreat. At a distance of 16 hundred yards, they fired their first gun upon a Detachment of 4th Irregular Cavalry, which I had sent round to ascertain whether the village of Burragaon was clear of inhabitants, ere I fired upon the rebel advance picquet. Disposing of a few of the enemy, I moved the Artillery and whole line of Cavalry in admirable order to the front, disposing of the Native Cavalry in extended order, so as to show an imposing front, whilst it offered as trifling a mark for the enemy's fire as possible.

The Squadron of 6th Dragoon Guards was admirably kept in support of our guns by its gallant and most active Commander Captain Bott, assisted by Lieutenant Stoddart, throughout the fight; whilst Captain Ellis equally distinguished himself, aided most ably by Lieutenant Cox, in disposing of his skirmishers as supports to the guns, whether in battery or eschellon of half Troops. I put up with the enemy's fire in our rapid advance over the first 600 yards, keeping the sub-divisions of the Troop at double intervals, and giving their Artillerymen but little time to take aim. Though the fire from 10 pieces of ordnance was very heavy, we did not lose a man. At this point a perfect shower of shot and shell was poured into the enemy's position from our 6 guns, for about 10 minutes; the Rifles dismounted from the guns, advancing on our flanks in oblique line, so as to aid us with their fire. On perceiving that the enemy was breaking, I advanced the guns in eschellon of half batteries, so as to bring an oblique fire upon their Artillery, and throwing forward the right of the right half Troop. Captain Mercer was enabled to enfilade the rebel battery, just moving in retreat, with a smashing fire from the 3 guns, obliging them to leave them in their position; the left half Troop and supports, dashing up to the front, prevented the possibility of their being carried off. Before our second advance, the enemy commenced withdrawing two of their guns, but we compelled the rebels to drop one of these about half a mile in the direction we were pressing them, after firing its last shot. It is said that one gun drawn by horses escaped on the night overtaking us. Leaving a guard over the captured guns, I kept up the pursuit in the same order for several miles, through long grass jungle and over ground of a very broken character, attacking their various groups and giving the fugitives no rest so long as light favored us. The execution done by our grape and Rifle fire at close quarters must have been even greater than that which our round shot and shell effected at the longer ranges; another hour or two of day light would have made our victory still more complete, and enabled us to come up to the fugitives as they were attempting to cross the rapid Chokha river, in which it is reported many men and cattle were drowned. For the security of the captured guns, now 3 miles in the rear, our own safety, and in the hope of obtaining food for man and horse, I was necessitated to retire the entire Force upon the village of Mohndi, where in open ground, I placed our own and the rebel guns, and large quantity of ammunition in position, and, with the 6th Dragoon Guards and Rifles, we shared a few biscuits and the last dram per man; some straw was found which answered for our bed and only covering from the heaviest dew I can call to mind. Our horses remained saddled and in traces, with girths and bits loosened by their only attendants, their gallant European riders. The 4th Irregular Cavalry and Mooltanee Horse bivouacked in a tope and village on our flanks, and the only cause of regret was our being compelled to leave the battle field to the few of the enemy, who were observed, during the night, in their invariable occupation after battles, burying and burning their dead, and removing what they could.

It was not possible to prevent this ; my Troops had, between 10½ A. M. and dusk, made a dour of 35 miles, the last 8 or 10 of which, during a two hours' fighting, pursuit, and retirement in like order, firing to the rear ; we could not leave nor move our prize, the enemy's Artillery, and no preventive measures could have been taken over miles of high grass jungle, interspersed with deep pits and pools of water. I am at a loss for words to express my admiration of the unsurpassed performances of the Light Column I had the privilege of Commanding. Taking advantage of all favorable ground, we must have trotted 8 or 9 miles of the first 25, and during the five miles' pursuit from first sight of the enemy the trot and gallop were our only paces ; strength and energy were most fully tested, and through God's blessing not found wanting ; 65 miles over a most difficult and unknown country had been accomplished by this portion of Brigadier Troup's Field Force, between 7 A. M. of the 17th, and dusk the following evening, under circumstances but faintly described.

All our movements and firings were executed with admirable regularity, difficulties were encountered but to be overcome with an enthusiasm and spirit by the European portion of the Force, peculiarly British. The Mooltanee Horse, commanded by Captain Dixon, was most admirably directed by as active and gallant a young Officer as I would wish to serve with. Unhappily I had but a sufficient number to perform the important duty of feeling the country to our front and flanks. The 4th Irregular Cavalry advanced, as desired, with great regularity, and showed a very imposing front ; it is splendidly horsed. It appeared to the European portion of the Force that a most favorable opportunity for this young Regiment to distinguish itself in the fight was neglected ; but Captain Hall has described the obstacles and shown that the orders sent, owing to the difficulties of the jungle, &c., did not reach him. Lieutenant Cadell, who had a Detachment of this Regiment on the left of the guns, was most anxious to carry out my orders, and proved himself a zealous and intelligent Officer. At our most advanced position, whilst Captain Mercer with the right half Troop and Rifle supports was showering his grape into cover at 250 yards to his front, where a large number of the rebel Rifle and matchlockmen were secreted, two mounted leaders stole through the grass to their right. I perceived them galloping towards the left half Troop, which was firing round shot and shrapnell upon the more distant foe. Doubtful as all were whether the horsemen belonged to us or the enemy, I galloped towards Lieutenant Cadell's Detachment, called out to him and the Artillery to look out, for, as I now observed the fanatics, who came right through the guns and were at length shot down by our revolvers, or the 4th Cavalry Carbines firing at the same time. The slain were very handsome men, one a Ressaldar of the 14th Irregular Cavalry, and the other wore the 12th Cavalry pouch, a Native Officer of some grade. I distinctly saw the matchlockmen and other soldiers at the Ghat and in cover, falling under the discharges of grape from the right half Troop and Riflemen (here Captain Mercer was ably aided by Lieutenant Hume) as I did the more distant horsemen from the shot and shell most skilfully thrown by Lieutenants Taylor and Warter. The admirable practice and its effects throughout the engagement was perceived by all, owing to our open order and consequent freedom from smoke, but to none more perfectly than myself and two incomparable Orderly Officers, Captain Bishop, my able Staff, and Lieutenant Moncrief, Bengal Engineers, who offered his services. To this most promising young Officer I am especially indebted for the great intelligence and pluck he evinced in carrying my orders in an unmistakable manner to the various branches of my command ; Lieutenant Moncrief's correctness of eye and judgment for field movements enabled him, on his untiring horse, to carry out my orders with marvellous rapidity, and I can only hope that Brigadier Troup will appreciate Lieutenant Moncrief's voluntary aid as I do. All the European Officers and soldiers in the field upheld the honor of their country to my satisfaction, for I desire to judge all with reference to the materiel at their disposal and opportunities offered ! New Levies cannot be expected to evince the zeal of tried veterans, nor can the Hindoostani soldier, under the influence of fanaticism and superstitious awe of their teachers, be expected to act against their brethren (except when quite guarded against such influence) as with the Mooltanee Sikh and Afghan, against our common enemy. And I feel confident that Brigadier Troup, in forwarding this report to the Commander-in-Chief, will do me the justice of assuring His Lordship, that whilst I write and speak strongly, but faithfully, I act towards all in accordance with my estimate of their zeal and faithfulness in the discharge of duty, rather than by the amount of work they may have the ability and opportunity of performing. The following day we were engaged, as soon as the fog cleared off, in scouring the battle field, and collecting information. About 50 dead bodies, principally killed by grape, were counted, one group of 20 having been dragged together, but the evidence of a wounded soldier, some prisoners, and the inhabitants far and wide, goes to prove that the rebel army suffered great loss of men and cattle from our fire, and in attempting to cross the treacherous and rapid Chokha. Their discomfiture, all engaged can certify, was most complete, and after (reliable) evidence, proves that the proud rebel army of 4 P. M. of the 18th November, was before night fall scattered in all directions before us, and their Chiefs powerless fugitives. Captain Dixon, with his Mooltanees tracked them the following day many miles in various directions, and brought in reliable information to the above effect. Captain Clark's (Assistant Commissioner,) enquiries and observations were most valuable and generally in support of Captain Dixon's information ; I am much indebted to Captain Clark for the spirit and discriminating ability he aided me with throughout the 18th and 19th. Ensign Bird, doing duty with the 3rd Troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, Provost Marshal of the Force, accompanied my Column, and was most useful in the Intelligence Department. In conclusion, I beg to bring to favorable notice the gallant European soldiers who directed and aided, as I have tried to describe, under God's guidance and blessing, gained for Brigadier Troup's Field Force, (any Detatchment from which, under corresponding circumstances, would have executed his orders in like spirit) this glorious victory. The energy, pluck and unanimity evinced by all our countrymen engaged, could not be surpassed, and must ever be remembered by me with feelings of deep gratitude and pride. I have now the happiness of thus publicly thanking Captain Hall, and his Officers united with us in desire to perform their duty in a necessarily difficult command. Captain Bott and his Officers, who, with his 80 Sabres of the distinguished 6th Dragoon Guards, freed us from all anxiety as to Cavalry support to the guns, is as gallant as he is energetic. Lieutenant Dixon, Commanding Detachment Mooltanee Horse, notwithstanding the serious injury lately received, and only partially recovered from, claims my highest praise for thus representing his gallant Commander, Major Cureton ; of Captain Ellis and his most active Subaltern, Lieutenant Cox, who, when the two half Troops worked independently or in eschellon, shared the command with him, I need but remark that they do honor to that honor'd Corps (which has been so long and gloriously united in work and spirit with the Bengal Artillery), Her Majesty's 60th Rifles. 2nd Captain C. Mc. W. Mercer, who Commanded the Troop, (owing to Lieutenant Colonel Remmington's illness) with his three most zealous Subalterns, performed their work to the admiration of all, without an accident or hesitation throughout the day, notwithstanding the pace we kept up over rough and jungle country, interspersed by difficulties so greatly hidden from view, requiring great skill in directing and driving; and when it is borne in mind that the 36 Riflemen had to keep their seats on the ammunition boxes, our freedom from accident entitles Captain Mercer and his noble Troop to the highest praise. To the Medical Officers, Drs. Davenport, Jones, and Oliver, I am much indebted for the zealous performance of their duties whilst exposed, as other Officers, to the dangers of the battle. Dr. Oliver took charge of the Artillery Hospital (on my soliciting Dr. Bowhill to remain with the Head Quarters of the Field Force in his important charge) and gave me much satisfaction. Of my Staff, Captain Bishop, I have so frequently had occasion to write and speak in the highest terms of praise, that I will merely remark that on this occasion too, he aided me with his usual spirit and abilit*y*, meriting my gratitude.

I have, &c.

Opium Notification.

Fort William, the 1st December 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday, the 10th January 1859, at the hour of Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, will be put up to Sale, at the Exchange Rooms at Calcutta, and sold by Public Auction, for exportation by Sea, the under-mentioned quantity of Opium, the Provision of 1857-58, subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

Produce of Behar Agency	...	Chests 1,915
Ditto of Benares ditto	...	„ 345
Total Chests	...	2,260

Conditions of Sale.

1. The Opium will be sold for exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such export.

2. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of, or if the quantity of 2,260 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000 at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, the 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Resale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses, whatsoever attending such Resale, shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Resale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7. No tender of money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M., of Tuesday, the 25th January 1859, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per Cent even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or Chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Resale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Resale.

9. Purchasers taking out Certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or order and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lot or of a different number of lots, or Chests, whether more or less than the number of lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or order.

10. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present conditions, will be received in this Office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual unless such individual shall on demand tender at the time of deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid, or to Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the Second Clause of these Conditions.

13. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession at the same price and under the same conditions any number of lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and all and every plea and pleas to the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the examination of such Opium.

16. The Public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1857-58, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares and a Statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue. Four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, viz., two of the Season's provision under Sale, and two of the previous Season will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the Sale and delivery of the Opium for Shipment.

18. The Public are hereby informed that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned for Sale in January, the following quantities more or less of Behar and Benares Opium of 1857-58 will be brought to Sale in the year 1859, on or about the dates specified below. The Board, however, reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates should circumstances render it expedient to do so:—

19. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1859, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisitions for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year, within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 27,173 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

PEARL FISHERY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Pearl Fishery will take place at Aripo, in the Island of Ceylon, on or about the 1st of March next 1859, and that the Banks to be fished are the Modregam Bank, and that portion of the North-west part of the Chivel Paar Bank left unfinished last March, estimated to contain Oysters sufficient to employ fifty Boats for fifteen days.

It is therefore recommended, that such Boat-owners and Divers as may wish to be employed at the said Fishery should be at Aripo, on or before the 20th February next. And it is particularly notified, that the first day's fishing will positively take place on the first day in March that the weather may permit the Boats to fish.

The Fishery will be conducted on account of Government, and the Oysters put up to sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

The arrangements of the Fishery will be the same as have been usual on similar occasions.

All payments to be made in Ready Money in Ceylon Currency, or in East India Company's Rupees.

Drafts on the Banks in Colombo, or Bills on the Agents of this Government in India, at Ten days' Sight will be taken, on Letters of Credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such Drafts or Bills.

For the convenience of Purchasers, the Treasurer at Colombo and the different Government Agents of Provinces, will be authorized to receive Cash Deposits from parties intending to become Purchasers, and Receipts of these Officers will be taken in payment of any sums due on account of the Fishery.

No deposit will be received for a less sum than fifty pounds.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. J. MACCARTHY,
Colonial Secretary.
